Cally Thomas & "Dolly Junior" Sweep Badland Circuit Finals & Yearend Titles

By Tanya Randall

The great mare TR Dashing Badger, better known as Dolly, was one of the most recognizable stars out of the Badlands circuit for many years, taking Jill Moody to several National Finals Rodeo appearances.

Now it's her little brother Trcashenbadger's ("DJ") time in the spotlight, carrying Cally Thomas to dual titles at the Badlands Circuit Finals with average and yearend titles.

"I really didn't have any plans of circuit rodeoing," said Thomas. "I was just going to go to some of the bigger ones in June and July and see how it went from there. After I won Killdeer I was wanting to go home and give my horse a break. I'd been gone since the middle of June. I decided that I'd rather go home and go to the close ones and give him a bit of a break and it ended up working pretty good."

The circuit finals was a new experience for Thomas, who hails from Harrold, S.D. She said she wasn't sure to expect.

"We have four runs for our circuit finals, so it was hard knowing if it was going to be an endurance contest, who could leave the barrels up or if you were going to have make really good runs every night."

Thomas and DJ ended up placing in every round and winning the average and $8,391.

"The first night a few girls tipped, but there weren't that many tips throughout the week," she said. "There were a lot of really nice horses there and they put together four really nice runs. The first night the ground was a little slick and a lot of horses slipped including DJ. The second run was pretty wild but he won the round."

"On the third night, I was getting kind of worried, wondering if I should go for it or just try to keep the barrels up. We have a random draw and I ended up being last out. There was a barrel race that day and the ground had gotten a lot better. I just sat there and watched the barrel race and every girl made a smoking run so it was good for me because I knew I had go for it and couldn't safety up. Then going into the last night, I had only an $80 lead, so I needed to stay good in the average, but I needed a good run too because those other girls were staying really consistent. I was first out. I said I'm going to go for the round and whatever happens, happens."

As it happened, Thomas has a reason to rodeo a little more next year after getting her feet truly wet this season. After graduating Kansas State University in May 2013, Thomas went home to work at the family's purebred cattle operation, where she spends a lot of time raising and fitting show cattle. With her college horse not quiet the caliber of horse to continue on with and DJ out with what was thought to be a career-ending injury, Thomas spent more than a year regroup until she got a surprise last summer.

"DJ was running and bucking in his pasture, and thought, 'Buddy, if you're sound enough to do that, you're sound enough to run barrels,'" she said. "I ran him at a few jackpots last August, but the first big places I really went were in October. I went down to Waco in November and that's when Jana Bean ended up taking him. I didn't think I was going to have time to rodeo and I wanted to get him out there."

Thomas was hoping that having DJ out on the rodeo circuit would help promote Dolly, who was starting her broodmare career, and their full brother TR Illuminator Cash, who the Thomas' are standing at stud. All three were bred by Thomas' grandfather Harry. They are by Mr Illuminator out of TR Double Cash, by Texas High Dasher.

While DJ got the glamour wins in the circuit, TR Illuminator

Boyington named 2015 Zoetis PRCA Veterinarian of the Year

For his dedication and service to rodeo livestock, Dr. John Boyington has been selected as the 2015 Zoetis PRCA Veterinarian of the Year.

For the last 25 years, Dr. Boyington has served as the on-site veterinarian for Kansas' Biggest Rodeo in Phillipsburg, Kan. As a contestant in 1978, Dr. Boyington won the Phillipsburg Rodeo steer wrestling title, only to put his rodeo career on hold to pursue a career in veterinary medicine. Dr. Boyington continually demonstrates his commitment to rodeo livestock by going above and beyond the call to provide veterinary care.

Nomination letters received on behalf of Dr. Boyington included Kansas' Biggest Rodeo Vice President J.D. Shelton, Phillipsburg City Mayor Fred E. Robinson, PRCA Stock Contractor Rhett Beutler and rodeo contestants. These letters spoke of Dr. Boyington's commitment to the sport of rodeo, dedication to the welfare and treatment of rodeo livestock and his community involvement. Boyington will be honored at the PRCA Contract Personnel Banquet Dec. 2 at The South Point Hotel, Casino & Spa in Las Vegas, Nev.

Other finalists for the 2015 award included Dr. Tony Scheiber of Cody, Wyo.; Dr. Jerry Billquist of Boerne, Texas; Dr. Marty Dean Tanner of Elgin, Texas; and Dr. Rett Scoggin of Belle Fourche, S.D.

The Zoetis PRCA Veterinarian of the Year Award was created in 2010 to recognize the dedication of veterinarians across the country to the health and welfare of rodeo livestock. Nominations are submitted by PRCA members and PRCA rodeo committees. The selection committee reviews those nominations for specific contributions to the health and welfare of rodeo livestock, extent of involvement in the sport of rodeo and community involvement.

Past winners of the 2015 PRCA Veterinarian of the Year Award include: Dr. William Anderson, Fort Worth, Texas, 2010; Dr. Garth Lamb, Las Vegas, Nev., 2011; Dr. Jake Wells, San Antonio, Texas, 2012; Dr. Joe Coli, Reno, Nev., 2013 and Dr. J. Fred Rule, Elk City, Okla., 2014.

For full coverage of the Zoetis PRCA Veterinarian of the Year Award, including an interview with Dr. Boyington, read the October 23 issue of the ProRodeo Sports News.

A photo of Dr. Boyington is available upon request. For more information, contact Jed Pugsley, jpugsley@prorodeo.com.

Contract personnel named for WNFR and NFSR

The contract personnel for the Dec. 3-12 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo and the Nov. 6-7 Clem McSpadden National Finals Steer Roping have been announced, and the lists feature some familiar names.

For the third straight year, the trio of announcers for the WNFR remains the same. Boyd Polhamus of Brenham, Texas, Randy Corley of Silverdale, Wash., and Wayne Brooks of Lampasas, Texas, will be on the microphone for the 10 nights in Las Vegas. It marks the 17th consecutive year Polhamus will announce the WNFR, and his 20th overall. It's Corley's 15th WNFR appearance, and the fifth of Brooks' career.

Livestock superintendent John Barnes of Sutherland, Iowa, makes his 10th consecutive WNFR appearance, and is joined by chute bosses Tony Amaral of Lagrande, Ore. (timed-event) and Tom Neuens of Powell, Wyo. (roughstock). Benje Bendele of Dublin, Texas, is the music director.

Sunni Deb Backstrom of Congress, Ariz., is the WNFR secretary, which marks the 10th year in a row she has been selected, and the 13th overall. Penny Walton of Billings, Mont., is the assistant secretary.

Timer Tammy Braden of Welch, Okla., is making her third straight trip, and is joined by Jessi Franzen of Riverton, Wyo. (second straight year) and Amy Muller of Agar, S.D., who's making her inaugural trip.

On the NFSR side, the announcing team of Charlie Throckmorton of Grandview, Texas, and Jody Carper of Jamul, Calif., is back for 2015.

Throckmorton has announced the Clem McSpadden National Finals Steer Roping 15 times in a row, 16 times overall - second only to legendary rodeo announcer McSpadden himself (27 times and 17 in a row). Carper makes his third appearance this year.

Chute boss John Gwatney of Marquez, Texas, is back for his sixth consecutive trip, while pickup man Butch Braden of Welch, Okla., makes his fifth appearance in a row and secretary Sandy Gwatney of Marquez, Texas, is back for the second time.

Both timers - Roberta Sankey of Joliet, Mont., and Darla Kelley of Kansas City, Mo. - make their first trip to the NFSR, while Jill Franzen of Weatherford, Texas, is the music director. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

Badlands Circuit Honors Great Friends

The Badlands Circuit's Levi Wisness Award was presented Oct. 10 to steer wrestler Taz Olson, Prairie City, S.D. The award is given in honor of Levi, a Keene, N.D., steer wrestler who died of cancer in 2008. The Badlands Circuit lost two contestants this year, and the Steer Wrestling Horse of the Year award, a breast collar, was given to Jason Reiss' horse Scooter, in honor of Brian Fulton, who passed away in August. The Hazing Horse of the Year award, another breast collar, was given to Anton Helfrich's horse Moses, in honor of Brady Wakefield of Valentine, Neb., who passed away in July. Fulton, of Valentine, Neb., was a long-time Badlands Circuit steer wrestler and tie-down roper who qualified for the National Finals Rodeo in 1991 and 1996. Wakefield, who was 20 years old when he passed, was an up-and-coming steer wrestler and team roper.

Cash also got seasoned to the circuit, placing at a few pro rodeos including a Champions Challenge with Britney Diaz.

Thomas said that all three horses are “pretty turny.”

“DJ will sometimes get by the first barrel sometimes, but Dolly never really did,” she said. “They both want to work and do their job. They love it. The stud and Dolly are as close as you can get as far as style. DJ is a little bit bigger and longer strided than those two. Their personalities are all very similar. They both have their own ideas, but they’re good about it and they love their jobs, so they make it easy.”

Sending DJ with Bean in Texas also helped get Thomas out on the road.

“I got to fly down to Texas when I could and went with Jana. It worked out good for everybody. I flew down a few different times and stayed a couple weeks at a time. The last time I came down we ended it with Guymon and we went home from there. It worked out very good because he got to stay in Texas and she got to use him when she needed him. I can’t be away from home that much.”

Thomas may be spending even more time away from the ranch in 2016, if all goes according to plan.

“I waiting to hear what the WPRA and rodeo committees decide about Houston and Calgary and some of those, because I did finish pretty good in the tour standings, and they’ve talked about letting people in based on that,” she said. “But it’s all kind of up in the air. “Ideally I’d like to go to some of the winter rodeos and do well enough that I could pick and choose where I go this summer, but that’s easier said than done. I do feel a lot more confident. I had never gone to any of those bigger rodeos until this summer and at least I know now which pens he likes, what rodeos I like and how much we can handle. I don’t have the stud during June, so I have to be pretty picky and choosy about where I go. As long as my horse is feeling good and doing good, we’ll go. If not, we’ll go home.”

Thomas wanted to thank her family, Jill Moody and Jana Bean for all their help and support.

“Jill has helped me a lot since high school with all my horses,” she said. “Whether it’s horse stuff or mental, she’s always answering the phone and there to support me. My grandpa, he’s the one that got all us girls into the horses and he’s always there 100 percent to give me advice and help me out. My parents are home at the ranch, working, where I should be! Jana Bean helped me a lot this year. She helped me figure out some stuff to keep my horse feeling good and gave me the push to come down south and rodeo. She kept telling me ‘I know you’ll do good.’ She just kept pushing me. She gave me that final push that I needed.”

Lawrence Lands Average Win at NWBRA Finals

By Hope Sickler

Williston, North Dakota cowgirl TK Lawrence had a weekend at the North Western Barrel Racing Association Finals (NWBRA) in Gillette, Wyoming that she will remember for a long time.

Lawrence and her 7-year-old black gelding Hunk Of Luv aka "Hunk" stole the show in Gillette placing high in both rounds and claiming the average title by the end of the weekend.

"Hunk" proved to be a model of consistency running a 15.089 in the first round, good enough for second place and then running a 15.101 in the second round good enough for third place. Their total time on two of 30.190 put them in the driver's seat for the NWBRA Open 1D Average Champions.

"I wasn't sure what to expect coming into this past weekend. "Hunk" has been on vacation since the end of August so he was a little fresh but he was working great before I gave him some time off. I knew regardless that he was going to do the best he could and he didn't leave me hanging and worked outstanding. My main goal going into the weekend was to lock onto the money barrel and get us both some confidence," explained Lawrence.

Lawrence, who bought the black beauty after taking him in for training for some friends, says the gelding is by far the most talented horse she has had the pleasure of seasoning but he has proved to be a lot more than she could have ever bargained for!

"It hasn't always been very easy with "Hunk" but it is darn sure becoming worth it. He has a personality of his own and it has taken some time and diligence to get on the same page as him. He has so much heart and a world of talent and I truly believe that he loves to run barrels."

"Hunk" who is by High On Corona and out of Dealin For Dee who is by Flash Or Dash was raised and trained by the family owned operation out of Sturgis, South Dakota, Tyler and Dee Haugen.

"This win was pretty special to me because in 2014 I just missed the average win by 4-thousandths of a second. Placing second and third in the rounds was a really rewarding feeling as there were 386 extremely talented barrel horses competing. It has been an amazing experience to watch "Hunk" grow into such a talented athlete and I am looking forward to enjoying the ride with him," stated Lawrence.

Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive Champions Crowned

By Hope Sickler

The Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive is one of the largest growing barrel racing events in Canada and this past weekend was their annual Futurity and Super Stakes. Champions were crowned and riders and stallion owners alike got to relish in the excitement and action.

Garthwaite Claims Futurity Championship

Katie Garthwaite is a well-known name in the barrel racing industry not only for her winning ways but her classy and humble attitude. She and 5-year-old sorrel mare Shurfire took the fierce competition by storm and left Ponoka, Alberta crowned this year's Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive Futurity Champions.

Shu Fire is owned by Connie McCormmach from Eugene, Oregon. She is by Dash Of Royal Gold and out of Fire Water Flyer by the iconic Fire Water Flit. Garthwaite was given the opportunity to take the reins of "Shu" only a couple months ago. Garthwaite had seen the mare compete this past in the northwest under the guidance of her old jockey and could see the mare had a lot of talent.

"The girl who had her before me did a great job. I cannot take any credit for the way this mare does her job, I just climb on and let her work. She is a lot of fun and I am so lucky and blessed to have been given this opportunity," Garthwaite said.

Garthwaite and "Shu" made a smooth and clean run in round 1 of the CBHI Futurity clocking a 17.790 which was good enough for third place in the first round.

In the second round, Garthwaite and the quick little mare took almost a half-of-a-second off of their previous time, clocking a 17.362 which won the second round of the futurity.

"She worked absolutely phenomenal in the second round. She felt outstanding and I just can't believe how solid this mare is!" They took the slowest to the fastest in the short round which put Garthwaite last. She had to wait out several other outstanding teams of barrel horses and jockeys before she knew her fate.

"The short round got extremely wolfy! "Shu" got a hair by the first barrel but she ran her little heart out that entire run. They hand-raked after every runner which was great and very much appreciated," explained Garthwaite.

Garthwaite posted a time of 17.259 in the short round which took second behind other standout team of Carmen Pozzobon and Rip N Lady who posted a smokin' fast time of 17.197.

With a total time on three of 52.411-seconds, Garthwaite and "Shu" took home the victory against a very tough field of futurity horses.

"I was very pleased with how she worked and cannot wait to see what else is in store for us. I qualified for the Canadian Finals in November so I will take her along with my good horse in case I need to make a horse change during the finals. After that we will see what happens. I would like to go south to some rodeos this winter but we will see how the chips fall. At the end of the day I am just very grateful to ride such talented horses and do what I love."

Heavenly Win in CBHI Futurity Sweepstakes

Jordi Likes had a run this past weekend that she will soon not forget. She and her 4-year-old mare Heavensent King Girl also known as "Marsha" blazed the cloverleaf pattern in 17.514-seconds which won them the Futurity Sweepstakes and a check for over $23,000!

"We bought "Marsha" at the 2011 CBHI sale in Thorsby, Alberta and we paid $3100 for her as a yearling. My mom, Tanya Likes, picked her out and said she couldn't stop walking by her stall and that she was taking that horse home no matter what," laughed Likes. "We ended up with her and it has been an adventure ever since."

Likes explains that the mare is pretty quirky and has a very big personality but when it comes to barrels, she is all business.

"She has a very cool style. She is very catty and oh-so-gritty. We have already had an amazing year this year together but this Super Stakes race was my goal all year. I wanted this win more than anything, not only for myself but for "Marsha". I feel so blessed to own and ride such a talented horse. She is definitely one of those once in a lifetime kind of horses."

Hildebrandt Crowned 2015 Hawki Futurity Champion

By Hope Sickler

Rose Hildebrandt has been training winning barrel horses for years and every year she has attended the Hawki Futurity in Lincoln, Nebraska. She has placed several times in the years prior to this year, but this was the first year that the Valentine, Nebraska barrel racer has won the prestigious event.

Hildebrandt rode BHR Speedy Frost to the futurity championship making two solid runs and edging out the stiff line-up of futurity horses that were entered at this year's event.

BHR Speed Frost "Speedy" is a 5-year-old sorrel mare by BHR Super Frost and out of BHR Miss Speedy who is by Shake It Special.

"Our first run was pretty good. "Speedy" had a great first and second barrel but stepped off of the third barrel coming out of it which costed us a little time. We still ended up 5th in the first round with a 16.407 so I was still very pleased with her. She is such a fun mare and tries her heart out every run she makes," said Hildebrandt. Before the championship round, Hildebrandt spent some time fixing her third barrel.

"Ryann Pedone had her pop-up barrels set up in the warm-up arena so I worked on getting "Speedy" to get her pivot foot up underneath herself more which would help her leave the turn straighter."

The extra time in the warm-up arena proved to be helpful when Hildebrandt and "Speedy" rounded the cloverleaf pattern in 16.327-seconds, just edging out Ryann Pedone and Solid Red Socks time of 16.341.

"Our second run was good. She kind of slipped coming around the third but left straight and finished strong. I have been coming to this futurity for many years and this is the first year that I have won it. I am very grateful to have won it and every year I look forward to this event. Renea Bolling always does a great job with her events and it is always ran very professional, the ground is good and fair and the staff is always very accommodating," explained Hildebrandt.

French First Watch 2015 AQHA/WPRA Barrel Horse of the Year

This past week, the 2015 AQHA/WPRA Barrel Horses Of The Year were announced. As always, a plethora of talented horses all were deserving of credit, but there can only be one winner each year.

Topping the voting this year was the very deserving duo of French First Watch (Custer) and owner/rider Jill Welsh. After winning Reno, the rodeo fans throughout the country found out about their inspirational story.

French First Watch has been a healthy dose of equine therapy to help Jill Welsh beat cancer. Just enjoying life and running barrels might have been enough for most people, but Welsh and Custer decided to jump in the deep end of the big pool and hit the rodeo road. After winning Reno, the pair went on a tear over the Fourth of July winning nearly $24k that week alone and jumping up to #10 in the World. Throughout the summer the team kept placing along until a untimely slip kept the pair from going to rodeos the last month of the season, and they slipped to #16 in the World and missed the NFR by only a little over $300.

Winning Horse of the Year is one of the biggest awards available each year and obviously means a lot to Welsh. "It's the highest honor for the animals in our sport and to be recognized by my fellow barrel racers amongst a field of so many great horses is just the icing on a dream year!" said Welsh.

It takes a very special horse to win the highest award for rodeo barrel horses, when asked what makes him so special, Welsh said, "A horse that runs at this level is a dream and I definitely recognize that, but he's so much more. The little things; like how much he loves his Platinum bars, he'll do anything for a butt rub, and could be brushed for hours; that just brings an extra bit of joy to my day. He knows when I just don't feel very good and will put his head down and almost put the bridle on himself because he just wants to help me. He'll stand like a statue while I clumsily get on because I don't move as good as I used to. Most of all he has the biggest heart and is so smart. I would do anything for him because he has done so much for me."

Bred by Rachael & Judy Myllymaki, this golden horse was destined for greatness as his sire and dam sire, Frenchmans Guy & Dash Ta Fame, are the 2 leading all time barrel racing sires.

For those wondering how Custer & Welsh are doing, Welsh says, "Dr Herthel and the amazing staff at Alamo Pintado Equine Medical Center gave him the best care possible and have been able to get him back to 100%. I'm feeling great myself and we're both getting in shape for the new season starting with Brawley, Calif. (in November)."

In second was the hot horse over the last few years, An Oakie

In third, in another inspirational story, Vickie Carter rode Blazin Ta Fame to an NFR berth in memory of Rachel Hendrix. The 10 year old gelding is owned by Annette & the late Rachel Hendrix and was bred by Randy & Sue Rist, who also happen to be the breeders of his sire, Blazin Jetolena.

We would like to congratulate all the connections of these fine horses.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

For everything in life that we go through, God has the answer. Age for example. Isn't it interesting that the only people who don't want to be young....are the young? You can hear them say...when I get to be 16, I can get a drivers' license. When I'm 21, I can drink (not our kids, though!) Get out of high school, out of my parents' house, wearing makeup, out of college, married. The list is endless. And I'm not really sure what the age is when that turns around...but it does.

I didn't notice it too much until lately. I was checking into a hotel and this young girl asked me what had brought me to their fair city. I said, "A barrel futurity?". She said, "What's a barrel futurity?" I said, "It's a barrel race." She gasped. And said..."YOU barrel race?? You must be....". She stopped, gulped and in a very small voice said...'25? 35?' Ya right.

What does the Bible say about age? Read Psalm 103:1-5. It tells us to bless God and not to forget His benefits. And one of those benefits is my youth being renewed like the eagles'. It might not show on the outside, but on the INSIDE, where God is, my youth is being renewed!!

So when we look in the mirror and think, "What the heck happened here?", remember God's benefits. We can be old...or ageless.
