Peaking For The Pink – Benjamin Beall & Slick Swingin Capture $105,626 Pink Buckle Futurity Championship for Ashley Harvey

By Tanya Randall

For rising barrel futurity trainer and rider Benjamin Beall, patience was a conquering virtue.

Beall, a northwest Louisiana native now residing in Decatur, Texas, was handed the reins of Ashley Harvey's Slick Swingin ("Slinger"), a promising, but problematic 3-year-old nearly two-and-a-half years ago. Through patience, and a lot of guidance from his colleagues in the futurity world, Beall steadily progressed the well-bred gelding to peak performance at the $850,000 Pink Buckle Futurity, held October 4-9 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Two incredibly consistent runs of 16.906 and 16.914 netted Slinger and his connections a $105,626 Pink Buckle Futurity Championship. Beall and Slinger also finished third in the $1.2 Million Hay Chix Open 4D aggregate for an additional $26,552. Their total earnings were $132,552.

"It still hasn't sunk in," said Beall, the Monday afternoon following the event. "My goal was to get him to $100,000 by the end of the year. He'd won $41,000 before the Pink Buckle and now has over $170,000."

Slinger, a 5-year-old sorrel gelding, is by $4 million sire Slick By Design. He's the second Pink Buckle Futurity Champion for the leading sire owned by Charlie Cole and Jason Martin's High Point Performance Horses.

Leading futurity rider Pete Oen raised the gelding. His dam is the Firewaterontherocks mare Hip Swingin Gypsy, a multiple futurity finalist under Oen. Gypsy, who ran out more than $106,000, is also the dam of Hip Happy Hayday, a 4-year-old PC Frenchmans Hayday mare, that's won $65,000 with Oen thus far this year.

Ashley Harvey purchased Slinger as a yearling.

"Pete Oen is a longtime friend and client of ours," said Harvey, who is married to Outlaw Equine founder and veterinarian Josh Harvey. "We did the rehab and vet work on Hip Swingin Gypsy when Pete ran that mare. She was phenomenal. She was just an amazing horse. When Pete told us he was going to sell this colt, we went up to his place and vet checked him. Getting the opportunity to ride one out of that mare was pretty hard to pass up."

Harvey, who grew up watching and later helping her family in their Thoroughbred racehorse business, chose barrel horses over the track.

"I team roped," she said. "My grandfather, Clyde Rice, always had us on good horses that you could really do anything on. I made my rope horses into barrel horses and tried doing that for a while. Then Randy Hartley set us up with this really good Paint mare, and once I knew what a really good horse felt like, I was addicted." After rodeoing for many years, her focus is now building a future team of horses and enjoying the futurity process.

"I'm trying to build a group of horses that I can rodeo on at some point but it's tough sledding," she said. "They don't all make rodeo horses. We're having fun with the futurities too. We're raising some babies, and this is one that we purchased. We've got big goals but it's just one step at a time."

Like all her prospects, Slinger had 90 days with Bryce Jenkins before going to Wyatt Paul, who has been training for Harvey the past four years.

"He was doing well, but the colt was really reactive and needed to go a little bit slower and have more time," noted Harvey. Luckily,

SADDLE: Robbie Phillips

SADDLE PAD: 3S Custom Equine

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine front only

SHOEING: Aluminum on all four

FEED: Seminole Feeds Profecta

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: OE Nutraceuticals

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Long trotting, pasture riding. If I've gone somewhere, the first day I'll ride in the pasture, the second day I'll lope and trot around the arena, third day I'll lope circles, and the next day I'll do some barrel work and then go to a futurity."

SPONSORS: Outlaw Equine

THANK YOU: Josh and Ashley Harvey, Wyatt Paul, Kelly Bowser, Bo Hill, Shaun Sandoval, Kelly Conrado, all the other trainers who took the time to offer their help, his family and friends, Pete Oen for raising the horse, High Point Performance Horses and so many others.

she had Beall, who was working for Outlaw Equine's rehab facility, just waiting for an opportunity. "He had ridden a couple other horses for us. He's also very handy. We all decided to let Ben give it a try for a couple of months, especially since we had so many colts under Wyatt. He just took his time."

Beall had always liked Slinger too.

"I've loved this horse since the first time I saw him, when Pete posted pictures of him when he was born," said Beall, 30. "I did ride him some as a 2- and early 3-year-old at Outlaw. When Wyatt was gone to other stuff, I'd ride his colts while he was gone so they weren't so fresh when he got back. I loved him when I was riding him then. I knew if I took my time with him, he would get there. I really wanted him to be the best that he could be. I didn't want to put too much pressure on him."

When Beall first started riding Slinger he avoided the arena and spent the first few months just riding in the pasture, loping circles around hay bales, trees and the pond. From there it was to the dirt patch for another few months before finally progressing to the arena and barrel pattern.

Along the way, he sought the advice of Kelly Bowser, who had experience with Slick By Design horses. Bo Hill offered suggestions to keep things simple for the gelding.

"She told me, 'Don't poke the bear. Don't poke the bear! You know the speed is there. Just keep it slow, same pattern every time,'" Beall said.

Beall started entering Slinger in January. He ran respectable at the first two futurities but fell apart at the third.

"I stayed home for a couple of months," he said. "I didn't take him anywhere. We weren't getting our first barrel right. I took him home and rode him out in the pasture for a few weeks and then I really went to working on him. I went back to the basics, working on our footing and hitting our spots."

When Beall thought Slinger was ready to enter again, he took him to a Parker County Arena race, a favorite of the local toughs, and he won it.

"That's when I was like, 'Okay! Here we go!' After that he really started coming along. I just always knew he was going to be a good horse. I just had to wait on him to tell me he was ready," said Beall, who credited the first futurity horse he trained nearly 10 years ago, Hope She Clocks, for teaching him patience.

Slinger placed in the average at the Barrel Bash Select Stallion Stakes, the Breeders Challenge Qualifier Futurity in Ardmore, Oklahoma, the Ruby Buckle in August, the Fizz Bomb Classic, and the Ardmore Futurity and its Blue Collar Breeders Incentive.

At the Fizz Bomb, veteran Kelly Conrado also helped Beall find a steadier path for better average finishes.

"He basically told me to slow down mentally," Beall said. "The horse is trained. Let him do his job." I stopped training on him. I stopped doing drills. I just walked the pattern on him. That's what he suggested. He also got on him and then when I got back on I could feel what he was talking about. There was just something about what he said, I can't really explain it, that just clicked in my brain."

Even though Slinger was getting better with every run, Beall never expected to win the Pink Buckle.

"My first run I just wanted to make a nice run because I knew he'd clock well if I just kept it smooth. He clocked a .90. I thought, 'Oh I guess we're doing it this week!' He's been nailing the first barrel the past several futurities. I was able to send him in a little hard to the first barrel, just drop my outside rein and let him work."

Not wanting to get caught up in the electric environment and rich payout, Beall stayed to himself between runs.

"I hung out at the stalls," he said. "I didn't really socialize, especially after the first run. I went to the hotel and stayed by myself. I didn't want to watch or follow the results or anything."

Harvey also chose not to attend the event as to not put added pressure on Beall.

"I didn't want to put a lot of pressure on Ben," she said. "We were thrilled with his first round run. I told him, 'Whatever will be, will be. We've already won this week and we're super proud.'"

As a result, Beall said he was calmer for his second run.

"He warmed up good and felt good," he said. "He was just mentally there for me. I knew the calmer he is the better he does. He was pretty calm that day and that kept me pretty calm. All I could think about was the Ruby Buckle a few months ago. He placed third in the first round then I was a little anxious and nervous and got in his way and messed him up the second round. I just thought 'Don't do that again.' Right before we went in, I took a deep breath and thought let's just go make a smooth pass through and see where we fall."

"I held him a little more going to the first barrel more than I did the first go. I think I was just trying to make sure he got to his right spot. Then, I thought, 'What am I doing? Just let him go!' It was probably the best first barrel I've had on him in the second go. I took a deep breath and let him do his thing. I gave him a little more room going into the second and it made him finish it a lot better than he did in the first round. The third one, I was about to get nervous. That's where I messed it up at the Ruby Buckle. I was like 'Leave him alone. Take a deep breath. Stay quiet.' I did and he nailed it. I saw a .91 and I just didn't really have any words."

Beall got a little teary eyed after his run when he realized he had a legitimate chance of winning the richest barrel futurity of the year.

"I really didn't want to think about it too much," he said. "I didn't want to jinx myself."

He just had three grueling hours to await his fate.

"I went back up to the arena to watch the last 50," he said. "I called Wyatt and told him he'd better come watch the last 50 with me because I'm about to have a nervous breakdown. That was the worst thing I could have done, gone up there and watched the last 50! I think that's why I'm sick now!"

Harvey was excited for the win and happy for her jockey too. "I'm not surprised that he did it," she said. "The colt has been really nice all year, but to have it all come together like that is just amazing. He's always been really handy on a horse. I'm hopeful that this will give him some confidence to carry on and be a fulltime trainer. I know that's what he wants to do."

Both Beall and Harvey were very appreciative of the Pink Buckle for the incredible opportunities it has brought to the barrel racing industry.

"It's unbelievable what it's done for the industry," said Harvey. "The amount of money you can win at these deals is a lot. I'm just really grateful."

We believe horses deserve the same access to holistic products that we as their owners do. Breaking down barriers long guarded by pharmaceutical companies, and allowing people to choose what's best for their equine partners. If natural is best, that's what we aim to provide.

Dena Kirkpatrick & Gracies Lane Nab Pink Buckle Derby & Open Titles, Win $139,626

By Tanya Randall

Dal Alexander always felt he was slightly handicapped by his size when it came to roping, so he figured he needed an exceptional horse to make up the difference. When his daughter Dena Kirkpatrick first laid eyes on the stallion The Goodbye Lane she saw the exceptional look that her daddy had always sought in a horse.

"When I saw The Goodbye Lane, I was just amazed by him," said the decorated barrel horse trainer from Post, Texas. "My father, who never claimed to be any kind of an expert, had a certain way he thought a horse should look. When I saw him, all I could think about was how much my dad would have loved that horse."

Kirkpatrick purchased two horses, a weanling and a yearling, from the Jarvis family, who owned the stallion. The yearling, Gracies Lane, a daughter of the Dash Ta Fame, Merridoc mare TS Up N Famous, has become, according to Kirkpatrick, who has trained multiple futurity champions, NFR qualifiers and WPRA World Champion, the best horse she's ever had.

"I'm so blessed to have her," she said. "She's just a gift from God."

At the Pink Buckle, held October 4-9 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma, Kirkpatrick and Gracie, 8, swept the $650,000 Classic Equine Derby, topped the $1.2 million Hay Chix Open 4D Average and won a saddle for taking top spot in the $250,000 Owner/Rider Bonus. All totaled, Gracie added $139,626 to her lifetime earnings of $74,903 (QData).

Kirkpatrick's lucrative win comes 25 years after her historic sweep of BFA World Championship Futurity on Willy Nick Bar ("Trey"), owned by Sissy Novak. Kirkpatrick and Trey won both qualifying rounds and the short round en route to a historic average victory.

"What's funny about that is I was thinking about Willy Nick Bar when I was warming up for my second run," Kirkpatrick chuckled. "Her first run she did so well, and I was reminding myself just to be happy with a clean run because very few horses can be at the top of their game twice in a week—or in his case three times in a week. I was thinking about him, and then she did that! She ran faster on the bottom of the ground the second day than she did on top of the ground the first day! It's crazy!"

They won the first round with a 16.843 and the second with a 16.811.

"Ironically, the Derby paid her the exact same amount of money that Willy Nick Bar won in 1997," noted Kirkpatrick. That was $64,000 because that year they paid $50,000 to win the average. She didn't have to run three times, but she kind of had a clean sweep. She won the Derby, the Open and the Owner/Rider. It was pretty amazing!"

The total derby championship was worth $80,000, with Kirkpatrick's owner's share being exactly $64,000. The Open victory was worth $46,502 and the owner/rider checks totaled $13,124. All totaled, Kirkpatrick pocketed $111,700, while the Jarvis family accepted $27,925, or $13,965 each, as the owners of The Goodbye Lane and breeders of Gracie.

"I'm so appreciative of winning," said Kirkpatrick. "Winning first, you just don't get to do that often. Who knew that I would live long enough and still be running barrels in time that it has come so far thanks to the Pink Buckle. They have just done so much for Gracies Lane ("Gracie") 15.1 h., 1,100 lbs.

BIT: Jim Edwards Correction Gag but squared at the corners. "I put it on her for the first time at Denton (Texas pro rodeo) because horses were slipping. I felt like I needed it to stand her up a little. After being off a week because of Albuquerque, I thought for that big pattern I needed to be able to square her up."

SADDLE: Martin Stingray

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Zone

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy 2 on all four

SHOEING: Aluminum wedge on front and Kahn Forge Concave on rear

FEED: Renew Gold

HAY: Grass hay, enough to eat on all day, and alfalfa at night.

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP Exceed 6-Way, In Sync, and Gastro Plex, Summit; Pre-race: GastroPlex paste

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track, Magnets, ActiVet Laser, MagnaWave

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I don't work barrels, but I will lope the big circles around the outside of the berms around the barrels. It keeps her soft and from getting in too big of a hurry around the turn. That circle also helps her build her core for conditioning. The night before I go somewhere I'll trot her through the regular pattern. You have to be careful with the big circles because they'll get to thinking they need to go that wide all the time. I'll also do the pinwheel drill on her for conditioning."

SPONSORS: Classic Equine, Martin Saddlery, MVP, ReNew Gold & ActiVet Laser

the industry. I never dreamed it could be like this...the amount of money a derby mare can run at...who knew! Everything is so much better now. It's amazing how far we've come. They are fun things to go to."

Kirkpatrick said Gracie's next big event will likely be the WPR World Finals in November.

"I don't go like most people would with her," said Kirkpatrick. She still has a few horses of her own that she trains, conducts the occasional clinic and is still a 'fulltime on-call' grandmother. "I went to a few rodeos, a couple around here. I won Clovis, by two-tenths. I placed at Levelland. I went to Denton and she won third there." While Kirkpatrick is training youngsters out of her great mare Kates Always First, she doesn't have anything out of Gracie yet for herself. This past spring, Gracie was bred to a cutting stallion and flushed.

"Wouldn't it be cool to see that one go down the fence," Kirkpatrick mused of the possibility of a Gracie baby entering the reined cowhorse. "I don't have any of my own because I've really just been interested in riding her. I'm no spring chicken! I might not be able to ride her babies! I'm not saying I won't sell some (eggs/embryos), because I think she's the best horse I've ever had. She's just unbelievable. I'm pretty blessed to have her."

FUN FACT...

The great Willy Nick Bar happily resides with Dena Kirkpatrick in Post, Texas. He was retired at age 15 and has spent his golden years with a roping horse buddy. The fat happy pair will both turn 30 in 2023.

To be successful at anything, you don't have to be different. You simply have to be what most people aren't: CONSISTENT.

2022 Pink Buckle Horse Sale is one for the Record Books

On Friday October 7, 2022 at the Lazy E Ranch in Guthrie, OK the Pink Buckle Stallion Owners Select Sale was held in conjunction with the $3.3 Million Pink Buckle Barrel Race. The sale grossed an amazing $4,450,000 and averaged $52,976 for each horse sold. Both of those numbers are believed to be records in the barrel horse market. The sale was strong across all ages and types of barrel horses and prospects. As the barrel horse market develops, the demand for the elite genetics continues to rise as was shown by the $52,321 average on the embryos sold at the Pink Buckle Sale. The embryos represented some of the very hottest sires and dams in the industry.

The bidding was brisk and strong for the the sale topping beautiful grey Tres Seis stud, Ms Trucoseix. The stunning stud also sold with his Pink & Ruby Buckle Slot. The 2014 gray stallion is by the popular $3.9 million barrel sire & $27 million race sire, Tres Seis and out of the Volcom/Corona Cartel race winner, Dontblinkorulemissme. The 1D money earning stud won $21k in his own barrel racing career before the start of his stud career. His colts have yet to hit the arena but are sure to make their presence known when they do. The exciting Pink Buckle Stallion was consigned by Danny Ray of Victory Farms and sold to Billy Wayne & Suzonne Franks for $850,000.

The second high seller was from the combination of barrel racing royalty. The sire of the 2021 brown filly Listen Lynda Listen is the red hot $4.4 million barrel sire, The Goodbye Lane. The sire of 2022 Pink Buckle Derby & Open winner, Gracies Lane. The dam, Royal Sissy Irish (by Royal Shake Em), is also the dam of perhaps the greatest barrel mare to run down the alley, Dm Sissy Hayday. Dm Sissy Hayday (with Hailey Kinsel) has won 3 World Title and 2 Reserve World Titles along with over $2 million in earnings. She is the highest earning barrel horse of all time at this point and still continuing to add to all her totals. The pretty seal brown filly with a championship presence about her was consigned by Kiowa Creek Performance Horses and sold to Reliance Ranches LLC for $210,000.

Another elite bred barrel horse was the third high seller. Seis On The Chase was a 2019 chestnut stud colt by Tres Seis, a leading barrel ($3.9 mil) and race sire ($27 mil), and out of the NFR Round placing mare Babe On The Chase by Chasin Firewater. Consigned by his breeders Brittany & Garrett Tonozzi, the 3 year old was in training with the leading futurity trainer Ashley Schafer and was ready to hit the futurities when he comes of age in a little over a month. Babe On The Chase has earned over $400k herself, winning everything from Slot Races to the National Western Stock Show & Rodeo, and is out of the Tonozzi's foundation broodmare, $1.17 million producer Streakin Six Babe (by Streakin Six). This colt was a primed to enter the stud business after his performance career. He brought $160,000 from agent Tricia Aldridge.

From a tried and true winning cross, Pay Me In Pearls was the 4th high seller of the sale. Pay Me In Pearls, the pretty 2020 sorrel filly, is by $6.2 Million sire, Blazin Jetolena and out of the producing Dash Ta Fame mare, KR Famous Pearls. Pay Me In Pearls was a full sister to Jet Fuel Only, an earner of over $133k who is still out winning in the arena and current year futurity money earner Jet N To Pearl Bay. The whole catalog page is full of talented black type barrel racing winners. Combined with the outstanding movement and trainability; this sharp sorrel filly sold for $140,000 to Reliance Ranches LLC from breeders and consignors Jeff & Andrea Busby.

In an interesting look into the barrel breeding market, the embryos from some of the barrel racing elite were some of the hottest items at the 2022 Pink Buckle Sale. The most sought after was the embryo full sibling to All Time Leading Barrel Futurity Earner, Hello Stella. In just about a year and a half of competition, Hello Stella has already earned over $650k and was the 2021 Pink Buckle Futurity Champion. She also carries one of the hottest barrel racing crosses of recent years, The Goodbye Lane ($4.4 Million Sire) on a Dash Ta Fame (The All Time Leading Barrel Horse Sire) mare, Go Go Fame. The exciting embryo was consigned by Hello Stella's owner & jockey Sharin Hall and sold for $137,000 to Rafael Celeste.

The market continued to show a high demand for the broke and riding age horses with 2 yr olds averaging $46,952 and 3 yr olds averaging $52,111.

The full results for the 2022 Pink Buckle Sale are below. For more information on the sale and full sets of averages and more info, go to www.PinkBuckle.com and click on the Sale tab.

2022 Nutrena Horse of the Year Winners Announced

By Ann Bleiker

Success in the sport of rodeo doesn't fall on just the human athlete. Their horses play just as big of a factor when they step foot in the arena. The Nutrena Horse of the Year presented by AQHA awards provides recognition to ProRodeo's top horses. Making the award extra special to each WPRA member is the fact that their fellow competitors are the ones that vote on this prestigious award.

The 2022 Nutrena Horse of the Year presented by AQHA awards were unveiled Oct. 10. Winning for the second consecutive year in the barrel racing category was Famous Lil Jet "Rollo" ridden by Jordon Briggs and owned by she and her husband, Justin. In 2021, Rollo carried Jordon into the history books winning her first world title and joining her mother, Kristie Peterson, in the elite group of WPRA world champions. This year the 8-year old sorrel gelding has carried Briggs to No. 1 in the world standings with a $50,337 cushion over Dona Kay Rule and High Valor.

"That is so amazing!" said Briggs upon learning the news. "Last year winning this was my favorite title and to win it again is amazing. It's such a compliment that my fellow competitors think Rollo is as great as I do."

Valor and Dona Kay Rule finished second in the 2022 voting after winning the title in 2019 and 2020. Finishing 3rd in the voting was Cuatro Fame "Truck" ridden by Stevi Hillman and owned by she and her husband, Ty.

For the second year, a breakaway roping horse has received recognition in this category as well. Joey Williams' 11-year old bay mare Baybe Bullet "Baybe" captured the title in 2022. Williams and Baybe will be making their second National Finals Breakaway Roping appearance, Nov. 29-30 at the South Point Arena. Baybe is owned by Joey and her husband, Taylor. In fact, Baybe was raised on the family's ranch and was trained by Taylor. Baybe's full sister, J-Lo helped PRCA team roper Clay Tryan qualify for the 2021 Wrangler NFR.

Martha Angelone enters her third NFBR as the No. 1 ranked breakaway roper and that is largely credit to the horse she has ridden this year, Spots Lil Legend "Legend" owned by Tanner Green. Legend and Angelone finished second in the Horse of the Year voting but are looking to cap the year off with a world title.

Rounding out the top 3 on the breakaway side is Stylish Drifter "Dutch" who has carried his owner Josie Conner to the WPRA Rookie of the Year title and her first NFBR qualification. Conner and her 13-year old gelding are looking to write their own headlines for years to come.

The top three horses in each WPRA category are listed below.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There's been a lot of talk lately about identity. Who am I? Why am I here? The Bible says in Ecc. 1:9 that there is nothing new under the sun. Anybody remember bell bottom jeans? Buck stitched halters, bridles, belts? Color coordinated felt cowboy hats? Not the ones you see today. Like from the 60's! They are back!

We've all thought we're on the cutting edge of fashion and culture. We've all got it to do. Figuring out just who we are. We can fast track who we are by spending time in the Bible. 2 Cor. 5:21 tells us we are the righteousness of God. 2 Cor. 5:20, we are ambassadors for Christ.

As a young person, I had plenty of opportunity to question my worth. Every rodeo my mom came to she yelled and cheered for MY HORSE! Yep, Ladd had his own cheering section. Not me. There was always quite a lot of alcohol involved so that could have had something to do with it.

One day I asked if I was adopted, because I was the only one in our family that didn't like to hunt or fish or garden. Mom dispelled my fears by saying, "Sher, you don't have to worry about being adopted. If we would have had our choice, we would have never picked you." That's where Romans 8:15 comes in. It says that we are adopted to sonship.

My friend, you are God's child. He makes NO mistakes. He loves you so much. Spend time with Him and you won't be confused about who you are! Jere. 29:11 tells us He gives us a future and hope! God is so good!
