Ashley Castleberry & Kelly Allen Tops In Texas

By Tanya Randall

The Texas Circuit will send Ashley Castleberry and Kelly Allen to the NFR Open next summer in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Allen of Stephenville, Texas, was the Texas Circuit Champion with $40,690 won on the 2023 season. Castleberry of Montgomery, Texas, topped the Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 10-13 in Waco, Texas.

Allen won 90 percent of her circuit money on her mare Miss JB 165 ("Cinco") and wrapped a reserve finish at the Circuit Finals on the Harmon family's Wildchildsgotcashuno ("JJ"). She finished 18th in the WPRA World Standings with $86,098 and already has $8,572 from Circuit Finals to count toward 2024 rankings.

Castleberry and her gelding Skyy Blue had a great Circuit Finals Rodeo to win $9,678 toward next year's world standings. They placed in every round en route to the aggregate victory.

"He's just unbelievable," Castleberry said of the 10-year-old gray. "We had some great runs."

They were third in the first round and split fourth in the second.

"The first run was a good run, but he wasn't running as hard as he could," said Castleberry. Sky had no rodeo experience prior to this season and sometimes needs to see the arena often to get comfortable. "The second round was good also, but we had ground trouble and he slipped pretty bad at the third."

Castleberry gave Sky some extra attention the night after their slip in the form of bodywork and pulse therapy in addition to his PHT blanket and wrapped legs. She also opted to let him rest the next two mornings rather than taking him to the arena for morning practice.

Sky showed his appreciation by winning the next two rounds and turning in the fastest time of the rodeo in the final round.

Bred for the track by Alan and Sharon Colley, Sky carries similar breeding to 2008 Racing World Champion Stolis Winner, an earner of more than $2.2 million. Sky is by Stoli out of Sweetin My Dreams, by Runaway Rebel. He ran on the track at 2 and 3, earning $8,362 from 13 starts. Debi Davis later purchased the gelding and trained him for barrels.

Castleberry purchased Sky last October after she lost her backup horse in a horrific trailer accident over Labor Day weekend that nearly took her good horse Calfee Stormy Dash as well.

"Before I had my wreck, I had a plan. I was going to claim the Wilderness as my circuit and go hard again," she said. "Then I had my wreck, and everything changed. October 1, I bought my card again and claimed the Texas circuit again. I thought if Stormy ever comes back, I'll stay close to home and get young horses going."

Then she lucked into Sky through a friend of a friend. Her dad Gilbert's friend Craig McDonald mentioned that another mutual friend, Kathryn Giese, might know of another horse. Giese, in turn, knew that Davis had sent Sky to Lydia Bierschwale-Luce to sell.

"When I got Sky, I had zero plans to rodeo on him," Castleberry said. "He'd never seen a rodeo before I bought him. We won our first jackpot by 7/10ths, and I thought, 'Man, this horse has really got it!'"

Then Castleberry started having issues with Sky on the barrel, particularly with him ducking barrels.

"We finally figured out he had some belly issues, and his neck was really sore," she explained. "I gave him some time off and brought him back slow."

Castleberry also switched the fleet-footed gray to the left barrel first.

"It took him a while to run with confidence again," she said. "When we went out to California (for the spring run of rodeos), I had no plans and no expectations. I knew he had the ability, but I put no pressure on him. He placed at Red Bluff really high and did good at Clovis. After that it kind of lit a fire under both of us – that he could do it and I could too. I still had no expectations. When he really started having confidence and trusting that I was going to make him feel better, he just got better and better throughout the summer.”

In the meantime, Stormy was coming back into running form, but even though he had no prior rodeo experience, Sky was quickly becoming Castleberry’s main mount.

“It was about August when I realized this horse can take me all the way if we have the chance,” she said. “Going into the summer, I had about $10-$12,000 won. We were just following God’s plan. If it doesn’t happen, it just wasn’t in God’s plan this year. Life is short, and you have to go with the plans He has in front of you.”

Castleberry’s season came down to the wire. Her NFR hopes rested on the very last rodeo of the season, the Cinch Playoffs Governor’s Cup in Sioux Falls. Although they came short of their goal, it was another high-pressure learning experience for the promising team. “Going into the summer, I had about $10-$12,000 won,” she recalled. “We were just following God’s plan—If it doesn’t happen, it just wasn’t in God’s plan this year.”

Castleberry finished the season 17th in the WPRA World Standings with $87,815, which assured her a spot in the lucrative winter rodeos. For now, she and her equine crew are resting up for the WPRA World Finals in November and then they’ll have another break until the “Building Rodeos” start in January.

“I’m going to try to rodeo a little bit smarter at the beginning of the year,” she explained. “I plan on claiming the Wilderness Circuit

Routier and Lockhart Are the Best in the Badlands

By Britany Diaz

The dust has settled in Minot, ND at the Badlands Circuit Finals this past weekend in the North Dakota State Fair Center. The small arena proved to be a successful setup for Lockhart and Routier for the second year in a row. Routier won the year-end title, while Lockhart won the three run average. Routier came into the finals in the #1 spot with $20,584.06. She had quite a large lead on the rest of the field. Routier did not place in any of the three go-rounds, but made three solid runs to place her fourth in the average for $835. This was enough to secure her the Badlands Circuit Year-End Champion.

Lockhart placed third in the first go-round, third in the second go-round and tied for the lead in the third go-round with Taylor Hanson after running her fastest run of the weekend of 13.35 seconds. It was a tight race, but Lockhart found herself on top of the average for the second year in a row with a combined time of 40.61 seconds, just .08 of a second ahead of Lakken Bice with 40.69 seconds. Lockhart won $7,518 for her efforts in Minot, putting a strong finish on 2023 and starting 2024 in good fashion.

This is the sixth Badlands Circuit Champion title for Routier and Fiery Miss West, better known as Missy. Prior to Missy, Routier had one other championship title from her great mare she called Smoothie. Not only is this the duo's sixth Badlands Circuit title, the team is also making their sixth consecutive trip to the bright lights of Vegas this December for the NFR. The 12-year-old palomino mare is owned by Gary Westergren. Jessica never takes advantage of how special Missy is. She shared, "Missy is all heart. The tougher the situation may seem, the harder she tries. She was just born that way. She is a fierce competitor. I truly believe she cares so much about me and my family. She has done more for us than we could ever repay her for!" Missy was awarded 3rd place this year in the Nutrena Horse of The Year Award, voted on by their peers. Missy is currently only $20,000 away from hitting the million dollar mark in Equistat earnings. There is no doubt she will fly over that number come December.

Lockhart made her 27th appearance at the Badlands Circuit Finals. The Oelrichs, SD cowgirl is always one to watch no matter what horse she is riding. This year she rode the 7-year-old gray gelding, Promise Me Fame Guys, also known as Levee. Levee is owned by Teton Ridge.

This 2023 American Championship duo, won their second consecutive average title in Minot. "We can all attest that Minot is not an easy pen. It is very straight to the first, making it hard to nail that turn in there. Obviously with the tight, confined setup, narrow alley and all the variables in that pen, it takes a very honest horse to make three solid runs to be in there for the average. We went into the finals knowing that Jessica had such a big lead, the only title everyone else had any chance at was the average. It was such a tight race. I placed in both of the first two go-rounds and came into the final day fourth in the average. It was anyone's game. I had seen how fast some girls had been, so I knew I needed to shave some time off in the final round and lay it all out there," shared Lockhart.

"Levee gets stronger each run. He gains more confidence as he goes," said Lockhart about her go-round win on the final day, where she ran her fastest time of the weekend. Lockhart always seems to win in every situation on any horse. "I always strive to do my best and think about what I can do better. I knew I needed to ride less conservatively and have a better first barrel. I was determined in my mind to ride him to my points and get him to be where he needs to be. The fastest time of the weekend was 13.29 seconds, so I needed to make that my target point. It was my goal to shave off several tenths and clean up areas where I had some room. I was riding defensively in my first two runs, trying to stay clean, but at this level you cannot always do that. I had to ride more offensively if I was going to have a shot at the average.” Lockhart executed her game plan in the final round, shaving off three-tenths of a second to win the average.

This year will mark Lisa’s 17th consecutive NFR! This win is a great way to send them off. “This is a great motivator. I felt a little rusty as we had not run since Puyullup. You need to have faith in what you’re doing and your horse. You have to know that it will be ok even though you haven’t been rodeoing. This is the situation every year before the NFR. It is easier when you are going consistently all summer to make adjustments on the fly. This just confirmed that we are ready and that I just need to trust in the process, the horse I am riding and that we can go do our thing,” shared Lockhart. There is no doubt, the Badlands Circuit will be very well represented at the NFR in Las Vegas. This year, Lisa Lockhart, Jessica Routier and Summer Kosel qualified.

Lockhart is appreciative of her sponsors and her family for their never-ending support. She is sponsored by: Teton Ridge, Durango Boots, Platinum Performance, Priefert Equipment, Fiber Care Baths, Woody’s Feed & Grain, Polaris, PEMF Complete, RenoVo, B Bar Heart Performance Horses, Fay Ranches, DeTye Vet Supply, Rodeo Rigs, Outback Customs, Classic Equine, Martin Saddlery, Woodbury Performance Horses

2016 Flashback -- Tracy Nowlin, Emily Beisel Take RAM Prairie Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

In 2016, the Barrel Racing Report headline read, “Nowlin & Miller Punch Tickets To Florida.” Tracy Nowlin had won the Prairie Circuit Finals, while Emily Miller had captured the year-end title, earning the right to compete at the national circuit finals rodeo then held in Kissimmee, Florida.

A few things have changed for the pair since then. Miller’s last name is now Beisel, and both ladies are now National Finals Rodeo qualifiers. Nowlin qualified for Vegas in 2018 and Beisel is headed to her fifth NFR this December.

But some things have stayed the same. They’re still winning on the same horses and they’re still a force to be reckoned with in the Prairie Circuit.

At the conclusion of the RAM Prairie Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 12-14 in Duncan, Oklahoma, Nowlin had once again won the aggregate title and Beisel captured the year end.

It was Beisel’s fourth Prairie Circuit Championship, having won year-end titles in 2020 and 2022 as well. The Weatherford, Oklahoma, barrel racer won $18,686 on the season, having used all her horsepower at one time or another. She pressed Nowlin for the aggregate title, finishing second on her superstar mare Ivory On Fire (“Liza”). The reserve finish was enough to put $5,103 in her war chest for the 2024 WPRA World Standings.

Nowlin and her 17-year-old super mare DJG Madison (“Dolly Jo”) got faster with each run to win $7,252. They finished second for the year end with $17,868.

“She got faster—probably because someone sent her a little bit harder,” laughed Nowlin. “The whole goal was to keep her going forward and not let her place her feet, so she hit barrels. Outside she’s so easy to ride because you just keep sending her and she can place (her feet) hard and come back. Inside, if she places hard, that inside back leg will get them.

“I can’t get mad at her! I trained the monster! You just have to keep moving forward. It’s hard though.”

They turned in the fastest run of the Circuit Finals with their winning run in the third and final round.

“When they texted us the draw, Ty says, ‘What’s up?’ I said, ‘We’re first.’ He said, ‘Ok, you’re going for it aren’t you?’ I said, ‘You can’t waste first! I’m letting her roll!’”

Perhaps the biggest highlight of the rodeo was having her son, Ty, now 23, with her.

“This weekend was fun because Ty was there,” she said. “He’s been living in Vanita, working over there. It was just fun just having him back in the truck. He took his calf horse because he’s wanting to start roping again. So, he’s getting him back into shape and every night after the rodeo, we’d ride. I’d ride my colt and he’d ride. It was relaxing and good to be back with family again.”

This is the third circuit title for Nowlin and her little speedster. They have a year-end championship in 2017 to go with their two aggregate championships.

Nowlin, who finished 46th in the WPRM World Standings with $33,509, traveled a little more this year than she has in recent years. She's battled a bad shoulder, which required surgery, for several years, including during her 2018 NFR run. She said this year the pain has been better—still there, but better. "I could ride her better last year, but the pain the next two days was bad," she said. "I guess the nerves finally got better. They were saying that nerves only heal back an inch a year. They just kept telling me it was going to take more time. I finally tore the rest of my bicep loose, so I don't have a bicep in my right arm. I don't have any strength in it, but it doesn't hurt as bad."

Her lack of arm strength isn't really a problem riding Dolly Jo. "She's trained," she chuckled. "I shouldn't have to pull her anyway!" Nowlin and Dolly Jo have been partners since the mare was 8. She found the daughter of Royal Blue Chew Chew, a stakes-winning son of Royal Quick Dash, out of the double-bred Streakin Six mare Run Madison, for sale on Facebook, while looking for a calf horse for her son, Ty.

Since the mare's owners didn't have any calves to rope, he allowed her to take Dolly Jo home. After roping on her, Nowlin knew she wouldn't work for Ty. Since Dolly Jo had supposedly been started on the barrels, Nowlin took her through but was equally unimpressed.

Nowlin couldn't sleep the night before she was planning to take Dolly Jo back because she just had a gut feeling that she was about to make a big mistake. The next morning, she took Dolly Jo back through the pattern and the mare remembered everything she'd shown her the day before.

"I just wanted to go to Open rodeos with Ty and have a good time," said Nowlin. "All I can say is God had different plans. It was funny now. My plans do not work. I shouldn't make plans!"

When she made the NFR in 2018, she had only hoped to win enough to get into Rodeo Houston.

"I left home with $5,000," she recalled. "I just wanted to go to Houston. Mom was like, 'What do we do if we run out of money?' I said, 'We turn out and go home!' We just keep enough money to get home! We giggle about that! God had a different plan! He had to! You don't just win $24,000 in two weeks!"

One of the reasons that Nowlin went on the road this year was to get back into Rodeo Houston. A wreck coming home from the Cheyenne Frontier Days set her back along with some costly tipped barrels.

"We totaled the truck and tore three cross members out of my trailer," she said. "I had (Dolly Jo) and my two really good colts on the trailer and they all walked off. I can't have my sucker in the ground. We lived."

Nowlin said her future rodeo plans are to just enjoy life and go to the ones that Dolly Jo enjoys.

"I'll rodeo, but I don't know what the future holds," she said. "If God's tells me to get in the truck, if I get enough money and we're winning, I guess I'll be in the truck."

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ is the first product I have seen work in aiding airway/lung health and help clear up a cough. I use Breathe'O2 paste for pre-run support, it also helps clear the airway, allowing him to breathe easier and work harder."

2023 Nutrena Horse of the Year Winners Announced

By Ann Bleiker, courtesy of the WPRA

Success in the sport of rodeo doesn't fall on just the human athlete. Their horses play just as big of a factor when they step foot in the arena. The Nutrena Horse of the Year presented by AQHA awards provides recognition to ProRodeo's top horses. Making the award extra special to each WPRA member is the fact that their fellow competitors are the ones that vote on this prestigious award.

The 2023 Nutrena Horse of the Year presented by AQHA awards were unveiled Oct. 11. Winning for the first time in the barrel racing category was Fame Fire Rocks "PopRocks" ridden by Taycie Matthews and owned by Mission Ranch LLC. PopRocks, a daughter of FireWaterOnTheRocks and out of W R Aces Fame has carried Matthews not only to a College National Finals Rodeo Championship in 2023 and to the winner's circle in Salinas but also to her first Wrangler NFR qualification coming in ranked No. 4. Matthews of Wynne, AR, has earned $144,161 after competing in 79 rodeos.

A horse that was meant to be her mother Kim's horse joined the Matthews' barn in January of 2022 after Janna Beam Brown had trained the now 6-year-old sorrel mare. Taycie's older sister, Jaylie first rode the mare at the CNFR in Casper in 2022 winning a round but since then Taycie has laid claim to the horse after finishing as reserve WPRA rookie of the year in 2022.

Finishing second was Jets Top Gun "Benny" owned by Busby Quarter Horses and ridden by Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, who carried his jockey to the Reno, Calgary and Salt Lake City titles just to name a few this summer. It was in Salt Lake City that Pozzi Tonozzi crossed the $3 million mark in career earnings.

Rounding out the top three in the barrel racing was Fiery Miss West owned by Gary Westergren and ridden by Jessica Routier. Routier claimed the NFR Open title in the mud this summer aboard Missy in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Routier will be making her sixth appearance at the NFR in December.

On the breakaway roping side, a familiar name is back in the top spot. No Wimpy Turns "Onna" won the inaugural Nutrena Horse of the Year presented by AQHA in 2021 and returns to the top of the list just like her jockey Shelby Boisjoli in 2023. Setting a record in breakaway roping earnings Boisjoli and Onna enter the National Finals Breakaway Roping with $164,549 earned at 100 rodeos competed in.

Finishing second in the breakaway roping votes was Kits Tiana Play "Little Man" ridden and owned by Kelsie Domer. Domer, who has won three WPRA breakaway roping world titles, finished the regular season ranked fifth with $112,281.

Rounding out the top three rope horses was Joey Williams' Baybe Bullet "Baybe", who took top honors in the 2022 Horse of the Year voting. This year Baybe carried Williams to not only the Cheyenne Frontier Days Rodeo title but also the Pendleton Round-up title. The top three horses in each WPRA category are listed below.

Amanda Crowe & Famous Regal Jack Win $41,595 at CBHI Future SuperStakes

The Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive (CBHI) holds their big event in Ponoka, AB Canada in the first part of October each year and awards big checks to the owners and riders of Canadian barrel horses. In fact, this year the event paid out over $400k in cash and prizes (according to their Facebook page). Each year they hold a Futurity & Derby Super Stakes along with their normal Futurity, Derby, and Open. Amanda Crowe and her mare Famous Regal Jack won the Futurity Super Stakes for a check of $38,880. Combining that win with her winnings on her mare in the Futurity and Open and her check on her Derby horse A Sugar Special in the Derby Super Stakes she came away with a whopping $42,445. We caught up with Crowe to find out a little more about her and her big win!

BRR: Can you walk us through winning run at the Super Stakes?

Crowe: Lucy was really eager to go so and wanted to take off from the back of the alley, so I just let her go and rolled with it. She had a beautiful first barrel and for being such a big running bred horse, she loves to turn, so heading to 2nd barrel I just kept telling myself to ride her to the spot. When she came around 2nd I was excited running up to third and told myself don't stop riding, when I sat she came around and headed home. On the way home I felt her pick up a speed that I had never felt her pick up during a run but have felt that speed at home breezing her so I knew it was there and was excited she was offering it up. When I looked up at the clock I got tears in my eyes as I knew it was a fast time.

BRR: It was an incredibly tough bunch of horses and jockeys; what was it like running & winnings against a group like that?

Crowe: There are so many amazing horses and talented jockeys who I look up to that were running at CBHI Superstakes and to be have a winning run amongst them was incredible.

BRR: Can you share with us about your mare; where your mare came from and her career up to now?

Crowe: Lucy was bred and raised by Annette Moore who owns the stud Blackgold Jack, she then went to Kelley Drake who started her and then I bought her from Kelley.

BRR: What are a few things you did with her to have her at her best for the Super Stakes?

Crowe: To have Lucy ready for the SS I really focused on getting her air up. Ponoka is a big pattern and can have deeper ground so I wanted to make sure she was physically fit for that. Lucy is very turny so I focused on drills and exercises to help free her up as well as some breezing.

BRR: Can you tell us a little about how you started barrel racing and your barrel racing career up to now?

Crowe: I have been barrel racing for over 25 years! I was barrel racing professionally when I had my first child in 2012 and had taken a bit of a step back since then to be a mom to my 3 kids. Within the last 2 years now that the kids are getting older, I started getting back into barrel racing more competitively again both at the futurity/derbies as well as the rodeos.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like that prior to entering the arena?

Crowe: I mentally prepared by trying to be confident in myself and my horse. Knowing that I had to put in the work and no matter the outcome we did everything we could to prepare helped me mentally. I think there is a confidence that comes by just knowing that you put in the work and that your horse feels ready.

BRR: For the readers that have never been to the CBHI, can you tell us a little about the event & experience?

Crowe: CBHI is an awesome event for Canada, it is a top-notch

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Lyndell Kelman is my osteopath, Coulee Equine spa services

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIME: Depends on the horse and where they are in their training. I try and do drills that use the muscles that they need to barrel race as well as conditioning for the lungs such as long trotting and interval breezing. Having my horses in top fitness is very important to me. If they are just starting out on the pattern, then I spend more time in the arena. I do lots of riding out on the more seasoned horses. I ride 6 days a week. I feel this is important to keep us both in shape.

SPONSORS: Stance EQ Canada

THANKS: To all my friends and family who support me. There are too many to list, but they know who they are.

event! The Superstakes has really given futurity and derby trainers/riders a chance to run at life changing money, it is an incredible incentive!! Having the Superstakes at the CBHI definitely makes the weekend more exciting knowing that there is that kind of prize money!

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Crowe: I love my Flexi-neb, Back on Track, my 8 year old daughter

Kenlee, she helps me so much when we are on the road with taking care of the horses!!

Barrel Horse Sale Receipts Top $6 Million at Cinch Pink Buckle

Cinch Pink Buckle hosted the richest barrel horse public auction in history at its 6th annual event.

With more than $6 million in receipts on 133 lots, the Pink Buckle Stallion Owners Select Sale, held October 5 at the Lazy E Arena, was the richest public auction of barrel horse ever held. The sale, which was held in conjunction with the richest standalone barrel race ever held, the $4.105 million Cinch Pink Buckle.

Total sale receipts reached $6.255 million, and prices averaged $60,725 on horses ranging from foals in utero and prospects to campaigning horses and stallions with coveted incentive program spots.

Blackout, a stunning black 2-year-old stallion, topped the sale at $875,000. The son of Winners Version, out of the multiple champion producer and former National Finals Rodeo qualifier RC Back In Black, by Ninety Nine Goldmine, was started under saddle and had elementary rope horse training at the time of the sale. The colt, which sold with spots into the Pink and Ruby Buckle programs, was consigned by Solo Select and Relentless Remuda and sold to Danny Ray of Victory Farms.

The promising gray son of Epic Leader, Epic Rokstar was the second favorite, selling for $650,000. The 3-year-old stallion, out of Frenchlicious, by Frenchmans Guy, is a full brother to Epic Leader's leading earning Epic Guy, was in barrel training and sold with his spots into the Pink and Ruby Buckle programs. The colt, consigned by Lindsay Stock, sold to 4M Equine Ranch, the leading buyer of the sale.

4M Equine Ranch also purchased the highest selling prospect, Kiss Me Good By, a 3-year-old daughter of The Goodbye Lane out of KissKiss BangBang, by Dash Ta Fame. KissKiss BangBang is a multiple aged event champion and NFR qualifier and the dam of Pink Buckle Reserve Futurity Champion ChitiChiti BangBang. The filly, which was expertly trained by her world champion consigner Brittany Tonozzi, and her husband Garrett, sold for $490,000.

Other notable sellers include Special For Tres PZ, a proven-performing 6-year-old daughter of Tres Seis with earnings in excess of $100,000, that sold to 4M Equine Ranch for $400,000 and a 2024 foal in utero by The Goodbye Lane, out of Blazin Ta Betty, a full sister to WPRA World Champion Famous Lil Jet, that sold to Bailey Donnell for $155,000. WPRA Announces 2023 Committee and Contract Awards

With the regular season behind us we turn our attention to what could be considered the reward season for not only our Top 15 but also all the personnel and committees that have gone above and beyond this past year.

The WPRA Board of Directors have selected their 2023 contract award winners that have worked tirelessly behind the scenes to make it all happen and have helped keep the Association alive and well for the past 75 years. Each winner will be officially recognized during the WPRA Star Celebration at the South Point Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada, on Thursday, December 7.

Honored this year with the Outstanding Individual Award is Randy Spraggins. Spraggins has long been a favorite "dirt guy" among WPRA barrel racers and he continues to show why he is truly the best in the business. Two major examples of his dedication to good safe ground came in 2023 when he was called upon to consult with RodeoHouston and the Cheyenne Frontier Days Rodeo when they were having issues with their ground conditions. Both times Spraggins stepped right in and provided what service he could. In Cheyenne, his work and expertise resulted in two arena records being set in the final round.

Spraggins has truly learned the art of dirt after 40 years in the business. He came to the rodeo world via motor sports with truck and tractor pulls and a chance encounter of working with the late Jerome Robinson at an event in St. Louis. He had always had an interest in the sport of rodeo, but it was Robinson who invited him into the rodeo world, where he has remained and continues to make an impact.

"My goal for any event/rodeo committee's ground is safety for animals and humans which then lends itself to a smoother rodeo production," noted Spraggins. "If the ground is safe then every animal can perform to its full potential whether it be a barrel horse, bucking horse or timed event horse."

While Spraggins has made an impact in the arena, Tanya Randall has made her impact in the media realm telling the stories and tracking barrel horse earnings through the years. As a result, she is being honored in 2023 with the media award. She has helped bring more light to the members of the WPRA while reminding readers of the history of the Association, which is celebrating 75 years this year.

Speaking of the special 75th Anniversary, it is only fitting that Martha Josey will be honored with the Lenora Reimers Heritage Award. Not only did she make a name for herself in the arena but also has given back to the sport through her countless clinics. She and late husband, R.E. Josey, started conducting barrel racing clinics in 1967 at their ranch in Texas. Many of today's world champions credit Martha Josey with helping them achieve their goals. Her clinics have grown through the years to average over 1,500 students annually with students as young as five and some into their 80s. In addition, the Josey's have been credited with creating new and innovative barrel racing saddles, pads, protective boots, knot reins, and combination bits. The result has been increased safety and increased barrel racing skills for barrel racers over the United States.

Professional rodeo's leading entity tasked with keeping the history alive and well is the ProRodeo Hall of Fame. This year they will be honored with the WPRA's Distinguished Partnership Award in recognition of what they have done to expand the footprint of the history of the WPRA. For the second time in the last six years, they partnered with the WPRA to bring a special "Women in Rodeo" display to the 101 Gallery. In 2017, they welcomed the first WPRA members for induction into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame and have continued every year since.

Rodeo committees have long been the backbone of the rodeo industry and without the hardworking rodeo committees, the industry would have a hard time existing. Winning the WPRA Large Rodeo of the Year award in 2023 is the San Antonio (TX) Rodeo. The Central Montana Pro Rodeo in Lewistown will be honored as the Medium

PRCA announces 2023 Polaris Remuda Awards

On Monday, the PRCA announced its 2023 Polaris Remuda Awards. The best pen of bucking horses brought to PRCA rodeos is Burch Rodeo Company and the committee recognized for assembling the best pen of bucking horses is the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo in Castle Rock, Colo.

The annual Remuda Awards go to the stock contracting firm and rodeo committee that provide the best, most consistent pen of bucking horses, creating the best opportunities for contestants to score well.

This is the first time Burch Rodeo Company and the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo have won Remuda Awards.

"We're tickled pink," Chad Burch said. "It is very surprising. We didn't have any thought about the award, let alone winning it. I have known about the award since they started doing it (in 2004), but I didn't think we ever had a chance of winning it. It was very surprising and very cool to win this award. That's a lot of bragging rights."

The Burch family, Max, his wife, George Ann, and their sons, Chad and Matt run the rodeo company based in Gillette, Wyo.

The Burch Rodeo Company has been sanctioned in the PRCA since 1999 and the company will have bareback and saddle bronc horses and bulls competing at the 2023 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, Dec. 7-16 at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas.

"My dad liked racehorses and he wanted to run a bunch of racehorses," Chad said. "Well, the horses he was raising kept bucking the jockeys off, so he decided to try bucking horses out and that was in the late 1980s. My dad has had pretty good luck with raising horses that will buck and we raise a lot of them."

John Adams, the chairman of the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo committee, was thrilled about the honor.

"To receive an award like this is payoff for what I would say is over 100 years of work," Adams said. "Our first rodeo was in 1918 and it has been a fun journey for an awful lot of people, and it is really neat to be recognized at this point and time."

"I think what got us to this point was the support of the fair board, all the rodeo committee members, the commissioners, and the county staff. They helped us make some changes, we went with Summit Pro Rodeo eight or nine years ago and the year before last we had up to $10,000 in added money and we needed additional stock and Summit brought in Kirsten Vold to help out. This year was our first year in the ProRodeo Series and again we increased our added money and brought Kirsten back in. The two pens of horses mesh very nicely."

The 2023 Polaris Remuda Award winners will be honored at the PRCA Awards Banquet at the South Point Hotel in Las Vegas at 6 p.m. (PT), Dec. 6, the eve of the Wrangler NFR.

"I'm so excited about this honor and we plan on bringing a bunch of people out to Las Vegas," Adams said.

The world is changed by your example not by your opinion.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Young Thad has been taking guitar lessons after church on Sunday. He pulled on my arm one morning during worship and said, "They are playing in G. I can tell!" I didn't laugh. I couldn't tell if they were playing in Q. I was impressed!

Well, his sister was recently gifted a bright pink electric guitar with a pink and black guitar strap. Now she will be taking lessons also. Budding musicians. The funny thing Thad said after she got her guitar was, "It's a REALLY electric guitar!" How is REALLY electric different than just electric?

Perspective. In his eyes, it was over and above just a regular guitar. I don't know why. But do you and I have a perspective like that? Do we perceive that someone else is REALLY more gifted than we are at something? Why? It's because we don't trust our very good God that He has put something equally wonderful in us.

Each of us is unique, talented, gifted, smart, handsome, lovely, strong, and just pretty special! Someone somewhere looks up to you and me. We may not know it or think it's true.

But if we weren't all that and a bag of chips, Jesus would never have died for us! But He did. He thought we were worth it! Receive His gift of salvation. Romans 10:8-10. Receive His blessing. And then out of the gifts He has put on the inside of us, let's bless someone else this week!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
