Winning Weekend For Canadian Barrel Racers

By Barb Poulsen

Ponoka, Alberta's Calnash Ag Event Centre is home to the Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive (CBHI) Futurity, Derby and Super Stakes Race each Canadian Thanksgiving weekend. And the state of art facility was a hive of action as contestants from across western Canada and the northern U.S. braved wintery conditions to compete at the 2016 event.

Andrea Udal and five year old Talented Streak Fame topped a field of 103 futurity entrants. The Maple Creek, Saskatchewan trainer ran 17.414, good for second place in the first go, 17.753 in round two, then 17.437 in the short go for a total of 52.604, the CBHI Futurity win and $3361.53. Talented Streak Fame is by A Streak Of Fame by Dash Ta Fame out of a daughter of Prime Talent.

Of her CBHI win, Udal commented, "This was on my bucket list. It is always the toughest one of the year. I feel so blessed to have won so much in the last few years and this one was totally unexpected which makes it even sweeter."

Talented Streak Fame (aka Mona) came to Udal as a sale horse. Once the barrel racer tried the horse, she fell in love immediately.

"She is not a big horse. 15 hands and quick and catty with light feet. Cow horse with some run is my preference but I feel it is more of a look and feel. I have owned her for close to two years. She is feisty and I kind of like that about her."

With both Udal's daughters eager to ride the mare and a new set of colts ready to go, Udal is confident 'Mona' will be heading to some rodeos in the spring.

The CBHI Derby was no less exciting... with Brooks, Alberta trainer Lynette Brodoway and SR Effort Inmy Boots earning the win. Brodoway combined a second place 17.353 first go run with 17.612 in the second go and 17.417 in the short go for a total of 52.382 to win $3116.84 and the Derby title.

Brodoway, who is partial to offspring from Root Beers Boots purchased SR Effort Inmy Boots (Rocket) from Caroline Heffernan as a four year old. Rocket and Brodoway's open gelding, SR Root Sixty Six (Freeway), are both out of the same sire.

"Doug and Carol Schaffer (owners of Root Beers Boots) gave me an opportunity several years ago to put some barrel racing time on that stud, (Boots). I liked everything about him. He was athletic, competitive, easy to train and nice to be around. Boots crosses well with their running bred mares. I have several colts from Boots, all out of different mares, and I get along with each of them," noted Brodoway. "I have a CBHI derby title on both Sr Effort Inmy Boots (Rocket) and Sr Root Sixty Six (Freeway) as 7 year olds. CBHI is a great event! I look forward to it each year. They do an excellent job - great ground and run efficiently!"

Conrado's Tibbie Named 2016 AQHA/WPRA Barrel Horse of The Year

By Ann Bleiker, courtesy WPRA

The AQHA and the WPRA annually honors the top equine partners that carry WPRA members to the winners circle. In 2016, the top 25 voted CFour Tibbie Stinson (Tibbie) as the Barrel Horse of the Year. Tibbie is owned by Kelly and Ivy Conrado and the 7-year old mare has carried Ivy to her first Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

Ivy and Tibbie enter their first Wrangler NFR ranked fourth with $111,160 in the world standings after a phenomenal year that included major wins at the Fort Worth Stock Show and Rodeo, the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo and set a new arena record at the Wrangler Champions Challenge event in Spanish Fork, Utah, to name a few.

"Monday was a very emotional day here as we received a call from the AQHA to let us know Tibbie was named AQHA/WPRA Barrel Horse of the Year," wrote Kelly Conrado, Ivy's father, on Facebook. "This honor is so special. It is voted on by the top 25 members in the world standings and we are absolutely overwhelmed with gratitude and appreciation for this incredible honor. For me, it is truly the most special of awards and recognitions. Thank you all. My heart is so full."

Tibbie is a product of the Dash Ta Fame son Eddie Stinson out of Little Fancy Granny. A little back story on the Ivy and Tibbie partnership. When Ivy was still a young girl, she was at the futurity in Fort Smith, Ark., with her family and got into a wreck while riding one of the young horses. The accident kept her from the saddle for awhile. Enter Little Fancy Granny, also known as Racie. Just about four when the Conrados got her, Racie became Conrado's therapy with the then nine year old girl spending hours in the saddle on the mare. Racie loved running barrels and soon took nearly every member of the family to the winner's circle. Ivy won the Wrangler Junior High School State Finals twice on Racie. In her last win at the Junior High Finals, Racie was actually bred to the Dash Ta Fame son Eddie Stinson. The embryo that was flushed out following the win was Tibbie. Because Ivy was also busy competing in volleyball including Junior Olympics, she never went to the High School Finals with Racie and took a break from riding through her high school years. Meanwhile, Kelly put Tibbie into training, winning big during her four year old futurity season and now the mare will carry Ivy down the alleyway at the Thomas and Mack Center in Las Vegas.

Finishing second in the AQHA/WPRA Barrel Horse of the Year Honors was Sadiesfamouslastwords better known as Mary Burger's Mo that has carried Burger back to the Wrangler NFR in the No. 1 spot with a record regular season earnings record of $190,977. Mo, owned by Mary and her husband, Kerry, is a 7-year old buckskin gelding by Sadies Frosty Drift out of Porky and Bess. Burger's last mount, Rare Fred, that carried her to the Wrangler NFR and the 2006 WPRA Barrel Racing World Title won the AQHA Barrel Horse of the Year award in both 2006 and 2009.

TKW Bullyfamous Fox "Foxy" owned by Travis and Kimmie Wall finished third in the AQHA Barrel Horse of the Year voting. Foxy has carried Kimmie to her first Wrangler NFR in 2016 ranked fifth after finishing just outside the top 15 the last two years - 19th in 2015 and 20th in 2014. Foxy, an 8-year old mare, is a product of the stallion Bully Bullion and the mare Gateway Ta Love. She was raised

Q & A w/ IVY CONRADO

BRR: What makes Tibbie such a special horse?

Conrado: She has a very special mother so part of it is in her DNA, the other part is her heart. She loves running barrels, she wants to go in the pen and she has a lot of self confidence. That's few and far between!

BRR: Can you put into words what this past year on Tibbie has been like to you and your family?

Conrado: I'd hate to say it was part of a plan. I mean we had a plan for Tibbie, we knew what kind of an athlete she was; it was a matter of me taking care of my job. It's been a dream come true in every aspect. I just hope I can replicate it and keep taking care of business to show the respect for the people in my life that have made sacrifices for me to be able to do this with Tibbie.

BRR: Does Tibbie have any funny habits or quirks you want to share with people?

Conrado: Tibbie has done a 360 with me. When I got her from Dad (Kelly) she was pretty dang hot for me. Now she's as chill as they come! The only thing about her is if you give her one cookie she will maul you for hours!!

and trained by the Walls and carried Kimmie to a 2D win in her first competition at the futurity in Buckeye, Ariz. In 2015, Foxy mastered the "Green Mile" in Pendleton, Ore., and now will have a chance on a much shorter pattern inside the Thomas & Mack Center.

Conrado will be officially recognized during the PRCA Awards Presentation in Las Vegas, prior to the start of the Wrangler NFR.

Brodoway has enjoyed an outstanding year on the pro rodeo trail as well. She'll be heading to her first Canadian Finals Rodeo in early November on Freeway - who ran the fast time in the open competition at the CBHI.

CBHI Super Stakes

A more recent facet of the Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive program, and one that has really helped put the organization on the map, is the CBHI Super Stakes race. Contestants who run a horse with a Super Stakes certificate from a CBHI nominated stallion, compete for an increasingly larger pot of money as each year passes... at both the futurity and derby level. Stallion owners also receive a payout.

Wood Mountain, Saskatchewan's Nicole Pana and Streakin N Perks earned this year's Super Stakes Futurity win and a cheque for over $30,000!

Pana, who turns 20 next spring, first teamed up with her five year old when the mare was three and had only 12 or so rides on her. By Signature Perks (X Dash For Perks) out of a daughter of Streakin La Jolla, the talented mare earned her stripes in both the futurity pen and pro rodeo arena this year... with the CBHI Super Stakes win a definite highlight.

"I had a really good season; I won three futurities, was reserve champ and ended up third at the CBHI futurity. And winning the Super Stakes has been a dream of mine since I watched Randa Nugent win the first Super Stakes in 2013. It's always a rewarding accomplishment when you do well on a young colt whether it's at a futurity, rodeo or even just a local jackpot. Winning $30,600 on a five year old that I broke and trained... it is the best feeling ever!

The Super Stakes Derby winner was Carman Pozzobon and Ripn Lady. By Frenchs Hula Guy (X Frenchmans Guy), Ripn Lady also won the first go in the Derby and Open 1D. Pozzobon earned $7650 for her Super Stakes Derby win.

Canadian Barrel Futurities/Derbies High Point Champions

For over a decade, Canadian Barrel Futurities has served as an umbrella organization for the majority of the Canadian barrel racing futurities and derbies held in western Canada. With the CBHI race the final venue of the season, high point awards are handed out to the futurity and derby horses with the most points over the season. This year, with nine events on the roster - from British Columbia to Manitoba - a relative newcomer to the barrel racing game took home the top Futurity prize. Lloydminster, Saskatchewan's Kali Kott and San Bo Sunglo attended every event, winning two and placing at six others, to demonstrate a consistent showing throughout the season.

"I bought Sunny (San Bo Sunglo) as a long yearling in December of 2012 from Toni Rondeau of Wildwood, Alberta. Her bloodlines (Easy Bandit Bar X Royal Generation out of an Eternal Sun granddaughter) caught my eye and that's why I went to check her out. At the time I had no idea what a Futurity even was. I hadn't even started barrel racing yet myself. The summer of her three year old year, I sent her for training at Corleen Leclercq's where Chantelle Ronsko started her. She took to barrels really quickly and after 90 days I took her home. I started barrel racing late in 2013; Sunny was only the second horse I've ever barrel raced and was my first Futurity horse. Sunny and I plan to hit the rodeo trail next year and I'm beyond excited and maybe one day make it to the CFR. It has been an absolutely huge accomplishment for me to receive this buckle ... my first buckle on my own horse I might add!"

The 2016 High Point Derby buckle was awarded to a trainer and horse familiar to the winner's circle. Rayel Little and seven year old Dreamy Little Nick (from Grant Little's Blue Neon Ranch barrel horse program) enjoyed considerable success this season to the extent that they had the high point derby award won before the final competition.

By multiple futurity and derby champion sire, As Good As Nick Gets (X Dr Nick Bar) and out of the Blue Hen mare, Fols Dream Of Cash, Dreamy Little Nick is one of two full brothers Little has been campaigning. Dreamy Little Nick (aka: Tucson) had a stand-out futurity career as well, winning four events along with the 2014 Canadian Barrel Futurities High Point saddle.

The Littles use a thorough, consistent approach with all their horses, putting 90 days on each prospect before Rayel climbs aboard where she completes the training process over a two year period. "Tucson was a little spooky to start with," the four time Canadian Champion barrel racer explained. "He spent some time looking around at things, but with time and some hauling, he's settled down."

Tucson's full brother, Little Dream Weaver (or Paleface) looks very similar to his brother and is also extremely talented. While the five year did not earn the season's high point award, he did win a go... on top of a year that saw the gelding earn a futurity championship and run a 17.0 at the Alberta Barrel Racing Association Finals.

Jana Griemsman & Chase It With Brandy Sweep Badlands Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

Jana Griemsman and her gritty mare Chase It With Brandy earned two championships at the Badlands Circuit Finals Rodeo, held last weekend in Minot, N.D. They solidified their year-end championship by winning the average at the Circuit Finals.

"The first night was a little rough with the ground," said Griemsman of Piedmont, S.D. The judges eventually stopped the competition due to unsafe ground conditions and those that had already ran were given the option of a re-run after the performance. "I was the first one out, of course, so I had to test the ground for everybody. The thing about my horse is she can stand up on anything, so she made a decent run. She just slipped once. She just took care of herself. It didn't feel great but she got the job done."

She chose to keep her time rather than run again.

"I thought my horse did fine," she said. "I wasn't going to make five runs in that barn if I didn't have to, so I just let it hold."

After splitting the win in the second round with Nikki (Steffes) Hansen, who will be joining her at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla., Griemsman and Brandy never looked back, winning both the third and fourth rounds as well.

"Going into my last run, I was 2/100ths ahead of Nikki in the average, so I knew I needed to make another good run. (Brandy) ended up running the exact same time as she did the night before, a 13.8, so I was pretty tickled that she did that again for me," she remarked.

The victory was worth $8,436.

Griemsman had a rather eventful year. Her goal was to win her circuit and do well enough everywhere else to have enough money won to get into the limited-entry winter rodeos.

She started off placing well at Denver and went to a few of the building rodeos in Texas that she could get into since she had to be there for the Semifinals Rodeo of RFD-TV's The American.

"I didn't have any luck, so I came home and went to our circuit rodeos, like Rapid City and Bismarck—I won Bismarck and placed at Rapid. Then of course during the summer, I really wanted to rodeo with my husband as much as I could. We have a son that's 2 and it's much easier going with your husband than trying to find someone to go with you."

With several great rodeos in her circuit, Griemsman decided to use the Fourth of July run as the determining factor for the remainder of her season.

"If I had good Fourth of July, I was going to try find somebody to go with me and try to go a little bit harder. Of course, I had a great Fourth, and hired a girl to go with me."

The circuit title was always in the back of her mind though as the earnings at the RNCFR counts towards the WPROA Standings in 2017.

"By that time (July), I was pretty confident about my rodeo count (for the circuit) and I knew that if I came back and hit some of the fall rodeos in my circuit and did well at the Circuit Finals, I'd probably be okay," she noted.

What she didn't expect was to come so very close to her first National Finals Rodeo qualification. She finished the year in 18th after making a very game, but realistic, effort.

"I had gone to the Northwest and my horse had been amazing," she said. "I was winning or placing everywhere I unloaded her, so I knew I had something."

Then all of a sudden, Brandy wasn't firing. She tied up at Ellensburg and so Griemsman rested her a bit and then returned to competition under advisement of her veterinarians. Brandy still wasn't right, so Griemsman took her to Idaho Equine in Nampa.

"She had some inflammation in her lungs," noted Griemsman, "and some other typical barrel racing mare things. I was 16th in the World Standings and they said she needed rest. After Ellensburg and Walla Walla, they got a $10,000 jump on me. So I had a decision to make, do I dare even push her to try to go catch up with them. I know I'm not running her at Pendleton. I had Puyallup...so after numerous tears, sleepless nights and long phone calls to my husband and sister and everyone else...it was just let it be. Go home, get her well and win the circuit finals because it counts for next year and hope that you don't have to haul her that hard.

"From the beginning, I had never intended to haul her all night to the next rodeo and the next. But, when you look at your name in the standings and people are like 'Don't weaken. Don't weaken.'

You feel the pressure—Yes, we can do this. I wish I had stuck to my original game plan, just ease around and see what we could get done instead of pushing. I took for granted that my mare was so tough until she finally told me she wasn't."

Brandy, 8-year-old daughter of TM Sakem Drift out of the Shake It Special mare Corona Special, actually didn't need much time. Just two weeks off and she was back to winning rodeos, so Griemsman was again faced with the dilemma of trying to go down to Texas and catch those ahead of her or stay home and wait for next year. "I'd have to win fifth or better at every rodeo and hope the girls around me don't catch up," she recalled. "I didn't figure the drive and hauling was worth it."

Griemsman said the decision left her with two regrets.

"I know my mare deserves to be there. I know she can run with those girls. I know that would be her set up," she said. But more importantly, and regretfully, it means she'll have to head back out on the road in 2017.

"I kept my husband and child apart for a long time," she stated. "It was a long year. To have to go to do it all over again and I'm not looking forward to it. Our family will be separated for another year. I have to hire someone to go with me. My son will spend more time on FaceTime with his dad than he spends time with him at home. It's part of what we do and you make the best of it, but it's still hard. My dream would be for my husband to go with me."

Griemsman's husband Paul, a horse trainer, and their son Laken, were both at the Circuit Finals to see her victory. Having trained Brandy through her pregnancy and Laken's infancy, she calls him her good luck charm.

"It was pretty cute the other night," she said. "After I got back to the truck after my run, he said, 'Good job, Mommy! I'm so proud of you!' If you don't think that made me cry...."

Miller, Gadbois Crowned California Circuit Champions

By Tanya Randall

Cottonwood's Nellie Miller and Escondido's Kris Gadbois each picked up California Circuit Championships over the weekend in Lancaster. Miller, a former National Finals Rodeo qualifier and mother of two, picked up the Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship, while Gadbois, a dentist and former Navy servicewoman, captured her first yearend championship.

Miller (formerly Williams) was riding her family's home-bred mare Rafter W Minnie Reba ("Sister"), an 8-year-old daughter of the Dash Ta Fame son KS Cash N Fame out of Espuela Roan, by Blue Light Ike. Sister is a half-sibling to Miller's 2010 NFR mount Rebas Smokey Joe ("Blue Duck").

Although the two share a roan coat, they've different in styles and temperament. Plus, Sister seems to grab the title of pro rodeo winner more often than her older half-brother who was a solid placer.

At the Circuit Finals, Miller and Sister drew a check in all three rounds. They were second in the first go, third in the second and won the third to win the average and $7,195.24.

"The first run she worked really well," she said. "I think by the third run she was just as dialed in and I had tweaked a few things. She just got faster each time."

The win will allow Miller to make her second trip to the National Circuit Finals Rodeo, now sponsored by RAM. She first went in 2010, the last year the event was held in Pocatello, Idaho. Now, she'll make the long trip to Kissimmee, Fla., an area she got to know a little when she was a member of the Southeastern Circuit when she lived in Tennessee.

"My husband actually grew up in Florida," said Miller. "I did do some rodeoing back in Florida for a little while. It's a long way, but it will be fun though. I liked those Florida rodeos, so I'm kind of excited to go back really."

The money from the RNCFR also counts toward the 2017 WPRA World Standings too.

"My goal this year was to make enough to get into the rodeos this winter," said Miller, who finished 19th in the WPRA World Standings with $54,113 from just 49 rodeos. "I'll try to get out there (to Texas) this winter and get a bit of head start."

In the meanwhile, Miller will finish up her year with the Grand National Rodeo in the Cow Palace in San Francisco and will compete at the Cinch Boyd Gaming Chute-Out during the NFR in Las Vegas before her Winter Run starts in 2017.

If anyone knows about hectic schedules, it's yearend champion Kris Gadbois. She and her two talented mounts—CRCS Regaldash ("Snoopy") and Sheza Frenchman Guy ("Bugs") edged Miller by $108 to earn the yearend title.

"I had three goals this year," said Gadbois, a Montana native. I wanted to win the circuit so I could get to Florida. Two, I wanted him to get the opportunity to show what (Snoop) was capable of, and three, I wanted to win enough this summer to get into the building rodeos in Texas."

Employed as a civilian contractor by the Department of Defense, Gadbois has more freedom to ride and enter rodeos than she did when she was on active duty with the Navy, but her schedule is still limited by her job.

"ProCom makes it really hard," she said. "You don't get to pick when you draw up and that's really hard. They do it last minute, two or three weeks and our clinic is booked out months in advance, so it does get difficult to reschedule with my boss."

Traveling from southern California is also difficult as roads, it seems, go through the Urban Hell known as L.A. traffic. Luckily, he two horses doesn't seem to mind the eight-to-12-hour trailer rides on the weekends.

Snoop, her big money winner on the year, is a 10-year-old gelding by A Regal Choice out of Dashin Flashin, by The Signature. Gadbois purchased him as a 5-year-old from his trainer Danyelle Campbell.

"He really likes his job" said Gadbois. "He's hardy. He's great to haul. He just loves to run barrels. We're blessed to have him." Picking up about a fourth of her earnings, including a couple of rodeo wins this year is Bugs, an 8-year-old daughter of Frenchmans Guy out of Sheza Dr Kirk, by Dr Kirk. Gadbois' husband Kyle purchased the mare as a yearling from the Myers Performance Horse Sale as a first anniversary present.

"I need to run her more, but it's hard to get off the old bird," she laughed. "They are two totally different horses. She's really fast and quick footed and strong and snappy. He's so rhythmic and fluid."

He's fast but it doesn't feel her fast. One goes left, one goes right. They're completely opposite in every respect, so it is really hard to get off of him because I did rodeo on him for a full year before she came along."

Gadbois wanted to thank her mother Karen Phillips, who did a lot of co-piloting this year while her husband was deployed on the USNS Mercy.

"My mom was awesome," said Gadbois of her mother, who encouraged her to switch from English riding to barrel racing when she started high school. "The support was great. She helped me drive."

Gadbois also wanted to thank outgoing—literally and figuratively—California Circuit Director Marguerite Happy and her fellow barrel racers for all their support this year.

"Marguerite Happy did a fabulous job on our circuit awards. She's done a fabulous job throughout the years and offered a lot of support.

"Danyelle Campbell—She's my backbone when I'm on the road. She's always a text away.

"Trula Churchill really helped me through the year like where to go, where to park, when to enter. She really, really helped me when she didn't have to. It was nice to have someone who knew how to find a safe place for me and my horses. My circuit girls were helpful. All of them that were out on the road were really helpful."

Now with her husband back from his deployment, Gadbois is hopeful that she'll be able to make more rodeos and possibly take a shot at the NFR, but it will be a path unlike many others.

"I only have the availability to go to so many rodeos and I just have to make it work when I do go and hope that it is enough to keep me going," she said. "I would love at some point to win enough to qualify for the NFR, if that's even possible. I've got to do it in a limited number of runs because I can't be gone all summer. I would have to capitalize on the really big rodeos to be able to get myself to the NFR. It has to be very strategically planned."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Ya know, my favorite people are kids. For the most part, they are just who they are. No apologies. They play, they belly laugh, (a LOT!), they cry when their feelings are hurt and they eat when they are hungry. Man! When did we lose all that? Because most of us have. We are soooo serious. We have bills to pay, chores to do, meals to cook and a job! Pressure!

But Jesus called a little child to Himself in Matt. 18:3-5 and said, "Verily I say unto you, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

That is so simple! We need to stop taking ourselves so seriously. When you put pressure on yourself to "perform", all the childlike joy just gets pushed out. Jesus said in Matt. 11:28-29, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." Children know that their dad and mom will take care of them. We have a heavenly Father that takes care of us.

Your assignment, if you choose to accept it.....imitate a child this week! Belly laugh! Make a new friend! Run and play! (I know, I'm not sure how far I can run either! LOL)
