Jr Barrels Golden Globe for Taci Bettis and KN Ima Fabulous Chik at AQHA World Show

By Tanya Randall

KN Ima Fabulous Chick ("Lola"), owned by Sidney Walkoviak of Anderson, Texas, and ridden by Taci Bettis of Round Top, Texas, topped the Junior Barrel Racing at the Lucas Oil AQHA World Show, held November 7-23 in Oklahoma City.

"I was really proud of that mare," said Bettis, noting that she was one of only two 4-year-olds in the junior class. "She really held her own."

Bettis, a two-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier and the 2017 WPRA Rookie of the Year, guided Lola to the fastest barrel racing time of the World Show, a 15.787, to qualify for the Junior Barrel Racing Finals. According to the World Show program, Bettis and Lola's time is a new arena record for junior barrel racing. The previous record was set in 2008 by Kelly Yates on Jud Little's Flyin Hi Firewater at 15.997.

They came back to clock a victorious 15.878 in the clean-slate Finals.

"I thought they were fabulous," said Bettis of Lola's World Show runs. "I couldn't ask her to work any better than she did, really. I knew that mare was talented. I just needed to be confident on her and do my job. She's just wicked fast, so I knew I really just needed to be smooth. There wasn't any over-riding her or anything like that. It was just staying quiet with my body and just riding her. That's exactly what I did."

Virginia Foran & Little Dream Weaver Capture AQHA Sr Barrel Racing World Championship

By Tanya Randall

Seventeen-year-old Canadian barrel racer Virginia Foran and her 8-year-old gelding Little Dream Weaver ("Paleface") took home the golden globe for the Senior Barrel Racing World Championship at the Lucas Oil AQHA World Show, held November 7-23 in Oklahoma City.

Foran and Paleface, who qualified for the World Show through the Fort Worth and Houston Stock Shows, were the fourth fastest qualifiers out of the 26 entries in the preliminaries. Their qualifying time of 16.306 was also good enough to win them the Level 2 Senior Barrel Racing Championship as well.

In the Finals for the Level 3, they bettered their time to a 16.043.

"I really haven't been doing this very long," said Foran. "This only my fourth year barrel racing. I've only been riding horses for seven years."

Although she comes from a non-horse household, her parents Shawn and Jenny indulged her passion and were able to pair her with a great horse with a winning legacy.

From Grant Little's famed program, Paleface is by As Good As Nick Gets out of Fols Dream Of Cash, by Takin On The Cash. A talented producer in her own right, Fols Dream Of Cash is a half-sister to the great Canadian Champion and producer Lady Perks. Both mares are out of the Fol's Native (TB) daughter Fols Debbie.

Triangle Horse Sales Moves Sale Location to Oklahoma City's State Fair Park

Triangle Horse Sales recently announced the relocation of the company's longtime sale site in Shawnee, Oklahoma, to Oklahoma State Fair Park in Oklahoma City. The OKC location will serve as the new home for Triangle's annual sales and will debut as host site with Triangle's popular "January Sale" scheduled for Jan. 24-25, 2020.

Jim Ware, owner of Triangle Sales, says the decision to relocate was made with hopes of providing customers more options in accommodations and attractions that are available within the Oklahoma City area, as well as provide more up to date sale and stall facilities.

"Triangle Sales has been in existence for 40 years and most of those sales have been in Shawnee," Ware says. "We recognize the tradition there, but we feel like we need to make this move. We have a high standard for our customers, and this location will offer so much more to both buyers and sellers."

The centrally located Oklahoma State Fair Park is among the nation's finest equestrian event locations and is host to the back-to-back American Quarter Horse Association's Lucas Oil AQHA World Championships, as well as the National Reining Horse Association's Futurity, along with numerous other shows throughout the year.

The facility is long established as a destination for equine events and underwent a $75-million renovation completed in 2012 to add taller ceilings, asphalt flooring and more than 3,000 stalls within climate-controlled facilities.

The relocation will be a full circle return for Triangle Sales Company, which originally held sales in Oklahoma City. The company was founded in 1979 by the late John Bowling and his wife Cindy, who first conducted Quarter Horse and Paint Horse consignment sales in Missouri, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Oklahoma. They eventually moved the sales exclusively to Oklahoma at State Fair Park, and then settled the sale site in Shawnee's Heart of Oklahoma Expo Center in 1983.

"The Bowlings ultimately made Shawnee their home because the facilities were there," says Ware, who purchased the company from Cindy in 2014. "The Expo Center has been good, but we're looking forward to the amenities State Fair Park can provide in terms of convenience, safety for our customers and horses, and accommodations in Oklahoma City."

"They're glad to see us come and we are equally glad to be there."

The Triangle auction site will be located in Barn 3 in State Fair Park. The space will allow for live cutting cattle and Triangle's famous track cow during the sales, as well as convenient pre-sale barrel and roping demonstrations.

The 2020 sale line-up will kick off Jan. 24-25 at the new location with the Winter Sale, also dubbed "The January Sale," followed by the Spring Sale, April 24-25 and the Fall Sale Oct. 23-24.

For more information, go to trihorse.com.

Strong Fall Sale Average Led by Cutting/Cow Horses and Geldings Under Saddle

The recent 40th Annual Triangle Fall Sale, held Oct. 25-26, concluded with a successful $6,200-per head average on 547 catalogued horses. This was up from last year's $5,900 average and was led by cutting and cow horse-bred consignments, which dominated the sale scene with a $13,000 per-head average for money earners and $9,000 average overall, reaching a 90-percent sales completion.

Strong sales across all disciplines helped fuel a Top 50 average of $14,440 and prompted the inclusion of 49 horses into Triangle's Top $10,000 Club, designated for horses selling at more than $10,000. At the conclusion of the Fall Sale, a total of 202 horses joined the Top $10,000 Club for 2019.

These averages were reached despite cold, heavy rains covering much of the sale site and surrounding region during sale dates. Jim Ware, owner of Triangle Sales attributes the resilient averages to steady overall sales, led by an especially solid group of cutting and cow horse-bred performance horses and geldings under saddle.

"We didn't necessarily have stand-alone high sellers driving the strong average for this sale," Ware says. "We had a very consistent sale overall. Sales on the cutters and cow horses were great and stood out the most. When you reach a 90-percent sales completion in any one group, that's a big deal."

The 2013 sorrel mare, Catillac Smooth (Smooth As A Cat x CDs Masterpiece by CD Olena) was high seller and led the cutters and cow horse group, bringing $25,500. The mare sold as Hip No. 153 and was consigned by Barney Mac Smith, Weatherford, Texas, and sold to Jamie Mitchell of Seymour, Missouri. This was followed within $500 by Hip No. 141, the 2012 sorrel gelding, Cuttin Money (High Brow Cat x Money Talks Smart by Smart Mate) consigned by John Kelley, Powell, Ohio, going to Richard Mairs, Wooster, Ohio, for $25,000.

Overall, 71 geldings under saddle, aged 3 years old and older, went for an impressive average of $9,600. Reining-bred horses averaged $8,000 for money earners, while the total average for the discipline was $6,600. The Shawnee Session included ranch-broke horses, riders and roping horses, which sold for an average of $6,500 for trained horses under saddle and an overall average of $4,300.

The high selling reining-bred horse was Hip No. 532, Hickory Spooks Gun (Spooks Gotta Gun x DG Hickorys Sparkle by Indian Sparkle). The 2018 bay colt sold for $10,000, consigned by Eldridge Management Corp., Gregory, Arkansas, and purchased by Cooper Smith, Whitesboro, Texas. Hip No. 544, the 2014 palomino gelding, Aristos Gold Buddy (Smart Aristocrat x Poco Buddy Lynn) sold for $17,500 to lead the Shawnee Session. Aristos Gold Buddy was sold by Preston and Rebekah Hartfield, Holdenville, Oklahoma, to Kent Thiessen, Elk City, Oklahoma.

Ware says sale-ready horses always stand out among less fit, untrained horses and it is reflected in sales. Buyers came from 27 states across the country and were looking to purchase the best in quality performance horses.

"There were a lot of first-time sellers at this sale, which is great," Ware says. "Some had outstanding horses, and others had horses that were not as in demand or as fit and ready to sell."

"Overall, it was a really good group of horses," he continued. "And consignors were getting what they wanted for them. When the strength of the overall sale is considered, if your horses didn't sell really well—and some didn't—that should be something to consider in terms of how to make changes in your program."

The Fall Sale also marked the fourth year for the Triangle Barrel Horse Classic, a sale section implemented in 2016 to market finished barrel horses and prospects. The sale also provides added incentive for barrel-bred yearlings participating in the affiliated John Read Foster Challenge. The Barrel Classic consignments held steady at $5,000, while horses qualifying for the incentive averaged $3,000.

Deedashing SI 92 (First Down Dash x Deeatchick by Chicks Beduino), led barrel sales with a purchase price of $24,000. The 2006 sorrel mare was sold with an embryo by Frenchmans Guy (Sun Frost x Frenchmans Lady by Laughing Boy), purchased by Bill Shipley, Madera, California, and consigned by Atwood Quarter Horses Inc., Kenwood, California. A second embryo by Frenchmans Guy x Deedashing SI 92, was sold to Alexia Willis, Maysville, Oklahoma, for $10,200.

Atwood Quarter Horses Inc. also sold a second mare, Shegetscash (Peptoboons-mal x Corona Cash by Firstdown Dash) for $22,700. Mikey Matts, Whitesboro, Texas, purchased the 2007 red roan mare, which sold as Hip No. 233 with embryo by Dash Ta Fame (First Down Dash x Sudden Fame by Tinys Gay).

Triangle Horse Sales recently announced its new location for the 2020 sale line-up at Oklahoma State Fair Park in Oklahoma City. The location will serve as the new home to Triangle Sales, which has been in business since 1979. The Winter Sale is scheduled for Jan. 24-25 and nominations are due Dec. 6, 2019; the Spring Sale will be April 24-25 and the Fall Sale is slated for Oct. 23-24.

Bred by Kenny Nichols, Lola is by leading barrel horse sire Frenchmans Fabulous out of Some Dash Of Class, a Dash Ta Fame, Coup De Kas (TB) mare. She started her career under the saddle of Crystal Sebesta, Walkoviak's niece.

With Sebesta, Lola placed in the BFA Juvenile Futurity, Ultimate Classic Slot Futurity and Diamonds & Dirt Futurity. They qualified for the AQHA World at the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo, where they turned in the fastest time of the AQHA show.

Bettis started riding the mare in mid-to-late August after Walkoviak had to talk her into it.

"He stopped me one day and we got to talking," she explained. "He asked me about (taking the mare) and I said I really don't have time. I don't really know what the plan is. I'm not really taking in outside horses because I have so many of my own. It was just kind of thing that God kept telling me to give it a try. I was a little bit hesitant but I thought 'You never know unless you try.' That mare has held her own, that's for sure."

Next up for Bettis and Lola is the BFA World Championships in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and then the OKC Futurity back in Oklahoma City.

"This isn't my normal thing, but sometimes God says try other things, so I'm giving it a whirl," chuckled Bettis, who now has AQHA Amateur, Junior and Senior titles all on her resume. She won her Senior and Amateur titles with her two-time NFR qualifier Bogie Is A Smash, who has been enjoying a year off while Bettis and her husband Jeremy build their new home.

"We're actually going to be in it in a couple of weeks," she said. "We've worked out tails off. We built all the fence ourselves. My summer was spent building fence. I thought I worked hard for a Bettis plans to be back on the rodeo trail in January with Smash.

"I think he needed a year off and I needed a year off too," she said. "There was actually no better time. I didn't want to miss out on anything building that house. This is once in a lifetime thing. We built on family land. It was family time this year and I took it. There's actually no better year than this year."

Paleface is a full brother to 2014 Canadian Champion Futurity Horse Dreamy Little Nick.

Foran got Paleface during his derby year, right after his trainer, Canadian Champion Rayel Little turned in the fastest time of the ABRA Finals and set an arena record at the Ponoka, Alberta's Ag Events Center, which is the Canadian equivalent of holding the record in the Jim Norick Arena in Oklahoma City.

"She wouldn't sell that horse to just anyone," she said. "When I got on him, we automatically clicked. I just loved him. He was special to her and she didn't want just anyone to have him. She didn't tell me until a year later that he was special."

Foran, who is living in La Vernia, Texas, and finishing up her last year of high school via online classes, first came to Texas last year to ride with Tammy Fischer. She credits both Fischer and Little for teaching her everything that she knows.

Heated Battles at Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

The championship titles in the Southeastern Circuit came down to the last day of the circuit finals rodeo, held in Davie, Florida, November 7-9.

Going into the third and final round of the rodeo, Julie Thomas of Ranger, Georgia, had a 1/10th lead in the aggregate over fellow Georgian Kelley Carrington-French.

The year-end championship was on the line as well. Two-time Southeastern Circuit Champ Sabra O'Quinn led the standings going into the circuit finals, but Carly Taylor, the hard-charging rookie upstart had a chance to add a circuit championship to her WPRA Rookie Of The Year title.

Ultimately, it was Thomas and Taylor who would come out on top and will represent their circuit at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Florida, next spring.

Thomas and her 14-year-old gelding The Cool Zippy Zevi ("Amos") kicked off their circuit finals with a win the first round and followed it up with a second-place finish in the next behind Carrington-French and her 7-year-old mare Slice Of PeachFame, a three-quarter sister to last week's Canadian Champion mount Fames To Blame.

When Thomas and Carrington-French split third and fourth in the third round, Thomas' scant lead held, giving her the circuit finals championship and $9,130.

Thomas says she couldn't have asked for a better circuit finals performance.

"It's a great finals," she said, lauding the committee for their hard work. "For me, it was outstanding."

She credits Amos' like for the Davie arena for making the victory possible.

"Not all horses do, but he does," she said. "He didn't make the prettiest runs every time. He'd get by his barrels a little bit, but he just ran really hard. He's very honest. He's not going to hit one. He might go out of his way to move to not hit one. He just gave me three honest runs."

This will Thomas' first trip to the RAM National Circuit Finals, but it won't be for Amos. He ran there a few years back with NFR qualifier Trula Churchill.

Bred by Linda Gail Stewart, Amos is by the Dash Ta Fame son Zippy Zevi Dasher and out of Stewart's 1992 AQHA Senior Barrel Racing World Champion The Cool Shadow, by Cool

Dott. Thomas and her dad purchased the gelding six years ago in a partnership.

"My dad and I bought this horse thinking that we were going to flip him," said Thomas, who wanted to thank her parents Handley and Temple Ann Driver. "We were 50-50 partners. About a year after I had him, he said, 'He's all yours. You can have him.' I keep thinking I'll find another one but he just seems to suit me."

Thomas spent her first year getting to know the gelding at jackpots.

"We spent a year just going to barrel races, learning to trust me and getting him to stay calm," she said. "I've been rodeoing on him off and one for the past five years."

In addition to WPRA-approved rodeos, Thomas also competes in numerous open association rodeos near her Georgia home.

"He just seems to get stronger every year," she said. "I don't know if he's getting more confident or what. He always tries super hard. I never have to worry about him being lazy or not giving 100 percent."

Thomas and Amos have qualified for three Southeastern Circuit Finals—2015, 2016 and 2019. In 2017 and 2018, they finished 13th, one spot shy of qualifying.

"My oldest son was a junior and senior in high school and we spent a lot of time going with him," she said. "I didn't go as much and maybe didn't ride as well as I needed to. This year, I wanted to make sure I could make them again. We have a great circuit finals. We have a great committee. It's so worth your time to get there."

While Thomas would like to go more, her job as an elementary literacy coach keeps her focused on her circuit.

"I'm about six years from retiring," noted Thomas, who has two boys, Tate and Logan, with her husband Matt. "I don't want to mess that up. I'm going to go as much as I can. Of course, I'll go to the circuit rodeos. My son goes to school in Weatherford, Texas, and I might try to go out there some this summer. My youngest son is still at home so we'll have to see what his plans are. If (the circuit finals) counted toward the world standings, I probably would have thought more about it."

Newly crowned Southeastern Circuit Champion Carly Taylor, on the other hand, is looking forward to going hard next season, with the added bonus of having qualified for the lucrative winter rodeos. The highest-ranked rookie in the association finished 2019 ranked 18th in the WPRA World Standings with $72,300.

"I'm excited going into next year and actually being aware of where I'm going, getting to go to the places I enjoyed and knowing where I won't go back to," said Taylor, who lives in Andersonville, Tennessee.

Although she was out West most of the year, Taylor was able to get make her circuit count due to the numerous early winter rodeos in Florida.

"I actually got pretty lucky that I went to enough before I went

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIME: "I usually ride him four days a week, just exercising: long trotting and loping for about 20 minutes. I don't really work him. Unless there is something that I really need to work on. I might work him once a month at the most. Usually it's every other month. I mostly just ride him and keep him in shape. He's pretty easy."

out for the summer. Then I came back to Texarkana, which put me at 16 rodeos. It wasn't terrible. Last year I went down there (to Florida) in February and March."

Taylor went into the circuit finals $2,622 behind O'Quinn in the Southeastern Circuit Standings.

"It was close," said Taylor. "I had to place in every round and the average."

She and her talented 8-year-old mare Diva stayed extremely consistent, turning in runs of 15.06, 15.06 and 15.05. They split third in the first round and won third in the next two to placed third in the average.

Taylor hadn't really been keeping up with the yearend race until right before the third round.

"I hadn't kept with it for the first two rounds," she said. "Then right before the third someone had posted in picture in our group text that had the standings going in and the average. I thought I was $2,500 behind her. I thought it was doable but it was going to be tough. Honestly, I never thought I could win the year-end until after I ran."

Taylor's pro rodeo championship have all come on the back of Diva, a daughter of WPRA World Champion sire PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Lauren Magdeburg's Bully Bullion mare KC Bully. She purchased Diva in the summer of the mare's fourth year from her trainer Liz Michael of Paris, Ohio.

The duo got their first championship almost exactly a year later with the 2016 NBHA Teen 1D World title. Her next goal following that win was WPRA Rookie.

"It took me a couple of more years than I planned, because I wanted to go when I turned 18, but I'm glad I waited a couple of years," she said.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We just celebrated Veterans Day! We are so thankful for the men and women who served/are serving our country. Their job is to protect us from foreign invasion.

Coming from a military family, I'm so thankful that they have chosen to do just that.

Well wouldn't you know that God has a force working for Him and their job is to serve and protect His children. ANGELS! They are God's 'Special Forces'. Please read Psl. 91. In verses 11 and 12, He tells us what those angels do on our behalf.

It's wonderful! Remember though, angels listen to the Word of God and obey THAT AND THAT ONLY. We cannot command them to go mow our lawn (or shovel our snow). They move when we speak the Word of God. They are not fat, cute, naked babies sitting on clouds with bows and arrows! They are mighty warriors in God's service!

I'm thankful for our natural service men and women and I'm thankful for our supernatural angels! We can rest well!!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
