Loflin Holds on to Edge Taylor, Makes First NFR

By Julie Mankin

All season Fallon Taylor, 29, has been striving to make her fifth Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualification – her first in 13 years – aboard part of the family.

Her 6-year-old mare, Flo's Heiress, is the daughter of her old NFR mare, Flowers And Money, crossed on Dr. Nick Bar – the stallion on whom she won a round at Cheyenne Frontier Days in 1992.

For the past two weeks, Taylor has zipped around the country from Texas to Arkansas to Iowa digging up the dollars that would slide her into 15th place in the WPRA World Standings. And it worked. She earned $1,015 at Kingman, Ariz., and Bakersfield, Calif., in the past six days to move her past Christy Loflin into 15th place.

Unfortunately for Taylor of Whitesboro, Texas, Loflin also earned a check. It was worth $1,158 for fourth place at Poway, Calif., and it wiped out Taylor's efforts, unofficially. If the audit holds up, she'll have to try again next year, along with oh-so-close cowgirls Robyn Herring, Sammi Bessert, Sydney Blanchard and Liz Combs. It was the second year in a row of heartbreak for Blanchard, who was 16th in 2011, and Bessert, who was 18th last year and now 19th. This year's race to the finish was tight – just $6,280 separated 14th from 19th place in the world standings last week. Unofficially, it took almost $55,000 to make the Finals. But the good news is that four of the girls who were in the hunt last year but missed the cut will happily realize their dream – this time – of making their first Finals in Las Vegas.

Loflin wasn't one of them making the effort last year. The Franktown, Colo., cowgirl was barely even in the hunt this fall until she won nearly $10,000 at Pendleton. But when it came down to the wire, she handled the pressure like a pro aboard her sorrel mare, Sheza Blazin Move, to hold onto her 15th spot and become one of six first-time qualifiers to the 54th Annual Wrangler NFR.

The four NFR rookies who made the cut in their second or third season of trying are Lee Ann Rust of Stephenville, Texas, who will turn 55 on Dec. 15, Kaley Bass of Davenport, Fla., Trula Churchill of Valentine, Neb., and Nikki Steffes of Vale, S.D.

The standout first-timer is Mary Walker of Ennis, Texas, who holds down the third-place ranking with nearly $130,000 heading

Laticia Duke and LK Watch Me Rock Triumph

By Tanya Randall

LK Watch Me Rock picked up her second futurity championship of the year at the Jud Little Barrel Bash, held Sept. 24-28 at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Okla. Ridden by Laticia Duke, the 4-year-old daughter of Firewaterontherocks out of Watch Me Runnin, by Lucks Runnin Bug, collected $10,515 for owner and breeder LeAnn Kay and the Kay Family of Joaquin, Texas.

"Pistoletta," as the mare is affectionately known, won $6,797 in the Futurity and added an additional $3,718 for winning the $10,000-added Open 4D on Sunday with a rollover time from the second go of the futurity, held Saturday morning. Her winning time was a spectacular 14.748.

"I knew she was making a good run on Saturday," said Duke, the resident trainer at the Schiller Ranch in Millican, Texas, just south of College Station. "She wasn't making any mistakes, but I never knew it was going to be that fast."

Duke said the entire futurity was wickedly fast.

"It was insane how fast it was," she said. "I ran an '0' in the first go, and it was a fast '0' and I ended up eighth. There are a great set of horses running this year. There are 40 horses out there that can win on any given day."

The veteran futurity rider said it's the specialized barrel racing

Stallion Zippy Zevi Dasher Sold

On September 29, 2012, Ryan and Andre' Dohrn, from their breeding farm near Augusta, GA, announced the sale of AQHA barrel racing sire Zippy Zevi Dasher to C.W. and Kathy Thompson owners of Thompson Horse and Goat Company located in Red Springs, NC.

Stallion owner Andre' Marie Dohrn said today, "I am sad to see "Z" go. He has been such a special part of our family for over a decade. Seeing foals by "Z" compete and win has been such a thrill for us. We are thrilled with the passion the Thompson family has for the barrel racing industry. We are equally pleased to know that the Thompson's desire is to continue the Dash Ta Fame legacy by adding this stallion to their new breeding program."

Zippy Zevi Dasher is an own son of barrel racing super sire Dash Ta Fame. Zippy Zevi Dasher is a 2011 top 75 barrel horse sire, and his foals have won over $75,000.

Zippy Zevi Dasher will stand at NC State Equine Health Center in Southern Pines, NC beginning in February. vhcequinehealthcenter@ncsu.edu Breeding fee will be $1000 plus semen shipping fee. ZZD is now owned by Thompson Horse and Goat Company. C.W. and Kathy Thompson, 910-583-5828.

into the NFR. She trails Brittany Pozzi of Victoria, Texas, who unofficially earned almost $171,000 despite skipping most of the final two months of competition, and Lindsay Sears of Nanton, Alberta, who gathered nearly $140,000.

Walker, 53, has one of the most versatile horses in the country in Perculatin, an 8-year-old bay gelding affectionately known as "Latte." The horse won Cheyenne, Wyo., in a huge outdoor pen in July to earn $16,185, and just last week was the high-money earner on the 13-second pattern at Omaha, Neb., for $11,488.

Omaha can be like a pre-cursor to the NFR, and Walker and Latte won the first two rounds and the average and very nearly won everything available. But then – and this should make things interesting come December – they hit two barrels in the finals so it'll be exciting to see what adjustments this hot duo makes!

Mark your calendars for Dec. 6-15; all the action will be broadcast live 10 nights in a row by Great American Country (GAC) starting at 10 p.m. (ET), with a replay the day after each performance at 4:30 p.m. (ET).

bloodlines that are making the races tougher, noting that some of the top futurity sires, like Chasin Firewater, Firewaterontherocks and Streakin Again, were all barrel horses too.

With Pistoletta's breeding, she had every reason to be great.

"Her daddy is a great horse, her mother was a great horse and she was started by a World Champion," said Duke. "This mare is supposed to be good."

Pistoletta is out of Kay's champion barrel horse Watch Me Runnin ("Bugsy"). Kay, who serves as general counsel for Ameri-Tech Industries in Center, Texas, won the Southern Region Barrel Racing Championship in the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association in 1998, and she also qualified Kay for numerous open-amateur rodeo finals in Texas and Louisiana.

"I ran her for about 10 years," said Kay of Bugsy. "We bought her in 1995. I only college rodeoed on her two years and ran her at Joseys (Jr World) and stuff like that. When I was in law school, I only ran her at a few rodeos. I've really been blessed to have her."

Bugsy's first foal, Runnin To The Bar, a 2006 gelding by Dr Nick Bar, was started by and campaigned early on by World Champion Brittany Pozzi. When Pozzi's rodeo commitments heated up, she handed the reins over to Duke.

"He won close to $50,000," said Kay. "Equi-Stat only has him at $30,000 because he won third at a slot race in Unadilla that never got included. I rodeoed on him a little before I sold him."

Pistoletta followed much of the same path.

Pozzi started the mare, campaigned her through the spring, winning the JB Quarter Horses Wrap N 3 Futurity in Gonzales, and later handed her over to Duke after the Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, Ark., at the end of May.

"We were laughing about it the other day—Laticia is winning on a horse that Brittany trained (Pistoletta), and Brittany's winning on a horse that Laticia trained (Yeah Hes Firen)," noted Kay.

Duke barely had Pistoletta a week when she took the mare to the Red Bud Classic in Oklahoma City.

"I had only had a couple of days," said Duke. "Of course, we had no exhibitions up there. I drug a barrel on her to qualify her for the World Show. Then I took her to Canada (for the Ecurie 5-55) and that worked out really well."

Although a lot of people say Pistoletta runs like her mother, Duke feels a lot of her sire in her.

"She has the same work ethic her dad had," she said. "When I really need her to lay down a run, she does, but she's so quiet. I've never had one this quiet, where you make run and they walk out when they're done."

"She's just a good mare. Anytime you have a big, strong horse that you can run in an O-ring, it's really fun. If she makes a mistake it's my fault."

Kay said she plans on keeping Pistoletta, who is the only filly out of Bugsy. She has a 3-year-old gelding by a cutting-bred stud and a yearling gelding by Alive N Firen. Kay is hopeful that they can get another foal out of Bugsy.

"We are just so proud of Pistoletta and even more proud of Bugsy!" said Kay, who wanted to thank Duke and the Schiller Ranch for their great care of Pistoletta. "She was such a great mare for a long time and now we are so blessed that her offspring are being campaigned and enjoying great success with Brittany and Laticia. We definitely want more Bugsy babies. I hate to talk too far in the future, as Bugsy is 24, but we plan on trying again in the spring."

Pistoletta may have an embryo flushed next year as well. She will be staying with Duke through her derby season, but Kay hasn't ruled out running the mare herself after she ages out of the derbies.

"I would love for my mother to run her, but she says she won't," said Kay. "Hopefully, my sister and I can run Pistoletta in the next couple of years (work permitting). For now, we want to let Laticia focus on finishing the futurity year then seasoning her at some rodeos and running in the derbies and large open shows."

Duke said it's fun to win for people like the Kay family.

"LeAnn, her mom and sister have put so much thought and effort into it," Duke said. "In the end, it's fun to win on a horse that someone's put their heart and soul into. When it all comes together it is pretty special."

2012 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale

Jud Little Ranch Production Sale Results September 29, 2012, Stillwater, OK

The bidding was brisk at the Jud Little Ranch Production Sale on September 29, 2012. The sale featured the top barrel racing bloodlines in the country. The sale horses were largely by Jud Little Ranch stallions along with a few outside stallions crossed on some of the best mares in the industry.

The large, standing room only crowd at the ranch took notice. The sale topper was Lot #21, Rockemsockemcash who fetched $27,000. The royally bred 3 year old filly well started on barrels and poles is by Bugemforcash and out of the barrel racing blue hen mare Willys Rockin (si 99). Willy Rockin has not only produced one of the greatest futurity horses of all time, Sx Frenchmans Vanila, but also barrel earners French Fancy Face, Frenchmans Lana, and Guys Magic Cross. Bugemforcash is by the million dollar barrel sire Cash Not Credit and out of another blue hen barrel mare the Bugs Alive In 75 mare, Flying Hi Babe, who has produced the likes of Flyin Hi Firewater.

The second high seller bringing the gavel down at $26,000 was another 3 year old started on barrels, lot #8 Perky Bug, a gelding by Bug In My Frosty out of the great Dash For Perks mare, Perky Pearl. Bug In My Frosty is the son of leading performance horse sire, Sun Frost, and out of the same blue hen dam as Bugemforcash, Flyin Hi Babe. Perky Pearl was the 2001 AQHA Reserve World Champion in Junior Barrel Racing as well as being a World Show Senior barrel qualifier.

The third high seller offered at the Jud Little Ranch was Lot #19, Cash N Rhythm, who sold for an even $20,000. Cash N Rhythm is by the Jud Little Ranch's million dollar barrel sire, Cash Not Credit, and out of I Forty Rhythm, a Special Effort/Bugs Alive In 75/Easy Jet bred mare. Cash N Rhythm was another 3 year old mare well started on the barrels and poles as well.

The overall sale average was a nice $8,900 on the 48 head offered in the Jud Little Ranch Production sale. The crowd was definitely after 3 year olds based on the average, as they averaged $12,055. The horses will leave for homes across the country as buyers came from 14 states and 3 countries. Full sale prices are listed below or you can go to www.judlitteranch.com and look under the News & Events tab for Horse Sale and look for full results and further breakdowns of the sale results.

Headin' For Home

Caring horse owners make sure their horses are in optimum condition for competition. They make sure their horses have the proper balanced feed and are in top physical condition by a good exercise program.

Now, how about you? Are you at your best and ready to handle whatever the world throws at you? Remember Scripture tells us our enemy, the devil, walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. (1 Peter 5:8)

In order to have a full, happy and satisfied life, we need to have a proper diet, just like our horses. And, this includes feeding on God's Word and filling ourselves with it so that it is the first thing that spills out of our mouths when trouble comes. We need to exercise our faith, too. Romans 10:17 tells us that faith comes by hearing the Word of God so we must listen to good teachings by authentic Bible teachers.

We must pray and talk to God, also. If you ask Him to help you better understand Scriptures, He will do it. Don't hang on to old fears and failures. God's mercy is new every day and His healing touch is the only remedy that works to keep you mentally sound and healthy in a crooked and perverse world.

"Cast all your care upon Him, for He cares for you." (1 Peter 5:7). Freedom from anxiety is a free gift from God that we all can receive if we accept it. Then we will be in the best possible condition to enjoy this abundant life that Jesus died to give us.
