Ashley Peterson's Homegrown Aint Seen A Love Man Wins BFA Super$takes

By Tanya Randall

Multiple Great Lakes Circuit finalist Ashley (Baur) Peterson was back in the winner's circle at the BFA World Championships, held November 12-19 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

After taking time off to get married and start a family, Peterson and Aint Seen A Love Man ("Petey"), her first foal out of her great rodeo mare Love Mans Darling, were the fastest 3-year-old of the 60 entered in the BFA Super$takes to take the coveted $100,000 check back to Birnamwood, Wisconsin.

"I honestly don't remember much of my run," said the mother of two—Kenzi, 3 and Owen, 1. "I truly don't know what came over me. I knew I had to give it (everything) if I wanted to be competitive. I just kicked all the way to first. Really, the last thing I remember was running home. He worked so much better than I was ever dreaming he would."

With 40 left to run, Peterson went back to the stalls and stayed rather than returning to the arena to watch.

"I just waited for it to be over!" said Peterson, who edged out Kelly Bowser and Quarento Tres, owned by Chad West, 15.633 to 15.639. "I just can't go up there and watch it, so I was cleaning all the poo piles!"

When she called her husband Mike, who stood outside their home in a snowbank to get better reception for the webcast, they were both in shock.

"You never imagine something like this," she said.

Peterson's path to BFA glory starts with Darlin, a daughter of The Love Man, an NRCHA Open Stakes & Derby Champion, out of the Hollywood Dun It mare Darlin Dun It. She had moved to Colorado on whim and started working for a cowhorse trainer. Darlin failed to make the cut.

"She was one of the horses that I had to warm up every day," recalled Peterson. "She was being trained to be a cutting horse and she was too hot for it. She was too impatient to wait for the cow, so they asked me to put on her barrels to get her ready for a sale. When I put her on barrels I felt there was more to her and I ended up buying her myself."

Darlin carried Peterson to barrel racing earnings of more than $100,000. They won two year-end WPRA Derby titles, went to the Great Lakes Circuit Finals Rodeo five times and represented the circuit at the RAM National Circuit Finals once.

When the mare started to slow a step and started requiring more maintenance, Peterson made the decision to start raising babies out of her. After all, with her marriage and starting her own family in the works, the timing was right across the board.

"She didn't owe me anymore barrel-racing wise," said Peterson. "She's just a broodmare now. I'm trying to continue her legacy that way."

Petey, by leading sire Aint Seen Nothin Yet, was Darlin's first foal.

Peterson sent the gelding off to Kloe Krusick to get started under saddle. Although she had planned on leaving him 60 days, at 45, she just had to start riding him herself.

"I started getting impatient," she admitted. She spent the remainder of his second year trail riding and getting Petey more broke. This past year, she started hauling him to exhibitions, and by of came together,” she said. “At the end of August. I took him to Winona, Minnesota, and they had the barrels fairly close to the stakes and the timers were on. He clocked a 15.2. He wasn’t lighting anything on fire by any means, but it was really good for the amount that I had hauled him. I thought, ‘Oh man! There’s a lot of potential here!’”

After consulting with her close friends, she decided to take the gamble and lease one of the $5,000 slots for the Super$takes. Her husband, on the other hand, thought she was nuts.

“He wasn’t too thrilled about it,” she said, “but I had just sold a horse so I think that kind of eased it a little bit otherwise it would have been a harder sell. It was a gamble, but it paid off!”

When she first got to Guthrie, however, Peterson wasn’t too sure about her promising pony.

“He was kind of embarrassing when we got there,” she explained. “We got there on Friday and I’m glad we did. I rode him around Saturday and Sunday and he was fresh. I was a little embarrassed because he was the only colt that was ducking away from other horses and acting like he’d never been ridden with other horses before. Then he mellowed and settled in. I found out if I didn’t work barrels in the outdoor warmup pen was really best. He didn’t care for the outdoor pen. I took him to the building for my exhibition and he worked better than I could imagine. The warmup time in the morning, we did some cruise throughs and he did

After making his winning run on Tuesday night, many of her friends commented on Facebook that it looked like she was running Darlin again.

“He’s getting more and more like her,” said Peterson, who picked up an additional $1,252 for placing 12th in the first round of the Juvenile Futurity on Petey. “A month ago, I would have said, ‘No, he’s way different.’ He’s more turny than she was, but now that he’s finding his speed, it’s getting easier. I don’t have to push him into his turns that much. He’s getting more confident to where he’ll run up into the barrel better. I can see him getting more like her.”

Now Petey is going to get a few months off until the worst of the Wisconsin winter passes.

“Wintertime just takes the air out of your sails,” said Peterson, who also works as a dental hygienist. “I don’t like having frozen fingers and toes. It’s so hard to keep them healthy and everything else in the winter. I’ll try to get him back up in March. I’ll probably futurity hard over the summer, I imagine.”

She’ll also have more Darlin babies to start soon. She has an Aint Seen Nothin Yet filly that’s coming 2 and weanling by French Streakin Jess.

“It’s special,” she said of winning on a horse that she raised and trained. “I hope I can make some more!”

Streak Gypsy Streak's BFA Juvenile Championship Highlights Pete Oen's Huge $150,000 Week

By Tanya Randall

Pete Oen had a "fairytale whirlwind of a week" at the BFA World Championships, held November 12-19 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

The leading futurity trainer and rider from Maysville, Oklahoma, by way of Ohio, added $150,000 to his career earnings, highlighted by his Juvenile Futurity Championship and fourth place Super$takes finish aboard Streak Gypsy Streak ("Gypsy"), owned by Angela Richardson. Oen also placed fourth in the Futurity aboard the Dobbs family's homebred DR Famous Legacy ("Bugsy") after turning in the fastest time of the event to win the first qualifying round. Both of his horses also claimed the Future Fortunes Slot Races for their respective events to the tune of $85,000.

"It was a darn sure a week to remember," said Oen. "It might be a long time before I ever top it again!"

His big winner was Gypsy, a 3-year-old daughter of leading barrel horse sire A Streak Of Fling out of his former futurity standout Hip Swingin Gypsy ("Swinger"), by Firewaterontherocks. Gypsy, who was bred by J Garcia Land Holdings, LLC, collected $16,130 for her Juvenile victory, $15,000 for the Super$takes, $3,168 for winning the BFA's Juvenile Sales Graduate Stakes, $3,750 in Tomorrow's Legends incentive money and $46,665 from Future Fortunes for a grand total of $84,713.

"It's obvious that Hip Swingin Gypsy is a producer. Almost every single horse that she's had is a 1D barrel horse or has won something big," said Oen noting that she also produced this year's Pink Buckle Champion Slick Swingin, whom he bred.

He said this is his first Swinger baby to take from start to competition. He has three total in his barn now.

"I feel a lot of her in them. This is the first set where I've got to ride the mother and then ride the offspring. I love the way it's come full circle. In a way, I get to ride her again."

Gypsy (then registered as A Streak Gypsy) was purchased from her breeder through the 2020 BFA Sale by Cristi Gaffney and Oen for $22,000. Richardson purchased the mare in August 2021 right after the Royal Crown in Rock Springs, Wyoming.

"It was fun to share that with the Richardsons," Oen said. "They've been super good customers. They're fun people and they like to have fun at it. Win, lose or draw, we give it our best and that's all that they want."

Oen started riding Gypsy in the summer of her second year after she got her start under saddle with Phil Haugen. He described the mare as "sensitive." It's a quality he likes in a horse and one that he knows came from Gypsy's dam, Swinger

"They follow the same time line and training characteristics as her," noted Oen. "Hip Swingin Gypsy was really sensitive as well.

You didn't have to do much to get her attention as well. It's following suit with her foals. They don't like being reprimanded and they take it to heart quickly. They don't like getting in trouble."

Having experienced that same feeling before while training Gypsy's dam, Oen knew he needed to modify his approach to training the filly.

"You had to be more patient with her, especially in the beginning, because she could get a little uptight and nervous if she didn't understand," he explained. "More than anything, I would spend more time with a little slower paced training. If she made a mistake I wouldn't correct her quickly or abruptly, I was a lot more subtle with my communication with her which allowed her to settle into herself and get a lot more confident."

Gypsy, like her mother, noted Oen, had a tendency to want to leave her barrels too soon, so he changed the way he schooled and exhibited her.

"What I've done with her recently is turn the barrel and then break her down before going to the next barrel," he explained.

"If I loped around it, I'd break her to a trot coming around to the very back side, trot around it again and then her lope back off. So, I slowed down the speed in her brain or at least the turn and go process."

He did the same thing when he had the opportunity to work the barrels in Guthrie.

"Honestly, she got to where she was breaking down to a trot without much help from me, which in my opinion, makes me feel like my horse is really relaxed and backed off and really focused," he said.

In his exhibition prior to the Tuesday night's slot race, Oen let the mare cruise through to a 16.3.

"I thought that wasn't too bad just sitting on her," he said. "I thought I could be a half-second faster."

And, they were with a 15.833, but Oen knew he could have been faster.

"I could have run her faster to the first barrel in the slot race," he admitted. "When I watched the video, I sat still a little more than I should have or I could have rushed her down the alleyway a little more than I did, but it all worked out."

The next day, Gypsy came back with a 15.599 to take second in the first round of the 352-entry, $30,000-added Juvenile.

"When I ran her in the Juvenile, I told myself I'm going faster," he laughed. "I know her. I was a little bit chicken last night. Let her go!"

A 15.912 placed them eight in the second round to win the aggregate.

Oen's other superstar was Bugsy, a 4-year-old gelding by Famous Bugs out of the champion performer and producer Bars Sweet Legacy, by Rare Bar. The gelding made his competitive debut at last year's BFA but spent nearly his entire futurity season recovering from a myriad of issues.

"Leading up to the BFA last year, he was just amazing, clocking

I'll let a horse cruise through but I can't remember the last time I've made a run at home." I think reinforcing that confidence and slow work and getting those horses to put their feet exactly where they're supposed to go at a slower pace just sets them up to make that run when it actually counts."

easily” said Oen. “At 60 days out, I’m just sitting on him and clocking easy. He’s outrunning all of my colts by .2 or .3 tenths. I told them this is the best colt that I’ve ever trained.”

Unfortunately, the horse that Oen had prepared never showed up at Guthrie last year.

“When we got to BFA, something was off,” he said. “He was moody. He wasn’t lame, but he wasn’t acting like himself.”

Once home, Buggy blew a huge abscess in a hind foot that led to a cavalcade of other soreness issues that led to a nine month recovery. Even once cleared to return to training, Oen still didn’t think everything was right. On the suspicion of EPM, Buggy was tested and subsequently treated for the disease.

“He bounced back unbelievably well,” said Oen. “The Ardmore Futurity (in September) was his first back since the BFA in November 2021. He placed across the board, won the second round, won second in the Blue Collar Breeders and won a little over $40,000. It was the first futurity he was basically sound for.”

At Guthrie, Buggy added $62,715 to his career earnings thanks to his Fortunes Round and Future Fortunes bonus wins worth $49,440 and his $15,775 finish in the Futurity. His jaw-dropping victory in the first round with a 15.172 was the icing on the cake.

“Over the entire week’s span, 2000 something runs, he still had the fastest time by little over a full tenth,” noted Oen. “I didn’t run him in the second round of the futurity. I literally loped him through and schooled him off into a little bit bigger pocket around the barrels to free him up because he’s a really turny, setty horse. How was I going to better a 1? With that horse having what he had wrong with him, I wasn’t going to try to make three great runs.”

Oen and Buggy had the unfavorable draw of first gunner out in the 50 head Finals.

“I was happy with him,” said Oen, noting that Buggy had won $105,000 in just two futurities.

He chuckled, “I have a green, not truly seasoned, derby horse ready to go!”

Kassie Mowry Dominates BFA World Championship Futurity With Force The Goodbye & Sir Epic

By Tanya Randall

Three-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier and EquiStat All-Time Leading Rider Kassie Mowry capped off her 2022 futurity season with her second BFA World Championship Futurity title at the annual event, held November 11-19 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Mowry won the 401 entry, $70,000-added Futurity aboard Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis") that she co-owns with fiancé Michael Boone. She also took the reserve championship with Sir Epic, owned by Dave and Lori Zabel.

"I may have rode them a little more aggressively than usual because I felt a little bit guilty that it was their last futurity," said Mowry, who will miss the OKC Futurity while she competes at the NFR in Las Vegas.

The Dublin, Texas, based trainer collected $103,000 during the week. She won $63,241 aboard Jarvis, while Sir earned $32,129. Mowry also placed in the Futurity average on her gelding KL Touch Of Heaven and her 2023 futurity horse LK Shes Famous.

The superstar, Jarvis, has been in Mowry's barn since she purchased the gelding as a weanling from his breeders Jason and Janelle Blubaugh. The 4-year-old gelding is by $5 million dollar sire The Goodbye Lane out of VF Forcitt First, a daughter of barrel futurity champion sire Burrs First Down.

Ironically, his purchase price was discounted to reflect his need for a hernia repair, which he promptly needed upon his arrival in Texas from Washington.

"I bet I didn't even have him at my house 24-hours and I had to do colic surgery on him because of it," she said. "It was a big hernia. He pulled through it. I caught it pretty early so he's never had any complications from it. He definitely needed that hernia surgery."

Travis Fischer started Jarvis under saddle, while Boone started Jarvis on the barrels during the COVID lockdown.

"When we had the lockdown we got a lot of riding done," recalled Mowry. "Jarvis was way ahead of schedule. He had him going through the barrels really early on. From then on you could always count on him to do the same thing. I think I turned him out and really didn't do much with him from the fall of his 2-year-old year through early in his 3-year-old year. Every time I'd pull him up and get a ride on him, he felt like the last time or even better. He just didn't need to be that far ahead so we let him have some time off."

Jarvis started his career off with a bang, winning $70,000 in his debut at the 2021 BFA World Championship. He followed it up with a $22,000 clean sweep of the OKC Rookie Futurity two weeks later. Jarvis also won his fourth futurity, the Dinosaur Classic, for nearly $6,000. He was a finalist nearly every time he ran through the gate.

"He placed at every single futurity he went to and never hit a single barrel from the very first futurity until the last," said Mowry. "I don't know if that's ever been done, especially with a horse that turns as hard and fast as he does."

At this year's BFA, Mowry came close to bettering his earnings from his Juvenile campaign, but they just missed the Fortunes Round win, settling for $13,500.

"He came out of the first go with a really fast time," Mowry said of their second place 15.349. "He had us in a really good position, but we decided to run him in the second round because he had a we could edge Pete (Oen and DR Famous Legacy's 15.1) on that. We got him closer with a faster time going into the short round of the Futurity. It's always such a tight race, so you want any little help you can get."

Mowry and Jarvis went into the Finals with the second fastest qualifying time, their second-round winning 15.303, and combined it with a 15.486 to take the championship. His lifetime earnings stand at $408,607 pending the weekend update to QData.

"I felt like he deserved that," she said. "He just worked so good all year. He always gave me a chance and always got me in the money."

Sir was just .034 behind Jarvis. The 4-year-old JL Sirocco gelding, out of Karma Loftin's Epic Leader mare So Very Epic, had the third fastest qualifying time, a 15.352, that was second to Jarvis in the second round. He ran a 15.471 in the finals in spite of some scary slips.

"He slipped pretty bad and I'm lucky he didn't hit a barrel," said Mowry. "He slipped really bad at the third and his legs got out behind him. He just dropped out from under me. I was like hovering in the air about a foot above him leaving (the barrel)! I was shocked when I heard his time."

The Zabels plan on keeping Sir with Mowry through his derby year.

"I feel like Sir never got the big win he should have," said Mowry. "He's a really nice horse. He's come a long way and has a lot of confidence built up, but it can turn at any time. We're just going to keep him on the same schedule and keep going with him."

Mowry has a very short holiday week at home before she heads to Las Vegas. Unfortunately, her most seasoned rodeo horse, Famous Ladies Man ("Emmett"), the one who got there, won't be on the trailer.

He fractured the wing of his coffin bone while enjoying some time off before the NFR. Emmett is expected to fully recover but not in time for Las Vegas.

"The timing of it is so unfortunate," said Mowry. "The day I found out about it I just had to go in the house, and the day wasn't even over yet."

With Emmett out, Mowry is taking her gelding CP He Will Be Epic ("Will") and Kristen Williams' Epic Guy ("King"). Fans might be confused with the two grays but Will runs free headed in black Classic Equine boots, and King wears a bonnet and usually wears blue or turquoise Classic Equine.

Although the two grays have a little rodeo experience, it's the alleyway at the Thomas & Mack that Mowry finds problematic.

"They're nose to tail waiting to run. Some other horses get a little rank and bounce into yours. They can hear every horse running down the alleyway, the stagecoach going back. I think that's asking a lot of a horse," she explained.

Jarvis, too, is making the trip to Las Vegas.

"He's been so consistent," she said. "Nothing rattles him. He's just the best minded colt you could ask for."

Jolene Montgomery Wins BFA Derby On License To Kill For Mattie Little Jackson

By Tanya Randall

As odd as it may seem, when Jolene Montgomery won the BFA Derby Championship aboard Mattie Little Jackson's License To Kill ("Cersei"), it was the leading trainer and rider's first BFA title aboard the offspring of JL Dash Ta Heaven.

"I've won a bunch on them, but I've never won a title at the BFA," said the Purdon, Texas based trainer. "Big thank you to Mattie for letting me run her again. It's really cool to have that title on one of Jud and Mattie's horses."

Montgomery launched her training career while working for Jackson's father, the late leading barrel horse breeder Jud Little. She won her first BFA Futurity World Championship aboard Sooner Superstar, who was bred by Little's son Penn. She won another on Little's Aced My Bully, who was bred by J.O. Duke and Patricia Mundorf.

Montgomery also won her first BFA Juvenile title in 2012 on the Little-bred Marthas Sixshooter, owned by her in-laws James and Nancy Baldwin. She won the Juvenile again in 2013 on Dashin Czar for Matt and Bendi Dunn.

While working for Little, she trained his greatest star JL Dash Ta Heaven. She's been equally successful with his offspring.

"They're just so dang talented and fast," she said. "I end up with a lot of them because they can be a little bit tough to get started because they take a lot of riding and other people don't always want to do it. I've got eight right now. They're a lot of work, but they're worth it!"

This week, at the BFA, Cersei ran just like her sire.

"She ran just like him," laughed Montgomery. "She didn't turn the third barrel either. It worked for Dash Ta Heaven too. If you're not going to turn it, just keep running! It was fun!"

The 6-year-old mare, out of Jackson's top rodeo mare Buggin To Kill, by Flit To Kill, has split time between Montgomery and Jackson since her futurity year.

"She clocked up and placed really well a few times," said Montgomery, recalling the mare's 2020 futurity season. "She was kind of wild and sporadic, kind of hot and cold. Mattie took her home after Fort Smith and she sent her back to me for the BFA and Fort Smith every time since."

"She did decent at the BFA her futurity. Both years at Fort Smith she's done better. Her first derby year she did well at BFA, and this year at Fort Smith I probably made the best run I've ever made on her in the Finals. I broke the arena record and then Kristen (Hanchey on Smooth Way Ta Heaven) broke it right after me. That was phenomenal!"

Other than taking her to Montgomery a week early prior to Fort Smith this year, Jackson has kept the mare tuned and dropped her off at the events for Montgomery to jump ride.

"Mattie works her and rides her at home and does a great job," noted Montgomery. "She's been running her herself for about a year. She just won that big barrel race at Chickasha a month or two ago."

At the BFA, Montgomery said she loped the mare through the barrels a couple of times during warmup and that was all the prep they had before running in the extremely salty $20,000-added Derby.

"It was nine kinds of salty," said Montgomery. "I made two nice runs on my other two derby horses and they didn't get back to the finals. They had just one little mistake and they didn't get in."

Cersei was fifth in the first round with a 15.572 and improved to second in the second round with a 15.389. A 15.314 in the short go gave them the winning composite time of 30.703. The victory was worth $11,198.

At the upcoming OKC Derby, Jackson will pilot the mare.

Seasoned, Consistent Youth Barrel MarePERKSTERS MS KITTY

Perkster-JK Lonesum Kitty, JK Copper Bruce

$25,000 - 13 year old gray mare - Seasoned, Consistent Youth Suitable!

This mare has been hauled and won money in all levels of competition from jackpots, youth rodeos, amateur rodeos and anything in-between. Push style and very consistent. 1D/2D horse. Runs in mud, large or small pattern doesn't matter. Raised in South Dakota. She is sound and requires no maintenance.

She catches, loads, hauls and stands at the trailer all day. Goes with all horses and takes care of herself. Stands well for the farrier. We have used her in the pasture to chase cows, roped on her, and have ridden her on wagon trains. She would be a perfect youth, high school, or college horse. She would even be a nice horse for the weekend jackpottier as she doesn't care to be hauled alone. Will run poles as well. A good home is a must. Please no tire kickers. Videos available.

But the wisdom from above is first of all pure. It is also peace loving, gentle at all times, and willing to yield to others. It is full of mercy and the fruit of good deeds. It shows no favoritism and is always sincere.

Utah Days of '47 Rodeo will be a stop on the 2023 PRCA Playoff Series

The Utah Days of '47 Rodeo in Salt Lake City takes pride in setting the Gold Standard in rodeo and in 2023 they will bring that standard to the ranks of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) and the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA).

The 2023 event will payout an estimated $750,000 and will play an important role in determining Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (NFR) qualifiers and eventual world champions. Not only will PRCA and WPRA contestants have a chance to walk away with a pocket full of cash but they will get the opportunity to win a gold, silver or bronze medal, a staple at this rodeo since 2017, making it the only Gold Medal Rodeo in the world.

"We are excited to once again partner with the PRCA, WPRA and their members that dream of qualifying for the NFR each year," stated Dan Shaw, Utah Days of '47 Rodeo President & CEO. "It is our hope we can make that dream come true for a number of contestants, while also bringing world class rodeo action to our fans here at the Days of '47 Arena. July has always been a profitable month for rodeo athletes and we are honored to now elevate that even more and put Utah on the map among top paying ProRodeos."

The 2023 Utah Days of '47 Rodeo presented by Zions Bank, is slated for July 19-22, 24 and will take place at the $17.5 million state-of-the-art Days of '47 Arena at the Utah State Fairpark, custom designed and built for rodeo. The venue—an outdoor arena located in the heart of Salt Lake City—features over 10,000 stadium-style seats.

"We are excited to have the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo return as a PRCA rodeo and it will offer contestants a great opportunity to win even more money and capture a gold medal as they chase their NFR goals," PRCA CEO Tom Glause said. "It also will be a key rodeo for contestants as part of the lucrative PRCA Playoff Series presented by Pendleton Whisky."

Beginning in 2023, the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo will be the largest paying professional rodeo in the State of Utah. It will also be a stop on the PRCA Playoff Series where contestants earn points to compete at the Cinch Playoffs in Puyallup, Washington in September. Only the top 60 regular season rodeos are part of this televised series.

"This is exciting news for our members and we are thrilled to have the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo back on the WPRA schedule," stated Jimmie Munroe, WPRA President. "This will be the first time we will sanction the breakaway roping at this prestigious event and what a great opportunity for our breakaway ropers to compete for equal money similar to the barrel racers. I have no doubt that many of our members will be adding this to their scheduled stops in 2023."

The 2023 edition marks only the eighth time in the history of rodeo where riders will have an opportunity to compete for Gold, Silver or Bronze Medals. The first two times were in conjunction with the Olympic Winter Games in Calgary (1988) and Salt Lake City (2002), when rodeo was part of the Cultural Olympiad and the other five times being what is now known as the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo (2017-2019, 2021-22). Breakaway roping was added for the first time in 2019, so 2023 will mark only the fourth year for them to compete for medals. The medals that will be awarded at the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo will be produced by OC Tanner, the same company that made the Olympic medals for the champions of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games.

WPRA Announces 2022 Outstanding Committee Woman of the Year

The backbone of any rodeo is no doubt the rodeo committee and their countless volunteers that donate their time and skills to put on a good show for the fans. While the contestants and animals are the stars, they would never shine if it were not for the work of a large supporting cast of volunteers that come together, working for a common goal of making the event a success.

In 1948, the Girls Rodeo Association, now Women's Professional Rodeo Association was Built For Women By Women by 38 strong female leaders in the western industry. In honor of them and in partnership with Montana Silversmiths, one female committee member/volunteer that has gone above and beyond in their local community to make the rodeo a success and/or who has been a staple of the local rodeo for numerous years keeping the tradition alive and well will be honored with the WPRA Outstanding Committee Woman of the Year in 2022.

The inaugural recipient is Cindy Williams, a staple of the rodeo community in Vernal, Utah and the Dinosaur Roundup Rodeo.

Her involvement with the Dinosaur Roundup Rodeo started in 1975 when she was crowned Miss Dinosaur Roundup Rodeo, and she has been involved with the event ever since that time as the barrel racing chairperson, working with the facility to ensure quality ground conditions and accurately marking and staking the electric eye and barrel pattern for the WPRA barrel racers. The past decade, Cindy has also served as Secretary on the board of directors of the Dinosaur Roundup Rodeo and goes above and beyond to help the rodeo succeed.

In 2020, Cindy was a key proponent of hosting a rodeo during the COVID-19 pandemic, and the Dinosaur Roundup Rodeo was the first Playoff series/Tour rodeos to be held at full spectator capacity. In 2021, Cindy was a pioneer and instrumental in adding a tractor drag after five barrel racers to the Dinosaur Roundup Rodeo performance and slack. With the emergence of breakaway roping, Cindy was a key supporter of adding breakaway roping to the Dinosaur Roundup Rodeo in 2021. In 2022, Cindy helped bring equal money to the breakaway roping in Vernal's NFR Playoff Series event.

Outside of the Dinosaur Roundup Rodeo, Cindy has been integral in growing barrel racing in Utah by hosting weekly barrel racing jackpots in Vernal, Utah for the past nine years. While no longer competing professionally in the WPRA, she continues to train barrel racing horses and provide instruction and opportunities for barrel racers in Northeastern Utah.

The WPRA received 45 nominations for this inaugural award and was excited to have received so many great stories of the many outstanding women out there. As an Association, we are excited to continue to grow this program and recognize an outstanding committee woman on an annual basis.

Cindy Williams will be officially recognized during the WPRA Star Celebration with the Top 15 barrel racers on Thursday, December 1 at the South Point Hotel and Casino and will receive a custom made Montana Silversmiths buckle.

Angelone Sisters Dominate at WPRA World Finals

The Angelone sisters are quickly making names for themselves and their Virginia family in the Women's Professional Rodeo Association.

Martha Angelone (pronounced – Ang-a-lone-e) has dominated the WPRA ProRodeo Breakaway standings this year and will be looking for her first world title the end of the month in Las Vegas, but it was her younger sister, Sarah who captured the family's first WPRA World Title this weekend in Waco, Texas.

Sarah won the WPRA All-Around World Title with Martha finishing as reserve world champion. Sarah finished the year with $8,060, while Martha won $7,590 at WPRA approved events that had more than one roping discipline being contested at the same time. The sisters won all their all-around money at this weekend's WPRA World Finals at Extraco Event Center. Sarah competed in breakaway roping and team roping, while Martha competed in all events offered – breakaway, team roping, tie-down and all-around barrels.

Sarah headed for Martha in the team roping and heeled for Jessica Remsburg, a former WPRA world champion as well.

The Angelone sisters, originally from Cross Junction, Virginia, and now are both living in Texas, look to be a force for years to come. Martha is currently the traveler in the family, while Sarah elects to stay closer to home making the WPRA World Finals a perfect fit for her. She is now looking forward to Martha adding another gold buckle to the family trophy case on Nov. 30 at the conclusion of the Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping, presented by Teton Ridge at the South Point Arena.

Joining Sarah Angelone in the world champions circle was Hope Thompson and Lorraine Moreno in the team roping and Tanegai Silverberg in the tie-down roping.

Thompson captured her third WPRA team roping world title and fourth WPRA world title over all. Thompson finished the year with $21,671 to reserve world champion Bailey Gubert's $18,626.

Moreno captured her first WPRA world title finishing the year with $17,994, while Rylie Smith finished reserve champion with $12,245.

Two ladies that have spent time as college rodeo coaches teamed up together to win the average in Waco. Lindsay Rosser-Sumpter and Taylor Munsell roped three steers in an event best 24.3 seconds to take the title. Danielle Lowman and Jordi Edens were second in a time of 30.6. Lowman qualified for the NFBR in 2021 and Edens will make her first appearance in just a few weeks.

Taking home the tie-down roping world title for the first time in her career was Tanegai Zilverberg. She finished the year with $4,155 to take the title from the reigning world titlist Kari Nixon, who finished second with $2,877.

Zilverberg placed third in the first round and won the second round en route to the average championship as well with a time of 52.9 seconds on three.

Full results of all competition from the weekend can be found at www.wpra.com.

WCRA Restructures 2023 Cash Bonus Program

Reliance Ranches Points Bonus Restructure Replaces VRQ Weekly Cash Bonus--

The WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) recently announced that an additional three places will be paid out in the 2023 Reliance Ranches VRQ Points Champion Bonus- an annual award that will pay a cash bonus to each athlete who earns the most VRQ (Virtual Rodeo Qualifier) points in their disciplines. The WCRA will now reallocate the $180,000 VRQ Weekly Bonus moneys towards the Points Champion Bonus program effective December 1.

Currently in 2022, WCRA is slated to pay out $25,000 to each Points Champion in each discipline at the Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo (December 14-17).

"In April 2022, we unveiled the bonus paying $25,000 cash to the athlete per discipline who earns the most VRQ points," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "For next year, we will expand the 2023 Reliance Ranch VRQ Points Champion cash bonus and offer the award to four athletes per discipline, which in turn, will give athletes an additional opportunity to put money in their pocket."

The now collective $405,000 in bonus cash will be available to all athletes who nominate their 2023 rodeo efforts in their respected discipline (bareback riding, steer wrestling, heading, heeling, saddle bronc riding, tie-down roping, breakaway roping, barrel racing and bull riding) through the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) towards a 2023 WCRA event. Payout is as follows:

First Place: $25,000

Second Place: $10,000

Third Place: $7,500

Fourth Place: $2,500

"We fully expect that many of the December event champions will be going home with over $40,000 each," said Mote. "Some of the feedback we received this year encouraged us to expand the year end payout to include 3 more paid places. This is an example of the WCRA being all for rodeo and all for its athletes."

The 2023 Reliance Ranches VRQ Points Champion season starts November 28, 2022. The cash bonus will be awarded based on total cumulative points earned across all 2023 segments, including the World Points (where available at WCRA 2023 events). All points that athletes earn in a 2023 nomination segment will put them in a leader-board race for a chance to earn a piece of the $45,000 cash bonus per discipline.

The 2023 WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo schedule as of now includes Rodeo Corpus Christi May 10-13, followed by the Women's Rodeo World Championship in Fort Worth May 18-20 and Rodeo Carolinas October 6-7.

Nominations are open now for the following WCRA 2022-23 events:

Date: December 14-17

Name: Cowtown Christmas Championship Rodeo

Nominations Close: November 27

Date: May 10-13

Name: Rodeo Corpus Christi

Nominations Close: April 9

Date: May 18-20

Name: Women's Rodeo World Championship

Nominations Close: April 16

All athletes from around the globe have the opportunity to compete in the WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo Events and compete for the Reliance Ranches VRQ Points Champion Bonus through the WCRA Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ). All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the VRQ should be directed to wcrarodeo.com or go to the App store or Google Play Store and download the WCRA app on their mobile device.

Always end the day with a positive thought, no matter how hard things were.
Tomorrow's a fresh opportunity to make it better.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Happy Thanksgiving! Let's all count our blessings this week! We have so much! I'm reminded often of the goodness of God!

We have a family at the Barn that adopted a baby from China. She was born without one of her legs. She was a little over a year old, now she's about 6. And do you know, in all these years, I have NEVER heard her cry or whine. She has the most beautiful smile and the happiest heart. She humbles me. On one leg, and now a prosthetic, she runs, she jumps, she falls, she jumps back up and that smile NEVER leaves her face! She helps me with praise reports and prayer requests by taking the microphone to people who raise their hands.

Seemed to be a slow night Saturday for prayers and praise, so we were whispering to each other. Someone in the middle finally raised their hand, she saw it, she looked at me and loudly whispered, "I GOT one!", and took off running! Did I say this before? SHE. HUMBLER. ME.

1 Thess. 5:16-18 instructs us to give thanks in all things. I repent for taking for granted all the blessings I have. God is so good. The devil will lie to us and try to get us into self pity if everything isn't just perfect. It will not be perfect until we get to heaven.

But, we WILL win every battle if we apply God's Word to every situation. This week, let's concentrate on being thankful for everything He has blessed us with... and in turn... let's be a blessing!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
