Félicitations à Toute L'équipe – KN Snap Back Tops Pink Buckle Futurity, Wins $111,732

By Tanya Randall

KN Snap Back ("Eddie"), ridden by Caroline Boucher for Julien Veilleux of Saint Alfred, Quebec, Canada, took championship honors in the Futurity and placed eighth in the Open 1D to earn $111,782 at the Pink Buckle, held October 7-11 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

"I still can't believe this has happened!" said Boucher, the Monday following her epic victory. "Thank you to my parents, my husband and friends that encourage me, even if I'm a bad friend that misses all the parties and holidays! Thank you to Tiany Schuster and Edwin Cameron, who were the first to give me a chance in the States. Charlie Cole, Jason Martin and Ryann Pedone as well. Thank you to my sponsor Seven Saddles. Thank you to Julien Veilleux and his family and my other customers in Canada that are more than just customers, we work and dream together and that's really important to me!"

Veilleux, president of Robotec, a heavy equipment company, was already happy with having a quality horse to compete with at the Pink Buckle before the victory.

"It is impressive to be surrounded by the best of the industry and have the opportunity to learn from (them)," he said. "To have a horse winning among the best is just WOW! It really motivates us to keep going!"

THE RUNDOWN w/Caroline Boucher

KN Snap Back "Eddie"

BIT: Smooth D-ring to compete. "Five minutes before my run, I'm riding her with a reverse gag. It helps lift her shoulders and keep her rib cage and hips movable."

HEADGEAR: Loose leather tiedown

SADDLE: Seven light model

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice on front, polo wraps behind

SHOEING: Steel lite rims on front, steel Sx7 on back

FEED: Purina Outlast

HAY: All she can eat coastal, plus 2 flakes of alfalfa morning and night

SUPPLEMENTS: Electrolytes, GastroGard daily, Omega Oils

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: "We believe in a lot of alternative therapies. Eddie responds very nice to them. She has her full kit of Back On Track. Eddie has a vet chiropractor, Dominique Bouchard in Quebec that checks on her every week and does what needs to be done. When we are in the States we have Don Lee or Greg Ford taking care of her."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "When they are young, we work more around the barrels, just to show them to move around, but not a lot in the pattern. But now, at 4 years old, more work to keep her supple and light mouthed, not doing the pattern, but tuning once per week around the barrels slowly. So, two to three times riding for suppling and lightness and one time around the barrels."

SPONSORS: Seven Saddles

Rider: Caroline Boucher; Owner: Julien Veilleux; Breeder: Stephen Nichols

Boucher, who also lives outside of Montreal in Quebec, kept Eddie incredibly consistent, running a 17.070 to place second in the first round and a 17.092 to placed third in the second for the winning average of 34.162 on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

She knew another clean run would make the outcome in the average "interesting" so Boucher says she tried to focus on her job as a rider.

"When I'm thinking of what I need to focus on, I'm not nervous," she said, "but if I don't think about my job, I'm nervous. My mental game plan that works for me is always focusing on doing my job on each horse, what they need from me as a rider and letting them do their job. So, on the back of Eddie, I knew I can cut a little inside of my going to the first and I really need to focus on bringing her beside each barrel because she is 'turny.' I usually need to lift my leg out of the first!"

Bred by Stephen and Kimi Nichols of Brownwood, Texas, Eddie is by leading sire Eddie Stinson. She is out of a second generation barrel horse from Nichols' program, KN Hanks Design Diva, a daughter of Designer Red out of KN Letta Girl Do It, by Letta Hank Do It. Veilleux purchased the mare as a 2-year-old.

"She had 60 days of training with Kimi and we took the mare over from then," explained Veilleux. "Like most of Kimi's horses, she was very well broke and very kind when we got her. Eddie was like the perfect girl in the group. She was very athletic and well balanced. She turned out to be the perfect horse for our program."

Eddie was the first horse that Boucher trained for Veilleux. The two became acquainted two years ago through Heavens Guy, a JL Dash Ta Heaven futurity horse that she was riding for Edwin Cameron and Tiany Schuster.

“They decided to sell him and Julien called me and asked if it would be a good horse for his daughter Oceane,” she recalled. “I thought it would be an awesome match.”

Boucher, who started jumping horses at age 11 but switched to barrel racing at 13, trained Eddie as a 3-year-old. Their first futurity was the BFA Juvenile. Boucher ran the mare through the Patriot Futurity before sending her back to Veilleux for Oceane to ride during the summer.

Veilleux says his daughter did well on Eddie over the summer.

“At first, Oceane had to adapt to Eddie’s turning style,” he said. “Eddie is very snappy behind the barrel and we hit a lot of barrels. Most of the time, she would have won the go if the barrel stayed up. By the end of the season, Eddie and Oceane were more and more consistent and were in the money at every futurity. We were very proud that Oceane succeeded at keeping Eddie on top of her game.”

The 15-year-old did a great job having Eddie ready for Boucher, who only got Eddie back a week before the Pink Buckle and didn’t even get to enter a jackpot before the lucrative event.

“We call Eddie ‘our little soldier,’” said Boucher, who started training barrel horses full time in 2015 and competing in the States in 2016. “She’s super serious, always ready to please, good mannered, never ever pinch an ear and never goofy or spooky. She is a super nice horse to be around. I can’t say anything else; she is just like a perfect little soldier.”

Veilleux says he hates that business kept him from attending the Pink Buckle, because he would have liked to have been there to celebrate the win.

“We couldn’t go to the Pink Buckle this year because of a business commitment, but I sure followed the webcast!” he said. “After the second go on Saturday, we knew that we had a shot at winning the average, so we stayed like a junky on the webcast and were exchanging texts, sharing our excitement with Caroline all day up to the last run. French Canadians love to part so the hardest part of not being there was the fact that we couldn’t share a good bottle of wine with Caroline and Oliver on Saturday night!”

Veilleux got into barrel horses because he wanted to do something more exciting than trail ride. His passion for the sport really took off when his family started to compete as well.

“It really moved from a passion to a way of life when Oceane started to compete,” he said. “My son started to compete as well last year. We started to go to the United States to compete, partner with the best in the industry and try to make our way to the winner’s circle.”

The Pink Buckle winner’s circle yielded a $94,971 owner’s share of the purse, while the Nichols earned $5,587 as the breeder and Eddie Stinson claimed $11,174.

Hallie Hanssen & Tres Movidas Dominate Pink Buckle Open, Win $55,002

By Tanya Randall

Hallie Hanssen and Tres Movidas, owned and bred by Tom Jacobs, swept the Pink Buckle Open, winning both rounds and the average for total earnings $55,002. Jacobs got $46,751 as the owner and $2,751 as the breeder, while $5,500 was awarded to the owners of Vida's sire Tres Seis.

"The opportunity for that...for an open horse that can't go to the derbies anymore...you can't go anywhere that they're going to pay you like that!" said Hanssen. "It's just really well organized and professional. The awards are awesome! I love how it's about the stallion and breeder. They were always announcing that. I thought that was really special for Tom because he got the owner and breeder money. It's just a really great event!"

Hanssen says the Standard Pattern last year was a little much for Vida's fitness level at the time, so this year, they came well-prepared.

"She had gotten a little sore, so we had sent her down to swim," she explained. "I just hadn't been on her that much and I don't feel like we had her quite fit enough, enough air into her. She ran well. She ran a .2 and .3, something like that.

"This year I made sure to have her ready. I ran her a couple weekends before just to get some air in her. We just really worked on her fitness before that. We put her in the cold spa twice a day when we were down there. We just made sure she was set up right to where she could do the best that she could."

She and Vida were simply on fire, winning the first round in 16.771 and the second in 16.721 on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

"She's ran a couple of 16.9s on a Standard set," said Hanssen. "I felt like she was running hard, but I couldn't believe that she was a .7. Then I was sitting back there, Lindsay Schulz had ran a 16.8 and she came back and ran another 16.8. Then Sabra (O'Quinn) was up. She had ran an .8 and then she ran another .8. I thought 'Boy, I'm going to have to go for it!' When she came in and ran a faster .7, I couldn't even believe it! She just has so much heart and try...I just don't even have any words for it! She's just amazing!"

Jacobs, Pritchett, Colorado, raised Vida out of his great Blazin Jetolena mare Sheza Blazin Move that took Christy (Loflin) Hefley to three National Finals Rodeos. She was sent to Hanssen and her husband Lee at the beginning of her third year.

Hanssen was in Texas when she got Vida and spent most of her time just riding the filly. Once she returned to her Hermosa, South Dakota, home, she started her on the barrels.

"Her first futurity was Arizona because she was a little bit behind some of my other ones so we didn't take her to the (BFA) Juvenile," Hanssen recalled. "We didn't really know what kind of horse we had because I hadn't even exhibited her much. She just kept getting faster every run. She did well her futurity year."

Vida had a stellar first derby year and was introduced to rodeos. Her second derby year, Vida carried Hanssen to the Badlands Circuit Finals.

In 2019, Hanssen went to 14 pro rodeos and finished No. 44 in the WPRA World Standings with $31,720. Their season was highlighted by a win at the Greeley Independence Stampede.

"She won enough to where I got into all the building rodeos," chuckled Hanssen, "but then she had a baby!"

In early May of 2020, Vida gave birth to a French Streakin Jess

THE RUNDOWN w/Hallie Hanssen

Tres Movidas "Vida"

BIT: Flaharty square twist 0-ring snaffle

SADDLE: Tami Semas

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on front only

SHOEING: St. Croix Lite Rims on all four

FEED: Re-Leve from KER

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Air-Way EQ and In Sync from MVP, Omega Fields Horse Shine

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Polyglycan, Cold Water Spa, MagnaWave, and Flex-iNeb. Swimming when not in South Dakota.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "We ride her in a lot of straight lines. It's kind of hilly around here and I'll ride up the hills some. It's just a lot of riding. If it's getting close to an event, it's breezing her some just to keep her air up. She never goes on the exerciser because she doesn't like it for some reason."

SPONSORS: ESMS, Omega Fields, Platinum Coach, Tami Semas Barrel Saddles, FlexiNeb, UltraCruz, Troy Flaharty Bits & Spurs, Bimeda, Cowgirl Tuff, MVP and MagnaWave

FUN FACT: The Hanssens cut four inches off of Vida's mane this past winter. When it's out of the braids it was touching the ground. When she's grazing, she'll still almost step on the ends, so you almost have to tie the braids up in knots. It's crazy! It just grows and grows!

filly—the result of a failed embryo flush.

Unbeknownst to Hanssen, Vida had been pregnant during much of her spectacular pro rodeo runs that summer. After clocking a 17.0 on a Standard Pattern at the WCRA Semifinals at the Lazy E in January, Hanssen noticed that she couldn't seem to get the belly off of Vida.

"I was like, 'Man, I just can't get the belly off of her!'" she laughed. Hanssen was splitting her time between the Arizona futurities and Texas, where she was trying to get Vida ready for the building rodeos in between the mare's swimming sessions. "I told Lee, I don't know if they're feeding her too much or what! I just got to looking at her. She was pretty dang fit. This just looks like a pregnant belly. My back cinch was moving forward. Sure enough, she was. They told me that I could probably run her through San Antonio but I got off her. There was no need to run her."

Ironically, the recipient mare supposedly carrying Vida's French Streakin Jess embryo came up open and thankfully, Vida had decided to hide one so the process wasn't a total loss.

"We foal everything else out, but I was not going to have any part of that!" she laughed. "We picked her at the Ruby Buckle the first of June. They had had her swimming for about two weeks. I start lightly exercising her with the baby. I tried taking her with us a little bit but it was pretty distracting. Vida was fine here at the house with the baby being wherever, but when there got to be too many other horses around she got a little too worried. We weaned her at two months and she's doing fine."

So far, Vida has had nothing but fillies. She has a 3-year-old, 2-year-old and weanling by French Streakin Jess, a yearling by BHR Frenchies Socks and an Epic Leader cooking in a recipient mare for 2021.

Hanssen spent most of the summer getting Vida back in running shape.

"This summer I really didn't hardly go to anything," she said. "It wasn't working out. I went to the ones that they did have around here, and I did go to Vernal (Utah); she won second or third there." This year, Hanssen says they're going to try to get more than one embryo out of Vida.

"We're going to focus on getting more embryos out of her than we did in the past," she said. "Before we were kind of getting one a year. We're going to try to get two this year."

They'll also try to do the WCRA events, which have been good to them in the past, as well as the rodeos that work into their schedule, and of course the Pink and Ruby Buckle races.

Hanssen wanted to thank the Pink Buckle crew for all they have done for the barrel racing industry.

"It's truly remarkable the vision behind producing an event like that, and we are all so grateful for the opportunity to be there," she said. "I also wanted to thank all the stallion owners, specifically Tres Seis, for standing behind the Pink Buckle's vision and making it a reality."

2020 Pink Buckle Barrel Horse Sale

On Friday, October 9, 2020 the Pink Buckle Barrel Race took a break for the day to hold the 2020 Pink Buckle Barrel Horse Sale at the Lazy E Arena. The horses were ready to sell and the bidding was brisk as buyers were looking for their chance at the future big Pink Buckle payouts and the Sale Futurity incentive as well.

Not many times is a ready made business offered for sale in the horse business, but that was just the case at the Pink Buckle Barrel Horse Sale as Bill & Deb Myers offered their young sire This Guyz A Keeper and his Pink/Ruby Buckle spot for sale. He looked every part the high seller in the preview as he elegantly moved around the arena. This Guyz A Keeper is sired by $13 million sire Frenchmans Guy and out of Classic Keepsake (is 98) who is an own daughter of Dash For Cash out of an own daughter of Three Bars. This unique pedigree, his correct conformation, great disposition and palomino color pushed his final price to $275,000 to Lisa Miladinovich. He will join her hot young Frenchmans Guy sire Aint Seen Nothin Yet in Broken Bow, NE. His oldest colts are 2 yrs old, so it won't be long until his colts hit the performance arena.

The second high seller for the sale was Hez Stopping Traffic consigned by the Dunn Ranch. This big, pretty, easy moving buckskin caught everyone's attention with his presence and class as he moved through the barrels in the preview. By Traffic Guy, the up and coming Frenchmans Guy son and already the sire of over $550k in earners, this 2 yr old colt is out of the amazing female family of 2 time Slot Race winner Famous Silk Panties. His first dam is Sr Godiva by PYC Paint Your Wagon. She was an earner of $65k and was the Old Fort Days Barrel Futurity Reserve Champion. Her dam is of course the Dash Ta Fame daughter, Famous Silk Panties who traces back to Bully Bullion as well. The gavel dropped at $74,000 on this buckskin colt to Kimberlie Lowery.

The third high seller was yet another stud, Commander In Chief consigned by Webb Ranch LLC. The 3 year old sorrel son of Blazin Jetolena, a $3.5 million sire, hailed from the female family of TR Dashing Badger, the 2 time NFR Barrel Racing Average winner. His outstanding movement and looks showed the power of the pedigree on the top and bottom of this stallion prospect. His dam is TR Double Cash, a daughter of Texas High Dasher, who happens to also be the dam of TR Dashing Badger. Commander In Chief went for $66,500 to Angela Richardson.

The next high seller was the royally bred gelded son of Eddie Stinson, VF Snake Pit, consigned by Victory Farms. Eddie Stinson is a hot sire in 2020, siring the Old Fort Days Winner, VF Cream Rises, the Royal Crown Futurity Winner, VF Eddies Alive, and now the Pink Buckle Futurity Champion, KN Snap Back. Plus this striking 2 year old sorrel gelding is out of Curiosity Corners, dam of World Champion and Million Dollar winner Perculatin and she is also the dam of Old Fort Days Champion VF Cream Rises who just happens to be the full sibling to VF Snake Pit. This gelding went for $47,000 and went home with Connie & Amie Hennen.

The fifth high seller of the sale went to a beautiful 3 yr old buckskin son of Traffic Guy, A Train N Traffic. This fancy gelding had all the right moves in the preview and was ready to head to the pattern and make the futurities next year. By Traffic Guy, a young sire already who has already sired over $500k in earners, the dam, Dashing Performance, is a Royal Quick Dash/Power Train mare with several young performers already out in the arena starting to prove themselves. The 3rd Dam of this fancy gelding is World Champion Racing 2 Yr Old and 3 Yr Old Filly Dashing Phoebe who produced Champion Racing 2 Yr Old & 3 Yr Old Heartswideopen. A Train N Traffic brought a final bid of $43,000 and sold to Three Bar T Quarterhorses.

Ironically in a business where fillies are usually the hot commodities, 3 studs and 2 geldings rounded out the Top 5 Sellers.

105 horses walked through the ring with 78 horses finding new homes. The sale grossed $1,813,000 with a outstanding $23,243 average.

With a $200,000 Pink Buckle Sale Incentive available in 2021, the horses that could head to the 2021 Pink Buckle Futurity were in high demand. The 3 yr old averaged $28,821, 2 yr olds averaged $21,979, the 4 yr olds averaged $17,928 and the Aged horses, with the sale topper This Guyz A Keeper ($275k) added in there, averaged $59,166.

The 2021 Pink Buckle Sale Incentive will have $200,000 total available for Pink Buckle Sale Graduates, with $100k available in a Futurity and another $100k in a 4D. For more information on the Sale Incentive and sale results go to www.PinkBuckle.com.

Repeat Victory For Amanda Welsh & Frenchman Fire Fly at Badlands Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Amanda Welsh of Gillette, Wyoming, and her homebred gelding Frenchman Fire Fly captured their second straight Badlands Circuit Finals Championship with an average victory at the Minot, North Dakota, event, held October 9-11. The $5,676 payday also gave her the No. 1 spot in the WPRA World Standings for 2021.

“It feels really good!” said the mother of two—a 3-year-old and 5-year-old. “It was just a lot of fun this year.”

Welsh’s monster-sized gelding made short work of the 13-second course, winning the first two rounds and splitting third and fourth in the third.

“I’m plum happy with how he worked for me up there,” she said. “He went in there and was honest as honest can be every round. It was a lot of fun!”

Welsh and Firefly have been to three Badlands Circuit Finals Rodeos, winning the last two. He went to his first as a 6-year-old, and he’s now 10. Welsh and Fire Fly have also qualified four times for the American Semifinals as well.

Bred by Welsh’s parents Bob and Peggy, Fire Fly is by Frosty Frenchman out of Princess Bar Dash by Hot Dasher.

“My dad raised and trained him,” Welsh said. “The fall of his 5-year-old year, Dad handed him over to me. The Black Hill Stock Show in Rapid (City) was his first rodeo and he pulled a check out of there. It just spiraled from there.”

Welsh and Fire Fly finished the COVID mangled 2020 WPRA season in 36th in the World Standings with $19,152.

“We had a pretty good winter and then COVID hit,” she said. “We just sat at home. I don’t even know how long—end March, April, May, June. Toward the end of June, the Badlands rodeos started to pick up. He had a really good summer and then about mid-August we hit a dry spell.”

Welsh says the Badlands Circuit, composed of North and South Dakota with a few co-sanctioned rodeos in the surrounding states, was really fortunate as they were one of the only circuits to have most of their rodeos.

“We were fortunate and able to keep going to most of ours so I can’t say that (COVID) affected us as much as others,” she said.

Ironically, one of the major rodeos to almost be cancelled was the Circuit Finals. On the Monday of circuit finals week, long time producers the Minot Y’s Men’s announced they’d be unable to produce the rodeo that weekend. In a matter of days, a small group was able to salvage the event.

“That was a roller coaster of a ride for a few days there,” said Welsh. “There were a small group of people in Minot that literally put it together in two days. We left on Thursday and had found out late Tuesday that it was a go, so it was pretty rocky there for a minute. All of the contestants were very, very thankful that they were able to push forward.”

Welsh says a thank you doesn’t seem like enough to express her gratitude toward the rodeo committee.

“I really want to thank the committee of Minot this year,” she said. "Without them we wouldn't have had a circuit finals, probably at all. Just a huge thank you to all of them. It was a huge effort but the rodeo went so smoothly every night you never would have guessed."

She also wanted to thank her parents for their continued support. One of her main goals is to get Fire Fly to the NFR for all of them.

"With circuit finals counting we got a little bit of a boost," she said. "I've never been able to get into the big winter rodeos. We finished our year off good enough to get into most of those, so we'll see how winter goes. We'll go to the ones that we can get into. "We'd sure like to get Firefly to Vegas next year. It's fun to take one that means so much to not just me, but my dad too. Both my dad and I have ran Firefly's dam and sire, so it's pretty neat. I would like to get one horse to the NFR for my dad."

Jessica Routier and Fiery Miss West, owned by Gary Westergren, won their second consecutive and third overall Badlands Yearend Championship and will join Welsh and Fire Fly at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in 2021.

Lacinda Rose & RR Meradas Real Deal Win Third Great Lakes Circuit Finals & Year-End Title

By Tanya Randall

Lacinda Rose of Willard, Missouri, and her homebred gelding RR Meradas Real Deal captured both the year-end and finals titles for the Great Lakes Circuit. The duo accomplished the same feat in 2017 and 2018.

"It's awesome," said Rose, a mother of four with her husband Adam. "I'm very thankful that we had it. It wasn't looking good there for a little bit."

The win at this year's circuit finals, held October 9-10 in Palmyra, Missouri, was worth $3,830 and starts her out for the 2021 World Standings in position No. 2. She will be joined by Kiley Dalchow, who also finished second in the average at the circuit finals and second for the year.

"I'm so appreciative of Wayne Knutson (President of the Great Lakes Circuit) for pushing to have them and Rocking A Arena for letting us have them there," Rose noted.

The 2019 National Finals Rodeo qualifier was sitting first in the circuit standings so she got top of the ground for her first run. She and Real Deal made the most of it, winning the first round in 14.87. They came back on the bottom of the ground and were just out of placing in the second round.

"It went really well," she said. "I don't think the ground really mattered there. It was good throughout and they dragged in between so it was really even."

Real Deal, who was bred by her father-in-law Phillip, is now 12. He started out as her husband's roping horse before she trained him for barrels.

"He fired really hard and went out and did his job," Rose said of Real Deal's runs at the circuit finals. "This has probably been his best year because I have a couple more to help him out. He doesn't have to take the full load."

Hoping for a second NFR qualification at the start of the season, Rose could only describe this COVID season as "rough."

"It was challenging," she said. "It was constantly having to adjust to things that were cancelled or moved. The schedule was just more difficult. It was set up to actually drive more miles. About the end of July, I just knew that it was going to take a lot of miles. My goal then was to stay in the top 30 so if they have winter rodeos... I love that run, so I wanted to make sure I was qualified for those."

Quite a few of the Great Lakes Rodeos were cancelled due to COVID but there were enough to have qualifications for the circuit finals. Rose also noted the ones that were held had great turnouts.

"Most of the ones up north got cancelled," she said, "but the ones in Wisconsin and Minnesota that they did have, the crowds were more than normal. They were really wanting rodeo."

The only positive to the COVID-shortened season was more time at home with her children.

Kathy Petska & Dineromadefamous Win California Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Kathy Petska of Turlock, California, and her 11-year-old gelding Dineromadefamous (“Jeffrey”) took the California Circuit Finals title by 1/100th of a second ahead of both Erin Ricotti and Katie Pascoe.

The $3,790 victory at the October 9-10 event in Red Bluff, California, moved Petska to No. 3 in the WPRA World Standings, and she’ll join Year End Champion Mary Jo Camera at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in 2021.

“It feels great!” said the multiple circuit finals qualifier. This is her fourth appearance with Jeffery.

The duo just missed the money in the first round after a trip leaving the first barrel but came back and won the second round to win the average.

“They raked before the barrels started and they raked again after 6,” she explained. “Well, I was sixth out. He turns a beautiful first barrel, but when he goes to leave it he stumbles a little bit. He’s so quick, he doesn’t hardly miss a beat. He goes down and comes right back up running. I wasn’t too far out of it.”

Petska was a little discouraged, but her husband Monty Jo, a multiple NFR qualifier in the team roping, gave her some words of encouragement.

“I thought, ‘Gosh, I gave them too much room! I can’t come back and catch them!’” she said. “My husband was like, ‘Look, you were bottom of the ground, and they’re going rake at six again, so that means you’ve got the top of the ground. Just sit there and let him do what he does. Let him make his run and chips fall where they’re going to fall.’ Luckily, they fell in my favor.”

Bred by Busby Quarter Horses, Jeffery is by PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Rebs Little Fame, by Dash Ta Fame. He’s been Petska’s since he was old enough to haul from Texas to California.

She and her husband trained the gelding together.

“I’m not a good futurity trainer,” she laughed. “Monty and I train one slow. Monty just roped off of him. I took him to a couple of futurities when he was 5 and just let him cruise through because he’s a talented little sucker.”

“When he was 6 I started entering the rodeos. I wouldn’t go to many. He was my baby. He takes care of me. Sometimes, I get off balance and he gets right back underneath me. He’s an amazing horse. He’s special.”

Petska, who has also battled thyroid cancer, hasn’t traveled outside California much. Luckily, a friend talked her into going to some of the late fall California Rodeos last year, which made her eligible for the circuit finals. As of this writing the circuit finals was the only WPRA sanctioned rodeo held within the state.

“We had to go off of the ones the year before,” she explained. “Literally, we had nothing this year. Luckily, there are a few at the end of the year and a friend of mine said, ‘Let’s go.’ If I hadn’t went with her, I wouldn't have even made it. There were girls like Nellie (Miller) and couple of others that couldn't go to the circuit finals because they don't start going until the spring."

Like so many contestants, Petska is grateful to have a circuit finals to attend. She wanted to thank James Miller, Nellie's husband and manager of the Red Bluff Roundup, for putting together the circuit finals, the California Circuit President Johnny Zamora and Darrick Hoskins of My Car in Salinas for donating the added money to the barrel race.

Petska says she plans on going more in 2021 even if it means traveling outside the circuit.

LGI International Championships Will be held at Lazy E

In light of the past years pandemic and political situation in the US, those of us with children in the agriculture, stock show and rodeo community have witnessed devastating cancellations of so many events that deeply impact our children. In an effort to continue our support for the future of our barrel racing industry, our friend, World Champion barrel racer Kelly Kaminski, the Lazy E Arena and our team here at the Lance Graves International championship barrel races have not only rejected cancellation but also decided to "doubled down" on our commitment to excellence in youth championship barrel racing!

This year the 2021 LGI youth championship 4D will feature TWO GO ROUNDS with BOTH rounds serving as 2021 #KKRFV Qualifiers and will feature $10,000 in added money! DOUBLE the runs, DOUBLE qualifier and DOUBLE the added money!!

The LGI is an LG Legacy Project non profit event designed to promote and support the young people in our rodeo industry while utilizing second career racehorses.

Mark your calendars to attend the February 11-14, 2021 LG International championship barrel races held at the iconic Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma! Contact twistedsistersproductions.com for entry forms and complete listing of all available LGI classes and contact LazyE.com for all stall and RV reservations.

2020 Wrangler® National Finals Rodeo kicks off with Welcome Reception

Back numbers ceremony will introduce NFR contestants December 1

The date is set, and the cowboys and cowgirls will be in the arena. The 2020 Wrangler® National Finals Rodeo (NFR) participants will be introduced to the world and receive their back numbers on December 1 at the NFR Welcome Reception in the home of the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo located at 1911 Montgomery St., Fort Worth, Texas.

This evening event will effectively start the 2020 NFR and will set the pace for 10 days of rodeo that will match the year's greatest competitors in each of the sanctioned events. The event is one of the most anticipated moments at the NFR before the chutes open.

The NFR moved to Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, this year so the event could have a live audience.

The selection of back numbers signifies the contestants' qualification to the NFR. It is a rite of passage and a confirmation of their success over the past year. All the training, discipline and preparation have brought these athletes – the very best of the best – to this event.

The Welcome Reception will start at 6 p.m. on December 1 and will be open to PRCA 2020 Convention attendees. Fans not attending the convention can purchase tickets to the reception for $30 beginning November 1.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Our God has provided all that we need to live a life of victory. Living in defeat is a curse, and we're redeemed from the curse. Gal. 3:13. So. Here we are in 2020. I see you rolling your eyes! I've rolled mine so many times this year that I get dizzy just getting up in the morning!

There are HUGE issues before us. And if we listen to the wrong voice, we will begin to feel the 'quit' come on us. But as Christians, we don't win a few, lose a few. We win every time. How? By knowing and doing the word of God.

We say out of our mouths those promises we read in the Word. 2 Corin. 2:14 tells us that God ALWAYS causes us to triumph in Christ. That is NOT, win a few, lose a few. It's ALWAYS!

Can you let your mind dwell on that for just a minute? No twitching! God doesn't lie. If He said it, we NEED to believe it. Eph. 3:20 tells us that God is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all we can ask or think.

Are you thinking? Are you thinking big enough? Are you thinking victory? There are three verses in this article. Three verses loaded with life and hope. Think what you could do with the rest of the Bible...
