Kassie Mowry & Goodbye Sophie Conquer The Texan Barrel Race, Win $129,535

By Tanya Randall

It's no secret that Kassie Mowry has one of the greatest horses going down the road in Force The Goodbye, but her homebred mare Goodbye Sophie is putting Jarvis and everyone else on notice.

Recently, she set an arena record on the WPRA Standard Pattern at 377 in Stephenville, Texas, posted a 16.4 in the Pink Buckle Derby at the Lazy E and now laid claim to the $100,000 1D Championship at The Texan Barrel Race, held October 12-18 in Abilene, Texas.

Mowry and Sophie, 6, collected $129,535 after winning the Open 1D Average, Rodeo pay run, Derby and Adult sidepots.

"She's forced her way into the trailer going to Vegas," laughed Mowry. "I'm excited for her to get some recognition. I've loved that filly from the minute I got on her when she was 2. She's just been really a really fun mare for me to have and for me, not being a mare person, that goes a long way."

The two-time and defending WPRA World Champion said that Sophie couldn't have stepped up at a better time since she recently retired 11-year-old CP He Will Be Epic. Will, Mowry's 17-hand short course specialist, was Epic Leader's richest offspring with $850,000.

"Two weeks ago, Will had stifle surgery and they found some things," Mowry explained. "He's 100 percent pasture sound. I'm very happy with what he's done. I'm like, 'Let's just keep him happy and let him retire sound.'"

Like Will, who was bred and raised by Claire Powell, Sophie is out of Powell's homebred Dash Ta Fame mare Famous Sophie and by The Goodbye Lane. Mowry raised the mare, who is one of four foals produced by the cross via the ICSI process. She and Powell drew straws to see who would get the recipient mares. Mowry got two fillies—Sophie and Jess Lewis' Last Kiss Goodbye—and Powell had two colts.

Mowry, the sports all-time leading rider, said what separates Sophie from her boys is her determination.

"That mare wants it more than anything I think I've ever swung a leg over," she said. "She's just so incredibly aggressive and gritty. Sometimes, it's almost like she runs too hard and can get ahead of herself, but it's because she's trying in the best way possible."

"She definitely listens to me and is very respectful. It's just that she just loves to run as fast as she possibly can and she's always been that way. She started her futurity career in a steel nose combo. She was just very free running and wanted to go somewhere."

Sophie has evolved as she's gotten older, Mowry said.

"She's gotten a lot easier, doing a lot more on her own," she said. "I've had to adapt with her. She still to this very day runs as fast as she possibly can, and it always scares me going to the first barrel. She'd get up and by it a little bit and I would tip it on the backside. The last, probably three, places I've taken her, my mindset totally changed. I've been treating her like an open horse. I'm like how fast can you possibly go to this barrel and still turn it three weekends in a row in three different arenas. I don't know how she can run that fast to it and still inhale it. It's incredible, and it's really fun."

While most of the attention has been on Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis"), Sophie has quietly earned $650,000 in her career.

"She's dang near lit the board everywhere she's went," Mowry

Goodbye Sophie, 2020 Gray Mare, 15 h.

BIT: Dave Elliot Spur Up 04 with a smooth two-piece mouth with the gag blocked at the halfway point with tape. "Everybody's like, 'What is that?' Tape. She's ran in that the last three races. It was too much gag for her, and I couldn't find a bit like that, so I just electrical taped it. It made a big difference. I also let my reins longer on her because I needed to stop touching her and leave her alone."

SADDLE: Martin BTR

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

SHOEING: Lite steel rim on front and rear

FEED: Triple Crown Balancer

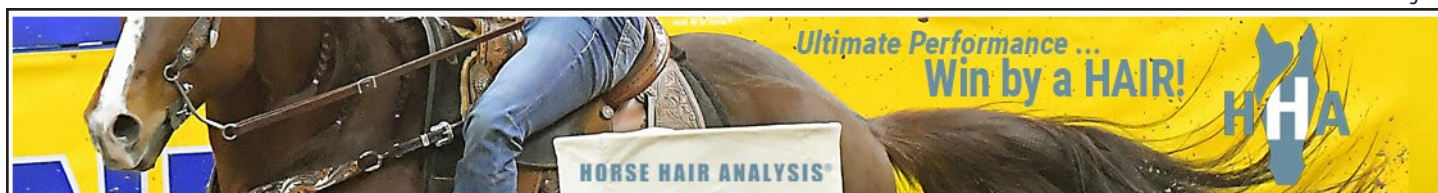

HAY: Alfalfa and timothy cube

SUPPLEMENTS: Assure Guard Gold

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "Lately, it's been less time on the walker and a lot more riding. It's helped her a lot just to have her lungs built up. I've been trying to put more saddle time on her, but I really don't have to run or tune her. She's really easy that way."

said. "I bet I took her to one futurity a month and she capitalized, but I just haven't really needed to put her in the trailer over Will, Emmett or Jarvis."

Sophie also got a little fat and out of shape while at the breeding farm. She's got a Tres Seis filly and colt on the ground and will have two more this coming spring, plus an Epic Leader.

"She's kind of a little fat pot," Mowry chuckled. "Keeping her fit enough to run like she does has been hard. I weeded through my herd a bit to get my numbers down, so I've been able to put more time into her and get her in better shape. I can feel it. She just feels amazing right now."

Her main role until recently was buddy horse for whomever was left at the trailer at the rodeos. Sophie did get to run in a round at Caldwell, Idaho, her futurity year, and this year, she picked up checks at the Puyallup Rodeo, Albuquerque, New Mexico and Lawton, Oklahoma.

"With Will sidelined, it opened the door for her, and I mean, she broke through that door!" Mowry exclaimed. "I just always had her tucked away. I just ran her at the big stuff. I just tried to kind of save her. She's really fresh and feeling good. Her timing is really good for getting to go to Vegas if all goes well."

Even though Sophie has been outrunning him lately, experience alone makes Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis") Mowry's main mount in Las Vegas. The million dollar earner had a nasty stumble in the first round of The Texan and with Vegas looming she opted to scratch his second run.

Mowry did however place on 11-year-old Famous Ladies Man, who was just a tenth off of Sophie. She and Emmett earned $17,914 for total event earnings of $147,449.

It was a nice early wedding present to herself as she and fiancé Josh Owens wed this week in the Virgin Islands.

Morgan Addison Sweeps Texas Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

First time qualifier Morgan Addison took home the aggregate and year-end championship from the Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 13-16 in Waco, Texas.

The New Home, Texas, barrel racer rode Sheza Epic Blonde ("Ellie") to the aggregate championship that helped her overtake Kristi Cole for the year-end title.

Cole, who finished second in the aggregate and year-end standings, will join Addison at the NFR Open next July in Colorado Springs.

Addison, who is working on her master's degree in agricultural business at Texas Tech University, almost didn't make her rodeo count to qualify for the Texas Circuit Finals as she was out rodeoing, hoping to make the cut for the 2027 building rodeos.

"I feel like I personally did it the hard way," said Addison, who finished No. 34 in the 2026 WPRA World Standings with $64,282. "I didn't pro rodeo at all last winter. I went to the Denver (National Western) qualifier, and that was the first time I realized that Ellie was something special. We college rodeoed the rest of the year, and then I decided to make a goal to be in the (WPRA's) Top 50, which then turned into the goal of being in the Top 30 and making the Texas Circuit Finals.

"It's very hard to make the Texas Circuit Finals while rodeoing in North Dakota, so I came home after Lawton (OK) and Lovington (NM) just so I could go to Denton and Wichita Falls and get my circuit count. I barely got 15 rodeos the week before the circuit cutoff date."

Addison went into the Circuit Finals about $1,000 behind Cole, but a $10,440 championship gave her the No. 1 spot by $500.

"Our first round was not great," said Addison. "It was just a super easy, classic Ellie run, but I didn't ask her for anything, so we ended up fourth. The second round I really asked her for something and she won the round. The third round was pretty easy (they were second) and the fourth round, I definitely safety-ed up a little bit. I asked her for an extra step around every barrel. I knew if we were clean, we could win or end up second and still be potentially going to the NFR Open.

Addison, who got into barrel racing as a very young child thanks to her father's team roping habit, purchased Ellie almost two years ago from the mare's breeder and trainer Kim Squires. The 6-year-old Epic Leader mare, out of Assuredly French, by Frenchmans Guy, is a seven-eighths sibling to Squires' Assuredly Epic, who is by Epic Leader and out of Assuredly French's dam Nothin Assured.

"Kim's got this incredible maternal line of horses," said Addison, who had tried to buy a horse from Squires for years. First she tried to buy Dashers French Guy ("Cotton"), who is now Squires' main backup. Then she tried to buy Assuredly Epic ("Piglet"), Squires' main horse that took her into the WPRA's Top 30, too.

"Then she tells me about this other Palomino mare that runs to the left and isn't super far along," Addison said. "I think she'd won a 3D saddle that weekend. As soon as I got on her, I knew I absolutely loved her style and the way she ran.

"In high school I ran a horse that was really push style and similar to Ellie. I didn't even take her to a jackpot. I just cruised her through the pattern at the arena we had rented. I knew in about 30 seconds I had to have her."

Addison also added Epic First Perk to her team. The 5-year-old Epic Leader daughter of the Dash For Perks mare, First To Perk, came from 4M Equine via Michelle Darling, who was running the mare at futurities earlier this year.

"I'm good friends with Michelle Darling," she explained, "and I've always loved the horses that came out of her program. I got in touch with her and Perks just kind of fell into my lap over the summer. I knew that Ellie needed help, and I also knew that I had to have another Epic Leader mare. That's the only thing I wanted."

Perks made her rodeo debut at Denton and also ran at a few other pro rodeos late summer. Addison plans on seasoning Perks further at the college rodeos while saving Ellie for the bigger pro rodeos.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "Ellie does not see a barrel unless right before we go somewhere. Right before the Circuit Finals, she hadn't seen a barrel in two weeks, and I walked her through and made her do it absolutely perfect one time and then we're done. Other than that, I ride her outside in the pasture and just kind of let her have space. She's super, beyond lazy at the house. She doesn't want to trot. She doesn't want to lope. She just wants to walk everywhere."

Addison, who just won the Denver qualifier in Castle Rock, Colorado, is now qualified for most of the winter building rodeos except San Antonio. She qualified for Rodeo Houston by winning the Waller County Fair in Hempstead, Texas, the first weekend of the season. The San Antonio Rodeo qualifier is in Uvalde, Texas, this November.

"I'm just going to go as hard as Ellie and Perks want to go and just see where that gets us," she said.

Buncha Dinero Wins 2026 Barrel Racing Horse of Year!

By Julie Mankin

"I was just in awe," said Hayle Gibson-Stillwell about her 7-year-old homegrown mare becoming the 2026 Nutrena Horse of the Year in the WPRA. "I'd hoped she'd be in the running, but you always feel like you have the best horse. And the horsepower on that list was pretty powerful!"

The palomino mare bred and trained by the Redcrest, Calif., cowgirl has earned more than $700,000 and taken Gibson-Stillwell to her second straight NFR as the No. 1 barrel racer in the world with $218,455.

But that's not all. In May, the Californian and her mare won the $100,000 paycheck at The American. In July, Gibson-Stillwell riveted fans to their TVs while giving Hailey Kinsel a run for her money at the Calgary Stampede that included an arena-record 16.56 put up by Piper in the SemiFinals. Gibson-Stillwell said her mare knew the stakes in Calgary and had more fire than usual; the run felt "effortless" and they were one together.

"Winning this award is an indescribable feeling," said Gibson-Stillwell. "When I look at Rudy and all the things she did for me when she was running – to have her produce like this and make my dreams a reality? It's pretty surreal. I don't think I could put it into words."

"Rudy" is Rambunchkie, the Thoroughbred mare Gibson-Stillwell bought off the racetrack and trained on barrels – and the dam of Piper. She's by Bellamy Road – a great-grandson of Secretariat. And Piper is by PC Frenchmans Hayday ("Dinero"), that went to the 2005 NFR under Sherry Cervi. But the choice of Dinero was just an accident – or described now by Gibson-Stillwell as divine intervention.

"I might have been drinking at the horse races one day and bought three breedings at a benefit auction," recalled Gibson-Stillwell. "One was to Dinero, and that was the only one I used!" Dinero also sired the second- and third-place horses this year. Second in voting went to Kathy Grimes' KG Just Money ("Showie"), only 6, and also homegrown.

The veterinarian and her youngster, equally as fast and efficient as Piper, terrorized the field in August, running multiple 16-second runs on standard patterns over the summer run including a new world record of 16.31 in Burley, Idaho.

Grimes bred multiple generations to end up with her world record setter; Kg Just Money. In fact his dam, Kg Justiceweexpected was also an NFR Qualifer for Grimes and like her big buckskin son; extremely fast! According to QStallions; Kg Just Money sits at $539,199 in lifetime earnings already.

And third in voting went to the 4-time world champ – and last year's Horse of the Year – DM Sissy Hayday ("Sister"). The mare is now 15 and has become the winningest barrel horse of all time with $3,715,364 in earnings according to QData. The fierce yellow mare left no doubters when she won the Calgary Stampede in July. Together, the powerhouses have pushed Dinero to the No. 10 sire of barrel horses, all time, with $11 million in progeny earnings.

His durability and soundness, crossed with speed, has been magic.

"She's really fast," Gibson-Stillwell said of how Piper cuts off the clock. "And incredibly efficient around a turn. She doesn't waste any motion. And her consistency is in the way her footwork is so dialed in. In Calgary, everything just came together. It was just magic." Piper was still green at 5 years old, and even ran three seconds off at a futurity in November, recalled Gibson-Stillwell. Less than a month later, she was the reserve champ at a futurity and eventually broke an arena record while winning two more futurities.

"The really cool thing about Piper is that I put the first ride on her," said Gibson-Sillwell. "A good horseman snubbed her and I got on her, and even took her out of the round pen that first day and did a trail ride."

To this day, Piper is incredibly light and user-friendly, letting Gibson-Stillwell place her wherever she wants in a run.

"She doesn't falter," she said. "There is no bracing. She doesn't elevate. She can do maneuvers that are freakish."

At last year's NFR, the duo won a go-round. With no exposure to EHV-1 in California, Gibson-Stillwell felt confident about taking Piper to Las Vegas. During the outbreak, she just supported Piper's immune system. And she said she's a person of faith and positive energy who didn't let any negative thoughts transpire.

This year, she'll bring RDC Dancingtothelead ("Fancy") as a backup to Piper and use Piper's sister, a 5-year-old, in the grand entry.

"With Piper, I actually have the same plan as last year," she said. "I'll go dance and take it one day at a time."

Gibson-Stillwell is good at being present each day, and said her journey has been so surreal and so cool.

"I feel like I'm having an out-of-body experience, living this dream," she said. "I'm just trying to take it all in and soak it up. Hopefully it continues and we're going to keep manifesting."

WPRA Announces 2026 Outstanding Committee Woman of the Year

The backbone of any rodeo is no doubt the rodeo committee and their countless volunteers that donate their time and skills to put on a good show for the fans. While the contestants and animals are the stars, they would never shine if it were not for the work of a large supporting cast of volunteers that come together, working for a common goal of making the event a success.

In 1948, the Girls Rodeo Association, now Women's Professional Rodeo Association was Built For Women By Women by 38 strong female leaders in the western industry. In honor of them and in partnership with Montana Silversmiths, one female committee member/volunteer that has gone above and beyond in their local community to make the rodeo a success and/or who has been a staple of the local rodeo for numerous years keeping the tradition alive is being honored with the WPRA Outstanding Committee Woman of the Year for 2026.

This year's recipient is Sandy Spear representing the Northwest Florida Championship Rodeo in Bonifay, Florida.

"Oh, my goodness. . . wow," stated a surprised Spear. "I don't do it alone as it is definitely a team effort. We have worked very hard to take our little rodeo to the next level and it is something we are very proud of."

The rodeo was founded 82 years ago by the Bonifay Kiwanis Club. Today, Spear carries on her father's legacy as a club member, celebrating her own 25th year with the event. She started like many as a member and rose through the ranks becoming the first chairwoman in 2016 after previously serving as the President. Under her leadership, the rodeo has grown tremendously going from $4,000 added per event in 2020 to now having $10,000 per event including women's breakaway.

"After the COVID year, we realized how important the rodeo was to our community, so we have made an effort the last few years to continue to improve and bring new ideas into the fold," noted Spear. "I didn't realize that someone took notice of what we are doing to nominate me for an award like this. I am very honored."

In addition to raising the added money for PRCA and WPRA contestants alike, the rodeo continues to raise the bar in scholarships given out to the local youth which makes Spear very happy to be part of. When Spear accepted the role as chairwoman, they awarded four scholarships and last year they gave 18 scholarships and provided more than $85,000 in combined contributions through charitable organizations.

Another unique piece about this rodeo that many might not know is like the Pendleton (OR) Round-Up the rodeo in Bonifay takes place on a football field.

"Eighty-three years ago, the land was donated to the city by a charter member of the Bonifay Kiwanis Club with the understanding that it would be used for the rodeo, football and athletic events," stated Spear.

Spear recently worked with others to negotiate a new sponsor contract with Pepsi, and part of the deal includes a new scoreboard for the football team along with basketball and softball scoreboards. In addition to scholarships, the Bonifay Kiwanis Club has worked diligently through the years to steadily provide funding for major improvements to the Bonifay Memorial Field for the betterment of the community and the rodeo.

This is quite a list of accomplishments for a group that is made up of all volunteers with no paid staff.

"I am very fortunate to have an employer (First Federal Bank) that has a culture of giving back to the community in which we are invested," noted Spear. "This support enables me the time and resources to help put the rodeo together each year. I couldn't do what I do without that kind of support."

A 12-foot western boot statue is at the entrance to the arena and through Spear's vision there are now 22 six-foot western boot statues adorning sponsoring businesses in Bonifay that brings awareness to the community and tourist alike about the western/agricultural lifestyle in the panhandle of Florida.

Sandy Spear will be officially recognized during the WPRA Star Celebration with the Top 15 barrel racers on Thursday, December 3 at the South Point Hotel and Casino and will receive a custom-made Montana Silversmiths buckle.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Appreciation. Thankfulness. What's our rating? Do we just expect that any gift given to us is deserved? Do we think that just because it's our birthday/Christmas/graduation/wedding, people need to give us gifts? I kinda do. My birthday is important to me. I want it to last for a week/month/year! LOL!

I try to keep myself aware that just because it's a special occasion, I need to be very thankful that someone took their time, money, effort to give me something. They didn't have to. They CHOSE to. That alone deserves AT LEAST a verbal thank you. A thank you note is even better! It's not old fashioned. It's HONORABLE!

As I get older, I'm becoming more aware of just who, at least just says 'thanks!' If no thanks, no more gifts.

And we need to be that way with our very good God. The greatest gift, Jesus!

Romans 6:23. He took every sin on His body and paid that price so we wouldn't have to. What a sacrifice! What a gift!

We need to be EVER thankful and tell Him so! I Thess. 5:18. "Thank you Jesus, for dying on that cross for me!" Let thankfulness become our lifestyle. To Him and to others!
