Epic Year for Epic Guy and Kassie Mowry

By Hope Raley

2019 has been quite the year for veteran trainer Kassie Mowry. The Dublin, Texas standout had her career best this past season and even though she found herself in the winner's circle often, she went about the year the way she does every year- focusing on the horse and not on the numbers, and it was with that mentality that earned her the 2019 Barrel Futurities of America World Futurity Championship crown as well as the year end TheraPlate Revolution Standings Champion!

Mowry is quick to credit her successful season to one of the most talented group of futurity colts that she has ever had, and although we thoroughly agree, we also believe that they had one of the absolute best in the history of barrel racing teaching them the skills they needed in order to become the champions they are thanks to Mowry's incomparable training.

Mowry cashed in $92,206 at the BFA, this added to her pre-BFA Equistat earnings of $459k increasing her 2019 earnings to over $550,000! Mowry also sits at the top at the leaderboard for leading barrel racer in 2019, which is a feat that Mowry didn't expect or technically plan for. It just 'happened', and she was both surprised and humbled.

"It was very much a surprise for me," said Mowry. "I have so many people to thank that have helped this year and I am so grateful for all the kind words. This is a huge accomplishment and I am very proud of my horses for making it happen."

Admitting that such an accomplishment is something that she never planned on happening, Mowry instead keeps her focus the same year after year.

"Every year I try to do the best that I can to make my horses the best that they can be. Last year when we were exhibiting these colts, they were so close together. Every week they went back and forth on which one was the fastest and we weren't sure if we had a group of mediocre colts or a group of standouts. Typically, you only have one special one in your group, so having all of them contribute was extra special. For me, it's all about the horse. This stuff is just icing on the cake!"

Mowry and Epic Guy, owned by Kristen Williams, clenched the futurity championship along with the year-end championship and earned over $75,000 at the event. The 34th Anniversary of the BFA World Championships was held this year at its new home at the Lazy E in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Mowry describes "King" as a very kind and curious horse that is incredibly fast, and if "King" were a person, he would be the fun-loving, funny, athletic Homecoming King.

"He is very handsome like a Homecoming King would be," laughed Mowry. "I think he would be the star tennis player because of how quick and efficient he is."

Besides his devilish good looks, "King" has several attributes that make him a winner and a horse that Mowry will cherish forever.

"He thinks really well under pressure when others will take the bit and get strong the more nervous that they get. He always comes back to me if I need to handle him at all and he is always willing and ready to take instruction during a run if he needs it," Mowry explained. "He tries very hard and always wants to please. He is a very special horse and I have enjoyed every minute with him."

One bit of advice that Mowry would give others is keep trying hard and never be afraid of asking for help.

"We all start out at the bottom and I have too been there. I try to help as much as I can because I do not like to see other people struggling and I interact and try to help fellow competitors as much as I can because we all understand what a struggle our job can be. Colts can be difficult at times and they don't always understand what we are trying to tell them. Sometimes little adjustments just need to be made and another set of eyes can have that answer for you.

Mowry also explains that she herself does not like to worry about the numbers game and she also does not put expectations on any of her horses or herself. "That is a sure way to get your heart broke on a horse," Mowry explained. "I just worry about doing the best that I can do with what they can give me and if I do that, mission accomplished. What I want with my horses is a well-rounded horse that is enjoyable for its owner or rider."

When trainers try to meet a certain number every year, Mowry explains that a situation like that can add unnecessary stress to not only the rider but the horse as well.

"More stress creates more frustration and added frustration doesn't help your riding and, in the end, it does not help your horse perform to the best of his or her ability. Do your homework and use your resources. Be willing to change your style and evolve with the bloodlines. Everything in our industry is constantly changing and these horses are not cookie cutters; instead of getting frustrated if you are having issues, take a step back and get to know your horse and try to understand them. I promise that they will try and communicate with you as well."

When speaking with Mowry, it is simple to see why she is a winner and someone that her fellow peers and fellow barrel racers look up to. She has won more than most any other barrel racer, yet she is as humble and grounded as if she hasn't ever won a dime. Congrats to Mowry on a fantastic year!

*Barrel Racing Report note — after pulling his Equistat report and adding the futurities not yet reported and the BFA earning, Epic Guy has now earned more than $236,000 in his career which started just a little over 11 months ago.

All Aboard -- The Midnite Express Carries Leslie Willis to 3rd $100,000 Championship

By Tanya Randall

Multiple futurity champion Leslie Willis returned to the BFA SuperStakes winner's circle on Tuesday, November 19, aboard The Midnite Express ("Josey") after a 12-year hiatus. Willis previously won the 2007 BFA SuperStakes on the Paint gelding Bet Or Check. That victory came on the heels of her first $100,000 victory at the Run For The Bucks the week prior on Hesa Dashing Boone.

"It's been so long I was beginning to wonder if I was doing something wrong," said Willis, who posted a 15.790 aboard Josey to win the $100,000 Championship.

Ironically, Willis was considering skipping the BFA SuperStakes this year because she didn't think she had a horse ready. She contacted Lisa Anderson, the manager at Copper Spring Ranch and suggested selling the slot she had shared in partnership with the Bozeman, Montana, the last handful of years.

"I told Lisa, 'Let's try to sell it to someone that has a colt they really think highly of and give them a chance. Mine are kind of green.' The few people I contacted before publicly putting it out there, they either had a slot or didn't want a slot. I called Lisa back and said well before we let it go, I've got a colt that's talented but green. She was all for it," she explained.

One of the reason Willis says her colts are behind is because she and her husband Jason, a former futurity competitor too, are in the process of moving to another place not far from their current Chester, South Carolina, home.

"It's been overwhelming this year," she said. "We've been clearing land, planting pasture. It's got a house and barn, but it only has three stalls, which doesn't work for me, so we're building a barn too."

Once she named Josey to the slot race the first of October, she made hauling him her focus.

"Once we named him, I got really serious," she said. "He had to go somewhere every week between now and then. The last couple of times I took him, the timers didn't work so I didn't know where he was clocking. I knew he was fast, but I hadn't had a time on him in the last 30 days."

The veteran competitor wasn't nervous about running the green colt for big money, she actually prefers the slot race type setups to multiple runs.

"I find myself more comfortable in a one-run, give-it-your-all than riding for an average," she admitted. "I think I over analyze stuff and think too much. I've always said whoever's day it is, it's their day. Go make the best run you can make. If it stacks up, great. If it doesn't, they'll be another one down the road. I didn't get nervous the other night. I knew I had to focus on every step this horse made because he was green and he was fast and I had to keep it all between my hands."

Willis also noted that the BFA's setup at the Lazy E made the runs seem less overwhelming to the young horses.

"The arena itself was more like going to a barrel race rather than going to the Oklahoma City Coliseum, where colts walk in, look up and get stage fright," she said. "With my colt being a little more green, it helped him stay a little more focused and not get the stage fright. Everyone was sitting by the first barrel and if you got a good first barrel, they kind of screamed up across the pattern instead of making you back off and hit the second."

Willis and Josey's SuperStakes run wasn't perfect, but it was smooth and fast as the gelding kept moving forward rather than upward as some colts do when they get in bind or out of position. "I had some friends text me, 'There's no substitute for speed!'" Willis chuckled. "When they interviewed me right after I ran, I was like the first barrel was OK, the second was like 'Whew' and the third barrel...you can't tell how badly we looped the third. I kept thinking 'Don't hit the second barrel on the way home!' It went through my mind to not run on the outside of the second barrel on the way home. It wasn't a pretty run. It was just fast."

Bred by N.R. Stevenson, Josey is from the second performance age foal crop of AQHA Supreme Champion Fly The Red Eye out of the Jess Louisiana Blue mare Dina Blue. The gelding won on race in his three starts on the track, earning $2,408 and a high speed index of 92. Willis purchased him this past January at the Winter Mixed Sale at Heritage Place in El Reno, Oklahoma, for $6,200.

Willis had owned another Fly The Red Eye that she ended up selling to a local barrel racer, who has done really well with the gelding. The colt's maternal side also appealed to her. Louisiana Senator, sire of her 2018 Old Fort Days Futurity Champion Ryon Rocks, is also by Jess Louisiana Blue.

"That was probably it even more because I always look at the mare side," she said. "The Louisiana Senators just seem to have a lot of sense."

She says that Josey was really laid back for much of his training. "He did everything we asked of him," she said. "He didn't require lots of riding. We'd ride him two or three days a week, take him to the jackpots, exhibition and take him back home and give him a couple of days off. He just didn't take that riding that some of them seem to do. If you want to go long trot around the cow pasture and pony an older horse, he's the one I take. This horse is really good minded."

THE RUNDOWN w/Leslie Willis

The Midnite Express "Josey" 15.2-15.3 hands, 1,100 lbs.-1,200 lbs.

"He's not a giant like most of mine seem to be," said Willis

BIT: Short shank rope nose combination. "I started him in an O-ring, but he felt too round. I put a tiedown on him and he got really scotchky going into his turns. I tuned him with a Stop And Turn. I had to knock the dust of it because it's been a while since I used it. I was scared that with him being as green as he was I would get in trouble with the Stop And Turn and not be able to guide him with it. I put the combination on him hoping that it would have the feel of a rope nose but with the control of a bit."

SADDLE: Older Caldwell with a Talmadge Green tree. "I have tried everything. He's kind of long. I bet I've put 10 different saddles on him, trying to find a comfortable one. I actually took two saddles with me (to Guthrie) because I still wasn't sure."

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Zone

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Cross Fit, polo wraps behind

SHOEING: Special steel rims on front; shod by her husband Jason Willis

FEED: Whole oats with a little Nutrena Safe Choice

HAY: Homegrown winter rye grass hay and a flake of alfalfa a day

SUPPLEMENTS: Cox Vet Lab products

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIME: "I do have to work him on the pattern once or twice a week, just to remind him—"You do have a job." Even then, its jog to the barrel, lope circles around the barrel. It's mainly just to keep him where I can move his shoulders and keep him listening to me."

Dazzling Debut For JessWatchMeStreak and Hallie Hanssen at BFA Juvenile, earn $51,653

By Tanya Randall

JessWatchMeStreak ("Cinnamon") won $51,653 in her competitive debut at the BFA World Championships, held November 18-23 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Trained and ridden by Hallie Hanssen for Dave and Lori Zabel, Cinnamon won money on all three of her trips down the alley. She placed in the Super$takes on her first run, for $8,000, and she placed in both rounds to top the $50,000-added Juvenile with her next two runs, earning $16,043.

Cinnamon and Hanssen also topped the Future Fortunes Juvenile Sires' Slots for $25,000 and won the Future Fortunes Juvenile Bonus for an additional $2,610.

"That's what you hope for," she said. "Actually, we hope for them just to get in there, but for her to go out and do what she did...we were pretty blown away."

Bred by Shawn Letcher and her mother Ranah Sample, Cinnamon is from the first crop of proven performer French Streakin Jess, a stallion bred and raised by Tom and Barb Westover and trained and managed by the Hanssens.

Her dam is Jerrys Tp Seepai BB, by Jerrys Disco Moon, a son of Disco Jerry (TB) that's a half-brother to National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jet A Beam and A Streak Of Fling's dam Moon Fling. Jerrys Tp Seepai BB is out of daughter of Sonny Perks, a son of Dash For Perks that's a three-quarter brother to NFR qualifier Fancy Man Perks.

Letcher was hoping to recreate her favorite, and most successful cross, with A Streak Of Fling on both Disco Jerry and Dash For Perks blood.

The Zabels purchased Cinnamon as a weanling and sent her the Hanssens a little over a year ago. After spending about 90 days with colt starter, James Pease, Cinnamon started her barrel training while wintering with the Hanssens in Texas and Arizona.

"I feel like she really matured over that time," said Hanssen, a multiple aged event champion with more than $1 million in career earnings. "She's trained really easy. She's always wanted to do what I asked her to do."

The only thing that Hanssen question was how ready the mare was for competition. While she admits to not exhibiting her colts as much as some trainers, she felt particularly behind this year due to the extremely wet late spring and summer at her Hermosa, South Dakota, home.

Hanssen was pleasantly surprised how well Cinnamon handled everything even though she had only been exhibited nine times before the Super$takes.

"When I went to warm her up, I was really surprised at how cool and collected she was," she said. "Walking from the barns to warmup pen, she felt really confident and that's how she warmed up."

When I went in there to make my run (in the Super$takes), she took off faster than she'd ever ran to the first barrel. I sometimes feel like in that situation with those colts, they're waiting for you to do something and they react. I just let her go because I didn't want to grab a hold of her and make a mistake. I let her pick her spot and helped her a little bit. She had a really nice second and third. I was really happy with how she handled everything."

The first go of the Juvenile was the following afternoon, and Cinnamon bettered her Super$takes' time of 16.140 to a 15.721, which placed fifth in the round.

"I thought I'd just walk her through the pattern in warmup pen, she how she's handling," Hanssen said. "The whole week I was surprised how well she took everything in. She acted like a pretty confident horse that had been running for a while. She cleaned up her first a little bit in the second run. I got a little out of position going into second and almost hit it on the back side, but she had a really good third."

 CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIME: "For right now, she's going to have some days off and probably just light work. I don't plan on taking her anywhere between here and Oklahoma City. I'm just keep her happy and liking her job. We do a lot just to keep her fit. Where we are in Weatherford, I can't really go ride out on them, but I don't do much barrel work at this point. They might go around the barrels three times a week and that's not going fast. It just doing some slow stuff."

Knowing she was in a good position for a nice average check, Hanssen was shooting for a nice, smooth second-round run. Although it wasn't as fast as their first, Cinnamon made her most solid pass of the event, a 15.809, to take second in the round and win the average.

"I had pretty much told myself that I needed to make a nice smooth run on her, not try to win the go-round or anything," she said. "I felt like she really did that."

Cinnamon's victory made French Streakin Jess the first freshman sire to have a BFA World Champion. The young stallion by A Streak Of Fling, one of the all-time leading barrel horse sires, will also have another colt from his first crop making his debut at the OKC Futurity Slot Race in two weeks with Craig Brooks. Hanssen also has some that will start their careers at the Arizona futurities.

In Mulberry's Memory—SR Industry Titan & Troy Crumrine Win BFA Derby Championship

By Tanya Randall

When Alan Moorhead announced that the great Mulberry Canyon Moon had passed on Thursday, November 21, her 6-year-old son SR Industry Titan, owned by Nick and Tom Wylie, automatically became a sentimental favorite to win the $20,000-added Derby at the BFA World Championships, held November 18-23 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Guided by $3 million-dollar rider Troy Crumrine, Titan thrilled the crowd with a spectacular 15.072 in the Finals to capture the Derby Championship and $8,284. Their time was the second fastest time of the entire event and was one of only two 15.0's run all week.

"He's been working really good. We run him the first go and happened to make a nice run, so I didn't have to run him back in the second go round," said Crumrine. They won the first round with a 15.246. "I was towards the end (in the Finals), so I kind of knew what kind of time I needed. I knew it would take a .3 to take the lead and I knew with him as long as he was firing to that first barrel, a lot of times that will carry him through."

The run was flawless, save for a slight slip at the first that never fazed Titan.

"When he popped my butt two feet out of the saddle in the alleyway, I knew he was going to be running. He worked amazing. I think there was an .0 earlier in the week. Any time you can run an .0, .1, .2 and .3, those are damn nice runs. I was tickled to death he run an .0 in the Finals. He worked his butt off. He stayed really true and waited on me and did his job."

While his turning style is much like his mother's—running straight into the hole and delivering a wicked whip on the backside—Crumrine said Titan is much freer up into the turn than his mother was.

"He won't shut you down going into a turn like she would," he said. "If he's going to catch one, nine times out of 10, it's going to be on the backside. It's not going to be going into one. He's pretty honest."

Sired by champion sire Firewaterontherocks, Titan was bred by Schiller Ranch as a embryo purchase from Matt and Bendi Dunn, who appear as the colt's breeders on his papers. He was sold as yearling back to Dunns, who purchased him in November 2014 at the Texas Best Sale for $25,000.

He was started under saddle by Paul Cain and began his barrel training with Jolene Montgomery. The Dunns sold him to the Wylies as a 3-year-old via the 2016 LG Pro Classic Sale, where he was one of the year's highest sellers, changing hands for $61,500.

Titan has spent the rest of his career with Crumrine in the saddle, except for the brief period when his jockey recovered from a broken ankle. The stallion's lifetime earnings surpass $120,000. He'll make his last derby run at the OKC Derby in two weeks and then likely finish his current competitive run with RFD-TV's The American before returning to Dunn Ranch for stud duty.

Crumrine wanted to thank the Wylies for the opportunity to ride Titan as well as the Dunns and Schiller Ranch for creating him.

BARREL RACING REPORT

get it.

Champion Performer & Producer Mulberry Canyon Moon Passes at 16

One of the barrel racing industry's all-time greats in and out of the arena, Mulberry Canyon Moon passed away on November 21 due to complications from colic. She was just 16.

"I don't know how to explain it," said Bendi Dunn, who owned the great mare with her husband Matt. "We've been through a lot of things and I can't put into words how hard it's been. It's like losing a person."

In a strange twist of fate, Mulberry was visited by many of the people whose lives she impacted the most. Many of them were present to say their goodbyes when she finished her final race. Dunn said she was forever grateful for the people that Mulberry brought into their lives.

"That was the biggest thing, we got to meet so many people because of her," she said. "She gave us the connections to get these other great mares and breed to great stallions. It takes an army to do all of this. We will be forever thankful for all the people that made it all work."

Mulberry changed the lives of many, and it was due to her that the Dunns became heavily involved in the barrel racing, and now horse racing industries.

"The friends that we've made and the changes we've made in our lives was 100 percent because of her," she said. "There is nothing else. We will be forever grateful for her. There would never be a Dunn Ranch or another animal—she's what led us to everything."

Bred by Pam Gerhart, Mulberry was purchased by Michael Boone as 2-year-old and jockeyed by Troy Crumrine during her aged event career.

As a performer, Mulberry ran out more than $400,000 in career. With Crumrine, she was the 2007 Leading Futurity Horse. Some of her many championship include the LG Pro Classic Slot Futurity, Run For The Bucks Open Slot Race, All-American Quarter Horse Congress Sweepstakes and Old Fort Days Derby.

The Dunn's purchased Mulberry early in her first derby year as a 5-year-old.

"Matt was in Memphis and saw Troy go through on her when she was a 3-year-old," Dunn recalled. "We watched her all through her futurity year. Then it was the craziest thing, her ad came up on BarrelHorseWorld.com. Matt called and talked to Michael Boone and we got her bought."

The Dunns continued to run Mulberry through her aged event career and then turned the mare over to Angie Meadors, who qualified for the National Finals Rodeo twice. Their career was highlighted by three round wins in 2010.

Mulberry was known for her gritty, determined nature. One thing that sticks out in Dunn's mind is how the mare came back from a severe battle with pigeon fever to run at the NFR.

"We think she got sick at Denver," Dunn recalled. "She was in ICU at Elgin (Veterinary Hospital in Texas) for 35 days. Any other horse would have died, but she got through it. I remember we were thinking about all she went through during the year to be running at the NFR."

It was under the Dunn's ownership that Mulberry began building a legacy in the breeding shed. Jud Little and Dee Braman were among the first to buy embryos of the daughter of Marthas Six Moons out of De Streaker, by Osage Streaker (TB).

"We sold them for a few years and then we got financially to where we quit," Dunn said. "When we got to where we could afford not to (sell embryos) it just made smart business sense because they were worth so much."

Mulberry was a blue-hen mare, meaning she produced winners when bred to several different stallions. One of the all-time leading dams in the industry, her current offspring have earnings rapidly approaching $500,000. Among her leading offspring are MCM ImaSharpGuy ("Sharpie"), by A Sharp Frenchman, who is headed to the 2019 NFR with Stevi Hillman; 2019 BFA Derby Champion SR Industry Titan, by FireWaterOnTheRocks; multiple futurity finalist and pro rodeo money earner OverTheMoonForAGuy, by Frenchmans Guy, and two-time reserve futurity champion Mulberry Ta Fame, by Dash Ta Fame, just to name a few.

The Dunns are expecting a Tres Seis out of Mulberry this coming spring. Sharpie is the oldest that they own. Crumrine is currently riding two of their 3-year-olds, one by A Streak Of Fling and the other by BHR Frenchies Socks. Jolene Montgomery has a 2-year-old A Streak Of Fling in training for the Dunns. They also have a yearling Fire Water Flit filly and a weanling filly by A Sharp Frenchman.

Dunn said the weanling A Sharp Frenchman filly is probably her favorite right now.

"She's big and gray," she said. "Sharpie's been so special, so I was really exciting to get a filly."

Dunn said there are seven studs out of Mulberry currently standing at stud and that number will increase to eight as another comes of age.

"Her name could be on papers for years and years to come," she said. "Everything we own, we're going to work our butts off to prove those babies and get them in the best hands."

Dunn elected to have the great mare cremated. Some of her ashes will be kept in an urn, while the remainder will be buried at the family farm in Missouri.

The Barrel Racing Report would like to extend our condolences to the whole Mulberry Canyon Moon family she brought together...she was a very special mare and her legacy will be part of barrel racing for many years to come...*

A Streak Of Fling Geldings Top BFA World Sale

By Tanya Randall

Two 3-year-old geldings by Equi-Stat No. 4 All-Time Leading Barrel Horse Sire A Streak Of Fling topped the BFA World Championship Select Sale, held November 21, at the Lazy E Arena, in Guthrie, Oklahoma. Both horses were owned by Fred Lenertz of St. Paul, Minnesota and consigned by RNR Performance Horses.

HoustonStreakinFirst, out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Dash Ta Houston, sold to Katelyn Rathbun of Colorado for $45,000. He is a full brother to SC Streakin N Famous, an earner of $9,659. The bay gelding was ridden by Nicole Ratkowski to a 16.185 for a Top 40 finish in the first go of the BFA Juvenile Futurity the afternoon prior to the sale.

The first horse to walk through the ring, Paddys Streakin Moon, out of Paddys Lena Whiskey, by Paddys Irish Whiskey, sold to Johnathan Edwards of Ontario, Canada, for $34,000. The bay roan gelding is a full sibling to two earners of more than $11,000 in Equi-Stat. His granddam is Easy April Lena, an National Finals Rodeo producer and full sister to an NFR qualifier. He is eligible for the 2020 futurities.

Another Juvenile entry, KN G Babys Fabulous was the third choice amongst bidders, commanding $25,000 bid from Lacey Scott of Alabama. Consigned by William Hommertzhaim, KN G Babys Fabulous was trained and ridden by Lacey Harmon. The bay mare, by leading sire Frenchmans Fabulous out of Strategizing, by Special Task, ran a 16.113 in the first go of the Juvenile but caught a barrel.

The Johnny Kight consignment, MT'S Fast Edy Stinson, was the fourth choice, selling for $22,750 to Brad Lieblong of Arkansas. The 2-year-old bay filly is by leading sire Eddie Stinson out of the Scrutinizer mare Enticingly Fast.

Rounding out the top five high sellers was the Cinder Lakes Ranch consignment Blazin Benjamins, selling to Kerby Montgomery of Texas for $17,000. The yearling, bay colt is by leading sire JL Dash Ta Heaven and is the first foal for Blazin Jet Naked, a pro rodeo money-earning daughter of leading sire Blazin Jetolena.

Overall, 55 horses were consigned with all walking through the ring for a sale's gross of $811,050. With 43 (78 percent) changing hands, the sale netted $496,550 for an average price of $11,548. The median price, the half-way point between the highest and lowest sellers, was $9,500.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's Thanksgiving week, in case you didn't know. LOL! Are you prepared? After all, there's a good chance that you may be spending the day with your LEAST favorite aunt, uncle, brother, sister or neighbor. Sigh.

We all have them. Someone in our life that just rubs us the wrong way! In our heart we know that we are to love them. Accept them. Appreciate them. Who thinks up that stuff?

I just want to CONFRONT! I don't know why. Some want to keep their distance. Others will just skip Thanksgiving all together. BUT GOD! I reckon He has an answer on how to get along with "those people". He does. It's called the love walk and He shows us in GREAT DETAIL how to do it. Ready?

I Cor. 13:4-8. "Love endures long and is patient and kind; love never is envious nor boils over with jealousy, is not boastful or vain-glorious, does not display itself haughtily. It is not conceited, arrogant and inflated with pride; it is not rude, unmannerly and does not act unbecomingly. Love does not insist on its own rights or its own way, for it is not self-seeking; it is not touchy or fretful or resentful; it takes no account of the evil done to it; it pays not attention to a suffered wrong. It does not rejoice at injustice and unrighteousness, but rejoices when right and truth prevail. Love bears up under anything and everything that comes, is ever ready to believe the best of every person, its hopes are fadeless under all circumstances, and it endures everything without weakening. Love never fails."

My friends, that's how we are going to do it! May God bless you and your Thanksgiving holiday!
