2012 WNFR Interviews - #11 - #15

It's hard to believe it's that time of year again, the NFR is right around the corner and it's time to get to know this year's top 15 women in barrel racing.

It's a pretty exciting year, there is a unique blend of experienced seasoned veterans and a lot of new comers aboard some of the industry's finest barrel horses with top shelf bloodlines! This week we have the first of our series of interviews including 3 NFR Rookies, from age 38 to 54, one veteran to the Finals at the young age of 27 and a 35 year old making her second appearance at the big show.

As with every NFR there will be lots of twists and turns as some of the toughest rodeo competitors chase the $6,125,000 in prize money and the ultimate prize, a World Title. We'll bring you interviews with all of the top 15 in the next 2 weeks leading to the 2012 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo!

Helping Out at the WNFR

The Wrangler National Finals Rodeo provides rodeo enthusiasts a great time to lend "a hand up" to injured rodeo athletes with a variety of fundraisers to benefit the Justin Cowboy Crisis Fund throughout the WNFR's 10 days in Las Vegas. Every dollar raised by the JCCF at these events goes to provide need-based financial assistance to rodeo athletes who have been injured while participating in the cowboy sport.

PRCA Convention Silent Auction

Attendees at the PRCA Convention at the South Point Hotel Casino and Spa will have the opportunity to bid on more than 100 wonderful items in the seventh annual PRCA Convention JCCF Silent Auction. The silent auction will begin on Tuesday, Dec. 4, and the bidding will end at 3 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 5. The 2011 Silent Auction raised more than $11,000. For more information, contact Cindy Schonholtz at 719.440.7255 or jccfinfo@prorodeo.com.

Bob Tallman's WNFR Charity Bowling Tournament: Join host Bob Tallman on Dec. 8 at the Gold Coast Hotel and Casino, where a variety of celebrities and Wrangler NFR contestants will spend a fun family afternoon for a good cause. Proceeds from the tournament will benefit Speedway Children's Charities and the Justin Cowboy Crisis Fund. Registration starts at 11 a.m., with introductions at 11:45 a.m. and bowling at noon. For more information, contact Paulette Anderson at 702.632.8242 or panderson@lvms.com.

25th Annual ProRodeo League of Women Luncheon & Fashion Show: At 11 a.m. on Dec. 13, the South Point Hotel Casino and Spa will once again host an event that has raised more than $1,150,000 for the Justin Cowboy Crisis Fund over the years. NFR contestants' wives and NFR barrel racing contestants model the latest in fashion from Wrangler and Rock and Roll Cowgirl while more than 200 prizes are won by the attendees in drawings; there is also a silent auction. Tickets are $40, with a limited number of tables available for sale. For more information, contact Tracy Hedeman at thedeman@embarqmail.com or 817-676-1637.

Beverly Funderburgh (DL is LeeAnn's brother) Shortys Step Chils is a 6 year old that was shown at the NCHA Futurity three years ago, Sissy Pennington put him on the barrels.

BRR: History of your horse(s).

Rust: My ex-husband Gary Rust and I actually purchased his sire, Scenics Symbol, 15 years ago. He was a great horse, he was actually a APHA World Champion in Heeling, earned halter points and won a variety of other awards. Sy, as we called him, accomplished all this with very little riding and training. I really liked Harley's (SS Streakers R Us) mother (The Sixth Sense) so I bred her to Sy. The first colt of the cross was crippled and had a cleft pallet and didn't make it. People told me I better not breed her back the same way because it would happen again but I bred her back on her foal heat and the next year came SS Streakers R Us.

From the time Harley was born we knew he was special and wouldn't sell him. I broke him and I picked Gena Franklin to do all the foundation work on him because she rides the most like me during his 3 year old career. Then Sharin Hall took him during his futurity year. After that, I have had him the whole time.

The last couple years I was seasoning him, getting him ready. In the fall of 2010 he started stepping up to a higher level and I knew it he was ready for the next level. We just keeping getting more confident in each other and I think he can get even better yet. He has probably earned at least 250k in his career already. This year (2012) was his second year at the CFR (Rust ended up #6 in the Canadian ProRodeo Association standings with over $39k in earnings for 2012) and his first year at the NFR. Every run he makes he gets smarter and more streetwise. Raising him and having him his whole life is just so rewarding.

Saddle: Team Steinhoff Barrel Saddle with Flex Tree

Pad: Saddleright Pad

Boots: Iconoclast boots

Bit: Custom made bit from Todd Page of Henrietta, OK. It is basically a D ring with a 4 inch dogbone in middle. It has a 2-2 1/2 inch piece on each side, smooth mouthpiece, with a 1/4 of a rock grinder rowel on each side of the bit where it is attached to the D Ring. You have to be careful with it, but if used right it really works.

Feed: Dynamite PGR

Hay: Grass & Alfalfa

Supplements: Dyamite Supplements; MSM, Ester C, IZmine, Excel, Dyna Pro, Miracle Clay, Trace Mineral Drops, Herbal Green, Herbal Tonic, Easy Balance, Relax, Release

Additional Care: Willemina DeBoer and Kelley Mills do Energy Healing on Harley. Kelley Mills is in Ellensburg, WA and so I am there with Harley after the CFR (Canadian Finals Rodeo) to work on him. After those kind of temperature extremes and overall environmental circumstances at the CFR I thought it was important to come here. I knew last year after the CFR we had time to chill, but this year I need to get ready for the NFR. So in September, after I knew we made the NFR I called Kelley and lined it up to get Harley ready. After Caldwell I went over to have Kelley work on Harley and she has worked on him ever since then. She has really helped me to ride him in a way that helps Harley build muscle that will help him run faster. She taught me new riding techniques to do that. With her help I probably added 15% to his muscle mass on his hip. Now I am working on him to where he can use himself better laterally. She is helping me learn how to ride him in a way that Harley learns to use himself in the best way. If I can learn how to run him in a way where he uses himself less and runs the same times it will extend his competitive lifespan. It has been a real honor and pleasure to work with her.

I also use the Back On Track products, blanket and leg wraps, I feel they have had a definite positive effect for me; when you have many runs in a row it will definitely be a benefit to use them.

BRR: What Cartoon character has a similar peronality to your horse?

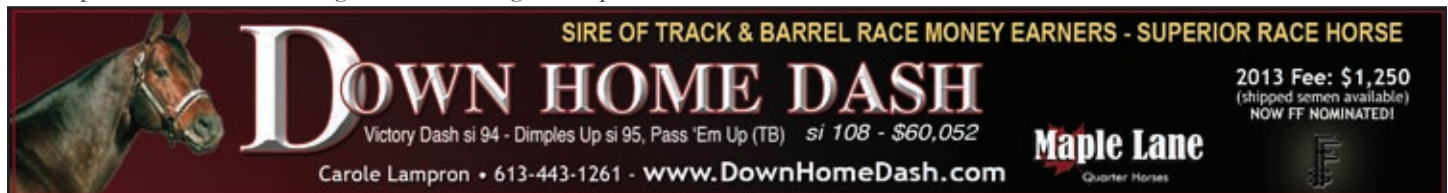

Rust: Charlie Brown, I call him Harley Brown a lot of times. He just has that big old kind eye and he is just so kind to the point of being naive. He is Charlie Brown without the C, he runs like a Harley but has a personality like Charlie!

BRR: What is your strategy for keeping your horse mentally and physically strong through all 10 runs at the NFR? Do you have a pre-run checklist that you go through?

Rust: I definitely have a routine and it is set in stone. There are so few things in this lifestyle that you have control of; so my pre-race ritual is almost sacred. I work on riding him at a trot in collection, riding him from behind, short circles and counter-arcing. Generally, I will do my physical warmup about the time the grand entry is over then I will do my muscle work and energy work on him and let him rest 15 minutes. Then I will clean him up and warm him up and I have a series of stretches I will do on him. After that is all done I will take my split reins off and put a single rein on. I will then emulate the barrel pattern and make sure he is lively and light in my hand and by then it should be pretty close to going down the alley.

RIDER: CHRISTINA RICHMAN; OWNER: CHRISTY DAVIDSON; BREEDER: CHARLES DAVIDSON III

BRR: History of your horse(s).

Richman: I bought Xtrared at Blane's dispersal sale as a 2 year old. I did all the training as far as barrels goes, she was kind of broke when I got her. I lightly futuritized her as a 4 year old and I lightly rodeoed on her at the California Circuit rodeos when she was 5. When she was 6 I finished 16th in the world and when she was 7 I ended up 19th and then the last three years we have made the NFR. We were Reserve Champion in the WNFR Average last year (2011). This year we ended up #13 in the world. Her lifetime earnings are somewhere around $395,000. She got a chip in her knee after the Circuit Finals and they did surgery 2 weeks ago and in 60 days I can swim her and then at 90 days they say I could run her. I will probably give her more time off than I need to, to make sure she is sound, probably more like 120 days.

Saddle: Larry Coats Barrel Saddle

Pad: CSI Pad

Boots: Polo Wraps with Professional's Choice Bell Boots

Bit: Little S Hackamore

Feed: Renew Gold

Hay: Grass hay with a little bit of Alfalfa

Supplements: Seabuck, Powdered electrolytes, Omni-Cetyl

Additional Care: I have a Game Ready machine to use after each run. I us a Chi machine I put on her before I run her throughout the year. I have a laser to use as well. I also use a Back On Track blanket that I love.

BRR: What Cartoon character has a similar peronality to your horse?

Richman: Grumpy from the Seven Dwarfs! She doesn't like to be touched and wants to be left alone. She bites at me when I try to blanket her or saddle her. She likes to be looked at and not touched!

BRR: What is your strategy for keeping your horse mentally and physically strong through all 10 runs at the NFR? Do you have a pre-run checklist that you go through?

Richman: Although I just picked up these two horses (J-Lo and Cascabel) just two weeks before the Finals; I have been there twice before so I know how to keep horses happy in those conditions. From being there I have a little better idea of what to expect. I know what works for Stitch and so I am hoping I can use that to my advantage to see what works for these horses. I know I will get them out and walk them and move them around. I also need to make sure I do this without picking on them. They need to feel good but still need their rest and not be messed with too much. I like to do lots of stretches and before I start to warm them up.

BRR: Which horse(s) are you taking with to the finals?

Churchill: A Streak of Rita (Worm). I'm not taking a backup horse with me.

BRR: History of your horse(s).

Churchill: I raised Worm, his mom was a bulldogging horse that went to the 2000 NFR with Chad Cadwell. I was there 30 minutes after he was born and he was dirty and kind of brown colored when I saw him and looked like a worm so I called him Worm. I did all the barrel training on him, Joe Butterfield put 60 days on him as a 2 year old to start him. As a 4 year old I ran him at Ft Smith, the Cornhusker Futurity, 5 State Breeders Futurity and the Hawki Futurity and he won money at all of them. He actually ran the second fastest qualifying time at Ft Smith, won a round at Cornhusker, was second at the 5 States, and also at the Hawki.

He went to 4 rodeos as a 4 year old, he actually placed at Billings and split the win at Casper. As a 5 year old we ended up 30th in the world and only went to rodeos from June 1 until the middle of August when I had to go back to school (work) and only went to 30-35 rodeos total. He also won 2nd in the Tour Finale in Omaha in 2010.

In 2011, we ended up 23rd in the PRCA/WPRA standings and we were leading the CPRA Standings going into the CFR and ended up being Year End Champion. We were 2nd in the Average at the CFR. In 2012, we ended up #3 in the CPRA standings this year with $60,097 in earnings, $45k of that being won at the CFR just a week ago. This year we made the NFR with $60,777. His approximate lifetime earnings are about $280,000 right now.

BRR: What is your strategy for keeping your horse mentally and physically strong through all 10 runs at the NFR? Do you have a pre-run checklist that you go through?

Churchill: He knows his job, and he loves to do it. We'll stick to what we have done all year long. During the summer you make ten runs back to back fairly often, although that isn't the exact same conditions as the NFR, he is definitely used to making 10 runs in a row. To make 10 runs in a row they have to love what they are doing and Worm does. We will take it one day at a time out there. Before each run, I make sure he is exercised, warmed up good, flexes both ways, and responds to me.

BRR: Which horse(s) did you ride all year?
Loflin: Sheza Blazin Move (Movin), (owned by Christy Loflin and Thomas Jacobs)

BRR: Which horse(s) are you taking with to the finals?
Loflin: To Be Announced, Movin is injured and is out for the NFR. Movin was injured at Kansas City in a trailer incident, she had a swollen pastern in the back. It was colder when I got home and the swelling was down so I ran her at the Mountain States Circuit Finals, I ran her two days and she wasn't sore but wasn't clocking. Then the next week I went to Casper and after the run she worked terrible and was sore. After that I found out the tendon was frayed. On her left hind, the two outside tendons were swollen so it pinched the middle tendon. Dr. Brent Hague at Oakridge Equine Hospital in Edmond, OK did the surgery to repair the tendons and did PRP (Platelet Rich Plasma) treatments. She will be out for six months.

BRR: History of your horse(s).
Loflin: Movin originally came from Randy Rist who started and trained her, then Natalie Rice bought her and sent her Ryan Lovendahl to ride and train her. In January of her 5 year old year (2010), January 29th on my birthday actually is when we bought her. She had just ran a 16.6 and a 16.7 on a standard pattern with Ryan the same weekend at the BRN4D race in Arizona. I didn't end up getting her home until about the end of April. I just played around and went to a few rodeos. Last year (2011) was the first year I really hauled her to rodeos and we made the circuit finals. This year (2012) we won the Mountain States Circuit, we won Greeley and we were second at Cheyenne. Then we won Pendleton which put us over the top to make our first NFR. It was amazing, she just kept getting faster through the runs. She is just so special.

Additional Care: For Movin, I use a magnetic blanket and I also make sure I have a chiropractor work on her. This spring during the spring rodeos in California, I also took her to the Pioneer Equine Hospital's Aquatred in Oakdale, CA. They would keep her during the week so I could go home to my son's hockey playoffs. Now she is recovering from tendon surgery and she will be in Cold Water Therapy. Another thing I use is Ice-Vibe Boots, they are pretty cool. They increase the circulation so the cold penetrates more. If you don't want them cold then you can leave the ice out and just use the vibration to warm up the leg.

BRR: What Cartoon character has a similar peronality to your horse?

Loffin: For me she is Supergirl. She is really smart and she has to be in charge, every horse on our place is scared to death of her!

BRR: What is your strategy for keeping your horse mentally and physically strong through all 10 runs at the NFR? Do you have a pre-run checklist that you go through?

Loffin: Since I don't have my NFR horse found yet it is hard to know. However; with Movin, she is a picky eater, so whatever horse I take I will make sure they are eating well and getting out of their stall often and I will be making sure they stay happy. My shoer Gene Ovnicek was planning on coming out with Movin; the shoeing was one of my concerns with the ground there for whatever horse I take.

Everytime I run anything, I make sure their legs are clean, they're walking sound. With Movin I can actually tell by just the sound of her movement if she is traveling right.

If it was Movin, I don't do a lot of warming up, I usually get on an hour ahead and walk a lot and do a lot of long trotting, flex her both ways and making sure she is soft. Then I usually lope her a little to get her blood pumping, then I got off and wrap her legs, check my saddle and get ready to run. I like to wrap her legs at the last minute to make sure her legs stay cool.

Congratulations to Emily Efurd for winning 2012 WPRA Rookie of the Year and finishing #23 in the world standings.

"I'm really liking Revitalize™! I've had my young horse out on the road with me on it and it's kept her from stressing so badly and going off her feed because of it. I know it works because almost every time I hauled her before, she would go off her feed. At the end of the season it even helped Fanny (Fantasia Fame) with this too.

I use the Cetyl M® Joint Action Cream for Horses on my horses' hocks, stifles, and pasterns every time before I run. I think it really helps to loosen them up if they've been standing around and are real tight or have been in the trailer for a long time. I also have my three main horses, including Fanny, on Cetyl M® granules for Horses and I think it has significantly reduced their maintenance." -Emily Efurd*

Run Sally Run—Graves & Mustang Sally Top Mustang Makeover Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

Veteran futurity rider and trainer Lance Graves, aboard Mustang Sally, topped the slot race at the Mustang Makeover, held in conjunction with the BBR Regional Challenge in Alvarado, Texas. Graves finished fourth overall in the Mustang Makeover, which was won by Stephanie Swope and her mustang Pierce.

Graves said he wasn't as prepared for the judged exhibition and trail course, having thought he'd just be running barrels, but he was thrilled with outcome of the project that started as a tribute to his late father James, who passed away in April.

"All that people see is that I get expensive prospects to train and I get to ride great horses for great people, but that's not how I got started," said Graves, who hails from Hartshorne, Okla. "I rode a million Mustang Sallies when I was a little boy. I've been in more wrecks than most people realize; I've left the ranch in a helicopter! A lot of people don't know what I came from; they just know what they read in the paper."

Graves credits his father for directing him and pushing him to become the best horseman he could.

"He worked his whole life to make sure I could ride a good one," said Graves. "My first registered horse—the horse that I made the finals on at Fort Smith when I was 7 years old—Daddy bought for $120 at the local cow auction. We've come a long way because of the way he directed me and pushed me."

"For him, I wanted to remind the rest of the world where I came from. I can still ride a bronc. Everything I have on this ranch, my daddy built with his two hands while I rode. I thought what a great tribute to him. Take horse, break it and teach it to run barrels in 90 days, because I can. I hope he enjoyed it."

Per Makeover rules, Graves had 90 days to take an unhandled mustang (Mustang Sally came from the Twin Peaks Herd Management Area in California) and turn it into a performance horse. The project was a tag-team effort between Graves and his wife Stacy.

The first day that Mustang Sally arrived. She was haltered, saddled and carried a bit in her mouth. The second day, they rode her.

"I had to rope her in the round pen to get a halter on her," said Graves. "It took me about 45 minutes to get the halter on her and I messed with her for about an hour and half after that. Then I got her saddled."

"When I was kid, daddy would get those horses saddled and mess with them a little bit and then throw me on them until they stopped bucking. That's just the way it was around here. The quicker you deal with it, the quicker you get over it and can move on to other things. So we went right at her."

Mustang Sally wasn't bad to buck from the beginning, although she did get Stacy on the ground about four times. Graves said it's the mare's natural response from unknown objects on the ground that causes her to jump and buck when spooked.

"I've had way, way worse – way worse," laughed Graves. "She learned the reward system faster than any horse that I've ever trained in my career. She learned about being pulled and released when I went to put the halter on her and she learned that when I touched her it was a positive thing. As soon as she learned that I was a positive thing, she let me teach her whatever I wanted. It was a pretty amazing transformation to watch her come around because it was really, really hard for her to give that up and not be afraid of me.”

Stacy gets the credit for putting the first 30 days of handling on Mustang Sally, and for the next 30, she and Lance tag-teamed the mare with Stacy working on basic handling skills on the morning ride and Lance working her on the pattern at night.

About a month before the Mustang Makeover, Graves started hauling Mustang Sally to jackpots.

“I started hauling her a month ago and it’s really funny because I’ve had more fans follow her than I’ve had follow Return Ta Neveland, which is Miss Fortunes Fool’s 3-year-old,” said Graves. “I’ve had more people come up to me that I don’t know at the jackpots and ask about her because she does look different. It has been really interesting.”

Graves said he was disappointed with his run in the slot race because he knows the mare could have done better.

“It wasn’t her best performance,” he said. “I’m disappointed that the whole world wide web didn’t get see her when she has a good pass. Wednesday night at the Lightning C in McAlester, she was in the 4D behind What Fame, who won the open. To me that’s freaking amazing for any horse that’s only been ridden for 90 days. I was so excited. We treated her like she was Secretariat and had just won the Triple Crown.”

And, Mustang Sally was treated just like all the other superstars in the Graves barn.

“Every animal, every person is a product of their environment,” he said. “She has a sleazy, a sheet and a blanket, and she stands in a stall next to a filly that I turned down $100,000 for that’s the same age. We treated her just like the rest of them.”

Mustang Sally was the high-seller in the post-competition auction and was purchased over the phone by some of Graves’ clients.

“She is never going to be a 1D horse, but she has the potential to make a very solid 3D horse at the big shows,” said Graves. “I think she can run a second off of the really good horses. The clients that I have that bought her, they know that and they’re going to enjoy her.”

Headin' For Home

Knowledgeable horse owners know the background and bloodlines of their favorite horses. Maybe they picked those horses because their dams or sires were known for their athletic ability, their speed or their common sense and they didn't blow up at every flag that fluttered. Some horses just seem to have a natural liking for competition while others dislike arena work.

So you know what your horse is but do you know WHO YOU ARE?

If you've asked Jesus to come into your life and be your personal Lord and Savior, the Bible says you're a child of God. As a member of God's family, you have a right to certain privileges, Divine protection and Divine health. We are assured of a glorious eternity when we die because Jesus redeemed us from the curse of the law (Galatians 3:13).

If we tell Jesus we are truly sorry for the wrong things we've done, He'll forgive us (1 John 1:9) and even forget the wrongs we've committed. "If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new." (2 Corinthians 5:17)

There's great peace in knowing you're an heir of God and joint heir with Christ. It opens up a whole new world to you so don't waste another minute. Just say this aloud and mean it: "Jesus, I'm sorry for all my sins. I ask you to come into my heart and be my Lord and Savior. Cleanse me with your blood and take control of my life. Amen."

Now you know your bloodlines and it couldn't be any better. It tells us in Ephesians 2:10 that we are the workmanship of God and we know that God doesn't make junk!
