Welcome Home—Pete Oen Dominates Congress with Guys Dashing Jet, Strait Dallas Fuel

by Tanya Randall

Ohio native Pete Oen had a record-breaking All-American Quarter Horse Congress, winning the Barrel Racing Sweepstakes and Junior Barrel Racing titles on Guys Dashing Jet (“Stella”), owned and by bred by Cathy Geary of Wadsworth, Ohio, and winning the Senior Barrel Racing on Strait Dallas Fuel, owned by Lynn Cicman.

“It was pretty overwhelming,” said Oen. “In the 51 years of the event, no one has ever won the juniors, seniors and sweepstakes in the same year, so it was one for the record books.”

Oen, who now calls Ardmore, Okla., home, pocketed nearly $9,000, a Carl Ammerman saddle, three Congress bronze trophies, three buckles, three pairs of trophy stirrups and three famed Congress coats.

He started off Congress with the first go of the Sweepstakes, one of the toughest straight-run, non-rodeo races in the country. The following day was the Senior Barrel Racing, which Strait Dallas Fuel won by 1/100th of a second despite a slip at the third barrel.

The second go of the Sweepstakes and the Junior Barrels was on the same day, so Oen decided to scratch Stella from the second round after she won the Juniors.

“We decided not to run her back in the sweepstakes, because we didn’t want to run her twice in the same day,” Oen explained. He also drew Strait Dallas Fuel (Dallas Fuel x Straight Three Eight x Strait Silver) out of the second round as well. “I did not want to make four runs on him, especially since it was his first weekend back since Diamonds & Dirt (in March).”

In the Sweepstakes, the Top 20 times overall qualify for the Finals. The Championship is determined by the winning aggregate between the qualifying time and Finals’ time. So, it was a bit of a gamble, not taking the second run.

“You keep you best time from both runs, throw the rest out and take the fastest 20 times overall,” Oen explained. “So, even though you place top 10 in one of the rounds, you’re not guaranteed to make the finals. Normally, at that particular place, the dirt is new the first day. They decided to run some of the other barrel classes first instead of starting off with the Sweepstakes to let the ground settle in and maybe more fair and consistent. Inevitably the ground in the second round always gets faster because the ground’s been used for three days.”

Stella ended up ninth coming back after finishing third in the first go, and Strait Dallas Fuel, who was eighth in the first round, was bumped out of the Finals by two spots.

Troy Crumrine led the field on Matt and Bendi Dunn’s Imafenmansprincess (“Baby Flash”). They had swept the qualifying rounds and as the fastest qualifiers ran last on the ground in the Finals.

With Crumrine’s domination, Oen didn’t have great expectations going into the Finals.

“I knew if she made her run, she could win the Finals, but I had no clue that she could win the average,” he said. “I was ninth coming back on her, so I was 12th out. I was 3-and-a-half-tenths behind Troy, and she came back and ran a 4. When I ran, they said I was leading the Finals and winning the average. I thought, ‘Heck, there’s eight more people that ran faster than me in one of the go’s left to run. I went and got her a drink of water. When I came back, they were on the last three or four. Bert Thompson told me that was still winning it. Each one that ran, they said sitting second in the average. She ended up winning the average, but not by very much.’”

Unfortunately, Geary wasn’t there to see her horse win. She was in Oklahoma at the Future Fortunes Sale.

“We met each other coming back and forth,” laughed Oen. “I bring the hometown horse back and she doesn’t even get to see her run!”

A Smooth Guy, 2005-2017

Last week, A Smooth Guy, Myers Family's up and coming son of Frenchmans Guy, injured his leg beyond repair while playing in his paddock after arriving at Royal Vista Ranches in Oklahoma and was laid to rest.

The 2005 son of the leading living Barrel Racing sire, Frenchmans Guy, was out of the producing Dry Doc/Jet Smooth mare, Docs Movida. Docs Movida produced barrel futurity money earners Frenchmans Dry Lady and Guys Smooth Jetta, both full siblings to A Smooth Guy.

He was born and raised on the Myers Ranch where they knew he was special from the time he was born. He would later pass that "special" quality onto his offspring. He was a striking buckskin stud colt from birth and developed into not only a barrel horse as his breeding suggested but a great team roping horse who was a high level heading and heeling horse.

As a sire, his first colt to the arena, Ima Smooth Kidder was a futurity money winner and was soon followed by the phenom, Smooth N Famous, who was a multiple futurity, derby and rodeo winner of $170k+. They were followed by Parker-Wood Memorial Futurity Champion, Ima Friendly Guy and many others. He was also a true all around performance sire, siring UX Smooth Talkin Doc who has won 4 Pole Bending Futurities in 2017. Also, A Smooth Guy colts are quickly becoming top calf roping, team roping and ranch horses. According to the latest Equestat sire report, A Smooth Guy had sired 31 barrel racing performers with $278,229 of earnings and an average of $8975 per colt.

Here is the statement from the Myers family about A Smooth Guy's passing from his Facebook page:

"It is with heavy hearts and the deepest sadness, our family must share that A Smooth Guy was laid to rest. Smoothie suffered an injury to his leg while playing in his paddock. After consulting with several vets, it was agreed that the damage could not be repaired. We thank Royal Vista Equine (Laura, Milt, Vaughn & Jill) both business associates and friends who have gone above and beyond in helping us get thru this tragedy. Those of you who know us well, know what our horses mean to us. We feel so Blessed to have had Smoothie in our lives."

Our thoughts and prayers are with all the Myers family as they come to grips with the untimely loss of Smoothie...Rest In Peace Smoothie.

Oen, who has sponsored by MVP, Equi-Resp, Outlaw Equine, Bluebonnet Feeds, XX Equine and Best Ever Pads, has won $221,000 this year, his career best, and the majority of it was on Stella. The daughter of Frenchmans Guy, out of the Dash For Perks mare Perks Dashing Jet, has won more than $125,000. She's competed in nine futurities, earning two championships and four reserve championships. She won the Parker Wood Memorial Slot Futurity and also was Reserve Champion of the junior barrels at the Fort Worth Stock Show.

"That mare doesn't go to jackpots," said Oen, who has the JB Quarter Horses Futurity, the AQHA World Show and the BFA Derby left for the year. "Even though it looks like that mare has made lots and lots of run, she doesn't go to jackpots to prep for the next futurity. We keep her at home and lope her. We school her the day before or two days before we leave to go the next futurity. She stays at home unless she's at something big. She's probably made the least amount of runs of any colt that I've ever had. She's just been effective."

We would like to extend our sincere appreciation to everyone who reached out to our family with kind words, prayers and special messages to help ease our loss.

It has been a tough week here at the Myers Ranch.

We are overwhelmed and humbled by how Smoothie had touched so many people's lives in the short time he was with us.

A Smooth Guy will forever have a special place in our hearts.

He was raised, trained and stood here at our ranch and he will be missed.

We will always remember his big soft eye, his kind heart, his willingness to please and his natural athletic ability. We look to the future and the enjoyment we will have watching his sons and daughters carry on his traits in the performance arena.

We consider ourselves "BLESSED" to have had Smoothie in our lives.

JL REDDY TO CHARM

2014 gray stallion by Red × BF Silver Charm, Takin On The Cash

FEE $1000 PLUS SHIPPING. FROZEN SEMEN AVAILABLE. ELIGIBILITIES VGBRA AND FUTURE FORTUNES. One of Red's last foals, "Reddy" reminds me so much of his sire with his personality, that beautiful front end and the effortless way he moves. He'll be making his barrel racing debut in OKC this December. Red's top barrel racing money earner is Xtrared, who is a 2-time NFR qualifier and Ram National Circuit Finalist with earnings of $458,211, owned by Christina Richman. His dam, BF Silver Charm (ROM racing), is out of Missy Yupon—dam of BF Shenanigan, a top barrel futurity colt with EquiStat earnings of $134,026. Her sire, Takin On The Cash, has barrel progeny with $468,185 EquiStat earnings. BF Silver Charm's foals have barrel earnings of over $134,223. Her top earner is JL Takin On Fame, a futurity money winner as well as a PRCA Circuit Finalist, ridden by Sally Young, with EquiStat earnings of $79,154.

Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi & Shali Lord Seize Mountain States Circuit Titles

by Tanya Randall

Two-time World Champion Barrel Racer Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Shali Lord locked up their Mountain State Circuit Championships at the last weekend's Loveland, Colo., Finals.

Pozzi Tonozzi, who splits time between her hometown of Victoria, Texas, and Colorado home in Larkspur, had the Year-End Championship well in hand before the Circuit Finals ever started. She and her great group of horses—namely Steele Magnolias and Kisskiss Bangbang—won $30,541 within the circuit, which helped her for her 11th Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

The seasoned veteran knew that with nearly all sanctioned rodeos counting toward the WPRA World Standings, doing well within the circuit was important.

“The way things are now, you have to get to your circuit finals,” she said. “It used to be getting to the circuit finals or the All-American Finals were definitely good, but not mandatory. Now, with it all counting, you’ve got to get to them.”

Pozzi Tonozzi, a two-time National Circuit Finals Champion, was a little disappointed with how her Circuit Finals went with her home-raised 10-year-old mare Steele (Magnolia Bar Jet x Kings Frosted Lady x Roan Bar Eighty), but was in good spirits about it.

“I kind of got by my first barrel in the first round and was just a little out of placing. I was last out in the second round and it was so deep. She could not get out it and she was scrambling. The last night, they had a bull loading in the bucking chute behind her second barrel and she spooked from it. So, it was just a combination of things not going well for me,” she laughed.

She did have some success on another of her homegrown superstars—Ima Super Fly Guy (Frenchmans Guy x Streakin Six Babe x Streakin Six)—in the jackpots during the day at the Circuit Finals.

“I won the jackpot both days,” she added. “The second day, we ran on the same pattern as the rodeo and he ran a 14.8, and a 15.1 was the fastest time at the rodeo.”

Pozzi Tonozzi, who is sponsored by Oxy-Gen, Professional's Choice, Tanner Equine, Manzanola Feeds, Purina, and Double J Saddlery, is looking forward to returning to Kissimmee next year for a little redemption. She won the Mountain States Circuit Finals Rodeo last year while pregnant, and was just 14-days postpartum when she ran at Kissimmee this year.

“It wasn't really fair to myself or my horse,” she laughed, recalling this year's NCFR. “We did manage to win some money.”

She also managed to make the NFR even though she missed all of the winter run while awaiting the arrival of she and husband Garrett's daughter, Tinley, now 7 months. With baby in-tow, she made the most of the lucrative summer run and was able to concentrate on getting in her circuit count of rodeos in September instead of chasing dollars in the Northwest.

“It hasn't been too bad,” said Pozzi Tonozzi of hauling with her daughter. “She's been a rock star. I wasn't going to let it slow me down. I enjoy being a mom and I love her to death. It's been quite the experience this summer, but at the end of the day I still have to make a living, and this is the only way I know how to do it.”

Shali Lord of Lamar, Colo., understands the hauling game with little kids well. She and husband Phy have an 18-month-old daughter Steeley and a 6-year-old boy, Slade, who is very eager for his mother's trip near Disney World next year.

Lord, who qualified for the NFR in 2005 aboard the spectacular turner SX Docs Slider, won the Mountain States Circuit Finals aboard the 8-year-old stallion Freckles Ta Fame (“Can Man”).

Owned and bred by Joe and Carla Spitz, Can Man is by Dash Ta Fame out of Frenchmans Freckles, a Frenchmans Guy daughter out of a Colonel Freckles, Peppy San-bred mare. Lord has ridden him off and on over the past three years, since the stallion was 5. She won the Guymon Pioneer Days Rodeo in 2015 before stepping off the stallion to await the arrival of her second child. During that time, Ashley Shafer, who trained and futurity'd Can Man, rode him at the ERA Rodeos at the beginning of 2016.

At the Circuit Finals, Lord and Can Man nearly swept the event, winning $6,269.

“Can Man is just feeling so good,” she said. “He worked really, really good all three runs. He's just really solid and consistent. He won the first round and came back and won the second. He was a 1/10th faster on the second run. He probably could have won the third round, but I safety-ed up a little bit. I just wanted him to get around the first barrel. The weekend before I had drug over the first barrel in the short round to do really well at the WPRA Finals, so I was thinking that I just needed to get around them and stay good for the average. I think we were one hole out in the third round. I just needed to secure the average spot.”

herself up for a 2018 run, she's a little leery of making too bold a plan.

“I would like for there to be one,” said Lord, who is also qualified for RFD-TV's The American Semifinals Rodeo in Fort Worth, Texas. “We're just going to play it by ear and see how it goes.”

“I'd like to get in the building (rodeos), but I just stayed in the circuit last year, so I didn't win enough. The only way to get in is for me to do really well early in the season. We're going to Casper this weekend and we'll definitely go to Denver. Then we have The American. We'll see how things are going and how he's feeling and go from there.”

Lord, who is sponsored by Justin Boots, Cinch, Cactus Saddlery, 522 Health, Rodeo Quincy, Cool-Aid and Larry The Cable Guy, also wanted to thank Can Man's owners.

“They're great people and they have a really great program that they're building. I'm grateful to them for trusting me with him. They're great to work with,” she said.

She also wanted to thank her family for making possible to haul.

“It takes a village with two little kids and rodeoing,” she said. “My parents and Phy's parents all help out to make it all possible.”

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

For all of us, there are times in our lives when it seems like everything is going wrong. We stub our toe, bang our head on the tractor bucket, fix the heat unit in the automatic waterer when it's below freezing...to have to fix it again when your favorite horse paws the front off..... Or maybe you just aren't communicating with your kids, your spouse or your boss. I hate those times. It feels like there's a dark cloud hanging over me. I've tried lots of things. Saying over and over, "Take deep calming breaths! Take deep calming breaths!" didn't do a thing. And if you're in Wal Mart, people think you are about to go postal!

I can tell you what does work. Being thankful. Read I Cor. 15:57 and Col. 3:15. If we quit focusing on the problem, and look around at what we can be thankful for, it will turn our sorry attitudes around.

For example. My good mare got hurt this spring. NO BARREL RACING FOR ME ALL SUMMER!!! BUT GOD....told me to get on the three year old that was still in Mike's remuda. What a blessing! AND, I have all these chickens. They are starting to lay. I fix up this wonderful chicken house with nests and everything! But they are like quail! I'm finding eggs EVERYWHERE!!!! I'm murmuring and muttering and hunting eggs. But God..... I have flower pots on my step. One morning, I look out and there's a line of chickens waiting to get in the big pot. They are leaving me fresh eggs right on my doorstep!!! PRAISE GOD! (They are leaving other things, too, but today I'm talking about being thankful!)
