Kelly Bowser Captures First Congress Sweepstakes Championship with Homebred Ziggy Zoomba

By Tanya Randall

Ohio native Kelly Bowser is a lifelong competitor at the All American Quarter Horse Congress, held each October in Columbus. In those 40-plus years, he's made the Finals of the $25,000-added Barrel Racing Sweepstakes numerous times but never captured the championship until this year.

"He's made the (Sweepstakes) Finals many, many times on personal and customer horses and never won," related Danielle Bowser, via Facebook messenger. She and Kelly were headed for a little sun and surf before winter takes residence at the Swanton, Ohio, home. "This was so special to us—Kelly and I are getting older and starting to count the runs we have left. It was so special to win it on this horse—our horse that we dreamed into life."

Kelly and his homebred mount, Ziggy Zoomba, entered into a speed duel with Troy Crumrine and Slick Lane Ta Fame ("Beyonce"), owned by Nancy Adkins, and came out on top by a margin of .04 on two runs.

The format for the Sweepstakes is two qualifying rounds with the fastest times advancing to a short round, or Final. The winner is determined by the best composite time between the fastest qualifying run plus the Final.

The first round for Kelly and Ziggy did not go well. Ziggy got past the first and then came back on top of it. The barrel ended up underneath him and cut his gaskin.

"The first run was a disaster," Danielle wrote. "Our friends Kelly Joyce and Paige Shock were great about doing BEMER treatments for Ziggy to help him while we were there. It really helped his leg."

Their second run was their only chance of making the Finals. They finished third with a 14.715.

"The second run was a little wild," Danielle noted. "The Top Three were very tight so we knew the finals would be a knife fight."

In the short, Kelly and Ziggy were draw No. 18, while Troy and Beyonce were No. 19.

"Kelly put the pressure to Troy in the Final go," Danielle said. "Kelly knew he had the horse. He knew he had to go clean and fast."

The two finished one-two, with times of 14.645 and 14.724, which was just enough for Kelly to take the win and pocket $8,766.

Ziggy, who was bred in Danielle's name, is a 9-year-old gelding by all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of Cash N Charm, a daughter of Cash N Balance that Danielle brought with her when she moved from Canada.

"We're both imports," she laughed. "She's a multiple time Sweepstakes finalist and the 2002 Congress Senior Barrels Reserve Champion."

She also noted that Ziggy has his own fan club.

"I love it. People ask when Ziggy is running, not Kelly or me!" she laughed.

Ziggy is also a West Nile Virus survivor.

"Two years ago, the day before Congress started, we rushed Ziggy to Ohio State University," Danielle recalled. "He was suddenly unable to walk or see."

Ziggy was placed in a rubber padded stall to absorb the impact of his spins and falls. Miraculously, he went home after seven days at OSU.

"We rehabbed him slowly and with a good natural diet, he has never gone backward," she said.

Ziggy's sister wasn't so lucky. They lost her a year later to laminitis complications from Potomac Horse Fever. They now vaccinate for the two diseases twice a year.

The Bowsers wanted to thank their three "special" sponsors: John Dowdy with Equinety, Shaun Sandoval with 3S Custom Equine and Erica Gons with NeutraBac pH.

Kacey Gartner & Cheyenne Allan Repeat as Columbia River Champions

By Tanya Randall

Second verse, same as the first.

Defending Columbia River Circuit Champions Kacey Gartner and Cheyenne Allan held onto their respective titles at the conclusion of the Columbia River Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 20-22 in Redmond, Oregon.

Gartner and her 10-year-old mare Rebel Look ("Mercedes") topped the aggregate for their second straight Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship. They were third in the first round, fourth in the second and blew the field away with the only sub-15 run of the rodeo to win the third round. The title was worth $6,411.

"My first two there were just some mistakes," said Gartner, a hairstylist from the Walla Walla, Washington, area. "I was actually surprised she clocked with the mistakes that were being made. She was just really pushy and wanting to work but not willing to let me help where I needed. I was trying to get her past barrels where she was stepping in on me a little early, which cost me time on the back side."

Before the third round, Gartner had called her daughter and asked her to bring a specific bit from home.

"I knew I needed to change something up," she explained. "She was clocking, making mistakes, but I knew if I could just correct those it would just get better. We did a bit change for the last go and gosh, it worked!"

Gartner switched from her regular junior cowhorse to a shanked Elliot lifter with a three-piece, roller mouthpiece.

"She doesn't need a whole lot," Gartner said. "I just needed a little more shape going into my barrels. Running in that hard and fast to the fences, I just needed some shape to get her hip by. I knew once I could do that, it was going to be good."

The victory allows Gartner, who finished second in the year-end standings with $27,854 won in the circuit, to return to the NFR Open in Colorado Springs.

"I'm hoping the money I won this weekend will help me get into Denver," Gartner said. "My whole goal is to get into that winter run, into those buildings. I know if I can get into those buildings, she'll do great."

If Denver doesn't work out, Gartner said she'll look at some of the Canadian rodeos.

"I'm just trying to figure out how to get my foot in that door because I'd like to start the winter off and see where that road will take us with going to the NFR Open," she said. "With the good money there, it would be pretty exciting if I could make that work. We're just going to have to see where the road takes us." Mercedes is a homegrown superstar. She is by the Gleason's late Strawfly Special stallion JD Look, out of Jo Jos Dasher, by Twaynas Dash. Gartner also graciously shares the mare with her daughter Paige, who will run her at the youth rodeo events in Las Vegas during the NFR.

Gartner wanted to thank her family and her husband Chance, who actually bought her WPRA card for her when Mercedes started showing so much promise several years ago.

"All my extended family are all so supportive," she said. "They're always there for me, helping. My family and clients at the salon have been so understanding and supportive of me, just allowing me to take time out of my work life to go pursue my dream."

The best thing that happened to Gartner in Redmond, Oregon, happened outside of the arena, however.

"The coolest thing about this weekend is I got baptized on Saturday afternoon before the rodeo," said Gartner. "It was pretty cool. I always want to give the Glory to God."

Cheyenne Allan captured her third year-end circuit championship with $36,738. She also finished 24th the 2022 WPRA World Standings, thanks in part to her NFR Open Championship.

After winning the NFR Open, Allan said things really started to "click" for her and RCA Royal Flush ("Three"). The 9-yearold homebred gelding is by Not A Bad Deal out of In Honor Of Sandy, by In Honor Of Leo.

"It just gave us a lift," the Mabton, Washington, barrel racer said. "Looking back, I should have hauled harder because it really set me up. But it made me realize that I had a horse that could participate with the good ones. I had a horse that could go out and be competitive and make money. My goal was to make the circuit finals and get into the winter rodeos and see where it takes me this year." Allan ran Three at all of her rodeos, save one. She placed on Honor Safire, an Honors A Bounding mare out of a Firewater Finale, Dash Ta Fame mare, at Othello, Washington.

"We have a lot of good rodeos up here," said Allan. Her favorite of course is Pendleton, Oregon. "It's so different. It takes a lot of extra work to do well there."

Allan applauded all the rodeos in the Columbia River Circuit that worked to improve their ground. She specifically mentioned Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, where she tipped to win on their new dirt, and Lewiston, Idaho, where she pulled a fourth-place check from slack, Kennewick, Washington, which she won, and Walla Walla, Washington, where she was fifth.

"I really try to promote the committees that rake with an implement to keep the ground very consistent and very fair for everybody, regardless of where you draw," she said. "I went to the committees' meeting at the circuit finals with (our circuit director) Rainy Robinson to promote the use of implements to rake for all the barrel racers."

Now, Allan is making plans to head to Texas for the winter building rodeos.

"I'm going to hit a few of the jackpots up here to try to get some momentum going in the little buildings," she said. "I want to go hit the Texas rodeos in January, like Odessa, and keep going from there. I want to see what I can do this winter. I fulfilled my goal for last year. This year we're going to test the waters. We're going to haul and see where it takes us."

Allan wanted to thank her sponsors Rocky Staples Bits & Spurs, Pendleton Hats, Tight Joints Plus, and Euenio Mannucci, DVM. She especially wanted to thank her husband and driver Randy Allan, her colt starter Josh Auman, who will hold down the fort while she's gone, and her sister Jodie Heitzman, who leads the prayer team for Allan and her horses.

All horses need to be nominated (paid in) yearly for $200 starting the year of birth to remain eligible to run in the race. There are only 50 Pink Buckle stallions. Promoting the Pink Buckle stallions is the heart of the program and the best way to showcase these world-class equine genetics is to give competitors of all skill levels a race with huge payouts and a fun and relaxed atmosphere!

This stallion-based incentive is unique to the barrel racing industry because it relies on the nomination system to guarantee yearly race payouts. Each year our payouts grow because of the body of horses being nominated.

Busby and Lord Come Out On Top at the Mountain States Circuit Finals

By Britany Diaz

The 2022 Mountain States Circuit came to a close last weekend in the MAC Equipment Inc. Arena in Loveland, CO. Neither cowgirl that came out top placed in the first go-round. Shali Lord, from Lamar, CO, came back to win the second go-round with a time of 15.27, earning $1,842. Lord placed again in the third go-round, running a 15.28, winning $921. Her combined time of 46.13 on three runs secured her the Mountain States Circuit Average Championship, earning her another $2,763, making her total win worth $5,526. Lord's average win placed her in the #9 spot in the current Women's Professional Rodeo Association standings.

It was an action packed weekend, with both the year-end and average race being very close. Andrea Busby from Brock, TX won the year-end title with $27,784.12, finishing her only $63.99 over Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi with $27,720.13 won. The average race was even tighter, with Shali Lord having the winning edge on Tonozzi by only one one-hundredth of a second. Shali completed the three runs in 46.13 seconds, while Tonozzi finished with a combined time of 46.14 seconds. Talk about a nail biter for both titles.

Year-end champion, Andrea Busby, had an incredible year with some big wins. Her mare, Blazing With My Dude, a 7-year-old by Blazin Jetolena out of Dasher Dude, won the Mountain States Circuit Horse of The Year and was voted Horse With The Most Heart. Blazing With My Dude, better known as Tito, was bred and raised at Busby Quarter Horses. It has been exciting to watch Busby win on a home-grown product. A large part of this teams' money came from their big win at Cheyenne Frontier Days in Cheyenne, WY in July. She also placed high at Evanston, WY, Castle Rock, CO, and Pueblo, CO. Busby has a team of horses that are a force to be reckoned with. Famous Heartbreaker won Loveland, CO and placed at Douglas, WY. Her other two young horses, Jets Letters To Abby and Jets Top Gun both had wins at Steamboat, CO. When it comes down to $64, every dollar won is so important.

Busby's circuit finals looked a little different. She shared, "When we came home from Puyullup, I turned Tito out, because the plan was to stay on my young horses through the fall and circuit finals. Obviously they are all very capable. The week before circuit finals, everyone at my camp started either limping or coughing. Two came home from the Pink Buckle with colds. It is all stuff that will heal and they will be ok, but happened at a very inopportune time. I hit the panic button and started calling around. Ceri Ward, had raised and trained a gelding by the name of, Hiccup, and recently sold him to the Moyer family, from Woodward, OK, and they were unbelievably generous and let me take him to the circuit finals. Merrick, their 13-year old daughter and Ceri went with me. I got to cruise him through at their house, but never got to run him anywhere. He is a great one and I feel like I didn't get do him justice. In the third round, I ran Jets Letters To Abby, as I didn't want to run Hiccup more than once in the same day. It all ended up working out in the end as it kept me in there for the year-end title." Coming into circuit finals, Busby had around a $5,000 lead.

"In 2022, I came out with no expectations, just wanted to season my horses. Tito had never been in a rodeo performance until Pecos, TX. I won Alamosa, CO on her in the slack. Janna Brown had taken Benny (Jets Top Gun) to a few places as well, but you just cannot prepare for places like Reno, Greeley or Cheyenne, until you just go. The ground, the set-ups, the traveling and the atmosphere are impossible to prepare for. I didn't set huge goals and was pretty open-minded. Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi asked me if I wanted to go and I wasn't sure if I should. My horses worked great at NRS, Hamilton and other arenas. My husband, Jeff, prodded me and told me I needed to go. I am glad they pushed me to go and take them and see what happened."

Having great support and a winning attitude on the road can be tough. It helps to have a veteran traveling partner. "Brittany is a winner." Busby laughed, "That is why I was so nervous going into circuit finals. If it would have been anyone else chasing me but her, I would be ok. The further you back her in the corner, the bigger the bullet she comes back with. She just knows how to win. We are good friends and you can always count on her for honest advice and help. She was the one that pushed me to send Tito to Cheyenne and not to Salinas."

In 2023, Busby has set a few more goals. "After Cheyenne, I decided to try to qualify for the winter rodeos. I think we accomplished that. Before the summer run, I was 108th in the World Standings. Circuit finals is always a goal. Happy and healthy horses is always my number one goal. Sometimes I think you can try to force things and make them happen instead of letting them happen and have it be in God's timing. You can get too wrapped up in the end result, instead of focusing on the process and the things that happen to get there. Everyone wants to make the finals, so yes, that is a goal, but the process is what I am most focused on. A great analogy that my husband, Jeff, gave me, is: Let's say you are hiking up a mountain, it is a process to the top, but once you get to the top, the time up there is miniscule compared to the time to get there or the time coming back down. The climb is where you see the views and that time is where the stuff is. The time at the peak is very short. I do this because I love my horses and love trying to figure it out. I love going and competing. It is all of the stuff in between that I focus on. Of course I want to get to the top of the mountain, but I am enjoying the process. That was what was so special about this year. God's plan was a lot better than what mine would have been."

Busby rides Tito in a Robbie Phillips saddle, a 3S Saddle pad and uses Iconoclast protective boots. She runs her in the Sue Smith 'Claimer Bit' made by Elliot Bits. Busbys' feed a variety of Purina products to their horses.

Andrea is so thankful for her great support from family and friends. She is sponsored by Full Bucket and Hay Chix.

Just like Busby, Shali Lord, also won a good chunk of money from Cheyenne Frontier Days. Shali and her 12-year-old gray mare, Frosted In Fame by Dash Ta Fame, known as CeCe, won third in the qualifying round. It was CeCe's first time to compete there. The duo placed at Yuma, CO, Loveland, CO, Lamar, CO and Castle Rock, CO all in the same week. "We have some very good rodeos. We have Cheyenne, WY, Greeley, Co and Denver, CO. They all count, which is good and makes our circuit great," shared Lord. Lord is no stranger to the average championship title, nor the Mountain State Circuit Finals. She has competed there around 16 times and this is the second year in a row that Lord and CeCe have won the average title. In 2019, Lord won the average aboard Freckles Ta Fame, the famous CanMan. This year, CeCe and Lord came into the circuit finals sitting fifth. Mountain States Circuit finals are three go-rounds. Three runs in two days, so it happens quick. Lord shared, "Friday evening CeCe worked very good, but didn't place or win any money. She just wasn't real sharp, but made a nice, clean run. On Saturday afternoon, she came back and she knew what she was there for and won that round. That night she came back in there and worked really good again to win third. CeCe likes that arena. It is a little bit of a smaller set-up and the ground is good. She tries so hard and gives 110% every time. If she knows the ground is going to hold her, she always goes for it."

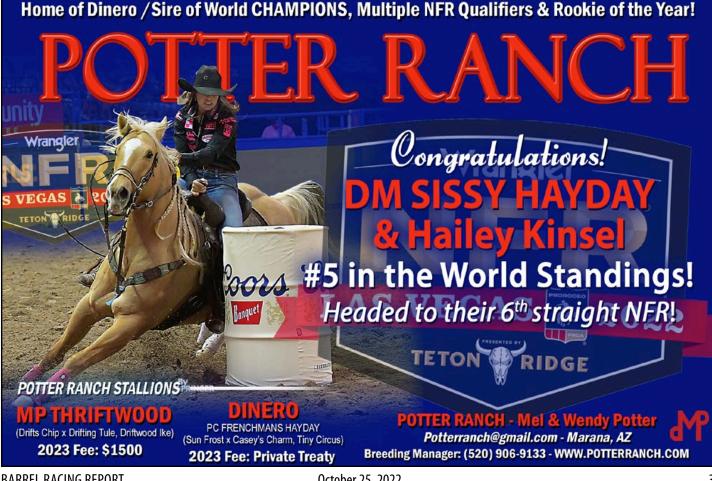

Lord loves the circuit finals. She shared, "We have a great circuit. We have a great awards program, awesome sponsors, a fun luncheon on Friday before the first performance and it is just a really fun time to get together with the girls. It is a jam-packed weekend, but it is awesome. My parents flew in from Arizona, so that was really cool. I got to have my daughter, Stealy, with me as well."

CeCe is so special to Lord and her family. Shali said, "After Can-Man got hurt, she really had to step up and go to all of our circuit rodeos. She ran at all of them by herself and she has just stepped it up in a big way. I bought her from Kelly Arizmendi from Arizona. She was trained by Jenna Duhon. Susan Siggins hauled her for Kelly for awhile. I found her through a good friend, April Denny. If it wasn't for her and Julie Miller, I wouldn't have CeCe. She kept telling me about this horse and telling me I needed to call on her. I went and rode her and haven't looked back. She has been a major blessing to my family."

"It will be great to go back to the NFR Open. It is a good rodeo and only three hours from home. This year, I will also be hauling the young stallion, Al Cappone, to run and season at some rodeos. It will be nice to have both him and CeCe." Lord shared, "I plan to go to the San Antonio qualifier to try to get into the rodeo. I didn't go enough to get into the winter rodeos as I stayed in my circuit this past summer, so I plan to play it by ear and see how things go." Shali rides CeCe in a Cactus saddle with a Classic Equine saddle pad. She used Iconoclast protective boots and runs CeCe in an Elliot twisted with a cricket mouthpeice. It has a longer shank and has very little gag. She eats Strategy Healthy Edge, alfalfa pellets and grass hay. She is supplemented with Kahm CBD, Full Bucket and Simply Equine.

Shali Lord has a strong support group beside her. She has her family, her daughter and many friends she is so thankful for. She also appreciates her sponsors: Classic Equine, Purina, Bemer, Full Bucket, Cinch Jeans, Justin, Iconoclast Equine Support Boots, Larry The Cable Guy, Western Dove, Flair Equine Nasal Strips, Bill Fick Ford, Simply Equine, K9 Fringe Scarves and Kahm. It will be fun to see what these two cowgirls and their team of horses accomplish in 2023.

$25,000 - 13 year old gray mare - Seasoned, Consistent Youth Suitable! This mare has been hauled and won money in all levels of competition from jackpots, youth rodeos, amateur rodeos and anything in-between. Push style and very consistent. 1D/2D horse. Runs in mud, large or small pattern doesn't matter. Raised in South Dakota. She is sound and requires no maintenance.

She catches, loads, hauls and stands at the trailer all day. Goes with all horses and takes care of herself. Stands well for the farrier. We have used her in the pasture to chase cows, roped on her, and have ridden her on wagon trains. She would be a perfect youth, high school, or college horse. She would even be a nice horse for the weekend jackpotter as she doesn't care to be hauled alone. Will run poles as well. A good home is a must. Please no tire kickers. Videos available. BARREL RACING REPORT NEWS

Dr. Gregg Veneklasen named 2022 PRCA Vet of the Year Award recipient

Dr. Gregg Veneklasen has been named the recipient of the 2022 PRCA Veterinarian of the Year Award.

"First of all, I never knew I was nominated," Veneklasen said. "They called me up and said I was PRCA Vet of the Year. I was kind of shocked and it is an honor. I was nominated in 2010 by Trevor Brazile, Speed Williams, and Travis Tryan. I got a little bronze and I never thought about it ever again. Brenda Binion Michael, who passed away in July, and who was my best friend, I'm going to accept with her. We are sharing it together. She told me I was never going to be Vet of the Year. She was very blunt. They are never going to be ready for a guy who wears Hawaiian shirts every day. I wear Hawaiian shirts every day and I always have.

"I would not be where I am today without Brenda (Binion) Michael. She introduced me to Clint Johnson and Mindy Johnson, who are my dearest friends, 30 years. I have done this because of Brenda."

A practicing veterinarian for the last 40 years, Veneklasen has worked with the Frontier Rodeo Company for 15 years. He cares for many of their top bucking horses, ensuring they are healthy and able to compete at a top level. He has also cloned some of their award-winning bucking horses in an effort to keep the genetics viable for years to come.

Veneklasen is known to many contestants and stock contractors as Dr. Rodeo and is given credit for single-handedly revolutionizing the bucking horse industry.

The careers of some the greatest bucking horses were in danger of being cut short because of injuries or other ailments but Dr. Veneklasen dedicated his career and practice to helping these equine athletes through injections, supplements, nutrition, and rehabilitation. He received his DVM from Colorado State University and owns and operates Timber Creek Veterinary Hospital in Canyon, Texas.

"I saw some of my letters that were written and obviously I have done a lot of timed-events and the first nomination (in 2010) was with timed-event people and this nomination is all with stock contractors," Veneklasen said. "I still do timed-events, but I think it is pretty cool that the PRCA is recognizing maybe these bucking horses are pretty cool after all.

"I have had a great life and a great journey prior to rodeo, and Brenda Michael and Michael and Paula Gaughan are my mentors, and I would have never had them without Brenda. I'm excited every day to get to do what I do."

Veterinarians play an integral role in ProRodeo. This award, created in 2010, honors veterinarians who have dedicated their lives in support of the health and welfare of our ProRodeo livestock.

Veterinarians are nominated by PRCA membership and must exhibit an extraordinary commitment to the health and welfare of our livestock. A review and selection committee made up of advocates and industry experts carefully consider the merits of each nominee and their contributions to the sport of rodeo. The nominees are also judged on the number of years they've been involved in rodeo, as well as their community involvement.

Veneklasen will be recognized at the PRCA Awards Banquet at the South Point Hotel, Casino, and Spa in Las Vegas on Nov. 30.

WCRA To Bring $55,000 Division Youth Showcase Event to Cowtown

The WCRA (World Championship Rodeo Alliance) today announced that the 2022 Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo will feature a WCRA Division Youth (DY) Showcase on December 17 at the Cowtown Coliseum at 1 p.m. The top eight Junior DY Athletes (19 and under) in each discipline will qualify for the event and battle it out for a piece of the $55,000 payout.

The event will be one round of competition and is highlighted by $26,400 added money ($2,600 added per discipline) with each event champion taking home a minimum of $2,000. The Showcase will crown champions in each of the 11 Junior disciplines: Bareback Riding, Steer Wrestling, Team Roping (Heading/Heeling), Saddle Bronc Riding, Tie-Down Roping, Ladies Pole Bending, Ladies Goat Tying, Ladies Breakaway Roping, Ladies Barrel Racing and Bull Riding. Payout is as follows:

1st: $2,000; 2nd: $1,500; 3rd: $1,000; 4th: $500

"While the main focus of the DY athletes is qualifying for the $200,000 added money World Championship Junior Rodeo along with the world championships and cash bonuses, this is an additional opportunity for the top eight on the leaderboard as of November 27," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "The points earned, and money won at this exciting event will help propel these young athletes to a world championship title."

The WCRA Division Youth Showcase is part of an ongoing effort to create more opportunity for youth athletes. According to Mote, the ultimate end goal is to create a DY Showcase at each WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo Event for athletes to earn more money and points leading up to the WCJR.

Athletes can qualify by nominating any age restricted youth rodeo and earning points for the WCRA Junior Leaderboard positions using the VRQ (Virtual Rodeo Qualifier). Athletes have until November 27 at 11:59 p.m. to nominate and earn points. The top eight on the leaderboard in each discipline will qualify for the event. Those who qualify will be required to pay a $300 entry fee (100% payback). Athletes can learn how to nominate and earn points HERE.

In addition to the DY Showcase, WCRA will offer DY athletes the opportunity to participate in a media day to be featured as a WCRA Division Youth athlete leading into the 2023 World Championship Junior Rodeo. level of commitment to FFA and made significant accomplishments in their supervised agricultural experience, being awarded Saturday morning, followed by the election of the 2023-2024 National FFA Officer Team.

"The National FFA Convention is my favorite event of the year, " said Janet Adkison, lead anchor for RFD-TV's FFA broadcast. As a former FFA member and past state officer myself, each opening ceremony brings back such wonderful memories and reminds me of where I learned many skills that have helped me succeed in my agricultural professional career. But these days, it's the thrill of the anticipation for these current FFA members in the convention hall and the opportunity to follow along with viewers at home. I get to have a front-row seat, witnessing their introduction to the FFA world beyond their local community, and I can't wait to see how big they live."

In addition to the nine live convention sessions, RFD-TV and The Cowboy Channel will also be broadcasting the three nightly performances of the Cinch World's Toughest Rodeo at the National FFA Convention on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, where FFA students, advisors, and guests will all be in attendance cheering on their favorite cowboys and cowgirls.

Love difficult people. You're one of them.

lf you can't outsmart people, outwork them.

— Bill Veeck

www.BarrelRacingReport.com

Several decades ago, I had a test at the Dr. that required a little more looking into. It was unsettling. I was left in the office with a pamphlet of info on this condition. When the Dr. returned, I told him I didn't want to read it. He was the nicest guy. And he told me something that day that has stuck with me all these years. He said, "You know, if you have a pimple on your face, we don't cut off your head to fix it." There ya go.

Now, when we ask Jesus to be our Lord, in Him, from that moment on, we are a new creation. 2 Cor. 5:14-21. But do we act perfect and are we sinless from that moment on? I'm sure someone has, I just haven't met them.

We try, we fail, we win, we lose, but HOPEFULLY we are winning more than losing, right? Well, when we sinned, Jesus didn't throw our rear ends in hell, did He?

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

No. He forgave. 1 Jn. 1:9 tells us that if we confess our sins, He's faithful to forgive us.

One sin, one pimple. Let's keep our head on, continue in His Word, and overcome the world!
