Fischer Masters Traffic at WPRA World Finals

By Julie Mankin

Tammy Fischer didn't haul much or win enough money this season to qualify for the 2013 San Antonio Rodeo, so she used the WPRA World Finals in Lincoln, Neb., as a great last-ditch money-maker.

It worked. Riding Troy and Jamie Ashford's 8-year-old buckskin stallion, Traffic Guy, she placed fifth in the first round and second in round two of the $20,000-Added Card Holder's Race to win the average and $5,108.

"I got on him in April of this year so we could increase his breeding value, and I did so well that we decided I'd stay on him," Fischer said. "He's real gritty; he never really gives up in a run. And he's not your typical stud. My little girl who's two and a half can ride him and be around him, and I kept him in panels attached to my trailer next to geldings this summer."

"Traffic" is by Frenchman's Guy and out of a racing mare named Evening Traffic that's a granddaughter of both First Down Dash (crossed on a Beduino mare), and Bunny Bid (crossed on a Tiny Charger granddaughter). Traffic also been campaigned by Kenna Squires and has been headed on by Clay Logan.

"I was leery about hauling a stud and a baby, but he'll make you think there's nothing wrong with hauling a stud," said Fischer, who with her husband, Brian, has a toddler daughter named Sydney Rae. During part of the breeding season, she drove Traffic back and forth to Salado for collections. This summer, she hauled him to six rodeos and won checks at five of them. While Traffic has had some trouble adjusting to the building rodeos this fall, she's proud of his performance with three runs in three days at Lincoln.

In the meantime, she also still has MP Quick Money, whom she loaned to her good friend Mellisa Hollingsworth of Canada during the event in Lincoln. Hollingsworth, an Olympic skeleton racer, placed on two of three runs aboard Money.

But if you don't see Fischer at many rodeos after the winter run in Texas, don't be surprised.

"My baby didn't want to be gone three months this summer, like I usually do to make the NFR," said Fischer. "Instead, I was gone four weeks. After losing Riley [her son], I have a different perspective now, so I came home because that's what she wanted. I have 17 horses at my horse to ride, anyway."

In the Card Holder's Race, Fischer edged Kendra Dickson on Dr. Te Hancock and Jill Moody on TM Firefrost Annie by less than two-tenths of a second. They placed second and third for $3,720 and $2,591, respectively.

In the $10,000-Added Permit Holders' Race, Casey Davis took top honors aboard Cookie Bar Nibbles to earn $4,657, with Nicole Riggle and Chowchilla Filly right on her heels until the short round.

In the $13,500-Added Pro Futurity, it was all Hallie Melvin. Riding the Barton family's 5-year-old roan stallion French Streaktovegas, she jumped out and won the first round and split second on her next run to win the average by a whopping four tenths and tack $6,082 onto the stud's earnings.

"He worked good," said Melvin, who topped more than 80 other futurity entries and has won at least $34,000 on French Streaktovegas since August. "He feels pretty consistent."

Laticia Duke, meanwhile, claimed both second and third ($4,947 on LK Watch Me Rock and $4,142 on Bobbie Gene) in the Pro Futurity for a stellar $9,089 payday.

In the $5,000-Added Pro Derby, Ryann Pedone and 5-year-old Kiss This Guy (BHR Frenchies Socks) won the second round by a whopping four-tenths to scream to the average title over Wyoming's Lonnie Farella on her home-raised Miss N Chablis. Kiss This Guy is a paternal grandson of Frenchman's Guy crossed on a Go Man Go/Pacific Bailey mare, and is out of dam that goes back to Coup De Kas, Go Dick Go and Triple Chick. They earned $2,362 for the win.

The Pro Futurity Slot Race held Saturday night took twenty 4- and 5-year-old horses at entry fees of $1,500 (it didn't quite fill up). By a tenth of a second, Jolene Montgomery came out on top

Barbara Ammerman Passes

Barbara Ammerman, the cherished wife of saddlemaker Carl Ammerman, passed away Friday, October 19. She was 61.

The lifelong resident of Yoakum, Texas, was always involved with horses. She enjoyed training and barrel racing and, along with her husband, was a fixture at all manners of horse events throughout the state of Texas from youth rodeos to horse sales.

Barbara is preceded in death by their beloved daughter Kelle for whom the Angel Kisses barrel saddle is named.

Futurity & 5D to Benefit Injured KK Rule

A benefit futurity and 5D barrel race is in the works for KK Rule, who was injured in a horseback riding accident on Sunday, October 21. She's currently in the hospital in Oklahoma City. KK is the daughter of Dona Kay Rule, one of the members of Tri K Barrel Productions.

The event is scheduled for November 30 at the Purcell Expo Indoor Arena in Purcell, Okla., and will coincide with the Central 4D already scheduled for that weekend. It will be BBR approved. The futurity will be a qualifying go on Friday night with a short on Saturday.

Silent auction items are currently being collected. For more information or to make a silent auction donation, please contact Lona Shockley at 405.808.9176 or lona.smith@trikbarrels.com, Kay Acosta at 405.819.8436 or kay.acosta@trikbarrels.com or Robin Hofmann at 405.615-4998 or robin4998@gmail.com.

The Headless Horseman Creeps Back to Bowman

The popular Halloween themed barrel race, the Headless Horseman will be back for its third year November 3rd and 4th in Bowman, ND at the indoor All Seasons Arena. Presented by Rodeo Rigs and Miracle Ear, the race again will feature the highly anticipated costume contest following Saturday's race which this year will include not only the adult and youth categories, but a new family category besides.

Open arena begins Friday evening at 5pm with the first round of exhibitions to follow at 6pm. Saturday morning begins with open arena at 7:30am, exhibitions at 9:30am and the peewees will run at 12:30pm with the open to follow. Sunday's open arena begins at 7:30am, exhibitions 9:00am and peewees at 11:30am. Fees are $40 early entry open ($45 late), $25 youth and $5 peewee.

The open 4-D and youth 3-D have over $800 added with exciting average prizes including handmade trailer stools, vintage bridle racks, jackets, western furniture, jewelry and embroidered knit hats. Anyone with paid exhibitions will be entered for special vendor-sponsored drawings. Other special contests with unique and fun prizes will be held throughout the weekend.

Hook-ups and stalls are available on site first come-first serve with indoor stalls requiring reservations. The race is sanctioned NWBRA and UBRA. More information can be found by emailing saddleupeventservices@hotmail.com or by calling Barb Williams (605-210-0379) or Ashley Alderson (701-206-0350).

WPRO Calgary Stampede Qualifying Tour

The WPRO is pleased to announce to our membership that the 2013 Calgary Stampede has been approved and that we are introducing a 2012 WPRO Qualifying Tour.

The WPRO Qualifying Tour

The WPRO Qualifying Tour is made up of 15 events across the US and Canada. The WPRO Tour standings will be one (1) of several ways to qualify into Calgary.

Eligibility: You must be a 2012 WPRO card member at the time of entry to receive points. (Points are not applied to Permits.)

Timing: Events include rodeos between June 1 and September 30, 2012 and the WPRO World Finals in October 2012.

Of Events: A total of 15 events have been identified as part of the WPRO Tour. One (1) rodeo has been identified in each circuit, two (2) Canadian rodeos have been named and one (1) race at the 2012 WPRO World Finals round out the WPRO Tour opportunities.

1. Texas- Pecos, TX- 6/27-30/2012
2. Canadian- Airdrie, AB- 6/27-7/1/2012
3. Badlands- Mandan, ND- 7/2-4/2012
4. Southeastern- Springdale, AR - 7/4-7/2012
5. Mountain States- Casper, WY- 7/10-14/2012
6. Columbia River- Longview, WA- 7/27-28/2012
7. First Frontier-Gerry, NY- 8/1-4/2012
8. Canadian- Strathmore, AB- 8/3-6/2012
9. Prairie- Lawton, OK- 8/8-11/2012
10. Turquoise- Lovington, NM- 8/8-11/2012
11. Wilderness- Caldwell, ID- 8/14-18/2012
12. Montana- Plains, MT- 8/31-9/1/2012
13. Great Lakes- Fort Madison, IA- 9/5-8/2012
14. California- Poway, CA 9/28-29/2012
15. WPRO World Finals- Lincoln, NE 10/17-21/2012

2012 WPRO Qualifying Tour Standings: The WPRO Tour standings will be point based and reflect up to your best 5 results (out of the 15 qualifying events) where you competed and won money up to and including the 10th position. There is no minimum or maximum # of events for you to attend.

Points: There is a 10- point scale, with points allocated from 10 points (1st place money) to 1 point (for 10th place money). No more than 10 positions will be awarded points. At a 2 head event, points are allocated to the average only.

Note: Points in the WPRO Tour standings will count from up to your 5 best events where you have competed and won money.

Tie Breaking Method: Ties will be broken by looking at a competitor's money won at their 5 best events on the WPRO Tour standings. FMI: www.wpro.com aboard KN Fabs Mist of Fame to earn the $10,000 first-place prize. She edged Latricia Duke on Bobbie Gene and Ryan Ivy on Spade Remedy for the win.

Three barrel racing year-end world champions were also crowned in Lincoln, including Junior World Champ Brookelyn Owens of Muldrow, Okla., who earned an impressive $16,261 total in 2012. At the World Finals in Lincoln, first in the average of the Junior Race went to Bailey Witt with a two run time of 32.50 seconds aboard Win N Firewater, worth $1,619.

Sandra Hart of South Dakota claimed the year-end Futurity World Championship on 5-year-old LM A Classy Design – by Designer Red out of a Hollywood Gold-bred mare. In points, the 2D world champion was Lynette Beckman and Fame Ta Burn.

And Hart's futurity standout from last year, 6-year-old mare Hart Ta Fame, was named the 2012 year-end reserve Derby World Champion in points behind Ashley Baur's 6-year-old Love Man's Darling – a cow-bred granddaughter of Hollywood Dun It.

Flying For Perks Earns Trepanier CA Championship

By Tanya Randall

California Circuit Rookie of The Year Brianna Trepanier had her first season as a card-carrying WPRA member end in dramatic fashion with a come-from-behind victory over former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Linda Vick for the California Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship.

The 22-year-old barrel racer from Agua Dulce was sitting second going into the final round at the Ram California Circuit Finals Rodeo, held Oct. 19-21 in Lancaster. She and her horse Flying For Perks took second in the first round with a 16.13 and finished just out of the money in fifth in the second round.

"We had calculated it out and the only way for me to win the average would be for me to run a 15," said Trepanier. When Vick posted a 16.25 a few runs before her, Trepanier thought her chance to win the average was over. "I was a few more people down the line. I was just thinking that I was going to be second in the average—just make a clean run. I just told myself if we don't make it we just need to be proud that we qualified."

But fate had other plans.

"I think Perks knew what was going on and he just went flying through that gate and pulled the fastest time of the weekend," Trepanier said of her 15.89. "I definitely didn't expect to run a 15. It was definitely incredible. I don't think I'll ever forget it. It was the happiest day of my life so far."

The victory will send Trepanier, along with yearend California Circuit Champions Christina Richman and Xtrared, to the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo next March in Oklahoma City. Trepanier is hopeful that it is just another stepping-stone to realizing her dreams of qualifying for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

Trepanier didn't start out her horse life with NFR dreams. She was an English rider and preferred jumping until her family moved to Agua Dulce.

"My best friends were all barrel racers," she said. "So, I started taking lessons with them. One of the reasons that I did it was because I'm so competitive and I wanted to beat them at it. Of course, I fell in love with it."

Dana Conners and Cathy Cooper mentored Trepanier early in her barrel racing career, and later Jerri Mann offered pointers and advice. However, it was trainer James Commander who helped her the most with her 10-year-old gelding.

Bred by Melissa Lidstrom of Guthrie, Okla., Perks is by Dash For Perks out of the Dinner Flight mare Lulu Of A Flight. Perks had gone through several owners before Trepanier's father found him in nearby Paso Robles.

"We were looking for a horse that I could start rodeoing on and weren't in the market to pay some big fortune for a rodeo horse," she said. "We went to try him and I didn't even get to make a run. The ground was too bad. I trotted him through and knew that he was the one that I wanted. Basically we got really lucky." Perks had history though, and not necessarily the good kind.

"He's a quiet a difficult horse to ride. It's definitely taken me a while to figure him out; he wasn't by any means a "packer" so to say."

Trepanier turned to Commander who had played a major role in turning the horse around before.

"He's helped me a lot with him," she said. "(Perks) would bite and kick people. He would duck off. James was the main person to turn him around and make him into the horse that he could be.

When I had got him, he started the ducking off again and that was a nightmare to fix that. Talking to James over the phone really helped."

With Commanders coaching, counter arc drills and "lots and lots" of time only runs, Trepanier was able to work through Perks issues.

"A lot of it was just being more confident riding him," said Trepanier, who wanted to thank her parents, a.k.a. her "sponsors," and all the trainers who have helped her along the way. "The less confident you are the more likely he is to pull something on you."

They've come a long way from getting no times to winning professional rodeos. Trepanier hopes to take it even further.

"My goal is to make it to the NFR, so I'm definitely going to try to go a little farther this year. I'm very lucky that I have a lot of support and a lot of doors have opened for me. While I have the opportunity to chase my dreams, I'm going to do it and see how far it gets me. If we make it, that's awesome. If we don't, we'll try again the next year and keep trying until we do."

PJ Burger and Roanhorse Rita Triumph at Prairie Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

PJ Burger was having an uncharacteristically quiet year until August when Roanhorse Rita ("Lucy") entered her barn and earned her the right to compete at the Ram Prairie Circuit Finals Rodeo, held Oct. 18-20 in Duncan, Okla.

At the Circuit Finals, Burger and Lucy almost doubled their circuit earnings with a $4,402 winning effort.

"She handled the ground, the pressure and the crowd," said Burger of her 9-year-old mount. "She was very consistent. She just made the three same runs in a row, which is really hard to do."

Burger and Lucy won the opening round in 16.91, took second in round two with a 16.75 and finished with a 17.00, third-place performance in the final round en route to the average title.

"Duncan really did a great job with their facility," said Burger, praising the Circuit Finals. "They widened the arena and changed the alley way. It was a little tricky, you had a little L jog leading to the alley, and my mare was ready to run from the get-go."

The victory also earned Burger the right to represent the Prairie Circuit at the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo, which are conveniently held just up the road from her Pauls Valley home in Oklahoma City. She will be joined by Prairie Circuit Yearend Champion Tana Renick, Kingston, Okla., and her talented mare XV Wild Child. Renick and "Teddy" won the 2010 National Circuit Finals Championship.

Burger had ridden several horses throughout the year until Lucy came along.

"I had gone to Canada with some colts this spring," said Burger, who has a soon-to-be 6-year-old daughter Kaden with husband Joey. "They did well, but I realized pretty quickly that I needed to come home."

She continued to hop horses until late summer.

Lucy, who despite her registered name is a palomino, belongs to Brad and Brandie Lieblong of Jonesboro, Ark. Bred by Paul Jr and Marcella Mays of Pawhuska, Okla., Lucy is by Fairfax Hancock out of Abblina Six, by Five To Six.

Burger's brother-in-law Todd trained the mare, and she was owned by Sierra Tallchief and Kyra Stierwalt before becoming property of the Lieblongs. Burger started riding her late this summer.

"She had colic surgery in February and had been out all year," said Burger, a 2009 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier and the 2011 AQHA Sr Barrel Racing Champion with Rockette Ta Fame. "They started legging her up in June and July. They said come try her. Some horses don't come back from a big surgery like that but she was right back to where she left off before the surgery."

Burger and Lucy have already placed at a couple of 2013 season rodeos—Bellville and Rosenberg, Texas. She said the tentative plans are to "see where that takes us."

MT Womens Finals Smashing Success

Montana Womens Finals
October 19-20, 2012, Joliet, MT

The 5th Annual Montana Women's Finals was a smashing success with beautiful weather. Copper Spring Ranch presented the All-Women's Event, October 20 & 21 at the beautiful Cottonwood Equestrian Center in Silesia. Paying out over $22,000, competitors from TX, WY, ID, SD, CO, WA and Montana participated in the Barrel Racing, Team Roping and Breakaway Roping events. Sam's Club generously gave out gift bags to all entrants with Classic Equine and MT Silversmith awarding prizes.

Robbi Nace won the Open 4D event on Saturday with Cathy Roesler & Outta Be Dusty winning the WPRA Standalone. The weekend's WPRA Permit-only sponsored by Love Life Rodeo Team, Jon & Jody Hoovestall was won by Kaela Murphy & Wanda. Shelly Anzick & the outstanding gelding Scooten Ta Fame won both Sunday's Open 4D and the WPRA race on Sunday.

Ingram Quarter Horses sponsored the Team-roping for the weekend, Saturday's winners were Norma Haaland and Sonja Mallet and Sunday's roping was won by Cierra Camp and Anna Haaland. The Break-away roping was sponsored by Eiker Construction and Spear Ranch. Saturday's winner was Torrie Eiker and Sunday's Tanya Getten. Also, a special thanks to Plains Horizon Insurance Equine Insurance, Green Acres, and Wrangler. Looking forward to another exciting event in 2013, thank you to everyone for attending, Lana Tibbetts

Hunter and Wee Boss Man Stand Tall

Nancy Hunter was #30 in the World for 2012 with $33,659 and was #31 in 2010 with $29,492. She and Flit N Fizz are also 4 Time Wilderness Circuit Champs and 2 time Reserve Champions as well.

BRR: Tell us about your horse and where he came from.

Hunter: We bought a horse from Roy Harden (his Dad Spencer) at the NCHA Futurity Sale in Forth Worth out the same dam as Boss Man and he said we could keep our horses we bought at the sale at their place. Anyway, he had Boss Man at their place and he was 3 and should have been shown in the Futurity during the sale but got hurt earlier in the year and missed trained so he wasn't ready to show when the time came. He was just sitting there and they didn't know what to do with him. He was a smaller horse (14.3) so Fred thought he might make a calf horse for one of our sons. We had a hole left open in the trailer so we wrote them a check and brought him home. We actually bought 3 horses from the Harden ranch, 2 out of the sale and one off their place all out of the same dam. Fred got him home and went to riding him and tracking calves on him and since he takes everything around the barrels, he started him on the barrels. Fred liked him so well we actually left him a stud until about a year ago. Over last winter, we went to time onlys in Arizona and he was just getting going. By summer, he won checks at some of the smaller circuit rodeos and just gets better and better. We don't know why he clocks so well but he is real quick around the barrels, he stays on top of the ground and follows his nose.

BRR: You have been rodeoing on Flit N Fizz, now you are winning with a futurity horse you trained, what are the differences you see between training and running at rodeos versus futurities?

Hunter: A lot of the girls that go to all the futurities are training all the time and riding lots of horses so they can ride with two hands and help their horses more. Fred gets the horses trained and ready for me to run. For me to run at the futurities, the horses have to be pretty much ready for rodeos. I just ride Boss Man like a rodeo horse because that's just how I ride. It's not really our goal to make futurity horses, we like to make long term rodeo horses. This horse is 5 and I am trying not to be to greedy with him and going to too many rodeos and barrel races because I think he has a great career ahead of him.

BRR: What are your future plans with Wee Boss Man?

Hunter: Flit N Fizz (Fuzz) is going to be 13 this year and is feeling really good and sound, so I will keep picking and choosing which rodeos I take him to. I will probably take Boss Man to San Antonio or Fort Worth and see if he likes those rodeos better than Fuzz. I also think Houston would be a good pen for him if we got the opportunity to go there. He just goes and does his thing and goes back to the trailer. He hates other horses but he loves people!

The military authorities know that soldiers must be equipped, taught and prepared before going into battle or they will face deadly consequences.

It's the same for Christians because we're in a battle here on earth and cannot go through life unaware and unprotected. Read Ephesians 6:12 where Paul wrote, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

Your family, relatives and the people around you aren't your problem. A whole lot of spiritual forces in this world are trying to derail the will of God for your life. Keep reading in Ephesians Verse 13 and it will tell you that you need to wear the whole armor of God to withstand the enemy. Read the verses through 17 which tell what this armor is and why we need it.

Read the Bible, study and pray. Focus on Jesus more than people and leave your cares and your prayers in His hands, trusting completely in Him. He will always lead you in the right direction because He loves you, enough that He suffered a cruel crucifixion to atone for the sins of mankind and made heaven available to all believers. Jesus is truly the Good Shepherd. He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. He has your very best in mind, now and always. So don't be worried or afraid and live in guilt or anxiety anymore. If you've confessed your sins to Jesus, you can trust that His shed blood has wiped out those sins and you are justified.

So tell the devil to get out of your life and your family. You've made Jesus your Lord and Savior and He lives in your spirit. You have nothing to fear because "greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world!" (1 John 4:4)
