Robin Weaver's XF Tres Of Heroine & Alona James Break Records at Pink Buckle, Win Derby & Open For $159,102

By Tanya Randall

Alona James is no stranger to winning big checks. She won the 2005 Old Fort Days Futurity with David Eastwood's Moon Light Martha for $42,275. In 2019, James rode her own mare Mystery In The Winds to the Old Fort Days Futurity title and $47,913.

Yet neither of those winners' checks comes close to the $159,102 she collected on behalf of XF Tres Of Heroine's connections—owner Robin Weaver and breeders Larry Morehead and Xcel Farms—for winning the $825,000 Platinum Performance Derby and $1.375 million Hay Chix Open 5D at the 9th annual Pink Buckle Race, held October 3-11 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

"It's been an amazing week," said James, who is based in Ada, Oklahoma. "It's definitely an unbelievable one that I'll never forget for the rest of my life!"

In the process of winning $107,726 in the Derby and $50,876 in the Open 1D, James and Junkie set a new Pink Buckle Record with a 16.446 on a WPRA Standard Pattern. They also set a new two-run aggregate record of 33.081, which won both classes by .345 over National Finals Rodeo bound Emily Beisel and Dashing Olie.

James opted to skip their exhibition run, so Junkie's first pass through the Lazy E arena was a second-place 16.635 in the first go of the Derby.

"I knew my first run was fast," James said. "She was smooth and did everything pretty correct."

They set the new record on their second pass, which won the second round of the Derby and Open and locked down both aggregates.

"The second round she was running a little harder," James said. "We had a few bobbles here and there, but we made it work. She was just extremely fast. It's hard to be perfect when you're running that fast."

After hooking their first barrel, Junkie took a little wider approach to the second and third barrels, but James opted to keep the mare moving forward.

"I didn't really want her to jump out that far," she said, "but sometimes she does that at the second and third. You just have to go with it. I really try not to correct her because she's not really trying to do anything wrong. She'll just jump out there a little bit sometimes. She's a pretty amazing mare."

"I really think I could have run a .3 if I would have ran straight up to my third barrel. It's crazy to think about, but she really is that talented. She's made those kinds of runs before but on a smaller scale, just around the house at some big jackpots. She's 2D'd everybody a few times."

The 2020 daughter of million dollar sire Tres Seis, out of the Valiant Hero mare BP Mariahs Heroine, was consigned to the BFA Select Sale as a yearling and sold to Weaver for $36,000. Junkie ran on the track at 2 for her breeders amassing $27,254 from two wins, a second and a third in six starts. Her highest speed index was 93. By the end of her second year, she was in James' barn for barrel training.

"I futurity'd her a little bit," James noted, "but we didn't go super hard. We had a couple of setbacks here and there. I hit a couple of barrels on her to win big her futurity year. She's been very talented from the get-go. Of course, I've always known she was fast, ex-to the horse even though in this case, Junkie's breeders as well as the owners of Tres Seis each received $15,911 of her $159,102 Pink Buckle total).

Prior to Pink Buckle, Junkie's lifetime earnings were $160,579, according to QData. Pink Buckle doubled that total.

James, who spent a few years away from barrel racing while working at the racetrack from 2009 to 2015, said that Junkie will continue her derby campaign in the coming years. She's also introduced Junkie to the rodeo world, and they have won some of the bigger rodeos sanctioned by the International Pro Rodeo Association in the area.

tion in the area.

"We're just going to keep doing what we've been doing," she said. "She'll go to some of the bigger opens, and I'll dabble in the rodeos here and there."

Junkie has also started her third career. She has a 2-year-old, yearling and weanling on the ground by Weaver's popular stallion RR Mistakelly.

Rosemary Harrison's Adios Ameegos & Tyler Rivette Fling Cash at Pink Buckle Futurity, Win $132,624

By Tanya Randall

Tyler Rivette guided Rosemary Harrison's homebred Adios Ameegos to a $112,000 championship in the $925,000 Classic Equine Futurity at the ninth annual Pink Buckle Race, held October 3-11 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Rivette and "Blaire" also finished fourth in the 1D aggregate of the $1.375 million Hay Chix Open 5D for an additional $20,624. Their Pink Buckle earnings totaled $132,634, with $13,262 of that total going to the Jarvis family who own Blaire's sire The Goodbye Lane.

"I think it's great for the industry," Rivette said of Pink Buckle. "I know it's one race a year, but you can win so much money. It's awesome!"

Rivette and Blaire set the tone in the first round of the Futurity with a 16.672, which was good enough for third in the Open as well. They protected their lead with a solid 16.888 for eighth in the second round to win the Futurity aggregate with a 33.560 and finish fourth in the Open.

"The first round, I knew we had to go for it. I sent her in there and she just worked amazing. She had fast corners and straight lines," he recalled.

With a day off between the two runs, Rivette rewarded Blaire for her efforts with a hand walk for exercise and a liniment bath. "She knows her job," he said. "She didn't need me to ride her, and it was good for her to have the day off."

The next day Blaire was ready to make her second run, which Rivette described as a business run to get around the barrels cleanly without being too cautious and losing time to an incredibly tough field of horses.

"For round two, she was excited and ready to go," Rivette said. "She's a really playful horse and really happy. She'll bounce her head and sling her braids—she's got a long mane. I knew she was ready, so I just sent her in there and we made it work."

Prior to Pink Buckle, Blaire had $150,468 recorded with QData. "She was very easy," said Rivette. "From Day 1, she immediately wanted to turn a barrel. I just worked her out and around and took her slow and never really put any pressure on her. I knew she could do it, so I kept everything very simple. I just took her to her spots and never really let her turn the barrels very tight because I knew she wanted to be turny like her mom. I think that's what helped make her so honest and consistent."

In addition to her $28,502 Old Fort Days Futurity victory, Blaire was third at the Royal Crown Futurity in Buckeye, Arizona, fourth at the Royal Crown Futurity in Oklahoma City, won the first go of the Royal Crown Futurity in Rapid City and was sixth at the Breeders Challenge Finale Futurity.

Blaire will run at The Texan later this week and has the AQHA World Show at the end of the month before finishing her futurity year.

"We've had several people try to buy her, but with a mare like that, she's just irreplaceable to us," Rivette said. "We're going to keep her and hopefully raise babies out of her in the future. We're going to derby her and see what her journey brings."

Blaire's dam, Streakin'flingindisco, who ran out more than $100,000 herself before the major incentives existed, played a pivotal role in Rivette's relationship with the A Streak Of Fling, Disco Jerry bloodlines. The mare, who helped Michelle McLeod qualify

"We have two JL Dash Ta Heavens out of her for next year," Rivette said. "They're 3-year-olds. One of them is a roan filly and she's just like Adios Ameegos, so I'm really excited about that."

The Young Guns League also helped push Harrison's stallion Flingin Roses, whom Rivette rode to AQHA and BFA World titles,

Karli Cowie & Queen Flingtima Sweep Canadian Barrel Racing Titles

By Tanya Randall

Karli Cowie's second Canadian Finals Rodeo title led to her first Canadian Barrel Racing Championship.

"It was an amazing week," said Cowie. "I'm just so thankful. My horse felt incredible and I couldn't have asked her for anything more. I'm still in disbelief that I won the Canadian title!"

The Mankota, Saskatchewan, barrel racer and her talented mare Queen Flingtima ("Fling") picked up $38,187 for the aggregate championship at the CFR, held October 7-10 at Roger's Place in Edmonton, Alberta, to jump from eighth in the standings to first with $70,924 won on the season.

"The standings were so close," Cowie noted. "I was 12th going into the very last rodeo of the year. Then I won the last rodeo, so I kind of snuck into the Finals."

Cowie started off the season with a good spring, but she and 9-year-old Fling went cold during the summer rush.

"I was actually sitting No. 1 in Canada for a month or so and then July just wasn't great," she said. "I had a real dry spell and had to figure some things out with (Fling). I found myself dropping way down in the standings. But we figured some stuff out and fall was good. Honestly, the whole season was good. I can't complain."

At the CFR, it took Fling a couple of runs to get up to speed. They were just out of the money with a 14.08 in the opening round.

"My horse was great, the whole way through from Round 1 to

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "Before the CFR, I just made sure I rode her every day. My last rodeo was in Langley (BC), and she didn't see a barrel for like three weeks after that. I just took her in the field every day and did lots of trotting. I also let her breeze out a lot every day too just to make sure she was super fit. A week prior to the CFR, I worked the barrels three or four times and just made sure she was good, sharp and wanted to be correct. At this point, she's pretty easy. You just put her where you want her to go and that's what she does."

THANKS: My vet Ty. He's done a lot for Fling throughout the years. I don't think without him we would have won our Canadian title, or we'd even still be running. He's done so much for her. My family has been great and super supportive. My boyfriend, Tyce McLeod. He made the CFR, so he's been there, done that and he's very helpful. My sponsors.

Round 5," she said of the A Streak Of Fling daughter that Lisa Fulton raised out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Queen Fa Tima. "Round 1, she had a really pretty run. I found she sometimes takes a run or two at something like this to really get firing.”

They got their first check in Round 2 with a fourth-place 13.95. “The first couple of runs, I found I didn’t just nail my first barrel,” she said. “I thought I was kind of riding to not hit a barrel, so after that, I was like, ‘No, I need to go to the horn sooner and take her to that first barrel.’ I AM going to end up hitting a barrel if I keep riding like this because I kept getting high on my first and then I thought I was going to end up catching it on the backside.”

In Round 3, they perfected their first barrel, clocking a 13.65 for third. In the fourth round, Cowie and Fling tied for the win with 74-year-old sensation Suzanne Depaoli and her horse Swing On Bye with an arena record of 13.52.

“It was just a really good run,” Cowie said. “She nailed the first barrel. The second was good. I got a little close on the third barrel. She kind of tapped in the entry and stepped off a little bit, but sometimes my horse is almost faster when she does that. She just never quits moving her feet and running, so it was super-fast.”

They sealed their championship with a fourth-place 13.74 in the fifth and final round to finish just .08 ahead of Austyn Tobey and A Streak Ta The Moon, also a daughter of A Streak of Fling, for the Finals and year-end championship.

“The last round, I was winning the average so I figured if I was faster than Austyn that I would have it won,” Cowie explained. “I just wanted to have another nice solid run and keep the barrels up. She worked great and was super solid and consistent. Honestly, she felt super honest all week, like I never felt like I was really in trouble and going to hit one.”

Cowie partnered with Fling in 2021, when she purchased the 4-year-old from Krystal Grad. Although some health issues with Fling hampered the start of their career together, the duo have qualified for the last four CFRs. They won their first CFR Championship in 2023.

Harrell Wins Young Guns Futurity, $41K on Willis Colts

By Julie Mankin

Throughout Leslie Willis' barrel racing career she & her husband have had a knack for picking special horses & the horses they pick just keep on winning.

In fact, the two 3-year-olds she sent after her injury last July to 25-year-old Jordan Harrell of Hazlehurst, Georgia, both now 4, just clocked 16-second runs to win first and second in the second round of the $250,000 Young Guns Futurity, held Oct. 6-8 in conjunction with the Pink Buckle in Guthrie, Okla. Harrell went on to win the Futurity average on The Angels Seis Fame ("Smash") and place eighth on OE Bachelor Pad ("Hugh") to earn the Willis $40,986.

"I got them last summer after Leslie's accident, and took them to their first exhibitions, then went to seasoning, hauling and getting them ready," said Harrell. "Leslie really thinks a lot of those two horses and we knew they were capable of this, but the stars had to align."

Hugh is the blue roan that won the 2025 BFA World Championships Super Stakes in December under Harrell. And Smash was entered in the Oklahoma City slot race that same month until EHV cancelled it. But inside the Laze E Arena, the 4-year-old sorrel got his chance. In the first round of the Young Guns Futurity, Smash clocked the first 16.8 of Harrell's life despite taking two steps off the third barrel.

"We don't have many standard patterns here on the East coast, so it was fun to go run on something different, in that big arena," said Harrell, who hauled five head to Guthrie.

Then in the second round, Hugh put up his own 16.845 to win that round, with Smash right behind him with a 16.9 despite losing his hind end completely.

"Halfway around second, he had a pretty bad slip," Harrell said. "I kicked him up and so he stood up and made up a lot of that lost time, thanks to his straight lines, long strides and because he's so smooth."

Harrell and Smash had that 16.839 to win the first round for $8,250, then came back with the 16.914 to place second for another $5,610. And the average win paid $16,500. Willis was there to see it all. In addition to Smash's $30,360 for the Willis, he earned $3,795 for the owner of Seis Smashin Fame and $3,795 for his breeder, the Herd Ranch.

"Both horses had been riding really good up to this race, and I was hopeful they'd do their part and I would do mine and it would all happen the way it did," said Harrell, whose fiancé Cade Edwards shoes her horses and was along to help. "I knew I had two horses that were fully capable of doing well; we just had to have our time." Harrell said she went to the Willis home once last year and had Leslie show her what she'd been doing with them.

"It helped me tremendously," said Harrell, who also leans on Ceri Ward and Brandon Cullins if the need arises for help.

Harrell's father and fiancé both manage "chicken houses" in Georgia. Her mother had run barrels some and taught Jordan as a child. Although she went to cosmetology school, Jordan said she's been training horses for friends since she was about 16. She preferred to get cheap racehorses off the track and "make them a little turney."

Today, she and Cade (who've been together 9 years) have about 25 horses to try to ride daily. They'll start preparing them now for the BFA World Championships. Harrell isn't sure what the future holds for either of the Willis colts, since she knows several people have been trying to buy the special 4-year-olds.

Smash is by the chestnut four-time American qualifier Seis Smashin Fame (LTE $100,000), and out of Theangeshavespoken by Furyofthewind. Like his dam's sire, Smash is long-legged for big strides with a racy-looking frame.

BIT: Freeman gag with Mullen mouth

SADDLE: Master

SADDLE PAD: Schneider

SHOEING: Steel shoes all the way around

FEED: ProElite Horse Feed

HAY: Alfalfa and coastal

SUPPLEMENTS: Succeed, Advanced Equine Nutrition's Mag and Performance Complete, and Healthy Coat

ALTERNATIVE TREATMENTS: Turnout time. That's it.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Lots of long-trotting and loping; then before a race, a couple of days of slow work. Just keeping him backed off and soft is the main thing, but I can do that off the barrels. Cade rides him a lot because he's playful and doesn't like being scolded.

THANKS: Cade Edwards who's a big part of it; my mom who takes care of everything while we're gone; Jason and Leslie; and my vet Nate Lee, DVM.

Because Seis Smashin Fame (by Tres Seis out of Smashin Ta Fame) isn't a Pink Buckle stallion, Smash wasn't eligible to enter the Pink Buckle races in the Lazy E Arena that week. But he's in the Young Guns League, which was developed to promote junior stallions (a sire can only be enrolled until its first foal crop reaches 8 years old).

"Seis Smashin Fame had a huge part in creating this winner," said Harrell. "He's such a good dude. I hope they start selling more breedings to him."

Aldridge & Adios Sweep Young Guns Derby for $36K

By Julie Mankin

Adios Pantalones defied all odds to win the WPRA's reserve world championship last year as a 5-year-old. And he did it again to make his second straight NFR last month after an injury in the spring.

So why wouldn't he and Tricia Aldridge step off the rodeo trail for less than one week and bank $62,849 ($78,563 with Stallion & Breeder money) in Guthrie, Okla., at the Pink Buckle and Young Guns League, Oct. 3-11?

Aldridge and her 6-year-old stallion swept both rounds to win the Young Guns Derby for $36,400. But those runs also placed them ninth in the Pink Buckle Derby for $11,408 and 13th in the Open Average for $4,041 (including an owner/rider sidepot) and — oh yes — Adios won the 2D in a round of the Pink Buckle Open with a 16.9 on a standard set. It paid $11,000.

"He's only ever won like two 2D checks," laughed Aldridge. "That's okay, I've got earnings records to break!"

Adios is the youngest horse to already rank among the winningest barrel horses of all time, according to QData. With at least $1.2 million, he hovers only just behind Hailey Kinsel's Sister, Kassie Mowry's Jarvis, Lisa Lockhart's Louie, Brandon Cullins' Seger, and Jordon Briggs' Rollo.

By Tres Seis out of French Bar Belle by Frenchmans Guy, Adios was also the youngest performance horse across all Western disciplines to reach a million dollars earned, said Aldridge.

This season, he continues to awe. For Adios to outrun some of the world's best horses in Guthrie, he had to have been feeling great despite cramming to qualify for the NFR. But Aldridge said he only went to one or two rodeos a week, for the most part.

"I felt like he was really fresh still, coming off the road," she said. "So, it was a no-brainer to go to the Pink Buckle. He's super happy and super sound and feels great. I always do decent at the Lazy E, but never what the sucker's capable of winning. Whatever! It's good enough. He doesn't owe me nothing."

In fact, she laughs about how different his demeanor is at the lucrative divisional events, versus the rodeos.

"He's so lazy at the Lazy E!" said Aldridge. "If you see him at the rodeos, that sucker is so excited in the back, even for a slack, he's dragging me around and really confident. I'm not kidding — in Guthrie he walked up to the alley flat-footed like a turtle. I was like, 'Dude, you're going to have to wake up!' He's been to the Lazy E so many times that he never gives extra effort there. It's so funny he's like that. I know what he's capable of, but he's like, well, we're here again."

So, what does Aldridge do with that big a chunk of money this time of year?

"I came home and bought a horse," Aldridge said. "I'd sold all my 3-year-olds except one, so I think I had a little bit of FOMO. Now I have one that's going to be ready for the futurities about to start. She's a filly, entered in next month's slot race. It'll keep things interesting."

Aldridge had purchased Adios as a weanling and trained him before piloting him to becoming the winningest futurity horse of all time in 2024 and, a year later, a reserve world champion rodeo horse. She likes to joke to people that she wants to make the NFR like Kassie Mowry does annually, at 25 rodeos.

"But we did it backwards this time," Aldridge said. "I need to do it early, Kassie's way, so there's not as much pressure on me. And I thought I'd have that kind of season, since we earned $27,000 at three rodeos this winter. But then he broke his hock. And still came back at the end and got it handled."

After entering just five rodeos last winter, Aldridge never ran Adios again until Reno on June 26.

"I didn't even go out thinking I'd make the NFR," said Aldridge. "I figured I'd try to make the top 30 and get in the buildings to try again in 2027."

But he made the short round in Reno like he'd never had surgery. Then went to 24 more rodeos and slid into his second NFR in the 15th hole.

"Adios was like, 'No, if we're going, then we're going for it,'" Aldridge said. "We won like $100,000 in 90 days. He's incredible. I had horses with me I thought I would season, but I sent them home, like, 'Crap, we're going to make it again!' It's just been incredible. I have so much faith in that horse."

With the NFR approaching, she said, one of Adios' strengths coming from a futurity career is that he's used to staying home to get ready and be confident. He won't need to make pre-NFR runs to stay sharp.

"Last year, I didn't get to run him anywhere before the Finals, and it took him a couple of rounds because he was so excited," she explained. "Other than that, he settled right in and got to work. I have so much faith in that horse."

Aldridge keeps fans riveted for the way she laughs at her stud for his looks (like a reining horse) and laziness (like a turtle). But what he's done is exceptional.

"He's a unicorn," she said simply. "Last year, getting to the Finals at 5, nobody will ever be able to take that away from him, doing that after his futurity year. Then in Las Vegas he just got better and better and better. He's one in a million. I'm so thankful God chose him for me. He's truly a blessing. I don't care if he goes out there and hits all three barrels. He can do whatever he wants. He'll tell me when he's ready to retire."

2026 Pink Buckle Sale Sparkles

The 2026 Pink Buckle Sale was held Wednesday October 7, 2026 at the new sale facility on the Lazy E Ranch in Guthrie, OK. The high seller of the 2026 Pink Buckle Sale was the striking sorrel colt from barrel racing royalty; Hes The Goodz. The 2025 sorrel stud colt combined 3 of the Top 6 All Time Leading Barrel Racing Sires. By the $21 Million Sire The Goodbye Lane, the show stopper was out of the amazing mare Tres Movidas. Tres Movidas earned $338,404 running barrels herself and was a former Pink Buckle Open Champion and won at every level. She was by $13 Million Sire Tres Seis and out of the NFR mare Sheza Blazin Move; who happens to be a daughter of $13 Million Sire Blazin Jetolena. The royally bred future sire looked every bit as good as he was bred to be. He was consigned by Lee & Hallie Hanssen and purchased for $205,000 by Kyle Lincoln.

The second high seller was another barrel racing royal; a full brother to the All Time Leading Barrel Racing Earning Stallion & 2 Time NFR Qualifier; Adios Pantalones.

No Pants Required is a 2025 bay colt; the beautiful stud colt is by $13 Million Barrel Sire Tres Seis and his dam French Bar Belle is by $15 Million Barrel Sire Frenchmans Guy. French Bar Belle has already produced $1.5 Million in Earners. He is destined for success just like his brother! No Pants Required was consigned by Leslie Bailey and purchased for $200,000 Eduardo Elizondo.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

The news is depressing. War! Fires! Hurricanes! Floods! It's awful! But if you are a child of God, you are on the FIX IT team! You and me.

God did not pick us to be here, in the end times, to point out darkness. He put us here to shine as lights! He is on the inside of us and we should be glowing!

Mike was teaching Bible study the other night, and he was telling about Israel's 3 layers of protection. The Iron Dome, David's Sling, and the Arrow. While he was describing them, I heard in my heart, "You have a three layer protection team. The Father. The Son. The Holy Spirit!" That's AWESOME!

And as His children, we should be praying for all these disasters and evil. We have authority over every one of those things, so together we can interrupt their effect. In the natural, we can help. In the supernatural, we can win!

Let's get with it, church! It's time to shine!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
