Buzz The Tower – Busby Quarter Horses’ Jets Top Gun and Janna Brown Win Ruby Buckle Memphis Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Jets Top Gun is no rebellious maverick although he can fly. The affable 5-year-old gelding, known as “Benny,” is more like the smooth, jazzy melody of Elton John’s hit song Bennie And The Jets, fun, easy and enjoyable.

When Benny turned in two consistent runs to win the Ruby Buckle Futurity, held November 4-7 in Memphis, Tennessee, and finish third in the Open Average for total earnings of $31,150, his trainer and rider Janna Brown of Mount Pleasant, Texas, couldn’t have been prouder.

For Ben, to win the futurity...I was happier for Ben than I was for myself,” said Brown. The duo have been second twice before at both the Ruby Buckle and Select Stallion Stakes futurities in Guthrie, Oklahoma. “He’s just a good horse. He’s a sweet horse and has a great personality. He wants to do well. He doesn’t want to do wrong. He deserved to win that futurity. He really did. He stayed so honest.”

Benny and Brown were third in the first round with a 15.036 and fourth in the second with a 15.011. Their futurity winning aggregate of 30.047 also took fourth in the Open Average.

“He made two really good runs,” said Brown, who won $24,350 in the Futurity and $6,800 in the Open with Benny. “He’s very consistent. He’s almost like cheating, to be honest, because there’s no tricks, no special instructions you have to give him. It’s literally ride him up into the turn and let him turn. He’s honest as the day is long.”

Bred and raised by Jeff and Andrea of Busby Quarter Horses in Brock, Texas, Benny is by their $3.7 million barrel horse sire Blazin Jetolena out of the Dash Ta Fame, Lady Perks mare GL Famous First Lady, a leading producer of aged event horses the past two years. He was started under saddle by Brice Manning and went to Brown early in his third year.

Brown had Benny ready to go as a 4-year-old futurity horse when she found out she was pregnant with her son Jake, who will turn 2 this coming February.

“When I found out I was pregnant, Andrea was like, ‘Well, do you just want to run him as a 5-year-old?’ I was like, ‘Yeah! I’d love to run him as a 5-year-old!’ I ended up just exhibiting him until I quit riding, and then after I had Jake, I just picked up right where I left off,” she said.

Brown says Benny just got better and better throughout his futurity year. With the Ruby Buckle Championship, his lifetime earnings are $160,000.

“He’s just been a good horse,” she said. “He’s so fun to ride. He’s like riding an old horse. “He’s a happy-go-lucky, old soul. He just wants to go and do his job. There’s no tuning or anything. He’ll get a little lazy if you let him so you have to make him move his feet. There’s really no tricks to him.”

Brown had even let one of her youth riders, who is a big fan of the gelding, take him through the pattern at home.

“She’s a sweet little girl and she’s always loved Ben. She asked me one day if she could ride him and I was like, ‘I don’t know. He’s young, but his demeanor is quiet.’ She’d ridden him a couple of times and I finally asked her if she wanted to go through the barrels. She loped him through and he was perfect.”

If Benny does have one hole, it’s his need for companionship.

Rider: Janna Brown; Owner/Breeder: Busby Quarterhorses LLC

THE RUNDOWN w/Janna Brown

Jets Top Gun, “Benny” 15.2 hands, 1,250 lbs.

BIT: Short shank Elliot twisted wire with roller mouthpiece

SADDLE: Shiloh with Lindsay Sears tree

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Cross Fits on all four

SHOEING: Regular lite steel rims

FEED: Nutrena Safe Choice Perform

HAY: Cubeit alfalfa cubes and alfalfa hay midday

SUPPLEMENTS: Salt, MVP Exceed 6-Way

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track, Magnets, BEMER blanket

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: “We usually exercise him three days a week, and I usually work him on the pattern just enough to keep him sharp.”

SPONSORS: Nutrena Feed, Zesterra, Double X Equine-Dr. Don Lee (Busby-owned horses see Dr. Marty Tanner with Tanner Equine.)

“God, he buddies up bad!” laughed Brown. “When he has a friend, he’s 100 percent all in and he doesn’t want them leaving! I told Andrea when she starts taking him to rodeos, she’s going to have to get him a pony or something to keep him company.”

The long-term plan is for Benny to enter the Busby’s rodeo string, but for now he’ll finish the year in the derbies at the BFA World Championship and OKC Futurity.

“Andrea and I talked about that the other day,” Brown explained.

LACK OF FOCUS?
HORSE HAIR ANALYSIS CAN HELP!

“She wants me to derby him some next year. Obviously, there’s more money now in the derbies. She mentioned me going to a few rodeos to see how he does. I’m not much of a rodeo girl any more. I wouldn’t mind going to a couple, here and there, but nothing serious.”

The group plan is to also get Benny qualified for the American Semifinals at Go Fast Races’ Thanksgiving Classic in San Antonio, Texas.

“He’s still eligible for the futurity down there,” she said. “I can enter the American and carryover to the futurity and the open. I’ve gotten to where the less runs I have to make, the better. Andrea feels the same way.

“I’d love to get him qualified for the Semis. He’s solid enough that I think I could count on him.”

Brown wanted to thank the Busbys for the opportunity to ride horses like Benny, saying “They always send me nice horses and they’re so easy to ride for. They’re really good customers.” She also wanted to thank her husband Jody for his support.

Most of all she wanted to thank the Ruby Buckle and stallion owners who support the program.

“If it weren’t for them we couldn’t run for money like that,” said Brown. “I can’t go anywhere else and win that kind of money in two runs. It’s nice to have that for the owners. They can actually make some money with their horses now instead of just winning some and maybe break even at the end of the year.

“For me to win that kind of money as a jockey, it’s wonderful. We don’t get rich with monthly training. Really, the only way to make some money is to win it or commissions off of selling. It’s nice to be able to win that kind of money and only have to make a couple of runs on good ground. It just makes more business sense.”

Kay Blandford & Born Ivory James Top Ruby Buckle Memphis Open for $16,000

By Tanya Randall

WPRO World Champion, multiple NFR qualifier and aged event champion Kay Blandford topped the Ruby Buckle Open Average riding Born Ivory James (“Bonbon”) for the Cisneros family of Brownsville, Texas. The victory at the event, held November 4-7 in Memphis, Tennessee, was worth $16,000.

“Amazing! Wow!” stated Blandford, who wanted to thank the Ruby Buckle crew and stallion owners as well as her sponsors for making the win possible. “That’s better than rodeo! Where else can you do that? They say it’s going to pay bigger and better and I’m looking forward to it. Pink Buckle, Ruby Buckle that’s the thing to go to.”

Blandford and Bonbon were the only pair to make it around the cloverleaf in Memphis with two 14-second runs. They were third in the first round with a 14.980 and fifth in the second with a 14.992.

“I was just wanting to get around the barrels,” said Blandford, who left Memphis with total earnings of $29,663 from three horses. “I usually spank her between the first and second barrel because I’ve been hitting the second. Up there I thought, ‘No, I’m not going to carry the whip on her because she’s ready to go.’ Sure enough... she was smooth. There were a couple of bobbles in there, but that’s okay. She ran and made up for those bobbles. She was two solid 14.9s which made it fun. She made my job easy. I trusted her training and was blessed this weekend. She was easy, solid and fun.”

The victory paid $13,600 to the Cisneros family who owns the mare under the banner of JP7C Properties, LP. The stallion owner’s share of $1,600 to C3 & W3 Farms, the owners of Bonbon’s sire Born Ta Be Famous. Victory Farms collected the breeder’s share of $800 on behalf of Bonbon’s dam, Chase This Ivory, a race-winning daughter of Ivory James.

The Cisneros family purchased Bonbon as a 2-year-old for $5,900 from Kris Suard at the 2016 LG Pro Classic Sale in Kinder, Louisiana. She was sent to Blandford as a 3-year-old to be prepped for the futurities as a 4-year-old.

The Sutherland Springs, Texas, trainer says the mare is a “perfect balance” of barrel racing and racing bloodlines.

“She was just a natural,” she said of the mare’s training. “Those Born Ta Be Famous are pretty much naturals. What helped her is she can run! She can make a mistake and still win. The Ivory James comes out then. She gets her turns from Born Ta Be Famous and her speed from the Ivory James.”

Bonbon missed her first derby year due a suspensory issue. She was back in Blandford’s barn this spring. She was doing well until Pink Buckle in early October when Blandford suspected something wasn’t quite right.

“At the Pink Buckle, I was in the 2D even though she made solid runs,” Blandford recalled. “She’s better than a 2D horse and I knew that. I had her looked at and got her fixed. She was ready for the Ruby Buckle. As long as I keep her sound, she helps mine and the Cisneros pocketbooks.”

The Ruby Buckle was also good for Blandford’s pocketbook with her homebred mare KB Epic Angel placing sixth in the Futurity. Blandford took home $10,136 as the mares owner and breeder—Epic Angel is out of Blandford’s WPRO World Champion Talents Dark Angel, by Flaming Talent. She earned $1,127 for Schiller Ranch, owners of the mare’s sire, Epic Leader.

Unfortunately, KB Epic Angel is out for the rest of the year with a suspensory injury, so Blandford will have to rely on Bonbon and her other homebred mare KB Angel Ta Fame, by Dash Ta Fame, to carry her to her next goal.

“My goal is to win The American,” she said. “That’s my dream now, either on that horse or my mare. I think they’re both powerful

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

Meka Farr & DD Dee Cee Capture Wilderness Circuit Finals Championship

By Tanya Randall

2018 Wilderness Circuit Champion Meka Farr and her great gelding DD Dee Cee (“Woody”) claimed their first Wilderness Circuit Finals Championship in Heber City, Utah, November 6-7. With circuit finals counting toward National Finals Rodeo qualification, their $4,756 victory put them 8th in the 2021 WPRA World Standings.

Farr was extremely grateful for all the rodeo committees that made all the rodeos and circuit finals possible in such a trying year. “We were so lucky and fortunate that the Wilderness Circuit was still able to have a lot of their rodeos,” said Farr, a mother of three with her husband Derek. “The committees worked really hard to get the rodeos to go forth with new mandates and regulations for COVID. We were really fortunate in our area.”

Farr also noted that they were fortunate to have their circuit finals too as Utah Governor Gary Herbert announced on Sunday of the circuit finals that the state would up restrictions on gatherings in an attempt to decrease the recent spike in COVID cases.

“We were really fortunate to even have our circuit finals. The committee did so much to make it work and meet all the regulations that are out there. We were able to have a crowd, so our families could come and support us and that was really nice.”

As the No. 1 barrel racer in the circuit Farr, who was making her fifth circuit finals appearance with Woody, was first out on the ground on opening night. The split the first round win with Caldwell, Idaho’s Jessie Telford and her homebred Famous Cool Whip, who will also be making the trip to Kissimmee, Florida, for the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo next spring.

“I was excited because anytime you get first on the ground it’s always nice,” said Farr. “The ground was really good. Woody was amazing from start to finish. He ran really well. He stayed nice and square and had really great turns. When I watched my videos, all three of my runs looked about the same.”

They placed third in the second round after running on the very bottom of the ground. The final round was a random draw and they were fourth out, which she said was a nice spot to be after running on the bottom of the ground just hours before in a matinee performance.

Woody, an 11-year-old by DD Striker out of DD Gambling Suzy, by Gambling Plan, hasn’t had to do too many double-run days with the exception of running at Evanston, Wyoming, and Blackfoot, Idaho, the same day.

“I’ve done it a couple of times, but I don’t prefer to do it. I think it’s a big mental game, not only for myself, but for my horse. When I went back out to saddle, he was kind of like, ‘What are you doing with that saddle?’ We’re going again, buddy.”

They made the most on their second run of the day, taking another third to win the average.

She added that her family, especially her kids, probably had the same opinion as Woody about the two performances on Saturday. “I’m not so sure my kids were so thrilled about that,” she laughed. “I think they’re about like Woody, happy with being done and leaving!”

As per his usual routine, Woody gets to “be done” for a small winter break.

“He’s such an amazing horse,” said Farr through appreciative tears. “He’s getting some well-deserved time off. Even though he didn’t go as much this year just because of the limited rodeos, I think in his world, he’s thinking, ‘It’s winter and where’s my time off?’”

SPONSORS: South Valley Equine Hospital

Farr, who works as a customer care representative for the airbag manufacturer Autoliv, said she is looking forward to the 2021 season. She finished No. 38 in the World in 2020 and with her current jumpstart on next year, she hopeful that she’ll be able to get into some of the bigger winter rodeos.

“With the money counting, we want to see where we can go and what we can do,” she said. “It was nice to be able to look into the future and maybe do some winter rodeos and see how we do. If we can do some good, we’ll keep going.”

Farr wanted to thank her family and friends for their help and support. She noted that her children are all involved in their own activities like basketball, dance and cheer, but they all work together to make it possible for her to rodeo.

“It’s a lot on everybody to make our schedules work,” she said. “My family supports me day-in and day-out, helping with chores and around the house so I can go ride. It’s taxing on a lot of people... and then they come and sit at rodeo! I’m thankful for them and my parents and my in-laws. They all come and they all help support. And my friends, I have an amazing group of friends that are so helpful and supportive. I couldn’t do it without them.”

Bag Policy for the NFR

In order to reduce touch points between employees and guests at the 2020 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo at Globe Life Field, Dec. 3-12, in Arlington, Texas, and in accordance with Globe Life Field protocols, no bags will be permitted except for those that are carried for medical reasons or manufactured diaper bags that accompany infants and young children. No outside food is permitted inside the ballpark. No bag storage is available at the ballpark!

WPRO Announces 2020 Justin Best Footing Award Winners

Every year since the early 1990s the Women's Professional Rodeo Association and Justin Brands have honored rodeo committees in each of the 12 circuits that have went above and beyond to ensure safe ground for the animal athletes of rodeo, specifically the barrel racing horses.

The Justin Best Footing Awards® program was created when Tom Feller, director of event marketing for Justin Brands, approached the WPRO about partnering on a program that would focus on the health and well being of the animal athlete. Not only does the program keep animal athletes performing at the top level, but it also recognizes the hard work and time rodeo committees put into making their ground as safe as possible for the barrel horse and all rodeo livestock.

This award is determined by votes by the WPRO membership and Circuit Directors and represents our members' voices saying "thank you" for a job well done. Due to the way the 2020 rodeo season played out this awards program was scaled back for this year only honoring a first place in all 12 circuits and for circuits that had five or more rodeos a second place recipient was named. Each first place award winner will receive a plaque, $800 cash award and a Justin certificate redeemable for one pair smooth ostrich boots. They will be officially recognized during the WPRO Star Celebration in Fort Worth, Texas, on Thursday, December 3. All second place award winners will receive a plaque and a $400 cash award.

This year's award winners featured some brand new rodeos and some that have been in business for decades. The Buffalo Stampede in Kadoka, S.D., held their first PRCA/WPRO rodeo in 2020 and was one of the few rodeos that were able to take place in June despite COVID-19 restrictions. In their first year, they hosted almost 400 contestants including WPRO breakout ropers. They will receive the Justin Best Footing Award for the Badlands Circuit.

On the other side of the coin, the Dodge City (KS) Roundup is the richest rodeo in the State of Kansas paying out over $400,000 in 2020. The Dodge City Roundup was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2012 and hosted a record number of contestants in 2020 during the first weekend of August with over 900 entries. They will be recognized with the Justin Best Footing Award for the Prairie Circuit.

Congratulations to the following rodeo committees being honored in 2020 and the WPRO thanks you for making your ground safe and consistent.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Keeep the faith. What does that mean to you and me? Hebrews 11:1, "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." In other words, you believe it before you can see it. That's faith.

How much faith do we need? In part, Matthew 17:20-21 tells, "if we have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain (problem/challenge), 'Move from here to there,' and it WILL move; and NOTHING will be impossible for you."

A mustard seed is pretty small. So, with God, it looks like a little faith can move mountains! Mark 11:22-23 talks about speaking to mountains... and they have to move if we don't doubt.

What mountains are we facing right now? With God, they are movable. Each and every one of the challenges we face are NOTHING to God. And with the above instructions, we have confidence in HIM. Friends, let's use the faith WE have – in the place WE are – and together we'll see the changes we desire for ourselves and our nation! So be it.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
