Lisa Lockhart and An Oakie With Cash Bank in the Badlands

By Tanya Randall

Multiple Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Lisa Lockhart, Oelrichs, S.D., added another Badlands Circuit Finals Championship to her resume over the weekend. She and An Oakie With Cash topped the Badland Circuit Finals Rodeo, held Oct. 4-7 in Minot, N.D., en route to her seventh year end circuit title.

"It was a great circuit finals," said Lockhart. "We took turns with different people winning the rounds which was great to see. I was fortunate enough to hang in there. It was pretty tough, pretty tight."

Lockhart and Louie got tapped off right in the opening round, within a winning run of 13.33. They split the second go with MacKenzie Weber with a run of 13.47. A 13.38 in the third round put them second to Jessica Routier's 13.32. In the final round, Desiree Weigel turned in the fastest run of the event, a 13.28, and Lockhart and Louie finished second by the slightest of margins with a 13.29.

All totaled, Lockhart collected $5,947 at one of the best-paying circuit finals in the country.

"They've really worked hard to make it what it is," said Lockhart, who is sponsored by Classic Equine, Platinum Performance, Circle Y, DeTye Vet Supply, Woody's Performance Feed, Cowgirl Tuff and

Cindy Smith and Zans Parr Te Celebrate Turquoise Championship

By Tanya Randall

WPROA Gold Card Member and former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Cindy (Witcher) Smith of Hobbs, N.M., earned her first trip to the Ram National Circuit Finals Rodeo with a victory at the Turquoise Circuit Finals Rodeo, held Oct. 4-6 in Las Cruces, N.M.

Smith qualified for the TCFR largely due to the efforts of her former futurity standout Wood B Smokin fame, a 5-year-old gelding by Woodbridge out of Smokin Shuttle, by Shuttleman (TB), earlier this year. However, "Brees" got turned out due to back soreness after an abbreviated Fourth of July run.

"I was lucky enough to have friends offer me a horse," said Smith. Zans Parr Te ("Hugo") belongs to Tabby Gandy and her daughter Katelynn Cummings. "I got along with him right off the bat. He fits me and my style really good."

Bred by Ernest Carlson and trained by his daughter Kirsten, a past Turquoise Circuit Finals qualifier herself, Hugo is a 14-year-old gelding, by Zans Last Parr out of Nati Te, by Mighty Te.

"I started riding him about two months ago," explained Smith, who along with her mother Marion Gramith makes up one of the few mother-daughter combinations to have qualified for the NFR together. "I ran him at Silverton and Lovington and made a few

TQHA Introduces Barrel Horse Program

Austin, TX—The Texas Quarter Horse Association proudly announces the development of the TQHA Barrel Horse Stallion Service Auction, Futurity & Derby. Proceeds from the Stallion Service Auction will fund a futurity and derby for the offspring of stallions enrolled in TQHA's Barrel Horse Stallion Service Auction. A portion of the proceeds will also go towards a stallion owner's sidepot to award those who so generously support this program.

"This is a big deal for the state of Texas," says TQHA President Ronnie Stewart, who stands noted barrel horse and racehorse sire Royal Shake Em at this Double S Farms in Holland, Texas. "This program brings together many facets of our horse industry—namely the racing and showing divisions—to the benefit of both. Barrel racing is the perfect bridge between the two, and it's popular with our youth—the future of our association. It will be good for the horse industry."

The Stallion Service Auction is only open to stallions standing in the state of Texas. The service auction will begin January 15 and end on February 15, 2013, at noon. Bids will start at one-half of the annual advertised stud fee or $300, whichever is greater.

All offspring of service auction stallions will be eligible to compete in the 2013 TQHA Barrel Futurity and Derby, tentatively scheduled for November. The Futurity is open to horses 5-years and younger that have not competed prior to December 1, 2012. The total entry fee for the Futurity will be $150 with first payments due May 1, 2013. The Derby is open to horses competing in their first two years after their futurity season. Horses competing as 5-year-old futurity horses can run as 6- and 7-year-olds, while horses running as 4-year-old futurity horses can run as 5- and 6-year-olds.

"Ultimately we'd like to have this program become so successful that we can add a barrel horse section to our TQHA Yearling Sale and be able to award second career racehorses that make the transition from the race track to the arena," says Stewart. "We'd also like to be able to grow our youth involvement. Without them our association doesn't have a future."

The first stallions coming on board are Royal Shake Em, Primetime Dream, Make It Anywhere, Simply Macho, Phantom Menace and Covert that stand at Stewart's Double S Farm, and Chasin Firewater, Dallas Fuel, Hot Corona and Two Timen Fuel of JB Quarter Horses.

"I encourage all stallion owners and managers to become involved," says Stewart. "This offers additional sources of revenue for your breeders and clients and adds strength to our industry in Texas. Our goal is to turn our barrel racing program into a $100,000 event, much like our TQHA Sire's Cup on the racing side."

Stallion owners interested in donating a stallion service should contact Barbara Linke, TQHA Executive Director at 800.945.6157, 512.458.5202 or via email at blinke@tqha.com. Interest parties can also visit with TQHA President Ronnie Stewart at 254.718.6741.

Additional information on the TQHA's Stallion Service Auction, Futurity & Derby will be available at TQHA.com along with information on TQHA's $5,000-added Black Friday Open 4D, held November 23, 2012, in conjunction with the TQHA Fall Classic at the Brazos County Expo Center in Bryan, Texas.

Canadian Claims Linderman Award

For the first time in 20 years, a Canadian cowboy – Kyle Thomson of Lundbreck, Alberta – has captured the Linderman Award, emblematic of being the most versatile all-around hand in rodeo.

Thomson earned $28,441 in saddle bronc riding, $5,102 in steer wrestling and $1,230 as a team roping heeler to meet the requirement that he bank at least $1,000 in three events with at least one event at each end of the arena. "It's something I always thought about trying to win but never really did until this year," Thomson told Dwayne Erickson of the Calgary Herald. Thomson, a 34-year-old rancher, is a three-time Canadian all-around champion; he won the title a year ago when he finished fourth in the saddle bronc riding standings and 26th in steer wrestling. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

B Bar Heart Performance Horses. "They're determined to make our Circuit better yet with some fundraisers and things like that. They're trying."

It was the second consecutive year-end and average title for Lockhart. She split time between her two stellar mounts—Louie, a 9-year-old buckskin gelding, by Biebers Oakie out of Lady Kaweah Cash, by leading sire Judge Cash, and Fast An Gold, a 14-year-old gelding by El Roco out of Romanna Glass, by Raise Your Glass.

Both horses came from Tim and Kelly Bagnell of B Bar Heart Performance Horses in Polson, Mont. The Bagnells also raised Louie. Both horses were started by Tim before heading to Lockhart for barrel training.

"I probably split it up between them," she said of her two mounts. "I've always used Louie indoors and at the Circuit Finals, of course. Some of my bigger wins were actually on Chisum throughout the summer, too."

Chisum won checks at Deadwood and Belle Fourche over the Fourth of July, where Lockhart was one of the top WPRA money earners for Cowgirl Christmas.

The chestnut gelding also helped her qualify for her fourth consecutive WNFR.

Lockhart said, "It was a great year, start to finish," but she's always glad to come home for her circuit rodeos and family time. She and her husband Grady have three children—Alyssa, Thane and Cade, who are actively involved in school, sports and Little Britches rodeos.

"It's always so fun to come home and rodeo in the circuit, and be closer to home," said Lockhart. "I always look forward to that in August. They're not super big rodeos, but they're worthwhile to come home and go to."

more bucks to make the circuit finals.”

Smith got a great boost of confidence after Hugo helped her qualify for and win the Texas Cowboys Rodeo Association barrel racing title. In just six weeks, she moved from 10th or 11th in the standing to within striking distance. Together, they won the TCRA Finals and captured the year-end title as well.

Incidentally, Hugo carried Cummings to the TCRA Rookie title a few years back.

“He’s just a lot of fun,” she said. “I can really ask this horse. He’s honest and he’s fun.”

Before the circuit finals, Smith ran at several of the larger late season rodeos in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma. A fall at Abilene took away a little of Hugo’s confidence and he quit firing. A few runs later with a little more encouragement from his rider, the gelding was back to clocking.

At the Circuit Finals, Smith and Hugo were just out of placing in the first round.

“We were 10th on the ground,” she said. “We drew better for the second round. I was third out because they flipped the order. The ground was good. It would get deep, but it would hold you.” They made the most of their better draw on the ground in the second round, turning in a winning time of 15.84. It was do or die in the third round.

“Kelly Waide was right on my (rear) in the average,” she said. “I said, ‘Okay Hugo, I’m going to ridiculously ask you this time.’ It was tight.”

A third place finish in the third round gave Smith the average win. Her total earnings on the weekend were $3,634.

Making the weekend extra special was Jesse Clark’s win the calf roping. Clark uses Smith’s husband Tommy’s horse and hauls with the couple.

“We all had a good weekend,” said Smith. “We joked that Tommy had a good weekend coaching.”

Even though Smith’s working on bring Brees back into form, Hugo’s family is graciously allowing her to continue to use the gelding.

“I’m pretty excited,” said Smith. “He doesn’t have a style to sore himself up. He doesn’t seem to mind running inside or out. You just have to push him more inside. I just wish people would quit following me around and trying to buy him! After I won the third round, someone called the owner at 12:30 at night, wanting to buy him. They’re not interested in selling.”

Congratulations to Emily Efurd

for winning 2012 WPRA Rookie of the Year and finishing #23 in the world standings.

"I'm really liking Revitalize™! I've had my young horse out on the road with me on it and it's kept her from stressing so badly and going off her feed because of it. I know it works because almost every time I hauled her before, she would go off her feed. At the end of the season it even helped Fanny (Fantasia Fame) with this too.

I use the Cetyl M® Joint Action Cream for Horses on my horses' hocks, stifles, and pasterns every time before I run. I think it really helps to loosen them up if they've been standing around and are real tight or have been in the trailer for a long time. I also have my three main horses, including Fanny, on Cetyl M® granules for Horses and I think it has significantly reduced their maintenance." -Emily Efurd*

Latte Wins AQHA/WPRA Horse of Year

By Julie Mankin

For about five years, the registered Quarter horse that's won the annual AQHA/WPRA Barrel Horse of the Year honor has been a veteran – a multi-year Wrangler NFR qualifier and usually a world champion (read: the past five winners have been Stingray and Duke, Jethro, (Rare) Fred, Martha and Stitch).

Not in 2012 – Mary Walker's horse Perculatin ("Latte") has never even been to the NFR.

When a friend called Walker with the news of Latte's selection as AQHA/WPRA Horse of the Year, the petite blonde was in an appointment and couldn't talk. So she texted like a madwoman. "Oh my gosh," she wrote. "I can't imagine. What an honor!"

The 8-year-old bay phenomenon garnered the top votes from the top barrel racers in the world because he simply wins, and wins, and wins. And he's won rodeo fans' hearts for the way he's changed Mary Walker's life in just one year.

Reeling from the death of her son in 2011, Walker was hoping barrel racing would bring her back some joy, but the opposite happened – accidentally, Latte fell with her, crushing her body and putting her in a wheelchair.

Turns out, the joy just had to be delayed a little while. Taking another shot at it in 2012, Latte has blown the doors off the other horses from Cheyenne to Ellensburg to Omaha. Despite his long legs, he skims the paint off the barrels both coming and going, and Walker rides him perfectly from start to finish.

"I thought Latte might have a chance to get some votes because he's done so good all year," she said. "But Duke has won so much all year long, and Fallon Taylor's little mare just went everywhere.

Flo's Heiress ("Baby Flo").

But that's not to take anything away from Duke, who split the title last year with Sherry Cervi's Stingray. Had Pozzi not skipped the Northwest run this season, she and Duke had a shot at eclipsing Lindsay Sears' 2008 record for most money won in a regular season. Still, 9-year-old Duke played the biggest part in Pozzi earning the third-most money in history this year – $170,967.

And Baby Flo – just 6 years old – had a remarkable run this year, landing Taylor 16th in the world after just one year of being broke under a saddle and no eligibility to enter the big winter rodeos. With the good mind of her sire, Dr. Nick Bar, and the speed of her half-Thoroughbred mother, Flowers and Money, Baby Flo turned heads this season and will be back with a vengeance in 2013. In fact, the tiny mare just turned in the fastest time to date at the All-American Finals in Waco this week.

In the meantime, Walker has been shopping for some clothes to wear to her first NFR, and walks to the barn "about 50 times a day" to tell Latte how many days remain before they head to Sin City. Deep down, he's always been Walker's own Horse of the Year.

"But for the other girls to vote for him, oh wow," she said. "I guess they thought the same way about him that I did. He's worked hard all year to get to this point; and it hasn't been just two months here or there. He started from the beginning and stayed strong at the very end. He deserves this."

Walker and Latte will run for the first time since Omaha on Thursday and Friday night this week, at the All-American Finals in Waco.

"You get a little bit afraid to make any runs before the Finals because you don't want anything to happen before you go," she said. "But he's got to make runs. That's how he gets better."

With Latte being just 8 years old, several more saddles and buckles are likely in his and Walker's future – plus who knows how many more votes as the best horse of all.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Most youngsters start out on a pony, a kids' horse or some gentle, well broke horse. They just aren't skilled enough or have enough knowledge to handle a spirited horse.

That's the way it is with spiritual matters. You have to start some place. It takes time and effort to study Scripture and know that you have a right to receive the blessings and promises of God. You have to get some good Bible instruction, learn from other dedicated Christians and pray according to James 1:5 which says god will give us wisdom if we ask Him.

Don't be bashful if you are a new Christian wanting to learn more. Don't be embarrassed to ask questions of knowledgeable believers. That's how most of us learned in the beginning. And we're still learning all the time because no one can know everything in the Bible.

Don't be like the young man who wanted to come to our Bible studies but he was too self-conscious because he felt everyone was looking at him as he couldn't find things in the Bible. I hope he realizes that no one was judging him and all would have been glad to help him or he could do like some do, write the references down and look them up later at home.

We are told not to despise small beginnings and faith is the most important thing not how many verses we can quote. Read Matthew 18 and see how Jesus tells us to humble ourselves and become like little children and we can enter the kingdom of heaven.

We can help you. Just request our free teaching CDs and look us up on our web site, too. It's never too late to start learning. You'll be glad you did!
