Megan Champion Sweeps California Circuit, Wins Finals & Year-End Titles

By Tanya Randall

WPRA Rookie-of-the-Year Runner-Up Megan Champion swept the California Circuit, winning both the Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 4-6 in Lancaster, and the year-end title. She left Lancaster with $8,443.

"I think I do the best when I don't put pressure on myself," she said. "We were $150 apart going into the third round and I didn't know that until we were running. It was in the middle of the run. I thought that's what I heard him say and then when you watch the video later—'Oh, that is what I heard him say!'"

Champion's chase for Rookie and eventual circuit championship started two years ago when she purchased Smarty as a means of returning to barrel racing. Bred by Jim Babcock, Smarty is by Mister Dual Pep out the Elans Playboy mare Elans Smartee.

"When I got her, she hadn't won over $2,500," she explained. "Katie McCaslan had trained her and an older lady had bought her. Smarty would buck her off! When I got her, she was this crazy little

"It's exciting!" exclaimed Champion. "I didn't expect to be coming home with a saddle and five buckles! I was so excited to just be there and have made it with the top 12 girls in California. I was really grateful to have accomplished so much in my first year.

While the Ukiah, California, barrel racer split the year between her own mare Miss Dual Smartee ("Smarty") and Rachel Dice's TivitosAtTheGoGoBar ("Katy"), it was Katy that got the call in Lancaster.

"I was going to run one each day, but she did so good the first day I just couldn't switch," said Champion. She and Katy won the first two rounds, moving within reach of defending California Circuit Champion Nellie Miller for the year-end championship. They locked it up when they placed third in the final round en route to winning the aggregate.

"They're both really broke because they have reiner-type backgrounds. I always run with really long reins—everyone is always telling me to shorten my reins—but I have little bit of gymkhana pull habit. If I do my pull it doesn't affect them as much with my reins being longer."

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "I love to trail ride," she said. "We have really great mountains and I think it really works their butts. I try to keep them out of the arena as much as possible. When I'm on the road, I also try to find turnouts for them. I'll drive out of my way to be able to turn them out. I want them to be able to move around and free up."

High Valor Wins 2019 WPRA/AQHA Purina Horse of the Year

The 2019 WPRA/AQHA Barrel Horse of the Year is High Valor (Valor) owned and ridden by Dona Kay Rule. The 10 year old gelded son of Valiant Hero out of the Rare Form mare, Rare High was bred by Lana Merrick. Anyone watching the barrel horse world closely knew this pair was sitting on the edge of a breakout over the last couple years. After ending up #51 in the World with $24,601 in 2018, High Valor and Rule had that breakout this year winning $96,507 at 64 rodeos qualifying to the 2019 NFR in the #9 position.

High Valors sire Valiant Hero has recently started to produce a number of top barrel horses with High Valor leading that pack. His dam, Rare High earned a speed index of 93 and earned $30,381 on the racetrack and she has produced 3 triple A runners, including 1 Black Type/Stakes Placer and the earners of $63,667 on the racetrack.

We caught up with Rule to get her reaction to the news of High Valor winning Horse Of The Year for 2019. "Oh my goodness, I am stunned! There are so many great athletes; I cannot express how happy and honored I am for Valor to be recognized like this! He's been a trooper that's for sure but so have lots of others! We are so proud and so very honored, thank you!" Said a grateful Rule.

The owner of the Horses of the Year in each category are awarded $5,000 and an AQHA bronze trophy. Second place will receive $3,000 and third place will receive $2,000.

In second place was Kn Fabs Gift Of Fame (J Lo) ridden by Ivy Conrado Saebens; owned by Kenny Nichols & Dale Barron.

Third place was a tie between Freckles Ta Fame (Can Man) ridden Shali Lord; owned by Joe & Carla Spitz and An Oakie With Cash (Louie) ridden by Lisa Lockhart; owned by Lisa & Grady Lockhart.

Below is an excerpt from the Barrel Racing Report article from August 20th written by Tanya Randall that covered where High Valor came from and his development:

"Rule purchased Val from his breeder and her good friend Lana Merrick-Bailey when he was 6. Merrick-Bailey, a former National Finals Rodeo qualifier herself and the benefactor of the Scoti Flit Bar award given to the rising equine star of the season, had planned on keeping the gelded son of Valiant Hero, out of Rare High, by Rare Form, for herself, but life and her breeding business got in her way.

"Her words to me were, 'I'm going to ruin him doing like I'm doing him, home two weeks and then gone a week. It's just not fair to him. Would you like to buy him?' I was like, 'Oh my goodness, would I ever!'"

The one stipulation was if Rule ever wanted to sell him, he would go back to Merrick-Bailey. That one condition actually made it easier for Rule, who had always trained and sold her horses.

"Honestly that took a load off my back, just knowing that it was all on me," she said. "I didn't have to keep him groomed up for anybody else, just put him together for me. So that was nice. Everything I've ever had I trained and sold to pay for my kids schooling or whatever, help the family with money. There was never that horse that was just mine no matter what, and Valor is."

Initially, Rule wasn't sure if she could keep up with Valor, but she was forced to turn to the gelding when her current rodeo horse Juice suffered a career-ending injury from a freaky non-performance accident.

"He was just the other guy in the trailer," she said. "He was difficult. I wasn't 100 percent sure I could stay with him. He's very stout and has a very long stride."

In 2017, they went to winning the 1D at the large jackpots and the following year, they had earned the right to run at this year's winter rodeos. In hind-sight, Juice getting injured was the turning point for her professional rodeo career. It's now or never.

"I finally gave myself permission to go," said Rule, who has qualified for numerous Women's National Finals Rodeos as roper. "I dug deeper to see if I could make a go of it."

Congratulations to High Valor & Dona Kay Rule & all the connections of the top horses! -- Barrel Racing Report

cowhorse. I reached out to Katie and was like 'I bought this horse and I would love to come down and ride with you.' Katie helped me a lot, figuring out her style and how to ride her properly. We just clicked and went from there. I was just really fortunate she's as awesome as she is. I didn't go into it thinking I had bought this amazing 1D horse. I had just started back barrel racing at the end of 2017."

When she had success at the open, amateur rodeos, friends urged her to go pro.

"Everyone told me I had a really special horse. She's a unicorn. You should really hit the pro circuit," she said. "I bought a backup horse because I didn't want to go on the road with just one. She turned out to be not what I was looking for. I knew Rachel had put Katy up for sale, but she didn't really want to sell her. So, I approached her and asked her about leasing her. I'm super glad she's pregnant again this year so I get to take Katy on the road with me again!"

Katy, 13, is by Tivitos Sugar Bar out of Red Oak Doll by Flips Red Oak, and was bred by Dee Braucht. She carried Dice to numerous pro rodeo wins and California Circuit Finals qualifications.

Champion said Katy and Smarty split the load equally, but she tried to pick the best horse the situation.

"Usually, the rodeos that have the short rounds, I run Smarty because I hit more barrels on Katy," she said. "I know when I have three runs in a row I have a better shot on Smarty. I'm also more confident on Smarty because I've had her for two years and I had just got Katy at the end of November (2018). I'm just figuring her out a little more."

She said the mares are pretty different with the exceptions of their smaller stature and reining horse backgrounds.

"Katy, I can send from the back 40 and she'll hunt the first barrel. That's her money barrel. If I push Smarty to the first at all, she'll blow it. Katy's more seasoned. She's 13 and been there, done that. I just have to remember to let her go. Smarty, we're still learning. I have to remember to check Smarty at the first and push Katy all the way. Otherwise, they're pretty easy."

Champion finished 23rd in the WPRA World Standing with $57,423 and she's looking forward to another run at the NFR in 2020.

"I'm so excited to be able to get into the limited entry rodeos this next year because I wasn't able to get into any of them this year," she said. "That's a huge highlight for me. I can't wait!"

Champion wanted to thank Rachel Dice, Katie McCaslan and Shelley Holeman for all their help and support. She also wanted to thank her driver Laura Leone, Shawn Church and California Circuit Director Stacy Freitas for "going above and beyond to be helpful."

Amanda Harris & Frenchman Fire Fly Capture Badlands Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

The Minot Y's Men's Badlands Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 4-6 in North Dakota, was a salty, tight rodeo. Amanda Harris and Frenchman Fire Fly captured the Badlands Circuit Finals Championship by .02 on a four-run aggregate ahead of Cally Thomas Kindred and TRCashenBadger.

Harris placed in three rounds—the first, third and fourth—en route to the title. She says her 9-year-old gelding was just “really solid all weekend.”

“The arena is very tiny,” said Harris of the arena set inside the boards of a hockey rink. “The first run he went in really solid and made a really nice run for me. The second run was in the afternoon, and it was really bright. We have to come from the outside into the building. He kind of missed his first barrel and then he slipped. I don’t think our eyes were quite adjusted yet. He still clocked good for our mistake. The third round, he came in and nailed his first and he had two beautiful runs after that. (Sunday), again it was an afternoon perf, so I had Jason Jensen help me up the alley as far as Fly Fire would let him, just to let our eyes adjust. He clocked our fastest time of the whole weekend on his last run.”

Harris, a mother of a preschooler and a toddler, said she knew she was sitting pretty good all weekend but was trying her best not to pay attention.

“I think people can get too wrapped up in the numbers,” she said. “I just wanted to take it one run at a time and enjoy each run.” Then Facebook threw her a spoiler.

“Saturday night I was just scrolling through Facebook and saw Miles (McNarland’s) post on the Texas updates page. I read that Cally and I were tied for first going into the last round. It was pretty intense. Carey Rivinius was only a tenth behind us. The three of us were all really, really close going into the last round,” she said

Both Kindred and Rivinius ran before Harris on Sunday. “I got to cheer them on and watch them,” she said. “Both of them had great runs too. The pressure was a little bit on. I just had to go make our run and it worked out in our favor.”

Fire Fly was bred, raised and trained by Harris’ father Bob Welsh. The gelding is by Frosty Frenchman out of Princess Bar Dash, by Hot Dasher. Welsh handed Harris the reins in the fall of the gelding’s fifth year.

In his first year of rodeo competition, Fire Fly took Harris to the 2016 Badlands Circuit Finals and qualified for RFD-TV’s The American’s Semifinals Rodeo. This was their second circuit finals qualification.

“We did go a lot more this year,” she said. “He just felt more mentally mature than in past years. With that, we went a little more than what we had been.

“He has had such a great year for me. The WCRA Semifinals down in Guthrie was awesome. In Green Bay, he was awesome there. It really has probably been our best year we’ve had together so far.”

She wanted to give a special thank you to her husband, Shawn, and both side of her family for all their help and support, saying, “My husband has been an awesome support this year. He’s drove a lot of miles with me and helping with the kids, of course. My parents—Bob and Peggy—they’re awesome. They’re always there to Ron is always feeding my horses for me when I’m gone and Shawn is with me. My two sponsors—Simply Eden and Famous Equine—they’ve been a huge help in keeping Fire Fly healthy and sound. My vet Dr. Candice Carden, and all my family and friends—they’ve all been incredible.”

She also wanted to thank the Minot Y’s Men for their great job hosting the Badlands Circuit Finals and her circuit director for all of her hard work.

“The Minot Y’s Men did a fabulous job making sure the ground was good for us girls all four rounds,” she said. “They put on a great rodeo. I’m thankful for all the sponsors that make it happen. A huge thank you to our circuit director Heidi Schmidt, she’s worked really hard for us.”

Harris said she plans to keep Fire Fly going through December so she can be in top form for the winter rodeos next year and be ready for the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Florida, later in the spring.

“My husband and I MapQuest it yesterday coming home from the Circuit Finals,” she laughed. “I told him, ‘I hope you’re ready for a long trip because it’s exactly 2,000 miles from our house.’”

Jessica Routier of Buffalo, South Dakota, will be making her third trip to Kissimmee for her seventh National Circuit Finals Rodeo appearance. Although some tipped barrels took her out of the average, Routier and her great mare Fiery Miss West (“Missy”), owned and bred by Gary Westergren, picked up $2,923.

“We won the first round, which was a goal of mine,” she said. “I don’t know what it is but I’ve never won the first round of anything no matter what horse I’ve been on. I know its me. I’ve always been more of an average person and don’t really go for it right away. It was really exciting to win the first round there.”

Routier has 14 circuit finals qualifications under her belt—11 in the Badlands and three in the Great Lakes Circuit. She has three year-end championships—two with Missy and one with her great mare Especial Smoothie—who served as her grand entry horse at last year’s NFR at age 23.

Even though circuit finals money won count toward the 2020 WPRA World Standings, Routier said the Badlands Circuit Finals are something you don’t want to miss.

“I love our circuit finals,” said Routier, who wanted to thank everyone for their support. “Even with trying to make the NFR the past couple of years—even with the circuit finals not counting for the standings next year—it’s still always been one of my main goals.

The committee goes way above and beyond to make it as good as they can. The ground there is really hard to get good and they’ve made it really good the last couple of years. They want it to be one of the best circuit finals in the country and they work really hard to get added money so it pays good. There’s good hospitality. They just do everything they can to make it a great experience for everyone.”

finished 8th in the WPRA World Standings with $96,582.

Unlike last year, Routier got to compete at the winter building rodeos, which changed up her year a little.

"I went to the winter rodeos this year and I had never done that before so that was a new experience," she said. "Just like last year I wasn't gone for long periods of time. I did go Texas from the middle of February to the first of April, but I did come home once during that time. I did Calgary and from Calgary I went to California and then when home through Utah. I did Dodge City and Phillipsburg, over to Sidney Iowa and Sikeston Mo then over to Lawton Ok. I had been to Sikeston before because I used to be Great Lakes. I knew she would like it."

Since she had done so well, Routier was able to skip going to the Northwest, which allowed her to stay home and attend a benefit for a good friend's child.

One of the things that stood out about Routier's season was how lethal Missy is in the mud.

"There were a lot of muddy runs this year," she said. "I don't think I ran at one rodeo in South Dakota that wasn't muddy."

She won Belle Fourche, South Dakota, over the Fourth July in spectacular fashion.

"We were in the first performance and it was in the forecast to rain all week," she said. "Chances were pretty good it was going to be wet all weekend. I know Belle Fourche's ground pretty good and knew it would be safe. We just ran. I was shocked at the time she ran; it would have been good even if she'd run when it had been dry. That was kind of a big surprise."

They also won Sikeston in the mud. At Deadwood, they were the only ones to place after running in the only wet performance of the rodeo.

Routier said she figured that Missy would handle the muddy ground just as well as she's handled everything else.

"I had a good feeling that she would handle it because she's just always handled everything and not even thought twice," she continued. "She's had to go through water at home moving cows and stuff. I always say no matter what the circumstance you have to ride like it's no different. That's what I did and she treated (the mud) like any other rodeo."

Billings, Montana, will be the pair's last rodeo before the NFR. In the meanwhile, she'll get some time off before getting legged up for Las Vegas.

Tarryn Lee & SadiesAce InThe Hole Hit the Jackpot at Turquoise Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Tarryn Lee and SadiesAce InThe Hole (“Ace”) nearly swept the Turquoise Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 3-5 in Prescott Valley, Arizona. The barrel horse trainer from St. David, Arizona, and her 10-year-old gelding got a first-place check in all but one round, where they were second, to earn $7,716.

She had all the confidence in the world in Ace, who set the arena record at the third round of last year’s circuit finals. Ace’s success in the hockey rink-sized indoor arena is a little surprising given his size. He’s 16.3 hands and weighs 1,400 pounds.

“It’s pretty crazy that he does that well in a little pen,” Lee laughed. “I knew he had a good chance. He’s just so solid after a year of rodeo—he hasn’t been run that long—I knew he was doing even better and he proved that.”

Ground was a concern for all during the first two rounds of the circuit finals, but Lee chose to put her faith in her horse.

“It was not good the first two rounds,” she said, “but my horse just stood up and didn’t have any problems at all. The judge came up to us and said, ‘It is what it is. Just safety-up.’ I looked at my friend Lori Todd and we were like, ‘Don’t safety-up.’ I just went out there and just knew that my horse knew what he was doing and I CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: “I live on a ranch over on the border by Nogales, Arizona. We live right by the Santa Cruz River. I rarely work him in the arena.

We go out and look for cows and ride in the river. It really helps him. He really craves the barrels when we do.”

SPONSORS: Rowdy Rubbish, EquiExtra and Top Flex pushed him to that first barrel. I just let him work and didn’t worry about the ground. I think that helped me. I think when you try to safety-up that’s when something happens. I just went for it. I have all the confidence in the world in that horse because he is so sure-footed and strong. He took care of us.”

Lee and Ace tied for the win in the first round with Leia Pluemer and her newest ride KK Cash Colours. They won the second round and turned in their fastest run, a 14.40, to place second to Cindy Smith and Wood B ASmokinBarbie in the third round.

“He gets stronger and stronger and faster with every run,” she said. “He’s not a barrel hitter, so I had a lot of confidence.”

Ace is also a strong-willed horse, having survived cancer that kept him out of the arena for several years.

“Only two horses in the whole world had his cancer and the other one died,” she said. “He’s been through a couple of surgeries. He was not supposed to live and he did. That shows you how big of a heart he has.”

Bred by Jeff and Kristie Thorstenson, Ace is by Sadies Frosty Drift out of Minnie Two Shoes, by Dash Ta Fame. He’s a three-quarters brother to Mary Burger’s WPRA World Champion SadieFamous-LastWords, who is out of Porky And Bess, also by Dash Ta Fame.

Lee had originally trained Ace when he was a 5-year-old, but she got him back when he proved to be too much horse for his owner.

“When the owner got him back, he just took advantage of her,” Lee explained. “She decided that he needed to go on because she knew how amazing he could be. My grandpa told me I have to buy this horse. He usually has a good eye for horse and he was right about him.”

Her grandfather, the late Don Goodman, was also right about Hez Firein Ta Fame, who helped Lee qualify for her second Turquoise Circuit Finals.

“My grandpa is my best friend and he passed away in January,” she said. “He has been there for me more this year and he’s not even here. I just know he’s with me and I think that’s why I had such an amazing year. One thing my grandpa told me was that this would help me get to the NFR. I know he’s going to help me get there.”

While Lee mainly focused on her circuit in 2019, she has a little bit bigger goals for 2020.

“I’m going to haul with Leia Pluemer this winter,” she said. “If I do well, we’ll keep going. Like everyone, my goal is to make the NFR, but my goal this year is make the Top 50 so I can make the big rodeos. He’s so solid I think I have a pretty good chance.”

In addition to thanking her horses and her grandfather, Lee also wanted to thank her parents, boyfriend and sponsors as well as “everybody that’s supported me with calls and texts—there’s too many to name.”

Joining Lee at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Florida, next spring is Turquoise Circuit Champion Sarah Kieckhefer of Prescott, Arizona.

Kieckhefer, who will be making her third appearance at the RNCFR and her second trip to Florida, said her family is anxious to go back.

The busy mom and rancher’s wife primarily stayed within the Turquoise Circuit for 2019.

“With the (Legacy Ranch Horse) sale and the ranches and everything I wasn’t able to leave very much,” said the two-time year-end circuit champion and 18-time circuit finals qualifier. “Salinas was the only one that I went to out of the circuit.”

hometown rodeo win at the Prescott Frontier Days.

"It's usually my toughest one," said Kieckhefer, who split the win with Megan Champion. "In 20 years, I don't know if I've placed in the average. The last three years I threatened not to enter and I almost missed the books this year. It was like 10 minutes to close and I thought 'Well, I guess I better enter it!'"

Kieckhefer won all her circuit money aboard the Jud Little-bred gelding Ittys Valiant Eagle, a 10-year-old by Valiant Hero out of the champion barrel mare Ittys Sis, by Eagles Reason (TB).

"He came through Jud Little's Dispersal Sale," she said. "I bought him sight unseen. I was actually going to buy him and flip him, but I liked him and decided to keep him."

She nicknamed the gelding "Lava" because he felt like he was going to erupt when she first started riding him.

"I rode him outside a little, but I took a good six, eight months of just playing with him," she said. "I didn't take him to many jackpots and just kind of got a feel for him. I had to take him to a rodeo when my other horse got hurt and he just loved the atmosphere of it and just went right to it."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I am not a teacher. I don't even know where to start. My philosophy is reflected in a sign I got:

"Me: I need some help around here.

Also me: No, not like that...here, I'll do it!" LOL!

But you may need to help someone whether you're a teacher or not! And if a person is drowning, you are not on the bank yelling at them that they aren't swimming right!!!! THEY NEED SAVED!

And that's exactly how we tell people about Jesus. Some people are drowning and we can help them if we'll just get in there! We don't have to pour the whole Bible into their head at once. There may not be time!

We love on them. We point them to Jesus, who has all the answers. I don't think any of us ever figured something out right off the bat. There was a learning curve for all of us. Let's help someone this week. Might be baby steps at first, but we can make a difference in a life if we'll just put ourselves out there for Him!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
