Kellie Collier & Streakin Easy April Pocket $7,125 in WPRA World Finals Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

Hereford, Texas, barrel racer Kellie Collier and her talented mare Streakin Easy April ("Lolo") had a very good WPRA World Finals, leaving the Waco, Texas, event $11,366 richer. Their largest check was $7,125—the winner's share—of the $14,250 Slot Race.

"Oh man! That was fun!" she exclaimed. "I had already run two times on my little mare. I ran two 15.1s and I went into the Slot Race just trying to make a smooth, clean run. I knew there was only six entered. If I was clean on her, I would be fast enough.

"Of course, it's a slot race and the music gets loud and everybody gets a little more hyped up, so I was a little hyped up too and so was she. It was a perfect run. I couldn't have made a better run. I knew when I turned the third barrel she was going to win it because she was running so hard. It was such a good run...I just knew."

Lolo joined the Collier household in June 2015. Bred by Lisa Fulton, Lolo, an 8-year-old mare, is by leading barrel horse sire A Streak Of Fling and out of Easy April Lena, by Doc O Dynamite. Easy April Lena is a full sister to Rachael Myllymaki's National Finals Rodeo qualifier and National High School Finals Rodeo Champion Easy Does It Doc. Lolo, herself, gained NFR experience as Carlee Pierce's main mount at the 2014 NFR when she was just 6.

After spending the summer of 2015 getting with the mare, Collier started out strong in 2016, but struggled some during the summer. Collier still finished 23rd in the WPRA World Standings with $48,144.

"This last winter was great," she said. "We won a lot and it was really fun. Then summer came around and it was all me...I wasn't riding my best. I was overriding her and not giving her a chance. So, we gave her a break—gave myself a break—a couple of months before the WPRA Finals. My mom—she's my biggest coach—said just ride right. Focus on riding right and everything else will fall into place. If that didn't make a big difference, I don't know what did because she worked amazing. I feel like we're back. We're back together and I know how to ride her again."

Collier added $3,335 to her 2017 WPRA earnings by finishing fifth in the WPRA Cardholder's Race.

"I was sitting 2nd in the average going into the short go," she explained. She had finished fifth in the first go and ninth in the second go with runs of 15.160 and 15.185, respectively. "Then in the short go, horses six through 10 were running—I was No. 9—and three of those five horses fell on the third barrel, so they let us re-run and I was a 15.3."

Collier wanted to thank her sponsors CSI Pads, Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals and BioMane as well as her mother Kathleen, whom Collier said, "She's my best coach and my biggest fan. She keeps me going."

Lolo will get another break until the winter rodeos start up with the Sandhill Stock Show & Rodeo in Odessa, Texas, in January. In the meanwhile, Collier will work on getting with Lolo's new backup, VF Mr Ed, a 5-year-old gelding by Eddie Stinson that's a half-brother to Mary Burger's 2006 WPRA World Champion Rare Fred. Collier recently purchased the gelding from Kelsey Deal Knight.

Canadian Finals Rodeo Set to Stay in Edmonton Through 2018

Northlands in partnership with the Canadian Professional Rodeo Association is proud to announce that the 43rd Annual Canadian Finals Rodeo (CFR) will not be the last in Edmonton. The cowboys will hang their hats and rest their boots in city hotels for two more years.

"Northlands has a rich history with rodeo," said Tim Reid, President and CEO for Northlands. "To ensure we keep that history alive for Edmontonians and Northern Alberta it is key to our organization and we are immensely proud to see the CFR in Edmonton through to 2018. The economic impact when you combine CFR and Farmfair International is $50 million to our city. These two events put heads in beds; seats in restaurants and action in our streets. It is a great time to be in the Capital region and we look forward to showcasing the western lifestyle to all of our guests."

"Northlands has been our partner in the CFR for 43 years and we are proud to continue the tradition," said Jeff Robson with the Canadian Pro Rodeo Association. "This partnership allows us the opportunity to build a bigger, better CFR and surrounding events for the city."

Tanner honored as 2016 Veterinarian of the Year

For his dedication and service to rodeo livestock, Dr. Marty Tanner has been selected as the 2016 Zoetis PRCA Veterinarian of the Year. Tanner will be honored at the PRCA Awards Banquet Nov. 30 at the South Point Hotel, Casino & Spa in Las Vegas.

Nomination letters praising Dr. Tanner were received from ProRodeo Hall of Famers Phil Lyne and Joe Beaver; Shawn Davis, Executive General Manager of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo presented by Polaris RANGER; numerous rodeo contestants; and community dignitaries. These letters spoke of Dr. Tanner's dedication to the welfare and treatment of rodeo livestock, his community involvement, and commitment to the sport of rodeo. Numerous letters spoke of the individual care and attention offered by Dr. Tanner, despite his busy schedule and clinic responsibilities. Several world champions attribute their success, in part, to Dr. Tanner and his understanding of keeping equine athletes competing at the highest level.

Other finalists for the 2016 award were Dr. Benjamin Espy, San Antonio, Texas; Dr. Troy Ford, Clovis, Calif.; Dr. Michael Harms, Canby, Ore.; and Dr. Edward Taylor, Laporte, Colo. The Zoetis PRCA Veterinarian of the Year Award was created in 2010 to recognize the dedication of veterinarians across North America to the health and welfare of rodeo livestock. PRCA rodeo committees, PRCA members and contestants have the opportunity to nominate a veterinarian whom they feel has shown an extraordinary commitment to the health and welfare of rodeo livestock, and is deserving of this prestigious award. The selection committee reviews those nominations for specific contributions to the health and welfare of rodeo livestock, extent of involvement in the sport of rodeo and community involvement.

Margo Crowther & Shes Packin Fame Double Dip at WPRA World Finals, Win Futurity & Cardholders Race

By Tanya Randall

No one had a bigger WPRA World Finals than Margo Crowther of Fort Myers, Fla. The barrel racer and mother of two young children topped the Cardholders Race and Futurity aboard her 4-year-old superstar Shes Packin Fame (“Sissy”).

“It was really awesome, really fun! I wasn’t expecting it at all!” said Crowther, who pocketed $14,475 at the Waco, Texas, event.

A cardmember since 2006, Crowther—then Peters—was making a run for the National Finals Rodeo in 2008 when tragedy struck her beloved mare Lexus.

“I won about $30,000 on her,” she recalled. “I did well at Austin and rodeos like that. I was entered up for all the Fourth of July rodeos over Cowboy Christmas. I was sitting 20th and making the Texas Circuit Finals. I had a driver and was going to go for it. She ended up dying on July 5. She caught salmonella.”

Crowther returned to Stephenville, Texas, where she graduated from Tarleton State University, packed up her house and returned to Fort Myers, where she met her husband Casey and started a family. The couple has two children—Sawyer, 6, and Stella, 4.

“When I started to get back in it, my husband said we can’t afford to buy you a rodeo horse,” she laughed. “You’re going to have to make your own, so that’s how we got into the futurity horses.”

Crowther had several nice futurity horses but none like Sissy. Bred by Frank Moore, Sissy is by his Dash Ta Fame, Sail On Bunny stallion Carrizzo out of Heidis Dashing Sixes, a daughter of the late leading barrel horse sire Packin Sixes.

“I was at Craig Brooks’ house,” she recalled. “He had her and I was up there riding colts with him for a few days. He was shoeing her and I said, ‘What is this horse?’ He said he thought she was JJ’s

Crowther had owned JJs Famous Sixes a few years back. Although the gelding was outshined by his barn mate Hottest Chickin Town that year at the futurities, JJ was one of Crowther’s favorites before she sold him.

"I went home and couldn't stop thinking about her," she added. "I loved JJ and she was a sorrel mare that looked just like Lexus. I couldn't stop talking about her to my husband. At that time, we already had five three-year-olds for that year, maybe six. Finally, I got my husband to let me ask about her."

When it came time to start entering the futurities, the Crowthers were unsure how solid the mare was. She had a lot of time off due to feet issues, caused by wet weather, so they didn't pay her into the BFA Juvenile in December. Instead, they chose to go to the Kindergarten Futurity, which was much closer to home.

"We came to the Kindergarten Futurity and she won that futurity," said Crowther. "Everybody couldn't believe she wasn't entered in the (BFA) Juvenile. We just didn't know. She's just really been solid from day one."

Sissy is currently one of the leading horses in the Barrel Futurities of America's Standings, having placed at nearly every futurity she'd entered. Ironically, the Crowthers made the trip to Waco not for the Futurity, but for the Cardholders Race.

She didn't decide enter the WPRA World Finals until October 2. The entry deadline was October 3. It was her husband that pointed out that the money won the Cardholders Race counted toward the 2017 WPRA World Standings, and it would give her a chance to win enough money to help her get into some of the winter rodeos. Entering the futurity was just a bonus.

This year, the WPRA allowed contestants to carryover their times from the Cardholder Race to the Futurity or Derby if they were riding an appropriately aged and eligible horse. There was a separate draw and race for horses just entered in the Futurity. With the Cardholder Race being two runs and a short, futurity carryovers had their first run in the Cardholders Race count toward the first round of the futurity. However, with the second round of the futurity scheduled for Sunday, the only riders eligible to carryover their times from the Cardholders Race were those in the top 30 coming back to the short go. Those that failed to make the short were added to the Futurity draw on Sunday so they all ran on the same day.

Crowther was a little hesitant on her first run because a bad fall at the first barrel during the American Qualifier in Ardmore, Okla., was still weighing on her mind.

"I was really nervous about sending her in there, without her feeling the ground," she explained. "My first go was really good; it was 15.2. I didn't know how setty she'd be. She's not a setty horse, but when the barrels are on the fence she'll kind of look. Anyway, I was super happy with that run. It was a nice clean run."

Crowther's second run on the weekend was in the second round of the Cardholders Race on Saturday.

"The second go I was able to have the confidence to really push her and feel confident that she was going to be able to handle the ground. With her being 4, she's still learning how to handle the ground. She ran an .0 and I was super happy. I had a bobble or two, so I was happy to know there were areas with room for improvement."

In the Short Go, Crowther was the very last rider out.

"In the short go I knew I had to go for it," she said. "We were all pretty tight. Tiany (Shuster) was ahead of the field, so I knew I had to be really fast to win the average. It was fun. She worked so good. I couldn't have been happier with how she worked. I feel like I took out a little insurance at the second barrel. She doesn't need a lot of room at all at her barrels and going to the second I moved her out a little, just so I didn't hit. It was a good run. It was really exciting."

The Futurity victory was worth $4,970, while the Cardholders win add $7,311 to the $1,117 she won the weekend before when Sissy won the Arcadia, Fla., pro rodeo.

"When I first saw the draw I was a little intimidated, but now it's exciting to know that I have the horsepower to compete!" she said. "My mare now reminds me so much of Lexus. The crazy thing is I haven't been to Waco since 2008, and this whole weekend I kept calling my mare Lexus. I had never done that before. It was the strangest thing. It was like déjà vu, or something. She's just been a great horse."

Crowther wanted to give a shout out to Craig Brooks and Nicole Monroe for all their help with her futurity horses and the all the

MT Barrel Daze Pays Out Over $101,000 in Cash

Courtesy of MT Barrel Daze, Lana Tibbetts

Barclay Construction and Copper Spring Ranch presented the 2016 Montana Barrel Daze/ American Qualifier, BBR Territorial Finals, Oct 22 & 23. With $36,500 in added money and incentives, it was a smashing success with beautiful weather. Paying out over $101,000 in cash, close to 700 runs by barrel racers from across the United States congregated at the beautiful Cottonwood Equestrian Center in Silesia, MT. American Legion Prairie Post #32 Terry, MT decorated the arena with their Amazing American Flags, and Copper Spring Ranch added red/white/blue flowers and bunting to set the stage for the exciting event.

The Better Barrel Races (BBR) added a $10,000 5D members only sidepot and $10,000 in Select Stallions. Winning the Saturday Open 5D was Callahan Crossley, OR aboard Brownie Bi Bogie, 14.655 for $$1,044. Sat WPRA sidepot was won by Amanda Harris, SD aboard Frenchmans Fire Fly, 14.760 for $354.90. The WPRA Permit race winner was Brooke Hirschy running a 15.26 riding Streaker for $204. Senior sidepot winner was Lynn Kohr with a 15.05 riding Dashinwithafrenchman. Sat Treasure State futurity sidepot winner was Jessica Routier, SD riding Fiery Miss West, 15.036 for $342. Sat youth and BBR sidepot winner was Brooke Wilson riding RBR Bobcat, 14.748 for $237 and $576.

With the American Qualifiers rolling their times, Amanda Harris won an additional $1,032 for 1st in the Open 5D, 1st BBR sidepot for $559 and WPRA for $364 for a weekend total of $5,414 for the SD cowgirl. The Permit winner was Kelsey Robinson aboard Always The Way with a smoking time of 14.93 for $204. The Senior sidepot was won by Tami Jo Martin, MN aboard ZS Smashed, 15.164 for $201. Treasure State futurity winner was Kali Jo Parker, on My Royal Lydia, 14.853 for $333. Sun youth winner was Paizley Guthrie, ID riding Scary Dreams, 14.869 for $233.

Top 10 Qualifiers each received Horse Coolers donated by Classic Equine, vests from Plains Horizon Equine Insurance, MVP gift certificates for product and beanies from Barrel Daze. Event All Access was on site for a live webcast on their site and Barrel Horse World, also providing footage to RFD TV. Interval timing broke down the pattern into the various time segments. Olies Images photography was on hand for fantastic pictures.

A Special thanks to the Better Barrel Racing Association for choosing our event to be part of RFD TV the American presented by Polaris Ranger. It takes a Team, thank you to Ross & Casey Wagner, Carrie Parker, June Tibbetts, Lisa Heiser, Nic Erickson, Cody Hering, Tana Counts and Tisha Dolatta. # Amanda Harris & Frenchman Fire Fly Top American Qualifier at Montana Barrel Daze

By Tanya Randall

Winning the Semifinals Qualifier for RFD-TV's The American at the Montana Barrel Daze in Silesia, Mont., aboard Frenchman Fire Fly meant a lot to Amanda Harris of Spearfish, S.D. It wasn't just a personal victory. It was a family victory.

Fire Fly, a 6-year-old sorrel gelding by the Frenchmans Guy grandson Frosty Frenchman out of Princess Bar Dash, by Hot Dasher, was bred, raised and trained by Harris's father Bob Welsh.

"It's a pretty special deal that Dad owned both the sire and the dam," said Harris, who rodeoed on both Frosty Frenchman and Princess Bar Dasher. "It's a great feeling. My dad's worked really hard for it. He put a lot of time into Fire Fly. It's really good for me to be able to jump on Fire Fly and show the industry what he can do too."

Harris and Fire Fly won the Qualifier by nearly 2/10ths to win $1,875.

"Sunday morning, I think he fed off of my energy," said the 28-year-old barrel horse trainer and mother. "As soon as I stepped on him, I could tell he was ready to go. When he took off down the alleyway, he kind of took the reins from me. I let him go. He was running really hard to first, but I knew he'd lock on to it. I had run him the day before so he'd been in there once before. That momentum kept up through the whole run. It was really quick. It was probably the nicest run I'd ever made on him."

Fire Fly was started by Harris's dad as a 4-year-old, and he was hauled to jackpots off and on as a 5-year-old. After the NWBR Finals in Gillette, Wyo., last fall, Welsh sent the gelding home with his daughter.

"He thought he had a little more potential," Harris related. "So, he stuck him in my trailer and I started hauling him. I took him to his first rodeo in February at the Black Hills Stock Show. I was little nervous because he'd never been to something like that and we were up Saturday night. It was packed and loud. My backup horse had been to a few rodeos and I almost chickened out and didn't run Fire Fly. My dad just told me to trust him and we'd be alright. He placed eighth there against some really tough horses and it kind of dawned on me that it didn't really matter where we were at he just wanted to go do his job. He became my No. 1."

Fire Fly did well enough at the rodeos to qualify Harris for the Badlands Circuit Finals. With her qualification to RFD-TV's The American Semifinals Rodeo, Fire Fly will likely see more rodeo action outside his circuit in 2017.

"As long as he keeps working, I'll enter some rodeos," she said. "I want to keep him fresh the Semifinals, but keep him firing like he is. With him still being a little young, I don't want to wear him out. But, I do plan on going to some winter rodeos down that way anyways."

Harris wanted to thank the rehab center, Famous Equine in Piedmont, S.D., for helping get Fire Fly back into shape this fall.

"He got sore this summer and had to have two months off," she said. "The month of September they swam him and got him back into shape for me, so I could take him to Circuit Finals. Without them he wouldn't be in the condition that he is right now." She also wanted to thank her family and friends.

"They've been my rock," she said. "They encouraged me to step

Nowlin & Miller Punch Tickets to Florida

By Hope Sickler

The Prairie Circuit Finals were held this weekend in Duncan, Oklahoma and the competition was fierce. The top 12 of the best barrel racers in the Kansas/Oklahoma circuit showed up to give their best fight to hopefully get the chance to make the trek to Florida for the Ram National Circuit Finals in March.

When the dust settled and the times were totaled, two barrel racers came out on top; Tracy Nowlin and Emily Miller.

Nowata, Oklahoma cowgirl Nowlin had a “pretty dang good season” she explained when asked about the highs and lows of her 2016 rodeo season.

“I can’t really think of any lows this past season. Everything went well and “Dolly Jo” really tried hard all season. We won Abbeville, Pretty Prairie, Manhattan for the second time, Elk City. Besides a week where I drew up bad in the mud, my season was excellent,” Nowlin said.

“Dolly Jo” as she affectionately calls petite 14.2 hand mare is registered as DJG Madison and is the 10 year old daughter of Royal Blue Chew Chew and out of Run Madison by Sunset Six. Nowlin bought the mare off of Facebook for her son as a calf horse but fate had other ideas.

“Once we got her home and roped some calves on her, I decided to take her around the pattern just for fun. She took to the barrels immediately and absolutely loved them. I think that is half of what makes her such a great barrel horse; she truly enjoys her job.”

Nowlin, who has been riding since she was 2-years-old grew up in a rodeo family and credits her family for her success because without their support, she wouldn’t be where she is today.

“I have the best support system. My mom Beverly always goes with me and so does my 16-year-old son, Ty. It is a family affair and I am so incredibly grateful for their love and constant support,” said Nowlin.

Nowlin started the circuit finals placing 4th with a 16.19 in the first round. Kyra Stierwalt won the round with a 15.97, the only sub-16-second run of the weekend.

“She smoked the first and second barrel and then going to the third barrel she overreached and lost her footing. I thought she was going to go down. We were all shocked that she still clocked as good as she did with such a nasty stumble.”

With a flawless run in round 2, Nowlin and “Dolly Jo” won the round with a 16.03.

“Our second run was much better. It was a nice, smooth run. She worked terrific.”

Going into the final round, Nowlin told herself to let “Dolly Jo” work and to not get into her way.

“I kept telling myself just let her work and whatever you do, do not hit a barrel! I kicked her one extra step going to the third barrel and we got by it a smidge but we still placed second behind Gretchen (Benbenek),” Nowlin explained.

That run secured Nowlin the average championship and she is grateful for the committee at the circuit finals for putting on such a great show.

“The committee did great. It was very well ran and they took great care of the ground. I think I speak for all of us barrel racers when I say how thankful I am for that.”

homa but that didn’t slow her down from qualifying for the Prairie Circuit Finals and again, securing a spot in Florida representing the Prairie Circuit as the Year End Barrel Racing Champion.

Miller may have started at the end of May but she started it off with a huge bang. She won Claremore the end of May and then a few weeks later won Garden City, Ponca City, Gladewater and was 3rd at Weatherford, all aboard her great gelding Namgis D “Pipewrench”.

“Pipewrench” is the 6-year-old son of Bucks Hancock Dude and out of Central Station by First Down Dash.

“Pipewrench is just amazing athlete and I owe so much to him. I am very blessed to have him in my string,” explained Miller.

Going into the circuit finals, Miller’s plan was to stay solid and not hit any barrels. Over the past 3 years, Miller would win a round at the circuit finals but then unfortunately always hit a barrel over the next 2 rounds. This year she wanted to try and make a run at an average check.

“I am very pleased with how the circuit finals went. I finished second in the average which was a huge goal of mine going into the Finals. Pipewrench was amazing all 3 rounds. He was super honest and let me handle him, even with the barrels so close to the fence, he never got tight on me.”

Miller and “Pipewrench” ran the second fastest time of the circuit finals, a 15.99 in the first round to finish second behind Stierwalt's 15.97 run.

Last year, Miller had the opportunity to go to the Ram National Circuit Finals but didn't know until only a few days' notice before the finals started.

"I didn't have a game plan going into the finals (RNCFR) last year so I didn't have a game plan other than to enjoy the experience. This year since I know ahead of time that I am going, the only change that I feel like I will make is that my horse is more prepared, physically, than he was last year. He liked that pen so I just need to let him do what he does best and enjoy the ride."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

In the last several months, there has been such an onslaught of shocking news events, that some people are getting discouraged. I mean, really, just how much nonsense can a person watch, where politics are concerned, and NOT feel bad? Or hurricanes? Or ISIS? Or anything else the news brings into our homes on a daily basis?

In Matt. 24:4-6 it says, "And Jesus answered unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet."

You cannot look at what the devil is doing in HIS world and expect to see what God is doing in HIS! So. Do this for me. Please. Look up the rest of the scriptures below and read them and read them and read them! Your heart and mind will be so encouraged!

- Phil. 4:6...Don't worry about anything....
- Phil. 4:13...I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me...

- Phil. 4:19...And my God shall supply all your need....
- Col. 3:2...Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth..
- I Thess. 5:14-19....(This is all VERY good)
- I Jn. 5:14-15....if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us....

These things and so much more are what's happening in God's world! Good, good things! Let's spend time with Him, in His Word and get refreshed!

AND GO VOTE!!!!
