Allie Murphy & Shawnee Ta Fame Strike It Rich at The Texan

By Tanya Randall

On Sunday morning, October 22, Allie Murphy and her 8-year-old gelding Shawnee Ta Fame (“Chico”) made a flawless and efficient run on the bottom of the ground at The Texan Barrel Race with its $850,000-plus guaranteed payout. Their 14.410 was the fastest of the 1,373 passes made thus far and only 175 runs were left to change their fate.

Murphy, a 19-year-old college freshman from Synder, Texas, did her best to ignore the possibility of an epic windfall, a $100,000 first-place check—one of the few ever offered up for grabs in an open race setting.

“I tried not to think about it too much and stress myself out about it,” said Allie, who spent the remainder of the race hanging out at the horse trailer with Chico. “I tried to keep myself level headed and not freak out too much.”

Her mother, Leslie, on the other hand, was anxiously waiting inside the truck, watching every remaining run on the webcast. “Oh my gosh! It was exciting!” said the elder Murphy. “To be in that position... There’s so many good horses that went to The Texan. It was so exciting just to have the opportunity.”

When the dust had finally settled, Allie and Chico had claimed $112,921. Along with the $100,000, they won the $5,000-added Derby for $4,106, claimed $1,500 of the $22,500 in day money and topped the $10,000-added, two-run aggregate for an additional $7,315.

“I’m just not sure how to feel about it yet,” Allie admitted. “It was a really great experience. I was super blessed to get to run that much money in that kind of setting.”

The Texan, held October 16-22 in the Taylor Telecom Arena in Abilene, was a high-stakes race that offered two runs for a $1,495 entry. Contestants were offered their choice of three sections—Tuesday and Wednesday, Thursday and Friday or Saturday and Sunday—and a variety of added money sidepots.

Allie ran in the final section of the week, so she didn’t miss classes at South Plains College in Levelland, Texas.

“We went to the Texan hoping to work out some kinks for this upcoming college rodeo, and I would say we definitely did!” she chuckled.

Allie and Chico had been snake bit by a barrel bug that cost her the victory at her last two college rodeos, so clean runs were on her mind in Abilene.

“It was just me having confidence in myself,” she said. “It was nothing to do with Chico. It was figuring out what I was doing. Sometimes I do too much, and it affects him in the wrong way. Sometimes I just need to let him do his job.”

Their first run on Saturday was a respectable 14.863, which was ninth on the day but out of the big money.

“My hopes were for a good clean run, a confidence run,” she said. “It wasn’t the fastest and it was clean. I was super proud of him for that.”

The next morning, Allie felt that good run coming by the way Chico was acting.

“I felt like he was going to make a good run,” she said. “I wasn’t being too big of an influence on him. I was just letting him run and do his job. I knew it was going to be a pretty good run from how he was acting and performing. It just felt like a good Chico run.”

Chico, a massive bay gelding, has been Allie’s partner since late in her junior year of high school. When it came time to find a horse to finish out high school and ride through college, her mother called her high school rodeo buddy, National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jana Bean. That led to Chico, who belonged to Bean's now daughter-in-law Wyatt Grace.

Bred by Wyatt Grace's dad Scott Andrews, Chico was by 1.6 million dollar sire Shawne Bug Leo out of the Dash Ta Fame, Bully Bullion mare Loreals Star Ta Fame, a full sister to multiple futurity finalist Bully Bully Fame ($51,607 EquiStat). Chico started his barrel racing career as a futurity horse under the guidance of Emily Efurud. Allie and Chico fit instantly.

"When I first got on him, I knew right away he understood my hands, and it was going to be a good fit," Allie said.

The two qualified for two National High School Rodeo Finals and finished fourth in the nation this past summer in Gillette, Wyoming. Now they rodeo for South Plains College, and hopefully Texas Tech University in the future.

Allie said it's taken a team "with a lot of moving parts" to get to this point and she's been "super blessed to have them."

Her mother concurred, "There's not a certain person you can give a shout out to. My gosh! You cannot do this alone! Whether it's drying tears, figuring out how to enter or where to enter, what vets to go to...you can't do it alone. We're very blessed to have a great support group and people in our corner."

Sharon Gow & Megan McLeod-Sprague Earn Columbia River Circuit Championships

By Tanya Randall

Sharon Gow of Roseburg, Oregon, and Megan McLeod-Sprague of Marsing, Idaho, will represent the Columbia River Circuit at the NFR Open next summer in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Gow topped the Columbia River Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 19-21 in Redmond, Oregon, and McLeod-Sprague used a last round victory to capture the No. 1 in the year-end standings.

The Circuit Finals Rodeo turned into a virtual knife fight for the year-end championship. It was a five-horse race going into the final round and those five finished within $1,989 of each other in the year-end standings. Thanks to her wicked gelding Seis Corona (“Jag”), McLeod-Sprague was able to collect $2,152 for the third round victory to earn $22,479 on the year and surpass Rachelle Riggers by a mere $162.

Gow was an early season contender for the year-end title, but a trip to Disneyland with her grandchildren fell over the lucrative rodeo Pendleton, Oregon. Instead, Gow had a stellar circuit finals, taking second in the first and second round to win the aggregate and $6,456.

“I did really good at the first of the year and then I dropped to sixth,” Gow explained. “Then my grandkids wanted to go to Disneyland, so I dropped to 10th. I was just so happy; it was my first year to make it (to Circuit Finals).”

Gow, 61, grew up competing, but largely focused on breakaway roping and tying goats. For much of her adult life, Gow was simply a rodeo mom, her daughter Bailey (now Cline) and son Colton both competed. It was through trying to better her daughter’s barrel racing skills that her own improved.

“My barrel horses were subpar,” she said. “So, when my daughter decided to go big time, I knew we needed some help. I jackpotted but I didn’t know anything. Bo Hill was our ticket to riding futurity horses. She’s just a great gal. She made a huge difference in our lives.”

“I had one lady at a jackpot say, ‘I didn’t even know you rode!’” laughed Gow. “I was always on my daughter’s colts, while she ran.”

In 2016, her first year to haul on a WPRA card, she won the rookie title for her circuit.

“I hauled with Amber Moore,” Gow said. “She was trying to win enough to get into the winter rodeos but ended up making the NFR.”

“I won the rookie of the year, but I didn’t make the circuit finals. I was one hole out. I was super happy though. I won a buckle, and it was a dream come true for me. It was amazing!”

The rodeo mom in her took over that year too when she took off from her teaching job to help Moore as she made a last minute NFR push.

“I told her if she helped me that I would help her,” Gow recalled. “She called me from Texas, and said, ‘I need you to help me drive.’ I flew down there and helped her drive, and I got to go to the NFR and watch her run.”

Gow started training futurity horses because she enjoyed the colts and has been pretty successful with that endeavor. Her circuit finals champion is one of her former futurity horses: Dreamin Ever After (“Slick”).

Gow purchased Slick as a 3-year-old from her breeder Megan Lewis.

“We were in Arizona, and she didn’t have time for her,” Gow explained. “She said, ‘I need you to come look at some horses. I can’t fit them all in the trailer to go home.’ I had a free hole, so I went over and looked.”

SADDLE: Sports saddle; rides in a variety of treed saddles at home

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star (Generally whatever she’s won.)

LEG GEAR: Professional’s Choice

SHOEING: Steel rims

FEED: Purina Senior Active

HAY: Homegrown grass hay and a little alfalfa in the winter

SUPPLEMENTS: Omeprazole when running; runs on Lasix

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Nebulizer, BEMER blanket

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIME: We live on a mountain. Our pasture is uphill.

Just to go to water is exercise. I will lope circles for 15 to 20 minutes and then put her back out. It’s worked for her because she stays busy. She kind of keeps herself legged up.

THANKS: My family—husband Billy, daughter Bailey and son Colton and their families. “I just want to thank my family. Thank God for my son who keeps me going. My husband for putting up with my dream, and praise God for allowing me to do this. The Lord has blessed me in so many ways. If He wants me to do it, I do it. If He doesn’t, I don’t. I let Him lead my way. We’re a Godly family and we want him to be proud of what we do.”

the Canth mare RBS Dream. National Finals Rodeo qualifier Judy Myllymaki trained and ran RBS Dream, but ultimately made the mare a broodmare.

“She said the mare never made the same pattern twice, but she was dirty fast,” Gow recalled. “That’s kind of how my mare is. The pattern is not pretty, and it never looks like she’s running. She just does her job. In an average, she’s awesome because she doesn’t hit barrels. She may go long, but she won’t usually hit one.”

Gow ended up with two Slick By Design mares to futurity the same year. The other mare, Design By Scarlett, now belongs to

Madison Camozzi.

“She would actually win the futurity, set an arena record or she would hit a barrel,” Gow said. “She hit a lot of barrels. She was super catty. I could not make myself stay up long enough at that second barrel. I wanted to sit down so I could save myself. She would take it out if I sat down too early.”

Slick was the more user-friendly of the two.

“She waits for me to ask her to turn,” she said. “She’s a really nice mare and does what I ask. Plus, my grandchildren can ride her. They’re 8, 6 and 7. They haven’t run her yet, but they ride her around.”

This was the first year for Gow to really haul to make the circuit finals.

“My son is the one that pushes me,” she said. “I came home after three rodeos leading the circuit, and I was like, ‘I’m done!’ And, my son is like, ‘Oh no, you’ve got to keep going!’”

Gow said winning the circuit finals in her first appearance was “just a dream come true.”

“I’m just a circuit girl and will probably never go anywhere, other than with my colts. I would have never thought... This mare has been a dream for me. It’s amazing, I have to pinch myself!”

Mountain States Circuit Finals Money Makers Yates and Tonozzi

By Hope Raley

The Mountain States Circuit Finals closed out their 2022-2023 rodeo season this past weekend at The Ranch in Loveland, Colorado with Brittany Tonozzi winning the year-end and Kelly Yates winning the average: both punching their ticket to the 2024 NFR Open next summer in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Tonozzi of Lampasas, Texas was crowned the Mountain States Circuit Champion with $35,005.74 won throughout the season, while Pueblo cowgirl, Yates, topped the circuit finals held October 21-23rd aboard her speedy gray mare Fiestanozshezfamous- who is the product of her great NFR mare Firewater Fiesta- to the tune of over $8,800.

Yates and Fiestanozshezfamous "Gucci" showed up at The Ranch with intentions of making smooth, money winning runs to hopefully get their chance to run at the NFR Open next summer, which is coincidentally only about 45 minutes from Yates home in Pueblo. The deadly duo executed their plan, putting together three stellar runs to clench the average and claim their rightful spot to next summers event in Colorado Springs.

"I am very excited to be going to the NFR Open," explained Yates. "This will be my first trip to the NFR Open since moving from Kissimmee, Florida to Colorado Springs and it's an added bonus that it is so close to home as well!"

The NFR Open powered by RAM, was formerly titled the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo but changed its name after the format of the rodeo was changed to the new tournament style.

Yates rode 12-year-old "Gucci" who is by Dash Ta Fame and out of Firewater Fiesta by Fire Water Flit to the majority of the seasonal rodeos. She also rode Playin It Smooth "Smoothie" (Smooth As A Cat x Freckles Playboy) whom she got from her brother, JD Yates. Though Yates ran "Gucci" at the majority of the circuit rodeos, "Smoothie" pulled his weight and helped Yates place at a few rodeos throughout the season as well. A few of Yates major placings throughout the summer aboard Gucci included Castle Rock, Westcliffe, Lamar, Este Park, Pueblo, and several others.

When Yates talks about Gucci, you can hear the love and respect that she has for the mare in her voice. Yates describes Gucci as the carbon copy of her mother and sees tidbits of Fiesta daily when it comes to Gucci.

"Gucci is a lot like her mother. From their running and turning styles, to their attitudes, and dispositions. It is so much fun seeing the similarities between Fiesta, Gucci and the other siblings."

It was a battle in all three rounds between Tonozzi and Yates- with Tonozzi winning the first round running a 15.08 and Yates second with a 15.09. Yates won the second round with a 15.21 and Tonozzi was second with a 15.22, and in the third round, Yates triumphed with a time of 15.18. When the times were added up, it was Yates winning the average with a total of 45.48 on three runs, while year-end champion Tonozzi finished second in the average with a total time of 45.57 on three runs.

Tonozzi ran an elite team of horses throughout the 2023 rodeo season, including ChitiChiti BangBang who she won the first round

WPRA Announces 2023 Justin Best Footing Award Winners

The Women's Professional Rodeo Association is pleased to announce and congratulate the following rodeo committees who have gone above and beyond this past year to ensure safe ground for the animal athletes of rodeo, specifically the barrel racing horses. Every year since the early 1990s the WPRA and Justin Brands have honored rodeo committees in each of the 12 circuits with the Justin Best Footing Awards.

The Justin Best Footing Awards® program was created when Tom Feller, director of event marketing for Justin Brands, approached the WPRA about partnering on a program that would focus on the health and well being of the animal athlete. Not only does the program keep animal athletes performing at the top level, but it also recognizes the hard work and time rodeo committees put into making their ground as safe as possible for the barrel horse and all rodeo livestock.

Rodeos across the country are continuing to step up and either provided a hand rake or a tractor drag halfway through during their performances. As a result, there continues to be arena records set with the improved ground conditions allowing the horsepower in the WPRA to run at an elite level.

This award is determined by votes by the WPRA membership and Circuit Directors and represents our members' voices saying "thank you" for a job well done. The WPRA recognizes the top three rodeo committees in all 12 circuits as well as the most improved ground committee in each circuit. Committee awards provided by Justin include cash bonuses (ranging from $350-$1,000), plaques and, at certain award levels, a pair of Justin exotic boots. In addition, names of each winner for each of the 12 circuits are put into a drawing for an addition $1,500 bonus from Justin. The following rodeo committees will be recognized at the WPRA Star Celebration in Las Vegas on Dec. 7 at the South Point Hotel and Casino.

Congratulations to the following rodeo committees being honored in 2023 and the WPRA thanks you for making your ground safe and consistent.

The following is a Facebook post shared by long time barrel racing industry professional Lee Hanssen as he sat at the record setting Pink Buckle Barrel Horse Sale. Thanks for sharing the perspective and story Lee!

Yesterday I sat in a horse sale where horses were selling for hundreds of thousands of dollars. It was thrilling to watch! As I was sitting there I found myself excited about the industry, and wanting to bring one of these horses to the market myself. Full of dreams I watched the rest of the sale.

And in the midst of all the excitement a girl came and sat down next to me. She pulled out her phone and said, "I wanted you to know I've been listening to your sermons. Actually I have listened to all of them." She showed me her playlist and sure enough she had listened to each and every one.

King David said, "delight yourself in the Lord and he will give you the desires of your heart." It was hard for a king, it's hard in this business, and it's hard in any business. Keeping what your heart really seeks in front of you is not an easy task.

Its never enough for me. While that sentence may not make sense standing alone, what I mean is nothing's ever enough. No matter how much we win, how much we have, what horses we raise, run, stand, etc. I always want more and better. That comes with both good and bad. It's why I have my drive, work ethic, and strive for excellence in all I do. Those are all parts of who God made me. But it also leads me down dark roads sometimes. I look around a lot. I get jealous, insecure, and when I'm at my worst I walk a line that goes against my hearts real desires.

But in that moment yesterday I felt a shift and I felt a different focus come to the forefront. Minutes earlier what I thought I wanted was to sell a horse for hundreds of thousands of dollars. Because that would prove my worth. That would show the industry I have truly arrived. But deep down I know that's not true because sooner or later that wouldn't be enough either.

And just like that I was reminded what I really want is to tell people about Jesus. What I really want is to point people to the gospel and remind them how deeply loved they are by our heavenly father. And oh my gosh do I have some work to do! So maybe I'll sell some horses, and maybe I won't. Maybe there will be more championships, and maybe there won't. And that's all fine. But my hope is that we would remember the deeper desires God has placed in our hearts in the midst of our hustle. And that our lives would be an echo and reflection of those desires.

(Disclaimer: There is absolutely nothing wrong with yesterdays events (Pink Buckle Barrel Horse Sale) and if that's what you read, you've missed the point of this post!)

happens. That's how change occurs.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We're just a few days away from winter. The calendar says Dec. 21st is the first day, but here in Wyoming, we beg to differ! By that date, we are already past pre-winter!

When my friend told me that it was 100 degrees in Tucson where she lives, I gasped! When someone tells me that they love living in the south because it's not cold, I laugh. Okay. So, in Wyoming, we go out and start the heaters in the vehicles for 3 months, or more. In the south, for three months, they go out and start the air conditioning. We stay in out of the cold, they stay in out of the heat. What's the difference? None. It's just what a person can get used to. But for both of us, it's just that... what we can tolerate.

But one thing we don't want to tolerate... is sin. Not in ourselves for sure. When we willingly sin, and make excuses for it, we are violating the love of God and His direction for us. If we excuse in ourselves what God says is sin, we will never learn, grow or change. That's pride.

The Bible tells us in Prov. 16:18-20 that pride goes before destruction. Pride is not teachable. And we will never reach the plan and purpose that God has for us! His plan is good! Jeremiah 29:11.

So, northern people, let's get ready. Let's praise God for what winter does for us... we don't have to clean bugs off our windshield!
