Rookie Wins All American – Again

By Julie Mankin

Nobody has had more late-season momentum than 22-year-old Sarah McDonald.

The girl from the deep South riding 8-year-old Fame Fling N Bling, having just been crowned the WPRA 2014 Rookie of the Year and having just dominated the Justin Boots Playoffs in Omaha, Neb., turned around and won the All American Finals, Oct. 4-11 in Waco, Texas, for $14,068 (2013 rookie Victoria Williams won the event last year).

To qualify for the 2014 All American Pro Rodeo Series Finals, presented by Pendleton Whiskey and hosted by the Heart O' Texas Fair and Rodeo, a WPRA member needed to enter at least 30 PRCA rodeos by Sept. 8 that each had a total purse of less than $30,000. Contestants earn $50 for each one in which they compete, along with dollars earned at each. It took more than $10,000 to make the top 30 in the standings invited to compete in Waco.

"I didn't know a lot about any of the rodeos this year, as far as entering, and had a lady helping me," said McDonald of Brunswick, Ga. "She told me I needed to drive to a couple more rodeos that last week to qualify for the All American and I didn't even know what it was. I had to drive really far out of the way to make those last couple!"

McDonald had already hit some small rodeos in the Southeastern Circuit last spring. Qualifying for these lucrative late-season finales has been icing on the cake for a girl who didn't even fill her permit and buy her card until March and didn't "head West" until the Fourth of July, with just $8,000 earned. McDonald had borrowed a living quarters and one of her traveling partners had borrowed a truck from her dad, and everything since has fallen into place.

"I like being on the road and I'm stopping in Starkville for the American qualifier, but I'm excited to be going home this weekend," said McDonald, who stayed with a friend in Stephenville during the Waco finals. "I drove back and forth to Waco from Stephenville. Bling eats so much better in a home environment. I did the same thing at Omaha, staying with a friend in Nebraska."

Bling also thrives in environments like the All American Finals.

"She loves really small indoor pens and a blind first barrel," said McDonald. "That's her setup, and she also loves big crowds and feeds off the energy of everything. She just took advantage of having the pen set up for us."

McDonald's first two runs were money-winners, and she earned $4,168 placing in both preliminary rounds en route to making the Semi-Final round at the sudden-death, tournament-style rodeo. "I was in a group with Christy Loflin and Fallon Taylor and Mary Walker, and it was exciting to run against all of them in the first go-round," she said. "I just knew I've got to ride hard every time, and usually my horse always tries her best."

Of the nine girls brought back to the Semi-Finals (three from each Group), McDonald clocked the fastest time of the rodeo – a 15.75 – to win the round. But breathing down her neck was Michelle McLeod, who had won both long rounds of her Group on Kellies Chick and posted a 15.80 to also make it back to the final round.

At the end of the night, Loflin's 15.84 was winning the rodeo. McDonald then smoked the pattern in a 15.74 – again turning in the fast-time thus far.

"I've never ran Bling back-to-back like that," McDonald said. "But I knew she ran good there all week and was probably going to show up when I needed her to. I just knew I needed to kick really hard and try my best and I knew she'd try her best. I was the last rider in the holding pen, and when they opened the gates she tried to take off before I was ready. She definitely knew what she was doing in there by that point!"

McDonald, who studied nursing for three years in college before turning strictly to rodeo, grew up on a family farm going to barrel

Jud Little's Cornerstone Stallion Cash Not Credit Passes, 1982-2014

By Tanya Randall

The great Cash Not Credit, a sire of barrel horses with more than $1.5 million in earnings, passed away peacefully due to old age. His longtime owner Jud Little laid the great stallion to rest on the morning of October 1.

Bred by Kathalyn Green, Purcell, Okla., Cash Not Credit, a son of the legendary Dash For Cash, was out of the Azure Te (TB) mare Cute And Sassy. His maternal line also carried the lineage of the great Jet Deck and iconic racing mare Barbara L, which was very fitting with Little's love of strong maternal pedigrees.

As a racehorse, Cash Not Credit started 10 times, earning a record of 2 wins, 2 seconds and 1 third with a speed index of 103. His earnings of $8,520 paled in comparison to his worth as a sire of barrel horses.

Cash Not Credit began his career as a barrel horse sire under the ownership of Ralph McLeod of Sycamore, Ga. His colts in the hands of trainer Kim Thomas made him a name in the futurity world. His first barrel racing star was This Gals Got Credit, who ridden by Thomas and Talmadge Green, won more than $70,000 in futurity and derby competition. In 1992 Thomas won the BFA World Championship with Thinkin Of Cash.

Little purchased both Cash Not Credit and his promising daughter Nonstopwithcredit in 1998, and the two would become pillars in his breeding program at his Bar Nothin Ranch outside of Springer, Okla. He currently stands Cash Not Credit sons Chicados Cash and Bugemforcash and a maternal grandson through Nonstopwithcredit, Bestcreditmesunfrost.

Under Little's ownership, Cash Not Credit sired six horses that have qualified for or competed at the National Finals Rodeo—Chicado Cash, Smooth My Credit, Sooner Superstar, Shebe Firen For Cash and Flitin Firin Cash (a current rodeo winner for Little's wife Bennette) and K.C. Jones' dogging horse Little Extra Credit.

Other greats by Cash Not Credit include Dialaroosterforcash, Wonders Mega Cash, Credit To Fiesta and many others.

Little honored his late stallion by burying him standing up in a prominent position in his equine cemetery. As in life, as in death, Cash Not Credit leads the herd.

racers with her parents, who are in the flooring business. Her uncle, Steve McDonald, works in the construction business and trains barrel horses; he started Bling. He also gives Sarah pointers as jockey.

"He's helped me move up on different levels of horses," she said. "We have a partnership with Larry Ammons, who's always been my uncle's best friend. They actually own Bling and I ride her. I'm proud of her. We started her and for her to do this good against all of the best horses just makes us really proud."

The family is capitalizing on Bling's fame and fortune – they bought her full sister and now have four babies via embryo transfer. But she wasn't easy.

"We didn't futurity her because she was really antsy and just kind of hyper," said Sarah. "We just took our time with her and let her figure it out on her own going slow. Once she got it, she ran really good. Now she's calm and just does her job. She never sees the barrels except when I run. [A Streak Of Fling horses] are really smart horses."

The Waco finals also paid Loflin $8,979 and McLeod $7,357. While it's a nice momentum-builder going into the off-season just prior to the NFR, the Waco money goes strictly into pocket and not toward any 2015 standings.

Grann & Tell Em Belle Speak Loudly at Badland Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Dickinson State University senior Bobbi Grann earned her first trip to the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo with her four-run Badlands Championship at Minot, N.D. Grann was aboard Alan Woodbury's fabulous Tell Em Belle for the victory that netted the Sheyenne, N.D., barrel racer $4,659.

Grann, 23, started the year riding her cutting-bred gelding BC Cowabunga, but started riding straight racing-bred Belle in May. The two horses are complete opposites in breeding and style. BC Cowabunga is by Jiggers Peponita and out of Jae Bar Dreamer, by Doc's Dreamer. Belle, 9, is by leading racehorse sire Tres Seis, who sired former leading futurity horse Seis So Sweet, and out of stakes-placed Teller Corona, by Corona Cartel.

"She's a different style than I'm used to and it took us the summer to get together," she said. "There were definitely some ups and downs, but it's turned out well. She's extremely quick and fast, so it took me a while to really trust her and let her run as fast as she can."

Grann also noted that Belle, who helped Nikki Steffes qualify for the 2012 National Finals Rodeo, runs on top of the ground, which served them well this weekend as a lot of horses were having trouble with the ground in the early going of the Circuit Finals.

"The first night, everyone had trouble with the first barrel because it was really packed down," she explained. "Belle ran fantastic and we won the round. She didn't have any trouble with it at all.

"The next night they fixed the ground and it was great. We ended up second in that round to Lisa Lockhart. In the third round, I made a lot of mistakes and we came out a little longer—like fifth or sixth.

"The last round I was pretty much tied in the average with Britney Diaz. Her horse slipped and fell into the first barrel, so I knew after that I needed to make a clean run. So, that's what we did and finished third in the round and won the average."

Although Grann is working toward finishing her degree in natural resource and range management, she'd like to rodeo more in 2015.

"I would like to hit a lot more rodeos than I did last year, given that Belle stays sound," added Grann, who wanted to thank Alan Woodbury and Woody's Feed as well as her family and friends and rodeo coaches, all who have been very supportive. "We have to plan

Teenager Jacie Etbauer & Sizzle Whistle Smoke The Lincoln American Qualifier

By Tanya Randall

Teenager Jacie Etbauer of Edmond, Okla., set the pace at the American Qualifier in Lincoln, Neb., with a blistering 15.963, besting a field that included former National Finals Rodeo qualifiers Shali Lord, Angie Meadors and WPRA World Champion Mary Burger as well as top futurity hands Troy Crumrine, Latricia Duke, Jolene Montgomery and Samantha Flannery. The victory in the Qualifier, plus the carryover to the Barrel Bash Open, was worth $3,689.

The 16-year-old daughter of five-time PRCA World Champion Saddle Bronc Rider Billy Etbauer and his barrel racer wife Hollie was riding the family raised and trained gelding Sizzle Whistle, a 7-year-old gelding that earned the AQHYA Reserve World Championship earlier this summer.

Like his rider, Sizzle has a proven rodeo pedigree. He is by the Etbauer's stallion Whistle At The Babes out of Luci Belle Lee, a daughter of Skip Light Lee out of a Mighty Deck mare.

Whistle At The Babes is by multiple stakes placed and AAA-runner No Whistle, a grandson of Noholme (TB), sire of The Signature, and out of a Tonto Bars Gill mare, that the Etbauers owned. His dam is the great Fols Debbie, by Fols Native. Fols Debbie is the dam of Canadian Champion Barrel Horse Lady Perks.

Hollie only got to run the stallion for a short while before respiratory complications from an illness forced them to retire him to stud.

"He got strangles and they internalized," noted Hollie. "It did some damage to him. We figured we knew what he was, so we just kicked him out. We still use him and rope on him some, but he's not

Duke & Racin For Fortunes Strike It Rich At Hawki Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Racin For Fortunes ("Robin") is living up to her name. The 4-year-old mare ridden by veteran futurity hand LaTricia Duke for Robyn Herring topped the $5,000-added Hawki Futurity in Lincoln, Neb., over the weekend for $5,363 in total earnings.

"She's just gotten solid, easy and fun," said Duke, who trains for Schiller Ranch in College Station, Texas.

The setup at Lincoln, which was produced by Renea Boling's Barrel Bash, allowed Duke to be able to kill two birds with one stone. She was able to qualify Robin as well as Schiller Ranch's Happy To Run Em for the Semifinals of RFD-TV's The American.

"You had to run in the Qualifier, but you could carry your time into the futurity," Duke explained. "That was the only reason I really went—because they'd let us carryover. The top half went to a

American Qualifier From Page 27

Hollie also qualified for the American Semifinals on her son Tregg's AQHYA World Champion No Trouble Whistlen ("Chocolate"), who is sired by No Whistle.

"Back when we got married and started doing this we had no idea how important the mare was," said Hollie. "We bred No Whistle to everything, and they all made barrel horses. They're really easy to train. They've got a lot of run, but they've got a lot of rate—they're cowy. It's been a lot of fun training this bloodline because you just show them what to do and they do it. There's not a lot of arguing going on."

Training the barrel horses is a family project with Billy serving as chief colt starter for obvious reasons. The horses are generally started by Hollie before she passed them along to one of their three children—Kord, 17, Jacie, 16 and Tregg, 13.

"I had Jacie help me with Sizzle, because she was getting old enough," said Hollie. "I had to take her on and off because she'd championship round and the bottom half went to a consolation.

"They put some effort into scheduling to allow us to run our futurity horses in the Qualifier. A lot of futurity horses got qualified because of that. They did a great job. The ground was great. I've only been to that twice now, and I'll go back there again."

On their first run—the qualifying run—Duke and Robin clocked a 16.051, which placed 5th in the American Qualifier, tied for fifth and sixth in the 1D of Saturday's Open and was the third-fastest qualifying time of the Hawki Futurity.

Running third on the ground after a random draw for the Championship Round on Sunday, Duke and Robin posted a victorious 16.150.

"She's gotten so solid that I just reared back and sent her a little get him in to early or something and I'd have to pull her off and get him back right. He's a really nice horse, but he does exactly what you tell him to. If you tell him to run by a barrel, he'll run by a barrel. He doesn't question. He listens to you and does it right away, so if you're timing is bad it's going to look bad. He just needs a little more hauling to be where you don't have to ride so precise. I'm here to tell you, Jacie had to ride her horse pretty accurately to get him around the barrels the way she did."

Hollie said a lack of accuracy due to Jacie's nerves caused Friday's warmup run in the Open to go not so well.

"There were a lot of things that I did wrong on Friday," laughed Jacie. "I knew I had to ride him like I normally do. Every now and then I look at a barrel and I'll hit, so I have to be really careful and look at my spots and ride where I want his feet to go."

Having already run Whistle Spirit, Sizzle's three-quarter sister by No Whistle, and hit the first barrel, Jacie knew that Sizzle was her last shot in draw 102 and she didn't have long to see if her run would hold.

"He was firing really hard," said Jacie. "The first barrel, we went a little by it. The second was a little better. The third, we had it down by then."

Jacie said she she's really excited to go to the Semifinals and expects her dad to be the more nervous of her two parents.

harder than I have been to the first," she recalled. "The ground was really good, and it was holding her. She had a great first. She had a better second barrel—probably a better first and second barrel than in the American Qualifier. But, I let her get a little by the third, so that cost me a little bit of time.

"I was super happy for a 4-year-old to go up there and run an. 0 and a .1. I couldn't have asked any more of her. She was super quiet, and she always has been, but there she was so relaxed and confident. I never felt her heart rate get up before either run. She was just quiet and happy and wanted to run barrels."

Robin's gift for barrel racing is no surprise. She was bred to do it by barrel racing legend Wanda Harper Bush of Mason, Texas. Robin is by Tres Fortunes, a stakes-winning son of Champion Racehorse sire and noted barrel horse sire Tres Seis out of a daughter of Six Fortunes.

However, the true fortune comes from her powerful maternal line. Robin is a daughter of Racin Trouble, a daughter of Racin Free out of an own daughter of Bush's great Dee Gees King. Racin Trouble has produced National Finals Rodeo qualifier Shes Free To Flame, by Flaming Fire Water (also bred by Bush), multiple pro rodeo winner Flaming Pastem, also by Flaming Fire Water and Calgary Stampede $100,000 Champion Thunderandfire, by Fire Water Flit.

"I bought her for her bottom side," said Herring, who purchased the mare as a barely broke 2-year-old at Fall Mixed Sale at the Heritage Place in 2012. "Everything her dam produced has made a barrel horse, so the odds were pretty good. I knew if I didn't have a barrel horse, I'd have a great broodmare with her pedigree and black type."

Herring sent the mare to J.O. Duke for more basics and she naturally progressed into LaTricia's training program.

"LaTricia's a great trainer," said Herring. "We've made a really good team over the years."

This weekend, Herring has Robin in her trailer for The American Qualifier in Starkville, Miss. She had originally planned to qualify both Robin and her great stallion Firewaterontherocks ("Happy"), but he is currently recovering from an injury suffered at the Greeley Stampede this past Fourth of July.

"I know Happy would be my best bet if I do qualify," said Herring. "Hopefully, he's good to go by then. If not I'll have to go to Plan B."

Plan B is running Robin herself and letting Duke run another horse.

"Robin is her horse, so she should run her," said Duke. "I'm really excited to see what those two do together. I think she's going to love her, not just for her to run her, but even when she gets to start hauling her. Nothing bothers that mare. She just goes and does that job. She's probably more business-minded at that age than any of them that I've rode."

After the qualifier this weekend, Duke will ride Robin at the WPRC World Finals, JB Quarter Horses Futurity, AQHA World Show and the BFA World Championships.

"I'll get her back after Oklahoma City," said Herring. "I'll start going to the big open shows and the derbies, and then maybe work into the rodeos. Of course, I'll pull embryos from her too. She's my best broodmare right now. I can't wait to see what babies she and Happy produce. I think that should make the ultimate prospect."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We were invited to preach at the Fort Davis, Texas Mule Days Rodeo last month! I don't know about you, but I have NO experience with mules. Like most of us, however, I do have opinions (strictly hearsay) about mules and what they are like. "Stubborn as a mule" being one of them...rough riding... slow...ugly, just a few things.

So I packed my suitcase and all my pre-conceived ideas and away we went. Upon arrival I walked around taking pictures and smiling to myself. They sure don't look like my race bred quarter horses! We watched as people arrived, unloaded and saddled their mules. We talked to so many mule owners, people who actually had experience with mules, and wow did we learn a thing or two! Then, to my surprise, our friends saddled their mules and handed Mike and I the reins!! OH LORD! HOW DOES THIS WORK? I eased Stetson off a few steps. I just KNEW that he KNEW what I had been thinking and that this wasn't going to work AT ALL! SURPRISE! Off we went. Huh, he's not rough, going where I want to go...gulp! Could I have been WRONG?

YES I WAS! And God said... "SO MANY PEOPLE ARE LIKE THAT ABOUT ME! They think they know everything about Me! None of it is good and most of it is hearsay. The only time they talk about Me is to blame Me for something done or gone wrong. They don't KNOW ME!"

Right now would be a good time for you to go get your Bible and read John 10:10-11. John 3:16 is awesome, too.

GOD LOVES YOU, YES YOU, AND HE IS GOOD ALL THE TIME! If you will put your pre-conceived ideas on the shelf and take the Bible OFF the shelf and read the New Testament a few times, I PROMISE you, you will NOT be disappointed. And like me, you just might learn something!

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
