2012 WPRA/Pro Season Already Underway

Sherry Cervi and MP Meter My Hay

2011 AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year

2010 Reserve AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year

LTE: $650,000 - $700,000

BRR: What is your normal warmup routine with Stingray?

Cervi: With Stingray I make sure she is limbered up good. The nice thing with her is if I get on her too early I can go watch the rodeo and it doesn't bother her at all. I get on early at least 45 minutes before I run barrels. I will do a lot of walking and trotting. If she is too fresh I will lope her and trot her more. Right before I go in I will do some circles and flex her and make sure she is listening. After she is good and warmed up I will switch from my warmup bit to my competition bit and put on her boots and cinch up for the final time just as the barrel racing starts. I always run her in a short shanked two-piece snaffle gag from Carolina Bit, and a long tie-down. I alternate what I warm her up in. Sometimes I use a Petska chain bit and sometimes a Cervi 3 piece bit.

BRR: What are your tips to keep horse good all year.

Cervi: For me, the key is my world revolves around Stingray when we are rodeoing. I will drive out of the way to get her a good place to be. If I feel I need to get her into an arena early, I will drive there all night to get there for her. She is such a great horse and loves her job so it makes it easy. She makes my life easy.

BRR: What are your plans between now and the NFR?

Cervi: I don't plan on going to any rodeos but when it gets closer I will take Stingray to some jackpots. She will need some runs before we get to the NFR. She always runs better after a few runs. She has been on a vacation from the middle of August through September so she is fresh and ready to go. So I will be in Marana, AZ for a while. We are in Wisconsin shipping cattle right now but once we get home to Marana, I will just hang out and haul colts to all the good jackpots going on through the fall. This is a great time of year to be in Arizona!

She has won 32 World Championships with the GRA-WPRA, including barrel racing, calf roping, cutting horse and all around. Bush has given barrel racing clinics for 30 years. She and her family have sold many champion futurity and rodeo horses.

Winter Jurassic Classic Date Change

The Winter Jurassic Classic held at the Somervell Expo Center has changed their 2012 dates to January 26-29, 2011. More details will be forthcoming at www.glenroseexpo.org.

The Chocolate Dash 1999-2011

Bred by Ray & Cheri Wardell of Moorcroft, Wyoming, The Chocolate Dash, was sired by Dashing With Cash by First Down Dash, and out of a AAA+ daughter of Whizz Blitz, Bigs Sis. The 1999 bay gelding earned his AQHA Racing Register of Merit and was stakes placed as a two-year old.

Deb Christy purchased Choc in 2003. During his barrel futurity year of 2004, they won over $27,000, several saddles, and made the finals of the Barrel Futurities of America World Championship Futurity in Oklahoma City, and the finals of the Kansas Pro Rodeo Association. They were finalist at the 2006 Women's Professional Rodeo Association Mountain States Circuit Divisional Tour; 2006-2008 Kansas Professional Rodeo Association; and 2007 WPRA World Finalist. In 2007 & 2008, they were the Year-end Barrel Racing Champions of both Mid-States Rodeo Association and Nebraska State Rodeo Association, setting an NSRA all-time record for season earnings in a single event. They finished 2008 in the top fifteen of the WPRA Prairie Circuit.

Deb almost lost Choc in 2009 due to an intestinal inflammation from an unknown source. His treatment and recovery took nearly two years. But the beginning of 2011, Choc was rearing to go and by July, Choc & Deb were leading the KPRA, NSRA, M-SRA and in the Top Twenty of the WPRA Prairie Circuit standings. Then suddenly, Choc developed an upper-respiratory inflammation and began to lose weight rapidly. His system had been so compromised over the last two years it couldn't withstand another intense battle. In spite of valiant efforts to save him, he succumbed to complications from the illness on August 15, 2011.

Leo Mitchell, Jr. Memorial Race

The event drew 276 total entries from all over the Southwest on August 20 & 21 at the Grants Rodeo Grounds in Grants, NM

The event is one of the largest in the state, according to Kevin Mitchell, Leo Mitchell's younger brother "It's for a good cause and it is nice to remember a fellow barrel racer." Proceeds from the event, nearly $3,000 for this year alone, goes toward a scholarship for cosmetology and efforts for organizations that fight violent crime.

This year was the eighth annual event and there is no end in sight as the event continues to grow each year.

"We appreciate all the support we get for this event," said Alvira, Leo's mother. "He loved horses and he loved to ride."

The family puts in about $7,000 each year out of their own pockets, The prizes are amazing. Saddles, halters and beautiful blankets."

The Grants Rodeo Association through the Grants Lodgers Tax was able to sponsor $1,000.

Saturday was a perfect day for running barrels. Then Saturday night a rain storm and flash flooding hit. Contestants woke up to a mess Sunday morning. The Grants Rodeo Members prepared the ground and moved the pattern to the other end of the arena so the event could go on.

Results: Open 1D Kelly Waide; 2D 1 Kelsie Elkins, 2 Jody Heister, 3 Delaney Gonzales; 3D 1 Casey Dove, 2 Victoria Torres, 3 Kelly Sparks; 4D 1 Rachel Maestes, 2 Susan Hitchcock, 3 Janey Brotherton; Senior 1D Sylvia Meketi, 2D Floyd Aragon, 3D Laurinda Bearce, 4D Trudy Dean; Youth 1D Haley Wolfe, 2D Brittany Powers, 3D Dorothy Strange, 4D Dara Suckla; Best Dressed: Candi Williams; Tuff Enough: Francie LeBow

Duke & Stingray Horses of the Year

The 2011 Barrel Racing regular season came to an end which means it is time to announce the AQHA/WPRA Barrel Racing Horse of the Year. This year they couldn't get down to one winner so the two fastest palomino barrel horses in the country tied for the honor. Those two speedy palominos are Yeah Hes Firen (Duke) owned/ridden by Brittany Pozzi and MP Meter My Hay (Stingray) ridden by Sherry Cervi and owned by Sherry Cervi and Mel Potter. This marked the second Horse Of The Year honor for Brittany Pozzi, in 2007 she won the award with her great horse Sixth Vision (Stitch) and now this year with her new mount Duke.

The Barrel Racing Report caught up with Pozzi to get her reaction to the award, "I feel like this award is one of the biggest accomplishments a horse can have. It is voted on by the top 25 in the world so it makes me very proud for Duke that everybody thinks he is as great as I do. It was obviously a tough race this year and I am honored to share it with Stingray. It is also a huge honor for me to have owned two horses that have won this award." said Pozzi. Yeah Hes Firen is by Alive N Firen (by Fire Water Flit) and out of the Shoot Yeah mare Splendid Discovery. Alive N Firen a son of Fire Water Flit carries on that potent rodeo bloodlines and also the blood of Bugs Alive In 75.

MP Meter My Hay (Stingray) gave Sherry Cervi her first win of the Horse Of The Year award after nearly 20 years on the rodeo trail. Stingray was the runner up last year for the award. This speedy little mare is by PC Frenchmans Hayday (by Sun Frost), the full brother to French Flash Hawk (Bozo) who was named AQHA/WPRA Horse Of The Year 5 times, so the award runs in the family so to speak. The dam of Stingray is Miss Meter Jet by Bar Tonto Jet. Miss Meter Jet is closely related to Cervi's great horse Hawk (Jet Royal Speed).

Cervi said, "It is a very special award to me because my peers voted on it. It is very humbling to know they voted for Stingray. There are so many other horses that could have won that award. There are so many great horses hauling to rodeos right now, that just makes the award much more special. All these great horses are going to make for a really good NFR!"

This years champions represent the last 2 World Champions, Duke and Pozzi in 09 and Stingray and Cervi in 2010. These horses possess some of the most potent rodeo bloodlines available. Yeah Hes Firen carries on the Fire Water Flit sire line and MP Meter My Hay carries on the Sun Frost sire lines.

Heading into the 2011 NFR Pozzi sits #1 in the world with $114k in earnings and Cervi sits #3 in the world with $90k of earnings. Every round at the NFR is crucial to decide this years World Champion

In third place was Flaming Firebug (Firebug) ridden by Jeanne Anderson and owned by Jeanne and Rick Anderson. Flaming Firebug is by Tigeraflame out of the Copper Bugs mare, Copper Buglet. Firebug carried Anderson to the #10 position in the world standings this year (2011) with $64k in earnings and also carried her to an NFR qualification in 2010.

Congratulations to all the winners and their connections.

THE RUNDOWN: MARY BLEEKER

HORSE: RR French Silk Pie "Silky"

Sorrel Mare, 5 Years Old, 15 hands, 1000 lbs.

OWNER: Owned by Ken & Roxanne Ripley.

HORSE HISTORY: Ripley's stand the stud, Frenchmans Phoenix. Our goal is to get some of his colts out there. Silky came with me in September of last year to Arizona. We moved to Arizona 3 years ago, I come up for about 3 months during the summer and stay with my sister in Rapid City, SD. I really didn't enter Silky in anything until April or May. She came on pretty good. We were used to the bigger pens in Arizona so we tipped a few barrels when we came to the littler pens up here. She is really solid and she really doesn't need much tuning. I mainly ride her outside and in the pasture. I did a lot of desert riding when we were in Arizona. She won the 2nd go at the 5-State Breeders Futurity and was 3rd in the Average. The weekend before the 5-State Breeders she won the Go For The Green slot race. Her approximate LTE is $11K.

BIT: Handmade bit, Goostree type bit. Ride her everyday in a ring snaffle.

SADDLE: Courts Barrel Saddle

PAD: 5 Star Wool Pad

LEG GEAR: Iconoclast on front, polo wraps on the back, Classic Equine bell boots.

GRAIN: Purina Equine Senior

SUPPLEMENTS: Lubrissy

HAY: Alfalfa/grass mix free choice

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: Low maintenance horse.

KEYS TO TRAINING FUTURITY HORSES: They need to be really broke in the face and I like to have them short backed and low hocked. I believe if they have good conformation it is going to be easier for them to run barrels. I do a lot of patterning but I also do a lot of work away from the pattern as well. Consistency is one of the main things to remember as well. Whether in your drills or working the pattern, what you're telling your horse needs to be the same every time. You need to be consistent with how you set up your horse every time.

SPONSORS: I would like to thank my husband (Bob Bleeker), he does a lot of my shoeing and works hard so I can do this.

Champion Rockem Sockem Go Passes, 1993-2011

By Tanya Randall

"I prayed for a horse like this for years, and God gave me this gift."

Long before she ever qualified for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeos and won two WPRA World Championships, Kelly Kaminski knew her horse Rockem Sockem Go was special. It didn't take long before everyone else knew it too.

Kaminski lost her beloved Rockem Sockem Go on the morning of October 3. The two-time WPRA World Champion Barrel Horse suffered from colic complicated by inoperable melanomas, a common malady among gray horses.

"Rocky" was literally a dream come true for the former school-teacher from Bellville, Texas.

Limited by her teaching salary, Kaminski took a chance on a $500 broodmare. Her friend Marcheta Garrett had told about David Bell, a lawyer who was selling out. When she went to look, she found a fat boss mare—The Brown Filly, whom Kaminski later dubbed Athena, the goddess of war.

The Brown Filly, a daughter of Easy Crimson out of a granddaughter of the great Thoroughbred Northern Dancer, was in foal to Mito Wise Wrangler, a son of Mito Wise Dancer out of a Rocket Wrangler mare.

From the time he was born, Kaminski practically willed Rocky to be a champion, telling the colt, "You are going to be big, you are going to be fast, you are going to run barrels, and you are going to like it."

Rocky didn't just like running barrels; he loved it.

Although he missed out on his futurity year because Kaminski was pregnant with her daughter Kenna, Rocky dominated the Texas barrel racing scene in the late 1990s and early 2000s. They were the D&G Super Tour Champions and won the Texas NBHA State 1D Championship before embarking on their professional career.

Kaminski and Rocky were a force to be reckoned with from their debut WNFR in 2002. They picked up $82,189 at the Finals and finished Reserve World Champions with earnings of $161,197 to 11-time WPRA World Champion Charmayne James. The following year, they again finished reserve with $127,152 to Janae Ward-Massey.

In 2004 and 2005, no barrel racing duo was better than Kaminski and Rocky. After the 10th round in 2004, Kaminski said, "If this goes down like I think it will, somebody better have a whole box of Kleenex!" After gunning it out with Molly Powell and her borrowed phenom SX Docs Slider, Kaminski and Rocky need just one last clean run to solidify their second-place spot in the average and secure their first world title.

Photographer Dan Hubbell captured Kaminski and Rocky's memorable win on their run home—Rocky flat out and Kaminski with her fist raised high in the air.

Rocky and Kaminski's story captivated young and old alike. They were positive proof that if you "dreamed big and believed" dreams could come true.

During their winning seasons, they collected $179,372 and $191,702, respectively.

In 2006, Rocky and Kaminski returned to the WNFR, but something wasn't quite right with the gallant gray and Kaminski was forced to a backup horse.

Voted three-times the WPRA's Horse-With-The-Most-Heart, Rocky ran most of his career with arthritis in his hocks. Unfortunately, it was in the large hinged-joint rather than the stacked, slide-and-glide joints that are generally maintainable. Kaminski made the decision to retire Rocky in 2007 to the barn he had built.

Kaminski wrote on her Facebook page that Rocky "richly deserved" the Horse With The Most Heart award. "He had severe arthritis in his right hock," she wrote. "We found this when he was 7 years old. Dr. Craig Nibblert and Dr. Bob Lewis weren't sure he'd be able to compete very long. Between them, and Dr. Bruce Buenger and Dr. Ted Lamp, we were able to keep him healthy to keep running. He loved his job and it showed."

CEG to Offer Pari-Mutuel Barrel Racing

The Creek Entertainment Gretna (CEG) is a new development that features a poker room and equestrian activities. CEG is the first facility in Florida that will feature barrel racing as a pari-mutuel betting event.

Starting December 1, 2011 they will host 20 racing performances. Each of the first nineteen racing performances will feature eight riders and horses competing through a bracket of eleven races for a CEG guaranteed purse.

On December 17, CEG will feature 11-time World Champion Charmayne James and seven other world renowned barrel racers who will compete in the same format as the earlier performances. In December, CEG has agreed to guarantee purses of $2000 per performance with the total purse exceeding $40,000 in the first ten days of racing. Each race features two riders racing head-to-head in two side-by-side arenas. During all twenty performances there will be pari-mutuel betting -- people in the stands will be able to place bets on the race outcomes.

CEG has entered into a pure agreement with the North Florida Horseman's Association (NFHA) to provide the purse money for those events from funds generated by the wagering by the public and the poker room at the CEG site. The NFHA has worked out with CEG that there are no entry fees, nor any stall fees for NFHA members participating in the races.

This barrel racing format would be similar, of course, to horse racing and would allow the spectators to be involved through betting. For more information go to www.flhorseman.com or find North Florida Horsemen Association on Facebook.

Myllymaki Rides French First Watch to Win San Bernardino

We got the information too late for last week's issue but Rachael Myllymaki won the San Bernardino and Barstow Prorodeos in California last weekend and over $2400 on the 7 year old gelding French First Watch (Frenchmans Guy-Dashing To Fame, Dash Ta Fame).

PRCA Announces Tour Format Changes

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association has announced changes to the Wrangler Million Dollar Tour presented by Justin Boots, effective for the 2012 season.

Under the new format, the field for the Justin Boots Playoffs and Justin Boots Championships will be determined by the PRCA World Standings rather than the Tour standings.

The Tour standings will now be utilized for a new incentive for contestants that will also take effect for the 2012 season. In addition to the large payouts available at Tour rodeos, cash bonuses will be paid to the cowboys who finish in the top six of the Tour standings in each event at the end of the season.

Eligibility for the bonus money -- which will count toward the PRCA World Standings -- will be contingent on a rule that contestants cannot enter and then turn out of (withdraw from) more than one Tour event during the season.

"The event reps and the board of directors have taken the initiative to restructure the Tour, which will make it better in the long run," said PRCA Contestant Director Fred Boettcher. "I think the biggest positive of this is that guys are going to show up to the Tour rodeos. In the past, sometimes guys would only show up if they drew well, but now they will show up and compete."

In addition to reducing the number of turnouts at some of the PRCA's marquee events, the new system is intended to allow cowboys to compete closer to home.

"Anytime the cowboys can rodeo smarter and be able to keep their money together and reduce travel costs, it benefits everybody," said Vice Chairman of the PRCA Board of Directors Spud Duvall. "We are hoping that, by putting this new system in, it will be good for everybody in the PRCA, from the cowboys to the (rodeo) committees and all of the members."

While allowing cowboys to rodeo more economically was viewed as an important step, the support of rodeo committees was also integral to the approval of the new system.

"We had communication with six or seven committees on a conference call and told them what we wanted to do," said PRCA Contestant Director Red Lemmel. "The committees liked the aspect of it helping with the turnouts, because there's nothing worse than four or five guys in the same event not showing up at a rodeo. This will benefit both the big and small rodeos, because it gives cowboys incentive to hit the smaller rodeos on the way to the bigger ones."

President of the Dodge City (Kan.) Roundup Doc Trotter directs one of the original Tour rodeos, and has always used Tour status to his event's advantage. "From a fan's perspective it's a good thing to be a Tour rodeo," Trotter said. "It says we're singled out as an elite rodeo. I use it as a marketing tool in my area to separate myself from other rodeos, without having to say I'm bigger and better and have a bigger payout than some of the others. We use the fact that we're the only Wrangler Million Dollar Tour rodeo in the state of Kansas as a selling point, and that sends a message to the public that we're special."

The Sikeston (Mo.) Jaycee Bootheel Rodeo is a Silver Tour event on the Wrangler Million Dollar Tour. "The Tour has helped us in many ways," stated Sikeston General Chairman Chris Deen. "It's given us the opportunity to get bigger name cowboys to our event. Not that we didn't have them before, but it has brought more to us. How much the quality of our rodeo has improved since we've been in the Tour is unbelievable. Being part of the Tour absolutely steps up your game."

PRCA Commissioner Karl Stressman said the changes to the Tour format are the result of a collective effort, one that he said will be beneficial.

"We're trying to listen to everyone and determine what's best for our sport," Stressman said. "We have discussed the importance of open communication among our members, and these changes are a direct result of that. Our contestant directors have worked hard to provide us with the information to create a system that benefits contestants and committees alike, and we feel their decision will pay dividends for the association as a whole."

There are two event designations on the Wrangler Million Dollar Tour: Gold and Silver Tour rodeos. Nine of the 24 Tour stops in 2011 were Gold events -- rodeos that add $20,000 or more in committee purse to the bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping (heading and heeling), saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping and bull riding competitions. The 15 Silver rodeos added at least $10,000 in each of those six events, and also feature equal money in the team roping.

Once again for the 2012 season, the Pursuit channel will telecast the nine Gold Tour rodeos to 38 million households on Dish Network channel 240 and DirecTV channel 608. Contact your local cable provider for availability.--Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Do you know someone who uses their Bible as a place of safe keeping? I do. This is a very nice lady, now well into her 80's, who used her Bible for years as a sort of safe. She didn't read it but she valued it highly so she placed many important papers, letters, pictures and mementos within its pages. In fact, she so filled the Bible with her treasures that she had to finally tie it up with a ribbon so that it wouldn't spill out. There was no way she could have read it if she wanted to.

Now this dear lady lives in a retirement home. She gave her over-stuffed Bible to a family member who was not impressed with it and wished it had been read instead of being used for a "catch-all." The lady in the rest home now sees her useless life filled with self-gratification for what it was. She now lives for God and has been active in witnessing to others. She is saved and will go to Heaven when the time comes.

I'm happy that she has turned from her former worldly ways and is saved. But, at the same time, I regret that she wasted decades of her life in selfish pursuits. She could have been a great witness and an example of Christian living to the scores of people she encountered in the high society where she traveled.

Why am I telling you this story? So you won't make the same mistake that woman did. By the grace of God she didn't have an accident and die before she got saved. Our lifetime is short but eternity is forever. If you haven't done so by now, it's time to make Jesus your Lord and Saviour. Read Romans 10:9-10 and lay claim to eternal life.

And we can help you, too. Everyone is welcome to come to Saturday night services at our barn. If you need more instruction, come to our Tuesday night Bible studies also in the barn. If you can't come to Gillette, sign up for our FREE teaching CDs which we mail out every couple of weeks at no cost to you. Just send us your name and address to Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717.
