Collier Cashes in at All American Finals

By Hope Raley

Hereford, Texas barrel racer Kellie Collier has had a year for the books. After she sealed up her first WNFR qualification, she kept that ball rolling winning the All American Pro Rodeo Series Finals held this past week in Waco, Texas.

The All American Pro Rodeo Series is built on the smaller season pro rodeos. Pro rodeos that add less than $30,000 in total prize money make up the series, and when rodeo contestants earn money at those elected rodeos and finish the year in the top 30 in the All American Pro Rodeo Series standings, they punch themselves a ticket to the finals. The top 30 must have competed in at least 30 rodeos to get an invite to the finals which are held during the Heart O' Texas Fair and Rodeo in Waco.

Collier, who didn't start out the year with plans of trying to qualify for the finals, piloted her trusty mount Streakin Easy April 'LoLo' to the victory at the Extraco Events Center. Streakin Easy April is a 9-year-old daughter of A Streak Of Fling and out the Doc O Dynamite mare that stamps her offspring with a passion for barrels, Easy April Lena.

"Qualifying for the All-American Finals wasn't a huge goal of mine, but Ann Thompson, who enters me, convinced me that I needed to make it a priority," Collier said. "I am so thankful for her and her continued advice and guidance."

With the smaller rodeos being a little less stressful for Collier who was trying to clench a spot in the year end top 15, she loved the concept behind the All American Pro Rodeo Series.

"I think it is a terrific opportunity to make a great year-end finals and get to run at some really good money!"

Preparing for her runs in Waco, Collier just focused on keeping 'LoLo' fit and in shape. Collier describes 'LoLo' as a very quirky mare and says that their bond is truly inseparable.

"I don't normally work 'LoLo' on the barrels because she runs harder when she has not been worked and drilled on the pattern. I do a lot of long trotting and occasionally breeze them."

In the first round in her bracket, Collier posted a 16.00 which was good enough for second behind other Texas cowgirl Kelly Bruner who won the round with a 15.96.

"LoLo felt fantastic in the first round and I was anxious to see what we could accomplish in the second round," explained Collier. Improving their time by almost a full tenth-of-a-second, Collier and 'LoLo' stopped the clock in 15.93-seconds in the second round in their bracket which finished 4th in the round and got them a spot in the semi-finals.

"I couldn't have asked for two better runs than what LoLo gave me. She truly loves her job and you can see it with her grit and

Nellie Miller's Homebred Rafter W Minnie Reba Voted AQHA/WPRA Horse Of The Year

By Tanya Randall

The pint-size, roan powerhouse Rafter W Minnie Reba ("Sister") was voted the 2017 AQHA / WPRA Horse Of The Year by the Top 25 members in the WPRA. Bred, raised and trained by the Williams family of Cottonwood, Calif., Sister earned Nellie Miller her second trip to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas.

"I just want to thank my family," said Miller, who is sponsored by Wrangler, Professional's Choice, Total Equine, Oxy-Gen, Corral Boots and Haleakala Walnut. "My dad really played a part in making that horse as good as she is. He deserves a lot of the credit. It took her a whole team to get her down the road this year. It's rewarding for us as a family to get that award."

Sister, a 9-year-old blue roan, is by the Dash Ta Fame, Easy Jet stallion KS Cash N Fame and out of the Williams family's all-around performer Espuela Roan ("Reba"), by Blue Light Ike.

"We did every event on her," recalled Miller. "My brother roped calves on her. I breakawayed on her. You could team rope on her. She did every event. She was our high school rodeo horse, and I amateur rodeoed on her for years."

Reba was bred to Mr Bar Truckle as a 3-year-old with the hopes of getting a rope horse for Miller's dad Sam. The resulting foal was the roan gelding Rebas Smokey Joe ("Blue Duck"), who would take Miller to her first National Finals Rodeo in 2010.

"Blue Duck was originally meant to be my dad's rope horse, but he didn't like that event as much as he did barrel racing," laughed Miller. "I really got Blue Duck going when I was in college. When we figured out he was so good, we decided to breed her some more and that's when we got Sister."

Reba is still alive at age 26 and Miller's two daughters still ride her. Unfortunately, they weren't able to get many more foals out of her. In addition to Blue Duck and Sister, Miller has a 6-year-old full brother to Sister and 7-year-old half-brother by Dashair.

Miller said they've given a lot of thought as to Sister's reproductive future.

"We've held off this far because I wanted focus more on running her," she said. "The timing of doing everything is hard to do when you're trying rodeo. I also didn't want to get too many things going this year. I wanted to focus on rodeo. But, we're definitely thinking about what we want to do as far as breeding her, embryos and everything."

With Miller busy starting her family—she and husband James have two daughters, Sister was eased into training and Miller's dad had put a solid foundation on the mare before she ever threw a leg over her. "My dad just camped on her and rode her," Miller said. "He did all his ranch work on her. I think I started riding her pretty heavily when she was 6."

Sister made her pro rodeo debut over the Fourth of July in 2015. They qualified for and won the California Circuit Finals in 2016, which set them up for an NFR run in 2017.

Going into the 2017 winter run, Miller was skeptical because the mare had little experience running inside.

"I worried about, but she just hunts the barrels," Miller explained. "It just doesn't seem to bother her. No matter what arena you put her in, she's going to go look for those barrels. She's just really consistent that way. After a couple of times she really had it figured out. She's just always willing to her job."

Sister had strong performances at Rodeo Houston, the RAM National Circuit Finals and the Calgary Stampede. The highlight wins for the gritty 14.1 hand mare were the St. Paul Rodeo in Oregon, the Reno Rodeo in Nevada and Ellensburg Rodeo in Washington.

Officially, Miller attended 47 rodeos and won $130,536. Miller borrowed a horse for two rodeos and ran 22-year-old Blue Duck at three—Coarsegold, Calif., the Prescott Frontier Days in Ariz., over the Fourth of July, and at Livermore, Calif., where the old warrior collected $1,240 for fourth.

While No. 1-ranked Tiany Schuster and No. 2-ranked Stevi Hillman split time between two stellar horses—JSYK Im Famous in the winter and Show Mance in the summer for Shuster and Cuatro Fame and MCM Imasharpguy for Hillman—Miller and Sister won $129,297 at 42 rodeos for average winnings of $3,078.

MCM Imasharpguy, bred and owned by Matt and Bendi Dunn of Bismarck, Mo., and ridden by Stevi Hillman, finished second in the Horse-Of-The-Year voting. Tiany Schuster's stellar find Show Mance was third.

California Champs Miller & Churchill Return To National Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Veteran professional barrel racers Nellie Miller and Trula Churchill earned a second-straight trip to the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla., at the conclusion of the California Circuit Finals Rodeo, held Oct. 13-15 in Lancaster.

Two-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Nellie Miller came from behind to win the Year-End Championship. The Cottonwood, Calif., cowgirl was second going into the CCFR, just $74 behind Kathy Petska.

After Miller tipped barrels on her recently-crowned AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year Rafter W Minnie Reba ("Sister") in the first two rounds, Petska built her lead by placing fourth in the second round. Petska would ultimately finish fourth in the average for $1,231 on the weekend.

With everything on the line, Miller and Sister turned in the fastest time of the rodeo, a 17.32, to win the third round for $1,968 to jump past Petska and win the Year-End Championship with $18,481 to Petska's 17,080.

"It was really tight this year," Miller admitted. "Our Circuit Finals didn't go too well. The third round, I got it figured out."

After a victorious conclusion to her summer run in Ellensburg, Wash., Miller had given her 9-year-old homebred mare a little time off.

"We have really not done much since Ellensburg," she said of the daughter of KS Cash N Fame out of Espuela Roan, by Blue Light Ike. "She's kind of been on vacation and our first run (at the Circuit Finals) kind of felt that way, too. She wasn't really getting with it. The second round, we barely nicked that barrel and got back on

This will be Miller's third trip to the National Circuit Finals. In 2017, she went as the California Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion, and with all the circuit finals earnings counting toward the 2017 WPRA World Standings, Miller was able to get a head start on her second qualification to the NFR.

"I think it really motivates people because that's their shot," Miller said of allowing circuit finals money to count. "If they are not able to rodeo full time and you're able to get with it in your circuit, you can actually make it happen. It does motivate more girls to get out there and do it."

Miller's quest for her second NFR qualification made her circuit rodeos a little more interesting. With one horse to run, she had to be picky about her runs and her goals.

"We just kind of placed along all year in the circuit," said Miller, who won $130,537 on the 2017 WPRA Season. "We didn't win anything really big, just got solid checks everywhere."

Sister had a little help from her older half-brother Rebas Smokey Joe ("Blue Duck"), who carried Miller to her first NFR in 2010. The 22-year-old gelding, by Mr Bar Truckle, picked up $1,241 for placing fourth at Livermore, Calif. That check was far from insignificant given the tightness of the circuit race and the fact that Miller just met the rodeo count to be eligible to compete at her circuit finals.

"I'm sure glad decided to run him," she said. "I barely got my circuit count in for this year. We were trying to get the last few rodeos in at the last minute."

As an out-of-circuit resident, three-time NFR qualifier Trula Churchill knows all too well about making her rodeo count. Non-residents have to attend more rodeos than those that live within the circuit.

The Valentine, Neb., barrel racer picked the California Circuit over the Prairie Circuit when she was on the road hard for the NFR.

"It was easier to get my circuit count in California," Churchill explained. "The weather is better out here in the spring and fall when I come out here for my circuit rodeos than it is at home. With me living in the northern part of the Prairie Circuit, most of the rodeos are quite a bit away from me. The Badlands circuit count for non-residents was pretty high. It really was just a business decision as far as logistics."

At the CCFR, Churchill was the only barrel racer to place in all three rounds. She and her great horse A Streak Of Rita ("Worm") won the first round, placed third in the second and tied for fourth in the third to win the average and $6,199.

"Worm just did his job every run," said Churchill of her 12-year-old homebred by A Streak Of Fling out of Jetta Rita, by Very Sharp (TB). "He was Mr. Consistent. I tried not to focus on anything but making a good run every time and just let it all work itself out."

Churchill, who wanted to thank her sponsors Cinch, ColdFlex, EquiWinner Patches, Cactus Gear, Duba Trailers and Dare To Be A Cowboy, will make her fifth appearance at the National Circuit Finals. She represented the Prairie Circuit twice and this will be her third trip as a California entry. She also finished third in the California Year-End Standings and 52nd in the WPRA World Standings with $26,382.

"I rodeoed a little bit differently this year," she said. "I stayed home quite a bit more this summer to help on the ranch than I have in the past. I focused on some colts and stuff. I went to the rodeos that I wanted to—Worm's favorite ones. I took a breather for a while."

Churchill first hit the road hard in 2011 and Worm has had most of the runs. During that time, they've qualified for three NFRs and three Canadian National Finals Rodeo.

"Of course, everyone's long term goal is the NFR, and my goal stays the same," she said. "Just go make good runs every time and capitalize on the opportunities that I have. If I'm winning, keep going; if I'm not, step back and regroup."

Hoping to capitalize on her recent opportunities, Churchill has the WPRA World Finals this week, which counts toward the 2018 WPRA World Standings and also offers two automatic byes into

ABQM Futurity & Derby, Sao Paolo, Brazil

ABQM Futurity & Derby

October 13-15, 2017, Avare, Sao Paolo, Brazil

This week was the 38th Annual ABQM Futurity and Derby in Avare, SP. In the futurity there was more than R$147,000 up for grabs in 9 different categories and an additional R$12,592 in gelding sidepots. There was an additional R$36,000 in the Derby and an amazing R$60,000 in the Future Cash Stallion Program – Brazils version of Future Fortunes.

In Brazil it is customary for a trainer to ride and train the horse for the open events and then the owner will compete in the Amateur, Youth, Senior and/or Female categories this is why you will see in the results the same horse in a different category with a different rider.

The ABQM Futurity and Derby, while it is not the best paying futurity during the year, it is the oldest and most prestigious.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Jesus. I often refer to John 10:10 which tells us that Jesus came so that we would have life and LIFE ABUNDANTLY. That doesn't mean we are living in that abundance. Why not? One of the reasons is because we don't believe that He truly wants that for us. Well honestly, that's just nonsense. Do we think He is lying in John 10:10? Put like that, we'd all say no. Jesus doesn't lie. Yet, for instance, we'll believe what the natural circumstances tell us when we look at our pay check inside of what God says about our finances. Want the answer to your finances? You can read Malachi 3:8-12. Or you can read Phil. 4:19. Or Luke 6:38. These are just a few scriptures that give us the answer to any financial deficit we may be experiencing. And if we let the Bible be our answer in every area of our lives, we will come through.

Sometimes we forget just who Jesus is. We get religious. We go to church (or not) and we get so familiar with the Bible and the routine of "religion" that we don't see Jesus for who He is.....our Lord and Savior. WE HEAR SO MUCH AND PRACTICE SO LITTLE.

Let's turn that around. We'll hear the Word of God and PRACTICE it. We won't just give lip service to our Christianity. We'll live it! And enjoy all the Blessings God has promised us!!
