"God's plan is always greater" - Katie Chism & MF Aces Famous Fling Dominate Great Lakes Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

An injured horse. A miscarriage. A surprise pregnancy. A sixmonth window to qualify for the circuit finals. Katie Chism and her 7-year-old stallion MF Aces Famous Fling defied all odds to dominate the Great Lakes Circuit Finals, held November 14-16 in Louisville, Kentucky.

"My whole life has been 'God's plan is always greater," said Chism, who gave birth to her second child, a daughter, on September 5. "Frankly, this has far exceeded any expectation that I could conjure up in my own head!

"When it's God's story and not your own, it goes like that. I made this crazy plan that if I could win enough money, I could make circuit finals. Wouldn't that be cool?"

Her husband Kasey was there to help when she was losing her way.

"There were times where I was like Is this a good idea or is this a bad idea?" she said. "My husband is always great about keeping me rooted in Christ. Look, we focus on God and let God lead the way. Take it one day at a time, one rodeo at a time. Anytime I started to get a little frazzled, he was like 'one day at a time, one rodeo at time."

Her homegrown superstar Ace delivered with every run, winning nearly $11,000 at Great Lakes rodeos from February until June. She loped through the pattern at the last three rodeos to make the circuit count—the required number of rodeos to be eligible to attend

"It was not a lot of fun to run at six months pregnant," she said. "Our last official run was at Merrill, Wisconsin, in June. I think we placed third there. I can definitely say it's easier to run at six weeks postpartum than it is at six months pregnant."

Her daughter was born via c-section on September 5 and Chism was back riding a month later.

"I remember riding around thinking this feels really good, and then I remembered, 'Oh yeah! The last time I did this I had a basketball in front of me!' That's why this feels so much better!" she

With Chism back in the saddle, Ace picked up right where they left off...winning. She knew if she could win at the average at the Circuit Finals that she'd get the opportunity to run at the NFR Open next July in Colorado Springs.

"That was the little backend goal," she said.

At the Circuit Finals, she and Ace got faster with each run, thanks to great ground efforts by the committee.

"I went in the first round just going to ride my horse and let him do his job. He felt great. He got by the barrels a little more than he normally does. The ground was a little shallower, but it was still good and safe.

"The next round they said they were going to make it a little deeper and I was like 'Perfect! That's what we need!' The second round he felt even better.

"Before the third round, I noticed they put a little water on it and that was like the chef's kiss. It was going to be gold, and it felt perfect. He's so honest, I just have let him do his job. It just felt

Ace, she said, has exceeded her expectations since the day he was born.

Chism purchased Ace's dam Frenchmans Sally, by Two Eyed Frenchman, as a bred mare with plans on crossing her on her family's Driftwood-bred stallion. Then she stumbled across an advertisement for A Streak Of Fame, the older full brother to Sarah McDonald Waguespack's great NFR mare Fame Fling N Bling. She ran the idea of breeding Frenchmans Sally to A Streak Of Fame by her mother Shirley Maubach.

"I still remember exactly where I was standing when my mom was like, 'You plan it all out and I'll pay for it.' I was like, 'Wait! What? Really?' I just assumed we'd breed to our own stud because that's what we'd always done and had great success. When we visited about it — Well, if we get a nice stud colt and he proves himself then he could be the upcoming stud for our farm, because our Driftwood stud was getting older.' That was very the beginning of the seed of this idea. That's where the dream began eight years ago."

Chism was coaching the Missouri Valley College Rodeo Team when she watched the mare foal through the cameras back home. She got her stud colt with a striking color to boot, a palomino with roan.

The next big task was to see if Ace had the mind and ability to stay a stallion. The birth of Chism's son coupled with Ace's late bloomer status delayed his starting under saddle until the colt was 3.

"In January of 2021, I entered him for the first time," Chism recalled. "He started clocking in the 1D within a couple of races. He came close to an arena record up at my in-law's place, so we entered him down at (the Old Fort Days Futurity in) Fort Smith. We paid all the late fees and stuff because we'd never done any of that before. He qualified back and placed in the Top 15 in the Finals. We went to the Fizz Bomb, tipped a barrel to win the first round and got second or third in the second round. He won just over $50,000 in his futurity year."

Rodeo was Ace's next challenge.

"I started rodeoing on him that next year. I took him to one rodeo down in Texas because I had qualified for The American. That was his first run without having an exhibition or anything. He did well. I think we were one out of the money. We came home and went to his second pro rodeo in Springfield, Missouri, and he won that. I went to St. Paul, Minnesota, and won that. I was like 'OK! I guess we're pro rodeoing!"

Unfortunately, Ace came up lame after making the semifinals at the 2022 Cheyenne Frontier Days Rodeo. An MRI found a small strain in his lateral collateral ligament in his hoof capsule. A second MRI after RenoVo and shockwave therapy showed improvement. Veterinarians told her she could probably run him at her circuit finals, but the injury still wasn't 100 percent healed.

Chism opted to give Ace more time.

"He's way too nice of a horse to say I'm going to try if he's not 100 percent," she said.

In July 2023, a year from the initial injury, a third MRI showed that Ace was good to go.

"I took six months to rehab him," she said. "I spent the first 30 days walking straight lines. The next 30 days was trotting straight lines. It just went really, really slow and methodical. The vet asked me what my goal was, and I said, 'I just want my horse back.' I put in the long game to have him back and he came back strong." On New Year's weekend, Ace made his first runs back.

"The day before that I found out I was pregnant with my baby girl," Chism said. "Literally the night before we left for the barrel race in Cloverdale, I took a test, and I was pregnant. I had just had a miscarriage in November, so it was a whirlwind of emotions." Now, Chism is excited to see where Ace takes her little family. "Td like to make a run for it. I think I've got a decent start at it if I can just roll with it," she said. The $13,189 she won in Louisville counts toward the WPRA World Standings. "I think he deserves the opportunity. I think he would love the Thomas & Mack if I could get him there. I want to give him that opportunity, hopefully I can enter the right rodeos and make it happen.

"It's one day at a time, one rodeo at a time, to see what God has planned for us, what is the next step in our story."

Sixth-grader Wins Hailey Kinsel's Inaugural 18-and-Under Race

By Julie Mankin

Not only is she only 11, but Presley McGrath of Grandview, Texas, is also a first-generation barrel racer and has only been doing this for a couple of years. Yet, she still outran all the older barrel racers at the inaugural Hailey Kinsel Youth Barrel Race, presented by Yeti. It was held Nov. 16 inside the San Antonio Rose Palace and live-streamed on Teton Ridge+.

With McGrath's run of 15.149 seconds on a left-barrel-first 17-year-old grade gelding she's only been running about a year, the sixth-grader (also left-handed) not only won the 13-And-Under sidepot for $831, but also the entire Super 5D consisting of 424 entries, for another $1,052. Incidentally, Kilyn Osbum won the 14-18 sidepot with a 15.384, worth $778 on RR TooSlick Eye Mist.

Presley and her mom, Timarie, made the trip more than four hours southeast of their Grandview home (southeast of Fort Worth) to San Antonio because Presley is a big Hailey Kinsel fan. "She also runs a palomino, and she's littler, like me," said Presley. "She's a good role model."

Young Presley met the world champ, also from Texas, when she picked up her $1,883 in checks and two trophy belt buckles. It's the biggest win, to date, of the youngster's two-year career. Presley said she'll use the money on her horse, because, "He's the bestest boy!" Timarie and Ben McGrath bought "Whiskey" after seeing an ad for the gelding with no papers on BarrelHorseWorld.com. He came from high-school barrel racer Avery Burrow of Farmersville, TX, who also called him "the bestest boy."

Presley, who has an older and younger sister, just loved horses and wanted to ride them. Her parents put her into riding lessons and gradually stepped her up in horses.

SPONSORS: SmarTack, Rockstar Reins, JW4 Construction, Betty Brand, Ranch Dressin' and Youngblood Equine Veterinary Services

THANKS: I want to thank Ashley and Jenny (Barnes), my parents, God and my horse

"She's been through a few bad ones before we found this unicorn," said Timarie. "There's been a lot of trial and error."

The McGraths have no arena; Presley practices at the home of Ashley Barnes, who's helped her learn how to ride Whiskey.

Earlier this year, Presley won a couple of other races and the barrels at a youth rodeo, plus a qualifier for Vegas Tuffest Jr. World Championships. They'll haul Whiskey to Las Vegas in December where she'll compete in the 12-and-Under and 19-and-Under. "I want to rodeo in college and make it to the NFR," said Presley. "I want to be a barrel racer when I grow up. As far as a job, I want to be an equine chiropractor."

WPRA Announces 2024 Outstanding Committee Woman of the Year

The backbone of any rodeo is no doubt the rodeo committee and their countless volunteers that donate their time and skills to put on a good show for the fans. While the contestants and animals are the stars, they would never shine if it were not for the work of a large supporting cast of volunteers that come together, working for a common goal of making the event a success.

In 1948, the Girls Rodeo Association, now Women's Professional Rodeo Association was Built For Women By Women by 38 strong female leaders in the western industry. In honor of them and in partnership with Montana Silversmiths, one female committee member/volunteer that has gone above and beyond in their local community to make the rodeo a success and/or who has been a staple of the local rodeo for numerous years keeping the tradition alive is being honored with the WPRA Outstanding Committee Woman of the Year for 2024.

This year's recipient is Rachel Ann Holzschuh representing the Mid-Western Rodeo in Manawa, Wisconsin.

Rachel Holzschuh (pronounced Hole-Shoe) has been a fixture at the Mid-Western Rodeo since the age of 4 where you could see her by her dad's side. Now at the age of 33 she has stepped into the role of committee co-chair with her mother Annette Ziebell, following the sudden passing of her father, Peter Ziebell, in July of 2024.

"This is quite an honor," stated a shocked Holzschuh. "I really think this is a cool award in the rodeo world and excited to have received this news today."

The family was not involved in the rodeo world prior to moving to Manawa but Rachel's dad joined the Manawa Lions Club. The Mid-Western Rodeo is a volunteer-driven fundraiser for the Manawa Lions Club.

"My family had nothing to do with rodeo when I was two, but my dad joined the Manawa Lions Club and my uncles were bull riders, so my dad got pulled in to the industry," stated Holzschuh. "My uncle, Chuck, invited my dad out to rope and at the time he didn't really want to have anything to do with horses as he was a bit afraid of them. He fell in love with the people and the horses and started roping. When I was six, we bought another horse for me to run barrels on and I guess you could say the rest is history."

When she was just six, she rode in her first grand entry and at the age of 12 started to carry flags at several rodeos in the Great Lakes Circuit for Three Hills Rodeo Inc, J Bar J Ranch, Barnes Pro Rodeo, JS Rodeo, and Dakota Rodeo.

In the early years you could find her father on the tractor working the arena and clearing the grounds. Rachel was always right there by his side and once she was old enough you would see her on the tractor mowing the contestant and spectator parking areas. She never shied away from hard work and weeks before the rodeo you could find her raking out bucking chutes and roping boxes, pulling weeds, painting, filling stock tanks, setting out garbage barrels, hauling food for the hospitality, hanging arena signs, and was also the gopher for needed tools or drinks for the volunteers.

In 2009 Rachel was crowned the Mid-Western Rodeo Queen and was even pictured in the ProRodeo Sports News in the Liberty Bell for one of their openings.

In 2024 the Mid-Western Rodeo had to cancel 3 of the 4 performances due to an Emergency Evacuation, called by Waupaca County Emergency Services after the nearby dam broke and they received 9 inches of rain in 3 hours. Rachel jumped in along with others to help get the contestants and livestock to safety. The 2024 rodeo was going to be Rachel's first year truly shadowing her dad to ensure if anything ever happened that someone knew all the in's and out's of putting on the rodeo. She never imagined they would have to deal with flooding that resulted in the cancellation of the event nor that she would lose her father just two weeks after the rodeo. Peter Ziebell had served as the Chairman of the Mid-Western Rodeo since 2004 and now Rachel has stepped up to ensure his legacy is carried on working alongside her mother Annette as Co-Chairs for the 2025 Mid-Western Rodeo.

The WPRA received over 35 nominations for this award and was excited to have received so many great stories of the many outstanding women out there. As an Association, we are excited to continue to grow this program and recognize an outstanding committee woman on an annual basis.

Rachel Holzschuh will be officially recognized during the WPRA Star Celebration with the Top 15 barrel racers on Thursday, December 5 at the South Point Hotel and Casino and will receive a custom made Montana Silversmiths buckle. Past recipients:

2022 - Cindy Williams, Dinosaur Roundup Rodeo, Vernal, Utah

2023 — Tammie Hiatt, Jim Shoulder Living Legends Rodeo, Henryetta, Oklahoma

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

ayings. Quips and quotes. My mother-in-law used to say, "Well, they can't eat me!" She mostly said this about the IRS!! She was fearless. LOL! Ever said, "Well, what are they going to do? Take away my birthday?"

Those statements are bold and in your face! It's a person standing up for a cause! Who in the Bible stood up? David for one. Remember when Goliath was taunting the children of Israel?

Take a few minutes and read I Samuel 17. It is the glorious account of a young man killing a giant. In verse 29 David says, "Is there not a cause?" Then in verses 45-47, David declared that he came to the giant in the name of the Lord. And he further went on to state just exactly what he was going to do to Goliath with the help of God. And he did it!

What challenge are you facing? Well, with God's help, you can overcome any problem/giant in your life. In these times we live in, we can have the confidence that our good God will lead the fight.

Verse 47 says in part, "the battle is the Lord's and He will give Goliath (the problem) into their hands." We declare together that whatever our problem is this week, it's a defeated foe! Glory!
