Melvin Takes Two at Hawki Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Hermosa, South Dakota, trainer Hallie Melvin had a great weekend at the Hawki Futurity and Double B Barrel Bash, held Oct. 12-14 in Lincoln, Neb.

Melvin won the $5,000-added Hawki Futurity, consisting of a qualifying round that split the field into clean-slate Championship and Consolation rounds, aboard Whats A Guy To Do ("My Guy"), owned by Mickey and Anita Strohschein of Wright, Wyo. She took the reserve championship in the Hawki Futurity and the Championship in the $10,000, two-run average Hawki Futurity Breeders Incentive with Echeta Performance Horse's French Streaktovegag ("Streak"). Melvin also rode French Streakofbling, a full sister to French Streaktovegag, to the reserve championship in the $1,000-added Derby sidepot.

Surprisingly, My Guy didn't start his barrel training until the middle of April. The Strohscheins had called Melvin when she was in Washington for the northwest spring futurity run. She told them she could take My Guy when she got home.

"He was really behind, but I told him I would take him and just kind of see where it goes with him," she said. "When I started him I thought 'Wow, this is a pretty nice horse' and we could probably get him ready enough for these later fall ones. His first futurity we took him to was the last weekend of July, so he hasn't been to a whole lot of stuff. It all kind of worked out."

My Guy earned $2,966 for winning the Futurity and picked up $1,555 in the Breeders Incentive. Plus they picked up $270 for placing eighth in 1D of Sunday's open.

"His first run, he worked pretty good," said Melvin. "He just had a little trouble with the ground."

In the Championship Round, My Guy turned in a victorious 15.639.

"I thought he stood up really good and handled the ground a lot better," she said. "He kind of stumbled at the third and pulled a shoe off, but he just kind of handled it better than the first day. I couldn't really ask for him to do any better than he did."

The 5-year-old Frenchmans Guy gelding, out of Sheza Dr Kirk, by Dr Kirk, was purchased by the Strohscheins as yearling from John G. Johnson at the Fizz Bomb Futurity Sale. He was started under saddle by Tom Wagoner, who suggested that he needed to be put into barrel training.

Melvin's reserve champion Streak impressed her with his ability to overcome unusual ground trouble.

"He was having a little bit of a hard time standing up," she said. "He was kind of slipping leaving. He's a pretty gritty horse, so when he does slip, he just kind of keeps going. I thought he worked good for the kind of trouble that he had. I was so happy with how he was

Streak, a stallion by first-time National Finals Rodeo sire A Streak Of Fling, is out of PC Frenchman Flirt, by Sun Frost. He earned $2,471 for the Hawki Futurity Reserve Championship and $1,725 for the Hawki Futurity Breeders Incentive.

Consolation

Last year's champion Ryann Pedone topped the Consolation with another BHR Frenchies Socks—Holland Guy ("HG"). The 4-year-old gelding out of Holland Lady, by Holland Ease, turned in 15.704 for $1,977.

Pedone, Decatur, Texas, hasn't run much this year. She injured knee late last year and needed surgery, which she kept putting off because of her horses. Then fate stepped in.

"Every juvenile horse I had put my knee surgery off for, got crippled," she laughed. HG tore his suspensory in January at the Arizona futurities. With Drs. Don Lee and Josh Harvey working on the gelding and Sid Myers managing his feet, HG was cleared for competition by the Old Fort Days Futurity. However, Pedone decided to wait and have her surgery.

"I had my knee surgery and was back to riding in the middle

WPRA Updates Their Drug Policy for 2013

The WPRA has updated their Drug Policy for 2013.

On Monday, October 15th, the WPRA Board of Directors voted to update Chapter 18/WPRA Rule #18.1 Drugs and Prohibited Substances. To read all the updated guidelines go to the WPRA website at www.wpra.com and in the left hand corner is an "Equine drugs & medications" tab and highlighted in red are the pdf files of the actual policies.

The 2013 WPRA Drug Rules and Guidelines are a 22 page document which is WPRA Rule 18 in full. Here is the link to that document:

<http://www.wpra.com/pdfs/2012-10-12%20FINAL%20Consolidated%20Drug%20Rules.pdf>

The Medication Guidelines which cover the use of therapeutic drugs still allowed is a 5 page document that can be found here:

<http://www.wpra.com/pdfs/Medications%20Guidelines.pdf>

For some of the common questions some may ask, go to the Questions About the WPRA Drug Policy document, which is a 6 page document which can be found here:

<http://www.wpra.com/pdfs/2012-10-12%20FINAL%20FAQ%20for%20Drug%20Testing%20Rules.pdf>

Also available are the Uniform Classification Guidelines to Foreign Substances which is a 51 page document which shows which substances fall into which classes. The document also contains Classification Definitions which give a general idea of the reason substances are in the different Classes (Classes 1-5).

The WPRA is working with USEF (United States Equestrian Federation) guidelines and you can also call the USEF support staff to answer further medication related questions.

D.R. Horton Classic Rocks the Ranch

By MaryAnna Clemons

The D.R. Horton Classic Regional Tour Finale and Mile Hi Barrel Horse Finals, Sept. 21-23, in Loveland, Colo., boasted an impressive $120,000 awarded in cash and prizes. Producer, Carol Crowder, put on a rocking good show with a live band featuring Nashville recording artist, Austin Wahlert, a freestyle barrel racing competition, a Tough as Steel Slot Race and three days of stiff Open barrel racing competition at The Ranch in Loveland, Colo.

Year End Champs

Tami Bova, Mile Hi member for two years and winner of the year-end 1D saddle, buckle, jacket, frame and more on her horse Blitz a 13-year-old gelding that Bova broke and trained for barrels when the horse was eight.

"I've been going to Carol's events since she was putting on a buckle series," Bova said. "But I've only been a member for two years and it's gone well. I had a goal of getting my horse to where he's gotten this year and he stepped up and I'm happy that we won." Bova has four children and recognizes that in this economy if it weren't for Mile Hi, she could not have accomplished what she set out to do with her horse.

"Carol does whatever she can do make racing available for everyone. I couldn't have done it without her being who she is," Bova said. "I've been in other associations and this one truly is about being a family. In Texas, you came, you raced, you left. This association is much closer to their members and I find that so helpful and refreshing."

Kathy Gannon, who has been racing all of her life, brought home her awards and prizes for being the year-end 2D Open winner on her horse Smokin Fols Molly, an 11-year-old mare out of Peaches Meg which goes back to Go Three Charges and Whimmy Bar Leo.

"I love running at Mile Hi races for so many reasons," Gannon said. "I was basically a charter member in the association, joining their inaugural year with my daughters. My daughter Sara has been with Mile Hi since she was big enough to ride, and as the only one left at home, she is also an avid Mile Hi competitor. This year she's been able to dip into the Open competition, as well as winning the Summer Series awards and Year-End awards in Youth. Carol's support of the young riders is a huge draw to the association."

For Gannon, this is her first saddle with Molly and the mare has brought her through some tough personal times this year, so the win is extra special. "Coupled with the Better Barrel Races sidepot, this year was very good to us," Gannon said.

The Novice Youth was awarded to 12-year-old Christian McBride, a student in Florence, Colo., who just started riding in local gymkhanas a scant two years ago. He has been with the Mile Hi family for just a year and rode a 20-year-old Quarter Horse, Gypsy, which is owned by a family friend.

"My favorite part of barrel racing is going fast!" said McBride. "I love Mile Hi because I get to meet new people and learn new things." McBride had a great year, winning the Summer End Series and the Year-End awards. His plans are to improve and continue barrel racing. He admits to a quirky habit of eating cheese before every race. Another youth blowing up the ranks is Audrey Smith, 14, of Black Forest, Colo., who won the year-end awards for Youth 2D. Smith has been barrel racing with the Mile Hi family for three years and also enjoys pole bending, goat tying and ranch work with her dad. She is a member of NBHA and NLBRA and her main mount is a 12-year-old gelding named Smore Dat Cash, grandson to Dash for Cash.

"My mom and dad support me so much. I don't know what I would do without them. I love the laid back atmosphere of the Mile Hi events," Smith said. "My year went great, Mile Hi is the best around and they put on the best races." Smith is excited about her year-end booty of two saddles and four buckles. "I've never won a saddle before, so to win two in the same year was great. I also won two horse blankets, two breast collars and four jackets."

of July,” said Pedone, who is sponsored by Classic Equine. “I was pretty behind. I wasn’t supposed to start back riding until the end of August or first of September. I hired a personal trainer and she really helped me. I got to her three times a week and she stretches it out. She helped me the most to get back in shape.”

HG’s first big test came at Jud Little’s Bar Nothin Barrel Bash. She had gone up for the Wednesday jackpot just to start working on her timing again, but after HG placed in the 1D she decided to late enter the futurity.

“Then I almost missed my run the first day because I got my times confused,” she laughed. “He would have placed or been right out of placing that first go but I caught the first barrel. I was 107 and I was pulling up when they called out 104. Then 106 was a turn out. Kay Young helped me get him out of the trailer and saddled. I didn’t have boots on him or anything. He worked really well considering the circumstances. The second go, he placed third.”

Pedone expects HG, who is owned by Andee Shae Nored, Bowie, Texas, to get better and better.

“He’s a really nice horse,” said Pedone. “He really came back from the break. He’s really sweet and doesn’t want to make any mistakes. He’s just a really nice horse to be around. He’s probably one of my favorite horses that I’ve had.”

Walker and Perculatin Capture All American Finals Championship

By Tanya Randall

First-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Mary Walker continued on her winning roll, claiming the barrel racing championship at the All American ProRodeo Finals, held Oct. 7-13 in Waco, Texas. Although the money doesn't count toward any standings, Walker pocketed $14,763.

The All American ProRodeo Finals was the culmination of a yearlong tour for rodeos that had less than $30,000 in total added money. The top 30 money earners that amassed their earnings by attending at least 30 of the designated All American events qualified for the Finals.

The qualifiers were split into three "Pools" of 10 barrel racers each. Each Pool had two rounds with the top three money earners from each Pool advancing to a semi-final. The fastest four in the semi-final competed for the championship.

Walker, Ennis, Texas, and her AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year Perculatin ("Latte") made their first run on Thursday night, taking second, and they followed it up with a second round victory in their Pool.

"I had given Latte a couple of weeks off," she said. "I had been riding him but he had not been around a barrel. He was just a little bit sluggish. I was last on the drag and it was a little bit deep. He was just a little slow, but we still won second, which was great.

"We came back on his second run and ran the second fastest time of the rodeo. He ran a 15.97. He did great. I knew he would come right back and do good."

Walker and Latte were sixth out in the Semi-Finals, and she said Latte "made a beautiful run."

"I felt like he may have popped off the third just a tad but not much," she said. Their time was a 16.10.

Contestants didn't have long between the Semi-Finals and the Finals to recoup.

"We had 45 minutes to an hour to rest between that run and our next run," Walker explained. "In that place, it was so hot and humid. He was sweating—everybody was sweating. I thought,

The Championship run was a 15.72. Earlier, Wrangler National Finals Rodeo Arena Record Holder Carlee Pierce and Rare Dillion had tipped a barrel to run a 15.89.

It's no secret that Walker's big brown, Dash For Perks gelding needs runs to stay sharp.

"He's always kind of been that way," she said of the 8-year-old that her husband bought for her as a surprise in May 2011. "If you stay off of him for a week or so, he's got to get a run underneath his belt. He doesn't get "turned out" like a lot of people say. He's got a big pen that he can walk around in. I always keep him exercised. He gets rode every single day but I haven't been taking him around the barrels and things like that."

With a big break between now and the WNFR, Walker is left wondering where she'll go to keep him sharp.

"I don't know where I'm going to go to get some runs," she said. "I guess some jackpots or something like that to keep him tuned up. I know he'll probably have this week off. Then I'll have to find somewhere to go to get some runs."

The Cowtown Coliseum (affectionately known as Northside) in Fort Worth is an option and has been used as an NFR warm-up for many barrel racers, from Charmayne James and Scamper to Janet Stover and Hotshot. It's a perfect place, said Walker.

"You come from that long dark alley into that bright light, and it's about the same size," she explained.

But, there's one small problem.

"The glass broke (in the ceiling) and they took all the ground out and put new ground in, and it hasn't been as good," she said. "I've got a friend going over there roping and she told me she'd call me when she thought the ground would be good enough for me to go over. Surely if they make more and more runs on it each week, it will get better. I'll be waiting for that phone call so I can call and enter."

Walker does plan on attending the Tom Thumb Texas Stampede, which used to be the pro rodeo tour Championship Finale, in Allen, Texas, in November, but other than that, her plans are up in the air.

"I'm so excited and ready to go," she said of her first WNFR berth. "I told Bryon I've got 45 days. What am I going to do for 45 days!"

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's a real pleasure to ride a horse that is willing and obedient. That horse learns quickly and wants to please you. That horse is a real partner with you helping you in the arena or out on the ranch so it probably gets extra attention.

We should be that way toward the Lord in all He leads us to do. There's a Scripture that says how we will benefit "If we're willing and obedient, we shall eat the good of the land." (Isaiah 1:19)

Many times we do something because we feel we ought to for various reasons, and we probably murmur and complain all the while. We're like that horse that sighs heavily when you lead him from the barn, drags his feet and keeps leaning back to the barn. He's being obedient and sure is not willing.

Well-known evangelist Kenneth Hagen told how he learned a valuable lesson early on his ministry. It seems things weren't going well when he first left the church he was pastoring and went into traveling ministry. His car was worn out, the tires were shot and his small children needed shoes. Money wasn't coming in and he got into complaining—"Lord, you told me to go on the road and minister so I did and now I can't even provide decently for my family"

He said the Lord spoke plainly to his spirit, "You're being obedient but you're not willing!" He said he got willing real fast and things turned around for him. He just needed an attitude adjustment.

It isn't always easy to do some of the things God directs us to. It helps if you stop and think of what Jesus did for us when He suffered and died so we can have eternal life. He sweat blood just thinking about what He had to go through and yet He was willing and obedient. He prayed to God the Father and said, "not My will, but Yours, be done."

When you're in a tough situation, pray those words to our Father God and turn everything over to Him. Get willing and obedient and eat the good of the land!
