Field Set for 2016 National Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Everyone's favorite galloping grandma, Mary Burger heads into her fourth National Finals Rodeo with a commanding lead. The 2006 WPRA World Champion from Pauls Valley, Okla., heads to Las Vegas with $190,977 won at 64 rodeos—a new regular season earnings record. It's quite possible that two-time World Champion Lindsay Sears' total earnings record of $323,570 may also fall at the NFR's conclusion.

Burger's assault on the record book came on the back of her talented 7-year-old gelding Sadiefamouslastwords ("Mo"), by Sadies Frosty Drift out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Porky And Bess. The lion's share of their earnings came from their Rodeo Houston and Calgary Stampede Championships, with the two rodeos accounting for $126,750 of their total. (Note: Only the qualifying round money and $50,000 of the $100,000 Calgary Stampede Championship counted toward the WPRA World Standings.)

Joining Burger at the 2016 NFR will be two other former WPRA World Champions—the 2012 WPRA World Champion Mary Walker of Ennis, Texas, and four-time WPRA World Champion Sherry Cervi of Marana, Ariz.

Walker collected $112,816 throughout the season at 75 rodeos, largely on the back of her great horse Perculatin ("Latte") on whom she won her world title. This year, Latte, a 12-year-gelding by Dash For Perks out of Curiosity Corners, by Silver Lucky Buck, had some help from Walker's flashy youngster A Frosty Please, a 6-year-old gelding by Bug In My Frosty out of Dash Ta Please, by Dash Ta Fame.

At 12th in the WPRA World Standings, a late season surge propelled Cervi to her 19th

NFR appearance. She won $83,679 at 70 rodeos.

While she did pick up wins aboard her family raised world champion MP Meter My Hay ("Stingray"), a 14-year-old daughter of PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Miss Meter Jet, by Bar Tonto Jet, Cervi did the majority of her winning on Dash Ta Diamonds ("Arson"). The property of Trip duPerier, Arson, a 10-year-old gelding by Dash Ta Fame out of The Millennium Star, by Strawfly Special, has helped duPerier's daughter Callie earn the 2015 WPRA World Championship and helped Jane Melby qualify for the NFR in 2013. Cervi also cashed in with Dena Kirkpatrick's Dash Ta Fame gelding Easily Dashed and Stingray's full brother MP Del Rey.

Proving that she's quite the hand as well, Jackie Ganter's talented horses carried the Abilene, Texas, barrel racer to second in the WPRA World Standings. She's is closest to Burger in the standings, sitting second with $116,387 at the official limit of 100 rodeos. After a stellar 2015 NFR where she finished second in the average thanks to the honest efforts of Guys French Jet, Ganter stuck with the 12-year-old Frenchmans Guy stallion, out of Miss Landing Rocket, by Easy Diamond Landing, throughout much of the spring. She spelled him with lightning fast Cartels Fame, an 8-year-old gelding by Dash Ta Fame out of Corona Koolaid, by Corona Cartel.

Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic to Relocate to Waco, TX

The Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic (DDBHC™) one of the largest and most prestigious events in the barrel horse industry, will be held at the historic ExtraCo Events Center in Waco, Texas, the week of March 6-12th, 2017. DDBHC™ has had five great years at the Brazos County Expo, but with the overwhelming growth and popularity a larger venue had to be contemplated. After considering various facilities, @DDBHC™ outlined specific selection criteria, including facility location and amenities and the obvious choice was the Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas

“2017 Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic will continue with the dates of March 6-12th. This will permit the @DDBHC™ to streamline the schedule to better accommodate our contestants, faithful vendors, loyal sponsors and the passionate following of spectators, while continuing to offer a vibrant shopping experience. Since 2012, DDBHC™ has hosted thousands of barrel racers from over 44 states and five countries while proudly supporting the non-profit, K9s4COPs, which provides canines to law enforcement agencies and schools.” said Founder, Kristi Schiller

“K9s4Cops is a critical organization that provides the essential service of partnering trained K9s with departments in need and ensuring that our local officers have the tools that are essential to keep our communities safe. K9s4Cops has already helped out law enforcement officials in House District 12 and moving the 2017 Diamonds and Dirt Barrel Horse Classic to Waco provides an opportunity for the citizens of central Texas to support this praiseworthy cause. It is great that the City of Waco will have the opportunity to host the 2017 Diamonds & Dirt Classic as Waco combines the necessary avenue capacity and the experience of already being home to multiple world class events.” said Texas House Representative, Kyle Kacal- District 12

“We are confident this move will allow substantial growth of Diamonds & Dirt in 2017 and beyond. Finding a new home in an amazing venue like Waco puts this highly anticipated event within easy reach for participants, and we are expecting growth in entries. The first Futurity payment is due November 1st.” said Ross Wright, DDBHC™ Show Secretary

“Most industry contestants are familiar with this outstanding facility, considering this is also the home to such prestigious events as the The Women’s Professional Rodeo Association Finals, The Elite Extravaganza JB Quarter Horses Futurity and the D&D Classic the weekend preceding DDBHC™ The exciting lineup of the much anticipated $100,000 Slot Race considered the ‘Richest 15 seconds in Racing’ in addition, there will be added money to the Futurity, Derby, Amateurs, Youth and the 5D Open. said Shanna Brown, Schiller Ranch Managing Director

“We are thrilled to welcome a barrel racing industry anchor, the Diamonds & Dirt Horse Classic to the ExtraCo Events Center. With their format and the chance to have a weeklong event is a great edition to the EEC. We hope to develop a lasting partnership with DDBHC™ that is a lasting one in Waco, TX for many years. We are excited this event simultaneously supports K9s4COPs and our law enforcement community” said JD Ewing, Extraco Events Center, Vice President of Operations

Typically, each law enforcement K9 can cost in range of $15,000 to a specialized K9 that can value in excess of $25,000. These essential tools are often the first weapons to fall to department budget cuts. In June of 2011, Texas Philanthropist, Kristi Schiller founded K9s4COPs to fund the donation of trained K9s and on-going training of the officer to law enforcement agencies around the country.

K9s4COPs provides K9s to law enforcement agencies, school districts and college campuses. In five years, K9s4COPs has placed approximately 130 dogs in 34 states and Paris, France. K9s4COPs dogs have been responsible for over 2900 arrests and have removed more than $145 million in contraband, narcotics, explosives, weapons and cash. Not only do these highly skilled and trained K9s provide invaluable detection abilities, but their diligent serve allows their human partners to make it home safely to their families each night. Currently, K9s4COPs has three canines in the greater Waco area, including Waco ISD and recently placed dual narcotics K9 in surrounding Limestone County Sheriff’s Office.

AQHA/PRCA Horses of the Year announced

Six first-time winners were chosen as American Quarter Horse Association/Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Horses of the Year, which were announced Oct. 4.

Three horses were named in each of the six categories (there was a tie in the steer roping), with the lone repeat champion being steer wrestling horse Landrys Cadillac (Cadillac).

The bulldogging mount - which also won Horse of the Year in 2014, and was second in last year’s voting - is owned by Sterling Wallace of Justin, Texas. Three of the top five cowboys in the steer

However, it was once Blazin Baby J returned after surgery to repair a fracture in his hock that Ganter surged in the standings. The 7-year-old Dash Ta Fame gelding, out of the Chicks A Blazin mare Medley A Blazin, loved the lucrative Canadian rodeos.

Oelrichs, S.D., barrel racer Lisa Lockhart, who is second only to Cervi in the field in terms of NFR appearances, had a very quiet winter, but used a spectacular July to jump into the World Standings. She amassed an impressive $100,244 in just 38 rodeos.

Her great horse An Oakie With Cash ("Louie"), a 13-year-old gelding by Biebers Oakie out of the Judge Cash mare Lady Kaweah Cash, earned the majority of Lockhart's cash, but he was aided by steady eddy Fast An Gold ("Chism"), a 18-year-old gelding by El Roco out of Romanna Glass, by Raise Your Glass (TB), and Alan Woodbury's Rosas Cantina CC, a 6-year-old daughter of Corona Cartel out of NFR qualifier Dash Ta Vanila, by Dash Ta Fame.

NFR sophomore Sarah McDonald spent much of her year out West, far away from her Brunswick, Ga., home, but she's returning to the NFR in 8th with $89,364 in her pockets. Last year, she and her wicked mare Fame Fling N Bling wowed the crowd with their thrilling paint-peeling runs. This year Bling, a 10-year-old daughter of A Streak Of Fling out of Short Penny by Dash Ta Fame, had some company in the earnings department. McDonald also had the use of duPerier's 14-year-old mare Foxys Driftin Jewel, a daughter of Nonstop Drifter out of Foxys Buzzie Bars, by Buzzie Otee Bars.

A red hot winter helped propel Michele McLeod to her fourth straight NFR appearance. The Whitesboro, Texas, cowgirl earned $87,745 to sit ninth in the standings with her High Point Performance Horses arsenal.

After a brief rest to recover from an injury in the alleyway at the 2015 NFR, Slick By Design—the talented 9-year-old stallion by Designer Red out of Dreams Of Blue, by Dream On Dancer, won the San Antonio Rodeo, Corpus Christi Buc Days Rodeo and the Guymon Pioneer Days.

McLeod also picked up checks on Streakin'flingindisco, a 7-year-old mare by A Streak Of Fling out of Lot A Disco, by Disco Jerry (TB), and Stitches Honor N Fame, a 9-year-old gelding by Firewater Ta Fame out of Ze Honor Jet, by Jet Of Honor.

Carley Richardson of Pampa, Texas, is another NFR sophomore. She finished 13th in the World Standings with $80,875. Her traditionally strong Fourth of July run was a key factor in her second NFR qualification. This year the majority of her earnings went to her great gray gelding Doda Flit ("Radio"). The 12-year-old gelding by Dodadash out of Flit Priss, by Flit Bar Beggar, was without his usual buddy Fashionable Boy for much of the year, but was relieved by the arrival of Flit Money, a 9-year-old Designer Red gelding, out of Primrose Firewater, by Dun Lucky Dee, to the string.

Jana Bean of Fort Hancock, Texas, pushed the rodeo count with 97 official rodeos but she's headed back to Las Vegas in 14th position with $80,336. Bean's earnings are split fairly evenly between her wickedly fast young gelding Dashing Klee, a 6-year-old Dash Ta Fame out of Ms Klee, by Heza Fast Man, and I Am Royal Design, a 9-year-old gelding by Royal Streakin out of Designers Splash, by Splash Bac. She also picked up checks on UR One Famous Rebel, a talented 7-year-old Dash Ta Fame Stallion out of Denas Dividend, by Lanes Leinster.

Joining the veterans are six NFR newcomers: Ivy Conrado, Kimmie Wall, Stevi Hillman, 2016 WPRA Rookie of the Year Cayla Melby, Pam Capper and Amber Moore.

A fabulous winter put Ivy Conrado and her homegrown star Cfour Tibbie Stinson in contention for their first NFR berth. They won the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo and hardly looked back. They head into the NFR in fourth with $111,160 won in 53 rodeos.

After Tibbie's strong performances in the small indoor arenas, Conrado said she's looking forward to running in the Thomas & Mack.

"I'm ready!" she laughed. "I want to go tomorrow!" The good start allowed Conrado, who hails from Hudson, Colo., to spell her talented young mare. Tibbie, 7, was recently named the WPRA's Horse of the Year. She is by Eddie Stinson out of NFR qualifier Little Fancy Granny, by Del Puerto Bill. Conrado did pick up a couple of checks on her sister's main horse Debs Sporty Win ("Bubba"), a 14-year-old gelding by Rope A Sport Win out of the Triples Shadow mare Triples Deb.

Although she led the standings for some time, Conrado chose to plan for her mare's longevity rather than try to chase down Burger, who had such a commanding lead.

"I didn't want to run her legs off and chase down $190,000," she said. "I tried to be realistic."

What little extra Conrado did go, she did so in mind of seasoning Tibbie for the future. For instance, she made a run to the Northwest even though she had the Finals made.

"I didn't have to go and I didn't need to go," she said. "We had some good friends up there that I could stay with and there were certain arenas that I wanted to run in and get more comfortable with. I feel like there's a lot of people that don't go up to the Northwest until they're on the bubble. They've never seen the size of the pen at Ellensburg. I did it just to be better prepared for longevity, to know where my mare works."

After three long years on the road, Kimmie Wall of Roosevelt, Utah, is headed to her first NFR aboard her home-raised 8-year-old mare TKW Bullysfamous Fox. She placed well all year long to head into the Finals with $107,795 won in 53 rodeos.

"If you want to get technical, my husband and I have been working toward this goal our entire marriage," said Wall. "We will celebrate 18 years in December."

Foxy was the result of their carefully planning. The mare is by Bully Bullion out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Getaway Ta Love.

"We are so proud of Foxy," said Wall. "We are so honored to be in the same arena as such wonderful women and competitors." After coming so close in the past, Wall said it wasn't until the season was almost over that it started to sink in that she was going to qualify for the NFR.

"I think in August, we finally dared say the word 'Vegas.' We were riding in the arena at home and I just started crying, thinking that we had accomplished our goal. In our sport, you never feel 'safe.' The amount of money by the women in the WPRA this year is an outstanding accomplishment. It speaks loudly for the amount of talent there is out there."

Stevi Hillman's first NFR qualification has in her words "healed a lot of broken hearts." Hillman, Weatherford, Texas, was in the running for WPRA Rookie of the Year and in contention for her first NFR berth a few years ago, but was forced to come home.

This year, fate stepped in and paired her with Melissa Mouton's Cuatro Fame ("Truck"), a 9-year-old Dash Ta Fame gelding out of Princess Streaks by Streak Laico Bird. Illness left Mouton unable to compete with Truck, but with Hillman in the saddle, Truck took both ladies on the ride of lifetime.

"It makes me tear up just talking about it," said Hillman. "I'm probably more happy for (Truck's) owners than myself. What an awesome gift to give them, especially Melissa. God has just set this whole thing up."

Mouton said it doesn't seem real yet.

"It seems like yesterday that Stevi and I were discussing the idea of her making a run for it," said Mouton. "We are beyond excited and feel really blessed to own a horse of his caliber and have such a talented person riding him. Meeting Stevi has really been a blessing."

Hillman also picked up significant checks on Michelle Darling's Morning Traffic, a 5-year-old daughter of Frenchmans Guy, out of Evening Traffic, by Dash Thru Traffic, that she trained. The mare's victory at the Pendleton Roundup was icing on the cake.

"After I won the Champions Challenge in Pueblo (Colo.), I could breathe," said Hillman. "My goal was $80,000, then I could keep going but not 90 to nothing. Then Pendleton was just such a sweet win to completely seal the deal."

Newly crowned WPRA Rookie of the Year Cayla Melby is following in her mother Jane's footsteps with her first NFR qualification. Melby, who is getting married to Zac Small on October 29, is currently 10th in the Standings with $87,737 won in 97 rodeos.

"I feel like I had my ups-and-downs," said Melby, "but Jackie (Ganter, last year's Rookie Champion) told me compared to her last year, I won fairly consistently."

Melby, Burneyville, Okla., rode three largely rodeo inexperienced horses. Her oldest horses are 7-year-olds. Shameon U, 7, by Fameonu out of Gay Sunny Delight, by Gay Bar Sun, was the most experienced and won most of her money. She also picked up checks on Docs Frosty Blue Bar, also 7, by TT Dakota Kitabars out of Yonder Grace Goes, by Yonder Jack Goes, and Brookstone Jo, 6, by Brookstone Bay out of Sheza Jo Baby Jo, by Proudest Effort.

"They made more runs this year than they had their whole lives," she laughed.

She credits her mother and the Ganters—Jackie and her mom Angela, for helping her accomplish both goals.

Pam Capper of Cheney, Wash., and her homegrown star Sheza Smooth Flight ("Jessie") will also be making their first NFR appearance. She and the 14-year-old daughter of Sheza Smooth Flight out of Lady Lasmooth, by Smooth Move, earned $87,505 in 63 rodeos.

"Finally!" said Capper. "At first, I'm just rodeoing because that's what I do, and then about August, I'm like 'Whoa, I might have a chance!' Maybe I better get serious about that. I thought we'd better pour it on at the end. I did over enter, but I didn't go to all of them. After Pendleton, I felt a little more secure. When I got to Amarillo (Texas) and placed there, I thought I didn't need to go to Apache (Okla.) because it was underwater anyways. I got asked to go to the

By Hope Sickler

Sherry Cervi and her main mount for most of the 2016 rodeo season Dash Ta Diamonds "Arson" owned by Callie and Trip DuPerier, had a very lucrative weekend at the Turquoise Circuit Finals held in Las Cruces, New Mexico. They placed in the first two rounds and won the average with their total time on three of 50.28-seconds, stamping a ticket to Kissimmee, Florida next April for the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo.

Dash Ta Diamonds "Arson" is a 10-year-old gelding by the iconic Dash Ta Fame and out of The Millennium Star by Strawfly Special. Cervi started hauling and running the gelding last season and has had great success aboard the mortally fast athlete.

"I am very grateful and appreciative to Callie and Trip (DuPerier) for allowing me the opportunity to run Arson. He is extremely fast and makes the same run every time as long as I stay out of his way. He has really stepped up to the plate since I wasn't running Stingray much this season and I will forever be grateful for their generosity," explained the 4x World Champion Barrel Racer.

"This was the first time since 2009 that I haven't had Stingray with me at the circuit finals so I was definitely a little bummed without her. I opted to leave her home since she wasn't in the best of shape and since I have been running Arson a lot lately I felt like Champions Challenge in Pasadena, but it was going to be a lot of driving for me and I would miss Stephenville. With this heat I didn't know if my horse had it in her for the drive down there and back, so I turned it down. It all worked out pretty good."

The five-time Columbia River Circuit Champion had been close to making the NFR before but she decided to try something new this year.

"My horse is older so I decided to hit where they pay," she said. "I'm just going to hit the big ones. Luckily, when she did do good, it paid good."

Of all the NFR qualifiers, Amber Moore is probably the only one who celebrated by spending her weekend at a gymkhana.

"It's a blast," she said. "I took my games horse and went and had fun. I needed to detox and have fun with no pressure. It felt refreshing to me."

Moore, Salem, Ore., and her talented mare CP Dark Moon ("Paige") won $79,068 in 53 rodeos. She and the 7-year-old Darkelly mare, out of SRQH New Highs, by On A High, started off the year wanting to win her circuit and hit a few bucket list rodeos. Now, she's scratching the biggest bucket list rodeo off her list.

"I really just had to finish off that last two week run," said Moore. "I did what I needed to do in the Northwest (which won her the Columbia River Circuit too). After Cheyenne, I actually came home and took two weeks off. I went on a business trip back east with my husband that we had planned for months. Everyone thought I was nuts. At that point I was in the mid-20s and my goal was the circuit."

I needed to stay on him.”

Cervi placed third in the first round with a time of 16.80 and second in the second round, where she bettered her time by 3-tenths, running a 16.59.

“Arson worked great all weekend and I couldn’t be happier with the runs that we had. One of my goals at the beginning of every season is to make our circuit finals and this year I was down pretty far in the standings. I told my husband (Cory) that I needed to go and win the average to be able to get back to Florida and I am so thankful that we have earned ourselves another trip to Florida.”

Not only did Cervi win the average, but so did her husband Cory Petska, with partner Erich Rogers in the team roping.

“We were super thrilled when we realized that both of us won the average and were going to Florida next spring. The Ram National Circuit Finals is such a great finals with a lot of added money and now that the circuit finals and the RNCFR money won count towards the NFR Standings, I think a lot more people will try to make circuit finals every year. I think that it is definitely going to change some things,” Cervi said.

The money that Cervi won this past weekend in Las Cruces will go towards the 2017 NFR World Standings. This new rule was passed last year and will certainly change some things in the future seasons to come.

Something new to the Turquoise Circuit Finals this year was the WPRA Junior barrel racing. 6 WPRA Junior Barrel Racers were invited to the circuit finals and ran after the circuit girls. They had to pay the same entry fees as the circuit finalists and had their own added money.

“It was really neat having the WPRA Junior Barrel Racers there with us. It was fun to see the future of our sport and it was a great experience for them to get to hang out with us and see what the future has in store for them as WPRA Barrel Racers,” Cervi commented.

Now that the circuit finals are over, Cervi will be able to spend some much deserved time at home prepping for the NFR in just a few short months.

“It will be nice to not have to go anywhere. I can stay home, work on some colts and just relax and not having to go to the next rodeo. It is definitely much needed after a full year out on the rodeo road.”

FIREWATER Canyon

THE LEGACY CONTINUES

Fire Water Flit x Mulberry Canyon Moon, Marthas Six Moons si 99

Don Shugart©

Son of Fire Water Flit, a legend in the barrel horse industry as a performer and sire, whose progeny have earned more than $5 million with World Champions and NFR Qualifiers, FWF has the most $100,000 slot winners to date. FC's dam, Mulberry Canyon Moon, has $400,000+ in Rodeo and Equi-Stat earnings and is an NFR multiple go-round winner, shown here with Angie Meadors in 2010.

"Mulberry" is also the dam of 4-year-old MCM Imasharpguy (Matt & Bendi Dunn owners, Troy Crumrine rider) who won 2016 The American Rodeo qualifier in Lewisburg, Ohio, and just the weekend before was the Indiana Barrel Futurity Champion!

A Streak Of Fling Stud Top Seller at Triangle Sales Future Fortunes Select Sale

By Hope Sickler

The A Streak Of Flings have been bringing in the big bucks this year as sire to some of the top sellers at the top sales in the barrel racing industry. Only a month ago, Streakin Wink topped the 2016 Fulton Family Performance Horse and Production sale and this past Saturday at the inaugural 2016 Triangle Sales Future Fortunes Select Sale at Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, OK; Streakin Fame Boy was the high seller. Streakin Fame Boy is a 2 year old bay roan stallion by A Streak Of Fling and out of Queen Fa Tima by Dash Ta Fame.

While A Streak Of Fling needs no introduction, Queen Fa Tima herself is a producer. Queen Fa Tima has produced 3 performers including Streakin Queenie (by A Streak Of Fling) who made her talent known in the futurity world with notable trainer and jockey Ryan Pedone in the driver's seat. Streakin Fame Boy and Streakin Queenie are full siblings so it is only a matter of time until Streakin Fame Boy follows in his older sister's hoof-prints and carries on the families' winning tradition. Streakin Fame Boy was purchased for $46,000 by Mike and Janet Dahlen from Iowa City, Iowa and veteran trainer Mark Bugni will handle all of the young stallion's barrel training.

MP Jet To The Sun was the sire to the second and third high sellers at the 2016 Triangle Sales Future Fortunes Select Sale.

The second high seller Tellem Im Coming was sold for $33,000 to Ray Hill from Kirbyville, Texas. The gorgeous palomino daughter of MP Jet To The Sun and out of Libbys Cartel by Corona Cartel was sold in foal to A Streak Of Fling for a spring 2017 foal.

6-year-old Tellem Im Coming was a performer herself in the barrels with 6 open AQHA barrel points along with qualifying to the AQHA World Show in the Jr. Barrels. Tellem Im Coming's dam, Libbys Cartel, won over $63,000 on the track and was a finalist in the Speedhorse Gold and Silver Cup Futurity. She is the dam to 17 foals which 13 were raced and 8 were winners. 11 of her foals also have their Register Of Merit.

MP Jet To The Sun is an up and coming sire who has a very impressive performance resume himself; winning 57.5 AQHA points and earning a Top 10, AQHA High Point Heading Stallion. MP Jet To The Sun is a half-brother to the legendary Stingray and has already sired End Of My Rope, who qualified to the AQHA World Show in the Jr. Barrels in 2014 and 2015.

The third high seller Here Comes Da Sun is also by MP Jet To The Sun and is out of Sugar Da Fame by Dash Ta Fame. Here Comes Da Sun is a 5-year-old sorrel mare who earned open barrel points in the AQHA. Here Comes Da Sun's dam, Sugar Ta Fame, has 6 open AQHA barrel points and was an AQHA World Show Qualifier in the Jr. Barrels. She is the dam to 6 foals, 2 of which are performers, including Sun Fun N Fame, who ridden under Sharin Hall, has had a very impressive start to her barrel racing career this year, being only 4-years-old. Here Comes Da Sun sold for an impressive $31,000.

The fourth high seller of the 2016 Triangle Sales Future Fortunes Select Sale, Sugar Da Fame, was the dam of the third high seller, Here Comes Da Sun. Sugar Da Fame sold for $29,000. Sugar Da Fame is by the iconic Dash Ta Fame and out of Darlenes Sugar by Canth. Canth was a very impressive stallion in his day and was by Raise Your Glass.

Sugar Da Fame dam Darlenes Sugar has a speed index of 105 and had 14 wins on the track winning over $109,000. She foaled several other impressive foals, including Dashing Trace ($78,192 earner in barrel racing) and Shu Can Fly, both have their ROM.

As an added bonus of the sale, the yearlings that sold through this year's Triangle Sales Future Fortunes Select Sale are eligible for The John Read Foster Challenge. This Graduate Incentive will pay $22,500 total for the 1st & 2nd place horses at the 2018 BFA Juvenile Futurity. The payout will be determined on a 2 run average with 1st paying $15,000 and 2nd paying $7,500.

With 106 head originally consigned, only 7 head were withdrawn, leaving 99 head offered at the sale. Out of that 99, 85 were sold and they averaged $9,150 per horse. The Top 10 high sellers averaged $24,650 while the Top 20 averaged $18,700. Buyers and sellers were from 17 states and Canada. The Top 23 Sellers are listed below.

wrestling WEATHER GUARD® PRCA World Standings rode Cadillac this season.

Ty Erickson, who ended the regular season in the top spot, rode the horse at times in 2016, including picking up a win in Livingston, Mont. Tyler Waguespack, third in the world standings, and Clayton Hass, fifth, each used Cadillac as their predominant mount this season. Waguespack won the Spanish Fork (Utah) Fiesta Days Rodeo on the horse, and Hass was tops at the Cody (Wyo.) Stampede. "He's the best horse I've ever ridden," Waguespack said of Cadillac. "He stands in the box and doesn't move, and gives guys an opportunity to score on him. He gives you a great pattern out in the field, and it makes it really easy to win something when you have a horse that good underneath you."

Timber Moore's tie-down roping horse, MFO Harvey (Colonel), was second in the Horse of the Year voting last year, and takes over the top spot in 2016.

Moore has owned the horse since 2012, and credits Colonel for helping him reach the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo presented by Polaris RANGER the past three seasons. The two combined for a huge win in Greeley, Colo., this season.

"We've clicked together really well, and he's given me a chance to win every time I've nodded my head," Moore said. "I've had other guys ride him, and they've also had some success, so it's been neat to see that. To have him honored as Horse of the Year means a lot, and it's well-deserved."

Both winners in the team roping are first-timers.

Header Kolton Schmidt, 22, rode Tuffys Badger Chex (Badger) - a horse owned by his father, Ronald Schmidt - and qualified for the first WNFR of his young career. Schmidt and partner Shay Carroll won Wainwright, Alberta, and Schmidt enters Las Vegas fourth in the world standings.

Aboard Zans Colonel Shine (Colonel), heeler Jake Long enters his sixth WNFR third in the world standings. Long owns the horse with his wife, Tasha, and won rodeos in Sheridan and Cody, Wyo., with partner Luke Brown in 2016.

The steer roping featured a tie at the top spot, with Cody Lee's At War Leo (Punchy) splitting the honors with Chris Glover's Tonk

ERA Double Qualifying Event

The ERA World Championship week will now kick off with a Double Qualifying event that will take place on November 9-10, 2016 (Wednesday and Thursday) at Dallas Fair Park and will include all rodeo events, which will allow aspiring athletes to qualify for RFD-TV's The American Semi Finals held February 15th, 16th and 17th in Fort Worth, TX at Cowtown Coliseum AND a last chance exemption into the ERA World Championship, held November 11th, 12th and 13th in Dallas, TX at the American Airlines Center." HOW IT WORKS

Athletes in each event will have the opportunity to enter a qualifier in Dallas, TX at Fair Park (1121 First Avenue, Dallas, TX 75210) on Wednesday, November 9th or Thursday, November 10th. Multiple entries are encouraged.

All Rough Stock Events will enter online October 10, click here to go to the Entry Form

All athletes MUST be members of their sanctioning body, if the discipline is sanctioned, in order to compete. Stalls and shavings will be available at Fair Park for $25 per night and $9 per bag of shavings.

Registration and entry will be on-site for each event. Pre-Online entry may be available, see specific disciplines below for more information.

PLEASE NOTE: If a TOP 10 contestant (which will be determined at a later time) competes in the event and receives an RFD-TV's The American Semi Finals spot or spots, that contestant will be reimbursed $375 and the next fastest time or highest scored ride from that specific event will be picked up for the Semi Finals spot(s). In the same case, if an ERA Premier Tour athlete competes and earns a Top 2 spot into the ERA World Championship, the next fastest time or highest scored ride from that specific event will be picked up for the ERA World Championship spot(s).

For questions, please contact Sami Jo Smith at samijo@erarodeo.com or contact your event sanctioning body directly (see phone numbers below).

Qualifier Schedule:

Wednesday, November 9th

Barrel Racing, Steer Wrestling

Thursday, November 10th

WPRA Honors Those Who Work Behind the Scenes in Rodeo

As the 2016 regular season comes to a close and we celebrate those WPRA members who have qualified for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, the WPRA honors those in the business that work tirelessly behind the scenes to make it all happen. Each winner will be officially recognized during the annual WPRA Star Celebration on Thursday, Dec. 1 at the Grand Ballroom of the South Point Hotel and Casino.

Leading the way is Davie Kimm, the WPRA 2016 Announcer of the Year. Later this month, Kimm will be making his fourth consecutive appearance as the roping announcer at the WPRA World Finals in Waco, Texas, Oct. 20-23. Kimm had previously been nominated for the WPRA Announcer of the year in 2009 and 2013.

"What an honor and blessing," said Kimm of winning the WPRA Announcer of the Year title. "To be recognized for the job we do in this industry is just icing on the cake. Receiving this award, when there are so many good announcers in our industry, is humbling, especially when I look at those that have been selected before me. Many of them are the ones whom I have looked up to during my career."

Kimm's love of rodeo began as a contestant when he joined the Minnesota High School Rodeo Association in the 1980's. Kimm worked both ends of the arena roping calves and riding bareback and saddle bronc horses. He qualified for the National High School Finals Rodeo and went on to qualify four times in the saddle bronc riding for the Great Lakes Circuit Finals. He became an announcer much like many in the business when he filled in for a no show announcer at a rodeo and well the rest is history.

Kimm has worked his way up through the high school, college and finally the professional ranks throughout the United States and Canada. Davie is quick to admit that his wife Nicky is a big part of his continued success. The two of them travel together throughout much of the year as a team with Nicky handling the rodeo music production and sound at many of the same rodeos. Along with announcing, Kimm is a commercial voice talent and spokesperson.

The WPRA Sponsor of the Year goes to Cargill Nutrena®. They joined the WPRA Corporate Partner family earlier this year and will be the presenting sponsor at the WPRA World Finals later this month. Nutrena® is the official equine feed and pet food of the WPRA.

"Just like the WPRA's long-term commitment to the professional barrel racer, team roper, tie-down roper, and breakaway roper, Nutrena® has a long history in the feed industry dating back to 1921. We are excited to partner with an organization that promotes the sport of rodeo for women and the Western cowgirl lifestyle," said Jackie Galle-Haney, the US Retail Strategic Marketing and Technology Leader of Nutrena®, when they were officially announced as a WPRA Corporate Partner.

Steve Kenyon will receive the WPRA Media Award in recognition of media coverage he has given to the WPRA and its members through the years on ProRodeo Live. Kenyon has had a microphone in his hand dating back to 1993 when he joined the PRCA and started his rodeo announcing career. Today, when he is not officially announcing a PRCA rodeo as their announcer, he can be found at a PRCA rodeo bringing live coverage of the event to the fans through the internet and satellite radio. He also hosts Western Sports Roundup, a weekly radio program on Rural Radio, bringing year round coverage to the sport of rodeo. He received the PRCA Media Award for Excellence in Broadcast Journalism in 2009.

"Not everyone on the PR side of our sport takes the time to know about the ladies of the WPRA and their great equine partners as well as he does," said Jolee Lautaret-Jordan, who works alongside Kenyon at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo.

The Potter Family will be recognized with the Lifetime Family Heritage Award. As noted on their website: A lifetime of experience is the foundation for success at Potter Ranch. The program is a true family affair.

Potter Ranch was established in 1973 when Mel, Wendy, and their middle daughter, Jo Lynn moved to Marana, Ariz., from the east edge of Tucson. Shortly after that their youngest daughter, Sherry, was born. Wendy, a WPRA Gold Card member, qualified for the NFR three times aboard Auto Dial.

Mel's interest in Driftwood horses, the foundation of the Potter Ranch, started back in the late 1950's and early 1960's when many of the top ropers in Arizona and California were riding these horses to rope on. He had the opportunity to rope on several of these horses during this time and learned to appreciate what great rodeo athletes they were first hand. Some of these horses included

Poker Chip Peake, Driftwood Ike, and Speedywood.

Several years later an opportunity arrived that would enable the Potters to acquire a number of daughters and granddaughters with Driftwood pedigree. Probably no place in the world can you find this much concentration of Driftwood blood and no other bloodlines have carried more rodeo contestants to World Championships than Driftwood.

After seeing first-hand what a tremendous horse the Driftwood-Sun Frost bred barrel horse, "Bozo" was, the Potter Ranch purchased a full brother, "PC Frenchmans Hayday" aka Dinero. That purchase would prove to be a very valuable one. PC Frenchmans Hayday and Miss Meter Jet would produce a palomino mare MP Meter My Hay "Stingray" that would carry Mel and Wendy's youngest daughter, Sherry Cervi to two out of four of her world titles in 2010 and 2013.

The Potter family continues to make their mark in WPRA history both human and equine and continues to raise the bar for all to follow.

And last but certainly not least is the committee category. Without the dedication and support of the rodeo committees none of this would be possible. The WPRA recognizes committees in three categories - small, medium and large based on total added money. This year's recipient in the large rodeo committee category is the Spanish Fork Fiesta Days Rodeo in Spanish Fork, Utah. This is the third time this committee has been recognized by the WPRA. Spanish Fork Fiesta Days Rodeo joined the PRCA in 1942, and has put together a current streak of 44 consecutive sellout performances. Under the leadership of Chairman Steve Money, Spanish Fork has continued to strive to be the best and grow into a top PRCA/WPRA rodeo. They were recently inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame. In 2017, the rodeo will double its prize money to $20,000 per event, and be bumped up to a Gold Tour rodeo.

The WPRA would like to congratulate each of the award recipients as well as those that were nominated for these prestigious awards.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Last week we talked about using the gifts that God has given us, to His glory! Did you practice this week? I hope so. If you did, the whole body of Christ benefitted!

Well I heard an interesting fact a few days ago and boy, did it ever go off in me? Did you know that each year, BILLIONS of dollars of gift cards are thrown in drawers and never used???? I didn't! Give me a gift card and the thing is spent! So think about this. Someone loved that person so much, that they went out, spent their money and gave them a gift.....only to have it set aside and forgotten.

That is EXACTLY how a lot of people treat the free gift of salvation!! Jesus spent it ALL to pay the price for you and me to live and receive heaven, free of charge! And so many just leave it, forget it, won't receive it or just don't believe it's true. The BEST GIFT EVER, and it's not received! How do you receive it? Romans 10:9 & 10 says, "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." "Easy peasy lemon squeezee", my granddaughter says. And it's a gift that keeps on giving! In addition to missing hell, you get healing, prosperity, peace, joy and on and on!

Don't set this gift aside. Jesus loves you and died for you. Ask Him to be your Lord today and begin receiving everything He bought and paid for you to have!
