Barrington Dashing to a Heavenly Start for 2012

By Tanya Randall

Just 16 rodeos into the 2012 professional rodeo season, Bennette Barrington and JL Dash Ta Heaven have won a quarter of the rodeos and placed at two others to currently lead the WPRA World Standings with $9,108.74. Their recent victory came at the $5,000-added NILE Pro Rodeo, held Oct. 20-22 in Billings, Mont. At Billings, Barrington and JL Dash Ta Heaven turned in an impressive 13.96 to claim $3,053.30 of the $15,266.47 total purse.

"He just really made a nice run," said Barrington, whose winning streak includes wins at Texas rodeos in Henderson, Bellville and Seguin. "He ran in there real hard and worked his barrels really good, really honest. I was pleased with that because that was the smallest pen that I've ever ran him in."

Barrington's biggest concern was getting JL Dash Ta Heaven properly positioned for his turns, especially getting him moved over in time for the second barrel.

"If you don't get away from your first one properly that second barrel can be a nemesis for a lot of people; it goes down a lot," said the wife of leading barrel horse breeder and owner Jud Little. Another test for the 6-year-old royally-bred stallion was the concrete holding area.

"The thing about Billings is it can be a bit spooky sitting out there on the concrete before you go into the alleyway," she explained, "because you don't know if they're going to get excited when they open the gate and take off with you on the concrete. I was a little concerned because he hadn't been in that situation before but he handled it quiet well."

JL Dash Ta Heaven, a sorrel son of the all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of WPRA World Champion Dynas Plain Special, by Special Feelins, started his rodeo career as a 5-year-old with Jolene (Stewart) Montgomery after his victory at the Old Fort Days Derby. With Montgomery, he won the Fort Smith pro rodeo—a feat that he duplicated with Barrington this year—as well as the famed Dodge City Roundup in Kansas. Barrington took him last fall and placed with the stallion at Pendleton, Ore., with its daunting trek across the grass football field.

"He's been and seen quite a lot," said Barrington, who has both JL Dash Ta Heaven and Chicado Cash (Cash Not Credit x Chicado Flame, Flaming Jet) in her trailer as well as Charlene Long in the truck to help care for the two young stallions. "He hasn't been run a bunch at the rodeos indoors, but he's run a lot at the futurities and stuff like that indoors. He's made the transition exceptionally well, I think. He's a little rambunctious out back but he's very well mannered. When it's time to run, he's all business."

After spending the breeding season competing under the saddle of Ashley Nelson, who rode the stallion to an amazing arena record in the Jim Norick Coliseum at Oklahoma City during the BBR Finals, JL Dash Ta Heaven went on the road with Barrington until

"He got a little abscess under his ankle from hitting himself at Pendleton that got infected," she said, "so I was off of him for a little while getting him healed up from that."

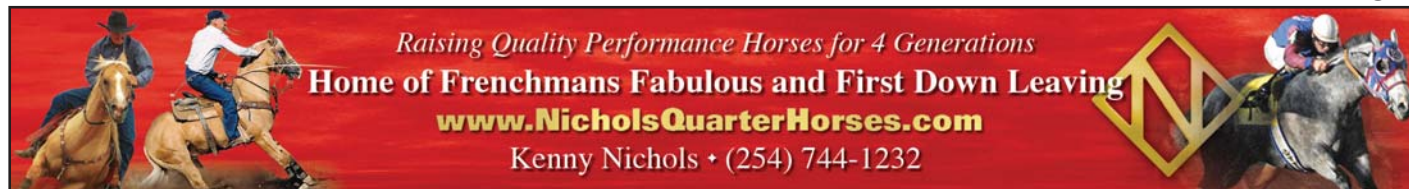

The injury couldn't have come at a worse time for Barrington, who was trying to make her second WNFR appearance. She had just lost the use of her main mount, Smooth My Credit, when the mare fractured her hock at the Ariat Playoffs in Puyallup, Wash., an arena that's

Pari-Mutuel Barrel Racing in Florida Moves a Step Closer

It is looking more and more likely that pari-mutuel barrel racing is going to happen in Florida. On October 19, the Florida Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering approved an application by Gretna Racing LLC to conduct pari-mutuel barrel racing at their facility 25 miles west of Tallahassee in Gretna, Florida. Their 40 race card meet is scheduled to begin December 1, 2011. This would be the first pari-mutuel barrel racing in Florida and perhaps the country.

Although receiving a letter of support from the WPRA, Gretna Racing's plan to bring pari-mutuel barrel racing to Florida has been opposed by several parties.

Despite opposition, it looks as though there will be pari-mutuel barrel racing in Florida starting December 1, 2011.

There is more information available about the pari-mutuel barrel racing at the North Florida Horseman's Association's Facebook page (just search North Florida Horseman's Association) and there are more articles about it at Bloodhorse.com (<http://www.bloodhorse.com/horse-racing/articles/65654/florida-oks-pari-mutuel-barrel-racing-meet#ixzz1bKm1sQm5>) and AQHA.com (<http://www.aqha.com/Racing/News-Articles/Florida-OKs-Pari-Mutuel-Barrel-Racing.aspx>).

Ihavepromises Tokeep, 1997-2011

Chuck, Mary and Jade Crago lost their great stud Ihavepromises Tokeep on July 19, 2011 due to a puncture and the infection caused by it. The stiking 1997 model sorrel son of First Down Dash, all time leading race sire, was out of the What Luck (TB) mare Lucks Gold.

During his racing career Ihavepromises Tokeep earned a 94 speed index and $21,029 while being the 2nd fastest qualifier to the Grade 1 Remington Park Futurity. After his race career, Ihavepromises Tokeep moved into a sire career, siring horse like Leaving Promises a barrel earner of over $30,000 and Mystical Promises (si 96) a graded stakes earner of $36,662.

Crago Performance Quarter Horses still has about 100 breedings of frozen semen and Ihavepromises Tokeep's colts are Future Fortunes eligible. The colts hitting the ground in 2012 and colts from breedings in 2012 and 2013 can be paid into Future Fortunes.

injured several barrel horses in recent years.

"She didn't have to have surgery and she will heal," Barrington was happy to report, "but I won't have her for this summer. So I've been riding a few others here. That's how I ended up on Chicados Cash. I had never even ridden him really before (the All American Finals in) Waco, and I was pleased with him there. Hopefully, I'll be able to utilize him some, but right now, I'm just trying to capitalize on the stallions while I can."

Next on tap for Barrington and JL Dash Ta Heaven will be rodeos in Kansas City and Shreveport, La. Afterwards, JL Dash Ta Heaven will compete at the AQHA World Show and attend some breeding obligations.

"He was entered in the Congress and BFA," said Barrington, "but Jud rearranged his schedule. He's proven himself at the futurities and derbies, and Jud wants him to excel at the rodeos. That's kind of our mission at the moment. He'll go to the World Show and have some time off after that. He has to be collected at an USDA approved facility and have his semen tested to be shipped internationally, so we'll have to find time to do that as well."

JL Dash Ta Heaven is booked full for 2012, so Barrington is unsure how many winter building rodeos she'll be able to use him. Chicados Cash also has a pretty good book so how available he will be is also in question.

Barrington explained, "They start breeding season the first of February and goes through the end of May, I believe. I know this year, they were hauling (JL Dash Ta Heaven) back and forth during the BBR Finals and Fort Smith to be collected in the morning. He does have a full book this year besides Jud's horses, so we'll just have to play it by ear. I don't know if I'll get to use him in the building rodeos this winter—Houston and Austin might be a bit shaky, but I'll get to use him at Odessa and Denver."

The career of JL Dash Ta Heaven has been nothing short of amazing.

"He's done really well with the three of us," said Barrington referring to Montgomery, Nelson and herself. "To me that says a lot for his training with Jolene, it says a lot of Ashley to be able to step up on him, and it says a lot for the horse. He's an exceptional individual. Jud always says, 'Well of course he is Benette, I designed him!'"

THE RUNDOWN: VAUNA WALKER

HORSE: Two Dash To Fame "Gypsy"

Black Mare, 8 Years Old, 15.3 hands, 1250 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: She was a really successful futurity horse in 2008. She won 8 or 9 of the 14 futurities she went to. I have never had a horse that won that many futurities. We just got in a groove. She won the XL Enterprises Champion 5 year old, won a trailer.

She's pretty hot so her first year going to rodeos was tough because of all the noise. She was used to running inside so the outdoor rodeos were a challenge for awhile. Now she seems like she's ready to go to more rodeos. She has leveled out this year, we have made a few changes with the bit and such but the biggest thing is she has just settled down and has grown up this year. She won an outdoor rodeo (Grace, ID) this year and that was a milestone for us. She won about $80k her futurity year about $150k for her lifetime total.

BIT: Ed Wright Long Shank Combo Bit

HEADGER: I warm up her up with a tiedown and split reins but I run her with no tiedown.

SADDLE: Double J Saddlery Pozzi Pro Barrel Saddle

PAD: 5 Star Wool Pad

LEG GEAR: SMB III, she will tear up the top of her back boots so she needs protection

GRAIN: Purina Ultium, she used to tie up so she got switched to Ultium

SUPPLEMENTS: Handful of rice bran, pour corn oil over the grain

HAY: Grass Hay free choice and a tiny bit of Alfalfa/Grass mix at night

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: Wears a light weight rim (for shoes) but nothing special other than that.

TELL US ABOUT THE TRANSITION FROM FUTURITIES TO RODEOS:

At first with her I did better indoors at the rodeos because it was similar to what she was used to. She always ran really good fresh at the futurities but we found that at rodeos she can't be that fresh so I ride her everyday to prepare her for a rodeo. Now, if I am going to a smaller indoor set up I will let her be a little fresher. I started by taking her to some rodeos and just not even running her, just take her their, ride her and tie her to the trailer so she can listen to the noise. She was so talented I expected to just go into rodeos and have quick success but it has taken a while, this year I am a lot happier with where she is at.

TIPS FOR BARREL RACERS WITH NOISE SENSITIVE HORSES: It has always been important to me to have our horses in top condition and look like they stepped out of a racehorse barn. We found when we get to rodeos the horses were ridden down more and more in their working clothes and not as fresh as horses at futurities are most of the time. At rodeos you really don't need the horse to go as fast as they can, the horse has to be calm and have a good clean run. I have found as the horses get older they get more stamina, so we don't need to keep them as fresh. At futurities we found we really need to have them fresh to make it through 3 weekends in a row but once they are older they have more stamina they don't have to be as fresh to make it through the rodeos.

THANK YOU: I have went down to the Bosen Race the last 3 years and they work really hard to put on a good race. I really appreciate all the work to put on such a nice race that has such great ground.

HORSE: Banjo Be Quick "Boogie"

Brown Gelding, 4 Years Old, 15 hands, 1100 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: I got him in August of 2010 straight off the track. His owner came up to me in the feed store and asked if I was a barrel racer. I told him I was just getting back into barrel racing. He told me this was a special horse and I needed to come look at him. My Dad and I went to look him and my Dad said I needed to buy him. I rode him bareback with a halter the second day I rode him. I did everything on him. Rode him on the ranch, branded calves and rode him in the desert. I have been taking him to barrel races and doing time onlys until after the first of the year. I took him to the Idaho Barrel Futurity and he didn't work there very well but lately he has been working very nice. He just really likes the pen at Ogden. He just really loves to run barrels and work. I have probably won around $6k on him so far.

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: I use a magnetic blanket on him when I am hauling him and after I run. No special shoeing. I use a liniment oil to rub down his legs and wrap him after I run but that's about it.

WHAT IS IT LIKE COMING BACK TO BARREL RACING: I barrel raced in junior rodeos and high school rodeo. Then I lived in Boise, ID and played city girl for 10 years and didn't run barrels. I just moved back home (Carey, ID) in March 2010. My Dad had a rope horse that I thought had good potential so I started him on the barrels. I talked to a friend about barrel racing and she talked me into going to a race in June 2010. I have just craved it ever since. I am so competitive, it really drives me. I am driven to make my own horses and get them to their potential. There is nothing like the thrill of victory when you have made your own horse. That's what I am after!

TIPS FOR BARREL RACERS WITH NOISE SENSITIVE HORSES: It t

BIGGEST CHALLENGES OF BARREL RACING: Probably the head game, because I am kind of new to the game and there is a lot of tough competition which can be overwhelming. I have worked to change my mental attitude and overcome the challenges. Now that I have done well, I have the confidence, drive and attitude that it takes mentally to compete and win.

Turn.Burn.Cure.2011 Perseveres Despite Challenges

Turn N Burn for the Cure
October 8, 2011, Derby, KS

Despite some bad luck, Turn.Burn.Cure.2011 was a success!! The 3rd annual event was held Saturday October 8th at Mattox Arena in Derby, Kansas.

The fundraiser for The American Cancer Society Relay for Life, had a great turn out, with 255 entered in the open. Unfortunately, an area wide power outage forced the race to be called after 209 runs, a disappointment for those not able to run in honor of their loved ones and to take a shot at the great prizes donated by our sponsors: Double J Saddlery, Classic Equine, Cerner, Raupe Sales Company, EquiMag Products, B&B Photography, Infinite Effect Productions, Flaharty Bits and Spurs, Equine Hoof Specialists, and more (for a complete list please see www.turnburncure.com)!

We were blessed to have Mike Ramsey, professional rodeo announcer, as well as a special appearance by recording artist, Nicole Johnson (www.nicholejohnsonmusic.com), who sang "Dear God," a meaningful and moving song that brought many in the building to tears. It was a great day full of top notch barrel racing and celebration of our family and friends that have been affected by cancer. Check the www.turnburncure.com for full results, photos, fundraising totals and links for this year's event, as well as updates for Turn.Burn.Cure.2012!

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I want to encourage you with a funny story! We have an enemy and he comes at us all. BUT, we have a GREAT GOD and HE ALWAYS DELIVERS! HE NEVER LEAVES US OR FORSAKES US! HE ALWAYS CAUSES US TO TRIUMPH 2 COR. 2:14

There was an ant hill in the path to a river. One day an elephant headed down to the river and walked over this ant hill. Ants being ants quickly rebuilt their hill. But the next day here comes the elephant and gain destroyed their hill. They rebuilt. The elephant came. This went on for several days. Finally the ants had a meeting. They had to do something about this elephant. They decided that when he came down to the river the next day, they would all get up in the trees and jump on him and sting him to death. Early the next morning, sure enough, her came the elephant and just before he got to their hill, they jumped on him and began stinging him! The elephant ran to the river, filled his trunk with water and sprayed himself, sending the ants everywhere! But one ant was left, right under the elephants' chin and all the other ants started yelling "CHOKe HIM!! CHOKe HIM!!"

You know. This is very funny! And much can be gotten from it. Sometimes in our life, our problems look elephant size. Compared to God though, they are really only ant size. Or you can look at it from a different standpoint and see that when you are a winner with an overcoming attitude, no problem is too big. And then there is the view that, people may all be together on a problem, but still don't mind yelling for YOU to get the job done while they watch!!!

God loves us! He doesn't mind looking at our situation from lots of angles. The bottom line with God is that He is always on our side. He has the answer or way for us to overcome whatever is challenging us. Our only job is to stay focused on Him. Read the Bible. Walk in love. If we do, all the elephants in our lives will be choked out! And that's really good news!
