Carlee Otero & AM Regina George Boss Their Way to $128,004 at The Texan

By Tanya Randall

Carlee Otero is headed into her fifth National Finals Rodeo this December with $168,494 won on the season using four different horses. At The Texan, held October 13-19 in Abilene, Texas, Otero won $128,004 on one—her palomino speedster AM Regina George (“RG”).

The high-stakes race offered a guaranteed payout of $850,000 plus added money sidepots drew 794 entries that each got two runs for one entry fee. The 1D victory paid $100,000.

Otero was just cruising RG through when they clocked the event winning 14.711. That time also won the straight rodeo pay sidepot, $7,182, as well as the derby, $3,226, and adult, $2,831, sidepots as well.

“I’m trying to make one run a week on her between now and (the NFR), just to keep my timing good with her and keep her air up,” Otero explained. “I thought I just went in there and cruised a pretty nice run. I was excited that she worked. I honestly felt there was no way that it would stick because the ground was really good and there were a ton of good horses out there. I kept telling myself after the fact if I had just asked her a little bit, we could have been a .6, but I didn’t need to, so it was perfect.”

She thought their second run was actually the better run since RG had gotten a little tight, rocking the second, on their first one.

“I thought she was going to outrun herself,” she said. “She kind of got hung up. She slipped on the backside of the third and she’s really good about her feet, so she kind of stalled for a second to make sure she was standing up and not falling. That hesitation cost us a couple of tenths, I think. Her first and second were way better and she gave me room to breathe, so that was helpful.”

That second run of 14.890 finished fifth in the overall race for another $5,000, plus was fourth in the rodeo pay, derby and adult sidepots for $4,104, $1,843 and $1,618, respectively.

RG, a 7-year-old daughter of the late A Smooth Guy, was raised by Dean and Jessie Dormann out of Oro Rose, by Man In The Money. She sold as a 2-year-old to Gary Leffew’s Aftermath Performance Horses.

The mare was started by Dalton Monk and later campaigned by his sister Brittainy Hill. She won a little as a 6-year-old but had been turned out when Leffew offered her to Otero late this spring. Even though they had yet to clock well, Otero bought the RG before the Reno Rodeo where they had their breakthrough. They won more than $100,000 in just three months on the road.

“Every time I get on her I’m just overwhelmed with gratitude because I can’t believe that she is what she is,” said Otero. “I was talking to several people who said, ‘We saw her and thought she was nice, but we never thought she’d be what she is now!’

“That just takes time. As they get older, I think they get better. It’s hard to tell from such a young age. She surprises me in a good way all the time. I think the people who know great horses saw that she could be great, but I don’t think she was one that everyone had their eyes on, which tells us that we should pay more attention.”

It doesn’t hurt that their personalities mesh well.

“I feel like we are the same,” she said. “She’s very confident and I tell her every day that she’s a champion. She’s fast and golden because she’s a gold buckle winner. I think that’s good for her, just Otero plans on splitting the runs at the NFR between RG and Cathys Kandy (“Twix”), but she’s really excited to run RG.

“She’s just so honest,” she said, “and I do feel like she gets better in a pen, the more runs she makes. It’s going to be really fun. She’s so competitive. Every time I make a run, she comes out like, ‘I did it! I'm the best! That's her attitude."

It's likely that both horse and rider picked up a little of their positivity from Leffew, the 1970 World Champion Bull Rider and "Guru of Positive Thinking."

My entire life, even before what he's doing now, he's just always been super positive and has always taught me and told me that same thing," she said. "Just keep the negativity out. He was always the first to see it even before I would admit it. He'd be like, 'Hey, you

Although Otero is trying to make one run a week to stay sharp, RG will likely get to skip a week since it's her husband Michael's turn for a big money weekend. He's got special event calf ropings in San Angelo and Uvalde, Texas. Otero does have RG slated to run at the Wilderness Circuit Finals the second week of November.

Cherry Wins CBHI Super Stakes, $49K in Ponoka

By Julie Mankin

Taylor Cherry's 5-year-old mare Lynn's Honor ("Lenny") had already impressed her 26-year-old trainer in September by shattering the arena record on the standard pattern inside Ponoka's Calnash Ag Event Centre. The clock said 16.5 at just Lenny's second competitive event – and first after hock surgery. But now this.

Cherry of Quesnel, British Columbia, not only won the Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive (CBHI) Futurity, Oct. 9-12 in Ponoka on Lenny to earn $6,523, but also clocked a 16.8 to win the Futurity Super Stakes for a whopping $38,430. Remarkably, it came just six days after the young mare had wiped completely out in the fourth round of the Canadian Finals Rodeo for a no-time in Edmonton, Alberta.

Just prior to the CFR, Cherry's rodeo horse had gone lame with a hoof abscess. She'd been forced to run young Lenny in all five rounds in Edmonton without even taking her to a similar tiny setup beforehand. On Oct. 4, despite Lenny's terrible fall in the fourth round, she came back that same night to win the final round, racking up nearly $20,000 in four days in Edmonton. Still, Cherry was unsure the inexperienced mare would have any confidence just days later in Ponoka.

"I wasn't optimistic," said Cherry. "I didn't know how she was feeling after that wreck. Lenny had never even been to a rodeo, let alone the CFR, and then to have her wipe out! That's a lot on a futurity horse that didn't even have 10 competitive runs in her life." The gritty mare is by Guy's Casanova Cowboy (Frenchman's Guy/Holland Ease/Takin On The Cash) and out of Lynn's Blue Valentine (double-bred Blue Valentine on top and double-bred Jet Deck on the bottom).

At the CBHI Futurity, their 17.2 placed in the first round and their 16.9 placed in the short round. But it was that smoking 16.862 that won the second round of the Futurity and helped Cherry win the average on three by more than five-tenths of a second. The 16.8 also won the Super Stakes for nominated stallions by more than two-tenths. Thus, it paid sire owners Doug and Debbie Willis an impressive $12,810.

The Willis stand Lenny's sire, 15-year-old palomino Guy's Casanova Cowboy, in Princeton, British Columbia. The stud, with progeny earnings over $1 million, is by Hall-of-Famer Frenchmans Guy and out of a Holland Ease daughter. What's notable is that he also had two other horses in the top five of the Super Stakes – Taylor Manning was second aboard 5-year-old Easy Ta Influence (out of a Dash Ta Fame daughter) with a 17.1 and Brandy McPhee's 5-year-old A Firewater Cowboy (out of A Firewater Twist daughter) clocked a 17.3 for fifth.

Meanwhile, Cherry's 16.8 had also won that day's Open for $2,335. Together, she and Lenny banked $47,288 in Ponoka. Cherry also earned $1,663 in the Futurity aboard Frenchman's Extra and Hula Gals Gona Shine to bring her Ponoka haul to $48,951. Over the past month then, Cherry has racked up $117,385 in Ponoka.

"She already owes me nothing," said Cherry, who bought the mare from Tracy Scott in May after winning the spring Royal Crown Canada Futurity. "She can even stay happily in the pasture. I've been to literally three events on her and won over $100,000."

What Lenny has done is help Cherry look at things differently, she said.

"It's not about winning anymore – she absolutely loves her job and tries so hard, even with stuff going on," said Cherry. "She's given me a whole new outlook that comes with having a horse that wants to do it that bad, despite all circumstances."

Cherry recalled that, in Edmonton, it would have taken a month to fix any other futurity horse that had gone down like she did. And Lenny just came back that night and ran again like it was no big deal. And Cherry noted that she needed to ride her a little differently that last night to help her stand up, and Lenny listened to her throughout that entire fifth winning run.

"It's cool to have a horse like that, with so much trust in me despite being in a building so loud," said Cherry. "I rode her in the victory lap there, too, which was pretty cool."

Hailey Garrison Graham & TM He Be Gee Be Repeat at Columbia River Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Hailey Garrison Graham of Lakeview, Oregon, captured her second straight Columbia River Circuit Finals Championship, October 16-19 in Redmond, Oregon.

She and her 11-year-old gelding collected $9,833, which counts toward the 2026 WPRA World Standings and earned the right to represent the Columbia River circuit at the NFR Open in July 2026 alongside yearend champion Megan McLeod-Sprague.

In Redmond, Graham and He Be progressively got faster, taking second in the first two runs with runs of 15.23 and 15.14 and topped the third with a 15.1.

"We kind of plowed over a barrel there at the spring rodeo, so I just wanted to have clean runs," she said.

Graham also opted to run He Be in a Pozzi Hackamore as opposed to the L&W gag she used in last year's win.

"That's what I had won the most money using this summer," she said. "I didn't really want to switch him up. Sometimes he does get a little ratey on his second barrel in the bit, so I wanted to keep him freed up."

THE RUNDOWN w/Hailey Garrison Graham

TM He Be Gee Be "He Be" 16 h., 1,250 lbs.

BIT: Pozzi Hackamore with a rubber covered noseband

SADDLE: Masters

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine / Best Ever

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four

SHOEING: Rims on front, rims/eventers on rear; shod by husband Jack Graham

FEED: Less than a quarter cup of oats just for supplements

HAY: Free choice alfalfa with unlimited Standlee alfalfa pellets

SUPPLEMENTS: Omega Fields Horse Shine Complete, Opti-Zyme, CEP Vitality Plus Oil

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PEMF, massage gun, chiropractic care and acupuncture from Kerry Pride

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "I do a ton of riding out on him and quite a bit of slow barrel work just to keep him feeling confident. You would think that at 11 years old he would feel confident on the pattern, but if you get to slacking and don't do slow work during the week he comes up with the weirdest mistakes in his run. So, I've just learned to keep him in the arena three times a week working barrels and then I try to get him out working up and down hills to keep his muscles good and a ton of long trotting."

SPONSORS: Masters, Standlee Forage and Omega Fields

THANKS: Her husband Jack: "He's a trooper," she said. "He Be has horrible feet so he's always working to make sure he feels his best soundness-wise." My parents Todd and LaTricia: "They do everything to support me. They didn't have to take a trailer all the way from Montana to Redmond, but they did just so he could go back home. They'll be taking care of him for me and that's so nice." Jared Sharp, DVM, with Sharp Sports Medicine: "He's He Be's vet. I had to stray away from him once this summer and it did not go well. I learned to never stray from Jared because he knows my horses inside and out."

Rider/Owner: Hailey Garrison Graham; Breeder: Merle Morgan

Graham, who works part time for a digital marketing firm, purchased He Be from the Morgan family of Utah. He is by Smoke Flash Im Gone out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Abbys Fame. Desiree Morgan (Wheeler) had the gelding going on the pattern when Graham got him in January of his fifth year.

"He just came on a little bit slower, so he wasn't their favorite," she said. "He had that dopey gelding attitude, so he wasn't going to be ready for futurities. I was only a freshman in college and barrel racing wasn't really my priority. I got him as a backup horse. He had some health issues until my senior year when he came on consistently strong. He's been doing good ever since."

Graham and He Be have made four circuit finals—two in Montana and now two in the Columbia River. The Montana native moved to Oregon after making her farrier husband Jack.

He Be, however, still thinks he should reside in the lush river valley of her Glen, Montana, home.

"I just sent him back to Montana on Sunday," she said. "My parents brought a trailer with them and took him home. That's his happy place so when he's on break we try to send him back to Montana. He has his own pasture with a ton of grass. Where we are is more desert-y, dry."

Graham said her mother will keep He Be in "semi" shape with some hill work until she gets back on him in December.

"I got into all the building rodeos, so we'll go down for them and then see where we go from there," she said.

Graham had plans on cracking out at the National Western in Denver for the 2025 season but turned out. She didn't start her rodeo season until March and didn't go very hard at all. She still finished No. 31 in the WPRA World Standings with $56,236. "I actually went a little bit less this year," she said. "I just ended up having really good luck at the ones that counted."

TWENTYONE THIRTYONE

STARTED BY
TROY BRANDEMUEHL, AND HAS BEEN STARTED ON THE BARRELS BY BRANDON CULLINS & BRITTANY DIAZ.

WHAT MAKES A GREAT STALLION?

THEY MUST BE ROYALLY BRED TOP AND BOTTOM,
WHILE BEING UNIQUE ENOUGH TO STAND OUT FROM THE CROWD.

TWENTYONE THIRTYONE CHECKS EVERY BOX.
HE IS BRED STRONG ENOUGH TO BUILD A PROGRAM AROUND, AND HE'S ALREADY PROVING HIMSELF AS A SIRE. FERTILE, CONSISTENT, AND STAMPING HIS FOALS WITH BALANCE, MOVEMENT, AND QUALITY.

RARE GENETICS

FOALS OUT OF THE LEGENDARY
"ROOTIE" ARE NEARLY IMPOSSIBLE TO FIND,
MAKING THIS OFFERING ONE OF THE LAST CHANCES TO SECURE SUCH EXCLUSIVE BLOODLINES.

PROVEN SIRE

ALREADY HAS SEVERAL OUTSTANDING
FOALS ON THE GROUND, WITH THE KIND OF MOVEMENT AND STYLE THAT WILL SHINE IN THE ARENA.

TWENTYONE THIRTYONE OFFERS THE COMPLETE PACKAGE.

PEDIGREE, PROVEN PRODUCTION, AND RARE GENETICS
THAT ARE NEARLY IMPOSSIBLE TO FIND TODAY.

Jones Wins Two Titles at INFR, a Trailer and $11K

By Julie Mankin

From deep in the Navajo Nation of northeastern Arizona, Erin Jones had made it to the Indian National Finals Rodeo (INFR) a half-dozen times before, only in the breakaway.

This year, as one of three two-event cowgirls to compete at the 2025 INFR, held Oct. 14-18 at the South Point Arena in Las Vegas, Jones relied on her barrel horse to help her bank the biggest paycheck of her life – $10,928 – plus a gold buckle in barrel racing and trophy horse trailer as the women’s all-around champion.

Jones, who works full-time at the hospital in Chinle, said she was surprised to find her coworkers and some physicians congratulating her upon her return to work. She clinched the five-figure payday in Vegas aboard a sorrel grade mare she calls Hailey that her family bought as a halter-broke 3-year-old from former NFR barrel racer Kassidy Dennison.

“It was a good feeling and such a big win for my family,” said Jones. “We deserve it, because we’ve grown so much and it just took so much training and traveling and seasoning. People who watched us and know how the mare used to be are just amazed. Hard work pays off!”

The competition at the INFR comes from Florida to Alberta; North Dakota to Arizona. Jones placed in the first round of the breakaway and won the first round of the barrel race with a run of 15.348 seconds. But Katrina Williams of Mount Currie, British Columbia, also placed in both events that night.

Each cowgirl placed again in the second round of barrel racing, while the third all-around contender – Dennison – won the round in breakaway. The third round saw Dennison again place in the breakaway, but neither Williams nor Jones placed in the barrels that night.

6 Carli Jones, 15.629, $813; 7 Katrina Williams, 15.69, $508; 8 JC Hawk, 15.71, $203

“I was tired after every round and just going back to the hotel,” said Jones. “I ran into Kassidy when we were checking draw sheets for the third round, and she gave me a little pep talk and said she was so happy for us.”

Jones turned in a respectable 15.4 to place in the fourth round, and it’s a good thing. The barrel race was super tight, with just over two-tenths separating the top two cowgirls when the dust cleared on four runs. Jones’ 61.924 on four gave her the championship saddle, buckle and $9,703. She also pulled in $1,220 for placing in one round and the average of breakaway. And, of course, the new horse trailer as the national women’s all-around champ alongside Dalton Porch, the tie-down roper who won the men’s edition.

“In the breakaway, I was safetying up because I mainly wanted points to win the all-around,” Jones said. “I didn’t think Hailey would go out there and do that because it’s our first year to ever make the South Point.”

Erin was living in town when the family bought Hailey as a filly, so her dad, Aaron, broke her and her sister, Ariana, patterned her, explained Jones.

“She started loving the barrels, and when it came to seasoning, we spent about three years going to local rodeos and jackpots,” she said. “Last year, she started doing pretty well.”

Jones didn’t begin to rodeo until she was in high school and said even that was mostly roping until Hailey came along. This winter, she’s excited that her hefty INFR prize package included a paid WPRA barrel racing membership for 2026, so she’ll enter some Turquoise Circuit rodeos this season.

WPRO Announces 2025 Outstanding Committee Woman of the Year presented by Montana Silversmiths

The backbone of any rodeo is no doubt the rodeo committee and their countless volunteers that donate their time and skills to put on a good show for the fans. While the contestants and animals are the stars, they would never shine if it were not for the work of a large supporting cast of volunteers that come together, working for a common goal of making the event a success.

In 1948, the Girls Rodeo Association, now Women's Professional Rodeo Association was Built For Women By Women by 38 strong female leaders in the western industry. In honor of them and in partnership with Montana Silversmiths, one female committee member/volunteer that has gone above and beyond in their local community to make the rodeo a success and/or who has been a staple of the local rodeo for numerous years keeping the tradition alive is being honored with the WPRO Outstanding Committee Woman of the Year for 2025.

This year's recipient is Debbie Mills representing the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo in Castle Rock, Colorado.

"I am so flattered," stated a surprised Mills. "This is so cool. I don't do it for the recognition as I just want everyone to come have a good time and for it to be top notch for the contestants."

Mills has been a member of the committee for the last 20 years, first as just a volunteer and now as an official committee member and Fair Board Director. It all started when her daughter Hannah tried out for Douglas County queen in 2006.

"My daughter won queen, and I had no idea what that was and we just got involved from that point," recalled Mills. "I thought it was a great event and felt like there were things I could help with, so I started showing up."

While Hannah decided to pursue other things after that stint, her other daughter Madelaine stayed involved in the queen industry and was crowned Miss Rodeo Colorado in 2016. Thanks to her daughters Debbie was hooked on the rodeo industry and besides the hours she spends working to make the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo the best it can be, she spends the majority of her January each year up the road in Denver for the National Western Stock Show and Rodeo.

"Leon (Vick) asked me to get involved in hospitality where I volunteered for many years and now coordinate the kickoff parade and do a little of everything behind the scenes at the ProRodeo," noted Mills, who has been with the NWSS for 20 years as well. "I fell in love with the rodeo side, and it calls me back every year."

In December, she can be found in Las Vegas serving as a chaperone for the Miss Rodeo America organization and handles the contestant hospitality for the PRCA nightly at the National Finals Rodeo.

"I really enjoy working the NFR," stated Mills who has done it for the last five years. "I get to welcome NFR contestants and their families and of course order more cookies when they are running low. It is a huge honor to be part of that and thankful they keep asking me back."

As noted in her nomination packet to have Debbie Mills on your side you are a winner. Mills has brought special programming to the rodeo such as the PRCA Rodeo Camp and Exceptional Rodeo. She is the chairperson of the Marketing Committee and secures sponsors for all aspects of the Fair & Rodeo. She is also the chairperson for the Royalty program and helps coordinate the Mutton Bustin.

The WPRO received over 35 nominations for this award and was excited to have received so many great stories of the many outstanding women out there. As an Association, we are excited to continue to grow this program and recognize an outstanding committee woman on an annual basis.

Debbie Mills will be officially recognized during the WPRO Star Celebration with the Top 15 barrel racers on Thursday, December 4 at the South Point Hotel and Casino and will receive a custom-made Montana Silversmiths buckle.

Past recipients:

2022 – Cindy Williams, Dinosaur Roundup Rodeo, Vernal, Utah

2023 – Tammie Hiatt, Jim Shoulder Living Legends Rodeo, Henryetta, Oklahoma

2024 – Rachel Ann Holzschuh, Mid-Western Rodeo in Manawa, Wisconsin

Dr. Leslie Schur named PRCA Vet of the Year

Dr. Leslie Schur has been named the recipient of the 2025 PRCA Veterinarian of the Year Award

A Washington native, Schur has been active in the equine community since she was young and quickly realized her passion for working with horses. She has owned and operated Desert Pines Equine Center in Las Vegas since 1998, when she joined the practice with Dr. Garth Lamb.

Retired now, Lamb still makes yearly visits to the clinic. On Friday, Oct. 17, during one of those visits, he had the honor of informing Schur she had won the PRCA Veterinarian of the Year Award.

"When we were visiting, he had to take a phone call for a minute then he came back," Schur said. "He's like, 'OK, I guess I'm the one that gets to tell you.' So, Garth Lamb, who I rode on his coattails when I moved to Las Vegas and joined him in the practice, was the one to tell me. He was Veterinarian of the Year in 2011, so that was a pretty special honor."

A 1995 graduate of Michigan State University, Schur completed an internship with Arizona Equine before opening Desert Pines.

Since the start of her career, she has served on the American Association of Equine Practitioners' Equine Welfare committee, served as the co-moderator for the Western Performance Horse Rounds, currently serves as a member of the AAEP Performance horse committee and has worked closely alongside the PRCA animal welfare group.

She has been selected as one of the veterinarians for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo 29 times and serves on the committee that votes for the PRCA Vet of the Year. Schur said her selection came as a surprise, as she was under the impression someone else had been chosen for the prestigious annual award.

"I was on a meeting about 3 or 4 hours earlier putting my vote in and I thought it was all decided," Schur said. "It was a huge surprise."

A professional barrel racer in her free time, Schur and her husband, Darrell Moser, have three daughters who have followed in her footsteps as barrel racers themselves.

One of her daughters, who is a barrel racer at West Texas A&M, recently applied to veterinarian school.

"I always tell them, 'You should look at how many second and third generation veterinarians there are because they grew up alongside us,'" Schur said. "They know what it's like, they know the work, and they just love it like we do. She'll be bigger and better than I am."

Schur's philosophies are simple: Treat every horse like the true athlete it is and maintain an open line of communication with everyone involved, from the riders to the farriers to the doctors caring for the athletes. That mindset, along with her ever-growing passion for the profession, has allowed her to remain successful for 30 years. Winning the PRCA Vet of the Year Award on the 30th anniversary makes it all more special.

"Every little girl's dream is to be a barrel racer in that little yellow arena," Schur said of the Thomas & Mack Center. "I've been down there a lot, unfortunately not on a horse, but I've gotten to help a lot of the people along the way. It's a pretty special thing to work with a group we have become pretty familiar with and almost like a family every year. It's been quite an honor to have that position. This is just icing on the cake."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Young Thad has been taking guitar lessons after church on Sunday. He pulled on my arm one morning during worship and said, "They are playing in G. I can tell!" I didn't laugh. I couldn't tell if they were playing in Q. I was impressed!

Well, his sister was recently gifted a bright pink electric guitar with a pink and black guitar strap. Now she will be taking lessons also. Budding musicians. The funny thing Thad said after she got her guitar was, "It's a REALLY electric guitar!" How is REALLY electric different than just electric?

Perspective. In his eyes, it was over and above just a regular guitar. I don't know why. But do you and I have a perspective like that? Do we perceive that someone else is REALLY more gifted than we are at something? Why? It's because we don't trust our very good God that He has put something equally wonderful in us.

Each of us is unique, talented, gifted, smart, handsome, lovely, strong, and just pretty special! Someone somewhere looks up to you and me. We may not know it or think it's true.

But if we weren't all that and a bag of chips, Jesus would never have died for us! But He did. He thought we were worth it! Receive His gift of salvation. Romans 10:8-10. Receive His blessing. And then out of the gifts He has put on the inside of us, let's bless someone else this week!
