Cocktail Hour – Stevi Hillman & Morning Traffic Celebrate with an All-American Rodeo Finals Win

By Tanya Randall

Stevi Hillman celebrated her first National Finals Rodeo berth with an All-American Pro Rodeo Finals Championship aboard Morning Traffic (“Martini”), owned by Michelle Darling of Medford, Okla. As an added perk, the $12,473 payday counts toward the 2017 WPRA World Standings.

Hillman was out in the first set at Waco, Texas, rodeo. Each qualifier, as based on points earned at rodeos throughout the year, got two runs with the top three from each pool qualifying for a Semifinal on Saturday. From there, the top four competed for the championship.

In the first round, Hillman and Martini placed third.

“She had had two weeks off,” said Hillman, who calls Weatherford, Texas, home. “As of this summer, my big bay has been off on vacation—a well-earned deserved break. I gave Martini a couple of weeks off and got her up a few days before and ponied and rode her. My first run in Waco she was definitely a little fat and out of breath. I was a little off on my timing and she was a little off on her timing, but it seemed to work for us and we placed. She felt good, but she just didn’t fire. She just made a pretty run.”

Martini picked up the pace in the next round to place second.

“I got in there the next morning and woke her up a little bit,” Hillman explained. “She really fired the next run and got us a good check. She felt like herself. She’s a very honest mare.”

After a few days at home back in the pasture, Martini was headed back to Waco on Saturday where she proved she could handle back-to-back runs.

“She’s never made back-to-back runs like that in one day. I always swapped horses in situations like that when I have the opportunity,” explained Hillman. “I didn’t really have that opportunity this time and I didn’t really know what to expect.”

Hillman said Martini felt “pretty good” in the Semifinals, where they tied with Michele McLeod and Slick By Design for second. Mary Walker and Perculatin (“Latte”) won the round and Cally Thomas and TRCashenBadger, the full brother to two-time NFR Champion TR Dashing Badger (“Dolly”) completed the quartet advancing to the Finals.

In the Finals, Hillman and Martini turned in the fastest time of the event, a 15.73 to claimed the $7,500 All-American Rodeo Finals Championship.

“She fired extremely hard for her second run. I don’t think two runs in one day is a problem for her,” laughed Hillman, who is sponsored by Nutrena, Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals, 5-Star Pads, Shiloh Saddlery, Rock N Roll Cowgirl, Team PHT, EquiPulmin and Flair Strip.

Bred by Lance Robinson and Max Anderson of Spanish Fork, Utah, Martini is a 5-year-old daughter of all-time leading living barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy out of Evening Traffic, by Dash Thru Traffic. She’s a full-sister to proven performer and sire Traffic Guy. Darling purchased Martini as a 2-year-old at the Myers Performance Horse Prospect Sale. Hillman futurityed the mare, and together, they won the Jackson Hall Memorial Futurity.

Hillman took Martini on the road with her to spell Cuatro Fame (“Truck?”), owned by Melissa Mouton. She had run the mare sparingly until late summer when Truck bruised his foot and needed a break.

“I was just going to use her when I had two-a-days on Truck, so he’d never have to run twice in one-day,” she said. “That worked out great. She never really got to be run much. When Truck bruised his foot, she had to step up. I had to make the decision, that if she couldn’t handle it, I couldn’t keep going. And she did (handle it). She really stepped up and I decided to use her as my No. 1 way

A Long Time Coming -- Carol Waters & Speedin For Cash Claim Hawki Futurity Title

By Tanya Randall

Carol Waters of Red Rock, Okla., and her homebred mare Speedin For Cash (Cash) have steadily placed at the top of some of the largest futurities in the country. They were third at Diamonds & Dirt in the spring and fifth just recently at the Parker Wood Memorial, but that first-place prize had eluded them until the Hawki Futurity in Lincoln, Neb.

"I was excited!" exclaimed Waters. "It's finally my turn!"

The weekend didn't start out as expected.

"Friday night when I ran she tripped and fell," Waters explained. "She pulled a shoe loose, so we pulled her front shoes off. I've never ran her anywhere without shoes since she was a 3-year-old. I never shoe mine until the end of their 3-year-old year, just because when you go places you have to deal with the rocks."

Cash was due to be reset. Rather than have the onsite farrier tack a shoe on a long, chippy foot, the decision was made to pull the other front shoe and clean the rough edges up with a rasp until Water's own farrier could reset the mare on Monday. All this took place about an hour before the qualifying round of the Futurity. "I was little nervous on the first run, so I just let her make a nice smooth run. It was nothing special," she said of the 16.142 run that placed them third in the qualifying round of the Futurity.

"The second day, I sent her a little hard because she handled it fine," she said. "She ran about the same time; it was just everyone else was a little bit slower."

Their winning time of 16.114 was worth $2,087.25 for total earnings of $2,593.25.

"She ran good with no front shoes on, so I was pretty happy with her," she noted.

Waters raised Cash, who is by Got Caught Speedin, a Dash Ta Fame-Lanes Leinster son that's owned by Water's sister Sarah Zaleski. Cash is out of the Texas Moon Pie mare Cash Sign, who Waters got off the track.

"I futurity'd her a little bit," Waters said of Cash Sign. "She just wasn't that fast. We actually figured out why later. I started having gate issues and we figured out she was a bleeder, so I went ahead and bred her. I tried to run her again but she was still having issues. I've got a full sister that's a 2-year-old and a yearling. Unfortunately, she colicked and died last year."

After sending Cash off for 30 days to be broke, Waters trained her the rest of the way. And, though she's futurity'd a little in the past, Cash is the first one that's made her enter more.

"I've gone to futurities with some other ones, but this is the only one that I've won consistently on," said Waters, who estimates that Cash has won about $54,000 this year. "I had an amateur card, so I had won some in the sidepots and stuff. It's just if you have one that's winning you go. I just paid late fees if they required, because I just go when I can. At Lincoln, I didn't decide to go until Thursday."

Waters also just filled her WPROA permit at the pro rodeo in Tulsa, Okla. She had placed a couple of others earlier this summer. She's headed to the WPROA World Finals this weekend, where she'll compete in the futurity and permit holders race.

She said she'll probably rodeo on Cash a little more, but will probably sell the mare.

"I've had a lot of people inquiring to buy her," she said. "I just don't have the time to 'want-to-go far' rodeo. If you want to win, you've got to go. You've got to drive a lot. I went to six rodeos this summer and driving six hours by yourself...I don't know. It's not much fun. I did that when I was younger, but at 52—not so much. At these futurities, you go and you stay for a couple, three days and hopefully come home with some money."

She also plans to get a foal out of Cash with the breeding to Blazin Jetolena that she won at the Parker-Wood Memorial.

Raising and training barrel horses is just something Waters does in her spare time in between helping her husband—whom she wanted to thank for staying home to feed the horses. Together they operate a mechanics shop, custom hay business and run 75 head of cattle. Waters also has her own hair salon to run.

Ashley Schafer & Spitz Family's Famed French Kiss Capture the Hawki Breeders Incentive Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Ashley Schafer and Famed French Kiss ("Sissy"), owned and bred by Joe and Carla Spitz, returned from a brief competition break to win the Hawki Breeders Incentive Futurity in Lincoln, Neb. They also finished second in the open futurity for total earnings of $5,293.65.

"She was awesome," said the barrel horse trainer from Yoder, Wyo. "She was second out that first day. She went in there and ran really hard and was super sharp. I really couldn't fault her anywhere. I was very pleased with her."

After winning the Qualifying Round in 15.996, they came back with a 16.180, which finished second in the Championship Round, but won them the two-run HBIF bonus.

"The next day, she drew No. 2 in the Championship Round. She ran really hard again, wasn't quiet as snappy, but she worked really nice."

Prior to the Hawki Futurity, Schafer and Sissy had a very busy month of September, starting off with the ERA Rodeo in Sheridan, Wyo.

"I took her as a backup horse," she explained. "I had KR Last Fling with me, but I didn't think it was a good setup for her. It's a really big pen and the barrels are kind of out there in the middle of nowhere. It's a loud atmosphere and she's a little more sensitive to that kind of atmosphere than my futurity colt actually. After riding both of them during the open riding we had earlier that day, I thought Sissy was going to handle it a lot better. She was making a nice run, but had a bad slip at the third barrel so I pulled her up. I was really happy with her there."

Next was the Fizz Bomb Classic in Gillette, Wyo. Schafer and Sissy placed second in the first round, fourth in the second but pulled a barrel in the short round to win the average. The following weekend at Parker-Wood Memorial Futurity, Sissy placed in a round and the average, but by the Ardmore Futurity at the end of the month, Sissy was a little road weary.

"She worked well, but didn't place," noted Schafer. "I was tired and she was tired. I didn't run her again until we went to Lincoln." Sissy is a full sister to the Spitz's stallion Freckles Ta Fame ("Can Man") that Schafer and Shali Lord have split time riding between ERA and WPRA events. Both horses are by the all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of the Frenchmans Guy mare Frenchmans Freckles.

Even though both horses had different riders start them on the barrels, Can Man and Sissy are very similar.

"They were started on the barrels by different people, so if that doesn't tell you what bloodlines can do for you, nothing will," Schafer said. "I've never ridden two full siblings that were so similar. They run almost exactly alike. She's a little bit flatter in her turns. She has little bit of a stiffer style. He feels a little bit rounder in his turns, but it's pretty similar."

"The thing I like the most about both of them is that they're both extremely honest. You can be very confident knowing that both of them are going out there to work every time.

"The biggest difference is just the stud against the mare thing. They're both pretty chilled, laid-back horses. Sissy's nerves get to her a little bit more, not necessarily before a run or anything, but you can feel that she has a little more internal tension than he does. He is like super laid-back all the time.

Not surprisingly, they both run in the same bridle—a short shank, three-piece Merrill bit. It's the same bit that Can Man has run in since his futurity year. Likewise, Schafer expects, Sissy to follow her brothers' hoof prints to the rodeo arena.

"Can Man never won a round his futurity year," she recalled. "He was just really consistent. He won money at every futurity we took him to except one. Later when you take them to rodeos, they feed off that atmosphere. They run harder and turn harder. They just step up their game so much more. I feel like Sissy is going to be the same way. I look forward to her future. I think she'll make a great rodeo horse just like her brother has."

Schafer wanted to thank her sponsors Silver Lining Herbs, Rock & Roll Cowgirl, Coats Saddlery, Forco, X Diamond X Company, Med Vet Pharmaceuticals, 5 Star Pads, RES Boots, FlowBoot, My Air Hitch, Southwest Equine Inc., and ERA. She also wanted to thank event producer Renea Bolling and her great crew for putting on another great race.

Of course, her success wouldn't be possible without her husband Seth taking care of Sissy's feet, Dr. Dale Schneider and Shawna Turner addressing her chiropractic care and veterinarian Bill Rhoads caring for the mare's overall health.

Most importantly she wanted to thank Joe and Carla Spitz for giving her such great horses to ride.

"I have so much respect for good bloodlines," Schafer added. "We don't have to do anything special with them. It's our jobs as trainers to not ruin them. They're good horses and we have to do our best not to mess them up. We don't necessarily make them great."

Eaves Wins Starkville Mississippi Qualifier

By Hope Sickler

The #8 qualifier for the Semi-Finals of The American has come and gone. Starkville, Mississippi was the place to be last weekend where the saltiest in the south gathered together to see who could make the cut for Fort Worth.

The competition was stiff with over 60 entries and it was Mississippi's own Quay Eaves who walked away with top honors after the dust had settled.

Eaves jockeyed Shes Just Like Candy to the win and was quick to credit the very talented 10-year-old mare.

"I have been running her on and off for a few years for her owner Carrie Thompson who also trained her. She is a very talented mare and I am very grateful for the opportunity to be able to jockey her," said Eaves.

Shes Just Like Candy is by Brisco County Jr and out of Cakes N Candy by Sir Lynxalot. Eaves stopped the clock with a freaky fast 14.960-second run; the only sub-15 seconds run in the qualifier. Coming in 2nd behind Eaves was Wenda Johnson aboard Dreams First Flash with their time of 15.022.

Eaves resides in Louisville, Mississippi where he rides, trains and sells horses for a living. He has been riding for the public for close to 20-years and has been running the cloverleaf pattern even longer. This wasn't the first time that Eaves has won the qualifier in Starkville. In 2014, he won the same qualifier aboard Wicked Leo.

"This ride last weekend was a little more nerve-racking because Shes Just Like Candy gets a little too close sometimes but it all worked out. Both wins were very special to me because both horses have done very well for me."

Eaves loves the concept of The American because men get to compete on that type of stage where typically those venues are for women only.

"I love the idea of The American. I love that myself and other men get the opportunity to perform on one of the largest stages in the sport of rodeo and barrel racing," Eaves explained. With a few qualifiers left before the Semi-Finals in February, Eaves hopes to qualify another horse.

"I hope to run in North Carolina at the No Bull Barrel Race or in Memphis. I am not sure which horse I will run yet."

Eaves will do everything he can to prepare for the Semi-Finals and will go to Texas with a clear mind and one goal in mind.

"It's a great opportunity to even make it that far but I am hoping for the best. Carrie will keep the mare and get her ready for the Semi-Finals. We are so blessed with awesome friends and customers and there is no way that we could be successful in this business without them and their awesome horses!"

Was it a new state record for the largest weeknight jackpot in California? I couldn't find any way to verify that claim, but that was definitely the buzz and the question of the night at the Haulin' A$$ Helmet Barrel Race put on by Lunde Enterprises this September in Norco, CA (aka Horsetown, USA). It all started with a simple idea to promote helmet wearing amongst barrel racers. Agile Sourcing Partners was the sponsor of this event, and they had a plan—offer to pay the entry fee for any barrel racer who would compete in a helmet. They approached the Lunde team with the idea, and it blossomed into an absolutely incredible barrel race. What started as an expectation of 40-50 riders, turned into 165 horses run over a 2 day period (Wed and Thur nights). After receiving over 120 pre-entries, the race had to be split into a second night due to time constraints placed on the venue by the city. The best part is, EVERY single rider competed in a helmet. Even two-time NFR qualifying barrel racer Sydni Blanchard.

Blanchard had never before competed in a helmet, but it obviously didn't affect her one bit. She stole the show on her futurity filly, First Flash Fire, laying down an impressive 14.961 and beating the nearest competitor by over two tenths of a second. Blanchard, who was honored to win this race, admitted that she has "had injuries that wearing a helmet would have prevented and [is] glad to see the next generation adapting to the idea." In fact, almost symbolically, the 1D and 2D winners were both former NFR qualifiers while the 3D and 4D winners were both local youth riders that regularly attend the Lunde Enterprise weekly jackpots. Former NFR qualifier Linda Vick won the 2D, sharing the 1st place stage with 3D winner Rylea Ryan, age 11 and 4D winner Laney DeNunzio, age 11. Laney's parents Mike and Sarah DeNunzio who own American Family Feed (also one of the event's sponsors) said on her behalf that Laney "is very proud to have won the 4D with her pony. She is grateful that she is able to be around so many cool people and awesome horses. What better way to learn and get better?" There was a good mix of young and old barrel racers at this event, from beginners all the way up to the professionals. There were several comments from parents and children, both at the race and on social media about how great it was to have the kids who have to wear helmets watch the more experienced barrel racers they look up to compete right alongside them in helmets too, including Vick who has been competing in Rodeo since the 1980's.

When all was said and done, Agile Sourcing Partners donated well over $7,000 in cash and prizes to this event. But why did they do it? Agile as a company doesn't really even have any connection to the rodeo world. Most of Agile's employees who came to help at the race had never even been up close and personal with horses, with the exception of Maria Thompson. Thompson, who has ridden horses for 27 years and is an avid trail rider, has been barrel racing for 5 years. Her passion for helmets started with an accident she witnessed from about 15 feet away. The horse went down while pulling up after the run home and left the rider severely injured at no fault of her own. This was the first of way too many accidents, injuries and tragedies that have struck the horse world and helped fuel Maria's passion for helmets. Agile is a company that believes in donations and even lets its employees choose where donations are made. So Thompson began donating, buying helmets as awards for a local gymkhana organization. Then came Fallon Taylor's #what-the-helmet campaign. Maria calls this a "pivotal moment" comparing it to what Shaun White did for snowboarding, eliminating the stigma by showing that even the pros would compete in helmets. Maria wanted to go bigger with her donations and try to build on what Fallon did at the 2014 NFR. She approached Jerry Lunde with the idea of sponsoring a weeknight jackpot by paying riders' entry fees if they wore a helmet. But Jerry had his own idea—making helmets mandatory. Thompson admitted that she wasn't sure this would pay off thinking riders would refuse. But the response was the exact opposite. The race was epic and everyone loved it! There was no more stigma about wearing a helmet and this allowed everyone to be comfortable enough to give helmets a try. Agile added an additional $1,000 to the pot, on top of paying half of every single rider's entry fees. They sent home over 30 helmets in total as prizes, which doesn't even count the countless number of people who went out and bought helmets to compete in before the day of the race. They also held raffles and even judged a helmet decorating contest which awarded a total of $600 in VISA gift cards to the best decorated helmets. There were helmets with feathers, helmets with unicorn horns, even helmets with flashing LED lights. Additional prizes were given away by other local sponsors including Inland Vet Supply and Water Wheel Saloon in Norco, CA.

There are already plans in the works for the next Haulin' A$$ Helmet Race, possibly a much bigger weekend event and possibly even an annual event.

“Classic” by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A horse that trusts you is easier to train. A horse that is afraid of you is harder to teach and won't always respond as it should.

Some people are like that with God. They are afraid of God and don't realize He is the best friend they'll ever have. They “shy” away from anything that mentions God, death, eternity, and hell. They think God is mad and full of vengeance, just waiting to clobber them with all kinds of troubles and disasters. Even some insurance policies talk about disasters as “acts of God.”

Wrong! God isn't mad at you. He sent His Son Jesus to pay the price for mankind - the debt owed that man couldn't pay. The Bible is full of Scriptures showing how God wants good things for us and the good plan He has for our lives. Jesus came that we could have life more abundantly. (John 10:10)

Hebrews 4:16 says we can go boldly before the Father's throne to “obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.” That should reassure us in these turbulent times. We live in an imperfect world full of perils and we need the power and protection of our mighty God so we can be overcome and live the high life Jesus died to give us. We can have peace, joy, prosperity, and health in this life.

If you've made Jesus the lord of your life, you don't have to be afraid of the evil tidings you see on the news. You're a child of God and that same power that raised Jesus from the dead resides in you.

So trust God and look to him for direction (Proverbs 3:6). Talk to Him, read His Word. Listen to His voice inside you telling you quietly what you should do. You'll be in for the time of your life!
