Running Down A Dream—2017 NFR Field Set

By Tanya Randall

Everyone knew that the Wrangler Champions Challenge Finale in Sioux Falls, S.D., would greatly impact the race for the 2017 National Finals Rodeo. Before the ink was dry on the time sheets at the rodeos in the West on Saturday night, the field for the 2017 NFR was set.

The defining moment came Friday night when Kimmie Wall and her gritty mare TKW Bullysfamous Fox picked up $2,204 for placing third on the first night of the Champions Challenge. That check effectively put the NFR out of reach for the remaining bubble chasers, who had to rely on literally winning the remaining regular season rodeos, and two-time NFR qualifier Jackie Ganter, a fellow Challenge contestant, who had the most ground to make up from her 19th-position.

On Thursday before the start of the Challenge, Ram National Circuit Finals Champion Emily Miller, who finished an incredible season in 17th after battling soundness and illness issues with her horses, announced on Facebook that her 2017 campaign had closed. Even though she made paint-peeling, barrel-rocking wicked run at Kansas City aboard Quijet, questionable conditions at New Braunsfels, Texas, forced her to take a close look at the remaining money to be won.

She posted that she had accomplished three major goals for the year—winning pro rodeos on all four of her horses, winning the RAM National Circuit Finals and setting herself up for an amazing 2018 run, but was saving herself and her horses to fight another day.

On Friday, two-time NFR qualifier Jana Bean changed her travel plans, knowing the NFR was out of reach. Bean, who was 18th in the World, took an early lead at Pasadena, but was overtaken mid-week, ultimately ending up third. After the conclusion of slack in Kansas City she was two holes out of placing. Rather than going to Mona, Utah, she headed home to Fort Stockton, Texas. She finished her season victoriously, just two-hours from home in Las Cruces with a win on Its Complicated.

Bean will still be one to watch in December however. She has her talented 4-year-old TR Dollysfamousdash (by Dash Ta Fame out of two-time WPRA Reserve World Champion TR Dashing Badger (“Dolly”)), entered in the BFA World Championship Futurity in Oklahoma City.

On late Friday afternoon, Sherry Cervi, who at 16th in the standings had the best chance of cracking the Top 15, took to Facebook to thank her supporters and commend her fellow competitors. She said she had never seen such a close race in her 20-plus years of chasing the NFR.

Like Miller, Cervi got fouled by mother nature at New Braunsfels, where they had postponed the Thursday night performance of the rodeo until Friday. Unfortunately, Cervi was out in Las Cruces that night. She left that Las Cruces winning it, only to learn that Wall had shut the door in Sioux Falls. She turned out of Mona, Utah, on Saturday, because even if she had won both Las Cruces and Mona and Wall not won another dime—at the Challenge or Kansas City, where they were both placing—Cervi still would have been short.

Wall said she knew she had to win, but also knew due to social media that her first run at the Champions Challenge would be enough.

“I didn’t have to do any figuring because everyone on Facebook did it for me,” she laughed. “I had seen Jolee Lautaret (Jordan) had posted and I know she’s pretty smart when it comes to figuring that stuff. After I saw her post, I thought I could rest a little easier.”

Walls said her entire last run of rodeos was nerve-wracking because she knew she had to win.

“It’s not like those girls behind you are going to let up and give it to you,” she said. “They’re seasoned veterans. That makes it even more nerve-wracking, I think. They are amazing women with amazing horsepower. I’m just so honored to be among them and be the one that came out top. I’m so honored to be able to compete alongside them. I don’t hardly have words for it. It’s kind of bitter-sweet. I’m the one that pulled out on top, but that means your close friends fall a few dollars short. That’s really hard for me.”

Wall’s bid for her second NFR was hampered by a mystery illness

Leading Sire Judge Cash Passes

Judge Cash, the 1987 son of Dash For Cash out of the Mito Paint (TB) mare, Mary Mito, passed away Monday, September 18, 2017 at the age of 30. Judge Cash started out his life on the racetrack, where he not only showed blazing speed, earning a 110 speed index and running in the All American Futurity, but toughness and soundness placing 1-3 in 25 of his 34 starts. Judge Cash consistently sired speed and passed on his soundness on the racetrack, but he was destined to make his mark in the barrel horse world.

He sired 2002 NFR qualifier, Quick Judge (ridden by Amy Dale), and also sired the 6 time NFR qualifier and WPRA/PRCA Horse of the Year Judge Buy Cash (ridden by Brenda Mays) and is also the broodmare sire of multiple NFR qualifier and one of the greatest barrel horses of All-Time, An Oakie With Cash (Louie, ridden by Lisa Lockhart). Judge also showed his versatility siring an NFR pickup horse and a Pendleton Round-Up winning heading horse in the team roping.

Judge sired over $1.3 million of barrel racing earners and also was the broodmare sire of over $2.1 million of barrel racing earners.

Here is a personal note from Judge's caretaker and owner Scottie Johnson:

I've been trying to get the courage and strength up to write this... It's been a little over a week now, and I still find myself getting sick to my stomach as I attempt this. So, here goes:
We lost Judge Cash last Monday.

It all happened so fast... it seemed. He was so dang healthy as you can see by the picture taken by Bonnie Cazier not even a month ago. He started to get a belly ache Sunday night about 11 pm. I listened to his gut sounds (which were not great), gave him banamine, and got DrMeredith Pierce-Brewer out right away. We worked on him through the night and at 4 AM we thought we may have turned the corner... All gut sounds were back, and he seemed to be feeling better. Doc left, and I went and tried to lay down and get warm. By 5 AM he was already going back the wrong direction. I was able to keep him semi comfortable with stuff I had, but told Doc at around 7:30 am that she should probably come back out.

Now Judge is one tough son of a gun. He never got over dramatic, but was clearly uncomfortable and in pain. As time went on it became apparent that we likely might not win this battle. Most all of you know how hard that call is to make. Is it the right time...? too soon...? do we give him more time...? he's suffering... what is the right answer???

I was on the phone with my good friend and long time supporter of Judge, Tammy Lynne Bailey; and at 9 am she asked me "what was in my heart"? I already knew what that answer was, and I meekly said "to let him go". I then realized at that point that I would be saying Good Bye to my very dear pal that I get to love on everyday. He was such a good snuggler, and I loved to bury my nose into him and take in his smell. He smelled like no other horse I've ever smelled. No wonder the ladies loved him.

At 10 am... we found him the right place, well he did actually. (that's a whole 'nother story) So... with everyone sobbing, including Doc, we sent him off to heaven. He went gracefully and peacefully. As my friend Wendy Weems told me in her sweet card...

It is written that when Jesus is coming back, he will be riding a white horse. I then understood why God called him home.

I love you Judge. You were an amazing gift from God, and I will be forever grateful.

You have given not only me so much, but also so many others. You were never just my horse...

I thank each and every person that loved The Judge.
Good Bye Judge... I love you.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Scottie as she deals with the loss of her big grey buddy Judge.

Children's book "Short Go Makes the NFR" debuts

When new mom and longtime equine journalist Lindsay Keller began reading books to her son, she realized the "cowboy" books available to children were few and far between and many of them were created by people not truly familiar with the Western way of life.

So, she decided to do something about it. Partnering with her mother and illustrator, Marilyn Domer, the two created the book "Short Go Makes the NFR" to give rodeo kids a heart-warming story they could relate to and appreciate.

"Short Go" is a bay Quarter Horse who is owned by siblings Elsie and Max. Inspired by real childhood play, Short Go and the children re-enact the timed events at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

The book has a surprise ending where Short Go travels to Las Vegas to help carry out a very special task during each performance at the real NFR.

As part of the launch process, "Short Go Makes the NFR" was not only reviewed by rodeo families, but also representatives of the professional rodeo industry.

"When Lindsay and Marilyn approached us with their book idea, we knew right away it was something we wanted to be a part of," said PRCA Commissioner Karl Stressman. "We hope 'Short Go Makes the NFR' helps fuel a passion for the sport of professional rodeo in the hearts of every young cowboy and cowgirl who reads it."

"We are honored that Lindsay and Marilyn chose to include Miss Rodeo America in this wonderful children's book," said Kiki Shumway, President of Miss Rodeo America, Inc. "We hope this story will encourage and inspire young cowgirls to follow in her footsteps as ambassadors who will promote the sport of professional rodeo and our western traditions."

to her one-and-only mount Foxy. It wasn't until the peak of the summer run that Dr. Ben Espy diagnosed the mare with a liver ailment and got her health turned in the right direction.

"A month ago, I never would have believed that I would be fighting for this position," said Wall. "I would have felt blessed to finish 16th."

Wall said it's unlikely that Foxy will make a trip to her circuit finals in November, rather the mare would stay home and rest up for the NFR.

"She deserves it," said Wall. "She fought for it really hard here at the end. This last trip was a little tough on her just because we covered so many miles, from California to Kansas City and then to Sioux Falls. That's a lot of miles in a really short time. But, she's really back to being Foxy. She's going to come home and have a nice rest."

Leading the charge of first-time NFR qualifiers is World No. 1 Tiany Schuster, who shattered the regular-season earnings record with $250,378. Other first-time qualifiers include veterinarian Kathy Grimes, RFD-TV's The American and College National Champion Hailey Kinsel, WPRA Rookie of the Year Taci Bettis, Tillar Murray and Kellie Collier.

NFR sophomores include Nellie Miller, who first qualified in 2010 aboard her current mount's half-brother, Kassie Mowry, who first qualified in 2005 aboard a pair of Jud Little-owned aged event horses, NFR arena record co-holder and NFR earnings record-holder Amber Moore, No. 2 in the World Stevi Hillman, Ivy Conrado and Wall.

Only three are multiple-NFR veterans—two-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, who qualified for the NFR and had a baby in the same year; two-time NFR Champion and 2015 Reserve World Champion Lisa Lockhart, who has made 11 consecutive trips to Las Vegas; and Sydni Blanchard, who is make her third trip.

Now, the question everyone will be asking is "Can anyone catch

The NFR, much like the season's end, will be exciting to watch as always.

Kassie Mowry Tops Ardmore Futurity with Whitney Davison's BR Golden Leader

By Tanya Randall

Whitney Baker Davison scored a major coup when Kassie Mowry agreed to ride her 4-year-old homebred stallion BR Golden Leader ("Taxi"). It paid off handsomely with a $8,716 victory at The Ardmore Futurity, held September 27-October 1 in Oklahoma.

Mowry and Taxi placed ninth in the first go with a 15.011 and came back to win the second go with the fastest time of the futurity, a 14.563—a time that would have won the American Qualifier.

"My first run, he was a little close on the first and second," she said, "so I asked him to give me more room at the third. He went a little overboard and gave me three times the room I needed. On the second run, I just let him do his thing. I knew he was fast enough that the clock would take care of itself."

Bred by Davison, Taxi is by Confederate Leader out of her pro rodeo winning mare, KN Docs Gray Gold ("Cricket"), by Groanies Gray Pony. Davison got just four foals out of the mare before she had to be put down due to complications from Equine Protozoal Myeloencephalitis.

Incidentally, Jordon Briggs placed in the second round of the futurity on KN Hoppy Ta Be, a Dash Ta Fame half-sister to KN Docs Gray Gold. Both are out of Docs Smooth Gold, by Smooth Herman.

Of the four foals out of Cricket, Davison owns three including a 5-year-old filly by A Streak Of Fling and a 2-year-old filly by Playgun. Kimi Nichols, who bred and raised Cricket, has the mare's oldest foal, KN Beetle Bug, by KN Streakin Jets.

Davison said Taxi's disposition and the fact that he's the only colt out of Cricket means that he'll likely stay a stallion.

"He's really well behaved," she said. "He can really cross on anything. He's not a typical barrel horse on the bottom side. We bred him to six of our own mares this year and will stand him to the public next year.

"I've had a lot of inquiries on him, but he's really special to me because of his genes and I just can't part with him. He's just a cool horse. I call him my old cow horse, because he acts like an old rope horse. He reminds me a lot of his momma. I'm hoping to be rodeoing on him one day like I did her. If not, we'll see where it goes."

Kay Young started Taxi as a 3-year-old and had him entered in the BFA Juvenile. Unfortunately, colic surgery before the event delayed the start of his career for three months. When he came back, Davison started running him.

"I ran him at the Lucky Dog in Texarkana and placed in the average and rounds there. We made it back at Diamonds & Dirt. At Fort Smith, I high loped—I don't know what I was thinking; he had a beautiful run but we weren't running."

Davison took Taxi to the Colorado Classic and the Utah futurities in June before being turned out. So far during his futurity career, Taxi was actually packing double since Davison was pregnant with her second child.

With her advancing pregnancy, Davison was trying to find another jockey for Taxi.

"I was begging Kassie to take him," she laughed. "I finally talked her into it. She rode him about two weeks and finally took him to a jackpot. She told me I wasn't going to get my horse back and she wanted him entered everywhere. It's funny now that I had to pull her arm to take him and now she just loves him."

Although she was initially leery about taking another stallion, Mowry said that Taxi has been "a perfect gentleman."

"I really know the Confederate Leaders so that made it very easy," said Mowry. "Kay Young had him going really well and Whitney had won on him. All I had to do was make a few little adjustments for me. I made a bit change and changed his angles a little bit. I did most of that work at a trot. He's just really responsive and has a really good mind."

Mowry will run Taxi at the WPRC World Finals Futurity and JB Quarter Horses Futurity. While Davison said she might be back in the saddle in time for the BFA World Championship, it's highly likely that Craig Brooks maybe riding the stallion.

With the NFR made, Mowry did her best to get much of her futurity winning done knowing that her colts wouldn't get an opportunity to shine with her at the BFA World Championship, which overlaps the NFR. She said most of her futurity horses for the year have sold and will likely be running with new owners. Michael Boone chose not to go to the BFA with Girls Dig Fame since Mowry wasn't available. Mr JB 136, too, maybe sold before the BFA and given a chance to run with another rider. Her juvenile colts will make their debut at New Year's futurities in Edna, Texas.

Fortunately, her one-month rodeo run over the summer didn't put her juvenile colts behind.

"I normally give them a month off in the summer," she laughed, "but it's never all of them at once! So, I did come back to six fresh 3-year-olds. They picked right back up on the barrels, but they were a little out of shape."

JL Dash Ta Heaven Geldings Dominate Jud Little Ranch Production Sale

By Tanya Randall

The offspring of leading barrel horse sire JL Dash Ta Heaven dominated the Jud Little Ranch Production Sale, held September 30 at the Springer, Okla., ranch. The top four high-sellers were all by the National Finals Rodeo qualifying son of Dash Ta Fame out of WPRA World Champion Dynas Plain Special, by Special Feelins.

Topping the sale was the 2-year-old gelding Smooth N Heavenly, out of NFR qualifier, Smooth My Credit ("Layla"), by Cash Not Credit. With Equi-Stat earnings of $110,194, Layla was a multiple pro rodeo winner and champion of the LG Pro Classic Slot Futurity Consolation. Her dam was Josey Jr World Champion, Smooth My Feathers, a daughter of Follys Jet Smooth with Equi-Stat earnings of $30,935.

Smooth N Heavenly was purchased for $40,000 by Dave and Lori Zabel of Horace, N.D. He will be trained by Jolene Montgomery, who trained both JL Dash Ta Heaven and Smooth My Credit. The Zabels had previously purchased champion JL Jamaican Me Rich (sold as Dash Ta Tinkinator) at the Little sale. The gelding went on to win the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity with trainer Jolene Montgomery for the Zabels and the Josey Reunion with Dustin Angelle for his new owners Southwestern Farms. He carried Sophie Palmore to three 1D victories at the Ardmore Futurity this weekend.

The 4-year-old gelding Likedaladiesinheaven, out of Lady Rompin, by Tiny Tornado Too, was the second high-seller at $39,500. Lady Rompin is dam of five barrel racing earners of $285,918 including BFA World Futurity Champion Aced My Bully ($101,285), AQHA World Champion Jr Barrel Horse Happy To Run Em ($99,479) and Better Barrel Races Finals Futurity Consolation Champion My Lady Bug Leo ($77,635). He had competed at the 2016 BFA Juvenile Futurity was eligible to compete at the remaining 2017 futurities.

The double-bred Special Feelins 2-year-old gelding Heavensfeelinsspecial was the third high-seller, commanding a $36,000 bid also from the Zabels. The JL Dash Ta Heaven is the first foal out of NBHA Youth World Champion and multiple open 1D Winner, Wee Feelin Special, by Special Feelins. Wee Feelin Special has Equi-Stat earnings of $86,493 and is still competing. Heavensfeelinsspecial will go into training with Molli Montgomery.

Firin Ta Heaven, another top and bottom NFR-bred 2-year-old was the fourth-richest buy, selling for $32,000. The gelding is out of two-time AQHA World Champion Barrel Horse, Flitin Firin Cash, who carried Kassie Mowry to her first NFR in 2005. Flitin Firin Cash, a daughter of Cash Not Credit out of the Fire Water Flit mare, Gin N Firewater, has Equi-Stat earnings of $70,468 not including rodeo earnings. Firin Ta Heaven's full sibling Flitin Ta Heaven is already a 1D money earner.

Rounding out the top five was the patterned 5-year-old gelding Feelin The Dynasty that sold for $28,000. By FDD Dynasty, Feelin The Dynasty is out of NFR qualifier Frosty Feelins. A daughter of WPRA World Champion Sire Sun Frost, Frosty Feelins is out of WPRA World Champion Dynas Plain Special. She has already produced three 1D winners, including pro rodeo money earner Ms Carrie Lou and Little's junior stallion One Frosty Corona, who placed at his first pro rodeo this summer.

Overall, 37 of the 40 cataloged horses sold—with the exclusion of a broodmare that was passed out of the sale and two that were scratched. Purchases totaled $490,800 with an average price of $13,265.

The JL Dash Ta Heaven's had the highest average overall at $18,187. The Chicados Cash brought $10,033 on average. Bugemforcash offspring averaged $10,250. The Bug In My Frosty offspring averaged $8,480.

Interestingly, the geldings far outsold the fillies, $18,193 to $11,195, which is a solid indication that buyers expect their purchases to find the winner's circle.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I'm organized. And God help anyone around me who isn't.... Without thinking, I will just naturally start getting them organized. Because we should ALL be that way, right? Well, I guess that would be good in my world, but I can tell you that overall it would be terrible. For one thing, there wouldn't be any art. That's just too out of the box. And the music would be boring. I have caught myself telling the praise team that I like such and such. It's all they can do not to roll their eyes at me, all the while just doing what God has called them to do. (Thank you, Lord!)

This last week, God has been talking to me about selfishness. What it is and what it looks like in people. Well, what a surprise when He pointed out my selfish ways. Sheesh. God has given each of us very wonderful, distinct gifts. The whole body of Christ needs them. But it is a mistake when we think OUR gift is THE most important one. I Cor. 12:14-27 talks about the "body" of Christ. Eyes, ears, hands and feet, all working together. It's Gods instruction on how we need each other.

So, where does selfishness come in? It comes in when every day, all day, we only think of ME, ME, ME. When I get up in the morning, I immediately think of what "P" can get done today. I'm always on a mission to get the next project done. And in the natural, I would run over the top of you to be sure it does get done. That's selfish and it's not good. I am only thinking of ME. Now, getting the job done is good, but it is NOT more important than a person.

Do you think that you and I could just challenge ourselves tomorrow and for the whole day, think about and do for, everyone else but us? Me either...let's try for an hour and work our way up. We have to start somewhere...
