Americans Sweep Canadian Finals Rodeo

By Julie Mankin

Several Canadian Hall-of-Fame barrel racers have multiple national championships to their credit, but for the first time, a south-of-the-border cowgirl is starting her own northern dynasty.

Lisa Lockhart of Oelrichs, S.D., claimed her third Canadian championship in seven years on her 47th birthday – and on her third different horse – last weekend at the Canadian Finals Rodeo in Edmonton, Alberta. She edged Texan Carlee Pierce by just less than $3,000 for the title, and Nebraskan Trula Churchill by nearly $6,000.

“It’s a great rodeo, and I always go in trying to win as much money as I possibly can,” said Lockhart. “Sometimes winning a championship goes hand in hand with winning a lot of money. But the title is how it just happened to turn out. It’s not something I expected or even had in my sights. It’s just icing on the cake.”

Before the Finals, the standings were led by Pierce, who was born in Alberta but raised in Oklahoma. In order to let her first-string horse, Dillion, and her 6-year-old backup mare, BB, rest up for the Wrangler NFR, Pierce hauled two finished sorrel 5-year-olds to Edmonton. She’d purchased Kiss This Guy (“Tyson”) earlier from Ryann Pedone, and just recently bought Im A Royal Design (“Hammer”) from Rick and Terri Ford.

Former champ of the world Lindsay Sears jumped out and won the first and second rounds on her backup horse, Ima Guy of Honor (“Moe”), while her good horse, Martha, rests up for the NFR. Then in Round 3, Pierce shattered the arena record aboard Hammer. It was just one of four rounds in which Pierce earned paychecks, but that wasn’t enough to hold off Lockhart.

The wife and mother of three from Oelrichs, S.D., placed in all six rounds to win the average by less than three-tenths of a second over Sears, who also placed in all six rounds. Lockhart’s take for winning the whole shooting match was a championship ring, gold watch, trophy saddle, voucher toward a new (Canadian) truck, and $49,100.

“I had a pretty quiet week,” said Lockhart, who rode her first-string buckskin, An Oakie With Cash (“Louie”) and is known for not crunching numbers. “I honestly had no idea the title was even possible. Going into that last round, I’m sure my husband knew, so I tried to get a hold of him. He didn’t answer when I called – maybe on purpose! So I just tried to go do my job.”

On Sunday afternoon, four different girls still had a shot at the title. Lockhart and Louie clocked in at 14.588 to win their first round of the week and barely edge Pierce in the earnings column (Trula Churchill also had a great rodeo, winning two rounds and $45,301 total).

“Louie is just a model of consistency,” Lockhart said. “I knew he’d be there when I needed him.”

Lockhart, like Pierce and Sears, will compete at the NFR in three weeks, but unlike them, she wasn’t resting her good horse and running her backup in the zero-degree weather at Edmonton.

“To me, it’s strictly business,” Lockhart said. “Yes, the NFR has more money up. But the CFR also has a lot of money. It’s definitely not Chisum’s forte to run inside, although he has won the Canadian championship before. Louie’s had a lot of time off and he needed some runs. I’d rather take him to the Canadian Finals than to some jackpot. It was a no-brainer.”

The South Dakotan proved she’s easily able to come from behind – which is the same thing she’d like to do in Las Vegas a few weeks from now. At the NFR, Churchill and Lockhart will be aboard the same horses while Sears and Pierce will step on fresh mounts. All four cowgirls, plus fellow qualifier Lee Ann Rust, can use the CFR as an NFR warm-up.

“You kind of get in a groove and your momentum can help carry you down there, I think,” Lockhart said while stuck on icy roads trying to get home. “This paycheck eases the financial pressure, definitely. This time of year is when we finally see a profit; it’s the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, and it makes a big difference. I’d do handstands if I wasn’t so stinkin’ old.”

JB Quarter Horses Creating Legends Bonus Winners 2012 Candian Finals Rodeo

JB Quarter Horses awarded $10,000 in Creating Legends bonuses at their 2012 JB Quarter Horses Futurity, held Nov. 8-10 in Waco, Texas, in conjunction with the Elite Extravaganza and Texas Best Sale.

Janna Bean, Hallsville, Texas, rode Firing All My Effort for Danny and Laura Forsythe of Natchitoches, La., to the $5,000 first-place bonus check and trophy Martin saddle. The 2008 gelding by Chasin Firewater out of the Bully Bullion mare Marrazona Bully, clocked a 15.929 in the qualifying round of the JB Quarter Horses Futurity to earn the bonus. Bred by Joe and Dee Lynn Braman, Firing All My Effort (formerly Mr JB 0848) was a $2,800 purchase at the first JB Quarter Horses Creating Legends Sale in 2009.

Firewaters Honey, owned by Lauren and Corley Cox of Cotulla, Texas, and ridden by Lauren, took home the $3,000 bonus check for second. Bred by Leonard Lyne of George West, Texas, Firewaters Honey was consigned by Carl and Barbara Ammerman to the 2009 Sale. The 2008 gray mare by Chasin Firewater out of Hi Heels Honey Too, by Do As You Please, was purchased by Dr. Cliff and Lorie Honnas. The mare sold again in the 2010 to the Cox.

Jane Irick, Stephenville, Texas, and her 2010 sale purchase Miss JB 0831 took home $2,000 for third. Bred by the Bramans, Miss JB 0831 is by Chasin Firewater out of Princess RB, by Peponita.

Scott Schiffner, the Strathmore Alberta bull rider, spent time with Prince William and Kate at the Calgary Stampede, made two trips to China as an ambassador for Canadian rodeo and the Stampede, extended his record number of Canadian Finals Rodeo appearances to twelve, was named Cowboy of the Year during the Saturday afternoon performance of the Finals and then rode the Big Stone bull, Pop Evil to 87 points in the final round to overtake season leader Ty Pozzobon and win his second Canadian title.

The thirty-two year old tried to put it all in perspective moments after the final performance of the CFR concluded. "I'm the luckiest guy in the rodeo world. Everything I have in life, I owe to rodeo; this sport has given me opportunities I never would have imagined."

Another champion who won his crown with authority was Cochran steers wrestler Tanner Milan who blazed a 3.5 second run to win the final round, and clinch the aggregate title en route to his first Canadian championship.

"I had a steer that ran really hard but Jesse (Lee Graves' dogging horse) just ate him up and I thought I made a pretty good run."

That 'pretty good' run and the $11,400 payday took Milan's season earnings total to $67,565 and a $24,000 cushion over second place finisher, Canadian Rookie of the Year, Chason Floyd.

In the Bareback Riding, Cowley, Wyoming cowboy, J. R. Vezain parlayed a fast start into a championship. The twenty year-old won the first three go rounds and the aggregate and held off four time champion Dusty LaValley for the title.

Vezain heads off to the Wrangler NFR in fourth place overall. "I hope I can keep the momentum going down there."

Team ropers Paul Eaves (Millsap, Texas) and Dustin Bird (Cutbank, Montana) put together a week that included two first place finishes, a 1/2 split (that equaled the arena record—3.7 seconds), a fourth and a fifth and an aggregate win to give the duo season winnings in excess of $36,000 and their first title north of the 49th parallel.

Despite a disappointing end to his week that saw him buck off his last two horses, Ponoka bronc rider Luke Butterfield hung on to win his first Canadian title. The win was Butterfield's first and capped off a year that saw him emerge as season leader in Canada and narrowly miss a trip to the Wrangler NFR as the third generation Ponoka talent missed the fifteen man cut by one spot.

In the Tie Down Roping, Louisiana roper Shane Hanchey missed his calf in the final round but was able to hang on to the commanding lead he had coming in to the last day to win his first championship. Hanchey who heads off to the Wrangler NFR next month finished the season with $58,000 and a comfortable $17,000 margin over runner-up, Logan Hofer of Magrath, Alberta.

Foutch, Orville Win it all at Great Lakes Circuit Finals

By Julie Mankin

It's been a long, hard road and the payoff this weekend was huge for Natalie Foutch of Eldora, Iowa.

The day she bought a half-Thoroughbred grandson of Firewater Flit as a 3-year-old from Sandi Brandley, it seemed like a good match. But for five long years, she won nothing on the 16-hand palomino.

"He was challenging, because he's so sensitive and particular," she said. "At first, my saddle didn't fit, which I didn't realize. Then he used to run off at the right-hand barrel, no matter whether it was first or second. I finally discovered he was a bleeder. And then he demanded I stay off his head, which meant I had to really change my style of riding."

Foutch can pinpoint the exact moment everything came together – it was April 2011 when his back was right, his lungs were good and she put him in a light hackamore that amounts to virtually nothing on his head.

"He's actually taught me a lot," said Foutch, who last made the Circuit Finals in 1999 on a gray mare she trained named That's Sterling. "I just hadn't been listening to my horse, but I finally understood what he was talking about. When he was 3 and 4 and 5 I cried a lot of tears. I just couldn't figure it out. I'm glad I was patient."

Since the light came on, Foutch and "Orville" have been impossible to beat. They roared into the Great Lakes Circuit Finals in Louisville, Ken., last weekend with the lead in the standings and, after placing second in all three rounds in Louisville, won the average, too, to bank $5,046. The icing on the cake was Orville's selection as Great Lakes Circuit Horse of the Year.

"I had a fabulous finals; it was the most money I've ever won in a weekend," Foutch said. "It was so rewarding; there are a lot of tough girls in this circuit and I was tickled to death to get Horse of the Year. I probably went to just 18 rodeos, picking the places where I knew Orville would do well."

Now 9 years old and a left-handed horse, Orville seems relieved that his owner finally figured out all his quirks.

"He's a freak of a horse; just very unique," she said. "He's very deceiving because he's so long-strided and smooth. I have to really stay off his head and let him work, but he knows his job and loves it, so I can sit back and enjoy the ride."

Registered as Maggie's Moon Fire, Orville got his yellow color from his sire, the Firewater Flit son VF Moon Fire, who is out of a granddaughter of Top Moon. On the bottom, Orville is out of a Thoroughbred mare named Maggie's Bay. She goes back to Raise A Native and Tom Fool on the top side and to Northern Dancer and Bold Ruler maternally.

Foutch, who is the wife of tie-down roper P.J. Foutch and mother of their 9-year-old son, Drake, said she takes her time training a horse. Orville should be easy – just pick your points and push him past them – but sometimes it's hard to do nothing more.

Happily, she has a 4-year-old filly out of That's Sterling, who was bred Three Bars and Go Man Go on her top side and Jet Deck via her dam. And in the spring, Foutch and reserve champion Robin Beck will represent the Great Lakes in Oklahoma City.

For now, Foutch has NFR dreams and will try her luck at the big building rodeos this winter, with her family behind her 100 percent. "If not for my husband, I wouldn't be going," she said. "He makes it happen. It's been a lot of fun."

Intense Competition at the JB Quarter Horses Futurity

In a year of extremely tough futurity colts, one of the toughest and most consistent futurity colts captured the $25,000-added JB Quarter Horses Futurity Championship.

RLJ High Intedsity, the 4-year old gelding, ridden by Brett Monroe for Homer and Ada Nell Beasley, turned in the fastest time of the futurity and the weekend of over 2000 runs with a 15.051, to win Saturday night's Championship Round and $6,029.

The JBQH Futurity Finals was one of the finest rounds of barrel racing a person is likely to see; one after another of the top colts notched fast time after fast time. For most of the Finals Latricia Duke and the Bar Nothin Barrel Bash Futurity Champion, LK Watch Me Rock (owned by LeAnn Kay), led with a blazing 15.201.

Many horses came close but none quite broke the .2 barrier until Monroe and RLJ High Intedsity blew that out of the water and put Duke and LK Watch Me Rock into second place for a $5,124 paycheck.

The fastest runner from the Qualifying Round with a 15.194 was Shes Free To Flame ridden by Brittany Pozzi for owners Jan Boultinghouse and Savannah Reeves. In the Finals, they came up a little short with 15.325 which netted her connections with 3rd place and a $4,521. Shes Free To Flame is a full sister to Flaming Pastem, who Savannah Reeves has ridden to many rodeo wins over the last couple years.

In 4th place was Latricia Duke again, this time riding Schiller Ranch owned gelding, Bobbie Gene, to a 15.368 and a $3,618 paycheck. Rounding out the top 5 in this futurity slugfest was I Know I Can 2 with PJ Burger for owner Veale Ranches who ran a sharp 15.380 for a $2,713 paycheck. I Know I Can 2 is out of the same dam as former futurity standout Mulberry Canyon Moon, De Streaker.

Thanks to their qualifying run of 15.370, Monroe and RLJ High Intedsity also won the Triple Crown 100 Slot Race and Future Fortunes Bonus. Monroe only made the long trek to the Waco, Texas, event because Talmadge Green had named RLJ High Intedsity to the spot he held in the Triple Crown race. Bred by Randy Jarvis, RLJ High Intensity ("Slick") is by Streakin Again out of Lite Me Up (TB), by Lite The Fuse (TB). The gelding has more than $100,000 in earnings and has won the Kindergarten, Southern Rebel and East Coast Classic futurities and placed at nearly every futurity and open show throughout the year. He currently leads the BFA point standings.

Ground trouble in the qualifying round bumped multiple futurity champion French Streaktovegas, ridden by Hallie Melvin for Echeta Performance Horses, into the Consolation Round.

mans Flirt, a full sister to Frenchmans Guy, came back strong to top Friday night's Consolation Round in 15.425, worth $4,019.

This win was just an extension of a hot fall run for the team where they have won the Fizz Bomb Futurity and WPRA Futurity among others while piling up more than $50k in earnings for the year. Just a little over a tenth of a second behind was Molli Montgomery on her catty, quick mare, Kudo Galore, who ran a 15.527 to earn a nice $3,416.

Louis Paradis of Thetford Mines, Quebec, won the Copper Spring Ranch Amateur with a two-run average of 31.747. Paradis and Perfect Choice, a 4-year-old gelding by A Regal Choice out of BCR Pass The Purse, by Pass Em Up (TB), earned $2,064.

Briggs & A Special Colour, Schultz & KS Dox Cajun Bug Set Elite Pace

By Tanya Randall

Multiple aged event champion and former Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jordon Briggs set the pace in Main Race 1 at the Elite Extravaganza, held Nov. 6-11 in the Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas.

She and her talented derby horse A Special Colour ("Patrón") kicked things off with a 15.310, running late on Friday night in draw position 301.

Each Main Race was split into two sections of 400 for 800 entries total per race. Main Race 1 ran Friday night and Saturday morning and Main Race 2 ran Saturday night and Sunday morning.

Living in nearby Lott, Texas, Briggs didn't have much of drive after her late night run.

"It was a really good smooth run," said Briggs, who is sponsored by Shiloh Saddlery, Classic Equine, Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals (MVP), Rock N Roll Cowgirl, Myers Training Stables, home of Frenchmans Guy and RodeoRigs.com. "There wasn't anything that I could really pick a part about it. He had his head down and was running. He worked like an old finished horse."

She and Patrón picked up $2,184 for winning the 1D in the guaranteed payout race. They also placed ninth in Main Race 2 for total earnings of $2,548. Their time on two runs put them third in the two-run average, which was won by Emily Efurud and Guys French Jet.

Patrón, a 5-year-old gelding by Hot Colours out of French Wild Heart, by Frenchmans Guy, won about $65,000 during his futurity year, Briggs said. She's entered him in four derbies this year and won three—the Cornhusker, Dash & Dance and 5-States. She hopes the gelding can go four for five with a win in the BFA Derby next month in Oklahoma City.

Briggs also plans to continue the gelding's rodeo seasoning next year.

"I might rodeo a little on him this winter," she said. She hasn't decided if she will rodeo open or pro. "I haven't bought my (WPRA) card yet, but there are a lot of good pro rodeos to go to around here."

Kay Lynn Schulz, the winner of Main Race 2, also plans on rodeoing a little next year. Her goal is to make her second Texas Circuit Finals and qualify for the All American Finals, both of which are held in Waco.

"I want to go to the bigger rodeos," said the mother of two. "I had enough won to qualify for the All American Finals my rookie year, but I didn't go to enough rodeos. It was a rookie mistake."

Schulz, a dental hygienist from San Antonio, Texas, has ridden her homebred gelding KS Dox Cajun Bug ("Cajun") to several Elite victories since the production company's inception. However, she got a little off her game plan this time around.

Usually she enters the warm-up race, where things typically go wrong in some form or fashion, and then Cajun, a 2003 gelding by PC Dox Cajun out of Lady Bug Bug, by Bed Bugs, leaves everyone in the dust for the remaining two races. She didn't enter the warm-up race this year because she didn't want to put three runs on her horse, and she ended up making her 'uh-oh' run in Main Race 1.

"I thought I had it figured out by now," laughed Schulz, who said she spent most of the first run just trying to stay with Cajun. "I was hanging on like a monkey. I spent most of the run trying to decide if I should try to still hustle him or just hang on. He's got it figured out, alright."

She was a bit more prepared for her second run, and she and Cajun turned in the 2nd fastest time of the event, a 15.093 on Sunday morning. The Main Race 2 win and a win in the adult incentive awarded her $2,395. She and Cajun were also second in the two-average.

Other average winners include 2D Robin Montague and Bye Bye Jody Boy; 3D Janice Stephens and FG Double Dat Cash; 4D Amber Clay and Gidget; 5D Paige Curran and San Rose Marie and 6D Paige Ortegon and Special Shecky.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Caring horse people know when things aren't right with their horses. They can tell if a horse is "off" his feed, not acting right and displaying abnormal behavior. They know something is wrong and they find out the cause so they can correct it.

Sometimes it's that way with people, too. Sometimes people get "down" and feel like God is far away. There's an old saying that says, "If God seems far away, He's not the one who moved!"

Maybe you've been too tired or discouraged to read your Bible or even pray. Maybe you've been too caught up with business or family to get to church or even take time to talk to God. If you want things to change, you have to turn your life over to God and spend some time talking to Him and listening to what He says to you. Oh, yes, God will talk to your spirit inside you! But, you have to get quiet to hear Him. Turn off the TV and just sit quietly. Read some comforting Scriptures unless you're too exhausted and, in that case, just talk to God because He is your best friend and the only one who can really work things out in your life.

God is good all the time and He loves you unconditionally. He cares for the smallest details in your life. He is the only one who can give you true peace and happiness in your life.

One Scripture verse you should memorize and say often is from the book of Philippians 4:6, "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God; and the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will fill your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

Take a moment when you get up in the morning to think on that verse. Say aloud, "This is going to be a good day, in the name of Jesus!" And then go see who you can bless and it will be a very good day!
