$197,938 Jackpot For Ceri Ward & GamblingSlick at Pink Buckle

By Tanya Randall

A solid run coupled with the fastest run of the entire event gave Ceri Ward and her 4-year-old mare GamblingSlick (Simone) a $197,938 payday at the $4.2 million Pink Buckle, presented by Cinch, held October 3-12 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

“What a great event! You can’t go anywhere else and win that kind of money!” exclaimed the Ardmore, Oklahoma-based trainer. “It was awesome!”

Ward and Simone topped the $925,000 Classic Equine Futurity to win $117,000. They swept the Dechra Equine $100,000 Sale Graduate Incentive Futurity and the Covered By Cori $200,000 Sale Graduate Incentive 4D for $30,000 and $16,376, respectively. The duo also placed fourth in the 1D Average of the $1.375 million HayChix Open for $26,812 and won the second round of the Platinum/Trailers Unlimited $300,000 Owner/Rider for $7,500.

For statistical purposes, all money – owner, breeder and stallion owner – are credited to the horse, but Ward’s owner’s share was an astounding $158,350 with $19,794 each going to the stallion owner Highpoint Performance Horses and breeders Brandon Stokes and Mike Austin.

“It was an awesome week. You can’t even dream of something like that happening. To do it on our horse, that we picked out and saw it through from start to finish, it’s just been exciting!”

Ward paid $38,000 for Simone as a riding 2-year-old at the 2023 Pink Buckle Sale. The daughter of $11 million sire Slick By Design was a half-sister to Ward’s sister’s futurity champion and National Finals Rodeo qualifier High Cotton Lane. Both horses are out of the Dash Ta Fame mare HMB Soon ToBe Famous.

She said that Simone always liked the barrels and wanted to do her job, although she was a little unfocused when she first started hauling her to exhibitions.

“She would look pretty untrained, just looking around and messing around and not really taking it serious,” Ward chuckled. That improved quickly with more hauling. “She’ll still look like that sometimes in a first exhibition, but it didn’t take her long to come

Simone made her competitive debut last November at the BFA Super Stakes, where she placed 11th, and followed it up with a third place finish at the OKC Slot race in December to win $36,510 as a 3-year-old.

At 4, Simone has been solid throughout the year. She earned a reserve championship at the March Into Spring Futurity and was a futurity finalist at the Lone Star Shootout, Barrel Bash Select Stallion Stakes, Old Fort Days, Run At The Rose, Colorado Classic, both Texarkana Showdowns and Ruby Buckle East and Central. Simone went into the Pink Buckle with $147,004 in documented QData earnings, not including the $3,931 she won at the recent Texarkana Showdown. The mare's Pink Buckle efforts will bump her to $348,822.

"The Lazy E has been pretty great to us for so many reasons," said Ward. She won the BFA Derby on Slick Swinging Gypsy there last year and her husband Reagan won the Bob Feist Invitational Team Roping at the facility in 2020. "I love the Lazy E."

In the first round of the Futurity, Ward and Simone were on the bottom of the ground.

"When you have that many good horses together that matters a little bit," she said. They clocked a 16.969 to place fifth. "She just made a really good pass. I kind of stepped her off the first and it made me tight at the second, but she let me handle her and came right back. She was running really hard. I was super proud of her and thought she did great."

The second run, on top of the ground, was the fastest run of the event, a 16.558 on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

"That run...she was the horse that I thought she could be," she said. "She's been making great runs all year and been super solid, but here lately she's been slamming the clock. I changed a few things, and it showed up in the second round.

"Some of it was changing my riding, just staying aggressive and putting her in a position to win instead of place. I think my natural tendency is to make sure they go in all the right places. She will do exactly that and that will clock, but I think she's the kind of horse that you can ask to step up, and she does."

Ward also made a bit change back in June to a short shank Shallow Creek No Gag Lifter with a mullen mouth.

"There's not much to it," she said. "That mare is very light and very responsive."

She adjusted Simone's slow work too.

"I just opened the turn up a little bit," Ward explained, "just helping her place her feet a little bit different, helping her get that reach all the way around the turn."

Ward, who has been a featured trainer on BetweenTheReins.us, grew up horseback and competed in junior rodeos.

"All through junior, high school and college rodeo, I did all the events," she said. "I actually used to rope as much as I ran barrels."

She had always trained her own horses in high school and college. When she finished school, there weren't the opportunities to rope like there are today, so she turned to selling and training barrel

HMB Soon To Be Famous offspring earn $285,218

Brandon Stokes and Mike Austin's late Dash Ta Fame mare HMB Soon To Be Famous (Reba) produced earners of $285,218 between the Pink Buckle and Young Gun races, held October 3-12 in Guthrie, Oklahoma. Her offspring earnings have now surpassed $1 million.

Her biggest winner was Futurity Champion GamblingSlick (Simone), owned and ridden by Ceri Ward, with $197,938.

Ward's family first contact with the blood of Reba was High Cotton Lane (Cotton), bred by Bob Burt. Her mother Kay Jones had seen The Goodbye Lane gelding at Royal Vista before purchasing him at the 2015 Heritage Place Yearling Sale.

With Ward's younger sister Paige Jones, Cotton won the 2018 BFA World Futurity Championship before helping Jones win the 2020 WPRA Rookie of the Year title and qualify for the 2023 National Finals Rodeo.

Cotton, now 11, and Jones also got a piece of the action at Pink Buckle, winning $27,086. They won the new $10,000-added Red River Equine Open Only Average and placed fifth in the Open Average.

Reba's 2020 Roarr daughter, Roarrin Ta Fame, bred by Beau and Meridith Beck, won $41,796 with owner, rider Jimmie Smith in Pink Buckle, plus another $18,398 from the Young Guns Derby, for total earnings of $60,194.

Bred by Bob Burt, Reba is out of the stakes-winning Sold Short mare Taylor Short Wine. She won two of her six starts on the track, earning $5,558 and a high speed index of 98.

Reba was a full sister to several barrel racing money earners including Karen Manning's Speedhorse Non Pro Futurity Champion Shut The Front Door, who is also a black-type barrel horse producer.

horses.

Former WPRA World Champion Joyce (Loomis) Krenek suggested that she train futurity horses.

"I knew what they were," Ward said. "At the time, Jolene Mont-Pink Buckle Futurity Continued on Page 7 gomery was at Jud (Little's) and that wasn't far from where we lived. I kind of followed Jo. (Joyce) just called me one day and said, 'I'm sending three horses to you to be futurity horses,' and I was like, 'Okay... I'm not really sure how this works,' but it's been good from there."

For now, Ward plans to finish out the year on Simone with The Texan, BFA World Championships, OKC Futurity and possibly the Jingle Bell Classic before giving her a break.

"We might flush her a couple of times, but I don't want to do a lot of breeding yet," she said. "We'll go to the derbies next year and see where it goes."

Determined Win For Kassie Mowry & Force The Goodbye at Pink Buckle, Win Derby & Open

By Tanya Randall

WPRA World Champion Kassie Mowry is headed to Las Vegas to defend her title from the No. 1 position in the World Standings, but she and her great horse Force The Goodbye (Jarvis) still have business to tend to on the aged event front.

One of her main objectives was a Derby Championship at the Pink Buckle, held October 3-12 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

“What a huge title for him!” said Mowry of her $91,412 Championship in the $725,000 Platinum Performance Derby. “I was really excited about that! I really wanted Jarvis to win this one badly.”

They also won the 1D Average of the $1.375 million HayChix Open for $44,688 and finished second in both rounds of the Trailers Unlimited/Platinum Trailers $300,00 Owner/Rider 5D for another $10,200.

While statistically all the money counts toward horse and rider earnings, Mowry and Jarvis collected $146,300 in total Pink Buckle earnings with $117,040 going into Mowry’s pockets, $14,630 going to the Jarvis family on behalf of Jarvis’ sire The Goodbye Lane and another $14,630 going to his breeder Janelle Blubaugh.

Mowry and Jarvis set a new two-run average record for the Derby and Open averages at 33.331, breaking the previous record of 33.492 set by Tres Movidas and Hallie Hanssen in 2020. They were 16.728 in the first round for third in both the Derby and Open, and 16.603 to win the second round of the derby and take second in the Open.

“I feel like I’ve failed him the last couple of years there,” said Mowry. “I’m like, ‘This time I’m not letting that happen!’ I rode really aggressive and even did a leg lift, and that’s not like me! I was desperate! How do I come here and always hit barrels on a horse that doesn’t hit barrels?”

Mowry figured it was a combination of “colt mode” because she’s there to run in the Futurity too. She suspects the change from a rodeo atmosphere might have tripped them up in the past, too.

“I come off all of the rodeos, where there’s all the excitement and energy,” she said. “He’s so much more lively and I am too because of the atmosphere. I come to Pink Buckle, and it’s laid back. Maybe we’re both a little dull. I really tried to be aggressive, especially that second run.”

While some young horses that rodeo come back to the aged events a little more cautious due to the varying conditions at rodeos, Jarvis has never lost his confidence due to footing issues.

“I can’t say that I’ve been in bad ground at the rodeos,” said Mowry, who is going to her fourth straight and sixth overall NFR. “The amazing thing about last year and this year at the rodeos is the ground has been great. The northwest has been great. The rodeos in Utah have been great. He did slip a round at Calgary, but other than that he has not had to learn how to safety up. We’re running 16.7s, .8s, .9s on (WPRA) Standard Patterns at rodeos. They’re doing a phenomenal job for us.”

Mowry said she won’t run him on bad ground or in the mud. “I don’t run him through the gate in situations where I have to hold him to make him stand up,” she said. “I don’t put him in that type of situation because I don’t think I could (hold him) if I tried. I try really hard to keep his confidence way up there. I try to never put him in a situation where we don’t run as hard just to try to stand up. It would be a step back in his confidence.”

Mowry has also done her best to limit all of her horses’ runs. “For me, fresher is better,” said Mowry. “When they’re fresh and feel good, they run harder because they want to.”

The trick for Mowry is preparing to run each horse by watching their videos as opposed to putting extra runs on them at jackpots.

“I will go back and watch videos if it’s been a couple of weeks or months since I’ve ran them and try to remember,” she explained. “I try so hard to be ready when they call his name because I don’t want to fail him. It’s hard keeping that timing when you don’t run him a lot. People might think I run him a lot because he does place a lot. He’s very consistent and when he keeps the barrels up, most of the time he places. So it might appear that he runs more than he does, but I try really hard to make every run on that horse count.”

Mowry said it’s likely Jarvis’ NFR prep runs will be in the BFA Derby.

“I have him there every single year just to ride because I know I’m going to run him Vegas,” she said, “but I did enter him this year because I thought it would be a good opportunity with good ground to go make a couple of runs.”

Jarvis, who is out of the Burrs First Down mare VF Forcitt First, has crossed the $2 million mark in career earnings.

“That horse has set that bar so high,” Mowry said. “I’m just constantly in awe of him. He’s as close to perfect as you can get a horse.”

Driver Tops TX Circuit Finals; Year-End to Urbanek-Wade

By Julie Mankin

At last year's Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo, Jordan Driver won a round on her grey gelding Judge JB Cash ("Judge"), but then needed him at a conflicting college rodeo. This year, the recent Tarleton State University graduate barely squeaked into the circuit finals, held Oct. 10-12 in Waco, and felt lucky to get to run her best "average horse."

"These were his first runs back since he blew an abscess in Puyallup," said Driver. "I only got back on Judge a couple of days before Waco. Poor guy, he had to make four runs, but I was really excited to get back on him."

Judge is always a little slower in his first run back after a layoff, said Driver, who didn't place in the first round. But what she loves about him is that he gets stronger and faster with every run. Accordingly, they placed in all three remaining rounds to win the average on four – and $9,322 total – by just .24 seconds and the coveted trip to the NFR Open in July.

"He's really easy," Driver said. "He makes it way too easy sometimes – it's like, just sit there and kick."

The honest grey is by Judge Cash (Dash For Cash x Mary Mito) and out of the Sun Frost granddaughter Bevs AA Whiz Kid. Incidentally, that dam is out of a granddaughter of Mr. Illuminator – the sire of Jill Moody's two-time NFR champion grey mare TR Dashing Badger ("Dolly").

The Drivers, who ranch near Garden City, Texas, bought the kind-hearted gelding from Jordan's college rodeo competition, Quincy Sullivan. The New Mexico family of Sullivan – one of only three girls to have ever won the team roping at the NHSFR – had bought Judge as a 2-year-old from Jeff Butler and made him into an outstanding head horse as well as pro-rodeo winner on the cloverleaf. Judge's scoring ability, in fact, helped Driver win the WCRA's Rodeo Corpus Christi last spring with its stoplight start.

In Waco, reserve average champ Tricia Aldridge and her 5-year-old superstar Adios Patalones earned $8,157. But Gracen Harman of Hempstead clocked the three of the fastest times of the rodeo – including a 15.3 that shattered Extraco's arena record – aboard 7-year-old This Guy Will Moonya to earn $6,990 and win 3 Rounds. The chestnut formerly ridden by Sissy Winn and trained by James Barnes is by Guy's Canyon Moon out of a Designer Red daughter. Harman had entered Waco in second place in the standings, but her winnings weren't quite enough to push her past leader Alyssa Urbanek-Wade, also of Stephenville. Urbanek-Wade placed in two rounds and the average to clinch the year-end Texas Circuit title on the Marne Loosenort-trained 8-year-old Martinis At Midnight ("Tito"). Urbanek-Wade, who finished 2025 at 33rd in the world standings, will make the trip next summer to Colorado Springs alongside Driver.

"I've never had a chance to run at Colorado Springs," said Driver, 23. "It's a big deal with a lot of money and not a lot of girls, so I hope to capitalize and get some money out of there."

Driver recently wrapped the 2025 season at 26th in the WPRA world standings. On Judge this season, she earned huge checks at the unsanctioned San Diego Rodeo and Rodeo Corpus Christi. But next summer's NFR Open will be a bonus for Driver in her quest for a 2026 NFR qualification. She and her dad were talking, and Driver has decided to shoot higher this coming season.

"The past few years my goal was just to make the Finals, and I've been chasing," she said. "My plan this year is to be ranked in the top

Molly Otto and Lisa Lockhart Earn Badlands Trips to NFR Open

By Julie Mankin

On Katie Lindahl's 5-year-old buckskin futurity mare Dashin On Fire ("Mesa"), Molly Otto won the closest horse race of the year over three rounds at the Badlands Circuit Finals Rodeo. In the All Seasons Arena in Minot, N.D., on Oct. 10-12, the wife and mother of three from Grand Forks, N.D., made three runs in 41.02 seconds to beat Emilee Pauley's 41.03 by a hair's breadth and earn $8,434 total.

"At Minot, you're outside at night in a cement parking lot and come in to run where it's bright and really loud," said Otto. "It's not easy for a young horse to come out of nowhere and run into that." But Mesa has come a long way since last year, when Otto hauled her to Minot and said that, despite loping "a thousand circles" inside the arena, the mare never stopped spooking at every single banner. This year, in the first round despite Mesa feeling "tight," their 13.7 placed second in the round. Then, Mesa freed up a bit too much in Round Two and was kind of looking around, Otto said. The mare was terrified of the big screen behind the third barrel.

"She's just a baby, and is kind of scared in general of everything," Otto explained. "So, I brought her into the arena Sunday morning to let her relax. We did just a little bit of slow work to build her confidence, basically, and take some pressure off and let her know she was okay in there. And it worked. She made her best run that afternoon."

Their wicked 13.4 won Round Three and clinched Otto's aggregate title over Pauley for the coveted trip to the 2026 NFR Open. What's more, Mesa also won the WPRA/Badlands Circuit's Rising Star award.

Five years ago, Otto had taken another young mare of Lindahl's — a 4-year-old named Teasin Dat Guy ("Chewy") — to the Badlands Finals where she also won the Rising Star award. Chewy and Otto went on to the 2021 NFR where they finished second, and the mare just this summer set the WPRA world afire with Emily Beisel. "Chewy is so amazing that I can't compare anything to her," said Otto. "But I do feel like this horse is also really special. When I get on her, I feel like she'll do anything for me. Even when she's scared, she's going to try. She's meant for big things."

"This mare was easy because she wants to please, but she's not a confident horse," said Otto. "Even before the OKC slot race last winter, she was whinnying for her friend right as they opened the gate for me to run."

In fact, Mesa was clocking winning times early in her 4-year-old year, but Otto thought it wise to wait until 2025 to campaign the mare.

"I put 60 days on her at the very end of her 2-year-old year, and even then, she didn't have a lot of forward motion, but had a lot of turn," recounted Otto. "I got her back in September of her 3-year-old year and it was easy to get her going. By the next spring, I knew she could handle the runs physically. But she didn't seem mentally ready for the pressure, so I asked Katie if we could hold her. I thought she was going to be a winner."

This season, they placed fourth in the Oklahoma City Slot Race, clinched the win at the Lone Star Shootout Futurity in Hamilton, Texas, and placed at the Texas Classic Futurity. This year, it was also Lindahl's goal for Mesa to earn a trip to the NFR Open. Otto laughed, saying the goals the Minnesota breeder sets for her horses always seem to work out.

Before Chewy, Otto had also trained Lindahl's Sixappeal ("Jimmy"), now 12, on whom Otto won the BBR championship and a buy-back round at the 2021 American. He's bred very differently than Chewy, and she's bred very differently than Mesa. Yet, to watch an Otto-trained horse run is to watch it skim the paint off cans while rarely hitting any.

"I guess, what do they say in barrel racing, it's about straight lines and tight turns?" explained Otto. "I try to take my horses straight up to where I want them to go. I want them to follow my hand and take the fewest number of steps possible around the turn. Every horse is different, in general, but they can follow the same path. I like them to stay real square and balanced and I try not to let them step out away from the turn or drop into it. My outdoor ground is really bad, so maybe that's how my horses learn to stand up!"

Going into the Badlands Finals, the standings had been super tight between front-runners Summer Kosel and Lisa Lockhart. In Minot, the fastest run of the rodeo was clocked by Lockhart of Oelrichs, S.D., aboard McColee Land & Livestock's sorrel mare Blazin Ta Betty ("Sasha"). Their 13.42 won the second round and their 13.46 was second in Round Three. Only a downed barrel in the first run prevented a near-sweep for Lockhart. But her $4,541 was enough to win the year-end Badlands championship over Kosel.

Sasha, a full sister to Jordon Brigg's WPRA world champion gelding Famous Lil Jet ("Rollo"), was trained by Kelsey Lutjen-Treharne (who also trained NFR mare KN Fabs Gift Of Fame, aka "J Lo"). Lockhart, who began riding Sasha in May – is making more and more clean runs after winning $60,000 at the Hondo Rodeo in Phoenix on Sasha a year ago.

Otto and Lockhart will go from the tiny confines of Minot to the NFR Open's big standard pattern next summer at Pikes Peak or Bust, where Lockhart raked in $6,750 in July to help propel herself to her record 19th NFR. But it shouldn't be much trouble for Mesa, considering Otto clocked a 17.2 on her for second at Mobridge over the Fourth of July.

Going forward, Otto will head to Texas after Christmas to train colts until April, which she's been doing for a few years now. Her kids stay in school up north and come visit her every three weeks, she said.

Otto is excited about her upcoming Lindahl projects – a 4-year-old by Ain't Seen Nothin Yet, a 3-year-old out of Chewy by The Goodbye Lane, and – in a few years – a weanling out of Mesa by RR Mistakelly. Still, Otto won't miss many circuit rodeos next summer. And no one could be surprised if this northern trainer turns back up at a future NFR. After all, she loves rodeo.

"I just love the challenge of it," she said. "I love that you have one chance and have to give it your all. You're not just out to make a good run – you're trying to win first place. It's a different mindset than at futurities."

The High Seller of the 2025 edition of the Pink Buckle Sale was the striking brown son of Tres Seis out of the highest earning The Goodbye Lane mare, Mj Segers Fast Lane, donned Thee Ironman. This future sire combined two of the hottest bloodlines in barrel racing right now. Tres Seis has sired the barrel winners of over $11 Million and race earners of over $30 Million. Mj Segers Fast Lane is the $1.5 Million earning daughter of $16 Million Sire The Goodbye Lane. She has won The American with Brandon Cullins along with a string of other major victories all the while running a bunch of fast times. The pretty brown stud was consigned by Grant & Rayel Little and purchased for $260,000 by Sarah Miller.

The Second High Seller was a special filly from another one of the hottest families in barrel racing. Ct Misty Goodbye was a 3 year old beautiful chestnut filly by The Goodbye Lane out of a Dash Ta Fame mare who's dam French Bar Belle happens to be the dam of one of the hottest sires in the business and recent NFR Qualifier Adios Pantalones. The combination of the blue hen female family with the magical The Goodbye Lane/Dash Ta Fame cross is sure to vault this filly into a top running and producing career. The fancy filly was consigned by Red River Equine LLC and purchased for $210,000 by Cracklin J Ranch.

The Third High Seller was another fancy filly, the 2021 brown daughter of Winners Version out of the amazing Slick By Design mare, Slick N Black. Winners Version just crossed $2 Million in performance earners and also has over $6 Million in race earners. The dam, Slick N Black the daughter of $11 Million Barrel Sire Slick By Design, has won at nearly every big race in the country and won right at $300k in her career. The 4 year old brown filly name One Slick Winner dazzled working through the barrels in the preview. The cool mare was consigned by Cayla Small and sold for $175,00 to Richard Kuhn.

Nutrena Horse of the Year Awards Presented by AQHA

By Ann Bleiker, courtesy of the WPRA

While most awards in rodeo are reserved for the human athlete, there is one that is solely based on the equine athlete's accomplishments and what makes it even more special is that it is voted on by the top 25 WPRA members in each discipline. That award is the Nutrena Horse of the Year Award presented by AQHA.

This year in the WPRA category we have two very familiar award winners – one who last won this title in 2018 and one that is a back-to-back winner.

On the barrel racing side DM Sissy Hayday known around the industry simply as Sister took top honors for the first time in seven years. Sister, who is ridden and owned by four-time world champion Hailey Kinsel, will be making her ninth consecutive trip to the Wrangler NFR.

"No way... are you serious," said a very excited Kinsel upon learning the news about her beloved 14-year-old palomino mare being name 2025 Horse of the Year in barrel racing. "It has been a lot of years since the last one. What an incredible field of horses that was up for this award this year. This is the best news ever."

Finishing second for the first time was Seis Corona "Jagger" ridden and owned by Megan McLeod-Sprague, who will be making their first trip down the alleyway at the Thomas and Mack in December. Rounding out the top three was 2024 Horse of the Year Force The Goodbye "Jarvis" ridden and owned by Kassie Mowry.

Winning for the second consecutive year on the breakaway roping side is Stylish Drifter "Dutch" ridden and owned by Josie Conner. Dutch continues to carry his jockey to new heights at the age of 16 and the duo is heading back to their fourth Wrangler

National Finals Breakaway Roping ranked No. 2 in the world and looking for their first gold buckle.

"That is awesome," said Conner upon learning the news. "This is Dutch's second consecutive year to win it, and it means so much. This is such a prestigious award and highlights how great our animal athletes are because we can't do our job without them. It is extra special this year because Riley's (Webb) horse (Marked Up Cat "Rudy") won the tie-down roping award, so for the first time both horses in our barn are 2025 Horse of the Year winners, so that is pretty cool."

Taking reserve Horse of the Year honors in breakaway was Aladdins Approach "Lexus" ridden and owned by Cheyanne McCartney, who will be making her fourth NFBR appearance. Jigsaw Wildcard "Jigsaw" ridden by Aspen Miller and owned by Craig Miller finished third in the voting. Miller and Jigsaw will be making their first trip to the NFBR in December.

Congrats to all the winners and all that were nominated for this prestigious award. Barrels:

Barrel Racing Industry Alliance Releases 2026 Graded Barrel Race List

With the release of the 2026 graded race list, BRIA continues its mission to recognize the sport's most competitive events and set consistent standards for measuring performance.

The Barrel Racing Industry Alliance has officially released the comprehensive list of graded barrel races for 2026, continuing to provide breeders, owners, buyers and competitors a powerful tool to evaluate the highest levels of competition in the industry. Introduced in 2023, BRIA's grading system mirrors the widely recognized graded-stakes model used in the racing industry, providing breeders, buyers, owners and competitors with a clear benchmark for identifying the highest levels of competition.

A Clearer Standard for Measuring Competition

Each qualifying barrel race is ranked based on total entry numbers, total payouts and the quality of competition:

Grade 1: The most elite races in the sport, featuring the highest payouts and toughest competition.

Grade 2 and Grade 3: Highly competitive races with significant payouts and participation.

Restricted Grades ("R1," "R2," "R3"): Graded races with specific entry requirements, such as pedigree, state-bred eligibility, sale participation or other criteria.

As of 2025, rodeos are graded based on payout and quality of competition. This ensures premier rodeos receive the same recognition as top barrel races, even when entry numbers are limited.

Why It Matters to the Industry

The implementation of an industry-wide grading system brings significant benefits to all sectors of barrel racing:

Breeders: Horses winning or placing in graded events gain stronger pedigrees and greater value in the marketplace.

Buyers: Graded designations and black-type status make it easier to evaluate performance credentials at a glance.

Owners and Trainers: Recognition at graded events directly enhances marketing opportunities and stallion promotion.

The graded races coincide with the barrel racing black-type system and allows buyers, breeders and competitors to quickly identify performance credentials, improving confidence in sales, breeding programs and industry data.

Seamless Integration With AQHA QData

Graded designations are fully integrated into the AQHA QData Database, ensuring that wins, finalist placings and black-type status appear on:

- QData Online Reports
- QData Catalog Builder pages
- Sale catalogs and pedigree summaries

"Data-driven insights are critical for helping make breeding, buying and selling decisions," said Robin Glenn, director of QData. "When buyers and breeders see a horse's performance in graded events alongside its pedigree, they immediately understand the quality of competition. This system helps owners showcase elite performers, breeders make smarter decisions and buyers invest with confidence."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

At about 13 years old, I began to notice that I was remarkably different than the other 4 people in our family. My whole thought process focused on horses, horses, horses. My parents and siblings, though, had other interests.

My love of horses came from my dad, but even he thought about other things. As did my mom, my sister and my brother. I mean, what was wrong with them? They all loved/love to hunt, fish and garden. I HATED to fish. And I'm too tenderhearted to shoot something!

So, one day I got up the nerve to talk to my mom about it. "Mom, am I adopted? Because I'm not like you other people in this house." She looked at me, and without batting an eye, she said. "Sher, you don't have to worry about being adopted. If we'd have had our choice, we NEVER would have picked you. . . ." Well, there you go. LOL!

Did you know, we have ALL been adopted? Eph. 1:5 says so. Romans 8:15 says so. Gal. 4:4-7 says so. And John 1:12-13 says it too. Grab your Bible and read those verses!

God loved us so much He made us part of His family. And, I for one, am ever so thankful!
