Angie Galliher & Cricket Gintner Conquer Great Lakes Circuit

By Tanya Randall

Veterinary technician Angie Galliher of California, Missouri, and radiology technician Cricket Gintner of Eau Clair, Wisconsin, will represent the Great Lakes Circuit at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Florida, next spring.

Galliher and her 10-year-old gelding Holy Coaly Fix ("Ice") topped the Great Lakes Circuit Finals Rodeo, held November 14-16 in Louisville, Kentucky, while Gintner and her 13-year-old gelding Dial A Little Fame ("Jax") wrapped up the year-end championship.

"I'm so excited," said Galliher, who wanted to thank her husband Will, a calf roper, and "awesome" daughter Billi for their support.

THE RUNDOWN w/Angie Galliher

Holy Coaly Fix "Ice" 15.2 hands, 1,200 lbs.

BIT: Short shank Sherry Cervi with a big mouthpiece. "He's really light, but I just have to have a little control in the alley way."

HEADGEAR: Loose tiedown for the alleyway. "I put a tiedown on him this year, just for the alleyway. If it's a long center alleyway, he gets really strong and wants to take off from the back. If it's a side gate or open-mouth gate, he does fine."

SADDLE: Custom Tod Slone

SADDLE PAD: Impact Gel

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice Elite on all four

SHOEING: Sound Horse Technologies Universal Glue-On Cuffs. "He has very thin walls and very prone to getting sore and abscesses." Aluminum rim on front and Safe-Grip shoes on rear with the cuffs. "I started doing that this summer and they made a really big difference. They've done a lot for his confidence."

FEED: Equine Senior

HAY: Brome

SUPPLEMENTS: Pre-Race: Prime Performance Aloe GT and EquiPulmin

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: He loves his chiro. If he ever stops wanting to drop and eat a barrel, I run him by the chiro and instantaneously he'll be good. Several times during the season, I'll have him worked on."

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIME: "I ride out in the pasture and do a lot of long trotting. He's very strong and gives you have 100 percent all the time. I probably don't work barrels on him but three times a year at home."

SPONSORS: Quail Valley Veterinary Hospital, Safe Grip Shoes, Boehringer Ingelheim.

"It's kind of a pipe dream. I think anyone that rodeos and goes to the circuit finals has making (the National Circuit Finals) is in the back of your mind. I try not to put any pressure on myself. I try to take things one run at a time, but it's definitely something I've hoped to make it to. It's kind of just now sinking in that we actually get to go.

"It was an awesome group of girls. I feel very blessed to be the one that came out on top because I truly believe that any of them at any given time could have done it."

Galliher was initially a little tentative on Ice in the first round because the ground was firm and the gelding really likes to use his hindquarters. With more confidence, they split third in the second round on a 15.50 with Shelby Janssen and came back to finish second in the third round with a 15.43 to win the aggregate and pocket $6,111.

"Ice worked well for me," she said. "He's very consistent as far as averages go. In 2017, I was actually second in the average at Louisville. I'm really proud of him."

Bred by Schultz Quarter Horses, Ice is by the late Dash Ta Fame son Holy Bart out of The Big Fix mare Tona Jo Jack Fix. Galliher purchased him as long weanling.

They got their first national win together at the 2015 Bonus

Race Finals when Ice was 6. Although Galliher's first attempt at pro rodeo was hampered by an illness, but she was able to win two amateur rodeo titles that year. She qualified for her first GLCF in 2017 and just missed it in 2018.

"My goal was just to get in and with the number of rodeos that I went to I was very happy with that," said Galliher, who qualified in 12th. "I just wanted to go. It worked out really well for me."

She said being from Missouri means she has to travel pretty far to make her circuit rodeos.

"It's a lot of miles" she said. "I didn't go extremely hard this year. I just hit the closer ones around. I think I went up to Wisconsin one time—Ladysmith, Wisconsin, that's the only one that I went to that far. I kind of just decided to stick with a radius of states right next to me. I'm trying to haul my daughter too, so I'd go to one and then try to come back and haul her to one or two (amateur rodeos). It's just trying to balance between getting enough rodeos in and money won."

THE RUNDOWN w/Kricket Gintner

Dial A Little Fame "Jax" 15.3 hands, 1,200 lbs.

BIT: Lifter with a dog-bone mouthpiece with a loose curb chain

SADDLE: Kelly Kaminski Circle Y

SADDLE PAD: Reinsman

LEG GEAR: FlowBoots and customized back boots to keep him from hitting himself

SHOEING: Steel rims on all four

FEED: Nutrena

HAY: Homegrown alfalfa and brome grass mix

SUPPLEMENTS: DAC

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Equi-Resp with colloidal silver treatments the day before and the day of a run; Back On Track leg wraps before a run.

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIME: "We just work him for his lung capacity. If we've happened to be on bad ground the last time we ran, the day or two before we'd take him to the next show, we tune him a little bit to get him on his backend. If he's run on bad ground for a while, he'll kind of turn on his front end and then when you go to good ground after that, he'll stay running like that when he doesn't really need to."

Gintner and Jax had a great year, having the Great Lakes Circuit Champion locked up before the Finals.

"I feel very blessed and glad that we got through a successful finals," said Gintner, who will be making her second trip to the RAM. "I'm super excited to go back down to Kissimmee. If I can keep Jax feeling good and healthy I feel very confident about everything that's coming up. I'm thankful for all my sponsors and my family, especially Mike and my kids and my mom and dad. It definitely wouldn't be possible without everybody."

The duo also won enough outside the circuit to be sitting 34th in the WPRA World Standings with $38,935.

"In the beginning we were going to try to focus outside the circuit more, to maybe focus on the Top 30," said Gintner, who hauls with her mom, multiple Great Lakes Circuit Champion Tammy Whyte. "Just a couple of weeks into it, it already started to seem long. I had turned out of couple that bigger weekend when there was like three or four in North and South Dakota—Killdeer. Mom was like would it be okay if we just did our circuit rodeos? It was hard to be away from the kids and all that kind of stuff. We changed our focus to just circuit rodeos."

“We did step out of the box just a little bit and went to some that were co-approved for our circuit that we had never been to like Abilene and Bennington, Kansas. So, we did break out of our shell a tiny bit. Otherwise everything was basically the same. We just capitalized on some of the nicer ones that were worth a little bit more.” With two little ones at home—she and husband Mike have a son, Brahm, who is in second grade, and a daughter Morley, who is in Pre-K, Gintner is a self-professed “homebody.”

“Even when (the rodeos are) five, six hours from home, my mom and I tend to drive home each day,” she said. “We try not to be gone for four days, even though for some it would make more sense to do that. The way we work it we tend to make more driving for ourselves, but that’s what I feel more comfortable doing. I’m kind of a homebody even though I’m into the rodeo circuit. We just try to be home as much as we can.”

Her desire to be home is going to have big test this winter as she tries to take advantage of her World Standings position.

“I want to do the once-in-a-lifetime ones in case I don’t get another chance,” said Gintner. “You never know what the future holds. I’m just going to try my best and see what comes.

Adding the weeks that I’m gone is going to be the hard part. We’re going to try our darnedest to make the ones we feel he could capitalize on.”

Sophie Palmore & JL Jamaican Me Rich Pocket $5,869 at Elite Barrelnanza

By Tanya Randall

Sophie Palmore of Kirbyville, Texas, and JL Jamaican Me Rich ("Richie") left the Elite Barrelnanza, held November 14-17 in Waco, Texas, with $5,869 in her pocket and a 1D Average Championship.

The 20-year-old barrel racer and her talented 7-year-old gelding started off their weekend on Friday, running in the $10,000-added TQHA Barrel Sires Incentive Open 4D. They placed third with a 15.909, earning $1,242. Once carried over to Main Race 1 that time earned them $800 for fourth in the 1D.

"He worked very, very good. He's been off since March and that was maybe his fourth or fifth run back. I was just going in there to make a smooth, clean run and he clocked really, really good. I was super proud of that."

Richie injured his hip and stifle at the Patriot back in February.

"We didn't rush his comeback," said Palmore, noting that he had a similar injury right before the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic in 2018. "Josh (Harvey) at Outlaw Equine helped with his comeback. We weren't in any hurry to have him back because of how special he was and we didn't want to reinjure his hip or stifle."

After giving Richie a break on Saturday, they made a smoking run of 15.808 to win Main Race 2 on Sunday and take the $1,500 first-place check in the average as well.

"He made it pretty flawless, but he made me work for it," she said. "I think he just knew what he had to do and he was hoping his mom could keep up with him."

Richie has been in the Palmore barrel horse pen the past two years. Bred by leading breeder Jud Little of Ardmore, Oklahoma, Richie is by Little's flagship stallion JL Dash Ta Heaven and out of Frenchmans Lana, a daughter of Frenchmans Guy that's a full sister to leading producer SX Frenchmans Vanilla. The gelding was purchased by Dave and Lori Zabel at Little's 2014 production sale under the advisement of his trainer Jolene Montgomery. He ran out nearly $100,000 as a 4-year-old futurity horse before being sold to Palmore's grandparents Ray and Suzanne Hill of Southwestern Farms.

"He's one in a million to me," said Palmore. "He's just got an amazing personality. He loves to play all the time."

Palmore said she'll likely run Richie at the American Semifinals qualifier at the OKC Futurity in early December before giving him a break for the rest of the year. They're looking for their second qualification to the American Semifinal, having earned the right to compete in 2018, however, Richie's injury kept them from competing as a team in Fort Worth.

Headin' For Home

Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

After being in the ministry for 20 years, I've noticed that some Christians are confused. And it doesn't seem to matter if they've been a Christian for 10 minutes or 40 years.

What is that confusion? Not knowing if they should BELIEVE God or BLAME Him. How can you believe God for His ever present help, Ps. 46:1, and then think that you had that wreck so God can teach you something?

He teaches us by the Holy Spirit, not disasters! Or pray for healing, all the while thinking you aren't worthy? He came to give us life and that abundantly (John 10:10), so why would He kill us?

God is love and life. John 1:1-4. Would you ever hurt your kids to teach them anything? Of course not, and neither does God.

We'll be more stable if we aren't hopping back and forth between thinking God has our answer (and He does) and wondering if He's the bad guy. (He's not.) This week, let's BELIEVE GOD!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
