Ilyssa Riley & Mistys Money Blurr Dominate Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo, Sissy Winn Captures Circuit

By Tanya Randall

Illyssa Riley and her monster gelding Mistys Money Blurr dominated the Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 12-15 in Waco, Texas. The Hico, Texas, barrel racer and the 6-year-old gelding put nearly 1.5 seconds on the field in the four-run aggregate, after taking second in the first round and winning the next three. They collected $11,466 for the victory.

The pair won two of the rounds at near arena record pace.

"I think the arena record is a .49, and we ran a .54 and a .58, so we got pretty close," said Riley, 25. "I thought that I wanted to do it the last night, but my husband (Jeff) said, 'Why don't we just try for the average instead of the arena record.' I thought that sounded like the best idea!"

A two-time Texas Circuit Finals qualifier, Riley finished the year No. 30 in the WPRA World Standings with $45,176 on the season. She ran Championofthehouse, a former BFA Year-end Champion for Leslie Willis, for much of the early season until the gelding got hurt in March. Afterward, it was up to Money to carry the load over the summer.

"He really didn't do that badly," she said of the young gelding. "I was one or two out at several. I drew bad and he had a lot of ground trouble. It really wasn't anything either one of us were doing. Our first barrel is our biggest struggle, but I think it's more me than him."

Riley purchased the nearly 17 hand gelding from Kassie Mowry at the end of his futurity year in 2020. The Money Depot gelding, out of Mistys Dash Of Fame, one of the industry's all-time leading producers, was bred by JB Quarter Horses. Money, the Ardmore Futurity Champion, won more than $33,000 without incentive races in a Covid-reduced futurity year.

After her modest summer run, Riley returned home to focus on qualifying for the Texas Circuit Finals.

"I actually had hardly any circuit money won when I got back from the Northwest," she said. "I got to looking at the rodeos we had left and I thought if I win or place pretty high at those I might have a shot at making (the circuit finals).'

Riley did well but was still just one-hole out of 12th. However, one competitor ahead of her didn't attend the required number of rodeos, which allowed Riley to enter the Circuit Finals.

"Really, I got lucky to get in," she said.

Riley and Money have been on a hot streak since the start of the 2023 rodeo season. She currently sits No. 1 in the 2023 standings, having won the Waller County Fair in Hempstead and now the Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo, with $15,583. She's also already guaranteed herself a spot in the winter run's most lucrative rodeo, Houston.

"My horses like coliseums way better," she said. "I told my husband that I'm going to try to go harder over the winter to places I know my horses like and feel comfortable."

She's also working to be more competitive when it's time to run

"My main goal is to be way more consistent outside," she added. "I kind of have a mental block outside and ride differently. I'm hoping I have that more leveled out so when the outdoor rodeos come around this next year I'm more prepared."

Riley wanted to thank her husband Jess for all his support, saying "He's the biggest part of my team. He took care of Money every her enough for how helpful she's been. She's been great to me. She's the main reason Money and I have clicked so well. She's just helped me so much the past two years."

Last year's Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion Sissy Winn added her first year-end title to her ever growing resume that now includes a National Finals Rodeo qualification.

Winn had a strong fall and spring aboard her talented gelding Chewingthehotwire ("Chewy") and was in position for the win since before she left for the summer run of rodeos. She went into the Circuit Finals in the lead and added $4,985 for a second-place finish in the aggregate to cement the title with $26,109.

"It's nice to kick off the season with money!" said Winn, who lives near Corpus Christi, Texas in Chapman Ranch. "It wasn't the Circuit Finals I had last year, but I'm grateful to have placed in some rounds and get second."

Her win last year played a big role in her first NFR qualification this year, even though she had to cut her 2022 season short after she fractured her right ankle in a scooter accident while sightseeing in Seattle.

"I broke it right before Puyallup and was just devastated," she said, who made her first run back at Hempstead, Texas, the first weekend of October. "I really wanted to run there. It's much better now and it held up well for Waco. My mom's been riding my horses to keep them in shape and I ran Chewy because he was the easiest one for my foot."

Winn, who heads into her first NFR No. 7 in the world with $101,848, purchased Chewy from Shelby Ridling in the spring of 2019. The 8-year-old Flaming Fire Water gelding, out of the Royal Quick Dash mare, Native Quick Dash, owned by Ridling's parents Brad and Kenna Squires, was a successful futurity horse, and found his stride at the rodeos with Winn in the summer of 2021.

This spring she added the Atwood Ranch-bred and Danyelle Campbell-trained gelding AR Dash Ta Flame ("Scoop") to her arsenal. She said her rodeo earnings were split pretty evenly between the two geldings.

Winn wanted to thank her mom, Melissa, for doing all the riding and driving, her dad for his support and all of her sponsors: Rock & Roll Denim, Panhandle Slim, Oxy-Gen, Simply Equine, ADM Feed, Succeed, 5-Star Pads, Kahm CBD, Tanner Equine and Charlie 1 Horse Hats.

Badland's Circuit Average Champion, Lisa Lockhart is Not Your Average Cowgirl

By Britany Diaz

Lisa Lockhart is no stranger to the winners circle or the Badlands Circuit Finals, where she just competed for the 26th time. The Badlands Circuit Finals were held on October 14-16 in the State Fair Building in Minot, ND. The action started with Performance 1 on Friday evening, where Lockhart finished in fourth place with a 14.07 second run, earning $537. Nikki Hansen took home top honors that night. In Round 2, Lockhart came out on top with a 13.72 second run, winning $2,149. The story repeated itself on Sunday in the final round, where Lockhart ran the fastest time of the whole weekend, clocking a 13.60, earning another $2,149. In three runs and in 41.39 seconds, Lockhart won the average title, earning another $3,223. Lisa won $8,058 total in Minot, launching her into the number three spot in the WPRA World Standings as of October 17. Lisa came into the Badlands Circuit Finals ranked 14th and finished the year-end standings in 4th. Jessica Routier won the year-end Badlands Circuit Championship title.

Lockhart rode Promise Me Fame Guys (owned by Teton Ridge), known as Levee, throughout the circuit finals. Levee is by Aint Seen Nothin Yet out of Bar Blue Lass. The 6-year-old gelding has proved he was a tough competitor throughout his futurity career, but has stepped up to be a crucial part of Lockhart's rodeo team, not only securing her the Badlands Circuit Average Champion title, but also helping qualify her for her 16th consecutive National Finals Rodeo. It helps for a young horse figuring out the rodeo road to have a veteran cowgirl like Lisa to help him succeed at such a high level.

"Levee kind of got thrown into the frying pan this summer when Rosa got hurt in July and was out. Cutter was also coming back from some time off, so he was kind of thrown into this situation. I looked at this situation as one where one door closes and another one opens. Cheyenne was his first really big one. I stayed hooked on him for a whole month, which was probably the best thing I did, and stayed focused on the seasoning process. Fast forward into September, where I chose to run him at Puyullup, under the lights and in front of a big crowd and that was a turning point for me. Move forward to the end of the season, when the stakes were high, I had that faith in him that he was going to be solid and consistent for me, which is worth a lot in that situation," said Lockhart about why she chose to run Levee in Minot. "I just knew he was going to try to be everything that he can be and honest. I knew keeping the barrels up in that tiny pen is a big deal and that he would be the one to run. Once again, he did not disappoint and got stronger every run."

Minot is a small arena. Lots of contestants struggle to keep barrels up all three rounds on the small 13-second pattern. Lisa, a veteran to this arena, always comes with a game plan. "The first barrel is really hard as it is such a straight run to it. Bless Levee's heart for being the horse that he is and allowing me to help him. For example, on the first barrel, if you don't get the angle just right, you can get further down the pen than planned, but he is so willing to listen and let me handle him. The short run across the pen to the second barrel makes it hard to get them over," Lockhart shared. Lisa describes Levee as more of a push-style horse.

The Badland's Circuit Finals Rodeo is put on by the Minot Y's Mens Rodeo Committee. Lisa expressed great words of encouragement towards them and their hard work to make the finals great; "Circuit finals are tough to put on and produce. Every year they try to do more for the contestents and bring in new events for everyone. This year they had open team ropings, breakaway ropings and a barrel race to bring more outside people in. They tried to provide more stalls and I commend the committee for continuing to try to make it bigger and better."

Not only is the average title a big deal, Lockhart became one of only two WPRA women to cross the $3 Million dollar mark after her win in the second go-round on Saturday night. Lockhart shared, "I am very grateful for the opportunity to do what I love and have success doing it. Over the years it does not seem like that is possible, as we all know the rodeo industry is not the most profitable sometimes. Numbers look good, but sometimes it is not reality. Regardless, this is a huge accomplishment no matter what discipline you are in. I'm just very grateful and in disbelief in many ways, but it is pretty cool." Lisa's main focus was on her goal of an average title, but this accomplishment was just icing on the cake. She was able to take this moment in with some of her family as well. Thane, Lisa's son, was also competing at the circuit finals in the calf roping, which her husband, Grady, had qualified for the finals numerous times over the years.

As Lockhart and her team of horses get ready for the NFR in Las Vegas, she plans to go to Billings and maybe a jackpot or two. We all know anytime Lisa shows up, she is going to be a contender. Her and her team of equine athletes: Promise Me Fame Guys, Rosas Cantina Cc and Prime Diamond, will be ready come December. Until then, she will be enjoying her fall at home.

Lisa rides Levee in her Martin Fearless saddle. She rides in a Classic Equine wool felt pad and uses Classic Equine Legacy boots for protection. He runs in a No-Hit Bit Jordon Briggs short-shanked mullen bit. All of Lisa's horses eat Woodys Horse Nutrition Performance

Lockhart sincerely shared about so many she was thankful for. "It was a huge difference this year having so many there to help me. They all had seen what I went through last year trying to do all the traveling on my own, especially at the end. My husband, Grady, spent a large part of September out on the road with me. My sister, Angie Lockwood, helped me out a lot as well. Both of them had their own things at home to take care of and get done, but they graciously stepped in to help me out." Lisa said, "Just the support from people you would never think. Those are the little things that keep you going. The messages from people, they are huge. The people that send little messages or text messages, they don't go unnoticed. They are the driving force that fuels your fire, without a doubt." Lisa acknowledged how much her sponsors mean to her and her horses and helping them be able to do what they do. Her sponsors include: Priefert, Durango, Woody's Horse Nutrition, Platinum Performance, Teton Ridge, Classic Equine, Martin Saddlery, Polaris, Fay Ranches, De Tye Vet Supply, RenoVo, PEMF Complete, Rodeo Rigs, Outback Customs, B Bar Heart Performance Horses and Woodbury Performance Horses.

Fiery Miss West (Missy) and Jessica Routier secured their 5th Year End Badlands Cirtuit Title together. Routier has won 6 total Year End Titles and qualified to 13 Badlands Circuit Finals with 6 of those qualifications on the Gary Westergren owned palomino rocket, Fiery Miss West. Missy and Routier are on their way to their 5th Straight NFR.

"It means the world to me that Missy has the ability to capitalize on whatever position I put her in, allowing me to make the finals without spending much time away from home. I love our circuit and love that I am able to make it to most of our circuit rodeos while still trying to make the NFR. The fact that she has won 5 circuit titles and made 5 NFRs with basically no help from any other horses (I literally have won $80 at pro rodeos on other horses in the past 6 years), to me, just shows how tough she is and how big her heart is. I will never be able to repay her for what she has done for me and my family, and I just hope she knows how special she is!" said Routier.

Fiery Miss West and Jessica Routier will enter their 5th NFR in the #13 position. Routier gets down the road with the help of her sponsors; Westergren Quarter Horses, Silver Lining Herbs, Zesterra by Pro Earth Animal Health, 5 Star Equine Products, Cowgirl Tuff Company, Dakota Western Bank, Badlands Distillery LLC, RodeoRigs.com, WhinneyWear, Martin Saddlery, Woody's Horse Nutrition, Hay Chix, Equi-Racks, Ultimate PEMF Sales.

Jump Ride Glory – Ivy Hurst & Cheyenne Fab Capture Prairie Circuit Finals, Beisel Wins Circuit

By Tanya Randall

Jump riding is essentially what Ivy Hurst does for a living with her high-end barrel horse brokering business. She's qualified for at least seven Prairie Circuit Finals Rodeos in the past, but rarely does she have the opportunity to ride the horse that got there. This year was no exception.

"99 percent of the time I never get to ride the horse that got me there," said the Springer, Oklahoma, barrel racer. "They've either been sold or got hurt. I've just never done very well there. I've been on decent horses through the years, but I've never showed up with one quite like this one."

At the Chisholm Trail RAM Prairie Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 13-14 in Duncan, Oklahoma, Hurst practically dominated the event aboard Cheyenne Fab, owned by Rylee Shields, to win $8 339.

Hurst had ridden Famous Dallas Jazz for the Potter family this summer. In the process of putting current stats on the gelding to make him more appealing to buyers, she qualified for the Circuit Finals.

"As luck would have it, he sold two weeks before the Finals," she said. "I knew that was always a possibility and that was the point, but the timing of it was off. I had another horse in for sale that was phenomenal, and I thought, 'Alright, I'll switch gears with him.' He sold the week before! All my options were dwindling"

Hurst had borrowed a horse from the Shields family for the Circuit Finals before, so she inquired about doing so again. Instead, Rylee Shields offered Cheyenne Fab, whom she said was easier to ride and Hurst had just watched win the Ardmore Derby.

The 5-year-old gelding, by NFR Champion sire Frenchmans Fabulous, was raised by the Pickard family, out of their Dash For Perks mare Cheyenne Perkaboo. Shields had purchased and trained the gelding.

The weekend prior to the circuit finals, Hurst picked up Fab and took him to a jackpot, which they won. Not wanting to worry about the horse during the week, she took him back to Shields and didn't pick him up until the Thursday before the rodeo.

"This horse was insanely easy," said Hurst, who also wanted to thank everyone who offered her horses for their kindness. "Honestly, I didn't know what to do with my free time. I usually ride incredibly push style, intense horses, so I'm used to getting to the rodeo early and freeing them up and making sure everything is working like it should be. I asked them what I needed to do and they said, 'Nothing.' It was mentally challenging for me, because I didn't feel like I was putting in the work."

Hurst and Fab were second in the first round after a wild run home.

"I've been on enough different horses that I have a pretty good idea what questions to ask, like can you use a back cinch, do you use spurs, but I didn't ask her if she smacked him on the way home," Hurst laughed. "In round one, I knew he made a nice run and I smacked him and he kind of almost jumped out from under me. We zigged and we zagged and we barely made it through the timer."

After going back and watching videos, she realized that Shields never chased Fab home.

"She said, 'I have a bad shoulder. I don't whip any of my horses," laughed Hurst. "That cost me the win last night! I went out to my trailer and jerked the over and under off my saddle and it was on!"

Hurst and Fab went on to win the next two rounds with identical runs of 16.01.

"The feeling I had when I went up the alley on Saturday was very different," she said. "Again, I usually run horses that are very tight and turny. I have to bear down to get around the barrels. This time it was just call my name and don't fall off! This is so fun! My heart and soul needed this weekend!"

She said having her best friend Emily Beisel win the year-end title was just icing on the cake.

"We call each other every day," Hurst said. "It was really cool to stand there in the win pictures with your best friend. Neither one of us saw that coming. That was probably the highlight of the whole thing, being able to win it with her."

Hurst is excited about attending the NFR Open next summer.

"I'm thankful I've got eight months to prepare because I'm horseless at the moment, but I'm confident that it will all work out," she said. "I hope my ability to get on multiple horses opens more doors for me in the future."

Four-time NFR qualifier and 10-time Prairie Circuit Finals qualifier Beisel moved from fourth in the circuit standings to first after placing in all three rounds and taking second in the average. She picked up $5,151, which put her No. 7 in the 2023 World Standings, and gave her $20,898 won in her circuit to claim the year-end championship.

Ironically, her main goal was to get experience for Bidden On Fame ("Beau") indoors.

"I never dreamed that he was going to place in all three rounds and do what he did," she said. "I was hopeful that we had a chance at the year end, but we were there more for the experience. He just got better each run. I couldn't be more tickled with his performance."

While Namgis D 33 ("Chongo") is her main horse for the NFR, Beisel knew that the stagecoach and flag girls coming through the alleyway next to the barrel racers really did a number on her backup Namgis D 35 ("Pipewrench") last year.

"Those extra obstacles were a bit much for him," said the Weatherford, Oklahoma, barrel racer. "So, I thought this year, I needed to laughed Hurst.

FEED: He came with his feed.

HAY: Alfalfa, orchard grass mix

SUPPLEMENTS: Gut X

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: He came with his therapies and has vet work with Don Lee at Double X Equine. "We used the Back On Track products at night when it was cooler and I used my PHT during the day," said Hurst. "She sent his MagnaWave with him and that got used on him after every run."

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: All done by Rylee Shields. "Even after I ran him last Saturday, I wasn't sure about what to do," said Hurst. "I wouldn't have minded taking him home to get to know him better. But I was so comfortable with the horse even after one run, I was almost scared to have him in my possession. I didn't want something to happen."

shift my focus to Beau. The biggest problem is I've had Beau for five years and I've never called on him indoors. I've always used him for the big, weird outdoor, side gate, funky setups. I think I need to run him at circuit finals and get those runs under our belt.

"It was hard not to run Chongo at circuit finals because he loves Duncan, but I also know you have to remember what's important, and that was my experience with Beau. Having that experience with this horse could be really important in two months."

Beisel's fourth NFR qualification was a challenging one.

"I feel like I was clawing my way up this year," said Beisel, who goes into the NFR in ninth with $93,965. "It was a long season."

Her NFR quest almost cost her an Prairie Circuit Finals qualification.

"It was pretty wild," she said. "I think that's what makes the circuit finals so sweet for me. It really wasn't on the radar for me. I went to the least amount of circuit rodeos that I've ever went to. I barely made my count this year, but I had to. I barely made the NFR this year and had to be in the Northwest. For Beau to be like I got this.' I was so proud of him."

Beisel said the circuit system has always been very important to her, and she's grateful to have her fourth circuit title—she's won the year-end title three times and the average once.

"I would not be where I'm at without the circuit system," she said. "It's what opened all the doors for me. It's a huge stepping stone."

Beisel wanted to thank her family—husband Austin for holding down the fort while she was gone, her parents for helping her drive and get horses where they needed to be and her sponsors: Vitalize Equine, 12 Gauge Ranch, Master Saddles, Purina, Ortho Equine, RPX Enterprises, Signature Quarters, American AgCredit, Nutrien Ag Solutions, Stierwalt Superflex, Schneider Performance Pads and Cinch Jeans.

Both Beisel and Hurst wanted to thank the Chisholm Trail RAM Prairie Circuit Finals committee and tractor driver Billy Bowden.

"He did sensational," said Hurst. "You could win from anywhere on the ground."

The Pink Buckle Barrel Race took place in Guthrie, Oklahoma Oct 3-9, 2022 at the Lazy E Arena. The $3.3+ million guaranteed payout barrel race was the biggest race yet with entries in all divisions increasing from the 2021 race.

The Pink Buckle Barrel Race is open to anyone riding a horse sired by a current or past Pink Buckle stallion and current on the nomination schedule. All horses need to be nominated (paid in) yearly for $200 starting the year of birth to remain eligible to run in the race.

There are only 50 Pink Buckle stallions. Promoting the Pink Buckle stallions is the heart of the program and the best way to showcase these world-class equine genetics is to give competitors of all skill levels a race with huge payouts and a fun and relaxed atmosphere!

This stallion-based incentive is unique to the barrel racing industry because it relies on the nomination system to guarantee yearly race payouts. Each year our payouts grow because of the body of horses being nominated. Race earnings totals include Owner (80%), Stallion Owner (10%) and Breeder (10%) money paid.

Sayers and Aint No Beta Boon Cash In at CBHI

This past week October 6-9, 2022 in Ponoka, AB the Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive (CBHI) held their big money annual event. Between her money won in the event as a rider/owner and breeder, Ronda Sayers and her speedy homebred Aint No Beta Boon won an amazing $51,762! Sayers owns the sire, Boonlit, and raised Chili Dog so we caught up with her to ask her about her big win! For more information on the CBHI go to www.CanadianBarrelIncentive.com.

BRR: Can you walk us through your winning Super Stakes run at the

The CBHI Super Stakes race takes the faster of your 2 runs for the big money payout. The first day I missed my line to first and he slipped going in a bit too fast. The second day, I knew I needed to watch my line to first for a smoother run.

Sayers: Chili Dog runs to the left (which I'm not accustomed to, however, this year all 3 of my 5yos went left). Even though he's 16H, he feels like he can turn from under you like a small horse can. Getting 'to the hip' is the only goal because you know he's wanting to turn.

That second day, Chili Dog was first out in the Futurity. We ran a 17.3 which held as the fastest run for Day 2 – this run won us the big cheque in the Super Stakes and the 2nd Go Round in the Futurity.

BRR: It's pretty special when you can win on one you raised; and you raised Aint No Beta Boon. What has he been like since he was born? What makes him so special and why does he clock such fast times?

Sayers: For our 10 Year Anniversary, my husband bought me the dam to Chili Dog in 2016. She's the dam to Carman Pozzobon's great mare RIPN LADY (who won the 2018 NFR Average in Barrels).

Chili Dog's mom gave us just one baby before she passed... and that was him - a gorgeous chestnut colt with the longest hip I've ever seen. He was easy to notice from the beginning - a big, gentle giant with a kind disposition.

Training-wise, Chili Dog gravitates to what "flows". If you pick on him too much he'll "glaze over" and check out - and at one point I judged this as a poor work ethic, but no, it was simply my inability to approach what we were doing from his perspective. He's taught me a lot about adjusting my training days not just to the personality of the horse, but to the mood they were in on that particular day.

As a 4yo Chili Dog headed a few slow steers and my husband used him that fall for round up. He/We missed our winter in AZ with travel restrictions from Covid, losing precious time since I rely on Arizona to pattern my futurity prospects.

As a 5vo, we spent 3 months in AZ – roping steers in the morning and working barrels in the afternoon. I wanted him ready to run for the May futurities in Canada, but he simply told me he wasn't. I had to swallow my pride and re-adjust my plan for the year. Our new plan would be to not enter the futurities and competitions, to 'drive more' to the arenas with similar ground as the CBHI, and have him fit and healthy to peak in October for the big Super Stakes

BRR: Tell us about Aint No Beta Boon and what are some of his big wins in his lifetime (and lifetime earnings) so far?

Sayers: Before the big CBHI Super Stakes race in October, Chili

Dog had only 10 competition runs. I'd stayed home most of the year to focus on my 5yos peaking for that one race. It was risky (as they were in-experienced going into the CBHI), it required traveling over 4hrs (each way) just to work horses in the same facility, as well as sticking to the plan and having a whole lot of faith.

Chili Dog spent most of the summer seeing the "competition" sights as a head horse. I took him on the weekends I was entered heeling so he could see new arenas... and as we got into August I switched to heading and he became my main mount.

When the time came for the Super Stakes presentation, it was a whirlwind to head inside for the awards and pictures, and then rush back to saddle and be ready for the regular futurity's Short Go. To be honest, I didn't even look at the front of the cheque... I'm not sure why... people had already told me what I'd won. I think I was more focused on ushering my husband and boys over to get a picture with all of us so I could remember that moment forever.

BRR: You own the sire, Boonlit, as well, can you tell us some about him too?

Sayers: When we found Boonlit, we were not looking to be in the breeding business. We were at a sale where a gentleman from Oklahoma consigned some well-bred cowhorses, Abe Wilson (his son, at the time, worked for the Polo Ranch). Mr. Wilson consigned Boonlit as a 3yo after an injury to his left eye, leaving him with 20% vision. We bought him as a head horse prospect (assuming we would geld him shortly) and ended up breeding our 2 mares plus one outside running-bred mare from a good family friend, Kareen

* Fast forward 5 years... when Boonlit's offspring were old enough, Kareen and I entered the spring futurity with huge success. She was #1 in the average... and I was #2! By the CBHI in October that year, I'd already sold my futurity horse to a fantastic pro-rodeo home, however, Kareen went on to win 2nd in the Super Stakes race - which also paid us as the stallion owner!

BRR: How do you typically prepare for your runs on for yourself & your horse both?

Sayers: Time Onlies: I try to keep things pretty simple. There's a saying I hold close to my heart, "If you didn't come with it, you'll never find it in the warm-up pen"... My time onlies may look a little sloppy because I'm not looking for my horses to have perfect footwork (that homework is done at home). I want them to see, or look (if they need to) at the sights... feel the ground, have a 'kind' experience, and build their confidence.

Pre-Run: I'll warm-up with bell boots and a softer shank bit (one I might rope in). Then I come back to the trailer to let my horse sit, eat a bit from the hay bag, and hopefully pee while I take 10 minutes to sit and visualize or meditate (personally, I love the Down Dog meditation app). After this, I'll put my polo wraps on, barrel bit in, and head over to the arena for a light warm up before our run.

Run Time: At this point I know my horse is ready, and they'll be hunting first barrel... I do struggle with my own mindset shortly before a run since I do NOT like to go fast. It's not in my wheelhouse to make a lot of fast runs (I love the training part, but not the competition part)... So, by the time we're paying to enter, my horses need to be confident in themselves and carry ME through it - LOL!

BRR: People in the US don't see as much about the CBHI, can you tell us a little about the CBHI?

Sayers: The Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive (CBHI) is designed by barrel racing breeders to promote the barrel racing industry in Canada. They have three incentives: a jackpot incentive which includes open horses from all nominated stallions, a Super Stakes incentive for Futurity and Derby horses from select Super Stakes nominated stallions, and a new mare program.

The Super Stakes Futurity and Derby has the highest payout. The CBHI holds a stallion auction each Feb where all eligible Super Stakes stallions donate a breed fee - the winner of the bid receives a Super Stakes Certificate plus the donating breeder receives 2 onfarm pics to give each a Super Stakes Certificate. (Only horses with a Super Stakes Certificate are eligible for this payout incentive when they are 5, 6 and 7yos.) The resulting money from the auction makes up the total $$ purse for their corresponding futurity and derby years.

They have a payout to the owner of the horse and to the stallion owner. In my case, I won $37,440 for winning the race (as the owner and rider) and $12,480 as the stallion owner, for a total of $49,920 (plus the additional money won from a go-round win, etc). They do a fantastic job running this event and we're seeing more women from the US each year.

BRR: Raising horses, training, and running them is a ton of work; how do you balance all of it?

Sayers: We are a small fish in a much bigger pond! We have a handful of mares, and usually keep 2 or 3 colts from each crop. Our two boys are now 8yo and 6yo making it's easier to ride. My husband starts our colts and essentially does most of the riding when they are 2yos and 3yos.

We have a place in Arizona - which we go Jan to April. I use that time to pattern prospects because most of their time in Canada is a mix of turnout, ranch duties, or roping. Since our horses see a lot of life outside the barrel pattern, I love making the pattern the easy place for them.

I use my time in the team roping arena to both please my husband (because he LOVES to rope) and to show my horses pressure situations. I like how it requires them to pay attention to all the new, moving and changing parts. They get a taste of adrenaline when they start running fresh steers, starting out of the box, and

THE RUNDOWN w/Ronda Sayers

Aint No Beta Boon ("Chili Dog") 16 hands

BIT: My go-to bit to run horses is the Sherry Cervi twisted wire dogbone in a short shank. I will loosen off the chinstrap and most of my horses end up running in this.

For Chili Dog, I used a new bit for us that I used because it had a smooth mouthpiece versus a twisted wire. It's a Tom Balding, double cross mouthpiece, shortboat shank.

<code>HEADGEAR:</code> Nothing - but I do rope steers in a tie-down and a shank bit. <code>SADDLE:</code> Coats Original (14'') - I like the extra room when I'm running and how it fits everything!

SADDLE PAD: 100% wool navajo pad (the kind you can fold in half and have 4 layers).... I might sometimes put my BOT pad under this

LEG GEAR: Polo Wraps for competition (100%) and bell boots, to practice I use a jumping splint boot (Shedro brand) similar to the Hansbo ones, and to rope I'll just use bell boots unless I'm practicing my face-ups shoeing: Our horses are typically barefoot until their 5yo competition year (we live in sandy soil)

Farrier Notes: This past year we've learnt so much about this! We now measure length of toe and keep track of angles of each foot FEED: Cooked Oats (45 min in instant pot...cooled to serve), a full 7 days prior and during events (otherwise it's just hay or pasture grass)

HAY: Dec-Apr (Arizona) - 100% alfalfa (they get rode 2x day and get fat on this ration)

Apr-Dec (Canada) - turn-out grass and alfalfa/grass bale if 5yo because they have special treatment

SUPPLEMENTS: herbs from "Spirit Horse Herbs" - they are custom formulated, really reasonable, with good results (used periodically). Bodywork by Anne Baron and "Holistic Horse Works"

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Typically my plan is to ride and coast through the week before, and do slow work and bodywork the week of.... This year I spent the large part of the week before with traveling to a bodywork check-up, dentist, and energy check-up on both horses. When it came to Monday... I shut it down, and it was all about being game-ready...

THANK YOUS: My Husband (Chris Sayers) - who starts my colts (which is most of the work) and is my ROCK!

Dena Kirkpatrick - She's been very gracious in her wisdom and advice these past few months! Congratulations to her and Gracie at the Pink Buckle! (Wow!)

Crystal McDermott - She owned the dam of Chili Dog and allowed us to purchase her plus a package of mares (amongst the bidding/interest of others)

Gus Vaile - for spending time with us on the fundamentals of shoeing they learn to use their feet and handle the ground with me 'pulling on their face' to guide them in the right position to rope a steer. It's a great way to teach calm, relaxed footwork without the potential boredom of dryland drills.

My pattern work is quite simple, repeating the same process each time, using perfect circles around the barrels – doubling up at a walk, trot, then lope. If all goes well, we will go smooth through at each speed. If something doesn't go well, I'll walk the pattern and be done for the day with a mental note for my next ride to fine-tune what wasn't working. I'll use Dena Kirkpatrick's "Pinwheel Drill" or a roping session to fix what's needed before ever going back to the pattern.

I find this simple process of patterning makes it easy for horses to stay happy, confident, and loving their job. I love the training side of all this, however, I do not enjoy making runs and going fast. My ideal year is to see my futurity horses clock 2 or 3 times and then be sold to homes that will go on with them and have THEM win the Super Stakes. There is no better feeling than seeing people fit and go on with the horses you've trained.

BRR: What are your plans for the rest of the year for yourself & your horse?

Sayers: As of last week, all three 5yos (including Chili Dog) are sold and off to three amazing new homes! (Thank you to the wonderful people who are choosing to ride a Boonlit baby!) I'm now able to focus on my 4yos and will use them to bring herds home this fall.

On a personal level, this past year I've learnt so much from this pen of futurity horses. I want to spend more time being "with" my horses (grooming, touching, stretching, etc). So often we roll through a line-up of horses without "seeing" them. I've always prided myself on paying attention to their personalities, but rushing through horses each day causes me to miss "seeing" them on that individual day.

I also want to spend some time re-learning everything I thought I knew about the way I'm patterning horses. I've come to realize, what I think I "know" is only a small fraction of what there is to know.

And finally, I'd like to find one more broodmare for our program that would fit with what I look for in crossing with Boonlit – preferably something already bred with a Pink Buckle baby inside (future goals...).

Taylor Sheridan to be keynote speaker at 2022 PRCA Convention

Taylor Sheridan, a prominent American filmmaker and actor, will be the keynote speaker at the 2022 PRCA Convention in Las Vegas.

Sheridan will address convention attendees at the Grand Ballroom at the South Point Hotel and Casino, Wednesday, Nov. 30 at 9 a.m. (PT).

The gathering of PRCA members precedes the biggest event on ProRodeo's annual calendar, the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo presented by Teton Ridge at the Thomas & Mack Center in Vegas, Dec. 1-10.

"We are honored Taylor Sheridan will keynote our convention," said Tom Glause, CEO of the PRCA. "He has a great understanding of the western way of life and appreciates the work ethic of our cowboys and what they represent."

The theme for this year's convention is On the Road Again, and Sheridan will address attendees on his career journey as a filmmaker and being inducted into the Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame in 2021.

Sheridan first reached prominence for portraying David Hale in the FX television series Sons of Anarchy and Danny Boyd in Veronica Mars (2005–2007).

Sheridan has written several films, including the screenplay for Sicario (2015), for which he was nominated for the Writers Guild of America Award for Best Original Screenplay. He was nominated for the Academy Award for Best Original Screenplay for Hell or High Water (2016), which was nominated for three other Oscars, including Best Picture Sheridan also wrote and directed the 2017 neo-Western crime film Wind River and wrote the 2018 sequel to Sicario. He is a co-creator of the Paramount Network hit television series Yellowstone and creator of its preguel 1883.

In 2021, he co-created the crime miniseries Mayor of Kingstown. He most recently wrote the crime drama Tulsa King, which he co-created with Terence Winter. Tulsa King will premiere with two episodes Nov. 13 on Paramount+.

Convention attendees will discuss what enabled ProRodeo to overcome the challenges of the 2021 season and the changes facing professional sports in the years ahead.

As in prior years, the convention will feature the State of the PRCA address from Glause as well as the PRCA Member Tradeshow.

The PRCA National Convention is the annual meeting of the organization's members. It is the gathering to review the achievements of the prior year and lay out new strategic areas of focus for the year ahead. The evenings are highlighted with fan favorites: the 15th annual Wrangler Gold Buckle Gala on Nov. 28 honoring ProRodeo Hall of Fame stock contractor Mike Cervi, the 2022 Legend of ProRodeo; the PRCA Welcome Reception on Nov. 29, and the PRCA Annual Awards Banquet on Nov. 30 to recognize the extraordinary achievements of PRCA members.

The 2022 PRCA National Convention will take place at the South Point. Registration is open for PRCA members and their guests at www.prcaconvention.com.

WCRA Brings Richest Rodeo East Rodeo Carolina- The Richest Rodeo East of The Mississippi to Take Place October 6-7,

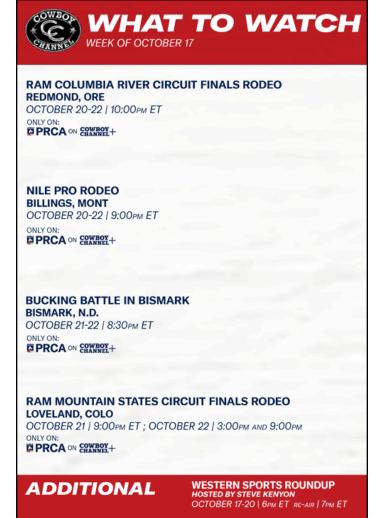

Rodeo Carolina- The Richest Rodeo East of The Mississippi to Take Place October 6-7, 2023 at Tryon International Equestrian Center --

The WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) announced today that the world-famous Tryon International Equestrian Center and Resort in North Carolina will host a 2023 Triple Crown of Rodeo (TCR) event. With a total guaranteed payout over $400,000, the event on October 6-7, 2023, will be the richest rodeo east of the Mississippi River and creates more opportunities for athletes outside the traditional annual rodeo season.

The Triple Crown of Rodeo, presented by Lazy E Ranch and Arena, is a series of annual major rodeo events which includes a bonus that will pay $1 million to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos. WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo events are all featured in CBS network television broadcasts each year.

"This landmark addition to the Triple Crown of Rodeo creates the richest rodeo east of the Mississippi and takes world class rodeo to the East Coast," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "This facility has long been a resort destination for the equestrian industry and is surrounded by exciting family entertainment activities. The timing of the event is also an advantage being outside of the regular rodeo season."

Tryon International Equestrian Center & Resort is one of the most picturesque equestrian facilities in the country and located within the Blue Ridge Foothills of Mill Spring,

North Carolina. The year-round event venue features multi-discipline international and national equestrian competitions alongside live music, arts and entertainment, and holiday events.

With onsite shops, diverse dining options, plus a robust entertainment calendar, non-equestrian visitors are equally marveled by the Tryon Resort experience.

Tryon International Equestrian Center and Resort spans 1,600 acres, boasts 13 competition arenas, 1,400 permanent stalls, and a variety of restaurants, shops, and lodging options. The Tryon Resort family of brands is completed by a nearby sporting clay course at Cleghorn Gun Club as well as the Cleghorn Golf & Sports Club.

"We are thrilled to host the Triple Crown of Rodeo and build the most iconic rodeo on the east coast," said Sharon Decker, President of Tryon International Equestrian Center. "We look forward to growing this marquee rodeo for years to come highlighting our facility and the Carolinas on a CBS Sports to Millions."

Rodeo athletes from around the globe are eligible to qualify to compete at Triple Crown of Rodeo events by using the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) mobile app.

The top athletes on the WCRA Leaderboard in each discipline will compete for their piece of the prize money at the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo events across nine disciplines which include — bareback riding, women's breakaway roping, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, team roping (heading and heeling), tie-down roping, barrel racing, and bull riding.

Stay tuned to https://wcrarodeo.com/ for the latest information on event format and athlete qualifications.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

f you've been barrel racing very long, chances are you may have, or have had, gate issues. Those times when your horse just flat says no about running through that gate. And there are so many reasons why they may be objecting. Fear, pain somewhere in their body, lack of confidence/insufficient instruction or bad rider (not us of course!).

Any of those reasons can also affect us when we think about telling someone about Jesus. Fear that we will be rebuffed, or talked about in the bleachers. We aren't confident in who we are in Jesus, and we are well aware that a lot of people may have seen us acting unbecomingly, so 'who do we think we are'? Yikes! We just aren't sure how to tell someone about how much Jesus loves them.

Yet, if there's a new training technique or healing device, we are unhindered in our testimony to our friends about how wonderful it is and how it can help our equine friends. When we choose to tell someone about Jesus, His goodness, His healing capabilities or any of His other attributes, the Holy Spirit will help us and train us so we have great confidence in that area. We can fly through that gate and someone will be blessed because we cared enough about them to tell them about Jesus!

In closing, I just want to say, growing up, my horses NEVER had gate issues. If there was a fraction of hesitation, my dad would run up behind them and they got a boot in the butt! We would SHOOT through that gate! It was embarrassing! Again, alcohol was involved. Jesus would NEVER do that to you! Tell someone, or lots of someone's, about Him!
