Texas Fair Run Kicks Off 2015 NFR Chase

By Tanya Randall

The ink is barely dry on the tabulations for the 2014 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo and the 2015 chase has already begun.

Former NFR qualifier Layna Kight, Canton, Texas, started her season off with a $2,085 win at the Freestone County PRCA Rodeo in Fairfield, Texas. She was riding the 6-year-old gelding Eyesa So Famous ("Cooper") that's very new to the rodeo scene.

"I've had him about three months," said Kight. "I got him from Tiffany Accomazzo in Stephenville. She said he'd maybe been hauled off the place 15 times to 4 different arenas, but she had done all the right things for me to be able to go on with him. She did a spectacular job on him. She gave him all the right tools to be a spectacular horse. He's just one of those horses that seasoned up very quickly."

Bred by Ace of Spade Ranch, Cooper is by Dash Ta Fame out of Eyesa So Special, by Eyesa Special. Kight had originally bought the horse for her husband to piddle with, but after he won his first little jackpot and placed second at a bigger, tougher one, Kight decided she wanted to spend her money seasoning him.

"His first rodeo was Cheyenne," she laughed. "He won his first check at his 11th rodeo. I've thrown everything you could possibly throw at a young horse. I didn't know him. He'd hardly been off the place. He started in the big pens instead of normal places. Everything he did (mistake-wise) was just seasoning. When I started getting him figured out I told my husband I was ready to come home. We threw him out the pasture and got him up when we wanted to go, and he just started picking up checks."

Cooper's inexperience still gets him from time to time. She won Fairfield from Friday's night performance, but Cooper's run that morning at Hempstead, Texas, slack was a little on the forest green side.

"I had just come from Hempstead, where they had a 14-second pattern set up in a 17-second arena," explained Kight. "I didn't do well. I was late on my first barrel. Kind of went past my second barrel and went by the third. I had not been doing any set work on him because I'd been running in buildings. So I stopped by a friend's house and worked him on my way to Fairfield that night. I did a little bit of set work with him."

Kight also got the benefit of damp, fast ground at Fairfield.

"It was more fast-paced for us," she said. "It was a more normal-type setup. The barrels were where a horse would expect them to be in that size pen. I got by my first a little bit and he slipped leaving it. The second barrel was a really good barrel, with just a little hesitation leaving it. My third barrel was beautiful. We were just blessed to have the fast time."

Kight and Cooper have made the semifinals at the All American Finals in Waco and are also entered in Seguin and Bellville. She has a few rodeos planned after that before returns to Florida, where she and her husband Hoby have their Thoroughbred training business. The Kights are pinhookers—they buy yearlings, get them started and put a few works on them and then sell them before they have their first races. After the big Thoroughbred sales in the spring, Kight is able to return to the rodeo road fulltime.

"Every horse I ever buy, my goal is to make the NFR," she said. "The horses I buy aren't generally proven or is something that has some problem. I don't buy with the intention of selling, but if they're not quiet THAT horse, I'll sell. I want a horse that's a winner, not a placer. I've sold some great horses that are placers, but it's really hard to get to the NFR winning 10th-place checks. I don't have any desire to rodeo all year, going to 100 rodeos to get to the NFR on 10th-place checks. I want a first-place horse, so it's just been a process."

Several barrel racers have been able to pick up top quality horses from Kight. Several of them have taken their new owners to circuit finals and such.

"I go to enough rodeos to get horses seasoned and get reputations on them and sell them appropriately," she said. "I price them at what I would pay for them, sometimes I lose money on them, but they usually sell in a day. Usually all it takes is phone call, because they're out there living, breathing, doing it. And, I tell them EVERYTHING. You want people to enjoy the horses they've bought from you. You don't want them have any surprises."

At the Waller County Fair in Hempstead, Texas, red hot Kelly Tovar and her up-and-coming superstar BB French Fooledya ("Edwin") set the pace for a $2,051 paycheck.

Tovar, Rockdale, Texas, purchased the 7-year-old gelding in March of 2013 from Cindy Smack. Bred by Sally Box, Aubrey, Texas, Edwin is by PC Frenchman, a full brother to WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday and four-time WPRA World Champion French Flash Hawk ("Bozo"), and is out of the Dashing Cleat mare Pebbles Kitty.

"I had been watching him for six months," said Tovar. "My friend Danita Walker kept telling me to go look at him. After he placed at (the pro rodeo in) Marshall, I called Michele McLeod (who had been running the gelding). She said she had several people lined up to try him. I was just sick. I just knew that I wanted him, so I picked up the phone the next day and made an offer on him. I bought him over the phone without trying him."

Tovar initially excitement was dimmed by the surfacing of an old

AQHA Horses of the Year announced

The winners of the AQHA Horses of the Year awards have been announced. Three horses were chosen in each of the six categories, and it was a championship class made special by the number of newcomers - there were five horses that were first-time winners.

Steer roping horse Olee Roberto (Major), owned by Thomas Snedecor and ridden by his son, Scott, is the only repeat winner. A year ago, Major tied for the top spot with Dan Fisher's Woody, and this time he won the award outright.

Each owner of the winning team roping horses celebrated their second victories. This is the second consecutive win for team roping header Brandon Beers. His horse, Lucy's Fast Jewel (Jewel), finished on top of the standings last year, and Beers was No. 1 again this year with El Tevo Cash (Tevo).

Team roping heeler Brady Minor also claimed his second win. Dugout was first in the 2011 balloting, and Minor came back with Rey this year.

Hunter Herrin's win with Rambo ended a five-year run in which the tie-down roping award had gone to either Pearl (2009, 2013) or Sweetness (2010-12).

PUT SPEED AND GOOD LOOKS IN YOUR NEXT BARREL HORSE

JL SIROCCO

2010 AQHA Champion Canada Hi-Point Three-Year-Old Colt

Sirocco is a AAA race winning stallion by Dash Ta Fame, out of a winning barrel racing Band Of Azure mare. Fee $1500 (includes first cooled semen shipment). Nominated to VGBRA and 5-State Breeders, and others as foals come of age.

PRAISE FOR JL SIROCCO

I have two 2 year olds by Sirocco that are beautiful! I bred to Sirocco after riding his full sister and seeing a picture of Sirocco himself. I asked around and was told he was even better in person. Jill has an amazing eye for a horse and knows her pedigrees, so I knew I couldn't go wrong. In my business, I train futurity colts and sell them after their futurity year, my goal is not only to have a winning season on a very talented colt but to also look good doing it, Sirocco is helping me be all that! I believe that JL Sirocco is going to be the whole package, looks, speed, ability and awesome conformation, what more could a barrel racer ask for!

injury that kept her out much of 2013.

"I had run a 16.7 at ANHA (Labor Day weekend), but I told my husband that something wasn't right. Something was off. I took him to my vet Dr. Marty Tanner and did an MRI. I was loading up to go the American qualifier in Loveland, Colo., when he called and told me he had some bad news. He had aggravated an old injury and needed six to eight months off. Dr. Tanner told me not to worry and that he felt like he'd come back stronger than ever."

While Tovar coping with "not worrying" about the injury, Edwin nearly lost his life to blister beetle poisoning.

"I had picked up a bale of alfalfa at the feed store," she explained. "I got to looking at it and decided that I wasn't going to feed it, so I had kind of set it aside. I had gone up to the Elite to watch and when I came home Edwin wasn't doing quite right and that bale had been busted. I called Dr. Tanner and loaded up."

Tovar spent several days crying in Edwin's stall at the vet hospital, until Tanner told her since he'd made it this far, he'd likely recover.

By May, Edwin had returned to the arena and with her husband Joe and son Tucker's encouragement, she and Joe headed out West for a 30 day rodeo run. She won her first pro rodeo in Abilene, Texas, and also topped Texarkana, Ark., and Pasadena, Texas.

"He's been such a blessing," said Tovar. "He's a dream boat. I'm so proud of him right now. He's definitely done more for me at this point than I had ever dreamed possible. It's all Edwin. I'm just along for the ride. He's the one that should get all the pats on the back."

Tovar said the NFR is in the back of her mind, but she's hesitant to say that she's going to make a run for it.

"My son is a senior and he plays golf," she said. "He's my only child and I hate to miss a single tournament. Right now, I'm just going to keep going. I'd like to qualify for The American too. I also want Edwin to last. I want him to be sound, sane and healthy so I'm still running him at 14."

Down in Rosenberg, Texas, at the Fort Bend County Fair & Rodeo, Kristine Knauf and 9-year-old gelding Sonic Moonfire ("Bacardi") set the pace during Saturday night's performance to win $2,031.

"The ground was a little shifty and I was first out," said Knauf, who hails from Chilton, Wis. "I took that and ran with it. He was running by his first barrel a little bit at the other two rodeos, so I was a little worried about that, but he turned it. He ran nice. He ran strong. I didn't know if would hold. There were only 20 girls that had run and they had slack left to go, so I was pretty excited it held after all those runs."

Knauf, a farrier by trade, had skipped the American Qualifier in her region to come down early for the All American Finals in Waco.

"I made the All American Finals in Waco, so I decided to come down and go to some rodeos in Texas," she said. "I'm up there this Thursday and Friday."

Knauf was originally going to head back home after the All American Finals, but decided to enter WPRA World Finals in Waco and possibly enter The American Qualifier in Glen Rose, before heading home for the Great Lakes Circuit Finals and a month-long winter vacation.

This will be her first Great Lake Circuit Finals, and she currently sits in second. Her season was a bit of surprised because her initial goal was just to season Bacardi.

"This is the first year I've rodeoed on him," she said. Bacardi is by notable Great Lakes sire VF Moon Fire, a son of Fire Water Flit, and out of Pretty Angeleo, by Striding Demon. He was bred by Mark and Denise Lecy, Rushford, Minn. "It's been an unexpected

Dennison & Sierra Hall Of Fame Defend Turquoise Circuit Championship

By Tanya Randall

First-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Kassidy Dennison and her great horse Sierra Hall Of Fame ("Eagle") earned their second straight Turquoise Circuit Championship at the Circuit Finals Rodeo in Las Cruces, N.M.

"I've just had a really good year," said Dennison, who hails from Tohatchi, N.M. "I guess the difference this year is that I was able to keep my horse sound. This is the first time he's been sound for a whole year."

Eagle, a 9-year-old gelding, has never had any major injuries, but Dennison has battled sore feet and chronic abscesses.

"He's got typical race horse feet," she noted. "They're finally getting to where they're growing out correctly. I think that's what really helped out a lot this year."

Dennison has been partnered with Eagle since the gelding was 5. Bred by Juan Sierra, El Paso, Texas, Eagle is by Dash Ta Fame out of the Thoroughbred mare La Ganadora, by Pirate Bounty. He was futurity by Chris Duke, Wheatland, Ind., and found his way to Dennison through Dena Kirkpatrick.

Eagle carried Dennison to the Turquoise Circuit Rookie title in 2011 and qualified for their first Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo in 2013 by winning their circuit finals.

Dennison, 22, also topped the 2014 Circuit Finals to boot for an additional $4,445.

"I won the first round," she explained. "I was on top of the ground, and it's usually better when you're on top. I was on the bottom of the ground for the second round. He had a little bit of a harder time on his second run, but I still placed third. I drew third out for the third round, so I had a good draw and I made up some time there."

Dennison has no travel plans for the rest of the year. Rather, she'll keep her horse exercised and save him for the NFR.

She is sponsored by Classic Equine, Martin Saddlery, MVP supplements, Wrangler, Formula 1 Noni, Macee Bean Boots and NRS Horse Trailers, but said her No. 1 sponsors were her parents Karl and Debbie.

Melby sets record at Verndale qualifier

By Julie Mankin

Cayla Melby is just 16 and has only owned her horse three weeks, but she set an arena record with a 13.951 en route to winning The American qualifier race in Verndale, Minn., at the BBR Northern Regional and R&J Arena Finals on Oct. 4.

The Melbys received LTF Jets Last Dance (“Silver”) so they could sell him for his owners, but after three people turned him down, Cayla bought him.

“They passed on him, so I guess this was meant to be,” she said. Melby clocked the only sub-14-second run of the day and earned $1,875 for the win (the race paid six places with 63 horses entered). Silver is a 7-year-old gray gelding by a son of PC Bronsin (by Sun Frost) and out of a Foundation race-bred mare.

“I changed his name to Silver,” said Melby. “It was Bouncer, but nobody wants a bouncy barrel horse, right? I actually wanted to name him Fore, which is what golfers yell when you should get out of the way, but my family wouldn’t let me.”

Melby said the gelding has tons of personality, and every time she warms him up, he tries to buck or something equally precocious. The day she broke the record, he randomly double-barrel kicked at a wheelbarrow. The day after The American qualifier, Melby and Silver hit a barrel and loped home and still clocked a 14.2, she said.

“The day of The American race, I told my dad I wanted to set a new arena record and I wanted them to play “All I Do Is Win,” and they were actually playing that song and I did break the record,” she said. “I’m really glad I got this horse.”

Silver was trained and purchased from Larry Foxworthy of Iowa. Melby said her first two runs on the horse were “horrible” but then she won a race in Ardmore and now the one in Verndale. She is home-schooled and lives with her parents in Oklahoma, but she’s from the Midwest so the win was extra special, she said.

placed sixth on LZK Dashus Valentina and third on a cutting-bred horse named Roll With The Times. Almost six-tenths of a second separated first through 10th.

Also, PG Burger reunited for seventh place with 11-year-old Fancy Man Perks, on whom she qualified for a previous NFR [the gelding is by Dash For Perks out of a granddaughter of Easy Jet and Master Hand]. Uncharacteristically, Mary Burger was unsuccessful in her bid for a top-10 time when she finished 13th on Sadiesfamouslastwords; the two also barely missed the cut at the qualifier a week prior in Loveland, Colo.

The 10 qualifiers from Verndale will join the groups of 10 from Loveland and from Pasco, Wash., in June and Springfield, Ohio, in September. The Pasco event fielded 55 entries, while the Ohio qualifier had 91 entered and saw two men secure qualifications – Troy Crumrine and David Skimehorn. The Ohio event paid $2,025 to first and paid nine holes.

Following the 10 qualifying races, all 100 horses will head to Texas in February 2015 for the American Semi-Finals, along with last spring's BBR World Champion, the CNFR champ and the NHSFR champ.

The number of entries at the remaining American qualifying races makes a difference in the number of Semi-Final winners that will move on to AT&T Stadium on March 1. For instance, if there are fewer than 650 entered at the 10 total qualifying races, then just five horses will advance from the Semi-Finals. If there end up being more than 1,000, then nine will advance, etc.

At the Semi-Finals, the 103 horses will run in slack (which pays 20 percent of the pot) and the top 20 from there will compete in two performances at Fort Worth's Cowtown Coliseum (running at 80 percent). One performance each of 10 horses will be held Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

Afterward, the number of finalists determined by the total entries in all of this year's qualifying races will advance, along with Char-mayne James, who has already accepted an exemption. It looks like the number advancing will be more than five, considering that the American qualifier in Lincoln, Neb., this weekend has 107 entries.

Following the Lincoln qualifier on Oct. 11, five races will remain – Starkville, Miss., on Oct. 17; Billings, Mont., on Oct. 19; Glen Rose, Texas on Nov. 1; Jacksonville, Fla., on Nov. 18 and finally Buckeye, Ariz., on Jan. 24, 2015.

THE RUNDOWN with Pamela Lei

French Cash Yawl ("Cash")
 2002 Sorrel Gelding, 15.2 hands, 1,200 lbs.
HISTORY: I got Cash as a 4yr old to train and then purchased him when he was 11. I started him on barrels and we had a great futurity year as a 5 yr old. Cash then went on to qualify for the circuit finals 3 yrs after that before starting to show signs of lameness. He was diagnosed with navicular as an 8 yr old and it has been a trial to keep him sound since then. I had almost given up on him, but thru trial and error I think I have him running again for now. Cash has won close to $30,000 in cash and prizes since his 4yr old year.
TELL US ABOUT YOUR RUNS: My first run felt great. He went in and was really wanting to work. I knew he would be a little harder to push him by them on his second run so I rode him as hard as I could and barely snuck around the 2nd barrel.
BIT: Twisted-wire ring snaffle
SADDLE: Charmayne James Record Breaker Saddle
SADDLE PAD: Charmayne James pad

Poppino & Doc Lead Loveland Qualifiers

By Julie Mankin

It's been a long haul for Tana Poppino the past three years as her handful of horses all were on injured reserve. But now with Goose back, she's been unbeatable.

The 12-year-old gray gelding, Doc Hickory's Cross, carried the Big Cabin, Okla., cowgirl to first among the 69 runs made at The American qualifier held in Loveland, Colo., on Sept. 27 in conjunction with the Mile Hi and BBR Western Regional Finals.

The pair put up a 16.827 on the standard pattern to win one of the toughest barrel races of the year. Six runs came in under 17 seconds – in fact, only one 17-flat snuck in for the last paid hole. Goose is by a Doc's Hickory/Poco Tivio stallion and out of a mare named Diala's Cross who carries the blood of Blondy's Dude on top and Jet Dial on the bottom.

"My husband was looking for a tripping prospect and a guy brought him over back when he was 4 or 5," Poppino recalled. "I didn't think he could run much, but he was really broke so I thought maybe I could sell him for a 3D horse someday."

Since cracking out right afterward with some big go-round wins at big rodeos, however, Goose has been plagued with health problems, including a torn suspensory that took him out all last summer.

"Thank God, He wouldn't let me give up on him," she said. "The last three years have been pretty trying. But when you know you've got a winner, you just have to figure out the right combination."

Her health care plan worked, because the following weekend, she traveled to Waco, Texas, and set a new arena record on him there (she also clocked a 16.8 on a standard set in Woodward, Okla., this year). She'll run Goose again at her circuit finals rodeo next week. Poppino retired her NFR horse, Amigo, this summer not long after the 19-year-old pulled three 1D checks at a race in Lincoln in April – and then fell at a later race.

"Amigo just tries so hard that he ends up hurting himself," she said. "Enough's enough – I won't let him go until he completely tears a leg off."

Winning a million dollars in March would sure take the sting out of all the time Poppino has spent at home doctoring horses of late, but she knows she has to outrun the field three or four more times to make it happen. Hopefully each contest won't be as tough as Loveland's, where only a tenth of a second separated first from sixth place – and just over two-tenths separated first and 10th.

A varied mix of horses made the top 10 alongside Poppino and

Goose, from CJ Vondette and her 18-year-old Azure Te-bred gray horse, Cache A Mount, to the great 6-year-old derby champion Jet O Red with new owner Andrea Busby. Only one NFR horse made the cut – Taylor Jacob's Honor Thy Frenchman – and only one other NFR qualifier in Shali Lord. The latter rode 5-year-old Freckles Ta Fame into the top 10 after Ashley Schafer's successful futurity season on the horse. Lord clocked a 17.3 on the other horse owned by Lamar's Joe and Carla Spitz – 5-year-old Lady La French – but it didn't even crack the top 30. Gretchen Benbenek, who finished fifth at last year's American, missed a qualification in 11th, but college freshman Bailee Snow and New Zealand barrel racing champ Carmel Wright both made the cut.

For the win, Poppino earned $1,898 (seven holes were paid out of 25 percent of the pot). Running second out meant she had to sweat almost the entire rest of the field that night.

"It was nice to outrun some other nice horses," she said. "There were some nice runs. Sometimes you just get blessed."

The day turned out even better when she got the phone call that her son, Brody, made his first National Finals Steer Roping. He'll compete on Amigo's full brother, trained by her husband, Marty. Poppino is grateful to Flying C Bar Ranch for helping her keep Goose sound, as well as Equi-Pride, Cowboy Rigs, Total Health Enhancement, and ReGen.

The Loveland qualifier, which had 76 total entries before scratches, was the third of the 10 races granting tickets to the $2 million American rodeo, scheduled for March 1, 2015 in the AT&T Stadium in Dallas.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A horse that trust you is easier to train.
A horse that is afraid of you is harder to teach and won't always respond as it should.

Some people are like that with God. They are afraid of God and don't realize He is the best friend they'll ever have. They "shy" away from anything that mentions God, death, eternity, and hell. They think God is mad and full of vengeance, just waiting to clobber them with all kinds of troubles and disasters. Even some insurance policies talk about disasters as "acts of God."

Wrong! God isn't mad at you. He sent His Son Jesus to pay the price for mankind - the debt owed that man couldn't pay. The Bible is full of Scriptures showing how God wants good things for us and the good plan He has for our lives. Jesus came that we could have life more abundantly. (John 10:10)

Hebrews 4:16 says we can go boldly before the Father's throne to "obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need." That should reassure us in these turbulent times. We live in an imperfect world full of perils and we need the power and protection of our mighty God so we can be overcome and live the high life Jesus died to give us. We can have peace, joy, prosperity, and health in this life.

If you've made Jesus the lord of your life, you don't have to be afraid of the evil tidings you see on the news. You're a child of God and that same power that raised Jesus from the dead resides in you.

So trust God and look to him for direction (Proverbs 3:6). Talk to Him, read His Word. Listen to His voice inside you telling you quietly what you should do. You'll be in for the time of your life!
