Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive Futurity in Ponoka Hosts Stellar Competition

By Hope Raley

The barrel horse futurity industry is on a roll! With the big purses happening right now in barrel racing, it is no wonder that more and more trainers, jockeys and owners are getting involved in the futurity world. One organization that hosts one of the largest paying incentive futurities of the year (US and CA included) that does not receive the recognition it deserves is the Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive.

The Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive is a non-profit organization that was initiated in 2004 at a kitchen table in Canada surrounded by friends who dreamed of bringing an incentive program and futurity of huge proportions to Canada. The CBHI is an incentive program that was established to help promote Canadian barrel horse breeders, and in its first year, it had 13 breeders and a handful of stallions enrolled. Fast forward to year 2017 and it now has over 150 stallions enrolled from British Columbia to Manitoba! In 2014, the first Super Stakes Futurity was held and in 2014 the first Super Stakes Derby was held. The Super Stakes Incentive has grown substantially throughout the years since and is on the fast path of being of the largest incentive programs in barrel racing.

The Super Stakes is run as a side-pot in both the futurity and the derby. Money for the Super Stakes Incentive is raised directly from the stallion auction, and for a CBHI horses to be eligible for the Super Stakes, the stallion of said-horse must have been enrolled in the Stallion Auction that year. All Super Stakes horses receive a certificate, and there is three ways that a horse can be eligible for the CBHI Super Stakes Futurity and Derby.

One of those ways is through the annual CBHI Horse Sale held in conjunction with the Super Stakes, Futurity, Derby and Open held in Ponoka, Alberta. Foals enrolled in the sale are by stallions who are paid into the Stallion Incentive and are then eligible to run at the insanely large amount of added money in the Super Stakes as a futurity and derby horse. This year the Super Stakes Futurity Champion saw a check of $42,000 being deposited into their bank account!

Gerwatoski Gallops to Victory in Super Stakes and Futurity Ponoka is home to this year's CBHI Super Stakes and Futurity Champion Kim Gerwatoski. Gerwatoski clenched both the Super Stakes and Futurity title aboard SR Famosinparadise and finished 3rd in the futurity average on her other futurity horse Letta Shawne Bug U.

SR Famosinparadise is the 4-year-old son of Canadian Stand-

AQHA/PRCA Horses of the Year announced

Five first-time winners were chosen as American Quarter Horse Association/Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Horses of the Year, which were announced Oct. 10.

Three horses were named in each of the six categories, and the lone repeat champion was team roping heeling horse Zans Colonel Shine (Colonel), which is the mount for Jake Long.

Long enters his seventh Wrangler National Finals Rodeo presented by Polaris RANGER fifth in the WEATHER GUARD® PRCA World Standings. Long owns the horse with his wife, Tasha, and the horse helped him win rodeos at the Gladewater (Texas) Round-Up Rodeo, and Kit Carson County Fair & Rodeo (Burlington, Colo.) with partner Luke Brown, who is fourth in the team roping header standings.

“It means a lot to me and my family and any time people recognize your animal with something like this (Horse of the Year), it makes you feel good,” Long said. “Colonel is good in every setup. I can ride him anywhere from Salinas to the (Thomas & Mack Center) at the NFR. He never cost me money and it is never his fault. The cool thing about him is he really likes to go and compete.” On the other side of team roping, Chad Masters’ horse Madison Oak (Clint), an 11-year-old he has owned since the horse was 4, took top honors. Masters, a two-time world champion (2007, 2012), is headed to his 11th WNFR. Masters and his partner, Travis Graves, had a strong regular season, which included Masters riding Clint to the win at California Rodeo Salinas. Masters enters Las Vegas seventh in the world standings.

Back in 2015, Clint finished third in the AQHA/PRCA Horse of the Year voting.

“For the group of horses that are in there, for mine to do good, means a lot to me,” Masters said.

The bulldogging mount which won Horse of the Year is Canted Plan (Scooter), owned by Tyler Pearson and Kyle Irwin. Pearson enters his second WNFR third in the world standings and Irwin is 11th.

During Pearson’s career-best regular season he had several wins, including at the Wrangler Champions Challenge presented by Justin Boots (Sioux Falls, S.D.), and the Lawton (Okla.) Rangers Rodeo. Irwin, meanwhile, is headed to his third WNFR and had big wins aboard Scooter at the Cody (Wyo.) Stampede, the Canby (Ore.) Rodeo, and the St. Paul (Ore.) Rodeo.

“We’re pumped that he won this award,” Pearson said. “Kyle and I knew he deserved this, and I’m really happy that several other people thought the same.” Irwin concurred with Pearson.

“Scooter is a one-of-a-kind horse,” Irwin said. “He has a personality. He’s a winner.”

Shane Hanchey’s tie-down roping horse, Simon Cow (Si), claimed the top spot. Hanchey, the 2013 world champion, has owned the horse since May of 2015, and he helped Hanchey finish third in the regular season world standings and qualify for his eighth career WNFR.

“It’s pretty cool that I now have a Horse of the Year,” Hanchey said. “He’s an easy-going horse that doesn’t care about anything, and he got this Horse of the Year honor because any style of roper can win on him and he’s good at any setup.”

The steer roping horse which took the top spot was John Bland’s Carols Sassy Doc (Salty). The horse helped Bland have the best season of his career and powered him to his first appearance at the Clem McSpadden National Finals Steer Roping, Nov. 10-11 in Mulvane, Kan.

out Barrel Stallion Hezgottabefamous by the great Dash Ta Fame. "Elvis" as they affectionately call the sorrel blazed face gelding is out of Chicky Kilo Doc who is by Docs Paradise. "Elvis" was bred by Sandy Ridge Stallion Station, who owns Hezgottabefamous, and was sold in the CBHI Horse Annual to Gerwatoski in 2013.

"I picked him out on paper," laughed Gerwatoski. "I think that his paternal side is the magic cross on Docs Paradise, so when I saw his breeding, I knew that I needed to buy him. I stopped on my way to a rodeo to check him out at the sale, and I had a friend bid on him for me."

Gerwatoski describes "Elvis" as very friendly, and very lazy! "It literally took me a year and a half to lope a big circle around a barrel on him. He was incredibly lazy and would almost always break to a trot when loping. I tried different things with him, but once I learned that that was how he was and I couldn't change it, things really started to gin."

It wasn't until Gerwatoski exhibited "Elvis" as an early 4-year-old that he really got the taste of speed.

"He come off that third barrel in the barn in Ponoka, which from third barrel to home is very open and long, and after doing that about 2 times, he decided that going fast was fun and something he wanted to do," Gerwatoski said.

Coming into the weekend, Gerwatoski's plan was to have smooth and fast runs on both her horses. In the first round of futurity, Super Stakes horses were to run first and that put Gerwatoski and "Elvis" as first out.

"I got up at 4:30 to get there by 6, but exhibitions had already sold out by 5:30. I had just wanted to trot Elvis through, and thankfully I got an exhibition from a friend."

"Being first out was exciting and nerve-wracking all at the same time. I had to wait and see if my time would hold through the remaining tough field of horses entered in both the Super Stakes side pot and actual futurity," Gerwatoski explained.

Her time of 17.431 in the first round, landed her third in the futurity and leading the Super Stakes. Going into the second round, Gerwatoski wanted to make another clean and smooth run to seal the Super Stakes win and a chance at the futurity average. With another beautiful run of 17.457, Gerwatoski had sealed the deal in the Super Stakes and was sitting first in the average going into the short round of the futurity.

"Before the short round in the futurity, the awards and checks were presented to the Super Stakes Champion. I had to lead Elvis into the middle of the arena and the crowd was going wild. I had to run back to the trailer and get a set of ear-plugs because he can get a little nervous with all of that sound," Gerwatoski commented. "After the awards for the Super Stakes, we were ready to see how the cards were going to fall in the futurity."

In addition to SR Famosinparadise, Gerwatoski also made the short round on Letta Shawne Bug U. Letta Shawne Bug U "Fate" is a 5-year-old buckskin mare by Letta Hank Do It and out of Sissy B Bug by Shawne Bug. In the first round of the futurity, "Fate" and Gerwatoski shut the clock off with a 17.669, and then a 17.607 in the second round. With two incredible horses, back to the short round, Gerwatoski was feeling incredibly blessed and grateful. "I couldn't be any prouder of how both horses performed all weekend."

With "Fate" first in the short round, Gerwatoski finished her run on the talented buckskin mare before channeling the rest of her energy to "Elvis".

"I only had a one-horse split between my two horses, so I made sure to take my time and not let my adrenaline from running Fate transfer onto Elvis, said Gerwatoski. "Fate is more push-type and I really need to ride her hard, and Elvis is the complete opposite. I needed to make sure that after I was done running Fate, not to transfer that energy and adrenaline over to Elvis."

With most of her adrenaline and excitement set aside, Gerwatoski and "Elvis" made their way down the alleyway, with the help of Gerwatoski's good friend Cheryl Stratton. Before taking off, "Elvis" took a split-second to relish the moment, which you can see in the video explains Gerwatoski.

"After he decided it was time for business, he took off and smoked his first barrel. I had to do a leg lift around the second barrel in order not to hit it and he smoked the third. We ended up running the fastest time of the weekend at that point and Fate ended up third in the short round as well."

Running a 17.123 aboard "Elvis" and a 17.374 aboard "Fate", Gerwatoski was in for a big hefty pay-day. She won the Super Stakes, both 1st and 3rd in the futurity average, as well as several round paychecks. Once her total was tallied, Gerwatoski ended up pocketing over $50,000!

"It is truly a dream come true. Both horses worked outstanding and I couldn't be any more grateful," said Gerwatoski. "The board of directors and all personal in charge were absolutely phenomenal. They did a superb job and winning this was on my list of goals! I can now cross that off and move onto the next!"

Gerber and DHR Whatta Money Man Cash In

Go For Broke Productions, Showdown Finals
October 6-8, 2017, Cedar Rapids, IA

Kelly Gerber and DHR Whatta Money Man top the 1st annual Go For Broke Showdown Finals event in commanding fashion. Gerber and the 11 year old bay gelding (Oh Whatta Boy x Me And Red Money) affectionately known as "Dinero" are no strangers to the winner's circle having won the 2017 BRF Championship in June, but the gelding has been sidelined due to an injury since the beginning of July and had the past 3 months off. The GFB show-down finals event marked his return to the arena. "Dinero came back [from his injury] and ran the 2 fastest times of the weekend, winning Saturday and the finals round. He just amazes me! A huge THANK YOU to Lynde Johnson and Go For Broke Productions for such a nice weekend! The ground, payout, and awards were AMAZING!" Kelly and her horses, are sponsored by MVP products from United Vet Equine.

"An outstanding crowd of tough competitors from 8 states joined us this past weekend. Today's barrel racers have so many great events to choose from and I am thankful for the contestants that choose to "Go For Broke" with us," said Lynde Johnson, owner of GFB Productions. "These events would not be possible without the dedicated team that helps make up Go for Broke Productions, tractor drivers, barrel setters, announcer, time keeper, office staff and gate officials that go above and beyond to ensure a smooth running event each and every weekend. I'd also like to send a thank you to our series sponsors, Purina Feeds, MVP products, Top Notch Equine, Jan's Sewtique, Draw It Out Liniment, Dream Big Hidez and Prime Performance Nutrition,"

Total event payout $52,734 plus more than $13,000 in awards including: 5 Trophy Saddles (sponsored by OE Nutraceuticals, Circle

S Farms, Healthy Coat and Blanchfield Livestock) 10 Trophy jackets (sponsored by Cowgirl Tuff Co.) 19 Trophy buckles (sponsored in part by Cross D Ranch, Lacina Farms, Huebsch Family, Todd Family, Schrock Family, Renegade Arena and Snider Farms)

About the Series The fall 2017 and 2018 Go For Broke Barrel Race calendar of events can be found online www.GoForBrokeProductions.com

Events are produced by Go For Broke Productions of Stanhope, Iowa. Admission is free for spectators.

Hansen & Routier Earn National Circuit Finals Berths at Badlands Finals

By Tanya Randall

Nikki (Steffes) Hansen and Jessica Routier will represent the Badlands Circuit at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla., next year. Hansen and her great gelding Sky High Guy topped the Badland Circuit Finals Rodeo, held Oct. 5-8 in Minot, N.D., while Routier and the talented mare Fiery Miss West, owned and bred by Gary Westergren, maintained their lead over Hansen to win the Year-End Championship.

Hansen of Dickinson, N.D., and 13-year-old Sky won the first and fourth round and placed in the second and third round to win $7,967, which counts toward the 2018 WPRA World Standings.

"My horse was so solid there," said Hansen, who wanted thank her husband Alfred as well as their families for making rodeoing possible. "I just can't say enough great things about him. He's been so solid all year in any situation. All my runs were really smooth. My second run was the slowest and I had little trouble with my first—the pen at Minot is really tricky: it's small and you come into the first barrel blind. I had come into my first a little too straight and cut off my pocket, so that made him be a little slower. This was just an exceptional circuit finals. There were tough runs every night and for him to place in all four rounds, it was amazing. I was so proud of him."

Finishing right behind Hansen in the average was her sister 2016 College National Champion Kristi Steffes and Captain Mitos Legacy.

"It was a fun summer for us to both qualify and then both do well at the finals," said Hansen. "It was just a fun weekend. I'm proud of her too. She's won so much on Captain. It was really fun to have those two Frenchmans Guy's do so well there."

Bred by Bill and Deb Myers, Sky is by Frenchmans Guy out of the Pie In The Sky mare Fleeting Pie.

Hansen, fresh off a 2012 National Finals Rodeo qualification, started riding Sky in 2013 and ultimately ended up purchasing him. During the 2014 winter run, Sky tore his superficial flexor tendon just below his right knee at the Dixie National PRCA Rodeo in Jackson, Miss.

Lisa Anderson encouraged Hansen to send Sky to Copper Spring Ranch in Bozeman, Mont., for rehabilitation under the direction of noted veterinary surgeon Dr. Chris Ray, who was visiting the facility every six weeks.

"Sky stayed there from February 2014 until September 2014," Hansen explained. "I picked him up in September and started riding him again, planning my big comeback, I guess. I had gone to Arizona the next year and had made a couple of runs on him, and he got hurt again. Same leg, different tendon. Dr. Ray said is was just really bad luck."

Sky went back to Copper Spring for another round of rehab, but this time Hansen was very, very slow to bring him back.

"He was there from February until May of 2015," she said. "I did a lot of trotting and loping. I feel like an expert in tendon injuries now. Mostly, I just waited and waited. I waited a long time. I can't thank Dr. Ray and Copper Spring enough. If not for them, I wouldn't have my horse back. They were awesome."

His first big run back was a year later in May of 2016 at Cloverdale, B.C., and he ended up qualifying Hansen for another Badlands Circuit Finals Rodeo that fall.

"The first year I rode him at Minot at the circuit finals, he won the average in 2013," Hansen noted. "He was injured in 2014 and 2015. Last year, he did outstanding at circuit finals. Jana (Griemsman) won the year-end and average, and I was second in the year-end, so I got to go to Florida."

The four-time NCFR qualifier is hoping her return trip to Florida will be a little better than last year's. She had just had she and Al-

"I look back and think we went all the way to Florida and Elsie was only a month old?" she exclaimed. "I don't feel that I was as on top of my game as I could have been. I think it was also hard on Sky too coming from North Dakota. We had such a cold winter. Alfred rode him for me all winter and kept him in shape, but to go from Dickinson, N.D., to Kissimmee, Fla., was a huge change. He was so hot and miserable. Hopefully, we can both be a little more competitive than we were last year."

Hansen is also qualified to RFD-TV's The American Semifinals, so she has another reason to head out a little early for some winter rodeos down south.

"I don't really know what my plans are," said Hansen, who also wanted to thank her sponsors Rock N Roll Cowgirl and Tech Mix. "I would like to go down and go to some winter rodeos, and get

Todd & Riggle Florida Bound After Turquoise Circuit Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Lori Todd of Wilcox, Ariz., cleaned house in the Turquoise Circuit, winning both the Year-End Championship as well as the Turquoise Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 5-7 in Prescott, Ariz. Joining Todd at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla., is year-end and finals reserve champion Nicole Riggle of Scottsdale, Ariz.

Todd went into the Turquoise Circuit Finals leading the year-end standings with $10,566 despite having her last year's champion, Dashin Red Warrior, sidelined most of the year with an infected tendon sheath that required surgery. She relied heavily on her older gelding, Wranglers Bedrock, by MP Rock The Creek out of Bed Wild, by the Beduino son Late To Bed.

The 14-year-old homebred gelding was supposed to her son's rope horse, but when the gelding started running off in the roping pen, Todd started working him on the barrels. Her daughter rode him her senior year of high school and did well in spite of the Wrangler's inexperience. Fortunately for Todd, Wrangler didn't take the transition to college rodeo.

"He started running off with her, and I got him back," said Todd. "I did a bunch of vet work and chiropractic work trying to figure out what was up with him. Horse's just don't quit working for no reason. The chiro helped a little. The vet work helped a little, but he still would run off with me."

Then Todd learned about equine ulcers. She took Wrangler off anything with molasses and grain. She fed him Total Equine and Tech Mix and Omega Gold.

"My horse started changing," she said. "When Dashin Red Warrior got hurt, I thought, 'I'm not going all the way back there (to Florida) with him and making three runs, but my husband said, 'Nope, we're doing it.' He just held together and did amazing. I just feel getting his stomach under control made all the difference." At the Circuit Finals, Todd and Wrangler placed second in the first round and won the second and third rounds en route to the average win and $7,709.

"We got to work our horses the night before, which helped a bunch," Todd said. "It was a new arena and new ground. I was really appreciative of that. I worked him and felt good. On my first run, he missed the barrel. When I worked him, I didn't run him from the alley like I did in the perf. I told myself, 'Keep you head on.' He came back the next night and nailed it. I didn't even know I won it; I was just excited I nailed it. The last run, he felt wild, but he nailed the barrels. I couldn't hear the time, but I could hear the crowd, so I figured it had to be pretty good."

more acclimated, but I just feel like I have a lot of irons in the fire."

Routier, too, knows about having lots of irons in the fire. The now five-time NCFR qualifier from Buffalo, S.D., is a rancher's wife and mother of five.

"I have a lot of help," laughed Routier, who's children range in age from 12 to 15 months, including nearly 3-year-old twins. Her oldest daughter, Peyton, 9, is also an avid trick rider and opened the Badlands Circuit Finals each night by carrying the American Flag while standing on her horse.

With her hands full with little ones, Routier stopped taking outside horses for training with the exception of Westergren's.

"I've ridden horses for him for probably six or seven years now," said Routier. "Missy came to me when she was 2 and we had Kevin Rahn break her for us. We ranched on her and turned her into a barrel horse. I futuriated her last year and she did very well. She only went to seven futurities because I had a baby at the end of June last year. That took us out for the first half of the year. I started rodeoing on her this winter and she just really excelled."

Routier rode Missy to all of her $25,090 that earned her the Year-End Championship. They picked up $4,193 at the Circuit Finals, having placed in the first round and winning the third round with the fastest time of the rodeo, a 13.54.

"Minot is kind of a difficult arena, especially for a young horse, mainly because it's so small and you can't see the first barrel," said Routier. "We were struggling to nail our first barrel like she can. I decided after the second round that we were taking too wide of an angle going into it. So, we made some adjustments for third round. They said we set a new arena record, but I'm not sure if that's confirmed."

Having finished third in the average behind Steffes and Captain Mitos Legacy, by Frenchmans Guy, Missy makes all three of the top horses at the Badlands Circuit Finals descendants of the Cowan Family's and Frances Loiseau's programs.

Missy is by Firewater Frenchman, a son of Fire Water Flit out of PCFrenchmansLisbet, a full sister to Kristie Peterson's four-time WPRA World Champion French Flash Hawk ("Bozo") and WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday. Her dam is Frenchmans Bo Dashus, by racing champion sire Royal Quick Dash out of PC Frenchmans Bojet.

Routier plans on continuing the mare's rodeo career, and like Steffes, will head south in February for RFD-TV's The American Semifinals.

"We're going to keep rodeoing on her," said Routier, who wanted thank her family and friends for all their help and support. "We may try to go to few of the bigger winter rodeos while we're en route to (the American Semifinals). We're just going to keep on doing what we're doing."

They finished the year with $18,275 in Circuit earnings and will make their second straight trip to Kissimmee. "I'm ready," she said. "I know I did good there last year, but I think I can do better."

Todd traveled more in 2017 "testing the waters" in hopes of cracking into the Top 40 to be eligible for the limited entry rodeos in 2018.

"I ended up 49th," laughed Todd, who wanted to thank Tech Mix, her family and God. "I was supposed to go to the Northwest, but when I got ready to leave, I got really sick. I don't get sick. I'm a pretty healthy person and I got the flu. I just couldn't do it. I thought, 'Well, it's a closed door and it is what is.' Then I entered Waco (for the WPRA World Finals) when they opened that door to let two people qualify for Houston. So, I'm going to see what happens there."

Riggle can thank her bay gelding Shoeless Joe Biankus for pushing her into the No. 2 spot and earning her first trip to Kissimmee by a mere $5.95. Riggle finished the season with $8,815.81, while Sarah Kieckhefer ended up third with $8,809.86.

"That pen was just his set up," said Riggle of the 14-year-old gelding by NFR qualifier Captain Biankus out of Shes Gotspeedy Shoes, by Beduinos Best Boy. "He loves the small little indoor pens. I was really excited to be running there with him."

They earned $4,762 to move up to second in the year-end standings with $8,816, by winning the first round with a blistering 15.18 and placing third in the second round.

"The first run, he just worked awesome. I just stuck to my game plan of just allowing him to pick his spot. He's such a seasoned rodeo horse that he just goes in there and does his thing, and if I stay out of his way that's when we have our best runs. He just worked a perfect pattern."

"The second night I had a little trouble moving him over for the second barrel. Luckily, he moved over on his own. We still had a pretty decent time, placing third."

They were leading the average going into the third round, but ended up on the bottom of the ground via random draw.

"I knew I needed to keep the barrels up, so he just went in there and did his job," she said. "I think he did safety up because we were 12th on the ground. I think that's why we were a little bit slower. He just didn't get in there like he normally does."

Riggle said she plans on seasoning her young mare So Streakin Famous at the outdoor runs, while Shoe gets to focus on the indoor runs. One of the bigger indoor runs, she has coming up for the 2018 season is the WPRA World Finals.

"I want to see how we do there," said Riggle, who wanted to thank her sponsors Usher Brand, Formula 1 Noni, Seabuck, AquaStride HydroTherapy at Tucson Equestrian Center, Copper Ridge Equine Hospital, Laneway and American Family Feed. "If we win some money, I might go a bit this winter. I always like going to Fort Worth and San Angelo. If we do good at WPRA Finals, we might get into San Antonio and that's his favorite arena. I'd absolutely love to be able to run him there again. So, the WPRA Finals needs to go well."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I'm sure that we have all had the thought, "Now I've seen everything!" It's thinking, in THIS situation, this will/did/could happen. And if we aren't careful, those things become 'absolutes' in our life and we just can't see it any other way. I'm as guilty as the next person. But recently, I've been challenged in this thinking every day!

I like cats. Outside cats. We need them here to keep the mice out of everything. We have a few tame ones, but the rest are pretty skittish. And I am a huge sucker for a little kid. So when my friends' granddaughter needed a home for a couple more...but these kittens were different! They have six toes. And they came already named! Turbo and Velcro. Well...they think they are dogs. I don't know how they ever got it in their heads, but they do dog things. They come when they are called. They heel. They run and greet us when we drive up in the pickup. My mind tilts every time I witness this. And they are so excited to see us!

It's changing me. And I was reminded, from experience, just how people can put others in a box. When you ask Jesus to be the Lord of your life, the Bible says in 2 Cor. 5:17, "behold, old things have passed away and all things have become new." And from experience, I can tell you that no matter how God turns your life around, there will be those who just can't see you in any light but the old you. They remember everything stupid and evil you have ever done. It's sad. I can tell you that when God gets a hold of you, you do NOT want to be stupid and evil anymore. You want to be like HIM. Let's don't be guilty of keeping cats, cats...when they really want to be dogs!!
