Csabay Crowned CFR Champion

By Hope Sickler

Tabor, Alberta is home to this year's Canadian Finals Champion Barrel Racer Nancy Csabay and her "wicked" partner in crime Little Miss Wicked. Csabay finished out the season on top after wrapping it up in Edmonton at the Canadian Finals Rodeo held last week. Little Miss Wicked, known around the barn as "Wicked" was her main mount all year, and for years past, and helped her achieve this lifelong goal of winning the highly prestigious title.

"Wicked" is an 11-year-old sorrel mare that stands roughly 15.1 hands and is by Terribly Wicked and out of Like An Effort. Csabay raised and trained the mare and still owns her mother who has had 10 foals including "Wicked". Csabay went to the futurities and derbies on "Wicked" and had success at those before switching her over to the rodeo world.

"Wicked" won at the futurity and derby level before I switched her over to the rodeos. I went to a handful of rodeos on her when she was 7 but didn't do as well as I had hoped we would. I was pretty rusty because I had taken some time off to have my daughter but we decided to give it a go the next year and we have made the CFR every year since she was 8," explained Csabay.

Csabay started this season strong placing at nearly everything she entered as well as some of the large tour rodeos such as Ponoka and Strathmore.

"Placing at those big tour rodeos really helped us out. It was also nice this year because it was a dry year for us. Summer is usually pretty wet but this year it was dry. When it rains and it is muddy, I tend to not enter. I am a fair weather barrel racer; but thankfully this year was great and we hardly ever had to deal with much mud." Going into Edmonton, Csabay had her game plan in mind and wanted to keep her mind clear and confident for the six rounds.

"I have really worked on my mental game and I believe that has helped me out a bunch. I think everyone needs to be more confident in themselves and their horses and they will see a big change in their performance. It has definitely helped me and I owe a lot of it to my brother who is a health practitioner. He has really give me the mental boost that I needed," Csabay said.

Placing in all six rounds, Csabay and "Wicked" knocked it out of the park.

"She ("Wicked") ran great all week. Our first run we got hung up running into the arena and got up past the first a little but after that, our runs were all pretty much the same. She was very consistent and gave me everything she had. I couldn't have been more pleased with her."

Being crowned the Canadian Finals Rodeo Champion Barrel Racer sent a wave of emotions through Csabay including happiness, pride and a little sadness.

"I am so proud of "Wicked" and what she has accomplished. I truly believe that it is 95% horse and 5% rider and all I have to do is stay on and get out of her way. The win was also a little sad but yet heart-warming because my dad was the all-around champion back in 1970 and he and my mom have passed away. I knew at that moment when I won that they were sitting up there smiling down with pride and great joy," explained Csabay.

Csabay won not only one but four very prestigious awards including

Canadian Champion, Season Leader, Average Winner and Top Gun, which she was awarded due to winning the most money out of all the contestants at the CFR. In addition, "Wicked" was awarded Barrel Horse With The Most Heart.

"This year has been a blessing and I am so blessed with such an amazing horse with such a big heart and a very supportive family, friends and sponsors. Without them, I would not be able to do any of this. I am forever grateful!"

Lutjen Sweeps JB Quarter Horse Futurity

By Hope Sickler

Waco, Texas has been a lucky place for standout futurity trainer Kelsey Lutjen in the last few weeks. She competed at the WPRA Finals a few weeks ago where she had great success, then made another trip to the Extraco Center this past weekend for the JB Quarter Horse Futurity where she swept the extremely tough field of competition to take home the futurity championship aboard 5-year-old TS Hayday Returns owned by Tom and Vickie Stockton. The gritty little mare by PC Frenchmans Hayday and out of Fair Returns has only been under the superior guidance of Lutjen for half the season but that didn't keep them from winning some of the toughest futurities including this past weekend's JB Quarter Horse Futurity.

"She has been an extremely fun mare to pilot. She absolutely loves her job and makes my job easy and a lot of fun," said Lutjen. Going into the first round of the futurity, Lutjen just wanted to make a smooth run that would qualify them to the finals. However, "Hayday" had other ideas of her own.

"Her first run is usually her slowest so when she went in there and laid down a 14.9, I was not only excited but also a little scared. I wanted her to save that good run for the finals and just get us qualified but she obviously had other ideas," laughed Lutjen.

Running in that same arena only a couple weeks prior, Lutjen knew the mare would have a handle on the surroundings and the ground.

"She was super confident in that pen because we were just at the WPRA Finals a couple weeks ago. She felt like a super solid horse and worked absolutely phenomenal. She is a very confident mare so as long as I sit in the middle of her and ride to my spot, she will get the rest done."

Lutjen prepares for her runs by always using her Revitavet on

"Hayday" and says it makes a huge difference in the way that she performs. She also regularly gets her worked on by her chiropractor Weston Longbrake and always has a FLAIR Equine Nasal Strip on "Hayday's" nose as well.

"My preparation really seems to work for her because I have noticed a huge difference in the way that she performs when she gets it all done. Those are my must-haves for preparing for my runs.

I also try to not get too nervous, especially on these young horses, and just trust in my training and preparation. Positive thinking is key and I always learn something every run," explained Lutjen. Lutjen had big goals going into the weekend but didn't expect to win both go rounds with such a tough field of riders and horses entered.

"Hayday" was there to win and I think she must have known that it was her last futurity! I always make sure that she is feeling as good as she possibly can and I never work her on the barrels at home. When she is bucking and kicking, I know that she is about to lay down a run. She has a very outgoing personality so keeping her on her toes is pretty easy on my part."

Going into the final round, Lutjen stayed relaxed and kept her mind clear.

"She worked absolutely outstanding in the final round. I really could have not asked for a better run."

Clocking the fastest time of the futurity with a 14.882, Lutjen won the final round and was crowned the 2015 JB Quarter Horse's Futurity Champion. Pocketing close to $13,000 for the weekend, along with a blanket, 2 buckles and a few other goodies, Lutjen made the long trek back to Arizona thankful for the gritty yellow mare, her owners, her sponsors and everyone else who makes this all possible!

Briggs Wins Consolation Round aboard Frenchmans Future

Jordon Briggs and 4-year-old Frenchmans Future topped the tough field in the futurity consolation round when they rounded the cloverleaf pattern in 15.221-seconds.

"Stoli" is a fireball that loves to run barrels. She is extremely gritty and I am always having people tell me that when she runs, they cannot tell she has ears because she always has them pinned back,” laughed Briggs.

The sorrel fireball has already won over $147,000 just this year which is very impressive in itself and Briggs notes that “Stoli” has been the best futurity horse that she has trained thus far in her very successful career.

“She didn’t love that pen at the WPRA Finals so I didn’t have a lot of confidence going into the first round of the JB Quarter Horse Futurity and it definitely showed. I didn’t ride very well and hit the second barrel. I was mad at myself for that and took it out in the consolation round where I rode much more confident.”

Briggs says the key to keeping the confidence in her horses along with herself is not to dwell on their faults and do fun things during the week.

“I pasture ride a lot, do poles and work cows and rope on all the barrel horses. We work on things while doing other stuff so they don’t get drilled on the pattern. I try to work their faults without them knowing it! I am also a huge believer in letting them be horses. They are all out in the pastures with their friends grazing and getting days off,” added Briggs.

Briggs will finish up the season at the BFA in just a few short weeks and will start all over for next year with three more up and coming superstars.

Taci Bettis & Bogie Is A Smash Take Two AQHA World Titles

By Tanya Randall

Taci Bettis of Round Top, Texas, had a week to remember at the AQHA World Show in Oklahoma City, winning both the Senior Barrel Racing and Amateur Barrel Racing world championships with her 7-year-old gelding Bogie Is A Smash.

"This win is extra special because not only is it the first time ever for me to win the seniors or the amateur, but it's been a rough few weeks for my family after losing my husband's grandfather. Smash knew just what we needed; he made the wins extra special, and I know Pop is so happy for us."

Bettis, 24, qualified for the Senior Barrel Racing Finals after placing ninth in the prelims.

"He was snappy around his first barrel and he really took off," said Bettis of her Senior Finals run. "He was really snappy around the second barrel. I had to lift my leg, and I lost my stirrup. On my way home, I went to start whipping and I started sliding out the saddle. I about fell off...and you can see it in the video! I just knew right there I blew it, but it worked out."

The Amateur barrel racing went much smoother.

"I just wanted to stay clean," she said after turning in the fastest time in the Amateur prelims. "I was thinking four clean runs would be great. I never would have guessed that I would win it. I had practiced the night before I kept him out at the second, so he wouldn't drag it over leaving it. During my run he stayed out there and was a little wide, but it worked out."

Bred by Sid and Randi Rae Britt, Smash is by former Columbia River Circuit Champion Bogie Biankus out of Bogies Devine Smash, by Remember Smash. Multiple National Finals rodeo qualifier Tammy Fischer had purchased the 2008 gelding as a 3-year-old, and Bettis purchased him from Fischer two years ago.

"He had only been to two jackpots when I bought him," recalled

Bettis, who has been riding with Fischer for at least 10 years. "I had been riding him for her when she left for the summer, and I told her she needed to let me buy him. She told me no and said she really liked him. She ended up selling him to me and that's the best thing that's ever happened. He's loved at our home."

Bettis grew up competing, but with a single mom trying to pay the way, it was tough. She persevered with the help of her mother Lupe Zepeda, brother B.J. Whitworth, husband Jeremy and good friend and mentor Tammy Fischer, all of whom she offered her deepest thanks.

"I've been riding since I was 3," she said. "It took everybody for me to be able to be going. With just my mom, it was hard because it's a very expensive hobby. She always took an extra job or missed out so I could go. It's all I ever wanted to do. Without my family, I wouldn't be where I am today."

Her mother eloquently posted her "Rags to Riches" story in a Facebook post. Lupe wrote:

"My cup truly does runneth over...Not only did I spend a whole week of quality mother/daughter time...But to have witness Taci, bring home two AQHA World Championships is beyond... Taci's journey started at a real young age. The day she turned 3, we celebrated with a birthday party and I had her entered at her first Youth Rodeo that night. (Leadline)

After a few years we noticed her determination & want to win. It takes a team to do this, so we formed one. With lack of funds in our house hold when she was growing up, her brother would find an awesome broke down horse, I would buy him, BJ would then put the horse back together, coach her and she did the rest. It's not easy or cheap to put a horse back together, so BJ as well as myself would take on extra jobs to be able to keep her and her horses going. This went on for years and years.

Three years ago she married the most wonderful and supportive guy in the world. We couldn't have hand-picked a more perfect guy for her! He followed into our footsteps and is now doing the same thing for her. Still today it takes a team and we're all in there for her including Tammy Fischer!

With Smash in her barn, everything that Bettis has worked for over the years started to come to fruition.

"He's been fabulous," Bettis said. "He shocks me more and more with what he can do. He's not the friendliest horse to be around. He's the quirkiest horse I've ever been around. He doesn't like to be petted on or loved on. He does his own thing."

Jennifer Sharp & Ima Perky Calfee Crowned AQHA Jr Barrel Racing World Champions

By Tanya Randall

Montgomery, Texas, barrel horse trainer Jennifer Sharp has only made two trips to the AQHA World Show in Oklahoma City, but she's made both of them count. She won the Senior Barrel Racing World Championship for Allene Tatom with Slick By Design. This year, Sharp topped the Junior Barrel Racing with Holly Calfee's homebred 5-year-old mare Ima Perky Calfee ("Rockstar").

The daughter of the late leading barrel horse sire Dash For Perks out of the Easy Request mare, Ima Cecil, was two years in the making just to get her on this earth. She started her barrel racing career under the saddle of Calfee's daughter Tammy.

"I started riding her in June of her futurity year," said Sharp, who has been riding barrel horses for Calfee since 2007 when she was still in high school. "When I got her she was going really good. The JB Futurity last year was the first place that we placed well. At the BFA, she did really good. She kind of came into her own all at once."

In the preliminaries, Sharp nearly hit the first barrel and was the last qualifier for the finals.

"It was going down and I reached down to set it back up," she recalled. "We didn't know if we were going to make the short round. It was kind of a 'hold your breath until the very last minute.'" They posted a 16.058 to win the Finals and the World Championship, by 3/10ths.

"I knew with setting that barrel up I had a lot of time I could make up," she said. "We were hoping that I was going to be fast, and I was really fast."

"Rockstar was the first horse out in the finals. After I ran her I had to sweat it out for quite a while."

Sharp had also qualified Calfee's 4-year-old stallion KR Famous Tequilla (Dash Ta Fame out of Tequikillya, by Chicks Beduino) to the junior finals.

"I still had him to run at 13, so that kind of kept me calm," she noted. "I was sitting first and second until Pete (Oen and Hip Swinging Gypsy). He was the very last runner and bumped me to third."

Next up for Sharp and Rockstar is the BFA World Championship Derby back in Oklahoma City. The mare will likely see more rodeo action next year as well.

"I hauled her to three pro rodeos this past fall and she placed at all three," Sharp said. "She had never been to a rodeo before. We plan on going with her a little bit more this spring. We think she's going to handle it very well."

Sharp wanted to thank her extremely supportive owner, Calfee, for "allowing me to ride these great horses" and her husband, Robbie, "for dealing with all of us, hauling us and working with the barrel horses. I definitely couldn't do it without him."

Skipworth and Perfect Definition Give Flawless Performance

A tough qualifier for The American was held this past weekend in Fletcher, NC at the No Bull Tour race. Alexandria Skipworth and her 14 year old gelding, Perfect Definition topped the field with a 13.948. Skipworth was kind enough to take the time to answer a few questions for this week's issue about her impressive run.

BRR: Tell us a little about your horse and his history.

Skipworth: I got him from North Carolina about 6 years ago. When I first got him I struggled with the first barrel and it took me over a year to get with him. He is for sure, a once in a lifetime horse and he tries so hard for me every time he runs.

BRR: Could you walk us through your run?

Skipworth: He ran by the first barrel a little bit the first day so I knew we had to get our first barrel better in The American (qualifier). The first time I ran (in The American qualifier), my horse felt really good and I felt like he was making a great run. As soon as I looked up at the clock, the timer started again, so I knew the timer had messed up. My heart was broken because I knew he just gave it his all and made an awesome run. I had to turn around and run again about an hour later so I was kind of psyched out. I didn't know how we would do in the second run but I knew I didn't have a choice. A friend of mine, Jamie Cagle, came down before I ran and gave me some helpful words. When it was my turn, I just went in there and tried the best I could and looked up at the time and realized he had just run the fastest time! It was the best moment of my life. It made it even better when I realized how many people were supporting me through the whole thing. I love the barrel racing world. People are always kind and happy for you when you have a good run and that's really what it's all about!

BRR: Could you share a little about your training & riding style? What did you do to get your horse ready for this weekend's win?

How will you prepare for the Semi-Finals?

Skipworth: I just tried to focus on keeping my horse soft and flexible. I mostly did a lot of long trotting to get him prepared for the weekend. I plan to stick to my routine to get him ready for The (American) Semi-Finals.

Foutch, Knauf Earn RAM Berths at Great Lakes Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

When Natalie Foutch of Eldora, Iowa, left Kissimmee, Fla., last year, she had one goal—to make a return trip to the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in 2015. After a year of dedication to her circuit, a disappointing circuit finals left the fruition of that goal in doubt and she didn't know if she'd be returning to Florida until she called home for the night and talked to her 12-year-old son Drake.

"He read me the Disney itinerary; he didn't even care about the RAM Finals. I about started crying I was laughing so hard!" said Foutch. Her husband PJ had been keeping track after each performance and knew she had the title secured before she did.

After flirting with Top 15 for several years, and nearly making it to Las Vegas in 2013, Foutch and her 12-year-old gelding Maggies Moon Fire ("Orville") stayed a lot closer to home in 2015.

"I pretty much stayed in my circuit this year," she said. "I only went to 22 rodeos. We had a lot of rain up here this summer, so I didn't get to run at three of them. I won Madison, Wis., Granite Falls, Minn., and Mitchell, S.D. I was pretty happy about that. I just stayed closer home and worked on getting back to Kissimmee." Less travel was just what both she and Orville (VF Moon Fire x Maggies Bay (TB), by Chromite) needed.

"Orville was more rested this year and fresh," she said. "I was better. And, I got to be with my boys. It was just way better."

Foutch, who is sponsored by SeaBuck 7, Prime Performance Nutrition, ColdFlex, Polyglycan, Composting Concepts, Ritchie Waterers, Iowa River Ranch, plans on sticking to this new game plan in 2016.

"I'm not craving it, but I'm sure about the time Fort Worth rolls around I'll start getting antsy," she said. "I'd like to go back to San Antonio and San Angelo. He likes those pens. I really want to concentrate on my circuit and getting back to the All American Finals. If I have a good winter and things go well at Kissimmee, I'll crack out. Right now, I'm just kind of one rodeo at a time."

For Kristine Knauf, her best laid plans also changed in 2015 when her good horse Sonic Moonfire (Bacardi) got hurt after a successful trip to Texas last fall. Luckily, she picked up a backup horse at last year's circuit finals—French Bogie On Deck ("Apollo")—who jumped to fill some really big shoes rather quickly.

"I had been looking at him for quite some time," said Knauf,

The 9-year-old gelding by Frenchmans Bogie out of Last Great Skip, by Image Of Greatness, carried the farrier from Chilton, Wis., to the Great Lake Circuit Finals Championship.

"In the first round, I was last out before they raked and we had some ground trouble from the cross-traffic of the right-handed horses," she said. "The second night, I had a lot more confidence because I knew we would be right after a rake. He ended up getting second. The third night, I knew I was sitting good in the average, so I wanted to have a clean run. There were a lot of tough girls and I

Mosley Marches to the Win at the Southeastern Circuit Finals

By Hope Sickler

Palm City, Florida cowgirl and lifetime barrel racer Jennifer Mosley was able to check two things off her bucket list this past weekend in Davie, Florida at the Southeastern Circuit Finals. She and her 13-year-old gelding, Nu Doc Playboy not only made their first appearance at the Southeastern Circuit Finals this season but left Davie as the 2015 Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo Year End Champion Barrel Racer.

"I am so blessed and grateful for the year that I have had. We have overcome some struggles to get to where we are today so it definitely makes this win and this year that much sweeter," explained Mosley.

Mosley has had 13-year-old foundation bred "Rooster" since he was 4-years-old and did all the training and the barrel work herself. And although Mosley and "Rooster" are fairly new to the rodeo world, they already have a very impressive resume filled with an impressive array of titles including NBHA Florida District 3 1D Championship, Tour of Champions 1D Championship and a clean sweep at the 4D Open NBHA Presidents Cup Super Show in 2013 where she was featured on the cover of Barrel Horse News for her amazing accomplishment.

"Rooster" is just one of those special horses. He is very proud and knows that he is the king around our place. He wants everything to be all about him but he is incredibly sweet. He would never hurt a fly."

In 2013, Mosley and "Rooster" experienced a heartbreaking and unexpected halt to their barrel racing career when "Rooster" tore a check ligament and had to have a full year off.

"It was hard but I knew that things would work out the way that they were supposed to and I knew that a year off would be good for "Rooster" anyways. We started back last fall and he came back so incredibly strong, I couldn't believe it," Mosley said.

Battling until the very end, coming into the circuit finals, Mosley knew that she had to stay clean and consistent and place in every round if she wanted to stay ahead of good friend Layna Kight who was hot on her heels sitting in second.

"It was do or die and it was all work up until the very last run. We had a good run in the first round but he didn't fire near as hard as he can and we ended up splitting fourth with a 15.14 in the round with Jill Tanner and Kristin Hanchey."

In the second round, Mosley was last out on the drag and although "Rooster" made a much faster run, he was a little slower than he was in the first round but they were still able to pull a check with their 15.23-second run.

knew I needed to have a good, fast clean run to make it to Florida. I get a little nervous so I tried not to think about that much and tried to think of it as a one-run kind of deal. I had the fastest time of the weekend, won the round and won the average. It was a nice weekend."

Like Foutch, Knauf is cautiously optimistic about her 2016 hauling plans.

"My plans have changed quite a bit," she said. "I'm trying to take things as they come. I didn't expect things to have gone as well as they have, but I'm thrilled that they are. I'm thinking about heading down to Texas for Fort Worth and maybe going to Denver. If the horses are running good, I'll keep going."

Placing in all three rounds, Mosley finished third in the average and claimed the year end championship by $102.32 ahead of veteran barrel racer Layna Kight.

"It truly was a battle to the very end. Layna is such a great friend of mine and we had a great time battling it out until the end. I am very excited for the Ram National Circuit Finals. We know that arena like the back of our hand and "Rooster" loves everything about it so I am very anxious to see what we get done there," said Mosley. Swint Sweeps the Average

Lithia, Florida rising star Megan Swint and her extremely talented 11-year-old mare Bar Bee Steeling Sue aka "Sissy" made three outstanding runs that put them in the number one spot in the average at the Southeastern Circuit Finals when it was all said and done.

With a total time on three of 45.19-seconds, Swint edged out Ocala cow-girl, Layna Kight, who finished second in the average and second in the year end.

"We had a really good year and finished 23rd in the world. I wasn't sure if I would make the circuit finals being gone all summer but I had won quite a bit in the circuit in the first part of the year so that really helped a bunch. This was my third trip to the Southeastern Circuit Finals and this will be my first trip to the Ram National Circuit Finals," explained Swint.

Riding one of the most consistent horses on the trail, Swint credits "Sissy" for such a successful year.

"Sissy" is very consistent and she loves her job and loves me. She tries super hard to please me and she has been consistent since the day that I started her on the pattern. She always gives me 200% every single run. I am very lucky to have her as my partner in the arena."

Headin' For Home

I Corinthians 13:4-8 are the LOVE verses in the Bible. It says, "Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails."

And I John 4:16 says in part, that God is love. So if we go back and read I Cor. 13:-4-8 and think about Him it will pretty much blow up the lie that God is mad at us. He's not! But it would be to our advantage to live our lives imitating Him and practicing that kind of love.

I don't always want to. Sometimes I just want to ram someone! Like at Wal-Mart a few weeks ago. My friend, Sandy, and I were getting supplies for dinner at the church, and my MO is "always in a hurry." It's Saturday. There were a LOT of people there. There were the whole families coming in for a gallon of milk...kids screaming everywhere...people visiting their friends in every aisle, blocking the way. Phone talkers and texters. You can see this can't you?

And then there are the husbands that trail behind their wives...strolling.

We had gotten tapped off with this couple just wrong... them coming, us going (or vice versa). She was doing a fair job of moving right along. He was strolling. After about the 4th aisle that I had to go around him, I accidentally bumped into him when he stopped without any brake lights. I immediately apologized! He slowly turned around and glaring down (he was about 6'4") said, "THAT IS THE THIRD TIME!" The third time? THE THIRD TIME? ARE YOU SERIOUS? GET THE HECK OUT OF THE WAY!

Thank God for the Holy Spirit. He clamped a hand down on my mouth and I didn't say any of that. Wanted to. My friend is over blocking the aisle laughing! Must have been the terrorist look on my face. But love prevailed! God is good!
