Ganter & Howes A Tycoon Win Second WPRA World Finals Championship

By Tanya Randall

"I didn't expect that!" said two-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jackie Ganter after winning her second WPRA World Finals Card Holders Championship aboard her 14-year-old gelding Howes A Tycoon. "Days like yesterday are why we do this and what makes it all worth it."

The WPRA World Finals, held November 8-13 in conjunction with Elite Barrel Racing at the Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas, is a key qualifier for the 2023 rodeo season. Money won in the $20,000-added Card Holders Race counts toward the 2023 standings and the top two finishers qualify for Rodeo Houston.

Ganter pocketed $8,717 for the Card Holder title, which bumped her to fifth in the WPRA World Standings with $9,124. She's also set to make her first trip back to Rodeo Houston since her Super Series was cut short due to the COVID Shutdown in 2020.

"I wish Houston was like tomorrow!" said the 2015 WPRA Rookie of the Year who hails from Abilene, Texas. "I'm just going to pray every day that my horse stays sound. I'll run him sparingly. I know his runs are numbered and I'm thankful for every run I get on him."

Bred and trained by Randy Jarvis, Tycoon is by Streakin Again out of RLJ Callinallangles, by Knock Their Socksoff. Ganter bought Tycoon from Canadian barrel racer Gayle Howes in June of 2018 after jump riding him at the pro rodeo in Wainwright, Alberta.

"We sat in the parking lot in Wainwright for like five hours trying to convince Gayle to let me buy him," she laughed. "He won everything for me that year. We won the Card race at the WPRA Finals and qualified for Houston. He did really well at Houston and right after he got hurt for the first time and has perpetually stayed hurt."

Since 2018, Ganter has only had Tycoon sound for months at a time. In 2021, he only ran a month—he did manage to win $30,000 in that time—before he came up lame before the NFR Playoff Rodeo in Puyallup, Washington, in September.

"I sat at my trailer and cried," said Ganter. "I looked at his leg and knew he bowed a tendon."

She was off of the gelding until the BBR World Finals this year. Unfortunately, he came up sore after placing in the second round, so she was off of Tycoon again for another couple of months.

"I got back on him a couple of months ago and have just run him sparingly," she said. "He wasn't running like himself. The times before I would win something huge his first run back. It didn't take him more than one run to be right back to winning in the past. This time, he just didn't come back the same."

The various injuries to Tycoon's left front leg had made it prone to edema and even though he trotted sound, Ganter's mom Angela figured the leg just had to feel differently to the gelding. Their solution was to up the usage of Tycoon's PHT leg wraps to keep the leg tight.

Ganter kept her PHT boots on Tycoon right up until it was time to put his competition wraps on. When she tried it at the Red Dirt Classic in Vernon, Texas, Tycoon ran like his former self. He clocked so well that her mother suggested that she take Tycoon to the WPRA Finals. Her mother would take her other horse Smokn Lane west for the pro rodeos in Las Vegas and Brawley, California.

Ganter decided her mom's plan was best and swapped her horses. However, she was second-guessing herself after hitting a barrel on Lane at Las Vegas on Wednesday.

"I thought I hope we didn't mess this whole weekend up by changing our plans at the last minute," she said.

Ganter's first run in Waco was a respectable 16.066 that was 20th.

"I was last on the ground and he tripped at the second," she said. "It was a decent run. I just knew I needed to be faster in the second round."

Her longtime friend Hannah Hammond told her that she'd be faster on her next run easily since she was top of the ground. Hammond was right.

Ganter and Tycoon were fifth with a 15.815, even after she had a slight panic attack before her run due to an equipment failure.

"I noticed my curb chain was broke the drag before mine," she said. Thankfully, Christi Wimberley—Cheyenne's mom—and Bill Pace were able to get a hay string patch job in place before her run. "It was very touch and go because their drags are so fast. I got up there right as they were finishing the drag before my run."

Ganter's time on two, 31.883, was sitting fourth in the aggregate going into the 30-head short round on Sunday. Her good friend and fellow rookie of the year Cayla (Melby) Small was leading the field.

"I knew I was sitting close to the top of the round and was thinking I would be 10th or so in the average," said Ganter. "Hannah said she thought I was fourth in the average. I was like 'Oh my gosh! I'm right in the middle of it! I can make it into Houston!'"

At dinner that night, Mary Walker, who was hauling with Ganter's mom, texted her the draw for the short round.

"I was last on the drag," recalled Ganter. "All we had talked about all weekend is how you couldn't clock fifth on the ground. I thought, 'That is not the draw I needed.' I told Hannah, 'You know what...that's the draw I got. No amount of us sitting here complaining about it is going to change it, so we should stop talking about it. I don't want to mention it again.'"

Ganter put it out of her mind until she was warming Tycoon up for the short round.

"I thought about being last on the drag and I knew my only chance to clock would be to stay on top of the barrels," she said. "The card race is so tight anyway. You had to be fast or hit a barrel trying to be fast. There's no point of getting around the barrels and being slow."

Tycoon also gave Ganter peace of mind.

"I think he knows when things are important," she said. "He had such a different attitude warming up for the short round. It gave me such peace of mind. I just knew that he was going to run good. I knew if I did my part and showed up this horse was going to run good. He had such a presence to him."

Their 15.682 topped the short round.

"Tycoon is just so honest," said Ganter, who previously won the Card Holder Race in 2018. "You have to really try to make him hit a barrel. You have to do something really wrong. I just cut every corner possible. I tried to hit a barrel and hoped they'd stay up!"

Although she felt the run was really fast, Ganter thought the timer read 16.6 as she ran through the alleyway.

"I thought, 'Oh no! I can't believe I was that slow!'" she exclaimed. "Then the announcer said, 'New fast time!' It was crazy. I couldn't believe we were that fast. I told myself going into the short round that I needed to have the mentality I needed to run a 15.5. I had no real expectation of running a .5, but I told myself to ride like I needed to run a .5. When I ran a .6 I was like 'Oh my gosh! We kind of did it!'"

Ganter wanted to thank veterinarians Randy Lewis and Chad Marsh, her farrier Shawn Turner and her mother for working so hard to get Tycoon in condition to run.

"Without those people I wouldn't have had the opportunity to win that on him," she said. "It's definitely taken a team to keep him sound. I'm very thankful."

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

Seasoned, Consistent Youth Barrel Mare

PERKSTERS MS KITTY

Perkster-JK Lonesum Kitty, JK Copper Bruce

$25,000 - 13 year old gray mare - Seasoned, Consistent Youth Suitable!

This mare has been hauled and won money in all levels of competition from jackpots, youth rodeos, amateur rodeos and anything in-between. Push style and very consistent. 1D/2D horse. Runs in mud, large or small pattern doesn't matter. Raised in South Dakota. She is sound and requires no maintenance.

She catches, loads, hauls and stands at the trailer all day. Goes with all horses and takes care of herself. Stands well for the farrier. We have used her in the pasture to chase cows, roped on her, and have ridden her on wagon trains. She would be a perfect youth, high school, or college horse. She would even be a nice horse for the weekend jackpotter as she doesn't care to be hauled alone. Will run poles as well. A good home is a must. Please no tire kickers. Videos available.

Erin Wetzel & Margo Crowther Capture Southeastern Circuit Titles in Davie

By Tanya Randall

The Southeastern Circuit titles were tight across the board. Erin Wetzel of Plant City, Florida, edged Ashley Rogers by .02 second to win the Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 11-13 in Davie, Florida.

"I wasn't even supposed to be there," laughed Wetzel, who was also voted Best Dressed by her peers. "I never expected any of that."

When Sarah Rose Waguespack drew out of the rodeo, Wetzel got to take her spot as the 13th-ranked barrel racer in the standings.

"They take the next person in line who entered," explained Wetzel. "You always have to enter in case something like this happens. If I hadn't entered, they would have gone to the 14th person."

"Last year I missed (making the circuit finals) by $17. Two girls forgot to call in and they took the 13th and 14th spot. I got to go there last year and won two go-rounds!"

Wetzel, who owns and operates the online boutique Timey Brand, and her gritty gelding Catchin Dinero 554 ("Squirrel") placed second in the first and third rounds and won the second in spite of a wardrobe malfunction.

"I was turning the first barrel and my hat came down in my eyes," she laughed. "I couldn't see anything for the rest of the run. I didn't know if I was turning the second barrel, the third barrel or the judge standing in the corner. I was terrified. That's the round he ended up winning by three tenths. He was like, 'Hang on! I've got ya!'"

Squirrel, now 10, is a double-bred Miss N Cash gelding that came from Buck Daniels originally. Wetzel bought him from Shannon Hudnell.

"Shannon bought him when he was a year-and-a-half, maybe 2-years-old. She got him broke and then decided to sell him. I posted him on Facebook. I had planned to go get him that Friday and then she called and said she was going to keep him. She called me six months later and said 'I think this horse is going to be too much. I'm going to go ahead and sell him.'"

Wetzel sent her $1,300 via PayPal. However, when she and her husband Mike, a former bull rider turned calf roper, went to pick the gelding up at the Immokalee Pro Rodeo, they almost didn't bring him home.

"He was so small my husband said put him back on the trailer I'm not taking this horse," she said. "My husband thought he was buying him for a rope horse. He didn't actually know I was wanting him for a barrel horse. I didn't have anything of my own to ride. My horse had just died and I was running one of his."

It took a little begging on her part, but Squirrel came home with the Wetzels. Her husband tried to rope on Squirrel before she finally got her chance to make him a barrel horse.

Wetzel and Cheryl Lynn Mann started Squirrel on the pattern. Mann had exceptional experience with a "pocket rocket" of her own, her National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sunrise Wonder ("Uh Oh").

It didn't take Wetzel long to get Squirrel in the 1D once she started jackpotting on the gelding.

"He skipped over the 3D and 4D and went straight to the 2D and then started running in the 1D," she said. "They were like you

$10,026 from the Circuit Finals, she sits second in the world standings with $12,845. She is hoping to take advantage of the NFR Open's great payout next summer.

"I planned on being out West anyway," she said. "My husband said he was going to take me on the summer run and Cowboy Christmas. If I'm doing well, he's going to try to keep me out there and try to get me to the NFR."

Wetzel wanted to thank her husband and her family for their support as well as sisters Cheryl Lynn Mann and Clara Lou Carter, and Carter's husband Jimmy.

First-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Margo Crowther of North Fort Myers had the lead in the circuit standings all year long and held off Wetzel's challenge to win the year-end title by $178.

She wanted to thank her husband Casey for all his help and encouragement in making the victory possible.

"I want to thank my husband for just being there for me," she said. "We set this plan in place a little over 10 years ago for me to qualify for the circuit finals, and we did that in 2020. To win the Southeastern Circuit has been a huge goal of both of ours. He really encouraged me to go for this goal. This, not the NFR, was my original goal—to win the circuit. I'm just so blessed to have him by my side and be my backbone and root of all of this."

A solid start to her in the Southeastern Circuit last year set her up to make a run for the NFR.

"Winning in the fall and a little bit in the spring definitely encouraged me to go to Austin and San Angelo," she explained. "Before that, all I did was rodeo in my circuit. My goal was to win and not go out of my circuit. It definitely gave me the confidence to enter those other rodeos."

Crowther is also putting her rodeo producer hat back on for the 2023 season. She and her husband just submitted the approvals for their February pro rodeo in North Fort Myers.

"I'm proud of our circuit," she said. "I love our circuit. We have a really good group of girls and some really great producers who really love the rodeo world."

Sara Winkelman & Cricket Gintner Win Great Lakes Circuit Titles

By Tanya Randall

Speech language pathologist Sara Winkelman of Big Lake, Minnesota, and radiology technician Cricket Gintner of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, captured Great Lake Circuit titles at their Finals Rodeo, held November 10-12 in Louisville, Kentucky.

Winkelman and her homebred gelding Fairway Ta Fame (“Rory”) bested Austyn Toby and Design In Red in the three run aggregate by a mere .04 seconds, 46.38 to 46.42. The victory was worth $6,567, which puts Winkelman 13th in the 2023 WPRA World Standings.

“He just tried really hard every round,” said Winkelman. She and Rory placed fourth in the first round, third in the second and second in the third. “I was tickled to get around the barrels all three rounds because I’ve had my fair share of heart break with barrels going down to place well at rodeos throughout the year. He just turns so hard that if I ease up, the barrels go down.”

This is Rory’s second year of rodeo competition. Winkelman raised the 7-year-old by Streaking Ta Fame, out of the Perks Alive mare Fair Lady Perks. She trained him in between the births of her two children, now ages 3 and 5.

Rory was the Northern Region Yearend Futurity Champion and won the Fizz Bomb Futurity in 2020. As a 6-year-old, he qualified Winkelman for her first Great Lakes Circuit Finals but missed the rodeo due to a deep digital flexor tendon injury discovered in August.

“I don’t really know what happened,” said Winkelman. “He came off a winning weekend and I turned him out in the pasture Sunday night. On Monday when I got back from work I whistled him up from the pasture because I was going to head to another rodeo on Tuesday. He came up head bobbing lame.”

Rory recovered thanks to two different treatments with RenoVo and months of diligent twice daily hand walking. She said her mother Karla Koenig was instrumental in Rory’s recovery.

“My mom’s not a horse person, but she’s becoming more so these days,” Winkelman said. “When I was busy last year, she was dedicated to hand walking Rory. If I couldn’t be there, she was out walking him in the wind and snow and whatever weather.”

Rory made his first run back at the pro rodeo in Kansas City in early May 2022 and placed.

“I’m so thankful to have him back,” she said. “I was just in shock and awe that he came back and placed at his first rodeo back. It was pretty emotional. He hasn’t really missed a beat since then.”

Winkelman, who wanted to thank her family for all their support and Michelle Mix for keeping Rory feeling well, said she’s looking forward to going to the NFR Open, which will allow her to compete with a longtime friend.

“I don’t have my head all the way wrapped around that idea yet, but it’s pretty amazing,” she said. “Ivy Hurst (the current Prairie Circuit Finals Champion) and I grew up in Minnesota together going to the gaming shows. It’s kind of fun that we’ll both get to see each other at the NFR Open.”

As to how much she will rodeo between now and then, Winkelman is conflicted.

“Who knows what the NFR Open can do for a person as far as the standings,” she said. “It does make me want to go more. If I could take some time this winter to venture out a little farther, there are probably some places that he would like. I’m still holding on to the security blanket of my job. It’s a big balancing act in my life right now as far as what I should be doing. You only get so many opportunities in a lifetime with horses.”

Gintner and her great gelding Dial A Little Fame (“Jax”) picked up her third year-end Great Lakes title in a hotly contested battle that went down to the last round of the Finals Rodeo. She edged Circuit Rookie Champion Katie Chism by just $194 to win the championship.

“I really didn’t have it in my mind to win the circuit this year,” said Gintner, who wanted to thank her sponsors Cowgirl Tuff Company, Nutrena Feed, Circle Y, Mustang Seeds, DAC Products, Luck Saddlery, SC Productions, Courtesy Auto, K&N Equine Solutions as well as her family. “I really tried to focus on the Tour Rodeos. I tried to go to some out west that I normally wouldn’t have the opportunity for when I was out for the NFR Open. It just didn’t pan out for me. I either tipped or Jax didn’t like the ground out West. It just kind of ended up that I went into the circuit finals in the lead. It wasn’t a huge lead. I didn’t have the Finals that I wanted to have, but it panned out.”

Last year, Gintner waived her spot to compete at the Calgary Stampede in order to compete at the NFR Open. This year should be the same opportunity arise she's prepared to try her luck in Canada. She's high enough in WPRA Tour points for that to be a possibility. "I've never been to Canada," she said. "If I have to face that choice again, it might be the year to go get that experience. I'm just trying to take my blessings as they come. Jax has gotten me this far and I'd like to continue on those adventures with him."

Bred by Tom and Kay Gunderson, Jax, 16, is by Dash Ta Fame out of Dialalena Leo, by Little John Dial.

"I've got some 5-year-olds that I need to start running more, but it's so hard to get off of him," she admitted. "I had even thought about running one of my 5-year-olds at Circuit Finals, but my mom said Jax had gotten me this far."

Gintner finished 42nd in the 2022 WPRA World Standings and will likely head to the winter rodeos in Texas again. In year's past, Gintner would start off at Fort Worth and stay through Rodeo Houston. This year she's thinking about a slight modification.

"With my kids getting older and involved with more stuff, I have a hard time missing out on that stuff," she said. "The only one that makes it really long is Fort Worth because it starts so much earlier than everything else. I've never stayed long enough to go to Austin and San Angelo because I'd been there since January. We may shift a little bit later in the winter this year."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Sayings. Quips and quotes. My mother-in-law used to say, "Well, they can't eat me!" She mostly said this about the IRS!! She was fearless. LOL! Ever said, "Well, what are they going to do? Take away my birthday?"

Those statements are bold and in your face! It's a person standing up for a cause! Who in the Bible stood up? David for one. Remember when Goliath was taunting the children of Israel?

Take a few minutes and read I Samuel 17. It is the glorious account of a young man killing a giant. In verse 29 David says, "Is there not a cause?" Then in verses 45-47, David declared that he came to the giant in the name of the Lord. And he further went on to state just exactly what he was going to do to Goliath with the help of God. And he did it!

What challenge are you facing? Well, with God's help, you can overcome any problem/giant in your life. In these times we live in, we can have the confidence that our good God will lead the fight.

Verse 47 says in part, "the battle is the Lord's and He will give Goliath (the problem) into their hands." We declare together that whatever our problem is this week, it's a defeated foe! Glory!
