Amanda Butler Hammer & TS Kissem Goodbye Tame Wilderness Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Former National High School Finals Rodeo Champion and three-time circuit finals qualifier Amanda Butler Hammer and TS Kissem Goodbye ("Kissy") put nearly a half-second on the field to claim the barrel racing title at the Wilderness Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 6-7 in Heber City, Utah.

The 25-year-old Payson, Utah, barrel racer and her 9-year-old mare collected $10,769 after winning the first round with the fastest time of the event, a 14.98, topping the second and taking second in the third.

"It was a lot of fun," said Hammer, who operates a rehabilitation and conditioning center at B Spurn Ranch. "She loves that arena. She actually holds the arena record there that was previously held by TS Cinch Ta Fame.

"I wasn't sure I was going to get to run her because she had blown out an abscess two weeks prior and then another one at the beginning of the week. So, it was pretty awesome to be able to run her all three rounds."

A daughter of The Goodbye Lane, Kissy was bred by Shauna Smith of Draper, Utah. She is a half-sister to Hammer's high school rodeo champ and previous circuit finals qualifier TS Cinch Ta Fame ("Tic") and her sister Lauren Porter's TS Snapn Ta Fame, both by Dash Ta Fame. Their dam is the Sir Cashanova mare Shez Sucha Snap.

The Butler family purchased Kissy as a prospect and sent her to Jill Atkinson for training. A broken splint bone and a rider's broken foot limited Kissy's futurity season. Once home, Hammer rodeoed on her a little and considered selling her since she had purchased another horse to replace Tic.

"We actually were going to sell her," Hammer explained. "In the middle of her derby year, she kicked the fence and was out for four month. I had got another horse that I just wasn't getting along with, so we sold him and ended up keeping her. And then I was finally able to just focus on her."

The pair started coming together as a team in 2025, most notably at the Pink Buckle in October.

"I wasn't entered and it was her last year running in the Derby," Hammer recalled. "I had so many people tell me that I needed to go, so I decided to late enter. She ended up second in the average, and she's just been winning everywhere since."

This year they won four Utah pro rodeos: Spanish Fork, Mona, Nephi and Coalville, and finished second at three others: West Jordan, Fort Herriman and Richfield. They went into the circuit finals third with $32,272 and finished the year second in the standings.

Although Hammer is qualified to represent the Wilderness Circuit alongside year-end champion Carlee Otero at the NFR Open, she'll be riding something other than Kissy. The Monday following their circuit finals championship, the mare sold to Keith Nellessen's McCoole Land & Livestock and will join Lisa Lockhart's potential National Finals Rodeo string.

"It was very hard," said Hammer with tears in her voice. "but the timing is just right and it feels right. I told myself if it wasn't right then it wouldn't go through."

Kathy Grimes & KG Just Money Sweep Columbia River Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

Kathy Grimes and her homebred superstar KG Just Money set a new earnings record for the Columbia River Circuit with $64,969 and had the year-end championship secured before the Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 5-7 in Redmond, Oregon.

The veterinarian from Medical Lake, Washington, opted to use the Circuit Finals as National Finals Rodeo prep for her 6-year-old gelding. In the process, she gained valuable insight as well as the rodeo win, which contributed $10,123 to her earnings for the 2027 season.

"Someone said, 'You're running Showie at the circuit finals?' I said, 'Well, why wouldn't I? I want to win the average and I want to win money to count toward next year. And I needed a prep race for Vegas, and I think this is a pretty good opportunity for that," said Grimes, who is headed to her second NFR.

To prepare her young charge—Showie is still a first year derby horse—Grimes attended all the practice sessions and had her good friend Leah Crockett ride KG Jukebox Hero ("Tillman") alongside her in the alley, which had worked so well at the Calgary Stampede. It did not work in Redmond.

"(Showie) was so terrified," Grimes said. "It really kind of surprised me. He was spooking at little things like he always does but I didn't think I would have trouble going in the gate. I thought my friend Leah could be on Tillman (Showie's best bud) and that would keep him calm. He didn't want to leave Tillman. I was really flustered by the time I finally got him through the gate, and then he was just like loping!"

Grimes and Showie still placed second in the opening round with a 14.86.

At the next practice, Grimes spent a lot of time going round the arena and walking up the alley. She also changed tactics at the alley by leaving Tillman back at the stalls and having Crockett walk her up on foot, like they have to do in the tunnel in the Thomas & Mack.

"She just had to give him a little tug in the second round," Grimes said. "He went right in and did much better."

They were second again with a 14.69. But, by the third round, Showie understood the assignment, putting more than 3/10ths on the field with a victorious 14.29.

"The third round he was like 'I got this. I've figured it out now,'" she said.

It was just a big adjustment from running cold turkey in the outdoor arenas where Showie dominated this summer.

"This was indoors, bright lights and loud," said Grimes, who heads to the NFR No. 13 in the WPRA World Standings with $135,262. "You're all right there with the flag girls and other contestants. Most of the rodeos this summer, we didn't get into the arena and here we had all this barrel practice. I felt like I made things for him to spook at more. Mostly, it was just the alley and getting going. Once he got into the pen, he still worked pretty good."

A legacy horse for Grimes, Showie is by multiple World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday and out of her first NFR mount, KG Justiceweexpected, a daughter of Judge Cash that she bred out of Do It For Beau, the first mare she raised.

After a successful futurity season, Showie took the rodeo world by storm. He won an amazing 13 rodeos and two rodeo qualifiers, set five arena records including the WPRA Standard Pattern World Record, and clocked 16-second runs on WPRA Standards nearly ten times.

"He was my first clean 16 second run on a Standard and then he got a whole bunch of them," said Grimes. "I remember in the last few years watching these girls run 16s on a Standard at a rodeo and I've just been in awe of that. We've finally got some too!"

Flashin Bills Pays Off for Jana Bean at Turquoise Circuit Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jana Bean of Fort Hancock, Texas, and her talented 7-year-old gelding Flashin Bills ("Wick") put more than a half-second on the field to take the barrel racing championship at the Turquoise Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 5-7 at Cave Creek, Arizona.

"He was just so confident," Bean said of Wick. "He was feeling good and ready to do his job. He's just so fun to ride. He just ran in there and made the same run three nights in a row. I'm not an excuse person, but the third round, he did slip pretty good in the back end on his first barrel, but the coolest part about him is he just never quits. He just powered through and kept moving."

Bean said getting an average win was very special. She's had horses in her past, like NFR horse Dashing Klee ("Chick"), who won a lot of rounds but wasn't known for winning averages.

"The average title was very special to me," she said. "It was pretty cool to win an average and just feel like I had a horse that was going to give me the same run and be honest three nights in a row. It was a great feeling."

Bred by Megan Lewis and her parents Bill and Susie, Wick is by First Moonflash out of UX Sweet Vanila Fame, by Born Ta Be Famous. Incidentally, the Lewis family also raised Blazin Summer Shandy, who placed third at the Columbia River Circuit Finals for Anneliese McCurry.

Bean purchased Wick in May 2024 from Shirley Ankrum in Pocatello, Idaho, after Kyle Jack McIntire told her that he knew of a horse she needed to look at. Ironically, she had just purchased a horse the week before from Ankrum's daughter Buffy Walchli.

After watching the videos of Wick, Bean's husband Breck told her she needed to get on a plane and go try him.

"I was kind of shocked, because literally we weren't looking, but you know when God has a plan, it just happens," she said. "He puts things in your life where, when and where they're supposed to be, so I made all the arrangements with Shirley."

Bean said she could tell the closer it got for her to come try Wick, that Ankrum was having second thoughts. All that Bean asked was that she get the first shot at him if she did decide to sell. A couple, three weeks later, Bean sent Ankrum a text asking if she was ready to sell and she was.

"He just fit me," she said of Wick. "We just kind of had a connection."

Bean left Wick home for the summer while she rodeoed. Once she was home and started hauling him to jackpots, Bean knew she probably had a good one on her hands. She hauled him with her all last summer, and he got his first performance earlier this year.

"I brought him along really slow last year," she explained. "I had him with me all year, but he'd never really been rodeoed on. He was pretty timid. Then earlier this year, I thought, 'Well, it's time for you to figure it out.' Tucson was probably his first performance, and he was right out of making the finals there. I thought after that he was going to do it. He just stepped into the rodeo world. He won the Cinch Shootout at San Angelo in April, and he hasn't looked back."

Bean will be joined at the NFR Open by Katelyn Scott, who won the year-end title. She's hopeful that she's got the horsepower to make a run for her fourth NFR qualification.

"We rodeoed hard enough this year to put us in the Top 30 to get to go to all the winter rodeos and see where that takes us," said Bean, who finished No. 23 in the WPRA World Standings with $77,078. "I'm going to try a little bit this year. I'm excited for all the winter rodeos. It's been since 2020-2021 that I got into those. I'm really excited to take Wick and see how he does. Obviously, the end goal would be to try to make the NFR if that's in God's plan. I'm just thankful for the opportunity, especially at my age, where I'm at in life and the horses that God's blessed me with, whatever happens for me at this point is just icing on the cake!"

Then I lope three-and-a-half to the left and three-and-a-half to the right, and I walk them another five minutes. He doesn't require much extra work. Every once in a while I do all rights and all lefts (on the barrels) and let him put his feet back where they need to go, but it's pretty simple."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Remember Eeyore? The VERY pessimistic donkey on Winnie the Pooh? (If you didn't know, it was a cartoon wayyyyyy back.). Eeyore was often saying things like, "We'll nneevveerr make it" and "This will nneeverrr work". I'm sure Pooh got tired of hearing that! I honestly can't remember if he did or didn't. That was a lloonngg time ago! LOL!

Well friends, we ARE going to make it. Why? Because God said so. 2 Cor. 2:14 tells us that God ALWAYS causes us to triumph.

Mark 9:23 promises that ALL things are possible to him who believes.

Romans 8:28 says, "ALL things work together for good to those who love God".

Psalm 91 is full of promises that the Lord will help us, deliver us, protect us. Verse 10, "NO evil shall befall us". Verse 8, "we shall look and see the reward of the wicked". Verse 14-16, "He shall deliver us", and He "answers us".

Lots of all's, always', and no's in those few verses. God is still on the throne! We need only to look to Him. He is our deliverer.

Enjoy your week! Fill it with praise and remember in John 16:13, Jesus tells us that the Holy Spirit "will tell us things to come". We're fine!
