Borrowed Ride Powers Karson Bradley Berger to Mountain States Circuit Finals Championship

By Tanya Randall

Saratoga, Wyoming's Karson Bradley Berger rode Smooth Money Raider ("Pancake"), owned by longtime family friends Roger and Margaret Jones, to a $6,478 Mountain States Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship. She'll join year-end champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi at the NFR Open next July in Colorado Springs.

"It's just crazy winning it on a borrowed horse," said Berger, 26. "We didn't know each other very well."

Berger sold her three-time circuit finals qualifier Judge Junomore ("Gucci") to Jordan Driver in August. Even though part of the deal included getting the mare back for circuit finals, Berger knew that running a horse that she struggled so hard to let go of wasn't best for her competitive mindset. She made several calls to friends looking for something to ride and one was to Jones, who is both friend and mentor.

"When I called and asked if she knew of anything I could run at circuit finals, without hesitation, she said, 'You can get on Pancake,'" Berger said. "It was just Margaret being really, really generous. I never expected her to offer me her really nice mare, but she did, and I'm so grateful for that."

Jones had raised and trained Pancake, a daughter of the late 5.1 million dollar sire A Smooth Guy out of her feisty On The Money Red, Rare Jet mare Rare Red Raider, who has produced several outstanding barrel horses including aged event champion and pro rodeo money earner Smooth Operraider, who now runs for youth rider Tabitha Dyal.

"She's been amazing," said Berger. "She has a big list of wins but she doesn't have a ton of rodeo experience. But, clearly, she wants to be a rodeo horse."

Berger made her first competitive runs on Pancake at the Jody Motley Memorial. Jones, who had a mishap at the Fizz Bomb Classic, had asked Berger if she would ride her horses. Plus, it was an opportunity to see if Pancake might be the right horse for her at circuit finals.

Although off the pace on their first run at the Memorial, they were top five out of almost 300 on their next run. They had one more jackpot run together—they were second—before heading to Loveland.

"We just fit like a glove," said Berger. "It worked out perfectly." Although Pancake had some slack runs and college rodeo forays with Jones' daughter, she didn't have a lot of pro rodeo performance experience. Other than a slight hiccup in the first round at the second barrel, Pancake performed like an old pro.

"You really have to hustle her to second and third because she's a turny little mare," Berger explained. "I was hustling her, and she got a little past second. I called Margaret and she said that was a fluke. Just go run her again."

Berger and Pancake were two spots out of the money with a 15.92 in the first but came back to tie for second with a 15.73 on bottom of the ground in the next. They won second outright in the third round with a 15.62.

"She improved on her time each round," Berger said. "She just got more confident and I probably got more confident on her. She just had three solid, consistent runs."

Jones, too, was tickled with their performance.

"It was so exciting," Jones said. "I've watched Karson grow up

Smooth Money Raider "Pancake" 15-15.1 h, "Stout"

BIT: Schoenberg mullen — HEADGEAR: Soft leather tiedown

SADDLE: Trophy Cactus — SADDLE PAD: 3S Custom

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice on all four

SHOEING: Eventers or Vulcans; shod by Roger Jones

FEED: Purina Ultium — HAY: Homegrown grass, alfalfa mix

SUPPLEMENTS: Basic minerals

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Rubdown and wrapped legs at circuit finals

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: At home: "I mainly ride her out (in the pasture) at home," said the mare's owner Margaret Jones. "I'll long trot and lope out in the field. (Her husband) Roger will heel on her some. Rarely does she see the barrels. I'll walk her through maybe once a week." At circuit finals: "I tuned her after each run just to make sure she would stay honest with me," said Berger. "I just walked and trotted to my points a couple of times. She's honest mare but she's so turny and can get tight on you. So I would just over exaggerate my points a little bit just so she stayed honest with me.

THANKS: Margaret for letting me use her horse. My parents Mack and Tifanie Bradley. My mom was with me at the rodeos most of the summer. I couldn't do it without them. My husband. He was there helping me out and sat back there with me and would make sure my cinch was good to go before my runs," said Berger.

and knew she would ride her well. She's a lot like her horse so I thought they'd fit, and they did. It was very exciting for both of us." Although her father Mack Bradley, a former roper, gave Berger her start in the sport, it was Jones and others that fostered her ability to train.

"My dad, when I was little, helped me out a ton," she said. "As I got older, I rode with Margaret. Even now, with my colts, if I have a question, I'm always quizzing her. Lora Nichols (Margaret's sister-in-law) has helped me out a ton as well. I rode a lot with Kent and Stephanie McCann in Rocksprings, too."

Berger, who married her husband Jace, last year, opted to train horses rather than teach after graduating college. She said she's always managed to sell her good ones by the time they're 8- or 9-years old and Gucci was the most recent.

She had purchased the 2017 Judge Cash, Juno Dat Cash daughter as a 2-year-old after seeing a single picture on Facebook.

"I hurried and bought her," Berger said. "Her mother was a proven producer, which to me, makes a world of difference in the offspring. I had some people come and try her when she was 3, and I had a gut feeling that 'I cannot let this mare go now.' I backed out on them, which I've never done before, but I did with her for some reason. Every futurity I took her to, she either won money in a round or average, sometimes both."

Although she had only been away for a year, Berger longed to rodeo again after Gucci's futurity year.

"I'm pretty sure she won the first rodeo I took her to," said Berger. "I thought, 'Well, I'm just going to enter a few more...'. We made circuit finals her first year of rodeoing. Each year I stepped out a little bit more. This past year I took her to some bigger rodeos—Reno, Rapid City, the Days of 47 in Salt Lake City—she won money at them. She's just an amazing mare. I love that horse."

Letting Gucci go was a tough decision, but it was a necessary one to focus on her younger horses.

"I cried and I cried," said Berger. "I'm a firm believer in that you may not know what's meant to be, but you just have to trust... When (the Drivers) approached me, I just knew that Gucci deserved to go on and do bigger and better things. I had Gucci, one good horse, and I respected her too much to make her go do everything by herself. Jordan has several good horses. I'm a firm believer that's where Gucci is meant to be. Now I can focus on my up-and-coming young horses, and I can take a break from rodeo while I give them the attention they deserve at the futurities."

Her plan is to make a team of horses to rodeo on when her time comes.

"I love rodeo," she said. "If I could rodeo fulltime for a living, that's what I would do. Unfortunately, I can't do that. I'm probably going to take a step back (from rodeo). I'm going to go to Arizona this winter for the futurities with my colts. Hopefully, next summer I have something that I can circuit rodeo on. My goal really is just to build up so I have a couple of good horses that I can go rodeo on when the opportunity arises."

She'll have a big opportunity next summer with the NFR Open. If she doesn't have a horse ready by then, Jones said Pancake will be an option.

"Margaret told me yesterday, 'If you don't have anything ready to step up (for the NFR Open), you and Pancake deserve to run there together,'" she said, "It very well could be me and Pancake next July."

Jordan Bailey & Ima Girl Fame Sweep Top Shelf Breeders in Fallon for $38K

By Julie Mankin

Washington's Star Bailey Ranch shined in Nevada on Oct. 23-25, as 25-year-old Jordan Bailey literally swept every round of the Derby and two Open races – plus won the High Stakes – at the 4th Annual Top Shelf Breeders Barrel Race on her family's home-raised 7-year-old mare Ima Girl Fame (“Olive”).

CLAIRE MCMANUS PHOTOGRAPHY

Not only that, but Bailey was also the reserve champion of the Futurity aboard the program's 5-year-old grey stallion Honor Thy Judge (“Jedi”). Together with sidepots and incentive monies, Bailey took $37,616 home to Onalaska, Wash., from her runs on those two horses.

In the Derby, she and Olive smoked the only 15.1-second run of the entire four-day, $400,000 event, and that's the run that also won the High Stakes by a whopping .24 seconds for $5,771, as well as the first round of the Derby, the Open and the Top Shelf Open. Bailey and Olive then added the second-fastest time of the entire shindig – a short 15.2 – to win the second round of the Derby by almost three-tenths, the other round of both Opens and the average in both Opens. The only other 15.2 was clocked by Kathy Grimes and KG Just Money.

“That 15.1 was the fastest time of last year's race in Fallon, also,” said Bailey, who also won a pile there in 2024. “She was fourth on the ground. I hadn't been running her much because I ran her a lot this spring and summer. Plus, I didn't get her in the arena beforehand because she's not the easiest to work on a pattern. I think she just really likes her job!”

Bailey said it's all she can do to get the mare to maybe walk through the pattern at home without “launching.” She said Olive does not like being told no. The family bred and raised the mare by Mulberry Fame and out of their Judge Cash daughter Ima Girl Judge that goes back to Easy Jet on the bottom. Bailey's folks are second-generation grocers and own IGA stores, while Bryan also has a hunting guiding business. They stand three stallions and have about 10 broodmares.

Until September, Bailey had been the only one to navigate Olive through the cloverleaf. Then Sharin Hall called, needing a horse short-notice for the WPRA rodeo about 100 miles away from the Baileys in Puyallup, Wash.

“She placed in the second round and did a really good job on her,” said Bailey. “Sharin had never ridden her, and the mare had never been in a rodeo atmosphere like that.”

Bailey said that watching made her nervous, but it was “so cool to be part of that” and she had just told Sharin to ride her like Stella – that the mare would turn, so just “let her roll.” The money helped Hall finish 32nd in the final WPRA standings this year.

In Fallon, Bailey earned a race-total $26,004 on Olive without counting the $5,589 in other Incentives the mare earned her owners. But Bailey also just missed winning the Futurity – she was second in the average to Amberleigh Moore by roughly three-hundredths on Jedi to earn $6,023 on that horse including Open monies.

“A good friend of ours, Brian McPhee, broke him and put a lot of buttons on that stud that we bought as a 2-year-old,” said Bailey of Jedi, by Judge Cash out of Raisin Honor. “He's really fast and likes to run; we're still getting the turning down.”

For the record, Haley Longfield placed right behind Bailey in the Derby, High Stakes and Open races, plus won first and second in the Strike Gold race, aboard 8-year-old A Streakin Fiesta. The palomino by A Streak Of Fling out of a First Down French/Pie In The Sky mare earned $21,737 total. Plus, Longfield won some 2D Open dollars on Fire At The Fiesta to rake in another $4,979. Together with other Incentive monies, Longfield pulled out of Fallon with $31,074.

Bonus sidepots within the races inside Fallon's Rafter 3C Arena included a Royal Crown Incentive (which paid Bailey $1,953 and the owners of Mulberry Fame $837), a Diamond Classic Incentive (which paid Baileys $2,916) and a Future Fortunes Incentive (which paid them $720).

It's a 12.5-hour drive from their home to Fallon, but the Baileys love the Top Shelf race and the stop is on the way to their winter home in Maricopa, Arizona, anyway. They'll train out of that venue until Bailey hauls next month to her first-even BFA World Championships.

In Guthrie, she'll of course run Olive and Jedi, plus a 3-year-old Judge My Class prospect in the juvenile futurity and one by the same stallion out of a Streakin Six mare in the 5-year-old futurity. It'll be a wait, but Olive's first embryo, by the Baileys' stud Guys' Pocket Coin (a half-brother to Sissy's Little Coin), will begin life this spring.

Red As Hale, 4, and William Ball Win Sweepstakes, $8,751 at All American Quarter Horse Congress

By Julie Mankin

William Ball's superstar filly Red As Hale ("Miss Hale") had already clinched the $100,000-for-first 2024 BFA SuperStakes at just 3 years old. That's a big win. But her victory at last week's Sweeps at Congress – as a 4-year-old? That's bigger, to Ball.

At the annual All American Quarter Horse Congress – the giant week-long AQHA show held Sept. 27-Oct. 3 in Columbus, Ohio – barrel racing fans are always glued to the arena fence to watch the prestigious Sweepstakes. There are two long rounds from which the fastest times of each make the short round. Ball, 32, didn't place on Miss Hale in Round One, which was won by Clint Vanvolkenburgh on a 14.7-second run.

"She had a stumble at first, which put me in a bad position for second, and I have a bad habit of reaching for the barrel and that messed it up worse," said Ball.

He had actually approached the first run as an exhibition, anyway, since there are no exhibitions at Congress and Miss Hale is just a baby. Next, their 14.6 placed them fourth in the second round and send them to the finals, where Miss Hale clocked the fastest time of the entire Sweepstakes – a 14.53 – to win the round by more than a tenth. She also won the average on two by more than two-tenths to earn $8,351. Ball was told the win made Miss Hale just the third 4-year-old in history to take the Sweeps, joining Mulberry Canyon Moon and Seis So Sweet.

"Congress means a lot to us in this area," Ball said. "Just, with the history. Everybody in this area is gunning for it, and you're running against Open horses. The Sweepstakes at Congress is really, really hard to win. I've been looking to do it my whole life, and this might be the only time I ever win it."

Miss Hale is by Streaking Ta Fame and out of a Designer Red daughter with racehorses on her bottom side. In Columbus, Miss Hale made a fourth run, too, in the Junior Barrel Race and won it with a 14.6 for an extra $400. Plus, Ball ran her three times in the poles, but said he knocked poles over early each time and pulled her up.

"It's pretty hilly here in Ohio and I've been trotting her up hills to keep her in really good shape," he said. "She feels good and gets stronger with every run. She's never gotten tired on me at a show – it seems like she fires every run."

Ball is a Kentucky native who grew up in the region knowing about the prestige; the elite status of the Sweepstakes that has paid some of the greatest barrel horses in the world. That's not to mention it hosts arguably the most elite pole bending in the world. Miss Hale, for the record, clocked 19-second runs in that event as a 3-year-old and has since put up an 18.9.

"I train them all on the poles, I guess because I don't know any different," Ball said. "And a lot of owners like that, and it's helped me sell some horses. I'm not asking them to turn any differently than in the barrels."

Over a year ago, Ball moved to the family home of his girlfriend Morgan Henning in Roseville, Ohio. They raise and train horses. Both ride about 20 horses a day, switching to a small indoor arena in wintertime. Henning placed Terms Under Pressure eighth in the Junior Barrel Racing at Congress. But it's Red As Hale that's turning heads lately.

"She's just so consistent and so honest," said Ball. "I kind of take her to a spot and she usually goes there without missing a beat. She just does it perfect for me. It feels really easy."

Ball was in Oklahoma a few years ago, shopping for a prospect, when he happened onto the bald-faced chestnut filly at the home of her breeder, Joleen Hales.

"There were a few Streaking Ta Fames locally I had seen that were really nice," he said. "They were similar to Miss Hale – smooth and consistent."

The sire himself caught Ball's eye, too, when Sharin Hall ran him at The American in 2015.

"I feel like I just got lucky," he said. "I was in the right place at the right time. And I wanted a filly. I get along better with mares. I don't mind if they get a little spunky; I like the fire they give you sometimes."

This season, because he lives a long way from most futurities, Ball stayed mostly around Ohio. Miss Hale has done well though. For instance, she won both the barrel racing and pole bending futurities at Ohio's Panty Raid in May. He's fielded plenty of staggering offers to buy Miss Hale, and feels fortunate to own her because she'd probably otherwise have traded hands by now. Would he love to see his NFR-caliber mare run in Las Vegas some day? Of course. But the futurities aren't over yet.

"I'm really excited about the BFA," Ball said. "And I qualified her to the regional finals of The American. That's basically where I'm from – about 30 miles south of Lexington, so my whole family could come watch that.”

Morgan's sister Reagan actually jump-rode Miss Hale at the 2025 Central Regionals, where only a downed barrel kept them from making the finals. She was still... only 4.

“She's special,” said Ball. “She's been so good. I think I've done an okay job. I'm just trying not to mess her up, more than anything; just staying out of her way.”

Mare Power on Full Display in Myers Online Prospect Sale

Mare power was on full display in the first-ever Myers Online Prospect Sale, where fillies topped the charts and bidders from 33 states and Canada competed for elite bloodlines from Frenchmans Guy, Ima Special Kindaguy, Lucky Wonder Horse, Mr Sassy Frenchman, and CR Tuff Dual.

A 2-year-old filly by Lucky Wonder Horse out of Guy's Movida Jet (full sister to A Smooth Guy) topped the first Myers Performance Horse prospect sale in five years at $45,250. Myers' first-ever fully online production sale on Oct. 19-20, 2025.

The sale marked another milestone in the Myers family's long-standing breeding legacy that began more than forty years ago. The horse that put their program on the map was this palomino weanling they picked up in 1987, who went on to be an AQHA Hall of Fame twenty-million-dollar-sire, Frenchmans Guy. This year's sale showcased offspring of their outcross stallion Lucky Wonder Horse, as well as weanlings, yearlings and riding prospects by Frenchmans Guy's proven sons Ima Special Kindaguy and Mr Sassy Frenchman, plus junior sire CR Tuff Dual.

The second-high seller at $36,500 was two-year-old Sheza Sassy Cowgirl, by Mr Sassy Frenchman out of Cowgirls Cartel (sired by Cowboys Cartel), and was purchased by Richard Smith of Virginia. Other top sellers included Shez Got Special Fame (Ima Special Kindaguy x Miss Dash Of Fame by Dash Ta Fame) that went to Oklahoma for $35,250, Frenchmans Guy broodmare, Guys Isabella stayed in South Dakota for $35,250 and Jess Callme Mr Sassy (Mr Sassy Frenchman x Patrons Hot Lil Sis by Hot Colours) that went to Florida for $30,000. The two home-raised Frenchmans Guy broodmares were the top of conversation for a lot of people. Guys Isabella (Frenchmans Guy x Miss Laico Six by Streakin Six), in foal to Junior Stallion CR Tuff Dual, is staying in South Dakota. Wave Goodbye Guys (Frenchmans Guy x Lehi Rose by Special Effort) is headed to California in foal to Lucky Wonder Horse, and brought $28,000.

The riding 2-year-olds averaged $31,071 with Lucky Wonder Horse's $45,250, Mr Sassy Frenchman's $33,250, and Ima Special Kindaguy's $26,438. Yearlings bringing an average of $13,208, and weanlings averaging $9,100. Frenchmans Guy Broodmares averaged $31,625. The overall sale average was $18,106.

"We'd like to thank everyone who participated in our first online production sale," said Deb Myers. "All of our new and repeat buyers made it possible for us to have a great sale. We love it when our prospects get into the hands of great horsemen and women."

Mindy Holloway & Heavens Got Credit Wins High Roller Race & Pockets $14,735 at Elder Dodge Shootout

By Tanya Randall

Mineral Wells, Texas-based realtor Mindy Holloway and her 11-year-old gelding Heavens Got Credit (“Cornbread”) made the most of one run at the Elder Dodge Shootout to collect $14,735.

“I try to do what’s best for him and not run his legs off,” Holloway said of her equine partner of four years. “I’m really cautious with him. I don’t know why. I just am. When the opportunity comes up like this—with the High Roller, money added and higher entry fee—that’s what I look for, for him. I have some other horses that I can use at the local stuff. I try to use him at the bigger things, because he likes to show up and I don’t want to waste any runs.”

Holloway and Cornbread were 13.671 on their one pass through the mock National Finals Rodeo setup at the annual J&J Productions race, held October 24-26 in Athens, Texas. They won the High Stakes feature race on Saturday night and placed second overall in the Open for $7,586 and $2,456, respectively. The duo also added $4,693 from the Mega, High Fees, Super 5D, Rodeo Pay and Adult incentives.

The profitable trip to Athens was a last minute one. With the popularity of the race, stalls and RV spots sellout quickly, Holloway was a little late to make a weekend stay a comfortable one. She decided to enter all three of her horses in the special High Stakes section of the race on Saturday night and come home.

Holloway used the order of those horses to her advantage, sandwiching Cornbread in between another confident campaigner and her greenest horse.

“The way they make you do the NFR setup, come in from the left, is really hard to set up to go right,” she explained. “You don’t have enough room to get going fast enough, soon enough. That timer is literally six inches from the mouth of the alley. When you come in, you have to be rolling. When you come out, you have to be rolling.”

“I used the first horse, even though he’s perfectly capable of running right behind Cornbread, to let me feel the arena. What I thought was going to happen happened. I didn’t get him going fast enough, soon enough. You can see his head come up a little before the alley too. He should have been a little faster, but he worked fabulous.”

Holloway’s plan on Cornbread was to carry momentum through the gate deep to the far side of the alleyway, curl back to the left side quickly and push her horse’s right shoulder forward to catch the right lead and be rolling by the time she hit the mouth of the alley.

“He blasted in there so fast and turned that first barrel, and I thought, ‘Oh, he has no trouble. It’s only me!’” she chuckled. “Going to the second, it came so quickly I was late switching hands because there’s not much room. I got my hand switched in just the nick of time. He turned the second good and turned the third good. I made sure we weren’t stopping before that alleyway started because that timer is right there. He really executed it perfectly. I do think if there was a center gate or a gate coming from the right, he could have been faster just because that left handed start is so hard for a right handed horse.”

Their Athens’ haul pushed Cornbread’s earnings past the $261,000 mark in third-party documented earnings. The Jud Little-bred gelding is by 11.4 million dollar sire JL Dash Ta Heaven out of the Cash Not Credit, Flaming Jet mare Credit Chicado, a full brother to the stallion Chicado Cash.

Tiany Schuster, who was the high money winner at the Elder Dodge Shootout with $20,722, had started Cornbread and had him cruising a solid pattern when she asked Holloway to put the finishing touches on the gelding while she hauled for the NFR. After a successful futurity year with Schuster and then some down time due to injuries and surgery, Holloway purchased Cornbread early in his seventh year.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: “He gets everything done on a stop watch. He gets 15 minutes of long trotting, 15 minutes loping several times a week. He gets a lot of exercise. He just doesn’t get a lot on the barrels.”

THANKS: My parents, Tammy and Bryan Bailey, and my sponsors

SPONSORS: Dr. Chris Ray at 113 Equine and her farrier/husband Cutter Holloway

“He loves to run barrels,” she said. “I just really focus on what’s best for him, whether it’s being in the right turn out spot at home or entering, because he’s high maintenance.”

“He doesn’t care if the arena is big or small. He doesn’t care if it’s an NFR pattern or Standard Pattern. I try to watch for the ground that holds him for the way he turns. He’s got a style that’s real four-wheel drive, but if the ground is bad, he has no safety button. If the ground’s not good and not going to hold him, it’s on you because when you go down that alleyway he’s giving you 110 percent every time.”

That makes Holloway grateful for races like the Elder Dodge Shootout.

“I’m so grateful to the producers who have these high entry fee races and have such good ground conditions,” she said. “We have so many horses that are of such high caliber and have so much talent that when you give them good ground and good place to work it really brings out good competition.”

$500,000

HELD IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE PINK BUCKLE BARREL RACE AT THE LAZY E ARENA

Young Guns League Announces Special Enrollment – November 1 Deadline!

The Young Guns League is giving breeders & owners one more chance to get in on one of the most exciting opportunities in the barrel racing industry, with a special enrollment deadline of November 1. Created to encourage growth and genetic diversity in the sport, the Young Guns League showcases the progeny of up-and-coming stallions on a national platform. By limiting competition to foals from Young Guns League stallions, the playing field is leveled—allowing young sires to prove themselves while their progeny run for guaranteed payouts. The 2025 YGL Futurity and YGL Derby are held alongside the prestigious Pink Buckle each year, with:

$250,000 GUARANTEED payout Futurity | $250,000 GUARANTEED payout Derby

Only Young Guns League stallions and their progeny are eligible. Once a stallion's oldest foals reach 8 years of age, that stallion ages out of the program—but nominated foals remain eligible for life as long as annual nominations are maintained.

Special 2024-2025 Enrollment Offer: We know incentive rules can be overwhelming, and we don't want anyone to miss out just because they weren't enrolled in our inaugural year. For this year only, if you missed enrolling in 2024, you can catch up by paying: $325 for 2024 + $220 for 2025 = $545 total

This special enrollment offer is valid until NOVEMBER 1, 2025. Enrollments for all horses close December 1 ($350 for 2025 enrollment fee) and if you miss this date, your horse will be ineligible for the program going forward. CONTACT THE OFFICE TO ENROLL TODAY: OFFICE@PINKBUCKLE.COM

**Important: If you plan to run in the 2025 YGL Futurity or Derby, your horse must be nominated before the August 25, 2025 entry deadline.

WPRO Announces 2025 Justin Best Footing Award Winners

The Women's Professional Rodeo Association is pleased to announce and congratulate the following rodeo committees who have gone above and beyond this past year to ensure safe ground for the animal athletes of rodeo, specifically the barrel racing horses. Every year since the early 1990s the WPRO and Justin Brands have honored rodeo committees in each of the 12 circuits with the Justin Best Footing Awards.

The Justin Best Footing Awards® program was created when Tom Feller, director of event marketing for Justin Brands, approached the WPRO about partnering on a program that would focus on the health and well-being of the animal athlete. Not only does the program keep animal athletes performing at the top level, but it also recognizes the hard work and time rodeo committees put into making their ground as safe as possible for the barrel horse and all rodeo livestock.

This award is determined by votes by the WPRO membership and Circuit Directors and represents our members' voices saying "thank you" for a job well done. The WPRO recognizes the top three rodeo committees in all 12 circuits. Committee awards provided by Justin include cash bonuses (ranging from $400-$1,000), plaques and, at certain award levels, a pair of Justin exotic boots. In addition, names of each winner for each of the 12 circuits are put into a drawing for an additional $1,000 bonus from Justin. The following rodeo committees will be recognized at the WPRO Star Celebration in Las Vegas on Dec. 4 at the South Point Hotel and Casino.

Congratulations to the following rodeo committees being honored in 2025 and the WPRO thanks you for making your ground safe and consistent.
