Judge Buy Cash “Jethro” Sidelined

Brenda Mays and her black mount Jethro (Judge Buy Cash) are headed into the NFR in the #4 in the WPRA Pro Rodeo Standings with $87,960 in earnings for the year. However, Jethro is sidelined for a while this fall. After a bad slip and catching a barrel as he came up in Bremerton, WA he started to show signs of being less than 100%. It was found that he injured his medial collateral ligament in his stifle and his left front suspensory. Jethro is currently healing well and is still expected to compete at the NFR.

Joe B Jammin Retired

A new DVD by trainer and instructor Sue Bologna is not only a moving nod to the retirement this year of one of the barrel racing industry’s all-time greatest horses, but describes the foundation for Bologna’s successful program.

Top 10 Tips to Better Barrel Racing is dedicated to the great Joe B Jammin, an eye-catching bay gelding that turned 19 this spring and was still clocking event fast-times as recently as 2010.

By the racehorse Joe Tee (Top Moon by Miss Joe Baby) and out of a daughter of the great cutter Ned Rey, “Jammer” was a product of J&B Breeding in Pennsylvania and was orphaned at just a week old. He began his stellar 15-year career gathering some $12,000 with a limited futurity schedule, and owns an Old Fort Days derby championship, a BFA World Championship Sweepstakes title, a BFA reserve derby world championship and an IBRA National 1D Championship.

Jammer won the always-wicked Quarter Horse Congress Sweepstakes three separate times (twice with Bologna and once with Kelley Jones) and was the reserve AQHA Senior world champion under Martha Josey. Bologna, Josey and Jeana Finlinson placed at prestigious pro rodeos on Jammer, who also earned the AQHA’s Best of America award. He won trailers, saddles and buckles in addition to more than a half-million dollars – and that’s despite two colic surgeries that effectively ended his potential at pro rodeos.

Bologna, a veteran riding instructor, was asked by fans at a recent seminar in Columbus, Ohio, to put her program on video. The result is this DVD of her best tips, which is also a tear-jerker considering it’s filled with Jammer’s competitive runs and peppered with Bologna’s motivational words and music.

“Sue has put so much of her determination, dedication and desire in this DVD that every barrel racer, beginner or pro, will benefit from it,” says Martha Josey.

Via photos, videos and diagrams, Bologna details the importance of groundwork, personal fitness, equipment and balance. She explains the two main causes of performance problems in horses how to ride from tail to head instead of vice versa and how to use more lower body cues. You’ll discover the advantages of split reins and how not to confuse your turning rein and lateral rein, as well as learn three useful exercises to do with cones.

For more information, call 724-452-8777 or email sue@suebologna.com.

Seis So Sweet Success for Graves at Hawki Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Old Fort Days Champions Seis So Sweet and Lance Graves added another win to their impressive resume at Double B's Hawki Futurity, Oct. 7-9 at the Lancaster Events Center in Lincoln, Neb. The duo topped the $5,000-added open futurity for $3,629 of the $21,599 total purse.

The futurity used the format developed by the JB Quarter Horses Futurity where a qualifying round splits the field in half with the fastest qualifiers coming back for a Championship Round and the slowest half making their second run in a Consolation Round.

Graves and Seis So Sweet, a 4-year-old buckskin mare by Tres Seis out of Stella D Oro, by Takin On The Cash, turned in the fourth fastest time in the qualifying round to qualify for the Championship Round. In the Championship Round, they turned in the fastest time of the event, a 16.868 on a WPR Standard Pattern, to win the title.

"That's the fastest time I've ever run on a full set," said Graves, Hartshorne, Okla. "She's an amazing mare. She's amazingly healthy and has never been injected. She's so physically strong and mentally stable. She's always there when I need her. She always shows up to work. She's really fun to ride. I can always tell when an event has been webcast by the number of private messages I get on Facebook; she has fans all over the world!"

With carryover times, they picked up an additional $1,304 in the open 4Ds for total weekend earnings of $4,933. Graves estimates that the mare has won about $85,000 thus far.

Seis So Sweet, or "Biscuit" as the Graves crew calls her, is owned by Bruce and Connie Vansickle of Nashport, Ohio.

"I have to thank the Vansickle family," said Graves, who also praised the Lancaster Events Center as well as the prompt and professional Double B crew, captained by Renea Bolling. "I couldn't ask for better, more appreciative owners."

Although they've received incredible offers on the mare, the Vansickles have no plans to sell Biscuit. Their grown daughter Valerie will take over jockey duties after the BFA World Futurity.

The Consolation title went to Jenna Cadwallader and Platinum PI, owned by Phil Dennis of Nanton, Alberta, Canada. Cadwallader, who hails from Phoenix, Ariz., and Platinum PI turned in a 17.027 to earn $2,419.

Platinum PI, a 2006 stallion, is by Bill Cole out of Strate Corona, by Corona Cartel. The stallion, who carries a speed index of 97, ran on the track until last year, scoring 2 wins and nearly $18,000 in earnings. He's also a graded stakes finalist on the track.

In the Hawki Breeders Incentive Futurity, Ryann Pedone of Decatur, Texas, and her home-raised Kiss This Guy continued on their winning streak. The breeders incentive portion of the event was determined on a two-run aggregate.

Pedone and "Tyson" turned in runs of 17.147 and 17.168, which placed them second in each round, to have the winning aggregate time of 34.315. Their victory was worth $2,210.

They also finished fourth in the open futurity for $1,814, picked up $523 in open 1D money and collected $900 in Barrel Racing In-

Guys Champagne Girl, rode by Cami Bauer and owned by Bill & Deb Myers of St. Onge, SD, won the qualifying round with a 16.910. This run, the 2nd fastest of the weekend, not only won the 1D on Saturday, it also earned her the title of HFBI Champion along with a saddle for her efforts. Guys Champagne Girl is by Frenchmans Guy and out of Hot Brandi N Wine out of Hot Colours. All totaled, the event awarded more than $85,000.

- Murphys Trinket (KR Tuxedo si 75)

Trixie is a cute, quick footed mare with a pretty golden palomino coat to go with it. She is soft, confident and trainable and currently stands about 14 hands and end up around 14.3. Her dam, Murphys Trinket, was a rope horse and ranch horse who is a mix of Streakin Six, Dash For Cash and Dr Kirk on the top and a finished cutting horse that traces back to Royal King on the bottom. Lockhart Cracks the Code at Badlands Circuit Finals

Lisa Lockhart & An Oakie With Cash
Badlands Circuit Finals

BRR: What was the key to staying so consistent through the Circuit Finals?

Lockhart: You just have to go out there and do your job every time and the clock will tell the story. The first barrel there was tricky because it was a little blind and a short run to it, so you had to get it just right. Saturday night, my 11 year old son, Thane, told me for my run on Sunday, "You don't need to go in there and try to win the round, you just need to keep them standing." So on Sunday, I was thinking about that as I gave a little extra room around the barrels. I didn't want to go too safe though because that can get you in trouble too.

BRR: What is your warmup routine?

Lockhart: I want to be on 30-45 minutes before I run. I don't think it takes that long but it is nice to have extra time to gather your thoughts and not be rushed. It is just my routine. Basically, I start out walking and I do a lot a long trotting and lope a few circles. Just keep it simple and keep the horse relaxed. If something comes up that needs done I will change what I am doing. For instance, if a horse is fresh I will maybe ride them longer or if they are stiff I will supple them some. Warming up Chisum or Louie, I keep it pretty simple. After I warmup I come back and put my boots on put my running bridle on and get ready to go. As you get older, you develop your own routine or style. It's interesting to watch everyone's warm-up routine. A lot of us are at the same rodeos all the time and you see people go through their own warmup routine at each rodeo and each routine is different. There's no right or wrong way, it just has to be what is comfortable to you.

BRR: What are your plans for between now and finals?

Lockhart: I plan to stay pretty close to home and go to Billings and then I also entered Kansas City but I don't know if I will go there for sure yet. Then the next rodeo is the Canadian Finals, then the NFR. I will be riding Louie at the CFR and the NFR. Chisum is having surgery to remove a chip off of his coffin bone then he will have the winter off and will hopefully be ready for next spring and summer. I actually pulled Sterling (IR Peppys Breeze) out of retirement. My daughter and my sister have been using him, he'll go back to work as my backup horse until Chisum heals up. He is 20 years old but still sound and ready to go.

BRR: What have you learned from your previous trips to the NFR?

Lockhart: I have learned to stay focused on what you are there for. It is hard with all that is going on. The scheduling there makes it very difficult. It is difficult to juggle all the commitments you have there as a contestant as well as trying to do things with your kids, family and friends as well. I like to take care of my horses myself as well so that adds more responsibility. You just have to remember what you are there for and when it is time to go to work, you go to work. You just try to do the best you can do and what happens, happens!

Headin' For Home

It's not much fun to ride a horse that is jumpy and will shy at everything. Some will even shy at the same old thing day after day, like a white rock along the road or a piece of paper that blew out of the grandstands.

Some people are like that, too, and live their lives in torment because they say they trust God but don't act like it. I'm not talking about the list of phobias that just about covers everything. I'm talking about everyday life and the things we face in our daily activities.

Remember the new you hear on TV or read in the newspapers isn't always accurate. And the gossip you hear at the coffee shop or arena isn't accurate.

In Matthew 8:26, Jesus asks His disciples why they were afraid. They were in the safest place in the world being in a boat with Him even though a bad storm came up. Fear will always try to get in your thoughts and ruin your day or your night's sleep. To "fear not", or similar words to that effect, are the most common direction given to us by Christ. The Gospel lists 125 times when Jesus said "not to be afraid" or "have courage" or "be of good cheer" so that shows how important He felt it was for us to have peace.

First Peter 5:7 tells us to cast all our cares on Him for He cares for you. If you've made Jesus the Lord of your life, then He lives in you and you're as safe as if you were in the boat with Him! Think of it as having Jesus in the boat with you!

Look up some of the Scriptures on trusting God and casting out fear. It's a good idea to memorize some of them to recite when fear knocks on your door. It's a good thing, too, to keep the 91st Psalm handy. It will give you peace and calmness.

God doesn't want us to live in a state of fear. He loves us so much that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:16) Rest on the promises of God!
