The Bachelor Has Been Chosen -- Flingin Roses & Tyler Rivette Win BFA World Championship Futurity

By Tanya Randall

The barrel racing industry has its newest most eligible bachelor—Flingin Roses. The smooth running, stunning bay roan stallion known as “Bachelor” topped the BFA World Championship Futurity, giving trainer Tyler Rivette his first major aged event championship and earning $34,587 for his owner Rosemary Harrison, whose family has been in the Quarter horse performance industry for nearly 80 years.

“It’s amazing!” exclaimed the Maysville, Oklahoma-based trainer. “To even make it back to the Finals, win, lose or draw, I’m super thankful, super blessed!”

Rivette and Bachelor were incredibly consistent in the qualifying rounds. Their 15.628 in the first round placed twelfth and qualified them back to the 50-head Finals. They were 15.688 on their second pass to pick up a seventh-place check.

“He was super consistent there,” said Rivette. “He didn’t finish the first barrel (on his second run) and it’s not very far across the pen at the Lazy E. Before the finals, I went to the practice pen and schooled him a little at the first barrel. When I ran in the finals, he smoked the first barrel and I knew the other two were normally a piece of cake, and they were.”

Rivette and Bachelor’s 15.373 in the Finals gave them the aggregate lead with a 31.001 but half of the field had yet to run including the fastest qualifiers and eventual Reserve Champions Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and her homebred Flame Carver, who now belongs to Callie Albrecht.

“We went back to the stalls, took care of him and just waited it out,” said Rivette. “If I had been second or third, I couldn’t have been happier with him.”

Bred by Bo Hill and Jeff Switzer of Dodge City, Kansas, Bachelor is by $4.6 million barrel horse sire A Streak Of Fling out of multiple champion producer Dancing Rose Lady, by Disco Jerry (TB). He is a half brother to College National Finals Champion Jitterbugz, by Famous Bugs, and several other multiple futurity finalists. Harrison Quarter Horses of Fulshear, Texas, purchased him as a yearling.

“Bo had him for sale on Facebook and she texted me and asked me if I wanted a stallion prospect,” recalled Rivette. “I said, ‘Absolutely!’”

Rivette, who grew up running barrels around his hometown of Simonton, Texas, just west of Houston, first became acquainted with the A Streak Of Fling, Disco Jerry line when Harrison Quarter Horses purchased multiple American Semifinals Qualifier Streakin-FlinginDisco.

Bachelor had his first 30 days of riding with Shane Rudibaugh in Weatherford, Texas, before spending time with Lora Alexander, who rides the 2-year-olds and helps Rivette at the shows. Rivette started on him on the barrels as a 3-year-old.

“When I started him on the barrels, he felt like he already knew them,” recalled Rivette, who competed on his first futurity horse in 2015. “There was never a difficult time in his training. He took to it. He’s just been very natural from the beginning. I’ve never had a horse love to run barrels as much as he does. He craves it.”

Bachelor was good from the get-go, placing in the 2019 BFA Super Stakes and then in both rounds and average of the Juvenile. He placed at nearly every futurity he entered with the exception of a couple where he had ground trouble.

“He’s been there all year, for sure,” said Rivette, who will run

Life's A Beach – Sand In My Socks & Kassie Mowry Win $100,000 BFA Super Stakes for Isabella Quarter Horses

By Tanya Randall

Kassie Mowry, an all-time leading aged event trainer and rider, claimed her second BFA Super Stakes Championship with Sand In My Socks (“Sandi”), owned and bred by Thomas and Zoe Braman’s Isabella Quarter Horses in Refugio, Texas. The 3-year-old mare cut the clock off in 15.521 in her very first competition run to win $100,000.

“That mare was running so hard that night,” recalled Mowry, who trains out of Dublin, Texas. “That’s what we wanted. I wanted her really running so she wasn’t looking around and I knew when I quit hustling she would melt into the turns, and she did.”

Sandi is the second BFA Super Stakes Champion by leading barrel horse sire BHR Frenchies Socks. She is out of the race-winning Tres Seis mare JC Pick Six.

“I’ve had her since she was a long 2-year-old,” said Mowry. “Justin Arnold broke her. She’s been uneventful for the most part. It was really just getting her moving through her time and it was just time and consistency to get her to turn how we wanted her to.

“She was a little scared of the barrels early on, like she would jump away from them sideways. She got over that in a couple of months. Her whole 3-year-old year she was always consistent and clocked right up there. She wasn’t always the fastest, but she was always up there and gave me a good chance so just seemed like the best option for a slot race.”

Surprisingly, after Mowry named Sandi as her slot horse and she went to cut the last half-second off her pattern, the filly actually backed off.

“I was really wracking my brain about getting her to run all the way,” she said. “She just has a lot of natural work to her, a ton. We started taking her to some places that had some banners and we kind of saw that she had a little issue with being afraid of the banners, but also with being too aggressive in her turns. Mike (Boone) helped me a bunch. He rode her a lot up there and we got her more accustomed to the banners and spent more time with her and got her more comfortable with the arena. We got some arena time the morning of (the slot race) and it really went a long way to make her a lot more comfortable running up to the walls. I can always trust her to turn.”

When Mowry saw Zoe Braman and her barn manager Ron Kelso in attendance, she was determined to make a clean run.

I was willing to fall off running that mare up into the hole,” she laughed. “I was like, “Sandi, we’re not hitting a barrel! I’ll go to the wall if I have to because I knew the trickiest thing about her would be just getting around them with the banners and energy of it. I was like one of us is getting around the barrels and it might only be me!”

Mowry says the victory really was a team effort.

“It takes the right horse and the right timing,” she said. “Mike

Lindsay Hayes-Banks Takes Darren Scholl's Streakin Sunfrost To The BFA Juvenile Championship

By Tanya Randall

Former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Lindsay Hayes-Banks of Opelika, Alabama, jump rode 3-year-old Streakin Sunfrost ("Oakley") to a $15,642 BFA Juvenile Championship for Darren School of Troy, Alabama. The pair also won the Future Fortunes Juvenile Bonus and Sires' Slots for an additional $29,350 for total earnings of $44,992.

"That mare I rode was pretty solid and amazing," said Banks, a nurse who works in post-op care in orthopedics.

Since she'd been kicking dirt trying to find another rodeo horse, Banks decided to "bite the bullet" and buy a 3-year-old that just happened to be entered in the BFA Juvenile. Just when she thought she'd be bored with just one horse to run in Guthrie, Scholl called and asked if she would be interested in riding one of his 3-year-olds. He had two full siblings and both were entered in the Super Stakes, but riders are limited to one horse. When his other jockey fell through, he called Banks.

"He called a week and half before I left," she recalled. "I drove over to his house, he lives an hour and half from me, and made a run on that mare. It felt really good."

Banks only had that one run and an exhibition the morning of the Super Stakes to really get a feel for the mare. Unfortunately, they tipped the first barrel in the slot race.

"The slot horses got to exhibition Tuesday morning through the barrels," she explained. "I didn't really want to run her all out in exhibitions so I just let her breeze through, or float through, to make sure there weren't any problems I needed to work on. She felt really good."

I just bumped her a little too soon at the first barrel and caught it leaving it."

she did. They placed fourth with a 15.636.

"She felt really good, but I told him I thought I could still send her a little bit harder. I came back on Friday and really ran her to the first and that's when I ran the (15.459). That won second in the round that day and won the average."

For Banks, who has spent most of her competitive career rodeoing in the Southeastern Circuit, the victorious jump ride might have been the spurring she needed to go back to training full time.

"I've been thinking about taking on some outside horses," said the mother of three—an 18-year-old daughter who is a freshman in college, a 14-year-old team roping son and a 6-year-old daughter. "I enjoy being a nurse, but horses are my passion. My sister said winning the juvenile was the sign that I need to try the horses again."

Banks wanted to thank Josey Owens, Scholl's regular jockey for all her help since her draws were so close together, her uncle for going with her and her family for their support and keeping everything going at home.

She especially wanted to thank Scholl for the opportunity to ride such a promising young horse.

"The mare is exceptionally nice," she said. "She's incredibly mature. She doesn't get excited before you run. She's not excited after a run. My little girl even rode her bareback back up to the arena for the win picture. She could make that same run over and over. I was glad he gave me the opportunity to ride her."

Scholl concurred saying, "Oakley is so mature. If you didn't know she was 3, you would swear she was 10. I think that's what sets her apart. (Lindsay) really only sent her through the barrels one time before she ran her in the slot race. If she had got to run a few more times we'd probably would have had a different slot race. It just came together with each run all week long. That's all you can ask for."

Scholl, a lifelong horseman who watched his horse Goodfrenchmanfriday run at the NFR last year, had purchased Oakley and her full sister from the fillies' breeder Renae Delhomme, DVM, two years ago. His friend Ashley Pilgrim had seen them for sale on the Internet and told Scholl he needed to take a look.

"With my program, I usually have a couple of horses a year, but there are times when I give my mares a year off," he explained. "I had given my mares off and I didn't have horses in that age group and I usually like to have two every year. I was looking for horses and am particularly fond of mares. She sent me a text.

"I really liked them, talked to Renae and researched the stud. He was standing in Brazil and I really liked the bloodlines. We ended up striking up a deal for me to buy both of them. They're full sisters about two weeks apart."

Oakley, a uniquely colored buckskin roan, is by Streak Of Moon BRZ, a Brazilian bred son of A Streak Of Fling out of a Marthas Six Moons mare, and is out of Barefoot N Buckwyld, a daughter PC Redwood Manny.

Both fillies went through Scholl's stair-stepped program that's produced him winners like NBHA Champion Miss Gay Bar Abby. It starts with groundwork and breaking with Keith Temple in Kentucky. Next, they go to the stockyards for riding around cattle. Their barrel training starts with Cheryl Fisher, whom Scholl had met while establishing a plastics plant in Tennessee.

"I wish Cheryl could have been there," said Scholl. "Really, it's not possible without her. With a lot of the colts, a normal futurity program would have given up on them. If they don't come around quickly they move on because they have so many waiting in the wings. When I send a 2- or 3-year-old to Cheryl there's never a time limit on it. I believe horses are like children, they all come along at their own pace. She's so patient and slow and she doesn't move on until they're ready. I told her none of this is possible without her taking the time."

When the horses are loping a solid pattern, they come back to Alabama where the speed is added.

"I've followed that program pretty much the last 15 years," he said. "It always seems to work for me."

Scholl, who is chief of operations for KW Container, a company that recycles plastics into paint containers, grew up with horses and competed himself until he graduated college and joined the Navy.

He hadn't planned on having barrel horses again when he discharged, figuring that part of his life was over.

"I started dating a girl that wanted a barrel horse so I got right back in it again," chuckled Scholl. "Didn't keep the girl but kept the horses!"

Dead Heat – Dena Kirkpatrick & Gracies Lane and Cayla Small & Slick N Black Split BFA Derby Title

By Tanya Randall

The BFA World Championship Derby ended with a historic tie. Dena Kirkpatrick and Gracies Lane along with Cayla Small and Slick N Black both turned in two run aggregates of 30.729 to split the championship.

Kirkpatrick and “Grace” had qualified for the finals with a 15.378 that placed second in the second round, while Small and “Spatch”—so called for the spatula-shaped marking on her forehead—earned their way to the 20-head short round with a fourth-place 15.459 in the first round. Kirkpatrick and Grace clocked a 15.351 to take the aggregate lead just halfway through the Finals. Small and Spatch, who were the second to last pair to run, posted a 15.270 to split the victory.

The victory was worth $8,239 for Kirkpatrick and $7,092 for Small.

By Grit And Grace

“How crazy it that we tied?” said Kirkpatrick, a veteran barrel horse trainer, multiple aged event champion and clinician. The Post, Texas, trainer collected $8,239 on behalf of Gracie’s efforts. “It’s so exciting and fun. Winning first is so rare and such a gift from God. You can have the best horse and have the best everything and it just not go right. I relish every moment.”

It was the first BFA Derby Championship for Kirkpatrick, who won the 1997 BFA World Championship Futurity in historic fashion. She and Willy Nick Bar won all three rounds of the Futurity. Kirkpatrick also made BFA history in 2009 when she won both qualifying rounds of the Futurity on different horses. She won the first round on Kates Always First and the second round on JB One Famous Dude.

The best thing about this historic win, says Kirkpatrick, is the horse. “I own her,” she said. “In the past when I won on those other horses I didn’t own them or own them outright, but she’s my horse. She’s not going anywhere. I love her.”

Gracie came into Kirkpatrick’s possession via a rodeo trip with Kates Always First. Kimmie Wall had arranged for her to stay with Mark and Linda Jarvis, who own The Goodbye Lane.

“I fell in love with The Goodbye Lane,” she said. “I went back a month later on another rodeo trip and bought two horses—a yearling and weanling. The yearling was Gracie.”

Bred by the Jarvis family, Gracie is by The Goodbye Lane out of the Dash Ta Fame mare TS Up N Famous.

Family commitments, namely grandma duty, delayed Gracie’s futurity year until she was 5. And, although she didn’t get to go much, Gracie was extremely competitive when she did, running the fastest times of a few of the events they attended.

“She’s unbelievable,” Kirkpatrick said. “She can just shut the clock off, she’s really smooth and fast and quick in the turns. She’s just been one of those horses. I’ve never even really had to tune on her. It came easy to her.”

Gracie made the BFA Derby Finals last year as a futurity horse, too. Kirkpatrick was offered a lot of money for the mare but turned it down, only to have her injured in the stall.

“Isn’t that always the way?” she laughed. “I was off her for five months plus all the shutdown. I haven’t hauled her very much this year.”

Some discouraging runs once Kirkpatrick started running Gracie again forced the trainer to switch the left-barrel first mare to the

THE RUNDOWN w/Dena Kirkpatrick

Gracies Lane, "Gracie" 15.1 hands, 1,100 lbs.

BIT: "I trained her and ran her in a Jim Edwards Ball Correction all her futurity year. I still ride her in that every day. I recently put her in an Elliot Bit (Spur Up 03 LS) with a chain mouthpiece to run."

SADDLE: Martin Stingray

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Zone

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Flexion on front, polo wraps on rear

SHOEING: Rims on front and Kahn Forge Concave on rear

FEED: Renew Gold in morning

HAY: Grass hay, enough to eat on all day, and alfalfa at night.

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP Exceed 6-Way, Air Way EQ, In Sync, Mega Mag and Gastro Plex in morning

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track, Magnets, ActiVet Laser

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: I trot and lope a couple of times a week, the Pinwheel Drill that I teach people. I use that for conditioning. I'll lope all-rights and all-lefts around the barrels; it helps keep them soft on the barrels and not get too uptight about them. If you lope an 8-foot circle, which is like 3 foot around each barrel, that is about the right size circle for them to stay pulling with the front end and driving with the hind end. It's a really good conditioning exercise for barrel racing plus it helps me keep sitting down and using my feet. I don't exercise her every single day. I give her some days off depending on what's going on with her running.

SPONSORS: Classic Equine, Martin Saddlery, MVP, ReNew Gold and ActiVet Laser

THE RUNDOWN w/Cayla Small

Slick N Black, "Spatch" 15 hands, 800-900 lbs.

BIT: Medium shank square mullen "I've also ran her in a bit with a chain mouthpiece with a nose band. I really just run her in whatever I feel like she needs. After the WPROA Finals where she got a little strong on me I decided I was going to put a little more bit on her."

SADDLE: G Bar G

SADDLE PAD: Diamond Wool

LEG GEAR: Iconoclast with Classic Equine bell boots

SHOEING: Aluminum on front, regular steel rim on rear

FEED: Bluebonnet Senior

HAY: Lives on grass pasture. When hauling, grass and a flake of alfalfa.

SUPPLEMENTS: Probiotic

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track when temperature appropriate

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Loping around the arena for exercise

SPONSORS: G Bar G

chased by Charlie Cole and Jason Martin after winning the AQHA World Show in 2012 and had yet to go on the rodeo road with Michelle McLeod. "(Mom) was like, 'Ok, I don't know who that is, but you can do whatever you want.' Now, he's very well-known and everyone knows who he is. I had just seen him at the barrel races and really liked him and they (Slick and Beauty) were both black and you can never go wrong with a black horse!"

It turned out to be an exceptionally good cross as not only has Spatch won championships, but her 4-year-old full sister Design In Red, whom Small sold this summer to junior rider Austyn To-

At the BFA, she used her first Derby run as exhibition because the mare is still fairly low on experience, Kirkpatrick says.

"My first run at the BFA was probably the worst run we've ever made," she said. "She missed the first barrel all together and hit the second barrel and I ran a 16.1. I really didn't think she had gotten it yet. I didn't think we were ready for this kind of competition and then her second run, she felt like her old self. It was like she figured it out."

Kirkpatrick said her Finals run felt smooth and correct as well. "She's amazing," she said. "She might be the best horse I've ever had in my life, even including Kate, it's hard for me even saying that, but she's so smooth. She doesn't shake me loose as much as Kate did."

That's extremely high praise from a trainer that has had the likes of Sugar Moon Express and Lady Perks go through her program. Like those aforementioned champions, it's likely that rodeos are in Gracie's future.

"Under normal circumstances, I'd say I'd go to more rodeos on her, but they're cancelling rodeos left and right," Kirkpatrick said. "I'm obsessed with the Ruby and Pink Buckles. I'll make sure I get to go to those. They're highest on my priority list. I might actually enter her in an American Qualifier one of these days. I never wanted to do that on Kate because I never wanted to try to run her at Northside (the local's name for Cowtown Coliseum). I don't really know what our plans are, but I'm keeping her that's for sure!"

Back In Black

During a Canadian rodeo run in 2013, Jane Melby offered her daughter Cayla Small an embryo out of her multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier RC Back In Black ("Beauty"), by Ninety Nine Goldmine. Small was quick to take her up on the offer and decided to breed her to an up-and-coming stallion by the name of Slick By Design.

"I told her I wanted to breed to Slick By Design because I had seen him at the barrel races," she laughed. Slick had just been pur-bey, won third in the BFA World Championship Futurity, earning $15,228.

Spatch, on the other hand, missed out on a 4-year-old futurity season because Small was rodeoing full time, qualifying for the 2016 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo alongside her husband team roper Zach Small, now a veterinarian, about the time the filly was ready to start her training.

"I was rodeoing and didn't really do anything with her," Small admitted. "She wasn't even really halter broke when I sent her to my brother (Colton Melby) in June of her 3-year-old year. He got her halter broke and put 60 or 90 days on her. If she acts like a wild Brumby from time to time she has a legitimate excuse!"

As a 5-year-old futurity horse, Spatch won the Fizz Bomb Futurity and finished the year as a finalist in the BFA Derby. This year Small had planned to season the mare at the pro rodeos until COVID changed her plans.

"I'm not dedicated enough to go to rodeos when they are that far apart," laughed Small, who lives in Welch, Oklahoma. "I need to go to a smaller group of rodeos closer together. (she laughed). COVID really wrecked my rodeo plans, but maybe they'll start having more rodeos again someday."

With her stallion Forbez recovered from the fractured hock he suffered after last year's BFA World Championship, Small says she'll likely concentrate on getting him back up to speed and hauling her two futurity colts for 2021. That means her mom might actually get her wish to run Spatch at the rodeos.

"Mom keeps acting like she wants to take Spatch and go to the rodeos," said Small. "I might let her too. I don't really like rodeoing that much. I like to go home at the end of the weekend!"

Epic Nic's 2nd Dam is blue hen mare SX Frenchmans Peach who has produced $438k of winners already including Canandian Champion, Fames To Blame. Consigned by Lazy E for 88 Ranch Performance Horses, the fancy colt sold to Blaise Bercegeay for $170,000.

The second high selling horses was a beautiful 2 year old buckskin stud colt by Frenchmans Guy out of a winning barrel horse daughter of Dash Ta Fame, Justalilwilder. This stud colt crosses the two top lines in barrel racing, the $14 Million sire Frenchmans Guy and the $24 Million sire Dash Ta Fame. A striking and a beautiful mover, he is on track for a big time futurity year. His dam, Justalilwilder, won close to $30k running barrels and the second dam, Just

A Wildone is a stakes winner of $53,284 and stakes producer in the racing world. He was consigned by Terry Moody and sold for $64,000 to Chad Beus.

The third high selling horse of the sale was a well bred, good moving 3 year old palomino gelding by popolare sire A Smooth Guy and out of Dash Ta Fame/Dash For Perks mare, Fols Perky Fame. The well bred 3 yr old was started on the pattern and hauled by consignor Michelle Darling and was ready to go for the 2021 futurities. This gelding combined three of the biggest sire lines in the industry, (Frenchmans Guy, Dash Ta Fame & Dash For Perks) and is sure to head to the pay window. He was purchased for $41,000 by Russell Welch.

103 total horses walked through the sale ring, with 82 changing hand and 21 were repurchased. The completed sales totalled $1.38 million with an average of $16,834 on sold horses.

The Top 5 Horses averaged $70,800 and the Top 10 averaged $52,150. The Top 2 sellers were both stud colts. In the Top 10 there were 4 colts, and 3 geldings and 3 fillies.

The full results are listed below, sorted by sale price from high to low. For more information check out the BFA Barrel Horse Sale on Facebook.

French Streaktovegas Passes

The up and coming sire, French Streaktovegas owned by MR Performance Horses, passed away this past week. French Streaktovegas (A Streak Of Fling-PC Frenchmans Flirt, Sun Frost) was a 2007 bay roan stallion bred by Frances Loiseau/Barb Westover who won over $74k with 7 different riders (unofficially, BRR count) including a BFA Derby Championship with Hallie Hanssen.

As he moved into his stud career, the heart and desire that anyone watching him run could see plain as day, was passed down to his babies. This year he had his biggest winner with multiple futurity winner RV Two Dash Ta Vegas who has won over $160k with Anita Ellis so far. He also had 4 colts make the Finals of this past week's BFA World Championship Futurity. His colt will continue to follow in his footsteps for years to come...

The statement below is from the French Streaktovegas Facebook page post on Nov 20: "I've struggled for a while with finding the right words to describe Streak and the impact he has made on my life but nothing I can say will ever come close to explaining what he meant to me and those closest to him.

When I purchased Streak he was almost 7 years old. I knew nothing about him aside from what he had accomplished and the different hands he had exchanged over his short career. Even though I had no desire to purchase a stud, fate had bigger plans for us both. Purchasing him led me to a phenomenal stallion who just wanted a place to call home. To never worry about where he would go, who would be running him or what they wanted from him. I became his person and provided him with the one thing he needed the most, love. What I didn't expect was what he would do for me. Streak has forever changed my life. He gave me hope, friendship, comfort and most of all an irreplaceable bond. Although I catch myself asking why, I try to be grateful for the time God allowed him to stay with me and thankful for putting us in each other's lives when we need it the most.

I'm blessed to be able to continue his legacy and watch his babies for years to come but unfortunately there will never be another. What he had cannot be duplicated or replicated. He had the heart of a champion, a quality that will be passed down into his offspring for generations to come. After all, the greatest use of life is to spend it on something that will outlast it."

Our thoughts and prayers are with the connections of French Streaktovegas... he will always hold a special place with us as we got to see so many of his gritty runs in person... Barrel Racing Report

Triangle's 41st Fall Sale Averages Reflect Historic Market Demands

The recent 41st annual Fall Triangle Horse Sale, held Nov. 6-7 concluded with an impressive average of $10,150 per head on 471 catalogued horses (less withdrawals and pass outs). The event was held during opening weekend of the American Quarter Horse Association Championship Show at State Fair Park in Oklahoma City, adding a substantial crowd of buyers from more than 30 states across the country, along with Columbia, Mexico and Venezuela to the weekend activities.

Buyers drove sales to an 85-percent sales completion with a Top 10 average of $55,700 and Top 50 average of $28,000. The strong sales also prompted the inclusion of 106 horses into Triangle's coveted Top $10,000 Club, designated for horses bringing $10,000 and more. Jim Ware, owner of Triangle Horse Sales, credits the Fall Sale as the venue's best ever in offering top quality horses throughout all disciplines.

"It was as good as it gets—we had January quality in November," Ware said referencing Triangle's Winter "January Sale," which has historically been one of the most anticipated horse sale events in the country.

"We drew a lot of people to town with the tremendous quality and versatility of horses that were available," he said. "There is so much strength in the gelding market right now—so much demand for those horses that are ready for whatever you want to do. I feel like Triangle horses represent many disciplines really well, and we have done a tremendous job of following the track of popularity for the versatile horse."

This demand was reflected in sale totals for geldings age 3-years-old and older, yielding a Top 20 average of $39,000 and an overall average of $14,200. As a group, this was joined in top averages by National Cutting Horse Association money earners, at an average of $23,500.

The high seller was Hip No. 283, The Love Fool (Whizkey N Diamonds x Miss Brim Star by Smart Starbuck), which sold for $100,000. The 2016 buckskin gelding known as "Bravo," is bred and trained in reining and was consigned by Sarah and Mozaun McKibben, Whitesboro, Texas, and sold to Remington Monroe Equine in Ketchum, Idaho.

Ware says "Bravo" is representative of the type of gelding so many people are looking to buy.

"Of course, the cutting, cow horse and reining prospects sold well as always—but our highest sellers recently have been purchased for their traits as good, gentle horses that are dependable in a variety of situations, regardless of what the original intentions with breeding or training may have been," Ware said. "There are so many buyers looking for a horse they could potentially go show—but even more so that can just be ridden for pure enjoyment and be depended on."

A 2011 sorrel mare, Metallicat (Metallic Cat x Mates Matrix by Smart Mate), was second high seller. The mare sold as Hip No. 54 for $80,000 from consigner Ty Smith, Whitesboro, Texas, to Cudd Quarter Horses, Woodward, Okla. Following closely as third high consignment, was Hip No. 11, Hip Hip Sue Rey (Dual Rey x Meradas Little Sue by Freckles Merada), for $75,000. Hip Hip Sue Rey is a 2006 chestnut mare sold by Ashley and Beau Galyean, Fort Worth, Texas, to Brent Steward of Las Vegas, Nev.

Rounding out the top five high sellers were Hip Nos. 245 and 304. SM Custom Voodoo (Boomboovoodoo daddy x Shes A Custom Chic by Custom Crome) sold for $59,000. The 2014 palomino gelding was another top selling consignment in the Fall Sale going from Sarah and Mozaun McKibben to Remington Monroe Equine. Hip No. 304, a 2015 bay gelding named Travalin Joe (Lil Joe Cash x Travelin Gracie by Travalena), was fifth high seller coming in at $50,500. Travalin Joe was consigned by Vicki and Jeff Tebow, Piedmont, Okla., and sold to Mike Nankervis, Golden, Colo. The gelding also finished third place overall in the 2020 AQHA World Championships Junior Dally Team Roping—Heeling, ridden by J.D. Yates.

Next on the Triangle Sales calendar is the online Oxbow Ranch Sale, which will be a three-day event Dec. 4-6, during the NCHA Futurity. The event will be a timed online auction featuring embryos, weanlings, yearlings and broodmares cultivated from Oxbow genetics—under the direction of legendary trainer, Lindy Burch. The sale will kick off with an open house at the Lindy Burch Ranch, from 8 a.m.-3 p.m., Fri., Dec. 4. Online bidding begins at 8 a.m., Sat. Dec. 5 and closes at 5 p.m. Dec. 6.

Triangle's 38th Winter, "January Sale" is slated for Jan. 22-23, 2021 at State Fair Park, in Barns 1 and 2, known collectively as the "Super Barn." The location will provide easy access to parking and centralized stall availability to the sale ring. This year, the "January Sale" will host special sessions both sale days, as well as a Team Roping Preview, Jan. 22 in Barn 6. The preview will feature each horse individually and provide professional video recording to be shown for the Saturday sale. Entries for the sale close December 4.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Happy Thanksgiving! We have so much to be thankful for! Stop rolling your eyes! Yes, we do. LOL!

This week, let's turn off the news and just count our blessings. When we fill ourselves up with what's wrong all the time, our vision begins to see ONLY wrong. That's not a good place to be.

As Christians, we have authority over evil. Jesus gave it to us in Matthew 28:18-20. It's our responsibility to take what we have been given and do good everywhere we go! Having a sense of humor helps.

So... last week. We have a fairly long driveway. And we have a fairly new driver in the family. We've been noticing our grandson has been going faster up our driveway when he comes over.

We were standing outside talking and here he came! He parked and got out.

Mike said, "Cody, you're going a little fast up the drive, you're making dust." Cody responded, "Papa, I saw a sign in town that said, 'Speed Limit - 35 MPH in Residential Areas'! Oh boy.. Mike said, "I've got your sign!" Perspective.

Let's look at the half full side of the glass, and not just this week, but every day until Jesus comes to get us! Blessings on you!
