9 Days & Counting - 2015 NFR Qualifier Q&A

Many of us are getting ready to sit down for Thanksgiving turkey with family and friends. In the rodeo world this means one thing; the NFR is about ready to get underway!

Each and every Wrangler NFR is exciting, but this year with the highest payout in NFR history, the barrel racing record books are going to surely be rewritten. This year's NFR has a total purse of $10 million compared to $6.375 million last year, so the NFR is going to be life changing for the contestants.

In the 2015 barrel racing each go round pays, $26,231 for 1st (compared to $19,002 in 2014), $20,731 for 2nd, $15,654 for 3rd, $11,000 for 4th, $6,769 for 5th, $4,231 for 6th and the 2015 Average pays out $67,269 for 1st (compared to $48,732 in 2014), $54,577 for 2nd, $43,154 for 3rd, $31,731 for 4th, $22,846 for 5th, $16,500 for 6th, $11,423 for 7th, $6,346 for 8th.

This year's NFR is an interesting mix of veterans and newcomers riding some of the best bred horses in the business; so kick back relax and get ready for some great barrel racing! Here are the first NFR Qualifier Q&A's with more to follow next week. If you just can't get enough information about the NFR, the WPRA has a wealth of information at www.WPRA.com as well.

#8 Cassidy Kruse $81,346

Age: 20 • Hometown: Gillette, WY • Joined WPRA: 2014

BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?

Kruse: I am taking JKR Assured Win, "JJ." He is a 14 year old sorrel gelding who stands at 15 hands and weighs about 1150 pounds

As my back up I am taking Guys Dashing Girl, "Ellie" who is owned by Pam and Craig Nelson. She is a 9 year old chestnut mare who is about 14.3-15 hands and weighs about 1,125.

Another back up is Dash To Tim, "Scooter." He is a bay 10 year old gelding that stands at 14.3 and weighs 1100 pounds probably.

BRR: What are your horse's Lifetime Earnings?

Kruse: JJ- $300,000+, Ellie- $40,000+, Scooter- $30,000+

BRR: List a few of your horse's major accomplishments.

Kruse: JJ- Josey Jr. World Reserve World Champion, multiple arena record holder, The American Semi Finals qualifier, winner of the Justin Boots playoffs and Finale, qualifying to the 2015 WNFR.

Ellie- Multi futurity finalist, multi derby finalist, PRCA money winner, helped qualify me to the WNFR

Scooter- 2x American Semi Finals qualifier, Arena record holder in Silesia, MT

BRR: List a few of your major accomplishments.

Kruse: Along with all my accomplishments with my horses; I used to Reserve seats for ERA World Championships

Elite Rodeo Athletes (ERA) 2016 World Championship Series tickets, which includes all five performances, go on sale this Friday, November 13th at 10:00 a.m. CST. The ERA World Championship will feature over 30 world champions in one arena and will take place in Dallas, Texas at the American Airlines Center. The World Championship will be the highly anticipated culmination of the 2016 ERA Tour with $3 million dollars in prize money to be won during the event.

Securing series ticket this year will give ticket holders an early purchase window to buy series tickets in the same price category to the 2017 ERA World Championship. This opportunity may never be experienced again and ticket holders will enjoy "Elite Athletes, Elite Seats and Elite World Championship Rodeo."

Tickets can be purchased online at ERArodeo.com, by phone at 800-745-3000 and at Ticketmaster outlets locally. Series ticket prices start at just $159 and include all five performances. Must purchase a minimum of 2 series tickets and a limit of 8 per customer. Series tickets available at the American Airlines Center box office beginning November 14th.

Purchasing tickets early is the best way to ensure desired seats and price levels are available. Series tickets are defined as one ticket to each of the five performances. Sales for individual tickets will be announced at a later date.

Performance times:

Wednesday, 11/9/16 – Saturday, 11/12/16: Doors open at 5:30 p.m. / Performance at 7:00 p.m.

Sunday, 11/13/15 – Doors open at 12:30 p.m. / Performance at 2:00 p.m.

Signal-Health LLC Congratulates Barrel Racer Nancy Csabay for Record Setting Success

Signal-Health –the North American distributor of Equiwinner™ patches – is pleased to congratulate barrel racer Nancy Csabay for an incredible performance at last week's Canadian Finals Rodeo in Edmonton, Alberta.

Nancy won the 2015 Canadian Champion title, was the Average Winner and received the Top Gun Award for the most money won by any CFR contestant last week. Her 11 year old mare, Little Miss Wicked, was named the 2015 Barrel Horse with the Most Heart. If that wasn't enough, Nancy also set a barrel racing record in CFR earnings at $57,056.

So what didn't she win? Nancy never won a single go-round at the CFR. Consistency, however, paid off because she cashed in every round.

Signal-Health LLC is proud to be part of Nancy's success. Nancy has been using Equiwinner on her mare, Wicked, for the 2014 and 2015 seasons, with this season being her best ever.

Nancy uses Equiwinner patches to keep Wicked in peak performance. She says "Equiwinner has played a big part in why our team has been such a success". You can't get better health and performance than when electrolytes work properly and we think Nancy and Wicked just proved it.

Equiwinner, a non-invasive dermal patch, is a simple 10-day treatment that resets electrolyte balance and starts to work almost immediately. Since electrolytes are involved in every physiological process in the body, when you restore them to perfect health, a number of conditions disappear including bleeding, tying-up, anhidrosis and headshaking. Proper electrolyte activity will also keep horses hydrated and improve performance and health generally.

For more information about Equiwinner, visit <https://signal-health.com> or phone toll-free: 1-877-378-4946.

New breeding syndicate on exclusive stallion

Your chance is now to get on board for the first time with a royal new stallion in the barrel racing industry. Only 10 shares of a new breeding syndicate to this first-time stallion are being sold to the public.

The stallion, 2-year-old Repete Offender, is by the legendary Fire Water Flit and out of Danyelle Campbell's NFR mare Repete Fame. This is the only stallion in the industry with this parentage.

Each share of the lifetime syndicate allows two breedings per year to Repete Offender, starting in 2016. Only 30 total annual breedings will be sold annually through 2018 – including the 20 offered via the syndicate. That makes each share either a powerful addition to your breeding program or a valuable individual investment opportunity.

Fire Water Flit's progeny have earned more than $5 million and include several NFR barrel racing qualifiers. This year in Las Vegas, Callie Duperier will run an own grandson, Rare Dillion. Plus, his sire Flit Bar is a grandsire of Fallon Taylor's Baby Flo, Nancy Hunter's Fuzz and Carley Richardson's Radio.

As for Repete Fame, she's earned nearly a half-million dollars since her standout 2007 futurity year, in which she clocked more than one 16.8 on a standard pattern and raked in six figures that year alone. The mare also qualified Campbell for the 2009 Wrangler NFR.

"This colt has Repete's durable bone structure and extreme confidence," said Campbell. "I can't wait to see those traits combined with the heart and intelligence of Fire Water Flit."

"Repete" was named for her dam, Hittin Pay Dirt ("Petie") – a mare that also won at the futurity level with Donnie Reece and helped Campbell qualify for a different NFR. Petie was an own granddaughter of Azure Te and a great-granddaughter of both Three Chicks and Jet Deck. And of course, Repete's sire is the late, great leading legend Dash Ta Fame – the first barrel sire to create million-dollar earners in a single year.

Call (760) 464-5332 to buy into the breeding syndicate of Repete Offender, who will likely stand for the 2016 season in Texas.

BRR: What is your favorite inspirational quote or saying that you use to keep you going during the year?

Kruse: One that I really like is "never give up, great things take time."; and another one is "be one OF a million, not one IN a million."

BRR: What is your favorite thing to do with your horses other than barrels?

Kruse: I like to be able to get them away from the barrels as much as possible, whether it's just out in a pasture clearing their minds and looking around or just keeping them in shape and working on their body positions as they are loping right circles.

BRR: What special qualities does your horse have & what makes him/her unique?

Kruse: Well JJ has the biggest heart and gives it 150% every time he steps into the arena. He's the sweetest most well mannered horse I own. And I feel he knows he does his job good and that's what makes him great.

Ellie is on the go all the time! She's gotta be doing something and she has a very sassy attitude! She wants to work and loves her job! She'll never disappoint me and I always have a smile when I ride her.

Scooter can sometimes be insecure so I always have to reassure him he does a very good job for me. He is a pleasing horse so he tries his heart out every time he makes a run!

BRR: What one piece of horsemanship or barrel racing advice would you give people trying to run barrels on a professional level?

Kruse: It's all mental! So if you are gonna set out on this crazy adventure, go into it with all your heart and believe you can do it! Have a bond with your horse because it's gonna take you and him as a team to do it!

BRR: If your horse were a celebrity which would he/she be?

BRR: List a few of your major accomplishments.

Jacob: Making the finals as a rookie was a huge accomplishment for me as well as setting a new arena record at the Thomas and Mack my rookie year, making the finals again this year has been a huge accomplishment.

BRR: What is your favorite part of barrel racing & the rodeo lifestyle?

Jacob: I think my favorite part is that all the hard work does eventually lead to success.

BRR: What is your favorite inspirational quote or saying that you use to keep you going during the year?

Jacob: "I've missed more than 9,000 shots in my career. I've lost almost 300 games. 26 times I have been trusted to take the game winning shot and missed. I've failed over and over again in my life. And that is why I succeed." – Michael Jordan

BRR: What is your favorite thing to do with your horses other than barrels?

Jacob: Bo does not like cows so we steer clear of them. He loves to run barrels but we also do a lot of pasture riding.

BRR: What special qualities does your horse have & what makes him/her unique?

Jacob: I think Bo's overall grit is what makes him so unique. It is what makes him so tough and also makes him so good on the road.

BRR: What one piece of horsemanship or barrel racing advice would you give people trying to run barrels on a professional level?

Jacob: My one piece of advice would be not to allow yourself to get

#10 Carley Richardson $77,820
 Age: 24 • Hometown: Pampa, TX • Joined WPRA: 2013
BRR: Which horses are you taking with to the finals?
Richardson: Doda Flit, "Radio", 11yo, gray, 16 hands, 1,300 lbs. Fashionable Boy, "Boy", 13yo, sorrel, 15.2 hands, 1,100 lbs.
BRR: List a few of your horse's major accomplishments.
Richardson: Radio- Won Hugo and Oakdale this year. Won the first round at Greeley and second in the average, second at Sheridan, won both of my sets at Austin and second in the finals. (Lots of seconds! Lol)
BRR: List a few of your major accomplishments.
Richardson: I won the barrels and the breakaway at the IFYR youth rodeo my senior year of high school. I won more money than anyone has at that rodeo. Won the all around in my region all four years of high school. Qualified to high school nationals and college nationals. Boy- Won gooding, Kennewick, Lawton, Lovington, and the first round at Ellensburg

BRR: What is your favorite part of barrel racing & the rodeo lifestyle?
Richardson: My favorite part of barrel racing is getting to work with horses. I love trying to figure their minds out and how different each one of them is. It seems like barrel racing is never perfected so you always have something to be working on or striving for.
 I love the rodeo lifestyle. I love the crowds and the loud music and a good announcer. I love getting to meet new people from all around the world, and all the good friends I've met throughout the year that have become more like family
BRR: What is your favorite inspirational quote or saying that you use to keep you going during the year?
Richardson: My dad always tells me "only farmers look back." It helps me to not dwell on a bad run. Anytime I would bring up something bad that happened in the year he would tell me only farmers look back and you're not a farmer.
BRR: What is your favorite thing to do with your horses other than barrels?
Richardson: Ride them outside on the ranch and just let them look around and be a horse.
BRR: What special qualities does your horse have & what makes him/her unique?

Richardson: Boy and Radio both have huge hearts. Radio is so gritty. Sometimes it's hard to tell when he isn't feeling well because he will still try just as hard. I just know I can trust both of those horses. I know that if I do my job correctly and take care of them and ride them well, they will do their job in return. That's priceless to me.

BRR: What one piece of horsemanship or barrel racing advice would you give people trying to run barrels on a professional level?

Richardson: Keep your horses soft in the mouth and listening to you. I am huge on setting goals. I write them down in my rodeo calendar so that I have to look at them everyday. They are very detailed so it gives me something to visualize and focus on.

BRR: If your horse were a celebrity which would he/she be?

Richardson: Radio would be someone sassy that doesn't like to follow the rules- Charlie Sheen! Lol

McLeod: My favorite part is barrel racing and the rodeo lifestyle is the adrenaline rush! It's always changing from day to day and you never know what to expect so you always have to be ready to adapt! I also like the friends we meet and the country and places we get to see I have never been to before.

BRR: What is your favorite inspirational quote or saying that you use to keep you going during the year?

McLeod: "If you live long enough, you'll make mistakes. But if you learn from them, you'll be a better person. It's how you handle adversity, not how it affects you. The main thing is never quit, never quit, never quit." William J. Clinton

BRR: What is your favorite thing to do with your horses other than barrels?

McLeod: I like to trail ride on my horses and if I could I would love to work cows. My horses also go to the aqua-tred a lot.

BRR: What special qualities does your horse have & what makes him/her unique?

McLeod: Slick is so kind and loving, he has such a soft eye and he really likes for me to rub his face! He loves fresh shavings and he wants to be the first one out of the barn! He has a huge heart and tries so hard at whatever you ask him to do.

BRR: What one piece of horsemanship or barrel racing advice would you give people trying to run barrels on a professional level?

McLeod: My advice is to be confident in yourself and your horse. Everyone wants to give you their opinion especially when things are not going your way. Stick to what you know and stay positive!

BBR: List a few of your major accomplishments.
Ganter: My main accomplishments are my six ProRodeo wins this year and 2014 BBR World Finals Champion.

BBR: What is your favorite part of barrel racing & the rodeo lifestyle?
Ganter: My horses have always been my life ever since I was born, so I'm just glad that I've found something I can do that involves what I enjoy most.

BBR: What is your favorite inspirational quote or saying that you use to keep you going during the year?
Ganter: I listened to the song "Fight Song" by Rachel Platten in my good times and bad times and it really kept me going.

BBR: What is your favorite thing to do with your horses other than barrels?
Ganter: I love to ride away from the arena and just enjoy my horses. I can just walk around for hours on them.

BBR: What special qualities does your horse have & what makes him unique?
Ganter: Baby J has a very mean and gritty attitude and I think that's part of why he wins. He gives 110% every run and that's what counts.

BBR: What one piece of horsemanship or barrel racing advice would you give people trying to run barrels on a professional level?
Ganter: I think spending time with your horses is more important than anything. Even if I'm not riding I'm with my horses almost all of the time doing things to try to make them feel their best.

BBR: If your horse were a celebrity which would he/she be?
Ganter: Baby J would be Jack Nicholson... He can be funny or he can be mean!

Carter: Before I was given the opportunity to run Blaze, the Hendrix's estimated he already had close to $150,000 in earnings and we probably made at least another $80,000 this year between barrel racings and the pro rodeos ($230k+ total).

BRR: List a few of your horse's major accomplishments.

Carter: Blaze has placed at every level from high school rodeos to college rodeos to some of the biggest pro rodeos in the country. Now he has qualified me to my very first NFR.

BRR: List a few of your major accomplishments.

Carter: Winning Fort Mohave was the biggest turning point in our NFR run. We also won Burley and Moses Lake back to back and then the following weekend I won second at Billings and second at Omak which really shot us up into a contention for the NFR.

BRR: What is your favorite part of barrel racing & the rodeo life-style?

Carter: I enjoy the sound of the crowd. I love hearing them cheer for each contestant. That gives me goosebumps and a huge adrenaline rush

BRR: What is your favorite inspirational quote or saying that you use to keep you going during the year?

Carter: My biggest challenge was learning how to deal with patience. I had to remind myself that Rome wasn't built in a day and try to not and rush things. I had road rage pretty bad and got over that very fast this summer while on the rodeo road!

BRR: What is your favorite thing to do with your horses other than barrels?

Carter: We just do a lot of pasture riding and out riding.

BRR: What special qualities does your horse have & what makes him/her unique?

Carter: Blaze has a huge heart and a ton of try. It didn't matter if the ground was terrible or hard, he would never stop trying for you. He just always wants to please. He is so fast and can turn just as fast as he can run which is hard for a lot of horses to do but it is easy for him.

BRR: What one piece of horsemanship or barrel racing advice would you give people trying to run barrels on a professional level?

Carter: Take things one step at a time and make sure your horse is ready for it. Travel is so tough on these horses that it is really important to plan it all out. When I was going to California and Arizona, I picked my spots and never had him on the trailer longer than 6 hours. I always kept his best interest in mind. These horses are not machines and they have to be continuously cared for and tended to. They are your partner!

BRR: If your horse were a celebrity which would he/she be?

Carter: Blaze would definitely be Superman.

BRR: What are your horse's Lifetime Earnings?

Bean: Hammer, $120,000+, Chick $40,000+/-

BRR: List a few of your horse's major accomplishments.

Bean: Ima Royal Design; Stevi Hillman, Reserve Champion, Carlee Pierce set an arena record on him when he was 5, 2nd Salt Lake City, Ut, Won rodeo at Omaha, NE, 2nd in the Shootout at Omaha, NE, Won Dillon, Mt, Plains, MT, Roswell, NM, Duncan, Ok Dashing Klee; Won the 1st Round of the JBQH Futurity 2014, Won Main Race 1 Elite Barrel Race 2014, Won Ft Worth Timed Event Challenge 2015, Reserve Champion Ft Worth, TX ProRodeo, Won Both Rounds of SemiFinals at San Antonio, 4th overall

BRR: List a few of your major accomplishments.

Bean: 2014 & 2015 NFR Qualifier, 4 Time Texas Circuit Finalist

BRR: What is your favorite part of barrel racing & the rodeo lifestyle?

Bean: I really enjoy the challenge of keeping up with the competition by improving my horses & my horsemanship. I am able to live my passion as a job. It allows me to spend time with my husband and lots of time with great friends on the road; that's the coolest part.

BRR: What is your favorite inspirational quote or saying that you use to keep you going during the year?

Bean: I have two Bible verses I always remember, especially this September when we were on the bubble!

Philippians 4:13: I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. (I say this as I go down the alley every time!)

Jeremiah 29:11: For I know the plans I have for you," declared the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

BRR: What is your favorite thing to do with your horses other than barrels?

Bean: Basically, just spend time with them and pasture ride them to improve our communication.

BRR: What special qualities does your horse have & what makes him/her unique?

Bean: Hammer is kind of a one person horse, he has to trust you before he does what he can do for you. You have to spend the time with him until he trusts you and once he does he is so willing to do whatever you want him to.

Chick is so willing to do what you want him to do, but he is a little hot. I just try to keep him quiet but as soon as you head down the alley he is ready to work. He can react instantly, so you must have good timing with him. It's funny because at the rodeos he starts to listen to the music and it gets his mind on something else & he's calmer.

Both of them have so much speed, that's the biggest asset for both horses.

BRR: What one piece of horsemanship or barrel racing advice would you give people trying to run barrels on a professional level?

Bean: The main thing is trust yourself and trust your training; teach your horse to trust you and not fear you. With my training, I say, "Trust my hands, fear my feet!" I want them to trust my hands so they don't get defensive when I need to help them.

BRR: If your horse were a celebrity which would he/she be?

Bean: Hammer is Blake Shelton & Chick is Adam Levine because they are always competing against each other and trying to get my attention. Chick is like Adam because he is a long lean funny one and Hammer is like Blake because he puts on a tough front but is actually really fun and gritty when he gets to know you!

BRR: What are your horse's Lifetime Earnings?

Guelly: Scooter has won over $75,000+. He has been hurt a few times so that has limited his hauling but he is feeling great now.

BRR: List a few of your horse's major accomplishments.

Guelly: Scooter made the Canadian Finals in 2013 and finished second in the average.

Budlight has won several pro rodeos and ran at last years NFR with Christine Laughlin.

Oscar has several pro rodeo wins as well as numerous jackpot wins.

BRR: List a few of your major accomplishments.

Guelly: I would have to say qualifying to the NFR (6 times) and winning the Canadian Finals 5x has been a huge accomplishment for me as well as winning Calgary Stampede in 2004.

BRR: What is your favorite part of barrel racing & the rodeo lifestyle?

Guelly: My favorite part about barrel racing and the rodeo lifestyle is the loading up and hauling to the next rodeo. I like traveling and I love going.

BRR: What is your favorite inspirational quote or saying that you use to keep you going during the year?

Guelly: "You must strive to do your best in everything you put your mind and hands to and try to outdo yourself, not the competition."

BRR: What is your favorite thing to do with your horses other than barrels?

Guelly: We do a lot of pasture riding and my horses really seem to enjoy it.

BRR: What special qualities does your horse have & what makes him/her unique?

Guelly: Scooter pretty much does what he wants, when he wants. He also makes the same run every time and makes it fun.

BRR: What one piece of horsemanship or barrel racing advice would you give people trying to run barrels on a professional level?

Guelly: My biggest piece of advice would be run the same, no matter what size arena or pattern you are in. Turn three barrels like you always do, like you know how to do and have a strong mental game. The mental game is the most important because it can get rough out on the road.

BRR: If your horse were a celebrity which would he/she be?

Guelly: Scooter would definitely be a king. The King of Kings.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I wonder if it would be alright to make a New Years' Resolution before Thanksgiving. Has it ever been done? I think I'll do it!! I want to be more thankful and more aware of how I act. When I look around, it's not hard to see that I have a VERY blessed life. And no, it is NOT a trouble free life. The Bible tells us in John 16:33, "these things I have spoken unto you, that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." Jesus already overcame every bad deal! Therefore, I should be able to!

So just because I'm having a bad day doesn't give me an excuse to act unlovely. People watch people. And if people know that you are the Pastors wife, they are going to watch you. Watch how you act. Watch how you react. Watch what you say. AND, Pastor's wives watch people that go to their church. Watch how they act. Watch how they react. Watch what they say.....it can be kinda scary! We will ALL be found out. How do I know that?

Today I was in the drive up at a fast food restaurant. I had ordered and the cars were creeping forward. Before you get to the pay window, you drive by these long windows that look into the inside of the restaurant. There were people sitting in a booth inside. One was a little girl about 5. She was facing her family and talking, her little bottom up against the window. Without giving it a thought, she reached around and stuck her hand down the back of her pants and began digging.....before too long, her pants were almost down and she was effectively mooning all the cars going by.....AND I know she wasn't going to run to the bathroom and wash her hands before she commenced eating!! I was laughing!!! She was found out!

Let's all be more aware of what we are doing! It'll make the world a better place!!

Have a most blessed Thanksgiving!
