Conrado & KN Fabs Gift Of Fame Win All American Finals

By Tanya Randall

Three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Ivy Conrado took the early season lead in the race for the 2019 NFR with a $12,679 Championship at the All-American Pro Rodeo Finals, presented by Pendleton Whiskey, in Waco, Texas.

Although Conrado is now calling Nowata, Oklahoma, home, she was riding KN Fabs Gift Of Fame, bred and owned by Waco residents Kenny Nichols and Dale Barron, who were both on hand to see their horse win.

"It was their hometown rodeo and J-Lo's hometown rodeo," noted Conrado. "They were there and all their friends were there. It was a blast."

It was the first major rodeo win for the group, outside of winning second in the average at the 2017 NFR.

"We were so excited," said Conrado. "I hadn't got to win a big rodeo on J Lo, yet. Kenny and Dale got to see it. It was fun."

Conrado's trip to the All-American Finals was secured by her former mount Fames To Blame ("Famey"). The 7-year-old daughter of Lions Share Of Fame out of SX Frenchmans Peach, by Frenchmans Guy, collected almost $6,000 on the Colorado fair run of rodeos, most of which were on the All-American tour.

"She's actually the one that qualified me to the All-American Finals," Conrado said of Famey. "That last week that I had her I think I won three rodeos in one week on her. She dang sure threw down some runs when I needed her."

At Waco, Conrado climbed back aboard J Lo, who had only seen limited action since securing an NFR berth at the Wrangler Tour Finals in Puyallup, Washington, in early September.

"I ran at Puyallup and then I didn't go anywhere until Omaha," said Conrado. "Since Omaha, I didn't go anywhere until my first run at Waco. So, it's been pretty laid back month or so."

Conrado said the rodeo's tournament-style format allowed her to be strategic with her runs—even though J Lo's performance in the first round surprised her.

"You can listen and pay attention to what's winning," she explained. "It's like a target time. You can tell if you're going to have to go for it or just make a decent run. The girls before me had some trouble with tipped barrels or whatever, so I was just going to go make a decent, easy run to place tonight and come back and make another decent run and place the next night because J Lo's so consistent. She just smoked off a run. I couldn't believe her time."

They ripped off a performance winning 15.66, the fastest time of the rodeo (tying the arena record). The victory in that round allowed them to advance to the semifinals, based on money won, after hitting a barrel on their second run.

"I was all calm for my first run and my second run, I was like

"I'm going to do what I did last night!" chuckled Conrado. "I sat too soon at the first and she bowed off a little bit. That put me in a funny spot for the second. I was having to handle her to move her over, and we weren't going quite fast enough to get all the way around it. She just drug over on the backside."

They also won the semifinals with a 15.80 (2nd fastest time of the week) to advance to the Final.

"My semifinal run was back to more like my first run," she said. "It was just make a good run because they were taking the fastest four back and she was running really hard. She worked super-doo-er good. She was really snappy all weekend. Like her third barrels—those were the best third barrels I've ever had on her. Usually we kind of bow off and I've never picked on her about it because she's still won doing it."

For the four-head Finals on Saturday night, Conrado was prepared to run last as the fastest qualifier but found out otherwise when the called her name to run first.

"They told us at the gate, slowest to fastest," she explained, "and I don't like to get on until three girls before me. I was standing by myself when they announced my name to run. That threw me off just a little bit. I was putting on my rubber bands in the alleyway

Graham named 2018 Vet of the Year

Dr. Charles W. Graham D.V.M. has been named the 2018 PRCA Veterinarian of the Year for the work he's done with Rodeo Austin and many of professional rodeo's top animal athletes since the early 1960s.

"I just can't thank all of the people enough that ever helped me throughout my life and my career," Graham said. "I just treasure them and that relationship. That special relationship and the honor and privilege of seeing them be successful is something I'm very proud of. I hope I live a long life and never let them down. You can't dream you'll have something like this happen to you."

Graham was nominated by his peers and rodeo colleagues for his work not only as a veterinarian but also as a volunteer with numerous boards and committees. The Dr. Charles W. Graham Western Heritage Center was named after him for being one of the first to contribute toward it.

For the last 30 years, he's provided free housing for more than 1,000 head of livestock free of charge at his ranch each year for 30 days during Rodeo Austin.

Graham also spent a few days each year helping to treat animals at the National Finals Rodeo from the mid-1960s until about 10 years ago.

and tightening my cinch, it was a kind of fiasco. I just took my time and did it. No one yelled at me, so all was good.”

Conrado said it wasn't their best run of the rodeo, but the 15.99 was fast enough for first.

“I just didn't pull at the right time at the first or the second, but I did at third. She had the best third I've ever turned on her. She ran so hard,” she said.

Conrado started running J Lo's at the rodeos mid-July last year. Their first rodeo was the Snake River Stampede in Nampa, Idaho. She had ridden the mare a couple of times before when Nichols offered her the mare of the American Qualifier in Buckeye, Arizona. When Famey was injured, Conrado called Nichols to inquire about using J Lo.

“They let me take and I've had her ever since,” said Conrado, who wanted to give Nichols and Barron “all the love” for allowing her to ride J Lo. “They are the easiest people I've ever rode for.”

Conrado also wanted to thank her sponsors—Wrangler, Horsewear Ireland, Renew Gold, Horse Hydrator, EquiCare, Platinum, CSI Saddle Pads, Zesterra and Dr. Marty Tanner—as well as her de facto manager Jimmie Munroe and boyfriend Billie Jack Saebens.

Hyde and CH Burnin Cheeks Win Western States Futurity

By Amy Wilson

Accomplished barrel horse trainer, Cody Hyde, got to enjoy the payout and prizes at the 10th Annual Western States Futurity and Slot Race – an event he helps put on with Trudy Austin. “It’s always fun to be the winner,” Hyde said after earning the futurity championship on CH Burnin Cheeks. Held October 11-13 at the Golden Spike Event Center in Ogden, Utah, the event features a $9k added futurity. It also has unique prizes. “Trudy owns U&I Furniture in downtown Preston, and she gives a chair as a prize to the futurity champion and slot race champion,” Hyde explained. “It’s become the tradition that when you win, you get your picture taken in the chair.”

Hyde and the 4 year sorrel gelding they call “Hank” placed third in round one, fourth in round two, and won the average to collect nearly $4,000 in the futurity. “This horse has been nice and really consistent all year. He’s placed over and over, but he hasn’t won a futurity, so I was happy,” Hyde said as he then pointed out the tough competition. “With the Pink Buckle just a week behind us, I was so proud of all the local girls that went down there and did so well. It seems that the inner-mountain west doesn’t feel like the heart of barrel racing country, but there are good horses and awfully good trainers up here. To see them go down there and do so well, and then to run against those horses, makes you feel like you’ve really done something.”

CH Burnin Cheeks is a big horse at 16.1 hands and 1200 pounds, which Hyde likes. “I’m probably the biggest guy that’s going and trying to compete so it feels good to me to have a big horse under me, and he really fits me well.” He even joked that he was “too little and slow to be a steer wrestler” years ago, “but now I’m too big and fat to be a barrel racer.”

Hyde comes from a race horse background, which has influenced his favorite sire choice. “Everyone kind of has their own favorite – I’ve been a Darkelly fan for a long, long time,” Hyde said noting that CH Burnin Cheeks is by Darkelly. “They’re a race horse. They know how to go forward and naturally like to go forward, and that fits me well. They have light little feet, and they have that desire and interest to turn built into them. That fits me really well. I’ve rode Darkelly’s from the beginning, and they have been awfully good to me over the years.”

Hyde has partnered on horses with Dave Cronquist for over 20 years, and they are co-owners of CH Burnin Cheeks. They ran his dam, CH Cheek Too Cheek, on the race track. “She won several derby’s for us on the race track, and won 10 or 12 races in a row. There’s a lot of history with those horses,” Hyde said.

CH Burnin Cheeks is one of those horses that can be a little bit deceiving. “It feels like you’re going really fast when you’re riding him, but to watch him, it looks like he’s not putting very much effort into it – like he’s just coasting out there. But he really is going somewhere and it clicks.” Considering all the great horses Hyde has ridden, he gave CH Burnin Cheeks a big compliment, “I’ve been fortunate – I’ve had a lot of good horses – but he’s been as easy and honest of a horse as I’ve ever had. He’s just a nice horse.”

As fortunate as Hyde feels to have had such a long list of good horses, he said that he’s probably even more fortunate to get them in the right places afterwards so they can go on and have successful careers. Among the horses who became well-known in the rodeo world, he got to ride Kellies Chick “Skye”, and he started CP Dark Moon “Paige” before Amber Moore finished her and has since qualified for her third NFR.

Hyde prefers to ride mares. “It just happened that I had a trailer load of geldings this year. I forgot how easy they are – easy to get along with,” he said laughing. “It’s really been a fun year – they’re just easy and nice. But it takes the right gelding. I still like a mare because I think they try harder and train a little bit easier. But this Burnin Cheeks has been awfully easy and honest.”

Eventually CH Burnin Cheeks will be sold, but Hyde isn’t in a hurry for him to go anywhere. “That’s the thing about being a male barrel racer, I don’t ever feel tempted to keep one for myself,” he said with a laugh. “That’s always been the intention – that he would go on and find a rodeo home.” But first, Hyde is looking forward to running him at the BFA in Oklahoma City.

Hyde wanted to express his appreciation to everyone who came to the Western States Futurity and Slot Race. “We didn’t have one complaint down there. It makes it fun to put on a race when people are having fun and enjoying themselves. We enjoy doing it," he said. As an addition to the event, they started doing a trainer's forum last year. This year Sue Smith and Fred Hunter were asked to provide their expertise. "We appreciate them coming. It was awesome. They both did a great job, and were engaging," Hyde said noting that they each had about an hour, and they shared a lot of information in a short amount of time. "Barrel racers are interested to learn and improve and get better, and both Fred and Sue have an awful lot of knowledge and skill."

Also included at the event was the Western States Slot Race. Maddie Polonic was the champion and earned $4500 on Aint Seen Me Yet. They also won the 1D Friday and Saturday in the Open 5D race. She said in a Facebook post, "...I'll quote a very wise lady - my mom - who tells me before every run: 'Say a prayer, tighten your cinch, clear your head.'"

Big Payday for Carly Christianson & Hez My Magic Man at CBHI

Q&A with Carly Christianson
CBHI Futurity SuperStakes Winner

BRR: Can you walk us through your Futurity SuperStakes run in Ponoka?

Christianson: Going into the second round we were sitting second in the super stakes average. A good friend of mine (KC Peters) had smoked a 17.4 on Juanita Funk's mare the first day. The order was reversed so I was top of the ground which mentally, I like best. I wanted to ride as hard but as quietly as I could to get the smoothest pattern possible. I let him go on his own to first barrel, when we turned it clean I rode hard while trying to keep my lines straight to the other two turns. Third barrel is always my favorite on this horse because he feels like he is flying all the way home. A true athlete! When I heard the 17.394 announced with my name behind it I was ecstatic! One of my lifetime dreams had come true.

BRR: What was your prerun mental preparation and warmup routine before your run in Ponoka?

Christianson: Before our winning run I remembered what my dad has always told me, "You can't make anything happen. If it's meant to be, it will be." I focused all my energy on caring for Eddy. I believe if you take the best care of the horse, they will return the favor. My family and friends are amazing supporters who help me keep the best mental game possible. I warmed him up as I usually do before any barrel run. Slow work on the pattern, roll-backs up and down the arena along with simple bending exercises to stretch him out. When I went into the holding pen I began to remember all of the good and bad runs I had on the horse. I was just so incredibly thankful that we had made it there... competing against other amazing jockeys and horses! After all, he was my very first barrel futurity horse I had ever trained! A few deep breathes and a prayer for a safe and clean run, led to our victory.

BRR: Tell us about your horse, where your horse came from, and what makes him such a winner.

Christianson: "Hez My Magic Man" aka Eddy is an own son of Jess Magic (Mr Jess Perry) out of Shes My Candy Girl (Strawfly Special). He was bred and raised by Ralph, Kelly and Darby Danard. We bought him from the Bloodstock sale that ran at Farm Fair during the week of the Canadian Finals Rodeo in 2015 and he was started by our farrier, Todd Kettleon. What makes Eddy so special is that he always tries his hardest. We don't always have the perfect clean runs, but he never gives up trying to please me. Growing up as a horse trainers kid I have ridden a lot of horses... Eddy is one I will never forget. He is my unicorn!

BRR: Does your horse have any special humorous quirks?

Christianson: Hez My Magic Man is one of the quirkiest horses I have ridden. He is great around cattle, buffalo and on trails.. But if a park bench comes along you'd think he saw a dragon! He is a true racehorse. Before we run he will stand completely still, collect up and chomp at the bit, that's how I know he's ready to work.

THE RUNDOWN w/ Carly Christianson

Hez My Magic Man, "Eddy" 15.1 hands, 1,250 lbs.
BIT: Molly Powell #311 - 3/8" Twisted sweet iron dog bone
HEADGEAR: Tie-down
SADDLE: Vic Bennett Cutter
SADDLE PAD: Diamond Wool
LEG GEAR: Professional Choice SMB Elites
SHOEING: Light rim shoe all around
FEED: Morning - Hoffman's Elite Ration and alfalfa cubes.
 Afternoon - cubes. Evening - Hoffmans Elite with beet pulp, milled flax and powdered magnesium along with hay.
HAY: Alfalfa-grass mix
SUPPLEMENTS: Spirulina from Roan & Co.
CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: Eddy is worked 6-7 days a week, with a couple days being in our indoor arena that has cutting horse ground (4" deep washed sand). I like to take him to a county trail nearby so he can get a change of scenery while improving muscle tone up and down hills. Breezing him out around our 120 ft x 300 ft outdoor at least two times a week helps build his lung capacity as well. Eddy benefits from slow and consistent work through the pattern, focusing mainly on rating exercises.

BRR: How did you end up barrel racing and what do you love about the sport?

I have ridden and competed my entire life, but began barrel racing about 3 years ago. It started with the odd local jackpot (between working cutting horse shows) on an older 2D/3D horse for me to learn on. Going from a judged event such as cutting to a timed event wasn't the easiest transition, but I loved the challenge. After one year of lightly jackpotting I decided I wanted to train my own (and Eddy came along). My favorite thing about barrel racing is the adrenaline you get right before running down the alley to the first barrel. It's truly addicting! Like every horse lover, I enjoy every minute I get to care for these amazing animals.

BRR: Do you have a role model in barrel racing? Who is it and why do you look up to them?

Christianson: It is hard to pick just one barrel racing role model. But if I had to pick it would be Veronica Swales. I've looked up to her since I was a little girl. She trains barrel horses, shows cow horses and ropes as well! It takes a real hand and horsewoman to accomplish all that she does.

BRR: If you could share one piece of advice to other barrel racers, what would it be?

Christianson: My advice would be to remember that horses are not machines. Try to keep it as simple as possible. Not everything that works for this horse and that horse will work for yours. Never be afraid to ask questions! If you don't ask you don't learn, and you won't progress. Always remember to treasure every moment that is spent in the saddle.

Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I know we've talked about murmuring and complaining before. It's a no no to God. Read Phil. 2:14-15. BUT...lol! This weekend in Wyoming was a bit miserable. Cold. Snowing. Blowing wind. And I'm entered in a barrel race! The roads were a disaster.

I was driving along, very slowly, and thinking fondly of my warm house and a good book. I started to be crabby three or four times and every time I started to open my mouth, I felt like God was telling me to SHUT UP!! And it just kept coming to me to praise Him! I couldn't see 1/8 of a mile ahead of me, AND I'M IN TOWN!!! I kept thinking about where in the world I was going to warm up. It had rained first and the ground was super slick. Cold, cold wind. Are you feeling me here?!

So, I literally started dredging up thankfulness. And VERY, VERY quickly, my mind was flooded with tons of good things! I think the first thing that came to me was how blessed I am to be able to even GO to a barrel race! I have nice horses. A great pickup and trailer. I'm not lying in a hospital bed, and though some of my parts aren't as vigorous as they used to be, I'm still able to ride.

I would have friends to visit with when I got there and on and on. Before long, the snow and mess weren't as insurmountable. After all, there were 400 other people in the same boat! Was it ideal? No. Was it fun to be out in? No. But I arrived safely, warmed up adequately and got to do what I like to do, GO FAST ON A HORSE!

Friends, we need to practice thankfulness all the time. When we do, the bad stuff gets real small and the good things rise to the surface and bring us such peace. Enjoy your week and practice seeing the good things!
