Murray Achieves Dream at All American Finals

By Hope Sickler

Lone Star state cowgirl Tillar Murray has had her share of ups and downs her first year out on the pro rodeo trail. However, this past weekend she achieved a goal that she has been dreaming of all year long when she was crowned the 2015 All American Finals Champion Barrel Racer.

Murray grew up dreaming of competing against the barrel racers she saw at the rodeos and on TV every winter at the NFR as a kid. After years of hard work and finding the perfect horse, she can finally say that she is competing and holding her "own" with her idols.

"Neither of my parents rodeoed, it was actually quite the opposite. My mom grew up in Houston and my dad grew up in Dallas. Although my mom's family raised cutting horses, my mom did not ride much when she was young. I began riding after we moved to Dallas. We then moved to Fort Worth about 8-years ago and bought a place in Lipan. The lady that was giving us riding lessons at the time also ran barrels and helped us find our first barrel horses. I will always remember the day that my parents surprised me with my first horse. I've been addicted to barrel racing ever since," explained Murray.

Murray rode her main horse, 15-year-old Lil Gracie Dude aka "Tic Tac", in all four rounds at the All American Finals. Murray considers "Tic Tac" irreplaceable and couldn't imagine her life without him.

"We bought "Tic Tac" 6-years ago when I was a freshman in high school after the girl who had him had been running barrels on him for about 2-years. Before we bought "Tic Tac" I couldn't even qualify for the junior high finals.

American Rodeo Launches New Site, Fan Choice Exemption

The web site of the world's richest one-day rodeo now provides fans an easier way to buy tickets, book hotels and learn of VIP functions in the Dallas/Fort Worth area during RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN, presented by Polaris RANGER at AT&T Stadium.

The site, AmericanRodeo.com, also features the event's new logo, fresh videos, photo albums and a full page of information on THE AMERICAN Semi-Finals in Fort Worth, Feb. 17-21, 2016. In addition, fans can easily see an updated schedule of American qualifiers in each event and results immediately following each qualifier. The new site gives fans an up-to-date roster of which athletes are headed to February's half-million-dollar American Semi-Finals, where several "underdogs" will go on to qualify for the $2 million finals.

Throughout the next four months, the site will also offer information on the 2016 Triple Crown contenders, newly announced exemptions and behind-the-scenes news. Plus, it provides up-to-the-minute schedules for what's happening on RFD-TV's episodes of Western Sports Weekly and Road to the American.

What's more, today the site also launches the 2016 Fan Choice Exemption contest online.

Typically, THE AMERICAN rodeo contestants must earn a berth via their top-10 ranking in professional rodeo or by qualifying via THE AMERICAN Semi-Finals. But between now and Nov. 30, fans can simply visit AmericanRodeo.com and submit the name of their favorite athlete. Starting in December, fans can return to the site to vote for their favorite nominee. The recipient of the most votes will earn the Fan Choice Exemption to THE AMERICAN on Feb. 28, 2016.

Last year, 24-year-old paraplegic barrel racer Amberley Snyder won the Fan Choice Exemption and competed on March 1 for a chance at $1 million at THE AMERICAN. Snyder's determination and positive spirit made her wildly popular with rodeo fans, which led to new sponsorships of Snyder, a new FFA scholarship in her name and donations to charity of more than $50,000 by Busby Quarter Horses.

Tickets for RFD-TV's THE AMERICAN, presented by Polaris RANGER, and the PBR's Iron Cowboy are on sale at the AT&T Stadium Box Office, all Ticketmaster locations and at AmericanRodeo.com. Tickets for The American Semi-Finals are available at the Cowtown Coliseum box office, at StockYardsRodeo.com, or AmericanRodeo.com.

No Bull Series returns to Queen Creek AZ

For the 5th year Steve & Leigh Sherwood will be hosting the Nightly Timed Event Series at the beautiful Horseshoe Park & Equestrian Center in Queen Creek AZ. Earnhardt Auto Centers is the primary sponsor for this five month series held each Wednesday beginning November 4th.

Two arenas are used each week with the barrel race in one and the roping events in the other. Not only do the barrel racers have their own arena a hundred dollars is added to the jackpot each week.

Five dollars of each contestants entry fee is held to be added to the finals held at the end of the series; over $4,000. was paid out in 2015 at just the finals not counting what barrel racers won on a weekly basis. There is a one-time membership fee of $40.00 / entry fees are $45.00 and the race starts at 6pm each Wednesday with exhibition runs from 4:30-5:45pm and after the jackpot. Contestants must run at 10 of the barrel races to be eligible for the finals. Cowboy attire is required. To avoid a $10 late fee call or text Tuesday evenings from 6pm-9pm: 208-530-0018 or 208-540-1098.

We look forward to seeing y'all at Queen Creek...."No Bull"!!

Return to the Remuda Hits Million Dollar Sales Mark

The Return to the Remuda Sale, held at the historic Four Sixes Ranch in Guthrie, Texas, October 10, had a million-dollar sale day for the second year in a row. The annual autumn sale is produced in partnership between the Four Sixes Ranch, Pitchfork Land & Cattle Co., Tongue River Ranch, Beggs Cattle Co. This year, W. T. Waggoner Estate and Wagonhound Land and Livestock also consigned horses to the sale.

Three of the ranches are winners of the AQHA Best Remuda Award, which recognizes the foundation that ranch horses laid for the American Quarter Horse. In addition to offering some of the best ranching-bred horses in the industry, the sale also serves as an unofficial reunion for American Quarter Horse enthusiasts. The weekend kicked off on October 9 with sale horse demonstrations and an evening meal.

This year's Return to the Remuda Sale offered 154 quality horses from the Beggs Cattle Company, Four Sixes Ranch, Pitchfork Land & Cattle Company, Tongue River Ranch, W. T. Waggoner Estate and Wagonhound Land and Livestock. The one-day sale grossed nearly $1,200,000 with a combined sale average of $8,047 on all horses sold. Aged geldings, coveted for their ranch foundation start and proven work record, averaged $13,017, and 2-year-old geldings averaged $10,008.

Saturday morning began with the ranches supporting the American Quarter Horse Foundation through a benefit auction that featured items such as custom-made his and her buckle sets, spurs, director's chairs, and a hand-made quilt featuring the Return to the Remuda ranch brands. The auction raised $9,400.

The annual Return to the Remuda sale has provided the opportunity to purchase horses from legendary ranches that have been refining and perfecting American Quarter Horses for more than a century. These sale horses carry the bloodlines of generations of horses, whose ranch skills, intelligence and athletic ability today still translates to success in the arena or on the ranch.

and was getting really frustrated with my riding since I was unable to practice most of the fall. However, the week before the finals, I went back to the basics and tried to not over-think anything," said Murray.

Going back to basics helped Murray go into the All American Finals with some confidence in herself and in her horses and it paid off. She won the first round in her bracket with a time of 16.04-seconds.

"I was really pleased with our first run and was encouraged that things seemed to be coming together. Then on Wednesday I hit a barrel and was very disappointed because I didn't think that I would make it back to the semi-finals. However, I made it to the semi-finals and had to prepare myself for two more runs."

Murray played it safe in the semi-finals in order to be smooth, running a 16.19, and made it to the final round in the last hole.

"I knew that I had to hustle "Tic Tac" more in the final round if I wanted to have a chance at winning it. I had never ran "Tic Tac" twice in one day, much less twice within an hour so I wasn't sure how it would go. Of course, he tried even harder in the final round and we ended up winning it. I was so pleased and excited," Murray explained. "When they announced my name at the end, I really couldn't believe it. To even be able to compete with all these girls that I have looked up to for many years is just a dream come true in itself."

Murray posted a smoking fast time of 15.95-seconds in the final round to claim the championship.

"Winning the All American Finals is very special to me. It always makes me happy to see "Tic Tac" shine as I know what a special horse he is. I've never been more proud and thankful for him as I am now. The Finals were a great event and the committee worked really hard for the contestants," concluded Murray.

Apt To Be Special, Katelyn McLeod wins American Qualifier

By Tanya Randall

Katelyn McLeod of Whitesboro, Texas, had a huge October 17th weekend, winning RFD-TV's The American Qualifier in Starkville, Miss., and tying for second at the All American Finals Rodeo in Waco, Texas, for $11,623.

"It's such a blessing," said McLeod, 22. This was her second American Qualifier victory, having won the Glen Rose, Texas, qualifier last February to qualify for the 2015 Semifinals Rodeo. She also qualified for the inaugural American back in 2014. "It's so unreal. I told someone, 'Don't pinch me. I don't want to wake up from this dream I've been living right now!'"

McLeod and Charlie Cole and Jason Martin's Apt To Be Special ("Toby") started out in Waco, making their two qualifying runs to earn a right to Saturday's semifinals and finals. They placed third in the first round and won the second round.

The American Qualifier, held with the Horse Poor Barrel Race, was Friday night.

"Toby was awesome," McLeod said of their winning run of 14.942, which also placed second in the BBR Regional with a carryover. "He warmed up great. He did not look like he was running very fast. He took a step off the backside of the first barrel. It did not look like a 14.9 run in my opinion, but he cut the clock off outstanding."

McLeod left Starkville as soon as possible to make the nearly nine-hour drive to Waco for Saturday's short go.

"We had to drive all night back for the short go runs in Waco," she said. "He made six great runs back to back. I'm so grateful to have him. He's such a blessing."

Toby, a 9-year-old bay gelding, joined Cole and Martin's High Point Performance Horses back in May after McLeod went to Bowling Green, Florida, to try the gelding. Bred and owned at the time by longtime Florida NBHA State Director Linda and her husband Gary Jones, Toby is by their WPRA World Champion Sire Special Feelins out of Pretty Vision, by Mister Oh Jay.

With both McLeod and her mother gunning for an NFR qualification, they needed additional horse power to the talented stallion Slick By Design and the phenomenal Kellies Chick ("Skye"), who recently sold to Busby Quarter Horses.

"These were our stipulations: we needed a gelding, a horse that could help me in with Skye and one that we could jump on and run if we needed. Toby fit the description. From the beginning, he did his job. He helped me in with Skye. He was awesome in the back. He was everything I needed."

Until he got in the younger McLeod's trailer, Toby had never been to a rodeo. Even though he had no rodeo experience, Toby didn't have any trouble transitioning from jackpots to rodeos after helping with Skye in the back.

"Rodeo does have some aspects that are by far different from jackpots, but he was able to handle it all—the big pens, the little pens. He took it all in stride. He handled a lot this summer for us," she said.

McLeod did have an adjustment to make when it came to running Toby, whom she climbed on after her mom needed Skye to ensure her third consecutive NFR qualification.

"My first run on him was at the Preston (Idaho) rodeo, and I had about a week off to try to figure him out," she said. "He has a really different style than what I'm used to and I really had to adjust. He did pick me up some checks this summer and kept me at 20th for about a month. Toward the end of the season, Mom had to jump on Toby and it seems the more runs we make, the better he gets. He's been awesome. He's such a blessing to us."

McLeod, who wanted to thank Charlie Cole and Jason Martin, Ron and Patty Ralls, her sponsors, her parents as well as Gary and Linda Jones for selling Toby, finished third in the WPRA Rookie of the Year standings after having to schedule rodeos around her senior year at Southeastern Oklahoma State University. She graduated in May with a business degree.

"I had to graduate college before we hit the road," she laughed, "because Mom didn't think I would ever go back to school if I didn't."

She finished 25th in the WPRA World Standings with $47,954 won on the year, just $12,000 shy of making the NFR alongside her mother.

Scott Crowned CA Circuit Champ; Lautaret-Jordan Average Champ

By Hope Sickler

California barrel racer Ann Scott can not only round a cloverleaf pattern in some seriously fast times but she is also a stuntwoman for movies such as Magnificent 7 and several other movies most would be familiar with. Scott made her fifth trip to Lancaster, California for the California Circuit Finals this past weekend and by the end of the weekend was crowned this year's circuit champion.

"I started off the season rodeoing pretty hard and I was sitting in the top 20 when I got the call to go do stunts on the remake of the movie Magnificent 7. It was a hard decision to not be able to rodeo all summer but good western movies don't come around too often. I had already been to enough circuit rodeos that I would qualify for the circuit finals so I took the opportunity and went back to work and gave my horse a little bit of a break," explained Scott.

Scott and her 10-year-old gelding Fallin For Fame also known as "Buzz" are known throughout the WPRA as a tough team to beat and he carried her to her first circuit championship this year.

"I raised Buzz. I was there when he was born. He is family. He loves going to rodeos. He gets so excited when he sees me hooking up the trailer."

Scott and "Buzz's" first run in Lancaster was nice and smooth and put them third in the first round with a time of 15.90-seconds.

"Our first run was nice. We missed the first barrel just a tad. It was a much smaller course then they usually set in there. But I was fortunate enough to place third," Scott said.

Scott and "Buzz" came back in the second round to tie for first with Ruth Haslip with a time of 15.77.

"In the third round we were having our best run yet when "Buzz" slipped leaving the third barrel, fell into the barrel and knocked it over. But we were blessed to be safe and sound. It still ended up good because we still ended up winning the year end title which I feel so very grateful about. I am also very thankful for the support that I have and my sponsors: Justin Horse Insurance, MVP and Nicole Thompson Designs!"

Scott will make her third trip to the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo this spring and hopes to have lady luck on her side. As for now, she and her husband, Brad McGilchrist will honeymoon to Australia where Brad is from. The couple wed two weeks before the circuit finals.

Lautaret-Jordan Seals the Deal

Jolee Lautaret-Jordan is a very well-known name in the professional ranks of barrel racing. With three trips to the NFR along with a resume of wins and victories a mile long, Lautaret-Jordan knows how to win and this weekend was no exception while competing at the California Circuit Finals.

Lautaret-Jordan made three exceptional runs on Down Home Daisy "Daisy" a 10-year-old mare that Lautaret-Jordan and her mother, Dollie, both ride. "Daisy" is by a Crago bred colt that sold through their sale but was never registered. Her damn is Wind Walkers Image who is by Down Home Dash.

The dynamic duo's combined time on three of 47.66-seconds earned them the average championship and a trip to the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo.

"The final round was a nail biter. A lot of horses had ground troubles. I can't describe the roller coaster of emotions in about a three-minute span during that final round. I was so sorry the other girls sitting good in the average had ground trouble but at the same time I was so proud of "Daisy" for keeping her feet underneath herself but also staying off the barrels," noted Lautaret-Jordan. Lautaret-Jordan is looking forward to making another trip to the RNCFR and wouldn't be where she is today without the unconditional love and support from her mom, her dad and her husband.

Cassidy Kruse & Dash To Tim Set Cottonwood Arena Record at RFD-TV's The American Montana Qualifier

By Tanya Randall

Cassidy Kruse's 10-year-old gelding Dash To Tim ("Scooter") proved that he's fully recovered from a left front collateral ligament injury by setting an arena record to win the RFD-TV's The American Qualifier, held during the Montana Barrel Daze in Silesia, Mont.

Kruse and Scooter posted a 14.509 to best the previous arena record of 14.573 set by Kathy Grimes and KG Justiceweexpected at last year's Barrel Daze.

"The first day we were second," said Kruse, who had less than a handful of runs back on the gelding. "I had a 14.701 and I had some mistakes in there. Going into the Qualifier, I told my family and the announcer that what I wanted to do was break the arena record. My Dad told me outside before he went in to watch that no matter what happens, even if there's a little mistake, just keep hustling and keep going. My mindset going in there was to clean up the areas that I needed to clean up. We still kind of ran by the second barrel, and I didn't know if we would get it done, but he was running so hard. I just know that if I put Scooter in the position to work, he's going to work."

Scooter ended up winning $6,012 on the weekend for Kruse, who is currently preparing for her first Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. She's grateful to have Scooter back in the trailer going to Las Vegas with his older brother JKR Assured Win ("JJ") and Guys Dashing Girl ("Ellie") who did the dirty work qualifying for the WNFR.

Both horses came from Jack and Karmetta Ruppel of Sargent, Neb. They are by Dashes Emblem out of Miss Assured Best, by Princely Best. Unlike JJ who was purchased trained, the Kruse family did all of Scooter's training.

"We did everything with him," she said. "We broke him and trained him. I did most of the barrel work myself with the help of my parents. I also had other people giving me advice on what to do when we struggled, but for the main part, I did it myself."

Last fall, Kruse qualified both horses to The American Semifinals at the Qualifier in Loveland, Colo. However, when she got to Texas last winter to prepare for the Semifinals, Scooter had quit clocking. Once an MRI revealed the injury, Kruse was off of Scooter until a month ago.

"It was a long time, but it was well worth it," she said of waiting for Scooter's return. "I started legging him up about a month ago. As soon as I got home, I started riding him every day because we had planned on going to the qualifier. JJ got turned out so I was able to put all my focus on Scooter."

By winning the Qualifier with Scooter, Kruse hedged her bets on making an appearance at Arlington, Texas.

Kruse, who is sponsored by Simply Equine, Roasted To Perfection, Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals and Team Wyoming, is currently sitting eighth in the WPRA World Standings with $81,346. Should she maintain a Top 10 position following the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, she'll earn an automatic bye into The American but lose her eligibility for the $1 million bonus.

On the other hand, if she drops below 10th in the WPRA World Standings following the NFR, she'll have to go through the Semifinals Rodeo in Fort Worth, Texas, to reach The American, thus keeping her eligibility for the $1 million.

Well broke, proven 1D/2D Mare For Sale

10 year old APHA Sorrel Mare, 15.1 hands

DOOZI OF A DREAM

by Dr Meter Reader si 91 out of I Dream of Dixie (APHA)

- Solid 1D/2D Money Winning Mare.
- Jackpot WINNER - smooth easy style, solid in the alley
- Qualified to JB Quarter Horses Futurity Finals as a 5 year old.
- FUN & easy to ride and she loves her job.
- Great attitude and work ethic.
- She is well broke, soft in the bridle & moves off your legs.

I have run her most and she has also been ridden by a 12 year old at jackpots, she is not for a beginner but is gentle and solid. Doozi will fit a quiet but assertive type rider. She has been worked on poles and is ready to haul but we've not put her on the clock.

We've ridden Doozi in the pasture as much as the arena. She's been hauled around quite a bit but never hard. She is currently being hauled.

Couch Conquers Prairie Circuit Finals & Burger Claims the Average

By Hope Sickler

Kim Couch has one of those very rare “once in a lifetime” horses in her trailer and this year she proved that she can run with the best in the WPRA. Couch and her mare Easy French Alibi “Fancy” took the tough field of horses in the Prairie Circuit by storm placing throughout the season and winning the year end title.

Easy French Alibi is an 8-year-old mare by Frenchmans Guy and out of Easy Mag by Magnificence.

“I would like to think that she is just one of those “once in a lifetime horses”. Coming out of the BBR Finals, we knew that she had the speed to be competitive with the best out there but rodeos are so different. You deal with weather conditions, huge differences in ground conditions, loud crowds, no warm-up areas, and lots of excitement. I wasn’t real sure how she (“Fancy”) would adjust to all of this but I honestly believe it made her run harder with more grit than ever before,” explained Couch.

Going in the circuit finals, Couch knew that she needed to be smooth and clean and the rest would take care of itself.

“I had not ran since my accident at Elk City where I got kicked while unwrapping polo wraps on Fancy so I was a little conservative I think. We made a nice and smooth run in the first round and placed 4th in the round with a 16.56.”

After the first round, Couch just wanted to make another smooth and penalty free run. They had a nice run in the second round and was just out of placing.

“By the time the final round came, I knew it would be game on! I felt like we were finally on the same page and ready to rock and roll. I sent her from way back and she worked as perfectly as she always does and placed second with a 16.31 behind Emily Miller,” Couch said.

This was the first year that Couch has qualified for the Prairie Circuit Finals and one experience that she will never forget.

“It was such an amazing experience with a wonderful group of ladies! We are very excited about representing the Prairie Circuit in Florida at the Ram Finals.”

Burger is Brilliant

Mary Burger is an inspiration to all. Not just because of her incredible barrel racing skills but also due to her humble and gracious attitude. She and her phenomenal equine partner Sadiefamouslastwords placed second in the first round of the Prairie Circuit Finals with a 16.32 and fourth in the third round with a 16.42. A smooth run just out of placing in the second round, put their total time on three to 49.18, which was good enough for first in the average and a ticket punched to Florida for the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo in April.

“I couldn’t do it without the help of my great horse, my wonderful sponsors, my husband who is my rock and of course, the man upstairs. I am very tickled to be going to Florida for the Ram National Circuit Finals,” Burger said.

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Strife, or fighting, according to the Bible is a bad deal for us. James 3:16 says that "where envying and strife is, there is confusion and EVERY EVIL WORK". Sure puts a stop to arguing for me! I do NOT want the door open to EVERY evil work in my life. The Lord knows there is enough of it most days without me helping to perpetuate any more of it! As Pastors, we are asked.....often.....about why bad things happen to good people. James 3:16 may just be the answer to that question.

I watched an interesting thing happen the other day between my four year old granddaughter, Cylee and her friend/enemy, Afton Welsh. Those two! They were here playing in the arena while some friends and I were riding and boy were they ever having fun. They built stuff with the cones. They covered themselves with dirt. They built castles in the sand. It was great. But then, all of a sudden Afton crossed her arms, her lips turned to a pout and out she went!!!

She was mad! I asked her what was wrong and Jo said, "They got in a fight." So I got off my horse and I asked Cylee, "Are you fighting with Afton?" She smiled and said, "No, she's fighting with ME."

We can communicate. We can negotiate. We can give up, give over and give in. We can agree to disagree, agreeably. But let's listen to what God says and stay out of strife!!! For
