Famous Lil Jet — 2021 Nutrena Barrel Racing Horse of the Year presented by AQHA

By Hope Raley

The 2021 Nutrena Horse of the Year presented by AQHA were unveiled on October 14th and it was Jordon Briggs' Famous Lil Jet "Rollo" that took top honors. Owned by Justin and Jordon Briggs, "Rollo", is part of the family and Briggs is proud and honored that those that she competed alongside all year think highly of her equine counterpart.

Both Jordon and Justin thought Rollo has been special since day one. The 7-year-old son of Dash Ta Fame out of Blazin Black Beauty by Blazin Jetolena with Lady Perks as a second dam was bred by Busby Quarterhorse LLC.

"A horse like Rollo doesn't come around very often. He is so consistent, and I feel like he knows not to hit a barrel," explained Briggs. "He makes the same run every time. For my peers and competitors to think he's as cool as I do is such an honor."

Briggs start of the 2021 rodeo season was a little slow going due to her breaking her ankle, but you would have never guessed it with how quickly she climbed up the world standings.

"I can't believe that I was able to play catch-up after breaking my ankle. Rollo and I just got better and smarter the longer the summer went. Running the same horse that many times and learning how to adjust to get better with every run is an amazing feeling. Being that in sync is a lot of fun and I can honestly say that I learned the most from our worst runs."

Probably the person that loves Rollo the most, and vice versa, is Briggs three-year-old daughter Bexley. "They love each other and watching Rollo with Bexley melts my heart. He is so gentle with her which really shows just how special of a horse he truly is."

Briggs admitted that training horses is a hard way to make a living, especially when you have a family. "You feel selfish a lot of the time because the horses have to come first because it is so much work. I couldn't do this without a very understanding family and them knowing the sacrifices that it takes."

Briggs was fortunate enough to be out on the road quite a bit this year with her family and having husband Justin and daughter Bexley with her made the year all that more special.

"I was a rodeo kid growing up and I got to be around some of the best people in the world, so I can only hope that for my daughter also and for her to be as proud of me as I am of my mom."

Going into the NFR, Briggs plan is to keep "Rollo" happy and healthy, and in her words "try not to feed him too much because he gets fat!"

"I am so grateful to all the people that gave Rollo and I a home-away-from-home this summer and let us stay at their place so Rollo could be fresh and well-rested. I would also like to give a shout-out to the rodeos that would drag and work hard on the ground!"

Lastly, Briggs would like to extend a special thank you to her sponsors- Classic Equine, Rodeo Rigs, Horse Hair Analysis, Rock 'N' Roll Denim, Durango Boots, Purina, and Shiloh Saddlery.

Going into the 2021 NFR, Briggs sits #2 in the World with $102,618 in earnings just a little over $10k behind reigning World Champion Hailey Kinsel. Kinsel has earned $113,528 in 2021 so far. Rounding out the top three in the barrel racing category of AQHA Nutrena Horse of the Year was DM Sissy Hayday (ridden & owned by Hailey Kinsel) coming in second and Fiery Miss West (ridden by

As an interesting note, Famous Lil Jet was the first direct Dash Ta Fame son or daughter to win AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year. Dash Ta Fame has had 3 different grandget win the honor however: Rafter W Minnie Reba in 2017 (by Dash Ta Fame son Ks Cash N Fame), CFour Tibbie Stinson in 2016 (by Dash Ta Fame son Eddie Stinson), and French First Watch in 2015 (out of Dash Ta Fame daughter Dashing To Fame).

Emma Charleston & Leslie Smalygo Earn Prairie Circuit Championships

By Tanya Randall

Emma Charleston of Reeds, Missouri, and Leslie Smalygo of Skiatook, Oklahoma, will represent the Prairie Circuit at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Florida, next spring.

Charleston, a first time circuit finalist, and her talented 6-year-old mare Makana topped the Prairie Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 14-16 in Duncan, Okla., while Smalygo held on to the year-end championship by $429 over Emily Beisel of Weatherford, Oklahoma.

The rodeo championship paid Charleston $6,654, which counts toward the 2022 WPRA World Standings. She currently sits second in the world with $7,522.

“Makana handled it really well,” said Charleston, who also competed and won money in the breakaway roping at circuit finals. “She hasn’t been to that many perfs. I was kind of worried about that. I was just trying to make smooth runs because I knew the average paid really well. She just excelled for what I was asking her for.”

Charleston and Makana won the first and second rounds and were just out of the money in the third to win the average handily.

“I was just trying to keep the barrels up (in the third round) and I sent her a little too hard to the first barrel, so that was my fault,” she admitted.

SADDLE: Larry Coats

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four

SHOEING: Rims on front, regular behind

FEED: Purina Impact Professional

HAY: Brome hay all day with a flake of alfalfa morning and night

SUPPLEMENTS: Herbs for respiratory issues and allergies

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: FlexiNeb with Rebar Ranch Naturals, XLR8 Blanket, Back On Track, Sore No More Poultice and Flair Strips

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: “At least once a week, I’ll track calves out on her. I ride her out in the pasture and keep her out of the dust as much as possible. I’ll long trot for five minutes, walk and then lope for a little bit. It’s mainly keep her out of the arena and keep her mind off things. I’ll gather calves on her as much as I can.”

This is Makana’s first year on the rodeo circuit. Bred by Jason Martin and Charlie Cole, Makana is by leading barrel horse sire and multiple NFR qualifier Slick By Design out of the champion performer and producer Rods Last Ladybug, by Sharp Rodney.

Makana was trained by Slick’s NFR jockey Michele McLeod and earned $80,000 as a futurity horse before being sold to Charleston, who spent the year rodeo seasoning the mare.

Charleston, who wanted to thank her parents Kevin and Trish and sponsors for their support and the rodeo committees and their sponsors for all their dedication to the sport since COVID, plans to use the knowledge she gained this summer to make a run for the NFR in 2022.

“I just want to keep her happy and sound,” she said. “I actually got to go last summer, so I kind of have a game plan as to where I want and don’t want to run her. Makana is actually going to the NFR with Stevi Hillman as a backup. I’m excited for that. I’ll run her at the WPRA Finals. My goal is to make the NFR next year or at least try to.”

Smalygo, the newly crowned year-end champion, also wants to make an NFR run in 2022 with her great 11-year-old gelding Justaheartbeattofame (“Gus”).

"If I get my sponsorships lined up right where I can afford to go a little bit more, we're going to try for the NFR," she said. "I know he can do it. I've got a backup that's coming along that's a half-brother to him. He's really honest. He's going to be just as outstanding as (Gus) is. Then I'll have two to go. We're expecting great things for next year."

Smalygo won $16,963 to win the Prairie Circuit Championship. She made limited ventures to the north of her circuit to win $21,349 on the season and finish in the Top 50 in the WPROA World Standings.

Gus carried her the whole way.

"He won 26 checks in a row," she said. "He was on point and felt great. He gave me everything he had every single time."

Bred by Bart and Vicki Amsler, Gus is by the Lanes Leinster son Justaheartofawarrior out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Yawl A Fame Maker. Smalygo had originally purchased Gus's full brother off of Facebook, but she sold him shortly after she started winning on him.

"I paid off all my debt," she admitted with the sale. "I knew where Gus was because the same people had him. They were paying him up in the futurities on the racetrack. I was like, 'I need him now,' and they let me buy him. It only took me two months to train him and I've been running him ever since."

Not only is Gus talented in the arena, he's also quite the character to be around.

"He knows what it takes to win and when he doesn't have a good run, he will not take a treat from me. He grounds himself to no treats," Smalygo laughed. "I rode his half-brother at a rodeo this year and Gus got so mad at him. He wouldn't let me touch him for two days and he beat the living crap out of his brother. The next rodeo we went to I ran him and he won it."

Gus also enjoys being clipped and his PEMF treatments—particularly on his head, abhors early morning slack because he's not quite awake, and likes having his teeth and gums massaged.

"He's so chill," said Smalygo. "He'll warm up like a dream, but if he's in one of his moods, where he's ready and on the muscle, you don't even want to be on him anymore because he's being so annoying. You're going to win it. The bigger jerk he is, the better he's going to run."

"He's such a weirdo but he's so fun."

Unfortunately, Smalygo was without Gus for the circuit finals because he "didn't make good decisions" while playing at home and cut his hoof. Thankfully, he'll be back after another month of rest.

"It was really hard not having Gus there because I knew what he could do and has done in the past at circuit finals," she said. AL-

2021 PINK BUCKLE WINNERS

The Pink Buckle Barrel Race took place in Guthrie, Oklahoma on October 5-10th at the Lazy E Arena. The $2.7+ Guaranteed Payout Barrel Race hosted 706 Open 4D entries, 462 Owner/Rider entries, 244 Futurity competitors, 217 Derby competitors, and 71 Youth racers. Champions are based on a 2 go average except the Owner/Rider sidepot which is calculated using the fastest time of 2 runs.

The Pink Buckle Barrel Race is open to anyone riding a horse sired by one of the 50 Pink Buckle stallions. The stallion owners are the heart of the program and the best way to showcase the world-class equine genetics that they have to offer is to give competitors of all skill levels races with huge payouts and a fun and relaxed atmosphere. Our events are tailored so that contestants have the opportunity to network with stallion owners.

Our races pay each 'D' equally! At the Pink Buckle barrel race, each 'D' has $275,000 guaranteed payouts and pays down 20 places. We publish all of our guaranteed payouts at the beginning of the year.

This stallion-based incentive is unique to the barrel racing industry because it relies on a nomination system to guarantee yearly race payouts. $3.3 Million dollars will be paid out at the Pink Buckle Barrel Race in 2022! Each year our payouts grow because of the nomination system.

All horses need to be nominated (paid in) annually to remain eligible to compete in future years, starting from the year of birth. Nominations are due Aug 1 for $200 OR Dec 1 for $300.

Race earnings totals include Owner, Stallion Owner and Breeder money paid.

Brandy McPhee & Guys Storm Cloud Tops CBHI Super Stakes For Heidi Robinson

By Tanya Randall

Bill Robinson had a dream to raise a horse that excelled on the track and in the arena. Sadly, he passed away on November 1, 2017. The following year, his wife sent the horse they had chosen for this quest to the States to run on the track.

Guys Storm Cloud came home a stakes winner, and under the direction of Brian and Brandy McPhee has added two barrel racing championships and two reserve championships in the arena, including Canada's richest—CBHI Super Stakes Futurity Champion.

"He's got the best seat in the house, watching from above," said Heidi Robinson, Bill's spouse of 42 years. Robinson made the 10-hour trek from Okanagan Falls, British Columbia, to Ponoka, Alberta for the CBHI Super Stakes. "It was our (Canadian) Thanksgiving ritual to watch the big race."

With Brandy McPhee in the saddle, Guy topped the Super Stakes and placed third in the Futurity to earn $54,485 for Robinson in owner and breeders money.

"At first it was just surreal," said Robinson. "Tears started flowing because my husband wasn't there. It took a few days for it to set in, to process it all. I think I was more emotional when I got home with the kids. You realize, 'Man, he really did accomplish something!'"

Robinson got involved with the horses through her husband, who got the passion from his father, who brought some of the first registered Quarter horses to British Columbia. The couple first started out with racehorses. They owned the legendary Jet Of Honor before he became a famous barrel horse sire.

"We bought him off Bob Moore in 1975 and sold him in the fall of 1986," she said. "It was after we sold him that the barrel girls got a hold of him."

When the racing industry dried up in British Columbia, the Robinsons raised Blue Valentine horses for a brief stint. Then Bill decided he needed to get involved with the barrel racing industry and went looking for a stud prospect.

"In the summer of 2010, he decided to call Bill Meyers, who knew us through Jet Of Honor," Robinson explained. "My Bill told Bill Myers he wanted a palomino stud colt by Frenchmans Guy and he sent us information on three stud colts that he had kept." Robinson's husband picked Guys Casanova Cowboy, out of the Holland Ease mare Amber Holland.

"He always said he wished he'd bought him five years earlier," said Robinson. "We had decided to run him and just start breeding him as a 2-year-old and that we would promote one of his offspring. The offspring we chose was Guys Storm Cloud out of Lightnin Storm Cloud."

The Robinsons had originally planned on claiming Lightnin Storm Cloud off the track, but her owner agreed to sell the daughter of Okey Dokey Dale out of the Beda Cheng mare Bedaub Adash, to them directly.

"She's a stakes winner of $40,000," Robinson said. "Her second dam, Bedaub Adash, is the dam of Vauna Walker's Two Dash Ta Fame, the dam of RV Two Dash Ta Vegas that Anita Ellis won the Ruby Buckle on."

As a racehorse, Guy won three of five starts including the Roche Futurity at the Jerome Fair in Idaho where he earned a speed index of 101. He left the track with $10,282 in earnings.

"I sent him to a (barrel horse) trainer down south and it didn't turn out like I'd hoped," she said. "The guy down south told me maybe he needs a different path, to be a rope horse or something." Robinson brought him home and turned him out for two months before the McPhees picked him up.

"They both worked their magic on him, and Brandy was able to guide him to all his wins," she said. "I've got to stress that Brandy deserves all the credit. Brandy is the bomb.”

Although Robinson wanted to run Guy as a 4-year-old, the McPhees thought it best if they waited until his fifth year.

“When I got him he had a little bit of a chip on his shoulder,” said McPhee, who lives in Edson, Alberta. “It took me a little while to earn his trust, but he was always super eager and tried to please.” Prior to the CBHI Super Stakes, Guy had won about $20,000 at the futurities. He won the Aurora Winds Feed/Buckeye Nutrition Futurity and took reserve titles at the Big Bang and Coastal Classic futurities. He also won the first round of the Glacier Chaser Classic in Montana.

Having had a long year, McPhee thought it best to give Guy a month off before the Super Stakes.

“It was hard on me because who doesn’t want to run a futurity horse that’s doing fairly well,” she said. “I just felt it would be better for him to come into the CBHI fresh. Other people were jackpotting and exhibiting pretty hard and I was just twiddling my thumbs.”

For the Super Stakes, the championship is decided by the best of two runs in the CBHI Futurity. In the first round, Guy and McPhee posted a 17.579, which placed fourth in the round.

“I was pretty happy with that,” McPhee said. “He worked pretty good. I knew I just had to ride him right. I knew he would do his part if I did mine.”

They won the second round and Super Stakes with a 17.374.

“The second day I thought if I rode him the same he was going to work exactly the same for me,” she said. “He felt so honest and easy.”

With the “big check” of $49,440 already in hand, McPhee decided that she would “let it all hang out” in the Futurity short round. “I asked him for more than I had been,” she admitted. “He worked great, but maybe I should have bit him up a little more and asked him to turn a little sooner. We just decided we’re going to let it all hang out and see what happens. We had already won the big check, so I thought what can we do now instead of being safe?”

Although they didn’t place in the short go, they still finished third in the aggregate, which was worth $5,045. Guy’s earnings are now $77,000.

McPhee is grateful that Robinson took a chance on sending Guy to them. She also wanted to thank her wonderful support team. “My husband and I have a good program,” she said. “He starts the colts and then I get them after that. We have a good team behind us. My father- and mother-in-law have an arena and we’re able to use that. My mother also lives close by so we have lots of support. We have four kids at home and we’re homeschooling them so we can be on the road a little bit more.”

Although she’d love to keep Guy in the trailer, the gelding is for sale. She does have two of her own horses to futurity next year plus two outside horses. One of those is another of Robinson’s by Guys Casanova Cowboy and out of Bedaub Adash herself.

“It took us three years to get an embryo out of her,” said Robinson of Bedaub Adash. “I just wish it could have been a filly.” Although she still has four broodmares, Robinson sold Cowboy in March to Doug and Debbie Willis and their daughter Renee.

“My husband had passed away and my son was helping me, but your kids have their own life,” Robinson said. “Renee Willis and her parents, who purchased him, were great fans of his. Bill and Deb Myers could have sold him for me to the states, but it’s nice that he stayed in Canada. The girl that has him loves him and that makes all the difference.”

2021 Return to the Remuda Sale Sets New All-Time Record, breaking the $3 Million Dollar mark

The Annual Return to the Remuda sale was hosted at the Four Sixes Ranch in Guthrie, Texas on October 2, where 168 horses were sold to the public and saw the highest gross in the history of the sale.

The sale experienced the largest crowd ever on hand to preview and purchase from the legendary ranches of Beggs Cattle Company, Four Sixes Ranch, Tongue River Ranch, Pitchfork Land and Cattle Company, King Ranch, and Wagonhound Land & Livestock.

"I thought last year's sale would be hard to beat, but this sale surpassed all of our expectations! Our buyers came from all over the country, California to Florida and 21 states in-between," said Horse Division Manager and Resident Veterinarian, Dr. Glenn Blodgett. The sale gross exceeded $3,000,000 with an overall average of more than $18,000, a 32% increase over 2020. "The two-year-old geldings and yearlings stayed consistent with last year's sale, and we saw a considerable increase with aged geldings, weanlings, and older fillies.

The biggest gains were with the broodmares and stallion prospects, having above average offerings in those categories," commented Blodgett.

Congratulations to the connections of the top 10 sellers:

All the ranches appreciate everyone who participated in the Return to the Remuda Sale and look forward to seeing everyone again in the Fall of 2022. "The success of the sale acknowledges our efforts in producing horses that are sought after for ranch use and in the arena. There is nothing more satisfying than to see sale graduates thrive under new ownership, we wish all the buyers' success with their new purchases," concluded Blodgett.

2021 Nutrena Horse of the Year Presented by AQHA Winners Announced

Success in the sport of barrel racing or breakaway roping doesn't just fall on the human athlete but also the equine athlete. While the WPRA and AQHA have annually honored the top equine partners that carry WPRA barrel racers to the winner's circle dating back to 1989, this year marks the first year breakaway roping horses are also being recognized.

The Nutrena Horse of the Year presented by AQHA were unveiled on October 14 following the conclusion of voting by the Top 25 in each respective event.

Taking top honors in the barrel racing was Famous Lil Jet "Rollo" ridden by Jordon Briggs and owned by Jordon and her husband, Justin.

"I'm really proud that other people—my peers, people I've competed against and looked up to—that they think that of him as well," said Briggs upon learning that Rollo had won this coveted title. "He's very consistent and seems to know not to hit a barrel. Ever since he was a futurity colt, I told my husband, if any horse deserves to go make ten runs in that arena (Thomas and Mack), it's this horse. . . I just didn't know if I'd be the one to take him or sell him to someone else to do it.

"My whole life, my favorite thing has been training futurity colts. I trained them, sold them and started over, trained them, sold them and started over. But I knew I'd never be able to train another one like him so I just couldn't make myself sell him. He means the world to my whole family. We all wake up to feed Rollo every day, he's very special to all of us."

Rollo has carried Briggs to wins in Dodge City, KS, Abilene, KS, Red Lodge, MT, Fort Smith, AR and to her second NFR qualification. They also tied for the win in Guymon, OK, with second place Horse of the Year finisher DM Sissy Hayday "Sister" owned and ridden by Hailey Kinsel.

Rounding out the top three in the barrel racing category resulted in a tie with Fiery Miss West "Missy" ridden by Jessica Routier and owned by Gary Westergren and HR Fameskissantell "Kiss" owned and ridden by Shelley Morgan.

On the breakaway side winning the inaugural Nutrena Horse of the Year presented by AQHA title was Shelby Boisjoli's horse – NoWimpy Turns "Onna." This is a horse she has relied on in 2021 and recently carried her to the win at the ProRodeo Tour Finale in Salinas to return to the top of the world standings.

"She's kind of a quirky horse but she's also just a big teddy bear," said Boisjoli about her 6-year old mare. "She's one of those horses who doesn't like to do bad. . . she knows when she does bad and gets really upset about it. I just love her, she means the world to me and I literally cherish every single run with her."

2021 WPRA Breakaway Roping Rookie of the Year Madison Outhier credits her horse Allo Gallo Colonel "Rooster" for her success and they finished second in the Horse of the Year voting. Erin Johnson, who has won three WPRA breakaway roping world titles, has ridden Husker Be Smokin "Chico" to a third place ranking heading into the National Finals Breakaway Roping and a third place finish in the Horse of the Year voting in 2021.

Congratulations to all the winners.

Inaugural NFR Open set for July at Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo

Formerly RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo, NFR Open will run July 13-16

The 2022 NFR Open will be hosted by the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo, July 13-16 in Colorado Springs, Colo., the PRCA announced on October 19, 2021.

The inaugural NFR Open powered by RAM, will be one of the biggest rodeos of the 2022 PRORODEO season with $1 million in payouts to contestants, livestock and other PRCA members.

"The NFR Open is one of the most significant PRORODEOS of the year," said Tom Glause, CEO of the PRCA. "Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo and the Colorado Springs community check all the boxes needed for an event like this. A great rodeo, with a lot of community support. I'm looking forward to it!"

The NFR Open, formerly titled the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo, is the most prestigious rodeo under the PRCA circuit system and will feature two contestants in each event from each of the 12 U.S. circuits, plus Canada, bringing more than 200 contestants to the Norris-Penrose Event Center for five competition rounds over the four days.

The event will culminate with a semifinals and finals on Saturday, July 16, when the national circuit champions will be crowned. This event is also one of the highest-paying events in PRORODEO and will be a key ingredient for cowboys and cowgirls shooting to qualify for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas taking place later in the year.

Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo Board President, Dan Ferguson, said, "We've been putting on a world class rodeo for many years – a role we will be proudly continuing. But now we have the opportunity to host an even more elite level of competition with the NFR Open. This event showcases the best in the sport of professional rodeo and gives our Rodeo and the Springs national visibility."

"The Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo is part of our community's history and our heritage. The opportunity to share this legacy event with a wider audience is great news for our city and region, for the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo organization and for the sport of professional rodeo," said Mayor John Suthers.

Chair of the Board of County Commissioners Stan VanderWerf stated, "It is exciting news that we'll be hosting one of the most elite competitions in rodeo right here in the Springs at the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo. We'll be welcoming contestants and their families, as well as fans of the sport from all over the U.S. to enjoy the Open and all our town has to offer."

We don't have to be smarter than the rest.
We just have to be more disciplined than the rest.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When you live in Wyoming, there are often weather surprises. We don't have 4 distinct seasons. We laughingly call the snow we just had our 'first winter'. We were basking in lovely fall days.

The grass was still green, the flowers hanging in there. Then BAM! A foot of snow, freezing temperatures and closed roads! Lasted two days. It'll be 66 today. The snow is melting, the grass underneath is still green and when I shoveled off my flower beds, there are still some brave flowers under there!

I want to encourage any of you that are going through hard times, that the blessing of God is still under it all, holding you up! With trouble piled on top, it's hard to see and remember what it looks like without the problem.

God is there. He NEVER leaves us or forsakes us. Deut. 30:19. He has answers when all we can see is the snow. You have to get a hold of yourself and put your faith and trust in Him. The sun WILL come out. The problem WILL be solved. You have already lived through the worst day of your life, right?

Look to Him this week. His great love for you will carry you up and over!
