Dona Kay Rule & High Valor Capture WPRA World Finals Cardholders' Title

By Tanya Randall

Three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Dona Kay Rule and High Valor posted the fastest run of the WPRA World Finals, held November 9-14 at the Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas, to cinch up the $15,000-added WPRA Cardholders Championship. The Minco, Oklahoma, barrel racer and her 12-year-old gelding collected $7,516 ($9,636 including carryovers into the Elite Race).

With the Cardholders Race counting toward the 2022 WPRA World Standings, Rule is now 10th. Additionally, a yet to be announced number of top finishers in the Cardholders will qualify for RodeoHouston®, the richest event of the winter run.

Rule had only one 2022 rodeo—the Heart of Texas Fair & Rodeo, also in Waco—under her belt. Having missed the Prairie Circuit Finals—which also counted toward the 2022 World Standings—due to her rodeo count, Rule wanted to get some money won for the new season.

"I needed to get something under my belt to get me kick-started for next season," she explained. "I knew it would be good ground, thanks to TC Long and David Smith. I knew it would be efficient. Typically, the weather's been great every time I've gone down there. I think it's good to have some runs on good ground to put some confidence in my horse."

Rule and Valor were fifth in the first round with a 15.824.

"The first day I felt the ground was a little bit firm for him," she said. "It was great ground. There was nothing wrong with it. Sometimes I can make an adjustment if I know I'm running on

THE RUNDOWN w/Dona Kay Rule

High Valor, "Val" 15.1, 1,200 lbs.

BIT: O-ring for daily riding; Sherry Cervi lifter with a twisted-wire mouth-piece to run.

SADDLE: made by her husband—John Rule Saddlery

SADDLE PAD: 7/8ths 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on all four, plus bell boots

SHOEING: Full crease, plain steel shoe. Shod by Dusty Franklin from Minco, Oklahoma.

FEED: KoolSpeed

HAY: All the alfalfa he wants

SUPPLEMENTS: KER Nano-Q10, KER Nano-E and KER Race Recovery

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Flair strip, Deanna Harrison's lung support essential oil topical blend daily, nebulize with silver, Chiropractic care and acupuncture, MagnaWave and Acuscope—but not something she does often.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: "I pasture ride a lot and that's refreshing for him. It's fun for him. We see cows and occasionally the bird dogs will jump out a ravine, and we see if we can ride through (the spook)," Rule laughed. "I rarely work barrels. I'll fool around with random barrels, but rarely do I do the cloverleaf pattern."

firm ground or something deep. I just didn't realize it was firm, so he kind of bounced a little bit—my fault with how I set him up for the approach."

They got a little faster in the second round with a 15.764 to split fifth in the go.

"The second day I set him up for the firm run but when I turned him loose in the alley I did not have the exact position I like to leave the alley in. I felt like I could do better," she said.

Their final run in the Cardholder's short go was the fastest of the event, a 15.457.

"He was pretty excited on my last run," Rule admitted. "He kind of froze a little in the alley. Bless heart, Jordon Briggs just walked up there with me. He relaxed for me and I turned him loose. The best thing I can do when we work cattle at the house is to not help as much, so I applied that to my run! I tried not to help as much and sometimes that's better! I did my dead level best to stay relaxed and soft on him and trust my training. I was blown away! It felt so efficient!"

Winning aside, Rule really enjoyed the event.

"You never know," she quipped. "I could have won nothing and it still would have been fine. It was a great barrel race, lots of great horses. If you like barrel horses at all, it was great just to watch."

The barrel racing kept her so busy that she didn't get to watch any of the WPRA Roping action at the WPRA World Finals. Rule went to many Women's National Finals Rodeos in the team roping when the WPRA had the all-women's events under the banner of the Professional Women's Rodeo Association (PWRA.) Finals, but she did get to hug and visit old friends.

"I didn't get to watch any of the roping because I always had something going on at the same time," said Rule. "I did get to see a lot of my old roping buddies from the PWRA days and got some good hugs in. That was nice."

Rule and company—her daughter KK and granddaughter Henslee Rose, 7—will head to Las Vegas after Thanksgiving. In the meanwhile, she plans on "scoring" Valor at the local jackpots.

The high-powered, track-bred gelding bred by former NFR qualifier Lana Merrick-Bailey, is by Valiant Hero out of the Rare Form mare Rare High.

"Valor does better and I do a little better also with a few runs here and there to keep our timing good," she said. "I like to get done and go score in the alley—walk back and forth—so he knows it's not that big of a deal all of the time. I'll try to do that, probably more than anything."

Along with Valor, Rule plans on taking A Juicy Venture ("Juice")

as a backup and grand entry horse.

"I'd like for him to be able to make a run, but unfortunately, after his injury I don't know if he'll be able to clock. I know I can call on him and he'll give me everything he has as far as a backup," said Rule.

Ironically, it was the injury to Juice that forced Rule to concentrate on Valor and make him into a three-time NFR qualifier and two-time WPRA Horse of the Year.

Rule wanted to thank her veterinarian Amy Jurgens of Jurgens Equine in Gill, Colorado, for "keeping Valor put together and patting me on the head and making sure I understand." She also wanted to give a public thank you to Kelly Bruner and Jill Wilson, who helped her out during the summer when her rodeo rig was plagued by gremlins.

She also wanted to thank the ground crew at Waco—David Smith, John Laws, Clint Watson and Jacob Moorhead—for their hard work and efficiency.

SUCCEED® Means Speed!

“SUCCEED is a game changer.”

Cathy Allen

“I stumbled across SUCCEED back in 2007 for a horse that had many behavioral issues and a lot of anxiety. With SUCCEED, she went from being a problem child to a champion. I trust SUCCEED because I have used it and won with it for over a decade.”

Second Straight Southeastern Circuit Title Sweep for Kelley Carrington French

By Tanya Randall

At the last Southeastern Circuit rodeo of the 2020 season, Kelley Carrington French opted to ride her backup horse Jazzin Dreamer since her good mare Slice Of PeachFame had fallen there the previous year. At the time a circuit finals rodeo looked unlikely due to COVID, so that meant her decision cost her the circuit championship.

The Boston, Georgia, barrel racer returned home and wrote on her bathroom mirror, "You Are A Champion, You Will Succeed, 2021."

The new year brought closure to the 2020 season with circuit finals held in January. Carrington French and Slice won the aggregate to win both the Finals and year-end championship.

What she wrote on her mirror stayed throughout the year, and going into the 2021 Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 11-13 in Davie, Florida, Carrington French needed to heed those words more than ever. Her great horse Slice, who earned Horse of the Year honors for the circuit, was recovering from surgery to repair the hock she fractured at Ellensburg, Washington. She was left to finish the season with her most inexperienced backup, 6-year-old Stoli N Sweet ("Vader").

Carrington French had purchased Vader as a 3-year-old from Shoppa Ranch. Bred by Erin Goings, the Sweet First Down gelding, out of Stoli Moments, by Stoli, had been lightly patterned under the direction of Ryann Pedone. When they decided to focus on ranch-raised horses instead purchased prospects, Vader went up for sale. "I had sold The Mafia Boss and my husband was like, 'You need to have something young coming up behind...'" she explained. "We went and looked at him. I had intended to futurity him but I've never futurity in my life. I'm really slow at getting them going and then rodeo takes precedence."

She referred to the gelding as her "professional trailer hanger."

"He'd go and just hang at the trailer. We took him this summer with big intentions of riding him and getting him seasoned that didn't work out too good either. Slice was doing so good that I was scared to get off of her and get on something that didn't know anything. Again, professional trailer hanger," she chuckled.

Carrington French had just sold Jazzin Dreamer so that left her with just Vader in the trailer. At the ProRodeo Tour Finale in Salinas, Vader held his own and clocked well. After picking up Slice at Idaho Equine in Nampa, where the mare had surgery, Carrington French dropped down to Texas, where Vader almost broke an arena record at a jackpot.

"We were like, 'Oh my God! This is so cool!' Then at Bonifay (Florida), he slipped and almost wiped out. Then he wouldn't work good anymore," she explained.

Carrington French suffered through more bad runs at the next three pro rodeos and the NBHA World Finals.

"I was almost wishing I hadn't entered Circuit Finals," she said. "This is going to be bad!"

A trip to the vet found some issues with his hindquarters and a shoeing change was made. While he was back in the 1D at their next two jackpots, Carrington French knew something still wasn't right.

"I came home racking-my-brain frustrated," she said. "I meditated on it and I prayed on it. It's like 'He's hurt! You're missing the boat!' I called a friend of mine and asked her who was her chiropractor."

Carrington French contacted Kelli Jo Hulsey late on Sunday night and was at her house the next morning to have Vader adjusted.

"He was a mess!" she said. "He was out everywhere!"

Afraid that a practice run would undo everything, Carrington French trotted Vader through the pattern at morning practice at the Circuit Finals and prayed for the best.

"I felt like the widow," she explained. "I said, 'Lord, I have nothing. I'm going to the circuit finals against all these tough girls and all I have is Vader. These people have Titans—the horses that got them there. What is our plan?'"

His plan was a first round win in 15.12.

"I've been to five First Frontier Circuit Finals. This was the ninth Southeastern Circuit Finals. I won a round at the First Frontier Circuit Finals in the 1990s and I didn't win another round until 2019.

We won a round last year. Then Vader pops up and wins a round like it's a piece of cake! How could that be?" she questioned. Carrington French's storybook Finals continued with a 14.88 to place second in the next round.

"We were like, 'Oh my God! Is this for real?'" she said.

To keep her focus, Carrington French was trying to avoid all figuring until her last run was over. Except her husband had to tell her she moved to the lead in year-end circuit standings as well as the aggregate before her final run.

Her one focus for the third round was to be clean.

"Going to the third (barrel), it popped in my head—Don't hit the third! I didn't ride very good. He was last on the ground and no one had really clocked being last on the ground. It was deep. I did kind of ride by the third a little bit and got caught in the ground a little bit. He didn't have the best third."

Their 15.00 didn't place but it did secure the aggregate and year-end titles. The Circuit Finals victory was worth $8,116 and puts her seventh in the 2022 WPRA World Standings.

"It was all God for sure!" she said, who wanted to thank her husband Rob, her farrier Joe Tucker and her "angel" chiropractor Kelli Jo Hulsey. "He just filled it up!"

BryAnna Haluptzok & Mr Cool Eddie Capture Great Lakes Circuit Finals Championship

by Tanya Randall

A stellar Great Lakes Circuit Finals vaulted BryAnna Haluptzok to No. 1 in the 2022 WPRA World Standings. The Tenbrink, Minnesota, barrel racer and her 6-year-old gelding Mr Cool Eddie nearly swept the North American Championship Rodeo, which hosted the circuit finals November 11-13 in Louisville, Kentucky. They collected $9,506 for the Circuit Finals Championship and now lead the WPRA with $12,948 won in the first two months of the 2022 season.

"It was a really fun circuit finals," said Haluptzok. "My mom and dad got to be there with me. It was definitely one to remember!" Haluptzok, who was making her second circuit finals appearance, has two talented horses. Her main mount is the Dash For Perks mare Perks Pazazz ("Betty"), but it was her newest mount Eddie that got the call for the circuit finals.

"That was a really hard decision for me," said Haluptzok. "Betty has been my main horse for two years now. She's who I've won a couple of big rodeos on and has been running really good. She won me $3,000 at a couple of Texas rodeos I went to. She was running phenomenal.

"The Circuit Finals in Louisville is known for not having the greatest ground. It also has concrete walls and the barrels are kind of close. She's a lot harder to keep the barrels up on than Eddie. I went 12th in the standings so obviously I had no chance at winning the year-end, so I knew I had to win the average.

"I made the decision to ride my 6-year-old Eddie, who just started rodeo this year. He's been really consistent for me. He's been really good at not cheating me and keeping up the barrels so I decided to ride him. I thought he'd handle the sketchy ground. He handled everything way better than I expected and ran phenomenal." Haluptzok and Eddie turned in the fastest time of the circuit finals, a 15.32, to win the opening round.

"The first night I was a little nervous," she admitted. "I was last on the ground. They did drag after six, which I was really grateful for. I knew I had to sit up straight, ride to my spots and let him work. I sent him in there a little harder than I usually do and he went a stride or two past it, but I know he's really fast—he's probably the fastest horse I've ever rode—so I didn't let it get in my head. I was like, 'Just keep going!' He had a beautiful second and third barrel. He clocked amazing!"

Their second run was just .05 slower, a 15.37. Haluptzok actually split the second round victory with her cousin, newly crowned Great Lakes Circuit Rookie Champion Austyn Toby.

"That was pretty fun for both of us," she said. "That run I was a little more confident in him. We aced our first barrel and aced our second barrel. The third barrel, I leaned and I know I can't. He bowed off the third really bad, but he shocked me again!"

Haluptzok and Eddie were second in the third round with a 15.43.

"The third night I was a little nervous because I was sitting so good in the average and I wanted to make it to the NFR Open in Colorado," she said. "I was like just go to your spots and don't worry about winning anything. He listened to me really well. We had a good first barrel and a good second barrel. He got a little ratey on me at the third and I had push him extra hard to get him by it the third night, but we squeezed by it!"

Haluptzok purchased Eddie earlier this year from the McKinney family of Carbondale, Illinois. The Eddie Stinson gelding was bred by Rick McKinney and is out of Driftin Cool, a mare his father Bob McKinney raised by Driftinwinner. Eddie was trained and ridden by Elaina McKinney.

"I was looking for a backup horse for Betty for a little over a year now," Haluptzok explained. "I saw she sold one of her other good horses, so I was like, 'Hey, do you have anything else for sale?' She said she was 'maybe' thinking about selling this one. I'd never seen any videos of him or anything but we drove down there and tried him out."

Eddie had never run outside, much less at a rodeo, when Haluptzok started running him.

"I was just expecting to season him this summer," she said. "I wasn't expecting to win anything on him really and he went right to running outdoors. His second rodeo he placed fifth and kept winning from there. He's been a big blessing. They did a really good job training him, keeping him consistent and honest."

Haluptzok wanted to thank her vets Josh Harvey, Fonda Melby and Greg Ford for keeping my horses sound; Jane Melby, who has helped her since she was little; Ryan Melby, her farrier, and Elaina McKinney for training Eddie. Most of all, she wanted to thank God—"My Lord and savior, for letting me do this and allowing me to follow my dreams."

The Great Lakes Circuit Year End Championship was captured by Cricket Gintner on her Mom's (Tammy Whyte) Dash Ta Fame gelding, Dial A Little Fame. The team won $24,651 through the 2021 circuit season and will join Haluptzok at the NFR Open in Colorado.

Franklin & Godaddi Bank at Cowgirl Gathering

For the second year in a row, the biggest one day barrel race in Texas was The Cowgirl Gathering at Cowtown Coliseum in Fort Worth, TX. This year's event attracted 905 entries including many of the top barrel racing teams in the country. With a smoking 13.714; Godaddi and Shae Franklin topped the 2021 edition of The Cowgirl Gathering for a whopping $6,365 payday. We caught up with Franklin to ask her a few questions about her big win.

BRR: You had an amazing run; winning over 905 entries? Walk us through your run and what it felt like running a 13.7 in Cowtown?

Franklin: The run felt smooth! I wanted to go up the alley as far as I could because the first barrel is a little tricky there. I knew after he turned it well just to drive straight to my spots and NOT look at the barrel. I think I did that and the rest was straight Go Daddi doing what he does best!

BRR: Can you take us through your warm up routine leading to your winning run?

Franklin: So I am intense at the exhibitions or at a play day or at the Semis...LOL! I am way too serious and all my people hate to be around me at game time. My dad is the winningest high school football coach in Texas so it's bred in me!! I like all my stuff in order, which is out of character for the rest of my life, but in competing it's a must for my clarity. I warm him up in a petska and a tie down and he runs in a o ring combo that was purchased at Joseys 100 years ago. He has a certain backed off feel I like before I go. It's a must for a horse with his motor!! He is very quiet, smart as well as being a ham. He has a LARGE personality and knows he's a real big deal to us!! I know he likes that arena. He ran a .3 at the Semis (The American SemiFinals) I think. So I had rode bad at Waco and decided it was redemption time! I don't go much at all because my life is my daughter and family so when I do get to go I need to execute. No excuse for not executing on a horse like him!! He warmed up quiet and I knew he would perform if I stayed out of his way.

BRR: Together you and Go Daddi seem to win all the time together.

Franklin: What are the keys to your success & consistency as a team? I loved Go Daddi from the second I picked him up from Bo (Bo Hill) at OKC! He was a weanling and was super smart! He broke and trained easy. He is my style 100 percent! Dustin Angelle took him to the futurities. We both thought he was a winner! He won a little bit but actually matured a little later. Huge creds to Dustin!! He's a big part of this journey on Go Daddi!! Our key to success is his routine. He pretty much has a schedule he lives on at the ranch and I know him so well I can tell when I ride him if something isn't right physically. He is confident so his mind is usually great.

BRR: What qualities make him such a special horse?

Franklin: Go Daddi is special no doubt. He is a gift from God to me. I have had other winners but at this point in my life I know what he is and how he showed up! It was not by chance!

BRR: What are your plans for yourself and Godaddi moving forward for the rest of 2021 and 2022?

Franklin: I plan to go to some qualifiers (for The American) that are left and let the chips fall where they may. I got to experience the Semis last year and it was so fun! I would like to somehow maybe try to make the NFR someday. It's the only thing I have set out to do that I haven't done. Steele (my daughter) showed up about the time I was attempting that!! Lol! Either way I am enjoying my horse and whatever happens does. I cherish every single run and honestly just the time I spend with Go Daddi. He is a lot of fun!

BRR: What is the last thing that goes through your mind or you tell yourself right before you run down the alley?

SADDLE: Tiedown

SADDLE: Stingray Saddle (thanks to Dena Kirkpatrick & Jeye Johnson!)

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

FEED: Purina Equine Senior & Impact

HAY: Alfalfa & Grass and turned out daily on grass

SUPPLEMENTS: OE Game Changer & Ultimate Oil

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: He is an easy easy keeper so we pony him a lot and the walker every day. I ride him a couple of days a week and I'll do a drill or two on the pattern a day or so before we are entered.

THANK YOUS: I use Josh Harvey and Outlaw Equine and have I guess since the beginning of Outlaw. I'm telling my age on Josh and !! We now have a branch here and Dr. Jaci is Go Daddis vet. She knows him about as well as I do and I cannot thank her enough for all she does. Dr. Eric Metteauer also helps us out. I have a team of people that help me. I have my friends/helpers at the barn and Callie Sattler has been with me I guess the longest now and loves Go Daddi too!! Thank you to my voice of reason on all my horses and best friend Keili Paschal. My brother Dr. David Jones and my Fiancé Josh Massengale are always in my corner as well. Steele (my daughter) is my biggest critic and will screen shot my head flying back at a barrel but she knows what it takes to win and will tell me. My mom and dad are priceless! From winning as a kid up until now they are always there. My uncle as well! I am a HUGE family person and they all are supportive.

SPONSORS: Outlaw Equine, OE Nutraceuticals, Preferred Contractors, B's Miracle Poultry, Dustin Angelle, JBJ Ranch and Rusty Spur Ranch Diggs

Franklin: The last thing that goes through my mind is that nothing at this split second matters but me and my job at hand. The rest of the world can hang on a second while I do what I need to do to. We have distractions that cannot be there in order to do our best! Basically, I clear my mind and do what I do instinctively and focus on the few things that are key for him.

BRB: What are 3 non horse related things you must have when you head to a barrel race or rodeo?

Franklin: Three non horse related things I must have are my clothes and jewelry! I am a real fashion diva or at least I like to think so ohhh and my wiener dog LuLu!!

Dona Kay Rule and High Valor Turn In Fastest Time at WPRA World Finals

If Sunday morning at the 2021 WPRA World Finals presented by Nutrena in Waco, Texas, was any indication of how ready Dona Kay Rule and High Valor are for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo next month, they passed the test with flying colors.

During the final round of the WPRA Card Holder Race at EXTRACO Event Center, Valor laid down the fastest time of the entire weekend stopping the clock in 15.457 seconds to capture the round and average title. Rule added another $1,770 for the round win and $3,584 for the average to her 2022 WPRA ProRodeo World Standings. Valor raced against many of the same horses that will be running down the alleyway at the Thomas and Mack in just a few short weeks including Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Ima Famous Babe, who finished second in the final round in a time of 15.626; Emma Charleston and Makana, a horse Stevi Hillman plans to have in her arsenal in Las Vegas, were sixth in a time of 15.873 and Jordon Briggs and Famous Lil Jet, finished eighth in the round at 15.901.

Rule of Minco, Oklahoma, entered the final round third in the average behind Jimmie Smith and Jordon Briggs but after saving their best run for the final day, Rule and High Valor took home the average title with a total time of 47.043 on three runs.

Laura Mote, daughter of four-time PRCA World Champion Bareback Rider Bobby Mote, turned 18 in July and bought her WPRA permit the end of August. Competing this weekend in the WPRA permit only race, Mote blasted through the cloverleaf pattern aboard Reb Hot Redbull winning two rounds en route to the average title. She topped the leaderboard in the second round in a time of 15.811 seconds and returned for the final round also turning in the top time with a 15.913. She easily won the average with a three run total of 47.955 seconds. Mote will now turn her attention to her next goal of winning the 2022 WPRA Rookie of the Year title.

Complete coverage of the 2021 WPRA World Finals will be in the January WPRA News issue.

South Dakota Governor Kristi Noem will be keynote speaker at 2021 PRCA Convention

South Dakota Governor Kristi Noem will be the keynote speaker at the 2021 PRCA Convention in Las Vegas.

The governor will address convention attendees at the Grand Ballroom at the South Point Hotel and Casino, Wednesday, Dec. 1, at 9 a.m. (PT).

The gathering of PRCA members precedes the biggest event on ProRodeo's annual calendar, the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo presented by Teton Ridge at the Thomas & Mack Center in Vegas.

"We are honored Governor Noem will keynote our convention," said Tom Glause, chief executive officer of the PRCA. "She appreciates the work ethic of our cowboys and what they represent. We couldn't have a better keynote speaker."

The theme for this year's convention is Back in the Saddle Again, and Governor Noem will address attendees on the challenges that she has witnessed in her career and the positive change she is bringing to her community.

In 2010, after serving in the South Dakota legislature for several years, Noem was elected to serve as South Dakota's lone member of the U.S. House of Representatives.

In 2018, with the platform of protecting South Dakotans against tax increases, government growth, federal intrusion, and government secrecy, she was elected as South Dakota's first-ever female governor.

Noem is a wife, a mother, and a lifelong rancher, farmer, and small business owner. She and her husband, Bryon, have three children, Cassidy, Kennedy, and Booker.

Convention attendees will discuss what enabled ProRodeo to overcome the unexpected challenges of the 2021 season and the changes facing professional sports in the years ahead.

As in prior years, the convention will feature the State of the PRCA address from Glause as well as the PRCA Member Tradeshow.

The PRCA National Convention is the annual meeting of the organization's members. It is the gathering to review the achievements of the prior year and lay out new strategic areas of focus for the year ahead. The evenings are highlighted with fan favorites: the 14th annual Wrangler Gold Buckle Gala on Nov. 29 honoring Spearfish, S.D., native and ProRodeo Hall of Fame saddle bronc rider Clint Johnson, the 2021 Legend of ProRodeo; the PRCA Welcome Reception and the PRCA Annual Awards Banquet to recognize the extraordinary achievements of PRCA members.

The 2021 PRCA National Convention will take place at the South Point. Registration is open for PRCA members and their guests at www.prcaconvention.com

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Sayings. Quips and quotes. My mother-in-law used to say, "Well, they can't eat me!" She mostly said this about the IRS!! She was fearless. LOL! Ever said, "Well, what are they going to do? Take away my birthday?"

Those statements are bold and in your face! It's a person standing up for a cause! Who in the Bible stood up? David for one. Remember when Goliath was taunting the children of Israel?

Take a few minutes and read I Samuel 17. It is the glorious account of a young man killing a giant. In verse 29 David says, "Is there not a cause?" Then in verses 45-47, David declared that he came to the giant in the name of the Lord. And he further went on to state just exactly what he was going to do to Goliath with the help of God. And he did it!

What challenge are you facing? Well, with God's help, you can overcome any problem/giant in your life. In these times we live in, we can have the confidence that our good God will lead the fight.

Verse 47 says in part, "the battle is the Lord's and He will give Goliath (the problem) into their hands." We declare together that whatever our problem is this week, it's a defeated foe! Glory!
