$101,500 to Lisa Lockhart & Blazin Ta Betty at The Hondo Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Fan favorite Lisa Lockhart and Blazin Ta Betty (“Sasha”) won their second straight barrel racing championship at The Hondo Rodeo, an invitational event held at Chase Field, home of major league baseball’s Arizona Diamondbacks, in Phoenix, Arizona, November 7-9.

The duo from Oelrichs, South Dakota, nearly swept the event, winning all but the first round, which went to Tayla Moeykens and KN Fames Best Yet. Lockhart and Sasha dominated the next two rounds to win the aggregate for $51,500. They also won the $50,000 Top Hand Bonus to bump their earnings to an incredible $101,500.

Lockhart and Sasha, who belongs to Keith Nellesen’s McColee Land & Livestock, split the Top Hand Bonus after winning last year’s event as well. The pair hadn’t been a team for very long at the time, since the early summer of the 2024 season.

The 7-year-old daughter of Dash Ta Fame was raised by Busby Quarter Horses out of their World Champion producer Blazin Black Beauty, a Blazin Jetolena, Lady Perks mare. Sasha, a full sister to Jordon Brigg’s 2021 WPRA World Champion and millionaire Famous Lil Jet, was trained by Kelsey Treharne and had a little rodeo experience with Kylie Wells before Lockhart got her last May.

“She’s such a gritty little thing,” said Lockhart. “She tries so hard, almost to a fault at times. She’s just so aggressive all the time.

“We’re still a work in progress, but it’s always that way with everybody. We’re always working on our consistency.”

This year Sasha did her best to split the yearly winnings with Rosas Cantina CC, Lockhart’s longtime partner that belongs to Alan Woodbury.

Lockhart, who is headed to her 19th straight National Finals Rodeo this December in sixth in the WPRA World Standings with $169,467, said she’ll have her entire crew in Las Vegas—Rosa, Sasha and her Pendleton Champ Prime Diamond (“Cutter”). Although everything is still subject to change, she said it’s likely she’ll start the Super Bowl of Rodeo on Sasha.

The three-time NFR Champion is the richest WPRA barrel racer with $3.8 million in earnings—a total that doesn’t include her non-sanctioned rodeo money from The American or Hondo—and is $130,000 away from the $4 million mark.

With her storied career that has come courtesy of success over millions of miles of rodeos and 100s of rodeos, invitations to events like The Hondo are “perks,” Lockhart said.

“You don’t think about it all when you’re out there grinding, but there are perks,” she said. “If you have success, these things are bonuses.”

She said The Hondo has different vibe from other events. “I’m pretty excited about it and what they’ve got going on,” Lockhart said. “They’re just trying to elevate rodeo in general.

“It was a great event last year, but they worked their tails off and marketed, and the community responded. It’s hard to get anything off the ground and they have. It is so good. People came from all over. There were Canadians that came down to see Nickelback.

“With the shopping and the concerts, they had something for everyone. It was such a well-rounded event...and the concerts were amazing! They started off with Nickelback and Kid Rock filled in

It's bringing new fans to the sport, she added. "I remember meeting someone at the Nickelback concert," Lockhart said. "She said she'd never been to a rodeo but was a PBR fan. She said this was so cool that she was going to the NFR for all 10 nights. We just gained a new fan. That kind of thing is pretty invigorating."

Lockhart said she was really taken with the production's motto of 'Faith, Family and Freedom.'

"Before our press conference, we prayed," she said. "It's about family. Those behind The Hondo Rodeo—it's a family business."

We're a family in this industry. The other night when they were waiting for one of the singers to come on, the stadium was singing the Lee Greenwood song, 'God Bless The USA.'

"The energy behind it all was new, refreshing and invigorating, and I loved it."

Lockhart doesn't plan on missing The Hondo Rodeo Fest in New Orleans, Louisiana, April 10-12, 2026.

"You never know when these opportunities will end," she said. "Life is short. I like to take every opportunity that I can."

Houston Homecoming -- Gracen Harman & This Guy Will MoonYa Win WPRA World Finals

By Tanya Randall

Gracen Harman of Hempstead, Texas, and 7-year-old This Guy Will MoonYa (“King”) earned the right to compete at Rodeo Houston in 2026 by winning the $15,000-added Boot Barn Card Holder’s Race at the WPRA World Finals, held November 5-9 at the Extraco Event Center in Waco, Texas.

“We’ve been going to Houston since I was little,” said Harman, who lives just to the northwest of the Bayou City, home to the richest winter rodeo. “Everyone is excited about the Houston qualifier. I’ve been so close so many times. I finally did it! I’m so happy about it!”

Harman pocketed $8,756 for the win and the money counts toward the 2026 WPRA World Standings. She’s currently second with $5,024 without the $6,991 she won in early October at the Texas Circuit Finals in Waco as well. (Circuit Finals money will be added to the standing once all have been contested.)

“He loves Waco,” said Harman, 20. “He definitely showed out every run.”

At the WPRA Finals, they were 15.409 to win the first round and 15.519 to take second in the next to have a nearly 4/10th lead on two runs.

“The first day he smoked a run,” said Harman. “The second day was a picture perfect, pretty run.”

A hiccup at the second barrel, trying to stay clean in the short go, cost them a bit of time, but their 15.847 was still good enough to give them the aggregate title by more than 2/10ths of a second.

“We had some things happen,” she admitted. “We were getting a little close coming into the second barrel, so I tried to not hit it and dropped my reins in the process.”

Overall, her three runs in Waco grossed $17,620. They won $4,496 in the three Elite Open Races, $448 in the Adult sidepot and $3,920 for winning the Xtreme Mini Million.

Harman has owned King for about a year and a half. She purchased him from National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sissy Winn, who had purchased him from his breeders Brad and Jackie Tidwell of Bear Creek Quarter Horses in Bienville, Louisiana.

The Tidwells raised King, by 1.15 million dollar sire Guys Canyon Moon out of the Designer Red mare VF Red Lights. King was started under the direction of Kerby and Jolene Montgomery as a 2-year-old. He went to James Barnes in the fall of his third year and ran out more than $130,000 as a 5-year-old futurity horse.

“We are good friends with James,” she said. “He trained another horse of mine (Money On The Six), and he came and stayed with us when he was riding King before he sold to Sissy. He had kind of joked that we should buy him and we kind of brushed it off. The next week he went and won the Fizz Bomb Futurity. We were like, ‘Oh Dang! We should have taken him up on that deal!’ Sissy was already looking at him, and she ended up buying him.”

Winn and King turned out not to be a great fit, so Harman, who had purchased Chewingonthehotwire (“Chewy”) from Winn, inquired about King.

Although Harman and King were a fit, they had challenges at their left first barrel. For much of his early career with Harman, the pair merely cruised to the first barrel before turning on the jets. This fall, however, the pair seemingly cracked the code at barrel No. 1.

“That was a battle,” she said. “It’s been really tricky to figure out, even this summer. We kind of cruise into the first and sit down at the right time, and it’s tuning before going to the rodeo. Lately, it seems like we’ve got it down. It’s taken a lot to get to that point. I’m starting to trust him now, going to the first.”

With King as her main mount, Harman finished 51st in the WPRA World Standings for the 2025 season with $35,675.

THE RUNDOWN w/Gracen Harman

This Guy Will MoonYa (“King”) 16. h., 1300 lbs.

BIT: Boutin Bit Custom shanked reverse gag with a two-piece twisted mouth

SADDLE: Double J Pursuit — SADDLE PAD: 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine all four, No Turn bell boots

SHOEING: Aluminum wedges on front, steel behind; shod on a short schedule (5 weeks or less) by Bob Hodges

FEED: Producer’s Co-Op 14/8 — HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Succeed and OE Align “I try to keep supplements to a minimum,” Harman said.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: BEMER, EquiScope by McCaitlin McKee, cold water spa by Andrea Enzenauer.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: “He’s really easy. He’s on the walker every day for about an hour. I only ride him two or three times a week. I do one day of regular conditioning—trotting, loping. Sometimes I’ll do drills on the barrels and just work on his feet (placement) and then other days its things to build his topline. I just try to keep work on the barrels to a minimum to keep it fun for him.”

SPONSORS: Texas Metal Equipment

THANKS: Parents Andrew and Salena Harman, James Barnes—“He helps tremendously with advice and keeping him tuned up before a run.”

The only thing Harman has left on her schedule for the year is the 2026 San Antonio Rodeo Qualifier in Uvalde, Texas, in two weeks. Last year they swept the event to earn the right to compete in the Alamo City’s pro rodeo.

Harman is hopeful a strong winter run will set her up for a NFR qualification.

“I’ve got a pretty good start now,” she said. “Hopefully, I can stay near the top and get invited to some of the winter rodeos. Last year, we got invited to Austin and Denver off of early year standings. We just got into Houston (thanks to the WPRA World Finals),

so that will be a big help.”

Harman will be joined at Rodeo Houston by Steely Steiner

Caitlyn White & Mr Soul Win Average by Six-Tenths at their First Wilderness Circuit Finals

By Julie Mankin

It was her first time qualifying for the Boot Barn Wilderness Circuit Finals Rodeo, but Caitlyn White of Spanish Fork, Utah, made it count on Nov. 7-8 at the Wasatch Event Center in Heber City, Utah. On John Nielsen's 10-year-old stallion off the track – Mr Soul — the 31-year-old cowgirl banked $8,084 for winning the average as the only barrel racer to place in all three rounds.

“As long as I do my job on him, he’ll take care of both of us,” said White of the stud co-owned by and standing at South Valley Equine. “He’s super honest and consistent. As long as I’m on my game, he just goes in and does everything he needs to do.”

She’d gone into the Finals ranked fifth after Mr Soul won Utah’s Own in Salt Lake City and the Gem State in Blackfoot, Idaho, plus placed at several more rodeos. In Heber City, White’s 15.63 was third in the first round for $1,244, while Anita Ellis hit a barrel to win the round by two-tenths. There were only three clean runs in that first round. Then, White clocked an identical 15.63 for another third-place check worth $1,244 in the second round. Ellis went ahead and won Round Three to beat the field by .25 seconds, but White landed second with a 15.52 worth $1,865.

“I honestly didn’t have any expectations,” said White, now in her fourth year running the light-mouthed, ratey stud. “I just went in and wanted to have three good runs. This is my second year having a WPRA card, and I was just out of making it there last year.”

White’s 46.78-second time on three runs claimed her the average title, trip to Colorado Springs’ NFR Open and $3,731 by six-tenths of a second. Meanwhile, Carlee Otero took an insurmountable lead of $15,727 into the Circuit Finals and won the second round to claim year-end accolades in the Wilderness Circuit.

White mentioned that Mr Soul won money in every round despite tripping going into the first barrel in the first round, and getting stuck in the ground at third during the second round.

“He’s always made good runs at Heber City at bigger races, but he does good in any arena,” she said. “I just guide him where he needs to be and let him do his job. He did amazing.”

Mr Soul came straight off the racetrack, where he was the 2018 UQHRA champion as a 3-year-old. White’s friend Taylor Kramer trained him and campaigned him at the 2020 barrel futurities before she moved to Texas (she flew back to cheer for White at the Circuit Finals).

“After Taylor moved, I reached out to her to see if she knew anybody looking for a jockey, and she mentioned John,” recalled White. “So, I called him about Mr Soul and he said, ‘Sure, come pick him up and see if it works out.’ Now, here we are.”

Mr Soul, who has his own Facebook and Instagram pages, is by Fury Of The Wind and out of McKaizlees Kiss by Dash Ta Fame. FuryOfTheWind is by Corona Cartel out of a Dash For Cash/Lady Bug’s Moon/Johnny Dial mare. Meanwhile, McKaizlee’s Kiss is out of an Easy Jet granddaughter.

“He went to the breeding barn all spring, into the summer,” said White. “I swear, he runs better when he’s been collected! At the Ruby Buckle out here in Utah, he was collected that same morning and went in there and ran the fastest time of the entire weekend.” Mr Soul, described by White as “a huge teddy bear,” also clocked a 16.8 on the standard pattern at Gooding, Idaho, this summer. He gets turned out each winter, and she’ll get back on him next spring. In the meantime, White said she’ll get her own horses going. Those include a mare that raised a foal this year, which she hopes can be a backup horse next summer for Mr Soul.

White, who’s been married to farrier Clint White for seven years, said her older siblings dabbled in 4H and after she rode her brother’s horse, she fell in love with horses.

Last season, she also had success on a colt from Mr Soul’s first

THANKS: To my husband for supporting me all summer and John Nielsen and South Valley Equine; also C.V. Equine Therapy for helping him feel super good, and Taylor Kramer for all of her support.

crop. Five-year-old Soul Fury, out of a Lane’s Leinster daughter, was started when White got the call last year to finish him, as well.

“He’s extremely ratey like his dad and can just fly,” said White. On Soul Fury, White won the Glen Wood Memorial Futurity in June and racked up more than $54,000, including a huge check at the Ruby Buckle West. Soul Fury will be hauled to high school rodeos with Hallie Brindley in the coming season.

$2.4 Million Barrel Racing Sire, Shawne Bug Leo, Passes at 27

The striking, big strong sorrel standout barrel horse producer Shawne Bug Leo, 27, passed away the first week of November, according to 70 Ranch Performance Horses.

The special sorrel stud first gained fame as a producer via the Latricia Duke trained 2005 son Heza Bug Leo. That horse went on to help both Angie Meadors and Jana Bean qualify for NFRs from 2011 through 2014. Remarkably, towards the end of his career, Heza Bug Leo then carried Josie Goodrich to the 2020 Columbia River Circuit championship, having amassed lifetime earnings of more than $250,053.

Shawne Bug Leo was the son of racing and barrel racing sire Shawne Bug (by Lady Bug's Moon) and Countess Edith — a ¾ thoroughbred mare by a Nasrullah grandson whose dam went back to Leo. He was born in Oklahoma for breeder Johnny Barney. He registered fewer than 700 (665) foals but sired progeny that have earned over $2.4 million to date in barrel racing alone.

Some of the other notable winners that put him on the map were multiple Futurity & Derby Champion NB Ladybird. By Shawne Bug Leo and out of the great TR Dashing Badger, NB Ladybird won across the country with Kenna Squires and served as a back-up horse for Dona Kay Rule at the NFR on her way to lifetime earnings of $171,314. His third high money winner was another multiple Futurity & Derby money winning horse Shawnee Ta Fame who amassed earnings of $156,505. As of his passing he had produced 6 winners of over $100k.

In the past month, two of his other offspring have shined. Julia Johnson won the Columbia River Circuit Finals reserve championship on her 2015 gelding Cajun Chrome (LTE $132,302) and Shali Lord won the Mountain States Circuit Finals reserve championship with the help of Nickelbar Ranch's 2016 stallion Al Cappone (LTE $76,189). Anyone who met Shawne Bug Leo could tell his personality and presence made him special and that will be carried on through his offspring for years to come!

Here is the message from the Shawne Bug Leo Facebook page:

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Shawne Bug Leo, a legendary stallion whose influence on the barrel racing and performance horse world will endure for generations. Shawne Bug Leo left this world last week, leaving behind a remarkable legacy as both an athlete and a sire.

A son of Shawne Bug, he carried forward the bloodlines of greatness, and his own offspring proved his worth beyond measure. With only 664 foals registered, Shawne Bug Leo sired champions across the country, including a two-time NFR qualifier and numerous winners in rodeo and futurity arenas. His progeny have earned over $2.46 million and counting, a testament to the heart, speed, and athleticism he consistently passed on.

More than his statistics, Shawne Bug Leo was known for his strength, his good mind, and his unmistakably kind eyes that reflected both his soul and his wisdom. He was the kind of horse whose presence filled every space — quiet yet commanding, powerful yet gentle.

While Leo may have moved on to pastures in the sky, his story is far from over. 70 Ranch Performance Horses will continue to offer frozen semen on this legend, ensuring his bloodlines and spirit live on for generations to come.

Shawne Bug Leo's spirit lives on through his sons and daughters, his grand-get, and the countless people whose lives he touched. His legacy will continue to run strong in arenas and pastures across the nation.

Run free, Leo — your name, your kindness, and your influence will never be forgotten.

The Barrel Racing Report sends our thoughts and prayers to the 70 Ranch and all the connections of Shawne Bug Leo. He was a special horse that impacted so many!*

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A few years back, Mike and I decided we were done riding colts. And that translated into the conclusion that I was probably done with futurities, since we liked riding what we trained. And that translated into me being a bit bored. The horses we have are great! But there isn't that same feeling of accomplishment as when you make progress on a young one.

In an effort to help me overcome these silly feelings, Mike suggested we take these four horses to a higher level of training than anything we've ever done. Now, for all you wonderful horsemen and horsewomen out there, DON'T LAUGH! BUT. He had the courage to suggest that I learn how to do a flying lead change when I asked...I have been riding since I was 5, just a few short years ago, and I can tell you that, to the best of my knowledge, I have never gotten a flying lead change when I asked. (I know that for most of you, a flying lead change is horsemanship 101.) Why? It wasn't comfortable.

Then Mike preached on Sunday, that if, as Christians, comfort is our goal, we will never stretch. We want to go from babes in Christ to being fierce warriors in the army of God. And it shouldn't take forever.

The phrase, "if comfort is my goal, I'll never stretch" keeps running in my head. So, I don't want to stay a baby in the Lord, nor should I back off from other challenges in my life.

Let's all do something that challenges us this week. But especially that we grow in Him!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
