Prindle & Johnson Bank Big Bucks At Elder Dodge Shootout NFR Style Open

By Tanya Randall

When it comes to big added money open races, the names Rande Prindle and Red Man Jones are usually at the top. The two picked up $15,091 at the Elder Dodge Shootout, held October 28-30 at the Henderson County Regional Fair Park in Athens, Texas.

The Shootout with its $10,000-added, three-run NFR Style 4D Open offered numerous sidepots, from rider age to futurity and rodeo style payout to a blanket 5D. It also featured the $7,500-added High Roller 3D, which was special section within Saturday's race for those willing to put up $300 for a 90 percent payback on top of the regular open

"It's nice to have races like that," said Prindle, who hails from Gilman City, Missouri. "Where else are you going to go, pay $100 entry fees and run for that kind of money?"

"It was a great event. It was super well-run. The ground was amazing. I would definitely go to more of those if they had them. Even if my horses hadn't won money, I'd still go back. They're great people, easy to get along with. If you had any questions, they answered them. It was just a well put together race.

Prindle's biggest payday was Saturday when she and Scooby won the High Roller for $6,843, the Open for $2,685 and Rodeo (straight pay) sidepot for $896. They placed in all three Open races and their average time of 13.685 was second overall.

She said their weekend got off to a slow start—they were eighth in the first race with a 13.911, due to the lingering effects of a farrier issue.

"I didn't know if I was going to be able to take him," said Prindle, who wanted to thank Roy Allen for squeezing Scooby into his schedule and fixing his feet. "He wasn't super lame, but he was 'off' for sure. I had another farrier trim him and did a little therapy on him. Thursday before I left he was sound, but I still think he was a little sore on Friday. He had an awkward second barrel. On Saturday and Sunday, he just came in and worked!"

They won the High Roller with a 13.546 and were third on Sunday with a 13.599.

"Small pens are his kind of thing," said Prindle, who caught national attention with the American Semifinals Championship. "It's just his style. He never loses momentum. But we can go to the big standard pens and win. He's just kind of an all-around horse."

From the legendary breeding program of the late Jud Little, Scooby is by Brownie Jones out of multiple AQHA and Congress barrel racing and pole bending champion Dinkys Purple Rain, by Dinky's Red Man. Prindle purchased the now 11-year-old gelding at the 2015 BBR World Finals Sale during his 4-year-old futurity year. After working through some soundness issues—he suffered a suspensory injury early on—they have been one of the country's leading 1D horse and rider duos year after year.

Although they tried the rodeos a little last year with success—they won three winter rodeos—Prindle opted to focus on the added money open races, where the ground is better and she has the opportunity to run her outside horses as well. For Scooby, it only makes sense to run him when the money is right.

"If it doesn't have good added money I'm not going to run him at it," she said. "He owes me nothing. What he likes is what he gets."

Scooby's last runs of the year will be at the Lucky Dog in Memphis. Then he'll have some down time due to back surgery.

"He's got some tight spots (in his spinous processes)," explained Prindle, who had been successfully maintaining Scooby with injections, MagnaWave and red light therapy. "We'll probably miss the next step of The American because of that, but I want a happy horse for the whole year. He's been struggling with back soreness for a while. I think it's time to fix it."

Three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Wenda Johnson and her First Moonflash crew are ready for the National Finals Rodeo. Youngster Steal Money ("Mo") was the model of consistency all weekend with a three-run average time of 13.624 and earnings of $13,605.

"He was amazing," said Johnson of the 6-year-old gelding out of Im Chica Stoli, by Stoli. "We haven't entered him a lot, but we were working on developing him mentally to handle the differences between the rodeos and barrel racers we go to. We've just taken our time to help make him a nice horse for a very long time."

They won the first race in 13.611, were second in both the High Roller and Open on Saturday with a 13.624 and fourth on Sunday with a 13.636.

"He's very consistent in a big pen; he's consistent in a small pen. He has a real strong desire to go and compete and be something special," said the nurse practitioner and mother of two from Pawhuska, Oklahoma.

While the NFR pattern was appealing, good ground was what Johnson was looking for at Athens.

"On a horse like Mo, because he's good in any size pen, it doesn't really matter the size of the pen," she explained. "There's other factors like making sure he's comfortable running to walls is more important than the size, in my opinion. My goal was to make some runs on good ground more than anything."

"It was a great race. The ground was fantastic and that's what I was looking for more than anything."

She also placed fourth in the average on Macgyver Moonflash, a 9-year-old gelding out of Touched By The Moon, by Black Moons Arising.

"I'm pretty proud of both horses," she said. "These horses are amazing. I try not to run them too much and save them for the big stuff and let them go have fun. They love their job and that's all I can ask for. They were happy and excited to be there and love to go run barrels. It's a win, win for everybody."

Late this summer, High Point Performance Horses purchased Mo and Mac from Tres Mesas Horses. Luckily for Johnson, the program that took her three NFRs didn't change anything but location.

"The arrangement is still the same," she said. "Luis (Hernandez) continues to exercise and keep the horses in shape and I'm going to continue to jockey them. It's working for us and they were great enough to let us keep it up."

Johnson wanted to thank High Point for the opportunity and raved about the impact of the switch to Purina—a longtime High Point sponsor—on the horses.

"It's helped tremendously for energy levels and focus," she said. "The overall health of the horses—they look fantastic right now. I could do a testimonial on how great of body condition the horses are in just the few months they've been on the Purina program." She also wanted to thank her sponsors OE Nutraceuticals, Kimes Ranch Jeans, Ultimate PEMF Sales, Silver Horse Care and JW Brooks Custom Hats.

Wilson & Smith Win Big at Top Shelf Breeders Inaugural Standalone Event

By Tanya Randall

Northwest-based Top Shelf Breeders debuted its inaugural standalone event with a nearly $200,000 payout at the Rafter 3C Arena in Fallon, Nevada, on October 27-29.

"We were overjoyed with the ground and being able to host our first event in a brand new West Coast facility," said Lexie Goss, owner of Top Shelf Breeders. "The week stayed overly consistent, and you could win on the top of the ground and the bottom of the ground. We were thrilled so many barrel racers came to compete and proud to payout more than $187,000 at our first event."

Marcie Wilson was the high-money earner of the event with $13,852. She rode two horses by her family's $4.8 million dollar sire The Goodbye Lane.

Her 7-year-old mare MJ Lola Lane picked up $9,670. Lola was second in the $10,000-added Sweepstakes and won the first round of the $8,000-added Open with an arena record time of 14.834. "It was a good run," said Wilson. "She just pretty much smoked every barrel and ran really hard between every barrel. Running to the second, I knew it was going to be a really good run if I could finish it off."

Bred by her parents Mark and Linda Jarvis, Lola, is out of her former rodeo mount Pappys Fool Ta Fame, by Easy Illusion. She has lifetime earnings of $163,000, according to QStallions.com. "She's coming on," Wilson said. "She's always been pretty consistent but it seems like she's getting faster in all of her runs. It's been really nice."

Wilson also picked up $4,282 aboard her main rodeo horse Our First Goodbye, out of Jesse James Agent, by Jesse James Jr. The 9-year-old mare has lifetime earnings of $207,000, according to QStallions.com.

Wilson, who will be competing in the Wilderness Circuit Finals this weekend, noted that she's won a lot this year on her older horses with the derby and open opportunities at the incentives. "I think people are keeping futurity horses longer than they ever have because of the derbies," she said. "With all that derby money it's hard to let them go. There's a ton of money to be won in the derbies now. Both of my aged mares have won a lot this year and I haven't gone to that many rodeos. Most of that was open and derby."

She wanted to thank Top Shelf Breeders for their program and event.

"The ground was good and they ran it really well," Wilson said. "They gave such awesome awards. They tried so hard to make it good and it was good. I want to thank them for putting so much time and effort into it."

Multiple aged event champion and National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sue Smith also picked up a nice chunk of change. The Black-foot, Idaho, barrel racer collected $11,292 between the mother and son duo of Dashes Centerfold and Diamond Center ("Heff").

"I actually got conned into going by Kelli Thouvenell," Smith admitted. "She has a couple by Top Shelf stallions so she wanted to go and told me she wanted me to go with her. It was a really good race, especially for their first year. The ground was good."

Smith added she liked the fact that Top Shelf offered bonus money at rodeos and events in the Northwest. (They've awarded more than $140,000 at those in 2022). She's also going to pay Centerfold into the program so that all her foals, regardless of their sire, are eligible for the program.

Centerfold, a daughter of all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of the Proudest Effort mare, Diamonds Tiny Effort, collected $7,309 for winning the Sweepstakes and open warmup race.

She can thank Thouvenell for that one too.

"I wasn't going to get in the (Sweepstakes) because it was so expensive, but she told me that I'd better," she said.

Smith had just returned the 10-year-old mare to competition Labor Day Weekend after surgery to remove a chip from a fetlock last year.

"I just didn't rush to get her back," said Smith. "Knock on wood, she seems good."

Centerfold was the EquiStat Leading Futurity Horse in 2016, having won eight titles that year. Her oldest foal, Heff, by A Smooth Guy, was already on the ground that year.

Heff picked up $3,639 in the Open races, which were open to all horses regardless of sire.

She said she didn't have words to describe how special it is having both Centerfold and Heff running and winning.

"I've got a mare and her colt running and they're both competitive..." Smith said, "I'm just so proud of both of them and appreciative."

Smith said all of Centerfold's foals tend to look like her, especially the fillies. They also really take after the mare in other ways as well.

"Those mares will throw themselves into their babies in so many interesting ways," said Smith, who has Centerfold babies by Frenchmans Guy, Fire Water Flit, Blazin Jetolena, The Goodbye Lane and RR Mistakelly. "It's intriguing to see. I've ridden enough of her babies now, especially the fillies, that I see it.

"Heff has a lot of her characteristics. She gets wound up before we go in and paws. He paws. She would sometimes balk at the gate. He does the same thing. I get them both in the same way, by getting them moving and not letting them stop. I kind of already know when I'm riding that mare's colts what I'm in for."

Smith wanted to thank her sponsors and supporters: Elliot Bit & Spurs, Three Forks Saddlery, 3S Custom Equine, Forco, Zesterra, Coats Saddlery and Rodeo Rigs.

"My horses are more eager to work when they're on SUCCEED."

Leslie Smalygo

"If there was only one thing I could give my horse, and I had to take everything else away, I would keep the SUCCEED. My horses are more eager to work when they're on SUCCEED. It has taken the edge off to where they're focused, feel good, and are not hot. It puts them in the zen mode to work. It's overall wellness in your horse. You're going to take care of their gut, their mind, and their wellness program. They're going to be a happier horse"

Seasoned, Consistent Youth Barrel Mare

PERKSTERS MS KITTY

Perkster-JK Lonesum Kitty, JK Copper Bruce

$25,000 - 13 year old gray mare - Seasoned, Consistent Youth Suitable!

This mare has been hauled and won money in all levels of competition from jackpots, youth rodeos, amateur rodeos and anything in-between. Push style and very consistent. 1D/2D horse. Runs in mud, large or small pattern doesn't matter. Raised in South Dakota. She is sound and requires no maintenance.

She catches, loads, hauls and stands at the trailer all day. Goes with all horses and takes care of herself. Stands well for the farrier. We have used her in the pasture to chase cows, roped on her, and have ridden her on wagon trains. She would be a perfect youth, high school, or college horse. She would even be a nice horse for the weekend jackpotter as she doesn't care to be hauled alone. Will run poles as well. A good home is a must. Please no tire kickers. Videos available.

2022 WPRA Justin Best Footing Award Winners

There are no tricks today – only treats from the Women’s Professional Rodeo Association for those rodeo committees who have went above and beyond this past year to ensure safe ground for the animal athletes of rodeo, specifically the barrel racing horses. Every year since the early 1990s the WPRA and Justin Brands have honored rodeo committees in each of the 12 circuits with the Justin Best Footing Awards.

The Justin Best Footing Awards® program was created when Tom Feller, director of event marketing for Justin Brands, approached the WPRA about partnering on a program that would focus on the health and well being of the animal athlete. Not only does the program keep animal athletes performing at the top level, but it also recognizes the hard work and time rodeo committees put into making their ground as safe as possible for the barrel horse and all rodeo livestock.

This past year, a majority of the rodeos stepped up and either provided a hand rake or a tractor drag halfway through during their performances. As a result, there were numerous arena records set with the improved ground conditions allowing the horsepower in the WPRA to run at an elite level.

This award is determined by votes by the WPRA membership and Circuit Directors and represents our members’ voices saying “thank you” for a job well done. The WPRA recognizes the top three rodeo committees in all 12 circuits as well as the most improved ground committee in each circuit. Committee awards provided by Justin include cash bonuses (ranging from $350-$1,000), plaques and, at certain award levels, a pair of Justin exotic boots. In addition, names of each winner for each of the 12 circuits are put into a drawing for an addition $1,500 bonus from Justin. The following rodeo committees will be recognized at the WPRA Star Celebration in Las Vegas on Dec. 1 at the South Point Hotel and Casino.

Congratulations to the following rodeo committees being honored in 2022 and the WPRA thanks you for making your ground safe and consistent.

WPRCA Announces 2022 Committee and Contract Awards

The WPRCA is pleased to announce their contract award winners that work tirelessly behind the scenes to make it all happen and keeps the Association alive and well. Each winner will be officially recognized during the WPRCA Star Celebration at the South Point Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada, on Thursday, December 1.

Honored this year with the WPRCA Lifetime Family Heritage Award is the Peterson Family – Kristie Peterson, Jordon (Peterson) Briggs and the late Chuck Peterson. In 2021, the Peterson family made history in the WPRCA with Kristie and Jordon becoming the first mother-daughter duo to win a world title. Jordon enters this year's Wrangler National Finals Rodeo ranked No. 1 and looking to add to that legacy. She will have an extra angel riding with her this year after her dad passed away the end of August. Without Chuck's encouragement the rodeo world might never have been treated to watching the great Bozo and Kristie and now his daughter, Jordon and Rollo. Time will only tell if Jordon's daughter, Bexley, will continue the family legacy.

A lady that has covered both these world champions along with hundreds more is Kendra Santos, who will be receiving the WPRCA Media Award this year. Santos has spent her entire life in the western industry and has used her talents to bring the stories of rodeo athletes to life. She previously was honored with this award in 1997.

Another individual who helps bring rodeo athlete stories to life and informs the audience about the sport of rodeo is rodeo announcer Steve Kenyon. Kenyon has used his voice to inform rodeo fans through live rodeo performances, radio and now TV. Kenyon joins an elite group of announcers to have been honored with the WPRCA Announcer of the Year award at least twice. Kenyon first won the award in 2010. He joins Bob Tallman (1998, 2020), Boyd Polhamus (2000, 2003, 2005), Hadley Barrett (2001, 2011) and Alan Moorhead (2008-09) as a repeat honoree in this category.

In celebration of their 75 years in the business, Wrangler Jeans and Shirts will be honored with the WPRCA Distinguished Partnership Award. Wrangler has been a cornerstone in the sport of rodeo and through their continued support rodeo dreams really can come true at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo and Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping.

Rodeo committees have long been the backbone of the rodeo industry and without the hardworking rodeo committees, the industry would have a hard time existing. Winning the WPRCA Large Rodeo of the Year award in 2022 is the Ogden (UT) Pioneer Days Rodeo. The Woodward (OK) Elks Rodeo will be honored as the Medium Rodeo of the Year and the Will Rogers Memorial Rodeo in Vinita, Oklahoma, will take home the Small Rodeo of the Year.

The WPRCA would like to congratulate each of the award recipients as well as those that were nominated for these prestigious awards.

Teton Ridge Becomes Presenting Partner for 2022 Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping

The Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRCA) is excited to officially welcome Teton Ridge as the presenting partner for the 2022 Wrangler National Breakaway Roping (NFBR) at the South Point Arena & Equestrian Center, Nov. 29-30.

The NFBR returns to Las Vegas for the second consecutive year to crown a world champion. The event will begin daily at 2 p.m. PST with doors opening at 1 p.m. daily.

"We are honored and excited to bring Teton Ridge on as our presenting partner for the 2022 Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping," said Jimmie Munroe, WPRCA President. "Teton Ridge is passionate about celebrating female athletes in the western industry and appreciates what the WPRCA (the longest standing women's sports organization in the world) stands for. We look forward to growing this partnership and bringing new money and attention to our members."

Currently the fastest growing event in the sport of rodeo, women's breakaway roping has been growing steadily in professional rodeo since 2020, when the WPRCA and PRCA partnered to introduce the event into more rodeos across the United States and Canada. Although the WPRCA crowned its first breakaway roping world champion in 1974, it wasn't until the 2020 NFBR that it was a featured event in conjunction with the National Finals Rodeo. Held at Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas that year, Jackie Crawford was crowned the world champion. In 2021, the NFBR took place in Las Vegas at the Orleans Hotel and Casino and was won by Sawyer Gilbert.

Emphasizing the same commitment to excellence that is exhibited in all Teton Ridge integrations, the media company is dedicated to celebrating breakaway roping and to bringing new fans to the sport through its varied presence in the western culture and lifestyle.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

At The Barn, the adult Sunday School class is Q and A. I love it! The questions are always good and because people are so different, it's never boring! We had a question about CHRISTIANS DELIBERATELY/KNOWINGLY committing sin and what will happen when we stand before Him. Romans 14:10 says that we aren't to judge our brother, for we shall ALL stand before the judgment seat of Christ. It further says in verse 11, every knee will bow and every tongue confess to God. Gal. 6:9 tells us that we reap what we sow.

The question got answered, but Mike went on to say that 'no matter how long our court case', if Jesus is Lord of our lives, the verdict will be 'not guilty, bought by the blood of Jesus'.

I got stuck on 'no matter how long our court case' and I wrote in my notes,

"Sherry, how long will your case be?" Will people who have kept repentance first in their lives be standing in line behind me, tapping their feet thinking, "Is this ever going to end?" Yikes! Or do we all need to practice I John 1:9, confessing our sins and receiving our forgiveness quickly?

Friends, let's get through the line and celebrate!
