Janna Brown & Fame Fire Rocks Top BBR Southern Territorial Futurity

By Tanya Randall

After a summer full of confidence building jackpot runs, Fame Fire Rocks ("Pop Rocks") found the winner's circle at the $15,000-added BBR Southern Territorial Futurity, held October 1-3 in Glen Rose, Texas. The 4-year-old mare, owned by Gene and Lynn Schmidt of Lamesa, Texas, and trained and ridden by Janna Brown, won $6,697.

In Glen Rose, Pop Rocks was second in the first round with a 14.968 and third in the second with a 15.019 to win the aggregate. Their two run time also was fourth in the open average for the weekend.

"She just made two good runs," said Brown, who trains out of Mount Pleasant, Texas. "The first run was very correct. When she left her barrels, she was straight and fast, super snappy. She was so honest up into her spots. I don't feel like I have to really do too much on that mare, just get her to her spots and let her turn.

"Her second run was very pretty, but she was a little more round (in her turns), so she wasn't as snappy leaving them. Both of her runs were just easy. It was pretty fun."

Bred by Rustic River Ranch, Pop Rocks is by leading barrel horse sire Firewaterontherocks out of the Dash Ta Fame mare WR Aces Fame, a graded stakes winner of $96,587. WR Aces Fame is out of WR Red Ace, a multiple graded stakes winner of $313,416 by Lucky Aces N Eights, making her a full sister to LA Cassia, dam of champion barrel horses Lady La Dash ($149,896 EquiStat) and LA Fame ($103,399 EquiStat), and a half-sister to Miss Fortunes Fool ($64,351 EquiStat) and Silver Creek Dash ($43,603 EquiStat).

The Schmidts purchased the filly from her breeders through the 2018 Heritage Place Winter Mix Sale for $10,000. She got her start under saddle with Audra Masterson before going to Brown a year and a half ago.

"I've ridden a lot of horses behind her," Brown said of Masterson. "She gets them exposed to a lot of things so it makes it super easy for me."

Brown said the mare was easy to start on the pattern, but she had trouble figuring out where to put her feet when leaving the barrels.

"She would get her inside leg so up under herself that she would either slip or not get away from the barrel," said Brown. "It was almost like she was trying too hard. I tried for a long time to push her hip in and make her move her front feet more. I knew she wanted to work, so finally, I was like, 'I'm just going to quit picking on her hip.' I'm going to let her be round, but I'm going to shove her away from the barrel a little bit sooner than I would on most colts. She figured it out. She was just her own worst enemy. She always wanted to work, always wanted to turn. She just couldn't figure out how to get away correctly."

Without a heavy futurity schedule over the summer, Brown hit the local jackpots with Pop Rocks. She even took her to an amateur rodeo and was a few tenths out of placing. It was at the Summer Shootout in early August that Pop Rocks found her speed. She got faster with each run. Although she qualified for the 3D shootout, her winning time was good enough to be in the 1D.

"She was the 3D Queen forever," laughed Brown. "She was still winning money, but not where we wanted her to be. I told Lynn one day that she can do it, but she's just not ready yet. Ever since August $25,000 after finishing eighth in the Futurity and fourth in the Blue Collar Breeders sidepot in Ardmore, Oklahoma.

"I guess the moral to the story on Pop Rocks is I quit trying to make it happen and just let it happen, and it worked out!" said Brown.

The last two major events of Pop Rocks futurity career will be the BFA in November and the OKC Futurity in December.

"I'm excited now," said Brown. "She's won more than $30,000 in the past couple of months and she has the opportunity to win a lot

Brown wanted to thank the Schmidts for the opportunity to ride and train Pop Rocks. She also wanted to thank BBR for producing the Futurity.

"I'd like to thank Ross and Steve (Wright) for putting on the Futurity," she said. "With so many futurities being with an incentive, it was nice to have an open futurity to go to where everyone could enter."

Hope Neuman & Morgan Alders Win 1D Titles At Sherry Cervi Youth Championships In Minnesota

By Tanya Randall

Multiple World Champion Barrel Racer Sherry Cervi took her youth championship event to Verndale, Minnesota, October 1-3. Hope Neuman of Dresser, Wisconsin, and Biar French Six Guns ("Gunner") took 1D honors in the juniors, while Morgan Alders of Nowthen, Minnesota, and Not My Idea ("Hawk") claimed the 1D in the seniors.

Junior

Hope Neuman and Gunner placed in the 1D with every run they made at the Sherry Cervi Youth Championships (SCYC). They were fourth in the $500-added Open on Friday, second in the first round of the SCYC and won the second for total earnings of $1,230.

The 12-year-old homeschooled sixth grader was excited for her own win, but she also put her friend Palynn Phillips at the top of the 2D, so they both won saddles.

Neuman, who followed her older sister Claire into the sport, got the win aboard her sister's horse. The 10-year-old gelding is by Six Moons Guy, a three-quarter brother to Six French Smooches, who carried Jennifer Sharp to the National Finals Rodeo in 2019, and out of LB Honey, by Smooth Amigo.

Gunner, whose breeders got to watch him win the SCYC, has only been running barrels for a year. He was just started under saddle when the family purchased him three years ago. Claire has been his main trainer and rider.

Neuman, who said she likes running the gelding because "he's fast," wanted to thank her sister for sharing her horse as well as Jill Houck and Jessica Beauvais, who have helped coach her.

SUCCEED® Means Speed!

"SUCCEED is a staple in my feed program."

Rachel Primm

"I've been using SUCCEED on every horse I own and the results are truly incredible! My horses look and feel healthier than ever. Their hair coats and overall condition have drastically improved, and they now maintain great appetites when traveling and competing."

Neuman's mother Amy wanted to thank the SCYC crew as well, saying "They were a blessing. It's cool to have such a high quality event near us, usually they're all down south. It's really fun to be able to attend something like this in our own area. The opportunity is a huge blessing for us."

Senior

Alders and Hawk picked up $2,122 on the weekend. They were second in the $500-added Open on Friday, second in the opening round of the SCYC and won the second round.

"We kind of struggled with our first barrel over the weekend," said Alders. "She kind of gets upset when she goes by it and she comes back a little stronger. Her second and third (barrels) —I just try to stay out of her way. She wraps those perfectly for me most of the time. She's just a lot of fun to run. Our runs went about how I expected, and I had a lot of fun doing it."

Hawk, a 6-year-old daughter of Frostman San Peppy, out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Milliondollar Secret, is a family horse.

"We got her from Amy Schimke, and Hilary Van Gerpen did the training on her," Alders said. "My dad futuritized her last year, and I derbied her this year."

Alders said it did take some time to get with the mare when she started riding her this spring.

"We definitely had a growing period," she said. "We changed bits a couple of times and figured it out."

Alders started riding when she was 3. She competed in Western Saddle Club Association events until she was 8 when the family made the transition to the bigger barrel racing jackpots in the Great Lakes area such as the Northern Region Futurity Tour.

This was her fourth trip to the SCYC.

"I thought it was just fun to see everybody," she said. "It's one of the last shows of the year so it was fun to see all my friends that I won't get to see much once school starts. It's obviously fun to run my horse."

The 16-year-old junior at Spectrum High, a charter school, plays basketball during the winter while the horses get a break. A top student, Alders hopes to attend medical school and become an anesthesiologist.

Alders wanted to thank her parents Jason and Jenny for the support and Cervi for hosting the race.

Bailey Belcher & Pocket Coin Five Win IBRA National Finals

By Tanya Randall

Bailey Belcher of Brooks, Kentucky, and Pocket Coin Five ("Nickel") topped the International Barrel Racing Association Finals, held September 27-October 2 in Cloverdale, Indiana. They collected $3,528 on the weekend.

"It's an honor to accomplish such a thing," said Belcher, 20. "I've placed second in 2019 and third last year in the Open. It's been a dream of mine and it means the world to me with all the stiff competition all around!"

Belcher, an x-ray technician and medical assistant at an orthopedics practice, didn't arrive at Cloverdale until an hour before her first run on Thursday due to work. She said she froze on her first run and tipped the second barrel. They had some ground trouble on their second run, a 15.025 that placed them in the 1D Adult.

"I don't really know what happened at the first," she said. "It felt like she was running in place. Whatever happened caused us to come off the first a little wide."

As one of the "Top Dogs" in the Kentucky IBRA standings, Belcher had a bye into the Final Round. They saved their best run for last, winning the Finals with a 14.768.

"My friend had passed away the day before," said Belcher. "He had always wanted to watch me run. I was like, 'We are getting it done.' I knew he was with me. We got her done. He was with me."

Belcher picked up her 10-year-old equine partner for just $1,500. Nickel, a daughter of Red Manstrick out of On The Money Aida, by On The Money Asa, had been started and entered but had spent the last two years turned out before Belcher bought her as a 6-year-old.

"I just got lucky," she said. "We just came across her by the grace of God."

It didn't take long for Belcher and Nickel to click.

"She's pretty automatic," she said. "She makes it easy on me. She likes her job."

Belcher started out trail riding with her grandparents, David and Nancy Robbins.

"I started out riding on a pillow in front of my grandmother on her Walking horse," she explained. "When I started riding with my friends, they all wanted to go fast and I did too. I wanted a Quarter horse because that's what they had. Then I got my first barrel horse, Roscoe."

Belcher learned the tricks of the trade from her grandparents, who have supported her barrel racing journey.

"I don't really pick any of the shows I go to," she laughed. "My grandparents pick and I just go."

She especially wanted to thank her grandfather for all his help.

"He hauls me around and believes in me," she said.

The first stop of the 2021 series was held in Corpus Christi, Texas followed by an event in Salt Lake City.

Those athletes who were victorious in Salt Lake City at the Days of '47 Cowboy Games and Rodeo, who will be looking for their second win to remain Triple Crown eligible are: Clayton Biglow (Bareback Riding), Tanner Green (Team Roping- Header), Tyler Waguespack (Steer Wrestling), Tacy Kay Webb (Breakaway Roping), and Ryan Jarrett (Tie-Down Roping).

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

After being in the ministry for 22 years, Mike and I have observed that it is rare that people come to Jesus when everything is going great in their lives. It seems to happen when they have reached the end of themselves in a problem and have no where else to turn. But that's okay.

He loves us and is waiting to make all things new! I needed new in every area of my life! 2 Cor. 5:17 tells us, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold all things have become new."

How good is that???? It's awesome! When we ask Jesus to be Lord, all those new things are available. We just need to find out what they are and receive them!

It can look messy from time to time, though. Like the new recipe I made last night. You could almost smell the picture! Lol! I spent three hours cooking this meatball creation. And when I got done... chaos. I was supposed to cook the meatballs first. They weren't done. So, I had to scoop them all out of this crust and cook them. Can you see this mess? BUT! All the ingredients were still there and it still tasted good! You just had to close your eyes and pretend it still LOOKED great.

We make mistakes in life. Jesus is there to help us when we do! Just keep looking to Him and, messy or not, it can turn out all right! Bless you this week!
